However, she was different; she was unable to reconcile with Chu Feng. Thus, she was feeling an enormous headache. After all, Chu Feng's backing was simply too frightening.

It was as if there was an insurmountable mountain blocking the path between her and Chu Feng. That mountain caused her to be at a complete loss as for what to do.

At the moment when those experts were pondering how to amend their relationship with Chu Feng, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had already left the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. "Chu Feng, who was that old monk? He seems to be very powerful," Zhao Hong asked. "T-that's right, brother. I t-truly never expected t-that you had a-actually found such a backer. No w-wonder you were so c-calm f-facing those hypocrites," Wang Qiang had an excited expression. After all, they had nearly suffered a calamity earlier.

“That senior and I only met a couple times. I do not know him very well. I am extremely surprised that he was willing to help save us.”

“I feel that he will not continue to protect me forever. Thus, we cannot place our hopes on him saving us again. In the future, it is best that we rely on ourselves,” Chu Feng said.

Although Chu Feng was unable to detect that old monk’s whereabouts, Chu Feng felt that the old monk had already left. He felt that what the old monk said earlier was merely meant to scare the crowd. He did not plan to protect Chu Feng forever.

“It is better to rely on oneself than to rely on others. What Chu Feng says is very true,” Zhao Hong said approvingly. “The news of us obtaining Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance will soon be spread. Likely, there will be a lot of people that will come to attack us. We must be extremely careful,” Chu Feng said. “But, w-we can’t c-continue to h-hide forever,” Wang Qiang said.

“Of course. We must still do what we ought to do,” Chu Feng said.

“Then, let’s go and find the treasures left behind by Grandmaster Kai Hong. Perhaps they might be of help to us,” Zhao Hong said.

“W-which p-place first?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Mine is extremely difficult. As for Chu Feng’s, it seems to be even more difficult. After all, our relationship with the Kong Heavenly Clan is not good right now.”

“Thus, let’s go and obtain yours first,” Zhao Hong said to Wang Qiang.

“Brother, w-what do you t-think?” Wang Qiang asked Chu Feng.

“I agree with Zhao Hong,” Chu Feng said.

“T-then, it’s d-decided,” Wang Qiang smiled.

Then, Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang began to proceed toward the Drought Demon's Damned Pond.

Although the Drought Demon's Damned Pond was not as dangerous as the Phoenix Flame City, it still remained one of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's forbidden areas.

Chapter 2359 – Razed To The Ground

Ying Heavenly Clan. The most sacred palace. A place that could contain several millions of people.

At that moment, not only were the many experts from the Ying Heavenly Clan gathered here, there were also a total of five tier two powers' headmasters and many other experts present.

Among the five tier two powers, two were among the comparatively more powerful tier two powers like the Ying Heavenly Clan.

As for the remaining three tier two powers, although they were inferior to the Ying Heavenly Clan, they were only slightly weaker. Thus, their strength was also not to be looked down upon.

These five tier two powers were all allies to the Ying Heavenly Clan. They were currently gathered here for a common purpose — to assist the Ying Heavenly Clan in taking care of Chu Feng.

At that moment, they had unanimously reached an agreement and entered a coalition.

Thus, at that moment, all of the Ying Heavenly Clan's clansmen, including the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, were feeling very complacent.

The reason for that was because they had not invited their allies over for the sake of taking care of Chu Feng. Most importantly, they had invited their allies over to take care of the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, who had declared their support for Chu Feng.

To the people of the Ying Heavenly Clan, they believed that regardless of how powerful the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall might be, they would undoubtedly be defeated by their current alliance.

Thus, at that moment, the Ying Heavenly Clan was going to prove to the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that no one, not even the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, would be able to protect someone that their Ying Heavenly Clan wanted to take care of.

“Lord Clan Chief, this subordinate has an urgent report!!!” Right at that moment, a Ying Heavenly Clan’s elder hurriedly rushed in.

“How could you act this flustered before our honored guests?!” Seeing that elder’s flustered expression, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was annoyed.

“Lord Clan Chief, the people we dispatched to the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds have returned.”

“According to our reliable sources, both groups dispatched by our Ying Heavenly Clan encountered Chu Feng,” That elder said.

“Encountered Chu Feng? Then, did they manage to capture him alive?” Upon hearing the name Chu Feng, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief immediately stood up from his seat. The expressions of the others present also changed. They all turned their gazes to that elder. “No,” That elder shook his head. “No?!” “There were so many people. Yet, they were unable to even capture a person from the younger generation? Trash! Utterly useless trash!”

“Where are they?! Call them over! I shall personally reprimand them! They have truly disgraced our Ying Heavenly Clan!” Sure enough, upon hearing the report, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief immediately revealed a furious expression.

“Lord Clan Chief, they... they have already died,” That elder said.

“What? Died?” Hearing those words, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief and the others present were all stunned. Surprise filled their eyes.

To them, the fact that the experts dispatched by the Ying Heavenly Clan had failed to capture Chu Feng was already extremely unreasonable. Yet now, how could they all be dead? “Was it the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall?” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked. The way he saw it, it could only be the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall that would kill the people from their Ying Heavenly Clan in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. “No, they were killed by Chu Feng,” The reporting elder said.

“Chu Feng? They were killed by Chu Feng?!!!” At that moment, the crowd were even more astonished. “Lord Clan Chief, that Chu Feng seems to have obtained a spirit formation in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. That spirit formation greatly increased his strength to a degree not to be looked down upon.”

“Furthermore, according to reliable sources, the remnants in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds were indeed Grandmaster Kai Hong’s remnants. As for the person who managed to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance, it too was Chu Feng,” That elder said.

“Chu Feng actually obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance?!”

“How could that be? Weren’t experts from the Zhou Heavenly Clan, Kong Heavenly Clan, Immortal Sword School and Buddha’s Heavenly Temple there?” “With that many experts, how could a member of the younger generation snatch away the inheritance?”

At that moment, it was not only the crowd from the Ying Heavenly Clan that were unable to sit tight, even the five allied powers that the Ying Heavenly Clan had invited over were unable to sit tight. One by one, they began to whisper in each other’s ears and wag their tongues. In fact, many of the people present did not believe the reporting elder’s words to be true. “How reliable is this news?” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“Reliable, absolutely reliable. Reportedly, apart from Chu Feng, two other individuals obtained the inheritance with him. Those two individuals are Chu Feng's friends. Furthermore, they are both from the younger generation as well."

"Currently, Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance and all of the treasures are in their hands," That reporting elder said.

"Truly, never would I have expected that Chu Feng to obtain such unexpected success," Upon saying those words, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief revealed a strange smile. Then, he burst into joyous laughter.

"Brother Ying, why are you suddenly this happy?" Someone asked curiously.

"That Chu Feng is someone that we planned to take care of. As long as we can capture him, Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance and treasures will all be ours," The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

"While that might be the case, news of this matter has already spread. Likely, it will not only be us who want to take care of Chu Feng." "Likely, a lot of people are already planning to take care of Chu Feng. Furthermore, those four tier one powers will most likely not let Chu Feng get away either. After all, Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance and treasures are no small matter," Someone said worriedly.

"If that's the case, wouldn't it be even better? While we are able to suppress the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall by joining hands, it remains that we will suffer some casualties should we attack them."

"However, if the four tier one powers were to act, any one of them would be able to completely crush the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall," The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said. "Ingenious, truly ingenious!" After hearing what the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said, the crowd came to a sudden realization.

“The Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall have taken a fancy to Chu Feng’s potential and decided to protect him regardless of what price they must pay.”

“Yet, that Chu Feng actually snatched away Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance and treasures. Although this might appear to be that Chu Feng being skillful, it remains that he is but a member of the younger generation. Thus, what he has done is a gargantuan sin. He has provoked an enormous calamity.”

“I truly wonder. Once this news spreads to the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, will they continue to protect that Chu Feng?”

“I truly want to see what sort of expression they will have. Hahahaha!!!” At that moment, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, the five headmasters and the many management elders all burst into loud laughter.

The way they saw it, Chu Feng had provoked an enormous disaster. There would be countless individuals that would want to take care of Chu Feng. Thus, there was simply no need for them to act, as someone else would take care of Chu Feng for them. They felt like they would be able to win this battle without even fighting.

However, right at the moment when the crowd were overjoyed and loudly laughing, the expression of the elder who arrived to report the news turned increasingly ugly. He seemed to want to say something, but didn’t dare to say it.

However, in the end, he clenched his teeth, summoned up his courage and spoke with a trembling voice, “Lord Clan Chief, Lord Headmasters, I fear that we cannot touch Chu Feng.” “What? Ying Hang, what sort of nonsense are you spouting?!” Hearing those words, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was immediately furious. As he spoke, the space around him started to tremble.

“Putt~~~”

Seeing this, the reporting elder immediately knelt on the ground. He said, “Lord Clan Chief, we have not only received news from the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds today, we have also received letters from the four tier one powers.” “Letters from the four tier one powers?” At that moment, the crowd were surprised once again.

“In fact, it is not only letters from the four tier one powers.”

“We have also received letters from some of the old monsters that have not bothered with the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s worldly affairs for a very long time,” As that reporting elder said those words, he was sweating profusely. As he spoke, he took out many letters from his sleeve.

Merely from the outer appearance of the letters, one could tell that those letters were from different sources. Most importantly, four among the pile of letters were indeed from the four tier one powers.

Apart from the four tier one powers, the other letters also contained the names or marks of their senders. It was as that elder had said, the senders of those letters were all extraordinary people. It was true that they were all renowned old monsters of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Even without mentioning the four tier one powers, merely those old monsters were all individuals that the Ying Heavenly Clan could not afford to offend.

“We generally have very little contact with those people. Why would they suddenly send letters to us?” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief started to frown. He felt that with how strange things were today, it most likely wouldn’t amount to something good.

“The contents of the letters are roughly the same. Merely, what they state is something that this subordinate does not dare say,” that reporting elder said as he wiped away his sweat repeatedly.

“What are the contents. Speak frankly,” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief urged.

“That’s right, tell us immediately,” The five tier two powers’ headmasters also started to urge that elder. They all wanted to know what the four tier one powers and those old monsters wanted.

“They have declared that we are not to touch Chu Feng again.” “If we insist on becoming Chu Feng’s enemy, they will raze our Ying Heavenly Clan to the ground,” The reporting elder said.

“What?!!!” Hearing those words, not to mention the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, even the others present were all stunned. Some among them were so startled by the news that they fell onto their butts.

Chapter 2360 – Becoming Famous

---

The remnant in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds was Grandmaster Kai Hong's remnant.

Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had become the people who had obtained the inheritance of Grandmaster Kai Hong.

Not long after news of this matter spread, the four tier one powers, leading various other powers with them, all made announcements that they would protect Chu Feng. Should anyone dare to touch Chu Feng, it would mean that they would be making an enemy out of them.

When news of those two grand events spread, it immediately caused the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm to burst into an uproar.

If the previous Chu Feng was only slightly renowned, then the current Chu Feng was, without a doubt, one of the most famous individuals in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

After all, Chu Feng had currently obtained a new title. He had become the successor of Grandmaster Kai Hong.

Many people felt that Chu Feng might be the existence that would surpass Young Master Li Ming, that he would be the most dazzling genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

In fact, it was not only Chu Feng, as Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had also caught the attention of the crowd. The crowd felt that the two of them were no small matter, and that they must possess enormous backgrounds too.

In fact, many people began to investigate the identities of Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

That being said, at the moment when the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm were wildly discussing this matter, the main characters of the discussion, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, simply did not know about what was happening.

The three of them had proceeded for the Drought Demon's Damned Pond after departing from the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds that day.

The Drought Demon's Damned Pond was a forbidden area. Due to the special characteristic of that place, it was desolate and devoid of human activity. In fact, it could even be said that very few living things could be seen there.

In fact, it was not only the Drought Demon's Damned Pond that was devoid of life, even the area surrounding the Drought Demon's Damned Pond possessed very few people. It was a forgotten land. If it wasn't for the coincidence that the Hundred Refinements Stage was constructed in that region, it was likely that no one would ever go there.

As a result, no one would go to spread the news in that region even if something major were to happen in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

As Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were proceeding toward the direction of the Drought Demon's Damned Pond, they would naturally not have heard about the recent news.

"Husband, husband, I suddenly recalled something."

Suddenly, an extremely gentle and pleasant-sounding voice sounded from Zhao Hong's mouth. Once that voice was heard, Chu Feng's expression immediately changed. Then, he turned his gaze to Zhao Hong. When Chu Feng saw Zhao Hong's shy appearance, he revealed a sympathetic smile. Then, he turned his sympathetic gaze to Wang Qiang. Sure enough, Wang Qiang's complexion had turned blue. He was sweating cold bullets from fear. Cautiously, he asked Zhao Hong, "W-wife, w-what sort of t-trick d-do you have in mind t-this time? C-can you n-not bully me?"

Actually, Wang Qiang's response was understandable. The reason for that was because Zhao Hong had abused Wang Qiang many times on their way here. The two of them had been arguing with one another repeatedly on their journey. Although Wang Qiang was a stutterer, his mouth was not to be reckoned with. Thus, Zhao Hong was truly no match for Wang Qiang in terms of quarreling.

Every time Zhao Hong was unable to win against Wang Qiang in their quarrel, she would begin to use force. As for Wang Qiang, he naturally ended up suffering by her hands.

However, Wang Qiang just so happened to be unable to control his mouth. He would end up refuting Zhao Hong every single time. Last time around, he was oppressed relatively miserably. As such, he had managed to learn from his previous mistakes, and would always nod silently regardless of how much Zhao Hong tried to pick a quarrel with him.

Zhao Hong's sudden gentleness was simply too strange. This deeply frightened Wang Qiang. "Of course not. I merely suddenly recalled one thing," Zhao Hong said with a beaming smile.

"Wha-what is it?" Wang Qiang asked with trembling fear.

"Husband, let's set up a Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation on one another!" Zhao Hong said.

"W-what? S-soul-linking S-spirit Formation Incantation?"

"W-why a-are w-we to suddenly s-set up a Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation? D-do y-you know how scary that is?!!!" Hearing what Zhao Hong said, Wang Qiang immediately opened his mouth wide.

Even Chu Feng started to frown, and his heart started to tighten.

What was a Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation? It was akin to a kind of curse created using world spirit techniques. It was a very powerful spirit formation. It was not something that ordinary people could set up, nor was it something that ordinary people knew of. It was a sort of spirit formation that only Immortal-cloak World Spiritists could set up.

Furthermore, it was a sort of spirit formation that had been lost for a very long time. Likely, very few people knew of that spirit formation in the world.

Even for Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, they only knew about that spirit formation from Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance, because it was one of the many spirit formations from the inheritance.

As for the so-called Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation, it required someone to make an oath. Upon making the oath, the Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation would go into effect and take the form of a character. That character would then attack one's soul.

If the person who had a Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation placed on them decided to violate their oath, the spirit formation curse would activate. In less serious cases, their souls would be shattered from the spirit formation curse and they would die. In more serious cases, they would not die, but instead go insane and live a life more miserable than death, forever tormented by that spirit formation curse.

And now, Zhao Hong wanted to set up such a frightening thing on Wang Qiang. How could Chu Feng not be startled by it?

"Zhao Hong, don't fool around. That sort of thing is not to be fooled around with," Out of consideration for the safety of Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, Chu Feng spoke to advise against it.

"Chu Feng, I bet you don't understand. Although the Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation is dangerous, one will not suffer its punishments as long as one does not go against one's oath."

"Wouldn't this be great to constrain my husband and I?

Unless...” As Zhao Hong spoke, she looked to Wang Qiang, “... unless you will be unfaithful towards me.”

Wang Qiang summoned up his courage and asked, “H-how could I? G-go ahead, t-tell me what s-sort of o-oath I must make.”

“It’s very simple. My demand is not high. When I am setting up the Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation on you, you merely need to say...”

“Wife, I will love only you for eternity. My heart will never change. I will be good to you forever. Every night, I will wash your feet all the way till old age.”

“If you beat me, I won’t fight back. If you scold me, I won’t answer back. I will also make delicious food for you and accompany you till the ends of the world. I will bring you to see all the beautiful sceneries in the world. If I am unable to accomplish that, I will break my hands and break my legs. I shall have no descendants. In the end, I shall be split into pieces with my head buried in cow manure, unable to reincarnate for eternity,” Zhao hong said excitedly.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng started to frown. The reason for that was because he knew that Wang Qiang had wanted to escape Zhao Hong the entire time, that he simply did not like Zhao Hong at all. If Wang Qiang were to make that sort of oath, he would undoubtedly die.

At that moment, Chu Feng started to sigh in his heart. He thought to himself that this Zhao Hong was truly ruthless. She actually wanted to force Wang Qiang to make such a ruthless oath. If Wang Qiang was to make that oath, his life would truly be inferior to death.

When Chu Feng was already feeling that way, Wang Qiang’s expression would naturally be even uglier. However, Wang Qiang pretended to be calm and asked, “You w-want me to m-make such a r-ruthless oath. It’s n-not that I can’t do it, but can you do it ?”

In response, Zhao Hong's eyes narrowed. Then, she smiled complacently and said, "I'll leave behind only one word, yes!!!"

"Yes?" Hearing that word, Wang Qiang's face immediately turned fiery red. Then, he looked to Zhao Hong and shouted, "Get the fuck out of here."

"You... you dare curse at me? You have truly grown tired of living," Zhao Hong shouted at Wang Qiang. Then, she grabbed Wang Qiang, who had been planning to escape.

After that, screams began to sound from Wang Qiang's mouth nonstop.

Although Zhao Hong was angry, she was not ruthless in her attacks. Thus, her beating of Wang Qiang was within his ability to endure. She did not really bring harm to him.

Furthermore, even though Wang Qiang was captured by Zhao Hong, she did not force him to make that vicious oath and set up the Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation. From this, it could be seen that Zhao Hong's words earlier were only meant to toy with Wang Qiang.

Although his brother was being tormented, the smile on Chu Feng's face grew wider and wider.

Although the one being bullied had always been Wang Qiang, Chu Feng felt that those two buffoons were quite a match for one another after seeing their interactions throughout their journey.

"Mn?"

Right at the moment when Chu Feng turned his gaze downward, his gaze suddenly changed.

According to the information that they'd gathered on their way here, the Drought Demon's Damned Pond should be right ahead. That should be a place without life.

However, at that moment, a large group of people had appeared ahead of them. Many among them were people of the younger generation. However, there was no lack of experts among them. In fact, many of those people ahead possessed strength superior to Chu Feng's.

Chapter 2361 – Battle Power Capable Of Surmounting Four Levels Of Cultivation

“Eh. This is truly strange. Why would so many trash from many big clans be here?” Zhao Hong revealed a suspicious gaze.

The reason for Zhao Hong’s reaction was because the outfits of those people from the younger generation showed that they possessed extraordinary status. Not only were there disciples from powerful tier two powers, there were also disciples from the four tier one powers among them.

As for those people of the younger generation that were not wearing distinctive clothing, their cultivations were also generally pretty good. Likely, they too were people with backgrounds.

“T-this bunch w-with special b-backgrounds, e-even though they generally have bad m-moral quality, i-it remains t-that they possess a special a-advantage. T-that is, t-they possess g-good backgrounds, w-which provides them w-with more re-resources than others.”

“F-for t-them to be here f-for no reason or cause, t-there must be s-some sort of shenanigans,” Wang Qiang said as he narrowed his eyes while staring at that group of people.

The intention behind his words was very clear. He felt that it was not an ordinary younger generation’s gathering for that bunch to be gathered in that place. It was very possible that they had come to search for something.

“As for exactly what sort of shenanigan they might be conducting, wouldn’t we know if we listened?” Chu Feng said.

Although the overall strength of that group of people from the younger generation was quite strong, and a few among them were stronger than Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, it remained that Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were Immortal-cloak World

Spiritists.

Not only were they unable to detect Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, Chu Feng and the others were able to observe their each and every action, and hear all of their conversations. “Zhao Yu, is that news reliable? If we are to enter and it turns out that there’s nothing there at all, I will take away your little life,” From among the crowd, a two-meter-tall grave and stern-looking man spoke coldly to a thin man in the group. This robust and stern-looking man was wearing the outfit of the Kong Heavenly Clan. Although that man had a youthful appearance, Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were able to tell with a single glance that he was over a hundred years old. Strictly speaking, he was no longer a person of the younger generation.

That said, that man was only a bit over a hundred years old, and far from two hundred years old. Thus, it was no wonder that he would be hanging out with those other people of the younger generation. Likely, both him and those people he was with felt that he was still a member of the younger generation.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that that man’s strength was not weak. Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were able to clearly sense that this man was a rank one Martial Ancestor.

“Big brother Kong Cheng, how could I-I dare to deceive you? It is absolutely true. I would absolutely not dare to deceive you,” That man by the name of Zhao Yu revealed an expression of absolute humility and fear toward that rank one Martial Ancestor Kong Cheng.

This could not be blamed on him. After all, this man by the name of Zhao Yu was the one with the weakest cultivation among the bunch; he was only a rank two Half Martial Ancestor. Not to mention the rank one Martial Ancestor Kong Cheng, practically anyone in the group would be able to beat him into submission.

“Very well. Describe the appearances of those two women again so that we can find them.”

“Remember, if you dare to deceive us, we will definitely not let you off so easily,” Kong Cheng said.

“I wouldn’t dare, I definitely wouldn’t dare,” That Zhao Yu said while trembling with fear. Then, he began to describe the appearances of the two women to the crowd.

It must be said that while this fellow by the name of Zhao Yu did not possess a strong level of cultivation, he was very proficient in describing someone’s appearance.

His descriptions were so vivid and realistic that even just by hearing them, the crowd felt as if they could see the appearances of the two women.

“B-brother,” At that moment, astonishment filled Wang Qiang’s eyes. Unable to help himself, he looked to Chu Feng.

As for Chu Feng, his gaze was much more complicated than Wang Qiang’s. He turned around and said to Zhao Hong with a very serious tone, “Zhao Hong, if I were to ask you to take care of that fellow by the name of Kong Cheng, would you be able to deal with him?”

“Rest assured, I am absolutely certain that I will be able to subdue him,” Zhao Hong smiled confidently. Then, with a joking tone, she said, “Chu Feng, you couldn’t possibly have taken a fancy to those two women just by hearing their descriptions?”

Chu Feng did not care about Zhao Hong’s joke. Instead, he said, “If possible, watch my back. I have some questions that I wish to ask that Zhao Yu.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he suddenly revealed himself, and began to fly toward that group of people. In the end, he landed before that Zhao Yu.

“Who is it?!” The sudden arrival of a person that landed among them caused that group of people to be startled.

After all, their current location was within the Drought Demon's Damned Pond's surroundings. A place like that was a place that people would not appear at all year-long. And if someone dared to visit, they would definitely not be individuals to be trifled with. Chu Feng ignored the questioning of the crowd. He directly grabbed that man by the name of Zhao Yu and asked, "Where did you see those two women?" A young man of the Kong Heavenly Clan with the cultivation of rank six Half Martial Ancestor pointed at Chu Feng's nose and shouted, "Hey! Damned bastard, exactly who are you?! I am asking you a question here!"

"Woosh, woosh~~~"

However, right at that moment, two more figures descended from the sky. Like bodyguards, they stood at Chu Feng's side.

Naturally, the two of them were Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

The crowd was still relatively fine with Wang Qiang's appearance. Even if he possessed a cultivation that surpassed Chu Feng's, it remained that he was only a rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

However, Zhao Hong's appearance was no small matter. After all, she was a rank one Martial Ancestor. "All of you, shut up!" Zhao Hong cast her cold gaze at the crowd. At the same time, her rank one Martial Ancestor's oppressive might swept forth.

"Huu~~~" Her powerful oppressive might was unstoppable. Other than that man by the name of Kong Cheng, the rest of the people present were all knocked flying by the oppressive might. When they landed on the ground, those with less severe cases were bleeding from their noses, whereas those with more serious cases had fainted away.

Zhao Hong's actions could be said to be extremely ruthless. She truly spared no-one. Even though she was only threatening the crowd, she still left them injured.

“Martial Ancestor. S-s-she’s a Martial Ancestor?”

At that moment, those people that were knocked flying all revealed frightened expressions. After all, they were all only Half Martial Ancestors. To them, the Martial Ancestor realm was an insurmountable summit. “You dare attack my people? Do you know who we are?” Kong Cheng asked coldly.

“I don’t care who you are. I’m telling you to shut up so you’d best shut up. If you spout superfluous words again, I will tear your damned mouth apart,” Zhao Hong said.

“Truly courting death! Did you really think that you, a mere rank one Martial Ancestor, would be able to contend against me?!” Kong Cheng revealed a furious look.

“A mere Heavenly Bloodline possessor, why wouldn’t I dare to contend against you?” Zhao Hong said in a disapproving manner.

“Mere Heavenly Bloodline possessor? What arrogance! I shall have you understand how powerful a Heavenly Bloodline is!!!” Kong Cheng was furious. As he spoke, he shot forth a punch directly at Zhao Hong.

His punch was no small matter. The power of the punch so strong that he was simply trying to take Zhao Hong’s life.

While his cultivation was only that of a rank one Martial Ancestor, he possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation. Thus, to be exact, the strength of his punch was on par with an ordinary rank five Martial Ancestor’s attack.

However, facing that punch, Zhao Hong only smiled lightly. She lightly swung her sleeves, and a strong wind immediately shot forth. Just like that, she easily blocked that punch. At that moment, not to mention the others, even that Kong Heavenly Clansman revealed a shocked expression.

“You actually also possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation?”

“You’re also a possessor of Heavenly Bloodline?” Kong Cheng asked in astonishment.

The reason for that was because a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation was the symbol of Heavenly Bloodline possessors. Furthermore... only when one’s cultivation reached Martial Ancestor, and one’s Heavenly Bloodline’s Nine Divine Lightnings fused into one, would one’s battle power reach a level capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation.

Before reaching the Martial Ancestor realm, they generally only possessed heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

At that moment, that Zhao Hong actually possessed the same heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation. Thus, the crowd felt that the only possible explanation would be that she was also a Heavenly Bloodline possessor.

However, who would’ve expected that Zhao Hong would snort disdainfully when that Kong Cheng asked whether or not she was a Heavenly Bloodline possessor. With an expression of contempt, Zhao Hong said, “Humph, Heavenly Bloodline?”

“Your mother, I, do not have it, nor do I care for it either.”

Chapter 2362 – Zhao Hong Revealing Her Might

“What arrogance. I will have you die here.”

Zhao Hong’s insult toward Heavenly Bloodlines once again angered that Kong Cheng.

With a furious shout from Kong Cheng, surging lightning began to emit from his body. The nine colored lightnings began to interweave with one another, forming a dazzling armor of lightning on his body. At the same time, the lightning began to sprout a pair of wings on his back.

The Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings were the symbol of Heavenly Bloodline possessors. Once the two of them were unleashed, one’s cultivation would instantly increase by two levels.

At that moment, that Kong Cheng’s aura was no longer that of a rank one Martial Ancestor. Instead, it was that of a rank three Martial Ancestor. Adding on his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, and his strength was now on par with ordinary rank seven Martial Ancestors. “Ignorant bastard. You dare look down on us Heavenly Bloodline possessors? Do you not know how powerful our Heavenly Bloodline is now?” “Did you really think that just because your cultivation was the same as our big brother Kong Cheng’s that you would be able to contend against our big brother Kong Cheng?” “Ignorant fool! Our Heavenly Bloodline is the greatest bloodline in the world. Even if you possess the same level of cultivation, you are still a powerless ant when before a Heavenly Bloodline possessor. You will not be able to withstand a single blow.” At that moment, before Kong Cheng could say anything, that rank six Half Martial Ancestor-level young man from the Kong Heavenly Clan shouted complacently. At that moment, all those that were knocked flying by Zhao Hong earlier revealed delighted smiles on their faces.

Although Zhao Hong had beaten them up like a fierce tiger oppressing a bunch of white hares, they knew that Zhao Hong would undoubtedly be defeated by Kong Cheng. The reason for that was because the disparity between the two of them was simply too enormous. “Against someone of your level, there is simply no need for your mother, I, to personally take care of you.” However, right at that moment when the group was feeling immensely proud and thinking that victory was at hand, a world spirit gate suddenly appeared before Zhao Hong. Following that, two huge monsters walked out of the world spirit gate. Those were two Fairy Spirit World, world spirits. Both of them were surging with immortal airs. Like two celestial bodyguards, they stood aggressively before Zhao Hong, protecting her.

Upon seeing those two world spirits, not to mention the others, even Chu Feng’s expression changed.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had fought against Zhao Hong before. At that time, the world spirit that Zhao Hong had summoned was a rank three Martial Ancestor world spirit.

However, this time around, the two world spirits that Zhao Hong summoned were different from the one she had summoned that time around.

Those two world spirits were of different genders. They appeared like lovers, and were well-matched with one another.

Furthermore, those two world spirits were rank four Martial Ancestors. In addition to their rank four Martial Ancestor-level cultivation, the two world spirits emitted a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivations. In other words, these two world spirits both possessed the ability to contend against ordinary rank seven Martial Ancestors.

“This woman, s-she actually possesses such powerful world spirits?”

“Exactly who is she?”

At that moment, those previously complacent people from the younger generation started to panic. The reason for that was because the auras of those two world spirits were simply too powerful. Neither of them seemed to be inferior to Kong Cheng. “Properly teach that ignorant fellow for me. Have him experience your strength,” Zhao Hong ordered.

“Yes,” The two Fairy Spirit Worlds’ world spirits answered obediently. Then, both of them took out long whips and began to rush to attack Kong Cheng.

“Don’t you underestimate me,” Kong Cheng was not to be outdone. With a flip of his wrist, he took out an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Then, he rushed to confront the two world spirits. “Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

Rumbles began to sound all over. Oppressive might was surging all over as the three powerful Martial Ancestors collided with one another. The two world spirits were extremely well-coordinated. They worked perfectly with one another as they fought two against one. As for Kong Cheng, he relied on the strength of his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and began to unleash martial skills in succession to confront the two world spirits.

Although Kong Cheng was already a Martial Ancestor, his Incomplete Ancestral Armament was still capable of increasing his battle power. The reason why he took out his Incomplete Ancestral Armament right away was precisely because he wanted to rely on the power of his Incomplete Ancestral Armament to suppress the two world spirits. Unfortunately, those two world spirits were simply too powerful. Furthermore, they had grasped powerful offensive abilities. Thus, even though Kong Cheng had already increased his strength with his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, he was still unable to subdue the two world spirits, and could only fight them to a stalemate. “Chu Feng, go ahead and ask what you want to ask. Leave this Kong Cheng to me,” Zhao Hong said to Chu Feng. At that moment, Chu Feng turned his gaze to that man by the name of Zhao Yu again.

“Big brother, please don’t kill me, spare me, please spare my life!!!” That Zhao Yu was extremely frightened after seeing how powerful Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were. He hurriedly knelt on the ground and began to kowtow to Chu Feng while begging him to spare him. “Stand up. I only want you to answer my questions. As long as you answer them honestly, I will absolutely not bring harm to you,” Chu Feng said.

“Big brother, as long as you don’t harm me, I will tell you anything you want to know,” Zhao Yu stood up and said to Chu Feng.

“When and where did you encounter the two women that you described earlier? Tell me honestly,” Chu Feng asked.

The reason why Chu Feng was so concerned with the two women was because he was overjoyed upon hearing the descriptions given by Zhao Yu. The reason for that was because the women in Zhao Yu’s description truly resembled the descriptions of Su Rou and Su Mei.

Back in the Holy Land of Martialism, Su Rou and Su Mei had been possessed by the Moon Immortal and had their bodies forcibly occupied by her.

Later on, the two of them had disappeared. However, it was said that they had proceeded toward the Outer World. However, it seemed that the Moon Immortal had used a different sort of method to proceed to the Outer World. Thus, Chu Feng was unable to be certain as to whether or not the Moon Immortal had arrived in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Thus, at the beginning, Chu Feng felt that it was very unlikely that he would find Su Rou and Su Mei in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

However, after hearing the description provided by that man, Chu Feng saw a trace of hope. Although he was unable to be certain, it remained a possibility. That is, the Moon Immortal was in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Furthermore, it was very possible that she was at the Drought Demon's Damned Pond. "Big brother, so you were actually interested in those two women? Hehe, you should've said that sooner. You scared me to death."

"Actually, as we're both men, I can understand you. After all, those two girls are truly too good-looking," That Zhao Yu said with a mischievous laugh.

"Get to the point. If you dare spout superfluous words again, I will cut off your tongue," Chu Feng narrowed his brows and spoke in a relatively angry manner.

"Don't, don't, don't. I'll speak right away," Seeing that Chu Feng was angry, that Zhao Yu was so scared that his complexion changed. He did not dare to say anymore impudent words, and began to narrate his whole encounter with the two women to Chu Feng.

It turned out that this Zhao Yu's master was not someone to be trifled with. He was a Martial Ancestor-level expert. It was precisely because of his master's special status that Zhao Yu came to know Kong Cheng and the others, these people of the younger generation with extraordinary statuses.

A while ago, this Zhao Yu's master had needed an item. As for that item, someone had once obtained it at the Drought Demon's Damned Pond.

However, his master needed to enter closed-door training, and could not personally go there. As such, he had ordered Zhao Yu to go and search for that item. Although Zhao Yu had failed to discover the item, Zhao Yu had found two women at the Drought Demon's Damned Pond.

Those two women had not possessed powerful cultivations; they had only been rank two Half Martial Ancestors. However, had been were training when Zhao Yu had encountered them. Furthermore, the two of them had emitted extraordinary power while training.

Although Zhao Yu was not very strong, he had followed his master all over the place. Thus, he had gained some knowledge.

At that time, he was able ascertain that the power he felt was from some sort of treasure. Most likely, those two women were training in some sort of technique by relying on that treasure.

Zhao Yu was also a rank two Half Martial Ancestor like the two women. However, as those two women possessed some sort of treasure, Zhao Yu did not dare to act blindly without thinking. Thus, he had hurriedly rushed back to find his master. Unfortunately, Zhao Yu's master was still in closed-door training, and Zhao Yu had no idea when his master would come out of his closed-door training.

As Zhao Yu was afraid that those two women would leave should he take too long, he ended up requesting help from Kong Cheng and the others.

That was why he had led Kong Cheng and the others over. Actually, their actual purpose in coming was to snatch away the cultivation treasure from those two women.

"Where did you encounter those two women?" Chu Feng asked coldly. "This... it's been so long, I can't remember the location clearly. Furthermore, it's uncertain that those two women will be at that same location. As such, I truly don't know where they are anymore," Zhao Yu shook his head.

However, who was Chu Feng? From Zhao Yu's flickering gaze, Chu Feng was already able to tell that Zhao Yu was lying to him.

Thus, Chu Feng unleashed his oppressive might and suppressed Zhao Yu, pushing him into the ground and nearly suffocating him in the process.

Then, with a cold voice, he said, “Speak honestly. Else, I’ll take your life.”

“Please spare me, I’ll speak, I’ll speak,” Zhao Yu sensed Chu Feng’s killing intent and did not dare to conceal the truth from Chu Feng.

“Zhao Yu, if you dare speak, I will definitely not spare you!” However, right at that moment, that Kong Cheng’s voice sounded.

Chapter 2363 – The Power Of Lightning

Mark

Kong Cheng's voice sounded again. This caused Chu Feng and the others to turn their gazes toward him.

At that moment, the crowd were greatly disappointed.

Kong Cheng spoke very aggressively. This caused the crowd to think that he had managed to break free from those two world spirits.

However, upon looking over, the crowd discovered that not only was Kong Cheng unable to handle the two world spirits, he was also being suppressed by them, and forced into a disadvantaged state.

“S-say, w-with the way you are, y-you're p-powerless to even d-defend yourself. Y-yet, you s-still dare to threaten others?” Wang Qiang mocked.

“You all really think that I am unable to take care of these two world spirits?” “I shall let you all experience the true power of a Heavenly Bloodline!!!” After Kong Cheng finished saying those words, the nine colored lightnings that flashed in his eyes grew brighter and brighter. Then, the nine colored lightnings in his eyes began to move from his eyes to his skin and then gathered at his forehead. Soon, the lightnings that had gathered at his forehead formed a pattern. That pattern was squirming nonstop. However, the crowd were able to faintly tell that it seemed to be the character ‘mortal.’

At that moment, that Kong Cheng's aura increased once again. His battle power also increased alongside his aura.

“Heeaahh!!!” Suddenly, Kong Cheng shouted. Following his shout, the Incomplete Ancestral Armament he held in his hand reacted like a ferocious beast that had just been awakened. It too let out a berserk sound, and then began to emit overwhelming power. seeing the situation, the expressions of the two Fairy World Spirits changed enormously. They moved away from Kong Cheng. Although Kong Cheng's cultivation had not increased, his current battle power was incomparable to before. He had already surpassed those two world spirits.

Kong Cheng, who was originally at a disadvantage, had managed to turn the situation around instantly. He was now suppressing the two world spirits.

“Lightning Mark! That is the Lightning Mark formed from the Nine Lightnings Fusions!”

At that moment, Chu Feng was staring at the squirming lightning symbol on Kong Cheng's forehead with a serious expression. He knew that that was the Lightning Mark that his father had spoken of. His father had said that when the possessors of Heavenly Lightning Bloodline reached Martial Ancestor level, one's nine colored Divine Lightnings would reach a state of Nine Lightnings Fusion. With that, one would be able to condense one's Divine Lightnings into a corresponding Lightning Mark.

The Lightning Marks were of different strength in correspondence with the Self-punishing Mysterious Techniques. They were respectively the Mortal Mark, the Earthen Mark, the Heaven Mark and the Divine Mark. Although what Kong Cheng had condensed was merely the weakest level Mortal Mark, his battle power had increased enormously from it. Else, it would be impossible for him to obtain the power to contend against those two world spirits. As this was the first time that Chu Feng was seeing a Lightning Mark, he was inevitably feeling excited. After all, what he trained in was the strongest Self-punishing Mysterious Technique, the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. “When Mortal Marks are already like this, I wonder how the Divine Mark that you will form after becoming a Martial Ancestor would be like?” Her Lady Queen's voice sounded. Her tone was filled with anticipation.

“I am also looking forward to that day. Merely, it seems that the current situation is unfavorable to us,” While Chu Feng was very excited, he was also very worried. He felt that regardless of how powerful Zhao Hong might be, those two world spirits would most likely be her limit. If those two world spirits were to be defeated by Kong Cheng, they would likely suffer today. “Rest assured, as long as his cultivation doesn’t increase, my world spirits will be able to handle him,” Zhao Hong seemed to have sensed Chu Feng and Wang Qiang’s worries. Thus, she said that to reassure them.

Chu Feng looked to Zhao Hong and discovered that she really did have a confident appearance. It seemed that she was extremely confident in her world spirits.

“Merely world spirits, what makes you all think that you can handle me?” After Kong Cheng gained the upper hand in the battle, he became confident, and started to insult the two world spirits while suppressing them. “Humph,” Faced with Kong Cheng’s insults, anger flashed past the eyes of the two world spirits. Then, the two world spirits looked to one another, seemingly as if they had come to some sort of decision. Then, golden radiance shone from the eyes of the two world spirits. “Buzz~~~” As the dazzling light filled the air, the two world spirits’ bodies also began to emit dazzling golden light. The light grew brighter and brighter. It was so dazzling that many people were unable to open their eyes, and no longer dared to look at the light head-on. However, the dazzling light did not continue to shine forever. Soon, it ceased to shine.

When the dazzling light stopped shining so brightly, everyone could see that a change had actually occurred to the bodies of the two Fairy Spirit World world spirits. They were emitting a layer of golden light from their bodies. Furthermore, their battle power had also increased. “So what if you possess a Heavenly Bloodline. We shall have you experience the power of our Fairy World Spirit’s bloodline.” As the two Fairy Spirit World’s world spirits spoke, they brandished the weapons in their hands and rushed to launch a counter-offensive against Kong Cheng. As for Kong Hong, he was not to be outdone. Once again, he collided with the two world spirits. Merely, this time around, neither side possessed superiority over one another. Once again, they entered a stalemate. “Woosh~~~”

Right at this moment, Chu Feng suddenly waved his arm. Then, a ray of light flew out from his palm and pierced into that Zhao Yu.

“Ahhh!!!”

After that flash of light passed through, Zhao Yu immediately let out a miserable scream. Chu Feng’s attack had directly sliced off half of Zhao Yu’s arm.

Furthermore, Chu Feng used a special method to make the pain that Zhao Yu was feeling right now much more painful than the pain of having one’s arm cut off. That was the reason why Zhao Yu screamed so miserably. “Speak!!!” Chu Feng had lost his patience. The killing intent in his eyes grew denser and denser. If this Zhao Yu were to continue to delay, Chu Feng might really end up killing him. After all, this matter concerned his beloved ones.

“Don’t kill me, please don’t kill me. I’ll tell you right away,” That Zhao Yu did not dare to conceal this matter from Chu Feng any longer. Thus, he took out a map from his Cosmos Sack and tossed it to Chu Feng.

Upon opening the map, Chu Feng discovered that it was a map of the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond. On the map was a route. At the destination of that route was the symbol of two women. Evidently... Zhao Yu and the others had come prepared.

“Is this real?” Chu Feng asked seriously.

“Real, absolutely real,” Zhao Yu hurriedly nodded his head. “Chu Feng, someone like him cannot be trusted. The way I see it, we should experiment with him and use the Soul-linking Spirit Formation Incantation on him,” Zhao Hong said.

“There’s no need,” Chu Feng shook his head. Through his observation, Chu Feng firmly believed that the map Zhao Yu had given him was real.

Chu Feng took a glance at the sky. The two Fairy World Spirits and Kong Cheng were still fighting. Seeing that, Chu Feng started to frown. Evidently, the two parties were at a stalemate right now. However, Chu Feng had no idea as to whether or not these members of the younger generation from major clans and powers would have reinforcements. It would be fine if there weren’t any reinforcements. However, if there were, they would likely be no match for them.

Thus, after pondering for a while, Chu Feng said to Zhao Hong, “It wouldn’t do to continue like this. Let’s retreat for now. Zhao Hong, are we able to get away safely?” “That’s simple,” Zhao Hong smiled confidently. Then, she extended her hand and made a grabbing motion. She gathered all of the remaining people from the Kong Heavenly Clan before her.

“Big brother Kong Cheng, save us! Big brother Kong Cheng, save us!!!” The people from the Kong Heavenly Clan all thought that Zhao Hong was going to do something to them and were scared witless.

In response, Kong Cheng started to panic. “Impudent! If you dare to do something to my clansmen, our Kong Heavenly Clan will definitely massacre your entire family and your extended family!!!”

“If you want them to live, cease your attacks immediately,” Zhao Hong said.

“You! You’re truly despicable and shameless!!!” Kong Cheng seemed to have realized what Zhao Hong wanted to do. Thus, he cursed out at her.

“I have never once declared that I am an honorable person. I’m telling you to cease your attacks, so you’d best do it. Else, I will slaughter them,” Zhao Hong threatened. “Come at me if you dare. Do not injure them,” Although that Kong Cheng was proud and arrogant, he was concerned about the lives of his clansmen, and thus actually stopped his attacks.

At that moment, the crowd all felt that Zhao Hong would take advantage of the situation to attack Kong Cheng. However, to the crowd’s surprise, after Kong Cheng stopped his attacks, Zhao Hong’s two world spirits also stopped their attacks. They did not seize this opportunity to attack Kong Cheng.

Chapter 2364 – Revealing One’s Identity

“Husband, help me,” Zhao Hong said to Wang Qiang.

“Righto,” Although Wang Qiang had no idea what Zhao Hong planned to do, he still agreed to it immediately.

Then, Zhao Hong began to unleash her spirit power, and started setting up a spirit formation to contain all of the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan. “You’re kidding! That woman, she’s actually an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?!!!” Once Zhao Hong began to set up her spirit formation, the people of the younger generation present were all shocked. Even Kong Cheng’s expression changed enormously. Shock filled his face.

The reason for that was because they were already able to tell that Zhao Hong was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Although she was only an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it remained that she was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were extremely rare existences. As such, how could they not be astonished?

Just when everyone was astonished, someone muttered in a mocking voice, “Humph, and here I thought we had encountered experts from the younger generation, but it turned out to be a senior-level expert bullying us from the younger generation.”

This reaction was understandable. The reason for that was because Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were concealing their appearances with conical bamboo hats the entire time. Thus, these people from the younger generation were simply unable to see their appearances. Furthermore, as Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were generally old monsters who had cultivated for a very long time, they automatically thought Zhao Hong to be an old monster. “Bullying the younger generation? Humph, open your dog eyes and look carefully. My age is younger than all of yours,”

Zhao Hong removed the conical bamboo hat from her head.

“This...” Upon seeing Zhao Hong’s appearance, the crowd were astonished again. Firstly, they were shocked by Zhao Hong’s appearance. They did not expect that the fiendish demon-like woman would be so beautiful.

However, most importantly, the people present all possessed their own means to differentiate someone’s age. Thus, they were able to get a rough estimate of Zhao Hong’s age. As such, they were certain that Zhao Hong was a member of the younger generation, that she was indeed not old.

However, a member of the younger generation was actually an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. How could they not be astonished by this?

“A bunch of f-frogs at the bottom of the well,” Wang Qiang said mockingly. Then, he also took off the conical bamboo hat on his head. After that, he shouted, “W-wife, I’ll c-come help you.”

As Wang Qiang spoke, he also unleashed his spirit power and began to help Zhao Hong set up her spirit formation. Furthermore, Wang Qiang had a very proud expression on his face. Evidently, he was doing this deliberately. “That stutterer is actually also an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Sure enough, when the crowd saw the Immortal-level spirit power that Wang Qiang was releasing, they were all tongue-tied with shock. The astonishment they felt right now was even stronger than before. One Immortal-cloak World Spiritist was shocking enough. For there to be two Immortal-cloak World Spiritists made them feel as if this was simply inconceivable.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly said, “Zhao Hong, there’s no need to kill them,”

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was able to tell how powerful the spirit formation Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were setting up was. Chu Feng felt that there was a need to inform Zhao

Hong to not kill them. Although Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong already possessed some friction with the Kong Heavenly Clan, it remained that these people here were people of the younger generation, and that the matter of what had happened before was unrelated to them. Even if they ended up clashing today, it was Chu Feng and the others who had picked a fight with them first.

Thus, Chu Feng felt that teaching them a slight lesson for the sake of achieving his purpose would already suffice. He truly did not want to go as far as killing them.

“Chu Feng, you can rest assured. The spirit formation that I am setting up is definitely not what you are thinking,” Zhao Hong smiled lightly at Chu Feng. Then, she continued to set up her spirit formation. It was a very peculiar spirit formation. After Zhao Hong finished setting up the core of her spirit formation, she first had her two world spirits enter it. Then, she activated the spirit formation. “Buzz~~~:

After that spirit formation was activated, a boundless killing intent immediately swept forth. The spirit formation she had set up was a slaughtering formation. It was extremely powerful.

“Stop!!!”

“Don’t harm them!” Sensing that killing intent, Kong Cheng thought that Zhao Hong was planning to kill his clansmen,. and was immediately furious.

“As long as you listen to me obediently, they will not die,” Zhao Hong said to Kong Cheng.

“What do you want from me?” Kong Cheng asked.

“Enter that spirit formation core and stay there for four hours. After four hours, this spirit formation will disappear by itself. As that time, they will be able to come out unscathed.” “However, if you are to leave that spirit formation core in the four hour time period, then I am sorry to say that they will die without an intact corpse,” Zhao Hong said with a beaming smile.

“You!!!” Kong Cheng felt a bit speechless. He did not expect Zhao Hong to use this sort of method to confine him. However, he still entered the spirit formation core with no hesitation. The reason for that was because compared to what he had in mind, what Zhao Hong was doing could already be considered lenient. As for Chu Feng, he did not say anything more. The reason for that was because he was able to tell while the spirit formation Zhao Hong had set up was a powerful slaughtering formation, Zhao Hong had altered it.

It was as Zhao Hong had declared, as long as there was a Martial Ancestor-level expert in the spirit formation core while the spirit formation was active, the people inside the spirit formation would not be harmed. Furthermore, as long as the spirit formation was active for four hours, it would automatically dispel itself.

However, if the Martial Ancestor-level expert in the spirit formation core were to leave in that period of time without another Martial Ancestor-level expert entering the spirit formation core to replace that person, the spirit formation would unleash its true might and slaughter the people inside.

By the same account, if someone tried to undo the spirit formation from the outside, the spirit formation would also immediately activate and massacre all the people within it.

“Oh, that’s right. I’d urge to you listen to my instructions obediently. It’s best that you do not try to use your power to force open that spirit formation. Else... don’t blame me for the deaths of your relatives,” Zhao Hong suddenly added.

“It’s best that you listen to her. Else, you will bring harm to them,” Chu Feng was afraid that Kong Cheng would not trust Zhao Hong, and thus echoed what Zhao Hong said. As the spirit formation was jointly set up by Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang, even though Kong Cheng possessed the capability to forcibly break it apart with his martial power, he would immediately trigger the mechanism of the spirit formation and cause it to kill all the people inside.

“Who are you all? Do you dare leave your names?” Kong Cheng asked coldly. Hearing those words, Chu Feng also removed his conical bamboo hat. Then, he said, “I am Chu Feng. If you want revenge in the future, you can come and find me.”

“Chu Feng, it’s you?!!!” Upon seeing Chu Feng, the crowd’s expression changed once again. Compared to Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang, Chu Feng was quite famous in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm right now. Chu Feng’s wanted posters that the Ying Heavenly Clan sent out had already spread through the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. As such, they all knew what Chu Feng looked like. Although Kong Cheng did not say anything, the other young Half Martial Ancestors from the Kong Heavenly Clan began to threaten Chu Feng fiercely. “Chu Feng, you truly have nerve! Today, you have offended all four of the strongest powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm! We shall see how you will continue to survive in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm!” “If I were scared, I would not have revealed myself today,” Chu Feng smiled coldly. Then, he turned around and soared into the sky. Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang also soared into the sky following him. Then, the three of them disappeared into the distant sky. “That Chu Feng is truly brazen! He actually dared to attack us! Does he really think that our Kong Heavenly Clan are trash like the Ying Heavenly Clan? Does he really think that we are people that he can afford to offend?!” That rank six Half Martial Ancestor from the Kong Heavenly Clan spoke while gnashing his teeth angrily. It could be seen that he was extremely furious because of what happened today.

“Kong Zheng, speak no more. If they had wanted to kill you earlier, you would already be dead now,” Kong Cheng said.

“But, big brother Kong Cheng, we absolutely cannot let this matter go,” That rank six Half Martial Ancestor Kong Zheng said.

“Even if they have been lenient, I will absolutely still not let this matter go. After you all regain your freedom, we shall find them and take our revenge,” Kong Cheng said. “Big brother Kong Cheng, we still have matters to take care of, so we’ll take our leave first,” Right at that moment, the other members of the younger generation present began to voice their intentions to leave. As they spoke, they prepared to leave.

“What are you all doing? Could it be that you all have been scared by that Chu Feng?” Seeing their friends all planning to leave, Kong Zheng spoke in a very displeased manner. “Kong Zheng, it is truly not us speaking ill of you. However, it is clear that they are no ordinary people. It is best that we don’t look further into this matter.”

“Not mentioning that Chu Feng, merely that tigress and that stutterer are both extraordinary individuals.”

“As for that Chu Feng, ever since his reputation spread, his various deeds have made it known that he is an absolutely fearless individual.” “For three such demon-level characters to appear in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, do you all not feel that it is strange? Do you all really think that they do not possess backing?”

“We have already been defeated in this battle. As such, we really do not wish to continue, because we do not wish to die.” “That’s right. It is clear that those three people are all not to be trifled with. I urge you all to drop this matter too. Don’t bother finding them again.”

After the younger generations from the various powers finished saying those words, they all left. The only people that remained were the younger generation from the Kong Heavenly Clan.

At that moment, not to mention Kong Cheng, even that Kong

Zheng entered deep contemplation.

Chapter 2365 – Dispute

Although the Drought Demon's Damned Pond was called a pond, its size was actually enormously large.

The pond's water was so deep that it was akin to a bottomless sea. Furthermore, the pond water was not something that ordinary people could set even a foot into. The reason for that was because the pond water was pitch-black like ink. Furthermore, it emitted a very nauseating odor. Merely by looking at it, one could tell that it was no ordinary water.

In fact, it was indeed no ordinary water. It was a sort of poisonous water. Those below Martial Emperor could not make the slightest contact with the water. Otherwise, they would be seriously poisoned and killed. The poison would directly dissolve them into pools of blood.

As such, the nauseating smell of the Drought Demon's Damned Pond was mostly that of the reeking of blood. This meant that countless lives had ended within it.

Furthermore, not only was the water pitch-black, even the gaseous substances that rose from the pond water were black. Like black clouds, the gases filled the sky and covered the earth. If ordinary people were to enter that layer of black gas, they would simply become unable to move, as they would not be able to see anything.

However, as for martial cultivators, they possessed eyesight that surpassed that of ordinary people after reaching a certain level of cultivation. Merely by reaching Half Martial Ancestor level, one would no longer be obstructed by the black gases. There was no need to mention Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. After all, the three of them were outstanding world spiritists. The gases covering the region were simply unable to hinder their vision. Before them, those black gases were akin to nothing. At that moment, the two powerful Fairy Spirit World world spirits were leading the path for Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. They were flying rapidly through the Drought Demon's Damned Pond. Chu Feng had a serious expression on his face as he closely fixed his eyes on the area before him. Emotions filled his heart, causing him to feel both joyous and worried.

Su Rou and Su Mei were two women who he had known since his youth. For him, the two of them had made enormous sacrifices. Furthermore, they had helped Chu Feng enormously. The two of them had protected Chu Feng many times, and nearly sacrificed themselves in the process.

Since he was young, Chu Feng had made a vow that he would definitely protect Su Rou and Su Mei once he grew up and became powerful. Yet, the Moon Immortal had snatched Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies away right in front of him. At that time, Chu Feng had been powerless to do anything about it.

That was a knot in Chu Feng's heart. He had always felt extremely ashamed, and thought that he had not managed to protect his women, that he had let Su Rou and Su Mei down. And now, it was very possible that an opportunity to save Su Rou and Su Mei had presented itself before him. As such, Chu Feng would naturally be feeling extremely emotional. That said, Chu Feng was scared that those two women that Zhao Yu had spoken of weren't Su Rou and Su Mei.

"B-brother, l-let me have a l-look at that map," Wang Qiang suddenly said.

"Mn," Chu Feng handed the map to Wang Qiang.

"Sure enough," Wang Qiang's gaze changed slightly.

"What's wrong?" Chu Feng asked. He was able to tell that Wang Qiang seemed to have discovered something.

"This route is t-the same r-route to the location of my treasures,"

Wang Qiang said.

“Same route?” Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were both surprised.

“T-that’s right, t-they’re the same. A-according to the direction on my treasure map, the f-first checkpoint will be c-coming soon. T-that is a region w-where one cannot f-fly. One m-must walk on the water. However, t-the pond water t-there pos-possesses enormous g-gravitational force. Those b-below Half Martial Ancestor w-will not be a-able to escape from the suction of the w-water.”

“However, t-to the three of us, t-that poses no threat. That said... the r-region with t-the enormous gravitational f-force just so h-happens to be the destination of this map,” Wang Qiang said.

“In other words, if that Zhao Yu did not deceive us, those two women who are very likely to be Lil’ Rou and Lil’ Mei are training at the first checkpoint?” Chu Feng asked. “T-that’s v-very possible,” Wang Qiang said.

“Don’t worry about it. Since it won’t be able to stop us, let’s just proceed directly,” Zhao Hong declared. Then, she said to her two world spirits, “Go a bit faster.”

“Woosh~~~” Once Zhao Hong gave the order, the two world spirits increased their speed. Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong began to fly rapidly through the pitch-black sky above the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond with the speed of light. “We’re here.”

Suddenly, the two world spirits stopped flying. Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong also began to look toward the area ahead of them with cautious gazes.

That place did not appear to be anything extraordinary at first glance. It appeared to be the same as the other regions of the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond.

However... that was the destination on Zhao Yu’s map. It was also the checkpoint that Wang Qiang had mentioned.

“There’s simply no one here. Chu Feng, it seems you’ve been deceived. Let’s return immediately so that we can teach that bastard a proper lesson,” As Zhao Hong spoke, she turned around.

“Wait,” However, Chu Feng extended his hand to stop Zhao Hong. Then, he said, “He doesn’t seem to have deceived us. There are indeed traces of someone training here. Furthermore, it doesn’t seem to have been long since they left.”

“Really?” Hearing what Chu Feng said, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were both shocked. The reason for that was because neither one of them were able to notice any traces of people training at that location.

“Unfortunately, they have already left. We arrived too late,” Chu Feng said.

“B-brother, a-are Su R-Rou and Su Mei’s auras t-there?” Wang Qiang asked Chu Feng.

“No, there’s nothing,” Chu Feng shook his head regretfully.

Disappointed. At that moment, Chu Feng’s heart was filled with disappointment.

“Chu Feng, although I do not know how important those two women are to you, you shouldn’t forget about our purpose in coming here. Since we’ve already come so far, we should continue onward. After all, my husband’s treasures are ahead,” Zhao Hong said. “We cannot continue just like this,” Chu Feng said. “Why?” Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang asked in unison.

“Brother, is this the only route to that treasure?” Chu Feng turned to ask Wang Qiang.

“T-that’s right. According to the map, this p-place is unavoidable. If we are to t-try to b-bypass this place, we w-will be affected b-by the spirit formation in t-the Drought De-Demon’s Damned Pond, and f-forever be u-unable to find the treasure,”

Wang Qiang said.

“In other words, we must proceed according to the route indicated on your map, right?” Chu Feng asked. “That’s what the map said,” Wang Qiang nodded. “Chu Feng, did you discover something?” Zhao Hong asked. “Although this place does not appear to have any abnormalities, it is actually filled with hidden dangers. As for what sort of dangers, even I am unable to tell. However, it is definitely not as simple as losing the ability to fly and the enormous gravitational force from the water that Wang Qiang spoke of,” Chu Feng said.

“But... why did I not notice anything strange?” Zhao Hong’s gaze changed slightly. Her eyes flickered with a trace of suspicion. After all, not only was she an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, she was also someone who had grasped extremely powerful observation methods.

“Truth be told, the observation method that I train in is called Heaven’s Eyes. My Heaven’s Eyes have never deceived me before. They have helped me determine dangers and find opportunities many times.” “This time around, it gave me a perilous sign. For the sake of our safety, it is better that we move more cautiously,” Chu Feng said.

“B-brother, w-what do you have in mind?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Set up this formation. We will be able to pass through that area safely with that,” As Chu Feng spoke, he outlined a spirit formation diagram. It was a spirit formation that looked like a magic cloud. Standing on that spirit formation, they would no longer be affected by the special powers of that region. Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong would be able to pass safely through the region by standing on the spirit formation and flying through the sky.

The way Chu Feng saw it, this would be the safest method to pass through that region. “This spirit formation... even if the three of us are to jointly set it up, it will still require six entire hours.”

“Furthermore, I did not discover anything unknown or dangerous using my own observation methods.”

“Not to mention that setting up this spirit formation will waste time and exhaust our spirit power, most importantly... I feel that it is simply needless,” Zhao Hong said.

“Zhao Hong, please trust me. Wang Qiang is my best brother and you are my friend. I would definitely not waste your time for no reason,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, I also urge you to trust me. Perhaps my observation method might be inferior to yours, however, it will absolutely not make any mistakes. I trust that I have seen through everything.”

“As for what I saw, it is that there are simply no dangers ahead. We will be able to easily and safely pass through it without using any special methods.”

“Furthermore, let me remind you of this. We were only able to safely reach this place because of me, Zhao Hong and not you, Chu Feng,” Zhao Hong said to Chu Feng one word at a time. Her tone was somewhat ill-intended.

Chapter 2366 – Trap

“W-wife, w-what are y-you doing?”

“I-Isn’t my b-brother j-just suggesting t-this out of kind intentions? A-as the saying goes, s-safety is t-the number one priority. W-we wouldn’t be w-wasting a lot of spirit power, nor w-would we be wasting a l-lot of time,” Seeing that the atmosphere was amiss, Wang Qiang hurriedly spoke to diffuse the situation. “You shut up,” Zhao Hong was even more displeased at Wang Qiang speaking out for Chu Feng. “Zhao Hong, since you distrust me like this, it would appear that you do not consider me your friend,” However, faced with the increasingly more malevolent Zhao Hong, Chu Feng smiled and said, “However, I, Chu Feng, consider you as my friend. I do not want something bad to happen to you.” “Thus, I hope that you will trust me this once. If I am really mistaken and end up wasting our time, you can do whatever you wish to do to me.”

“Chu Feng, you...” At that moment, Zhao Hong’s emotional expression grew much calmer. She was slightly embarrassed. She was clearly acting very aggressive, and even seemed to become hostile toward Chu Feng, but Chu Feng still faced her with a smiling face without being angered in the slightest. Instead, in a kind manner, he tried to persuade her. This caused Zhao Hong to feel very apologetic.

If Chu Feng was an individual that was afraid of the strong and bullied the weak, she would be fine with it.

However, although Zhao Hong had not known Chu Feng for a long time, she knew how Chu Feng treated his enemies. Chu Feng was not an individual who was afraid of the strong and bullied the weak. On the contrary, he was a fearless man.

Chu Feng’s current reaction made Zhao Hong realize even more that Chu Feng truly considered her to be his friend, and was concerned for her well-being. Otherwise, there would be no reason for him to be this courteous toward her.

“Okay then, we’ll do as you say,” In the end, Zhao Hong compromised. Furthermore, after she finished saying those words, Zhao Hong was the first to begin setting up that spirit formation. “Y-you’re the m-most r-resourceful a-after all,” At that moment, Wang Qiang’s voice sounded in Chu Feng’s ear.

Chu Feng smiled lightly and replied, “It’s merely sincerity.”

Then, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang also joined Zhao Hong and began to set up the spirit formation together.

With the three of them joining hands, their speed was extremely fast. Even though it was clearly a grand formation that was very difficult to set up, the three of them managed to finish more than half of the spirit formation in merely four hours.

It was as Zhao Hong had anticipated, the three of them would be able to finish setting up the spirit formation in six hours’ time.

“Master, this is bad!!!”

Right at that moment, Zhao Hong’s two world spirits that were guarding this place suddenly revealed serious expressions.

“They’ve actually chased us?” At that moment, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong hurriedly stopped setting up their spirit formations.

They turned around and discovered that two figures were flying toward them. Those two people were none other than the two Kong Heavenly Clansmen that they confronted earlier.

That rank one Martial Ancestor Kong Cheng.

And that rank six Half Martial Ancestor Kong Zheng.

Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong did not dare to be careless. After all, they were people from the Kong Heavenly Clan. Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were afraid that those two had called over the Kong Heavenly Clan's experts.

Soon, Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng appeared before Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's line of sight. However, apart from the two of them, there was no one else.

"I've finally found you two," That Kong Zheng gnashed his teeth angrily as he stared at Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. It was as if he possessed an enormous hatred against them. However, Kong Cheng grabbed Kong Zheng and pulled him behind. Then, he said to Zhao Hong, "I am unreconciled with the battle earlier. Are you willing to fight me again honorably?" "In that case, only the two of you came?" Zhao Hong asked in an astonished manner.

"Is there even a need to request our Kong Heavenly Clan's senior's assistance against you? My big brother Kong Cheng alone will suffice," Kong Zheng said.

"Kong Zheng, stop talking!" Right after Kong Zheng finished saying those words, Kong Cheng shouted at him sternly. Then, he said, "This matter is unrelated to him. Are you willing to fight me again?"

"Since you are this bold and reckless, I will satisfy you. Go, properly teach this egotistical fellow a lesson." Once Zhao Hong said those words, her two Fairy World Spirits once again unleashed their bloodline power. As golden light flickered, their auras increased enormously.

As for Kong Cheng, he had already activated his Thunder Armor, Thunder Wings and Lightning Mark before arriving.

It could be seen that, as he had already fought against Zhao Hong's two world spirits before, he no longer possessed the air of arrogance from earlier, and did not dare to be careless against them. As such, he had unleashed his strongest abilities from the get-go.

Kong Cheng was afraid that the battle would implicate Kong

Zheng. Thus, he first had Kong Zheng move far away from him before unleashing his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and flying toward the two world spirits to confront them.

“Guu, guu, guu~~~” “Luu, luu, luu~~~”

However, right at that moment, the pond water in the area with a strong gravitational force started to surge.

Most shockingly, multi-colored rays of light shot out from the surging black pond water.

At the same time, an aura that relaxed one's mind and jolted one's spirit was subsequently emitted from the pond. “Big brother Kong Cheng, there's treasure there! It is very possible that it's the treasure Zhao Yu spoke of!” At that moment, that Kong Zheng's eyes started to shine. He was incomparably excited, and unable to take his eyes away that strange and abnormal region of water. “We shall fight this battle later,” In response, Kong Cheng stopped his attacks and rushed directly into the pond water. The two world spirits followed after him and also dived into the pond water. “Damn it! That fellow is simply not planning to spar at all. He has come here for the sake of seizing the treasures.” “He a-actually w-wanted to s-seize it from us, a-as if!!!”

At that moment, both Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang revealed angry expressions. They both planned to rush into the pond water.

“Wait!” However, Chu Feng suddenly stopped them.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing?” Zhao Hong asked in a very displeased manner. After all, it was concerning a treasure here.

“I feel that something is amiss. Careful, there may be a trap,” Chu Feng urged.

“Trap? Where would the trap be? If there is a trap, how could that Kong Heavenly Clan's fellow enter the water safely? How could my world spirits be able to enter the water?” Zhao Hong asked loudly.

“It might be bait,” Chu Feng said.

“No, you’re wrong. You are completely mistaken. I am connected with my world spirits. They are completely safe in there. There are simply no dangers at all,” After Zhao Hong finished saying those words, she tossed away Chu Feng’s hand that was holding her back and dove into the water.

“B-brother, we’ve got to s-seize the t-treasure first.”

Wang Qiang grinned at Chu Feng and then also dove into the water after Zhao Hong. It was not that he did not trust Chu Feng. Merely, compared to caring about his safety, he was more interested in the treasure. The reason for that was because the aura emitted by that treasure was truly no small matter.

“.....” Seeing that the two of them did not listen to his advice and entered the water, Chu Feng revealed a very complicated expression. However, what filled his eyes was mostly worry. “Chu Feng, only you and I are left. I am interested in knowing how strong you are,” Right at that moment, that Kong Zheng’s voice suddenly sounded. Chu Feng turned around, and discovered that Kong Zheng was currently stretching his muscles and bones with a very eager appearance of fighting against Chu Feng.

Kong Zheng’s eyes were filled with confidence. After all, Chu Feng was a rank five Half Martial Ancestor, whereas he was a rank six Half Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, they were both possessors of Heavenly Bloodlines. Thus, they had grasped the same sorts of abilities.

As such, Kong Zheng felt that Chu Feng would absolutely not be a match for him. He felt that he would be able to defeat this newly-emerged genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. To Kong Zheng, this was a rare opportunity to become famous. “If you want to spar, I can spar with you sometime later. However, right now, I do not have time to waste on you,” Chu Feng cast a side eye at Kong Zheng. Then, he turned his gaze to the region below. At that moment, Chu Feng deeply wished that his Heaven's Eyes were wrong. He deeply wished that that region was safe. The reason for that was because he did not want anything to happen to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“What arrogance,” Upon hearing Chu Feng's response filled with contempt, Kong Zheng felt that he was being insulted. Thus, he revealed a furious expression and planned to attack Chu Feng. “Wuuahhh~~~” However, right at that moment, in the pond water that was dazzling with golden radiance, a bitter scream was suddenly heard. “What is going on?” At that moment, Kong Zheng's expression changed enormously. The reason for that was because the scream not only contained Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang's voices, there was also Kong Cheng's voice. “Crap!” At that moment, Chu Feng started to frown deeply. It was as he had anticipated, there was indeed a trap present.

Chapter 2367 – Mysterious Life Form

“Huu, huu, huu~~~”

Following the miserable screams from Zhao Hong, Wang Qiang and Kong Cheng, the pond water started to whirl, forming an enormous surging whirlpool.

Soon, three figures appeared in the center of the whirlpool. They were precisely Zhao Hong, Wang Qiang and Kong Cheng.

Merely, only their upper bodies were exposed. Furthermore, their complexions were all abnormally pale, and their expressions pained. It was clear that some sort of power was tormenting them.

Upon seeing their appearances, Chu Feng and Kong Zheng revealed worried expressions.

Right at that moment, a strange and sinister laughter sounded from the center of the vortex.

“Who is it? Why did you attack my friends?” Chu Feng asked coldly.

“I am the master of this place. They intruded into my territory. What wrong is there for me to attack them?” That strange voice sounded again. It was extremely sinister and cold. Merely by hearing the voice, one’s hair would stand on end, and one would feel as if one’s blood was running cold. It was as if that voice was simply not the voice of a human.

“Impudent! Who is it that dared to touch my big brother Kong Cheng? You should know that my big brother Kong Cheng is from the Kong Heavenly Clan!!!” That Kong Zheng shouted.

“Eaaahhh!!!”

However, right after Kong Zheng said those words, Kong Cheng, who was trapped in the water, let out an even more miserable scream. “Bastard! Release my big brother Kong Cheng immediately! Else, our Kong Heavenly Clan will definitely not let you get away with it!” Kong Zheng grew even more panicked. He knew that since their opponent was able to subdue Kong Cheng, it meant it was an existence that he absolutely could not contend against. With no other alternative, Kong Zheng could only continue to voice threats.

“Ahhh!!!”

“No, stop! Stop immediately!!!” However, Kong Cheng’s screams grew more and more hysterical; more and more painful.

Merely by hearing his screams, one could imagine how terrifying the torture Kong Cheng was undergoing right now was.

“Hahaha, this is too funny. Is that guy by the name of Kong Zheng a fool?” At that moment, Her Lady Queen was convulsing with laughter. She was wholeheartedly laughing at Kong Zheng’s lack of intelligence.

The reason for that was because it was very clear that the mysterious existence was deliberately tormenting Kong Cheng to make Kong Zheng shut up because it was dissatisfied with Kong Zheng threatening it. Yet, Kong Zheng did not manage to comprehend what that mysterious existence wanted it to do, and instead continued to threaten it. This caused Kong Cheng to suffer much greater torment than Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang.

If it were to continue, he would likely die.

Feeling helpless, Chu Feng said to Kong Zheng, “If you do not want to cause his death, shut up immediately.”

“If you want to kill him, then continue to bring up your clan.”
“Ah?”

“What?”

“It’s because of me?!!!!” Hearing what Chu Feng said, that Kong Zheng came to a sudden realization. However, he was at a loss as to what to do. Thus, he sent a voice transmission to Chu Feng, “Then... what should I do?”

“We do not know who our opponent is. However, it is clear they do not fear your Kong Heavenly Clan. You have already enraged him earlier with your threats. If you wish to defuse its anger, the only thing you can do is apologize,” Chu Feng said. “Senior, I-I am sorry. It was truly not my intention to speak rudely to you. I was merely extremely worried about my elder brother’s safety.”

“Senior, this junior will offer my apologies to you here. Please, I hope that you can release my elder brother.”

Although that Kong Zheng possessed a haughty attitude, it would seem that he truly possessed a very good relationship with Kong Cheng. Thus, after he received Chu Feng’s advice, he immediately offered an apology without the slightest hesitation. “That’s more like it,” Sure enough, after that Kong Zheng grew soft, a satisfied voice sounded from the pond water. At the same time, Kong Cheng stopped screaming in pain.

In fact, it was not only Kong Cheng. Even Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong’s expressions grew much better.

It would seem that mysterious existence had stopped tormenting the three of them.

“Crash~~~” Immediately afterward, water began to surge in between the three. Soon, a figure appeared.

It was a humanoid monster. It possessed a humanoid shape, but did not resemble a human at all. Its body was different from that of humans. To be precise, it simply did not possess a physical body at all. Instead, it was filled with flowing mud from head to toe. It looked like a person made of clay. Logically, someone like Chu Feng, who had experienced a lot of things, would not be shocked by a clay man. The reason for that was because the appearance of the clay man could simply not be considered to be frightening when compared to those frightening existences.

However, not only did this clay man possess a sinister and strange voice, it also possessed a pair of empty sockets for eyes. Although there were no eyeballs in those sockets, they emitted ice-cold killing intent. From the moment Chu Feng saw its eyes, Chu Feng felt as if his heart had been frozen. Chu Feng had a sensation. He felt as if this thing that he was meeting eye-to-eye was not an ordinary life form. Rather, it was a death god. Although Chu Feng knew that it would be impossible for that mysterious clay man to be the legendary death god, its ice-cold killing intent had already revealed that it was a cold-blooded existence that murdered without blinking an eye. As such, Chu Feng did not dare to act carelessly.

“The two of you must want them to live, right?” That mysterious existence asked.

“Of course,” Chu Feng and Kong Zheng replied in unison.

“If you want them to live, then it’s very simple. You merely need to do as I say,” That mysterious existence said.

“Please tell us what you want,” Chu Feng said frankly.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng knew that he did not possess the ability to haggle at a time like this. Only by obeying would it be possible for him to save Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“First, you are not allowed to find reinforcements. If any of you dare to find reinforcements, I dare to guarantee that you will no longer be able to see your friends.”

“Next, you are to go to the Hundred Refinements Stage and obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone for me,” That mysterious existence said.

“Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone?!!!!” Hearing those words, Kong Zheng’s expression immediately changed.

“That’s right, the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone!!!” “I will release the friends of whichever one of you two first obtains the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone for me. As for the one who fails to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, I'd urge you not to come back. Not only will you die, your friends will also die," That mysterious existence said. "We are able to agree to this condition of yours. However, I have a request."

"We will bring back the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However, you must release all of our friends," Chu Feng said. "Tsk, tsk, tsk..." After Chu Feng finished saying those words, that mysterious existence let out a strange laugh. Then, with a mocking tone, it said, "You do not possess the ability to demand things from me. You can either do as I say, or your friends will die."

"Senior, this junior understands. Please don't harm my elder brother again. No matter what, I will definitely bring back the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone for you."

Although that Kong Zheng possessed a low level of intelligence, he was able to understand the demands of that mysterious existence. Thus, after he finished saying those words, he immediately turned around and rushed toward the direction of the Hundred Refinements Stage with all his might. After his intention to haggle ended in failure, Chu Feng also stopped trying to bother with superfluous words with that mysterious existence. Instead, he looked to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. At that moment, Zhao Hong did not speak. In fact, she did not even look Chu Feng in the eye. Likely, she was feeling ashamed that she hadn't listened to Chu Feng and rashly rushed into the pond water only to end up like this.

As for Wang Qiang, he opened his large mouth and said to Chu Feng with a laugh, "B-brother, s-sorry. I s-should've listened to you. Now I'll have to in-incon-inconvenience you again." Although Wang Qiang laughed indifferently, the tone that he spoke with was very apologetic.

Faced with Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's current reactions, Chu Feng smiled lightly and said, "If you consider me a brother, don't say such a thing. No matter what, I will definitely save you two.” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, his gaze suddenly grew serious. He looked to that mysterious existence and said, “I will do as you say. However, I also hope that you will keep your promise. If something is to happen to my friends when I return with what you requested, I guarantee... that you will regret your actions.”

“Woosh~~~”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, his body shifted, and he flew toward the direction that Kong Zheng had left in.

Even though Chu Feng had also threatened it, that mysterious existence did not torment Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. Instead, a trace of complicated emotions appeared in its eyes. With a low voice, it muttered, “This brat...”

Chapter 2368 – Hundred Refinements

Jadeite Stone

On the way, Chu Feng had made many inquiries about the surrounding area. Thus, Chu Feng not only knew that the Hundred Refinements Stage was not far from the Drought Demon's Damned Pond, he also knew the location of the Hundred Refinements Stage.

The mission that clay-like humanoid had given Chu Feng and Kong Cheng was very competitive.

Thus, Chu Feng did not dare to waste time. He had to proceed quickly for the Hundred Refinements Stage and strive to obtain the so-called Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone before Kong Zheng.

After all, that was the only way to save Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. "Mn?"

Right at the moment when Chu Feng was wholeheartedly hastening towards the Hundred Refinements Stage, his gaze abruptly changed. He immediately stopped mid-flight, and began to stare at the area ahead with a flabbergasted expression.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng discovered that there was a figure standing ahead, blocking his path. As for that person, it was actually his competitor, Kong Zheng.

"You were deliberately waiting for me here?" Chu Feng asked with an ill-natured tone. Chu Feng felt that it was very possible that Kong Zheng was deliberately waiting for him to take care of him.

After all, this Kong Zheng was hostile towards him earlier, and was his competitor now.

"Chu Feng, thank you for advising me earlier. Else, with how slow-witted I am, I fear that I would've killed my elder brother," However, to Chu Feng's surprise, not only did Kong Zheng not attack him, he instead clasped his hands and bowed to him in an apologetic manner.

“So it’s because of that. I felt that while your brother might possess a haughty temperament, his nature doesn’t seem to be bad. At the very least, he is affectionate and true towards you all. I do not wish for someone like him to die,” Chu Feng said.

“No matter what, it remains that I owe you a favor... and I will return this favor,” Kong Zheng said.

“It is a trivial manner, you don’t have to concern yourself with it,” Chu Feng said.

“What if I am able to bring you into the Hundred Refinements Stage?” Kong Zheng said.

“Bring me into the Hundred Refinements Stage?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s gaze immediately changed.

Actually, Chu Feng’s father had given him a world spirit key. His father had told Chu Feng that the world spirit key would allow him to exit the Hundred Refinements Stage. Chu Feng firmly believed in what his father said without the slightest bit of doubt.

However, his father had not mentioned to him whether or not the world spirit key could allow him to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage from the outside.

Although a spirit formation key like that would generally possess bilateral access, it remained that Chu Feng had never tried it before. As such, he did not possess absolute certainty of success.

Thus, Chu Feng was very worried. He feared that he would not even be able to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage.

Yet now, this Kong Zheng actually said that he would be able to bring Chu Feng into the Hundred Refinements Stage. To Chu Feng, this was an extremely enticing offer. “You should know what sort of place the Hundred Refinements Stage is. Although that is the place where trash from the Lower Realms are transported to, the spirit formation of that place is extremely powerful. When the Hundred Refinements Stage is sealed, practically no one will be able to enter it.” “In the past, there was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist who wanted to forcibly enter the Hundred Refinements Stage. However, he ended up being injured by the spirit formation around the Hundred Refinements Stage instead. No one was able to cure his injuries. Then, half a year later, he died,” Kong Zheng said.

“Based on what you said, doesn’t it mean that no one will be able to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage?” Chu Feng asked.

“Of course not. However, the clan in charge of guarding the Hundred Refinements Stage’s spirit formation is able to open the passage to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage,” Kong Zheng said.

“However, I’ve heard that the clan in charge of guarding the Hundred Refinements Stage’s spirit formation does not belong to any power. That clan has been guarding the Hundred Refinements Stage according to the rules of the Hundred Refinements Stage the entire time. For people like them, even if they are able to open up a passage to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage, they would not do so, no?”

“That is indeed the case. Even if you threaten them with their lives, they will likely still not submit to your demands.”

“However, my words possess a different significance. One of the Hundred Refinements Stage’s guardians was saved by my grandfather, and thus owes him an enormous favor.”

“He once declared that as long it was something he could accomplish, he would do any sort of task that was asked of him.”

“I was present at that time, and joked about whether or not he would be willing to allow me to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage to play around.”

“He told me that he would be willing to allow me to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage at any time.”

“Of course, I was merely saying those words. After all, I had no interest in entering a place where those trash from the Lower Realms trained.”

“Merely, I never expected that I would really need to enter that place today,” Kong Zheng said.

Although Kong Zheng was speaking to Chu Feng with a decent attitude right now, his tone was filled with arrogance. He greatly despised those from the Lower Realms.

“Right now, the relationship between us is that of competitors. If you are to help me enter the Hundred Refinements Stage, there will be no benefit for you. Instead, it will be extremely detrimental to you,” Chu Feng said.

“However, it remains that I owe you a favor. Only by doing this will I be able to express my sincerity. Only by doing this will this competition be fair. Furthermore, I do not feel that you will be able to defeat me,” Kong Zheng said.

“Never would I have expected that you were a man of character,” Faced with Kong Zheng’s behavior, Chu Feng revealed a good-natured smile.

Chu Feng was actually afraid that Kong Zheng might be plotting something. Thus, he had been observing Kong Zheng’s reaction the entire time. That said, Chu Feng felt that Kong Zheng was a slow-witted individual, and not someone proficient in putting up a pretense. If he was plotting something, Chu Feng felt that he would have been able to easily see through him.

However, Chu Feng saw nothing strange with Kong Zheng’s behavior. As such, Chu Feng was very surprised. After all, his initial impression of Kong Zheng was not good at all.

However, as Chu Feng found nothing strange with Kong Zheng’s behavior, it meant that Kong Zheng was really planning to help Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, let’s go,” As Kong Zheng spoke, he began to fly toward the direction of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Stage whilst Chu Feng followed closely behind him.

“Kong Zheng, do you know what use that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone possesses?” On the way there, Chu Feng asked out of curiosity. He felt that there was most definitely a reason why that mysterious existence wanted the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

Upon mentioning the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, Kong Zheng’s expression had a clear change. Evidently, Kong Zheng knew the use of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. “The Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone could be considered to be one of the Hundred Refinements Stage’s treasures. There is a legend regarding it.”

“According to that legend, the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was originally called the Ancient Era’s Sealing Stone. Not only does it possess enormous sealing power, it also possesses enormous unsealing power. Later on, when the Chu Heavenly Clan was constructing the Hundred Refinements Stage, they just so happened to need the Ancient Era’s Sealing Stone’s power. As such, they placed the Ancient Era’s Sealing Stone in the formation core of the Hundred Refinements Stage’s spirit formation,” Kong Zheng said.

“The Hundred Refinements Stage was constructed by the Chu Heavenly Clan?” Chu Feng asked in astonishment. He did not expect that the Hundred Refinements Stage was constructed by his clan.

“That’s right. Not only is the Chu Heavenly Clan the ruler of the Great Thousand Upper Realm, they are also the ruler of many Ordinary Realms and Lower Realms.” “For the sake of managing the Lower Realms better, the Chu Heavenly Clan constructed the Hundred Refinements Stage in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. All the people from the Lower Realms end up arriving in that place,” Kong Zheng said.

“Since the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is that important, wouldn’t we destroy the Hundred Refinements Stage should we take it away?” Chu Feng asked.

“We wouldn’t. Reportedly, the Ancient Era’s Sealing Stone was originally black in color, and contained enormous power.”

“However, after it was used by the Hundred Refinements Stage, the Ancient Era’s Sealing Stone had already had all of its power completely drawn out. After all of the Ancient Era’s Sealing Stone’s powers were drawn out, it turned green in color, like jadeite. That was why it became known as the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.”

“And now, the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is no longer in the Hundred Refinements Stage’s spirit formation’s formation core. Instead, it was placed on the Hundred Refinements Stage’s altar. That was also the reason why I was surprised that that thing would want that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. I truly cannot understand why it would want it,” Kong Zheng said.

“Indeed,” Hearing what Kong Zheng said, Chu Feng started to ponder.

“Heh...” Right at the moment when Chu Feng was pondering, the corners of that Kong Zheng’s mouth suddenly rose into a wicked curve.

Chapter 2369 – The One To Be Defeated Is You

Chu Feng's perception was extremely sharp. He immediately sensed the change in Kong Zheng, and turned his gaze to him.

Upon looking at Kong Zheng, Chu Feng was shocked to see that his palm was streaking across his Cosmos Sack, and an Incomplete Ancestral Armament had appeared in his hand. He held that Incomplete Ancestral Armament and slashed it toward Chu Feng.

“Woosh~~~”

Sensing that the situation was amiss, Chu Feng hurriedly revealed his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. As his cultivation increased, Chu Feng immediately and rapidly moved back.

Seeing that Chu Feng had dodged, Kong Zheng said with a laugh, “You actually dodged it? It would appear that the reactions of World Spiritists are truly not to be looked down upon.”

“Kong Zheng, what is the meaning of this?” Chu Feng asked coldly. As he spoke, he took out his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, the Magma Emperor Sword.

“What is the meaning of this? Is it not obvious enough? You couldn't possibly really be thinking that I would bring you into the Hundred Refinements Stage, right?”

“Truth be told, I deliberately approached you, and even made sure to especially use the treasure that my grandfather gave me to disguise my state of mind so that I could gain your trust, and then defeat you while your guard was down. With that, I would be able to prevent you from competing with me,” Kong Zheng said.

At that moment, Chu Feng finally realized why someone of Kong Zheng's caliber was able to successfully deceive him. It turned out that, for the sake of deceiving him, Kong Zheng had especially used some sort of treasure against a world spiritist's perceptive ability.

Unfortunately, this Kong Zheng still ended up ultimately exposing himself. Furthermore, he was discovered by Chu Feng beforehand. Else... if he truly were to attack when Chu Feng was completely off-guard, Chu Feng might really end up being defeated by him.

“Never would I have imagined that someone like you was actually capable of scheming,” Chu Feng said with a light smile. That said, his words were somewhat mocking.

After all, if that Kong Zheng had not employed his treasure, then, with merely his capabilities, it would be impossible for him to deceive Chu Feng.

“I never would've expected that I would still end up failing. If I had known this was going to happen, I would have just attacked you to begin with. After all, I am certain that I am able to defeat you,” As Kong Zheng spoke those words, lighting flashed in his eyes.

In merely an instant, he unleashed his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings and increased his cultivation from rank six Half Martial Ancestor to rank eight Half Martial Ancestor.

After increasing his cultivation, Kong Zheng once again slashed his Incomplete Ancestral Armament at Chu Feng.

“Woosh~~~”

A slash swept through the sky, ripping the air apart and slicing through space as it shot toward Chu Feng.

At that moment, Kong Zheng had a confident smile on his face.

The way he saw it, his cultivation was a level above Chu Feng's. As the two of them were both possessors of Heavenly Bloodlines, he felt that regardless of how powerful Chu Feng was, he would not be a match for him. Although he did not unleash his full strength with that attack, he felt that his attack was enough to force Chu Feng to use a Taboo Martial Skill. Else... with Chu Feng's strength, it would be impossible for him to block that attack.

“Woosh~~~:

At the same moment when Kong Zheng unleashed his attack, Chu Feng also slashed with his Magma Emperor Sword.

As the sword pierced through the air, a fiery dragon-like blaze appeared in the sky and flew toward the slash that Kong Zheng had shot forth. “Humph. Overestimating one's capabilities,” Seeing that scene, Kong Zheng snorted disdainfully in his heart.

The way he saw it, Chu Feng's attack was simply one of arrogance and conceit. It was akin to attempting to strike a stone with an egg. He felt that Chu Feng was simply courting a disaster by treating his attack lightly.

“Boom~~~”

The very next moment, the two slashes collided with one another. However, the result of the collision was actually a tie.

“How could this be?!” Astonishment filled Kong Zheng's face. He did not dare to believe his eyes.

“Is it so shocking, so hard to believe? You are clearly a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, whereas I am a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. Moreover, the two of us possess identical bloodlines. In this sort of situation, you should have been able to kill me with a lift of your finger. Yet, how was it that you were unable to injure me in the slightest when we used the same sort of attack?” Chu Feng mocked.

“You've concealed your true cultivation? Could it be that you're a rank six Half Martial Ancestor like me?” Kong Zheng asked.

He thought that since Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he would naturally possess many extraordinary abilities. Kong Zheng thought that Chu Feng had used one such ability to conceal his cultivation.

Else... he truly could not believe that Chu Feng's attack would tie with his own.

"My actual cultivation is that of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor," Chu Feng said.

"I don't believe that. How could a rank five Half Martial Ancestor be able to fight on par with me? Are you telling me that you possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation?"

"But, I am able to sense that you only possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation like me," Kong Zheng said in refusal. He was unable to accept that Chu Feng, a mere rank five Half Martial Ancestor, would be able to fight against him, a rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

"You are correct, our battle power is the same, we are both only able to surmount three levels of cultivation. The reason why our attacks ended up in a tie is because of my proficiency toward weapons and the strength of my attack," Chu Feng said.

"What sort of nonsense are you spouting?" Kong Zheng was confused.

"I nearly forgot that your intelligence is lacking. Since that's the case, let me rephrase it."

"To put it simply, you are among the weakest rank six Half Martial Ancestors, whereas I am among the strongest rank five Half Martial Ancestors. Thus, even though there is an entire level of cultivation difference between us, I am still able to fight against you," Chu Feng said with a smile.

"Insolent! You dare say that I'm weak?! I'll show you how powerful this young master is!!!"

After Kong Zheng declared those words, he borrowed the strength of his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and unleashed a Taboo Martial Skill. Furthermore, it was a powerful Earthen Taboo Martial Skill from the get-go.

However, faced with such a frantic attack from Kong Zheng, Chu Feng revealed a joyous smile.

Actually, Kong Zheng was not weak. Although he could not be considered to be extremely powerful among rank six Half Martial Ancestors, he was definitely not the weakest.

Logically, if Chu Feng had used an ordinary attack like Kong Zheng had, his attack would definitely not be able to tie with Kong Zheng's attack.

However, Chu Feng had managed to block Kong Zheng's attack. This meant that his previous attack was no ordinary attack.

Actually, what Chu Feng had used was a martial skill. Merely, he had deliberately mixed his spirit power into his attack to conceal the true nature of his attack and make Kong Zheng unable to see through the fact that it was a martial skill, making him think that it was only an ordinary attack.

Chu Feng had done so precisely so that Kong Zheng would mistakenly think that he, Chu Feng, was truly unable to contend against him. Then, after Chu Feng added insults, with the temperament that Kong Zheng possessed, he would definitely become extremely enraged.

For people like Kong Zheng, they possessed a major flaw. That is, the less calm they became, the more mistakes they made.

“Boom~~~”

With everything planned, Chu Feng immediately unleashed his counter-attack. Merely, this time around, Chu Feng did not use special methods, and instead unleashed an actual Earthen Taboo Martial Skill.

As both of them were Earthen Taboo Martial Skills, the result was obvious; Chu Feng's Earthen Taboo Martial Skill was unable to withstand Kong Zheng's Earthen Taboo Martial Skill.

“Boom~~~” After a loud explosion, the Earthen Taboo Martial Skill Kong Zheng unleashed had completely engulfed Chu Feng's Earthen Taboo Martial Skill. Furthermore, it was charging toward Chu Feng.

“Noo!!!”

At that moment, Chu Feng let out a panicky and unreconciled scream.

His voice was so desperate that it pierced through the sky. “Rumble~~~~” At the same time that scream was heard, the aftermath from Kong Zheng's Earthen Taboo Martial Skill completely swallowed Chu Feng.

Like a hungry wolf devouring its meal, it completely bombarded Chu Feng into an utter mess. “Hahaha. Chu Feng, didn't you say that you were very powerful, that I'm very weak? Turns out, you were still defeated by me with a single attack!!!”

After personally seeing that his martial skill left not even a speck of Chu Feng remaining, Kong Zheng burst into a loud and complacent laugh. “No, the one that's defeated is you!” However, right at that moment, a voice suddenly sounded from behind Kong Zheng. That... was Chu Feng's voice.

Chapter 2370 – Reaching The Hundred Refinements Stage

“Chu Feng?!” Kong Zheng was extremely shocked to hear Chu Feng’s voice.

However, he did not realize the incoming crisis. Instead, with his Incomplete Ancestral Armament in hand, he turned around and moved to attack Chu Feng, who had arrived behind him.

“Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation!!!”

However, before Kong Zheng could attack, Chu Feng shot forth his punch ferociously.

Chu Feng did not hold back, and directly unleashed his strongest attack, the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation.

“Bang~~~”

As the distance between them was extremely close, Chu Feng’s punch landed on his body before Kong Zheng could react.
“Rumble~~~”

Upon being struck by Chu Feng’s punch, Kong Zheng was struck flying straight toward the surface. In the end, he crashed into the ground.

The Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation was extremely mighty. After Kong Zheng was smashed into the ground, not only did he leave an enormous crater, the energy ripples from the aftermath of the Heavenly Dome Transformation began to sweep out in all directions, engulfing that region. It was truly chaotic.

“How could this be?”

However, Chu Feng did not have any joy on his face. Instead, he revealed enormous shock and unease.

Although Kong Zheng's cultivation was a level above Chu Feng's, and his overall strength was a tier above Chu Feng's, Chu Feng felt that an attack from the Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation at such close range should be sufficient to kill Kong Zheng.

However, through his Heaven's Eyes, Chu Feng was able to clearly see that Kong Zheng did not die. Not only was he alive, he did not even suffer any serious injuries. There was merely a trace of blood flowing out from the corner of his mouth.

Furthermore, at that moment, Kong Zheng had climbed out from the ravine. As if nothing major had happened, he wiped away the blood at the corner of his mouth in a de-emphasizing manner.

Although he was not seriously injured, Kong Zheng was still incomparably shocked. He raised his head and looked to Chu Feng with a gaze filled with astonishment.

"I truly never expected to be played for a fool by you," Kong Zheng said as he fixed his eyes onto Chu Feng.

"And I never expected that you would have such a treasure on you. It must be what saved you, no?" Chu Feng's gaze was fixed onto Kong Zheng's chest.

Actually, Chu Feng had long since discovered that Kong Zheng was wearing inner armor beneath his clothes.

That inner armor had a very ordinary appearance and Chu Feng had not noticed anything unusual about it before. However, at that moment, that ordinary-looking inner armor was no longer ordinary in appearance. At that moment, the aura it emitted was extremely powerful.

Chu Feng was certain that the inner armor was a treasure, a very powerful protective treasure. Unless Chu Feng's cultivation surpassed Kong Zheng's by an entire level, even if Chu Feng possessed the same cultivation as Kong Zheng, he would only be able to seriously injure Kong Zheng, and not kill him.

Yet, not only was Chu Feng's current cultivation not stronger than Kong Zheng's, it was instead weaker. As such, it meant that it would be impossible for Chu Feng to kill Kong Zheng.

“It seems that it's a bit late for you to discover that I possess the protection of a treasure.”

As Kong Zheng spoke, he tossed his Incomplete Ancestral Armament toward Chu Feng.

“Roarr~”

The very next moment, that Incomplete Ancestral Armament began to emit a golden radiance. With the Incomplete Ancestral Armament as the center, the golden radiance turned into an enormous thousand meter-long sword. The sword began to fly toward Chu Feng.

That enormous sword was so powerful that it shook even space itself. As it moved, it brought forth violent winds.

That was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. Furthermore, as Kong Zheng possessed a higher cultivation than Chu Feng, the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill he unleashed was much more powerful than Chu Feng's Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation.

Most importantly, that Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was already shot forth successfully. As such, Chu Feng simply could not escape from it.

“Rumble~”

Finally, that enormous sword reached Chu Feng's body. Ear-piercing rumbles exploded in midair, shaking the surroundings. The martial skill this time around was countless times more powerful than the one Kong Zheng had used earlier. Being struck by it head-on, Chu Feng would undoubtedly die.

However, at that moment, Kong Zheng did not have a confident expression.

He retrieved his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and continued to stare at that empty region of space before him. After a short moment, he began to gnash his teeth furiously. Then, he raised his head toward the sky and shouted loudly, “Chu Feng, even if you are able to escape today, you will not be able to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage! You are destined to be defeated in this competition!!!”

His furious voice exploded in the sky like ten thousand thunderbolts.

Even though Kong Zheng had not managed to receive a response from Chu Feng, he was certain that Chu Feng did not die. Kong Zheng was so furious because he had used his strongest attack, yet was still unable to kill Chu Feng.

After all, in the battle today, he had been injured by Chu Feng. Furthermore... he knew very well that if he had not possessed his protective treasure, he would most likely have been killed by Chu Feng. To the extremely egotistical Kong Zheng, this was simply a disgrace, an enormous humiliation that he could not possibly tolerate!!!

Unfortunately, he had no choice but to endure it. That was why he did not dare to become enraged.

As for Chu Feng, it was true that he had survived. While it was true that Kong Zheng’s strength surpassed his own, Kong Zheng was only a single level of cultivation above him.

Faced with an expert that was only a level of cultivation above him, Chu Feng’s Five Elements Secret Skill’s undying and indestructible body would be effective.

“It seems that fellow’s status in the Kong Heavenly Clan is not low. He actually possessed such a protective treasure.”

“If he didn’t have the treasure, he would already be dead. Thus, you were actually the victor in that confrontation.”

“To win from a position of weakness, boy, you’ve done it beautifully,” On the journey, Her Lady Queen was praising Chu Feng nonstop.

“It seems that it is still Milady Queen who is concerned about me the most,” Chu Feng said with a very happy smile. “What are you talking about? This Queen is merely praising you. How did it turn into being concerned about you?” Her Lady Queen’s shapely eyebrows rose slightly as she spoke to Chu Feng in a slightly puzzled manner.

“Although that Kong Zheng possessed the protection of a treasure, it remains that it is his treasure. Thus, it could be considered to be his ability.”

“As the person who fled was me, the person that was defeated would naturally also be me. Milady Queen, it is clear that you said all those things so that I wouldn’t overthink things, fearing that my ego would be setback by this defeat,” Chu Feng said. “Enough of your nonsense. You are such a thick-skinned individual, how could you possibly receive a setback? This Queen refuses to believe you,” Her Lady Queen raised her chin in a proud manner.

“Hehe, an explanation merely serves as a concealment, a concealment means that what is said is the truth. You don’t have to say anything. I understand your kind intentions,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“Pah! You’re thinking too much,” Her Lady Queen curled her lips.

On their journey, Chu Feng and Eggy chatted nonstop. The ruckus managed to calm Chu Feng’s state of mind.

This was Her Lady Queen’s charm. With Her Lady Queen accompanying him, regardless of what sort of situation Chu Feng might find himself in, he would never feel loneliness.

Although he was chatting with Her Lady Queen the entire way, Chu Feng had not forgotten the purpose of his journey. His Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings had been activated the entire time. After increasing his cultivation to its strongest level, Chu Feng stood atop the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique and was flying toward the Hundred Refinements Stage with his fastest speed.

It was a race against time. He had to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone before Kong Zheng.

After journeying for some time, Chu Feng finally arrived at his destination, the Hundred Refinements Stage.

The Hundred Refinements Stage was enveloped by an enormous spirit formation. That spirit formation looked like an extremely enormous fort situated aboveground. One simply could not see through the spirit formation or determine what was inside the Hundred Refinements Stage. The only thing visible was that grand formation. “This spirit formation is extremely powerful. Chu Feng, are you really able to enter it using that key of yours?” Upon seeing the fort before them, Her Lady Queen started to frown.

Her intuition told her that the spirit formation before them was an impregnable fort. At the very least, with Chu Feng’s current strength, it would simply be impossible for him to break through it.

When Her Lady Queen had that sort of feeling, how could Chu Feng not feel that way too? Actually, at that moment, Chu Feng was even more worried than Her Lady Queen. After all, obtaining that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone concerned the lives of his brother and friend.

“As for whether or not we can enter this place, it’ll be up to you,” As Chu Feng spoke, he took out the key his father gave him and placed it directly on the wall of the seemingly impregnable fort.

“Buzz~~~” Once the spirit formation key came into contact with the fort, it was immediately sucked into the fort with an enormous suction force.

Seeing that scene, Chu Feng felt joy in his heart. It meant that the spirit formation key was effective. At the very least, it possessed an obvious connection with the Hundred Refinements Stage’s grand formation.

However, Chu Feng’s state of joy only lasted for a short while before disappearing. It was replaced with deep worry.

The reason for that was because, after some time passed, that spirit formation key did not emit enormous spirit power.

Not to mention opening the fort, after it was sucked into the fort, there was no change whatsoever.

Chapter 2371 – Helping

“Chu Feng, this is bad, it seems that your world spirit key is unable to let you enter from the outside,” Seeing that there was no change to the world spirit key, Her Lady Queen spoke worriedly. “It would seem that I can only go and ask the clan in charge of guarding the spirit formation to see whether or not they will be willing to let me in,” At that moment, Chu Feng was also feeling very helpless.

“But, what if they refuse to let you enter?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“If I am truly unable to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage, we can only go with the final option,” Chu Feng said.

“Final option? What is that?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“If I am unable to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage, it would mean that I will not be able to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However, I must obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.”

“Thus, if I am unable to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage, I can only return to the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond and lie in wait there for Kong Zheng’s return, so as to ambush him and snatch the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone from him.”

“Merely...” As Chu Feng reached this point, he revealed a helpless expression in his eyes.

“Merely, if you want to defeat that Kong Zheng, you will have to utilize the power of the Evil God Sword. Right now, that Evil God Sword is extremely powerful. However, the more powerful it is, the more dangerous it is to you.”

“Even if you are able to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, you will likely suffer serious injuries yourself, and might even lose your life in the process. This is indeed the final option,”

Her Lady Queen said.

“No, that’s not what I meant. Rather, ambushing Kong Zheng is what a lowly vile person would do. If not for a lack of options, I really do not wish to resort to that,” Chu Feng said.

“Since that’s the case, let’s go ask for help from the guardian clan. If Kong Zheng is able to enter, it would mean that the guardian clan is not absolutely inflexible.”

“As long as you present them sufficient amount of benefits and bribery, you might also be able to enter,” Her Lady Queen said. “We can only try,” As Chu Feng spoke, he extended his hand and planned to retrieve his world spirit key. “Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, the world spirit key started to change. It was flickering with a faint radiance.

As that light flickered, wave upon wave of spirit power began to spread in all directions, fusing with that enormous spirit formation.

At that moment, that impregnable spirit formation started to oscillate with the waves. Soon, a three meter-tall hole appeared on the wall of the Hundred Refinements Stage’s spirit formation.

It was an entrance, an entrance into the Hundred Refinements Stage.

“It’s a success! Chu Feng, that world spirit key is actually useful,” Her Lady Queen started to jump and hop in excitement. A sunshine-like sweet smile appeared on her exceptionally beautiful face. She was smiling so very happily.

The reason why she was so excited was because she knew that if Chu Feng was unable to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage, he would definitely have to go and find Kong Zheng. The reason for that was because Chu Feng would absolutely not ignore Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Eggy did not care about whether or not ambushing Kong Zheng would be the doings of a lowly, vile individual. What she cared about was the fact that it would be difficult for Chu Feng to defeat Kong Zheng with his current strength. If Chu Feng wanted to snatch the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone from Kong Zheng, he would have to utilize the Evil God Sword. However, the backlash from the Evil God Sword was no small matter. As such, Her Lady Queen did not wish for Chu Feng to brave that danger.

However, as that world spirit key was effective now, it meant that Chu Feng would no longer have to use his final option. As such, Her Lady Queen would naturally rejoice.

“Buzz~~~” After an entrance was opened in the spirit formation, the world spirit key automatically drifted into the air and flew back to Chu Feng. It was as if the world spirit key knew that Chu Feng was its master. “Thank you, you’ve helped me enormously,” Chu Feng held the world spirit key in his hand. Joy filled his heart.

“Chu Feng, go on in. That world spirit entrance will soon disappear,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded his head. Then, he entered through the world spirit entrance and arrived in the Hundred Refinements Stage.

Sure enough, right after Chu Feng passed through the world spirit entrance, it immediately closed. It returned to the same appearance as before; there was absolutely no difference at all. Even the defensive capabilities it possessed returned to being as impregnable as before. No one was able to tell that it had opened earlier.

“This is the Hundred Refinements Stage?”

After entering the Hundred Refinements Stage, Chu Feng would naturally properly survey the place. However, after surveying the Hundred Refinements Stage, Chu Feng was rather disappointed. The reason for that was because he discovered that the Hundred Refinements Stage was merely a dense forest; there was nothing special about it.

“Who is it? Show yourself.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng’s gaze grew sharp as he turned toward the southeast. As he spoke, he shot forth his palm. An enormous attractive energy immediately swept forth.

At that moment, violent wind erupted. The wind blew the sands about and moved the rocks. Even the enormous trees reaching over a thousand meters tall were shaking violently.

As such an enormous wind blew past, a figure appeared, drifting in the wind like a fallen leaf. In the end, that person landed before Chu Feng. It was a man. He had a middle-aged appearance. However, he was actually several hundred years old already. As for his cultivation, it was pretty decent, he was a rank two Half Martial Ancestor.

Chu Feng inspected the man and then asked, “Are you a cultivator here?” The reason for that was because Chu Feng felt that this man did not resemble someone who grew up in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, nor did he resemble a member of the guardian clan. “Yes. I am from the Elm Lower Realm. My name is Tian Yi,” The man replied.

“Are you familiar with this place?” Chu Feng asked.

“I am. I’ve been training here for close to a year now. I know this place very well,” That Tian Yi said.

“Then, do you know about the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone?” Chu Feng asked.

“Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone? You wish to obtain that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone?” Tian Yi asked.

“That’s right,” Chu Feng did not try to conceal it.

“I am able to bring you to the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However, you must help me with one thing,” Tian Yi said.

“What is it?” Chu Feng asked. “I can tell that you are not a cultivator from here, nor are you from the guardian clan. Yet, you were actually able to come into this place. This means that you are most definitely an extraordinary individual. If I am not mistaken, you should be a world spiritist, right?” Tian Yi asked.

“What sort of help do you want from me? There’s no harm in speaking frankly,” Chu Feng said.

“I hope you can help me treat a person. As long as you can cure her injuries, I will bring you to the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone,” Tian Yi said.

“What if I refuse to help?” Chu Feng asked.

“Then, even if you are to kill me, I would not tell you where the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is,” Tian Yi said firmly.

Seeing Tian Yi before him, Chu Feng’s gaze changed slightly. He was actually a bit moved.

He was able to tell that this man was not someone who was unafraid of death.

However, at that moment, he seemed to have really made the decision that if Chu Feng refused to help him, he would not guide Chu Feng even if Chu Feng were to kill him.

Chu Feng was not afraid that he would not show the way for him. After all, Chu Feng could find someone else to show him the way to the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone even if he refused to.

Actually, Chu Feng admired him. He admired the fact that he was willing to give up his life for someone else. Likely, the person that he hoped Chu Feng would cure was someone very important to him.

“Show the way,” Chu Feng said.

“I said that if you don’t help me cure her, I will absolutely not show you the way,” Tian Yi said.

“I am telling you to bring me to her,” Chu Feng said. “You’re agreeing to help?” Hearing those words, Tian Yi revealed an astonished expression. “Go ahead and show the way.” Chu Feng said with a smile. His tone was very good-natured.

“Yes,” Seeing that Chu Feng had really agreed to help him, Tian Yi was overjoyed. He turned around and immediately began to lead the way for Chu Feng. They began to rapidly proceed toward the depths of the Hundred Refinements Stage.

Chapter 2372 – Healing

Being guided by Tian Yi, Chu Feng soon arrived at a cave. Inside the cave was a woman.

The woman's age was similar to Tian Yi's. However, she had a younger appearance than Tian Yi; her physical appearance was that of a pretty young woman.

Most importantly, this woman's cultivation was stronger than Tian Yi's, she was a rank three Half Martial Ancestor.

Merely, at that moment, that woman's complexion was pale like paper. She appeared to be in very weak health. Furthermore, green veined patterns filled her eyes.

She was injured. Not only was she physically injured, she had also been poisoned.

"Tian Yi, who is he?" Upon seeing Chu Feng, the woman revealed an alarmed expression.

"Lil Yue, don't worry. This person is an expert that I've requested assistance from. He will be able to treat your injuries," Tian Yi walked over to the woman and helped her up.

Seeing these two individuals' intimate appearance, Chu Feng was able to guess that the two of them should be lovers.

"Tian Yi, I have never seen this person before. Could it be that he is a trespasser?" However, that woman who Tian Yi addressed as Lil Yue started to size Chu Feng up in a cautious manner. She revealed an even more alarmed expression. "That's right, he is indeed an outsider. But..."

"Have him leave. I don't need a trespasser treating my injuries," The woman interrupted Tian Yi before he could finish.

"I am able to cure your injury," Chu Feng did not want to waste time, nor was he concerned about whether or not the woman consented to him curing her injuries. As such, he walked toward the woman and grabbed her arm. “Scram! I don’t need your treatment,” The woman waved her sleeve and unleashed her rank three Half Martial Ancestor aura. She wanted to forcibly push Chu Feng aside.

However, after she unleashed her aura, she only managed to push aside Tian Yi, who she had no intention of pushing aside, yet she was unable to push Chu Feng, who she wanted to push, aside.

“You...” At that moment, the gaze with which the woman looked at Chu Feng changed. She had realized that the man before her was no ordinary character, that he was someone with strength superior to her own. “Sit there obediently,” As Chu Feng spoke, he unleashed his oppressive might and forced the woman to sit on the ground.

Then, regardless of the woman’s reaction, Chu Feng began to set up a healing formation that enveloped her.

“This?!!!!”

When streams of Immortal-level spirit power began to be released from Chu Feng’s body and gather to form a dazzling spirit formation, both Tian Yi and that woman revealed stupefied expressions. “What powerful spirit power. I have simply never seen anything like this before. Could it be that you’re... you’re a legendary Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Tian Yi and that woman exclaimed with shocked and admiring tones.

As for Chu Feng, he did not care about their current shock or admiration. Instead, he continued to wholeheartedly focus on operating his spirit formation to cure that woman.

In merely a short moment, Chu Feng completely cured that woman’s injuries.

“Senior, earlier, this Ma Yue had eyes, but failed to recognize Mount Tai, and offended you. I hope that senior will not take offense to my mistakes,” After her injuries were cured, that Ma Yue actually knelt onto the ground and respectfully bowed to Chu Feng. She had an ashamed expression on her face. She was feeling shame and regret for acting rudely toward Chu Feng earlier.

“It is not wrong to be on guard. Come, stand up,” Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and a gentle power lifted Ma Yue back up.

“Senior,” Right at that moment, that Tian Yi also knelt on the ground. Furthermore, he had an ashamed and apologetic expression all over his face.

Chu Feng felt that something was amiss, thus he asked with a serious tone, “Tian Yi, what are you doing?”

“Senior, this junior lied to you about one matter,” Tian Yi said.

“Could it be that you do not know the location of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone?” Chu Feng asked.

“No, this junior does know its location. Merely... it is said that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is unmovable. I fear that senior will have come in vain,” Tian Yi said. “There’s actually such a saying?” Hearing what Tian Yi said, Chu Feng’s expression changed. However, he soon helped Tian Yi back up. He said, “Tian Yi, you merely need to show me the way. Whether or not I am able to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is my business. It is unrelated to you.” “Very well. Senior, please follow me. I will bring you over right away,” As Tian Yi spoke, he planned to leave. “Wait, I’m coming too,” Ma Yue said.

“Lil Yue, your injuries have only just been healed. Are you planning to find Zhou Zongzhi for revenge right away?” Tian Yi asked.

“Rest assured. Senior’s world spirit techniques are extremely powerful. I have been completely healed,” Ma Yue said.

“Okay then,” Tian Yi nodded. Then, he said to Chu Feng, “Senior, please follow me.”

After Tian Yi finished saying those words, he began to proceed toward the depths of the Hundred Refinements Stage whilst Chu Feng and Ma Yue followed behind him.

..... The Hundred Refinements Stage was guarded by the guardian clan. The headquarters of the guardian clan was constructed outside of the Hundred Refinements Stage.

This was a location that outsiders would not be able to discover. It was a mysterious palace that those not from the guardian clan would not be able to open. At that moment, the guardian clan's management elders were gathered in the palace hall of that palace. Those experts stood to either side in an orderly manner. After guarding that place for many generations through the tens of thousands of years, the people from the guardian clan came to possess an extremely unique temperament. If their temperaments must be described, then it could be said that they were stubborn. Yet, it could also be said that they were utterly loyal to their responsibilities.

At the end of the palace hall was a throne. This throne was incomparably bright. It was even more dazzling than the thrones of rulers.

However, sitting on top of such a magnificent throne was an ordinary and plain-looking old man. The clothes that the old man wore were the same as that of the others from the guardian clan. He wore a blue gown. The design of the gown greatly resembled that of ordinary Daoist gowns. Furthermore, there was a special symbol on both the back and the chest area of the gown. The symbol seemed to be the word 'guardian.'

Actually, the gowns had originally been all the same. However, it might be that the old man had worn his gown for so long that it appeared to be a lot more old-fashioned when compared to the gowns of others.

However, even though the gown appeared to be old-fashioned, it was very neat and tidy. In fact, there was not the slightest bit of damage on the gown.

As for that simple-looking old man, he was the guardian clan's current clan chief.

At that moment, the clan chief and all of the elders present had their eyes focused on a single person. That person was not a member of their guardian clan. Instead, he was Kong Zheng. Merely, at that time, there was another person standing beside Kong Zheng. This person was called Hu Xuanyi.

This Hu Xuanyi was precisely the person Kong Zheng had mentioned to Chu Feng, the person who owed Kong Zheng's grandfather an enormous favor.

“Putt~~~”

Suddenly, Hu Xuanyi kneeled on the ground and bowed respectfully to the guardian clan's clan chief. He said, “Lord Clan Chief, the Kong Heavenly Clan has shown grace toward me. This subordinate once promised them that I would do anything the Kong Heavenly Clan requested of me if it is something that I can accomplish.”

“Today, little friend Kong Zheng's intention to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage is indeed against our guardian clan's rules. But...”

Then, the guardian clan's clan chief turned to Kong Zheng and said, “Little friend, it is not that I refuse to allow you to enter, merely, by the fact that you plan to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone after entering, it means that even if I am to let you in, you will have to return empty-handed.”

“Senior Clan Chief, could it be that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone has been sealed by you all?”

“But, why have I heard that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was placed there without any special protection from spirit formations or guards?” Kong Zheng asked.

Kong Zheng was implying that he knew about the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, and was telling the guardian clan to not bother to deceive him.

“Indeed. The Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was placed in the Hundred Refinements Stage without any special protection. However, the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is truly special; it is impossible for ordinary people to remove it,” The guardian clan’s clan chief said.

“It would seem that Senior Clan Chief is looking down on this Kong Zheng,” Kong Zheng sneered.

“It is not that I am looking down on you. Rather, there is a reason for it,” The guardian clan’s clan chief said. “Regardless of what reason there might be, as long as you allow me to enter, I will definitely be able to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.” “Merely, if I am able to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, I hope that Senior Clan Chief will not prevent me from bringing it away. After all, this matter concerns the life and death of my elder brother,” Kong Zheng said with enormous confidence.

Chapter 2373 – Unfair

“Lord Clan Chief, this subordinate will follow little friend Kong Zheng into the Hundred Refinements Stage. I will absolutely not let him do anything that goes against our Hundred Refinements Stage’s rules. Lord Clan Chief, please rest assured,” Hu Xuanyi continued to plead for Kong Zheng.

“The rules are dead, whereas people are alive. Since this matter concerns the safety of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation, I will make an exception today, and allow little friend Kong Zheng to enter our Hundred Refinements Stage.”

“However, little friend Kong Zheng, it will be up to you yourself as to whether or not you will be able to obtain that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone,” The guardian clan’s clan chief said to Kong Zheng.

“Senior Clan Chief, please rest assured. This junior will definitely not disappoint you,” Seeing that the guardian clan’s clan chief had consented to allowing him to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage and obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, Kong Zheng revealed an extremely confident expression.

Then, led by that Hu Xuanyi, Kong Zheng left the palace and proceeded toward the entrance to the Hundred Refinements Stage.

After Kong Zheng left, an elder of the guardian clan turned to ask their clan chief, “Lord Clan Chief, how are you so certain that Kong Zheng will not be able to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone?”

Once that question was asked, the other elders also turned their curious gazes to their clan chief.

The Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was truly an extraordinary item. As such, the people from the guardian clan were curious about it too.

“The Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone has been placed there for many years. Regardless of whether it is people from our guardian clan or the cultivators from the Lower Realms, many people have wanted to obtain that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However... has any one of them succeeded?” The guardian clan’s clan chief answered with a question.

“Indeed, no one has managed to succeed,” The elders nodded to express their approval.

One elder said, “Those who are curious about the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone are generally people of the younger generation. They possess one similarity. That is, they are all lacking in strength.”

“This subordinate understands now. Although that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone has already lost its sealing power, it remains the Ancient Era’s Sealing Stone, and not an ordinary item.”

“Thus, unless one’s cultivation has reached a certain level, it is impossible for one to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.” “No, that’s not it,” That clan chief shook his head. Then, he said, “Not to mention you all, even I... am unable to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.”

“Clan Chief, then... exactly why is that the case?” Hearing what their clan chief said, the various elders were all shocked. Then, they felt very curious.

As members of the guardian clan, they knew very well how powerful their clan chief was.

Their Lord Clan Chief was actually a True Immortal-level expert.

Merely, as he guarded the hundred refinements stage all year round, and behaved in a very low-key manner, the people from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm did not know of his cultivation. That said, even though others did not know how strong their clan chief was, the people present knew very well how powerful he was.

Thus, if even their Lord Clan Chief was unable to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, it would mean that it was unrelated to one's cultivation, and was because of something else. "The Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is something that only those from the Chu Heavenly Clan can move," The guardian clan's clan chief said. "Chu Heavenly Clan?!" Hearing those words, the crowd's expression changed. They finally realized the truth. "Judging from that, it seems that there is truly no one capable of moving the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone," At that moment, the various elders began to sigh.

While the Hundred Refinements Stage was constructed by the Chu Heavenly Clan, and there were many people of the younger generation from the Chu Heavenly Clan in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, those Chu Heavenly Clan's younger generations were all extremely arrogant and haughty people.

They all felt that the Hundred Refinements Stage was merely a place to cultivate trash. As such, not to mention entering the Hundred Refinements Stage, they were disinclined to even go to that place.

As for the guardian clan, the reason why they had guarded that area for generations on end was because they were once helped by an expert from the Chu Heavenly Clan. That was how they ended up shouldering such a heavy responsibility.

Due to the help from the Chu Heavenly Clan back then, the people from the guardian clan possessed special sentiments toward the Chu Heavenly Clan. Unfortunately, the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan looked down on them.

They considered them lackeys; servants.

In fact, they felt it beneath themselves to even meet them.

..... The entrance to the Hundred Refinements Stage was opened. It was not only Hu Xuanyi that followed Kong Zheng into the Hundred Refinements Stage.

There were over twenty individuals who entered together with Kong Zheng. They were all very powerful, all peak Half Martial Ancestors.

However, one thing worthy of mentioning was that there was not a single Martial Ancestor-level expert among them.

As for the reason why there were no Martial Ancestor-level experts among them, it was not because the guardian clan did not possess Martial Ancestor-level experts, nor was it because those Martial Ancestor-level experts were unwilling to accompany Kong Zheng. Rather, it was because the Hundred Refinements Stage possessed a special power and restriction...

Unless one increased their cultivation from Half Martial Ancestor to Martial Ancestor in the Hundred Refinements Stage, it would be impossible for Martial Ancestor-level experts to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage. “Senior Xuanyi, that Chu Feng... he couldn’t possibly be able to enter this place too, right?” After the Hundred Refinements Stage’s entrance gate was closed, Kong Zheng turned to ask Hu Xuanyi.

“Little friend Kong Zheng, please rest assured. I have already explained this matter to the others. Regardless of how much that Chu Feng pleads, he will not be allowed to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage,” Hu Xuanyi said.

“This junior is put at ease by senior Xuanyi’s manner of conduct. Since you said it like that, that Chu Feng will definitely not be able to enter this place,” Hearing what Hu Xuanyi said, Kong Zheng smiled complacently.

“Regardless of how many abilities he might possess, he will absolutely not be able to enter here,” Hu Xuanyi said. Hearing what Hu Xuanyi said, the complacent expression on Kong Zheng’s face grew even stronger. Then, he actually disregarded the presence of others and burst into loud laughter. “Chu Feng, you are but a person without any backing in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. What makes you think you can contend against me? Right now, you’re going to suffer. Hahaha!!!”

At this moment when Kong Zheng was feeling extremely complacent and thinking that victory was within his sight, Chu Feng was rapidly flying toward the direction of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone with Ma Yue and Tian Yi.

On their way there, Chu Feng came to find out from the conversation between the two that they were from the same Lower Realm. Furthermore, the two of them were a couple who had grown up as childhood friends. Right now, the two of them were already married.

Chu Feng felt extremely envious of them. At the same time, the impression Chu Feng had of them also grew much more favorable.

After all, in the world of martial cultivators, a place where one’s benefits surpass everything else, a love as pure as theirs was very rarely seen.

“I’ve been hearing you two talking about revenge the entire journey. What exactly happened?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Senior, my wife possesses outstanding talent. As such, her cultivation speed is extremely fast. After we arrived here, she soon became a well-known individual among the cultivators. She also managed to rapidly reach the third place on the Hundred Refinements Ranking List.”

“Furthermore, she already possesses the strength to compete for the second place on the ranking list. Thus, after she made her preparations, my wife issued a challenge to Zhou Zongzhi, the second-ranked individual on the Hundred Refinements Ranking List.” “However, that Zhou Zongzhi was so very despicable. He actually poisoned my wife and caused her to be unable to unleash her actual strength. Then, before everyone, he beat my wife to a seriously injured state,” Tian Yi said to Chu Feng.

“In that case, your wife’s injuries and poison were all caused by that Zhou Zongzhi?” Chu Feng asked.

“That is the case,” Tian Yi said. “Since you two knew about the poison, why did you not report this matter to the guardian clan? Why did you instead hide yourselves to secretly heal your injuries?” Chu Feng asked curiously. Tian Yi sighed. “That Zhou Zongzhi is from the Splendor Night Lower Realm.”

“As for the Splendor Night Lower Realm, it is the strongest among the many Lower Realms. Practically every year, the strongest individuals in the Hundred Refinements Stage are from the Splendor Night Lower Realm. Thus, over time, the guardian clan began to favor the people from the Splendor Night Lower Realm, and would take very good care of them.”

“The Elm Lower Realm that Lil Yue and I are from is simply incomparable to the Splendor Night Lower Realm. Before that, we had already suffered many unfair treatments. In fact, on some occasions, not only did we not obtain any assistance, we would instead be punished.”

“Thus, even if we were to report this matter, it would be useless,” When mentioning that matter, Tian Yi felt very helpless.

“Never would I have expected that this place would be that unfair too,” Chu Feng shook his head. After hearing those things, Chu Feng felt very disappointed with the guardian clan.

Chapter 2374 – Arrival

“The world of martial cultivators is so enormous that it could simply be said to be boundlessly vast. However, there is one thing that remains unchanged in the entire martial cultivation world. That is, regardless of where one might be, there is no such thing as absolute fairness,” When mentioning this, Ma Yue started to smile wryly. Her wry smile was composed of helplessness and sadness.

Merely from her smile, Chu Feng felt as if he had seen the unfairness that they’d encountered in the Hundred Refinements Stage.

“That fellow by the name of Zhou Zongzhi should be a man, right?” Chu Feng asked.

“Zhou Zongzhi is indeed a man. As a man, he actually did such a despicable thing to a woman. He is truly lower than dogs and pigs!” Tian Yi said while gnashing his teeth furiously.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng nodded. He also started to have a bad impression of that Zhou Zongzhi.

Among the several types of people that Chu Feng detested the most were those who bullied women.

If it was an ordinary confrontation, then it could be forgiven. However, that Zhou Zongzhi actually poisoned a woman, and then ruthlessly beat up said woman. His actions were truly despicable to the extreme.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was the one who healed Ma Yue’s injuries. Thus, he was able to tell that while the poison was the most life-threatening, the person who had beat her up had been extremely ruthless. It could even be said that whoever beat her up was trying to take her life.

From just that, it could be seen that Zhou Zongzhi was not a good individual.

At that moment, Her Lady Queen placed her hands on her waist. With her mouth protruded, she said in a very furious manner, “Truly despicable and shameless! Chu Feng, even this Queen is unable to tolerate this!”

“Milady Queen, do you have any instructions?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile. He was able to tell that Her Lady Queen had developed a bad impression of Zhou Zongzhi. Unlike Chu Feng, Her Lady Queen was someone who would generally take action should she have a bad impression of someone. “Chu Feng, if the couple Ma Yue and Tian Yi is unable to defeat Zhou Zongzhi, you should help them take care of that Zhou Zongzhi,” Her Lady Queen said.

“I will as do as you have bid,” Chu Feng agreed frankly.

Actually, even if Her Lady Queen didn’t mention it to him, Chu Feng had that intention too. “However, in the end, it is because we are too weak. As such, we cannot blame others.”

“If we possessed the strength that senior does, and were able to enter and exit the Hundred Refinements Stage at will, we would not have been bullied,” That Ma Yue looked to Chu Feng as Intense admiration filled her eyes.

“Actually, I have only stealthily infiltrated into here. If I were to contend against the guardian clan, I would be no match,” Hearing those words, Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he added, “Furthermore, please don’t address me as senior. It is giving me a weird sensation. After all, I am much younger than you two.”

“What? You... you are younger than us?” Both Ma Yue and Tian Yi were shocked to hear those words. After a moment of shock, Ma Yue and Tian Yi asked in unison, “Could it be that you’re really only a member of the younger generation?”

Actually, they were able to tell that Chu Feng appeared very young, and could be considered to be a younger person among the younger generation.

It was precisely because Chu Feng was so young yet so powerful that he did not conform with the experiences that they'd had. Thus, they felt that Chu Feng's age might be fake, that Chu Feng had concealed his actual age, and was actually much older than them.

"Mn," Chu Feng nodded.

"This!!!"

Ma Yue and Tian Yi were even more astonished after Chu Feng voiced his acknowledgement again. After all, to be able to obtain such accomplishments at Chu Feng's age was truly something that surpassed their imagination.

When thinking about themselves, they remembered that they were still very small and weak at Chu Feng's age. "The Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is truly extraordinary. Back then, we were truly viewing the sky from the bottom of a well."

"Senior, today, you have truly broadened our horizons," Tian Yi and Ma Yue said emotionally.

"Actually, I am not from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. I am also from a Lower Realm. Merely, by a freak combination of factors, I was unable to arrive in the Hundred Refinements Stage," Chu Feng said with a smile.

"You're actually also from a Lower Realm?" At that moment, Tian Yi and Ma Yue were tongue-tied with shock. They were deeply astonished by the truth Chu Feng had just mentioned. "May I ask which Lower Realm you're from?"

"You... you couldn't possibly also be from the Splendor Night Lower Realm, right?"

After a moment of pondering, Ma Yue and Tian Yi started to panic. After all, among the various Lower Realms, the strongest was the Splendor Night Lower Realm.

After arriving in this place, they heard many things about the experts from the Splendor Night Lower Realm.

For Chu Feng to obtain his level of strength at such a young age, they were truly unable to think of any other Lower Realm other than the Splendor Night Lower Realm that was capable of nurturing such a powerful individual.

“If I were from the Splendor Night Lower Realm, how could I not know that Zhou Zongzhi?” Chu Feng smiled wryly and shook his head.

“Right. We were silly. How could you possibly have come from the Splendor Night Lower Realm,” Seeing that Chu Feng declared that he did not come from the Splendor Night Lower Realm, Ma Yue and Tian Yi heaved a sigh of relief. Then, they asked, “Senior, then which Lower Realm might you be from?”

“I can tell the two of you. However, you two must absolutely keep it a secret,” Chu Feng said.

“Senior, please rest assured, we will definitely keep it confidential.”

“If we are to reveal a single word of what senior tells us here today, then we husband and wife shall suffer miserable deaths,” Not only did Ma Yue and Tian Yi agree to keep things confidential, they also vowed to the heavens. Seeing how sincere the two of them were, Chu Feng no longer bother concealing the matter and said, “The Ancestral Martial Lower Realm.”

“What? It’s actually the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm?!!!” Hearing those words, Ma Yue and Tian Yi’s expressions changed enormously. They were much more astonished than before.

“It seems that you two have heard of the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm?” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“We have indeed heard of it. Merely, the viewpoints that the people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm have of the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm are...” Ma Yue frowned at Tian Yi and interrupted, “It seems that the viewpoint of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is not true.” Evidently, there were some words that they found unpleasant to say.

“Actually, I know about it even without you two saying it. There has never been anyone from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm who has reached the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for many years. Likely, no one here will think highly of those from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm. They likely all feel it to be a gathering place for trash,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

Chu Feng’s father had already mentioned this matter to Chu Feng before.

Merely, it remained that Chu Feng had grown up in the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm. Thus, the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm possessed a special sort of significance to him. Compared to the vast Outer World, the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm was Chu Feng’s home.

Thus, Chu Feng was actually not fond of others speaking ill of the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm.

If possible, he would want to rectify the reputation of the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm as a person of the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm.

“However, seeing you today, we now know how powerful the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm is. That is truly worthy of being the place where the Fate Primogenitor was born. Likely, only in a Lower Realm like that would an outstanding hero like senior be born,” Ma Yue said.

“You two also know of the Fate Primogenitor?” Chu Feng was very surprised.

“We have heard of the legends of the Fate Primogenitor back in our Elm Lower Realm. Merely, there were simply too many legends regarding him. Furthermore, all of those legends are different. However, in this place, we've found out that everyone believes that the Fate Primogenitor came from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm," Ma Yue said.

"Senior, as you're from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm, you should know more about the Fate Primogenitor, right?" Tian Yi asked in a very curious manner. When he mentioned the Fate Primogenitor, both his tone and attitude were filled with adoration.

From this, it could be seen that the Fate Primogenitor was very influential.

"The things regarding the Fate Primogenitor are merely legends in our Ancestral Martial Lower Realm too. I feel that it is best that I not make wild remarks."

"Additionally, the two of you really shouldn't address me as senior. You can just address me as Chu Feng," Chu Feng said with a smile.

"Okay, we'll do as senior says," Ma Yue and Tian Yi said respectfully.

At that moment, Chu Feng smiled helplessly.

Chu Fengs' strength greatly surpassed that of the two of them. Furthermore, as Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he left a grand impression on the two of them.

Even though Chu Feng had already declared that he was not a senior, he was unable to change the extremely respectful attitude that Ma Yue and Tian Yi had toward him.

As such, Chu Feng decided to stop lingering on the issue. Instead, he began to chat with them while continuing to proceed toward the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

Being guided by the husband and wife duo of Tian Yi and Ma Yue, Chu Feng finally arrived at the location where the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was stored. Merely, before they approached that place, Ma Yue and Tian Yi stopped.

Chapter 2375 – Revenge

“Senior, as you’re an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, you most definitely possess extremely powerful observation methods.”

“Can you check to see if there are people from the guardian clan there?” Ma Yue said to Chu Feng.

It turned out that the reason why Ma Yue and Tian Yi stopped was because they were afraid that there were people from the guardian clan guarding that place.

“Mn,” Chu Feng did not hesitate, and immediately used his Heaven’s Eyes to observe the area ahead.

Actually, Chu Feng was still some distance away from his intended goal. Not to mention ordinary cultivators, even world spiritists might not necessarily be able to see what was ahead clearly.

However, before his Heaven’s Eyes, everything became clear.

Ahead of them was an altar. The altar was not very large. However, it was very exquisite.

As for the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, it was placed at the center of the altar.

It was jade green in color. Its size was about that of a watermelon. Looking from afar, it really did only resemble a jadeite stone. Apart from that, there was seemingly nothing special about it.

However, for some unknown reason, the seemingly ordinary Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone gave Chu Feng a particular sensation. It was as if some sort of special power was attracting Chu Feng’s blood.

There were hundreds of people gathered outside the altar. Those people all possessed Half Martial Ancestor-level cultivations.

From the outfits that those people were wearing, Chu Feng was able to guess that they were most likely all cultivators from Lower Realms.

For the sake of their safety, Chu Feng surveyed his distant surroundings. After discovering that there was no one from the guardian clan among them, Chu Feng felt relieved, and turned his gaze toward those people once again.

With his sharp perception, Chu Feng could tell that those people possessed an intimate bearing with one another, and resembled colleagues. Most likely, they were discussing something whilst gathered there.

Before Chu Feng's Heaven's Eyes, everything was clear. Not only was Chu Feng able to capture each and every movement from those people, he was also able to determine what they were saying by reading their lips.

It just so happened that the topic of conversation between those individuals was actually related to Ma Yue and Tian Yi.

"Big brother Zhou, we have truly searched carefully. We have nearly rummaged through the entire Hundred Refinements Stage. However, we were unable to find Ma Yue and Tian Yi. We have no idea where they've fled to. Could they have reported to the elders and been taken away by them?" Someone asked worriedly.

"That's impossible. Even though that Ma Yue is quite talented, she is still only trash in the eyes of the elders. As such, how could they possibly care about her life and death?" Someone rejected that possibility.

"Logically, as that Ma Yue was injured, she shouldn't be able to get far away." "That Tian Yi is truly an expert in hiding. He actually managed to hide Ma Yue so well."

"So what? Big brother Zhou's poison is not something that Tian Yi can cure."

“That’s true. After all, big brother Zhou is my idol.”

“.....”

The several hundred individuals were all surrounding a man and flattering him nonstop.

As for that man, his age was about the same as Tian Yi’s, several hundred years old. However, he had not changed his appearance to that of a middle-aged man. Rather, he disguised himself as a young man.

Furthermore, his appearance was very handsome.

If he was born that handsome, it would be fine. However, Chu Feng was able to tell that his handsome appearance was fake.

That man’s original appearance was extremely ugly, so ugly that one would feel nauseated looking at him.

However, even though he was clearly ugly, that man had changed his appearance to be such a handsome young man. That alone was sufficient to show how much of a sham the man was. However, one thing worthy of mentioning was that his cultivation was not that of a rank three Half Martial Ancestor like Tian Yi had declared.

Rather, his cultivation was actually that of a rank four Half Martial Ancestor.

“Big brother Zhou, why did you not kill that Ma Yue directly during your confrontation that day?” Someone asked. “Are you stupid?” “You too know about the rules of a public match. One can only injure one’s opponent, and not kill.”

“Furthermore, there were many elders present that day. If I were to kill her, even if the elders were to shield me, I would definitely still be punished,” Zhou Zongzhi said in a very displeased manner. “I am slow-witted, I am slow-witted,” The person who had questioned him earlier immediately started apologizing.

“That said, brothers, you all do not have to worry anymore. Back then, I was afraid of Ma Yue because she possessed the same level of cultivation as me.”

“However, I have now managed to successfully reach a breakthrough and become a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. Even if that Ma Yue is able to heal her injuries, she will still be no match for me. She will forever be trodden under my foot until the day the Hundred Refinements Stage’s entrance is opened.”

“At that time, I will be chosen as a core disciple by a powerful sect. As for that Ma Yue, even if she manages to obtain decent standings and treatment, she is destined to be beneath me,” When mentioning that, Zhou Zongzhi was immensely proud of himself.

“Of course. How could trash from the Elm Lower Realm possibly be able to contend against our big brother Zhou?”

“That’s right. That Elm Lower Realm is the worst trash among the various Lower Realms.”

“As for our big brother Zhou, he’s from the strongest Splendor Night Lower Realm. Merely with that status, that Ma Yue can forget about standing on equal footing as big brother Zhou,” The crowd declared. “No, you all are mistaken.”

“The trashiest Lower Realm is not the Elm Lower Realm. Rather, it’s the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm,” Suddenly, someone refuted.

“How many years has it been since that Ancestral Martial Lower Realm has had anyone reach this place? I bet they might have already ceased to exist by now.”

“Even if the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm still exists, it is most definitely a gathering place for trash, a place simply not worth mentioning. Hahaha.”

The crowd were feeling extremely delighted. At the same time they started to ridicule the Elm Lower Realm, they actually also started to ridicule the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm. From this, it could be seen that the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm was most likely an object of constant ridicule for them.

As Chu Feng was carefully observing ahead, Ma Yue's voice sounded. "Senior, are there people from the guardian clan there?"

"There aren't. However, your enemies are all gathered there. Are you prepared?" Chu Feng asked with a smile. He indicated to Ma Yue that the time for her revenge had arrived.

"I've been prepared," After Ma Yue finished saying those words, her eyes started to flicker, and her long hair started to flutter.

Her aura was also changing. A layer of purple gas was being emitted from her body. Like flames, they revolved around her.

As that happened, her aura started to grow stronger.

Divine Body. This Ma Yue was actually a Divine Body.

Not only that, Chu Feng was able to clearly sense that this Ma Yue actually possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation.

In other words, although Ma Yue's cultivation was that of a rank three Half Martial Ancestor, even ordinary rank five Half Martial Ancestors would likely not be a match for the current her.

This Ma Yue really could be considered a genius.

"Woosh~~~" As Ma Yue flew ahead, Tian Yi also furiously flew after her.

As for Chu Feng, he naturally also followed after them. After all, he knew very well that the current Zhou Zongzhi was not someone who Ma Yue could defeat. Thus... he would not look on as Ma Yue and Tian Yi ended up being beaten up.

"Zhou Zongzhi, you damned despicable bastard. You actually dared to poison me?! You are simply as despicable as one can be!" After Ma Yue reached the altar, she shouted furiously.

She held a purple Incomplete Ancestral Armament sword and pointed it forward. Immediately, the sky started to change. She had directly unleashed a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

From this, it could be seen that she knew how powerful Zhou Zongzhi was. She did not want to waste time, and wanted to defeat him with one strike.

That Heaven Taboo Martial Skill seemed to have fused with Ma Yue's Divine Power. It turned into a purple whirlwind. The whirlwind was not very large. However, it possessed extraordinary power capable of shaking her surroundings.

At that moment, the expressions of the great majority of people at the altar all changed enormously. Fear filled their faces. Involuntarily, they began to move behind Zhou Zongzhi.

As for that Zhou Zongzhi, he seemed to be completely prepared. He lightly waved his sleeve, and a burst of boundless martial power appeared out of thin air.

His martial power forcibly neutralized Ma Yue's Heaven Taboo Martial Skill.

Chapter 2376 – Special Magic

“You!!!”

At that moment, not to mention Ma Yue, even Tian Yi was stunned.

After all, the two of them did not know that Zhou Zongzhi had become a rank four Half Martial Ancestor. As for that Zhou Zongzhi, both his abilities and battle power were not inferior to Ma Yue. He was able to contend against Ma Yue when they were at the same level of cultivation. And now, his cultivation had increased by a level. Naturally, Ma Yue would not be a match for him.

“What’s wrong? Is it that shocking? You two must not have thought that I would reach a breakthrough in cultivation so quickly, right?” Zhou Zongzhi said with a beaming smile.

“Could it be the rewards from the guardian clan?” Ma Yue asked.

The reason for that was because she remembered that the guardian clan’s supervisors had been gambling with one another on who the victor between her and Zhou Zongzhi would be.

The victor of the two would be able to obtain a reward from the guardian clan. As for that reward, it was extremely beneficial to Divine Bodies. Regardless of whether it might be Ma Yue or Zhou Zongzhi who obtained it, they would both be able to reach a breakthrough in cultivation with it.

Other than that reward, Ma Yue was unable to think of any other possibility that would allow Zhou Zongzhi to reach a breakthrough to rank four Half Martial Ancestor so quickly. “You’ve guessed correctly,” Zhou Zongzhi said with a beaming smile. He was immensely pleased with himself.

“But... you should only have been able to obtain that reward ten days from now. How did you manage to reach a breakthrough already?” Ma Yue asked.

“If you were the victor, you would have naturally had to wait ten days to obtain the reward. After all, you’re trash from the Elm Lower Realm. Regardless of your cultivation, you will remain trash in the elders’ eyes.”

“But, who am I? I am a genius from the Splendor Night Lower Realm. Since I’ve won, why would I need to wait for ten long days?” When mentioning the matter, Zhou Zongzhi revealed an even more pleased expression.

“The guardian clan is truly lacking in fairness. They are not qualified to guard this Hundred Refinements Stage established by the Chu Heavenly Clan!!!” At that moment, Ma Yue was so furious that she started to snarl angrily.

Her voice was so resounding that it caused heaven and earth to tremble.

A single emotion filled her voice: disappointment.

“You’re correct. This place is indeed unfair. It’s so unfair that even if I were to kill you, no one would punish me.”

“The two of you are of lowly birth. Your lives are lowly and insignificant. If I want to kill you, I will be able to do so as I wish,” After Zhou Zongzhi finished saying those words, his body moved, and he began to fly toward Ma Yue.

The frightening power that came crashing toward their faces caused Ma Yue and Tian Yi to feel the aura of death.

The two of them knew that they were no match for Zhou Zongzhi. Thus, they did not bother with any pointless resistance. Instead, they held one another’s hands and closed their eyes. They had made their preparations to die.

Merely, the two of them possessed unreconciled expressions on their faces.

“I fear that I’ll have to disappoint you all.” Right at that moment, Chu Feng appeared before Ma Yue and Tian Yi like a phantom.

“Who are you?” Upon seeing Chu Feng, Zhou Zongzhi’s expression also changed enormously. He was immensely shocked.

“Scram!!!” Chu Feng merely spoke one word, and a burst of boundless martial power swept out from his mouth.

Although Chu Feng’s martial power was invisible, it was something that Zhou Zongzhi was unable to withstand.

“Bang!!!” With merely his voice, Chu Feng knocked Zhou Zongzhi flying, causing him to crash ruthlessly onto the altar.

“This!!!” At that moment, not to mention Zhou Zongzhi himself, even his lackeys had turned pale with fright.

They did not know who Chu Feng was. However, they were able to imagine how powerful Chu Feng was from Zhou Zongzhi’s current state.

Although the altar was completely undamaged after Zhou Zongzhi collided with it, Zhou Zongzhi was seriously injured. Not only was his body badly mutilated from the collision, he had also suffered extremely serious internal injuries. He tried to climb up many times, but still tumbled to the ground.

Zhou Zongzhi had lost even the strength to crawl back up. From this, it could be seen how serious his injuries were.

“Senior, you?!”

What suddenly occurred had surprised both Ma Yue and Tian Yi too. They did not expect that Chu Feng, someone that they’d only just met, would actually be willing to help them.

“What? Senior?!!!”

Seeing Ma Yue and Tian Yi addressing Chu Feng as senior, the crowd was extremely frightened.

The reason for that was because the simple address of ‘senior’ had signified to the crowd the relationship Chu Feng had with Ma Yue and Tian Yi.

This person who was able to seriously injure Zhou Zongzhi with merely a single word was the backing of Ma Yue and Tian Yi. “You... exactly who are you?”

“Could it be that you’re from the Elm Lower Realm?”

At that moment, Zhou Zongzhi started to panic. After all, he had been so excessive toward Ma Yue and Tian Yi.

Right now, if it were truly someone from the Elm Lower Realm that had come here, they would likely not let him off so easily. Chu Feng looked to his surroundings, then smiled indifferently.

He said, “All of you, listen carefully. I am not from the Elm Lower Realm. Instead, I am from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm.” “It’s actually the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm?!!” Chu Feng’s words came like a lightning strike to the crowd.

After all, the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm was the legendary place of trash. How could such a powerful person appear from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm? That said, even though they were feeling extremely astonished, they still firmly believed Chu Feng’s words. After all, there was no reason for someone to declare themselves to be from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm. After all, being from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm did not bring any prestige.

Seeing the astonished expressions of the crowd, the corners of Chu Feng’s mouth rose into a smile.

What he wanted was precisely for those people to have a whole new level of respect for the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm. And now, he had accomplished his goal. “It’s useless,” Right at that moment, Chu Feng turned his gaze to a person beside Zhou Zongzhi.

“W-what did you say?”

“W-why do I not understand you?” Being stared at by Chu Feng’s sharp gaze, that person immediately started to shiver in fear, and started to stutter.

“What I’m saying is that the help signal you sent off earlier is simply useless. I have already sealed this place with a spirit formation. All of you can forget about help coming,” Chu Feng said in a deemphasizing manner. Hearing those words, the fellow that sent out the signal for help immediately fell powerlessly onto his butt. Then, he crawled back up with great effort and began to kowtow to Chu Feng.

He begged, “Milord, please spare me, please spare me!!!”

He was truly frightened.

In fact, it was not only him who was frightened by Chu Feng. Chu Feng’s omniscient attitude as if everything was within his grasp had frightened all of the people present. An expert, an actual expert was standing before them. Before him they could not make any petty moves, because those petty moves would definitely be discovered by him.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored the crowd, and began to walk toward the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone one step at a time.

The Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone seemed to contain a special sort of power. Chu Feng was unable to describe it. In short... the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was calling to Chu Feng.

“Exactly what sort of magic power do you possess? It would appear that I will have to experience it personally,” As Chu Feng spoke, he gently extended his hands toward the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. He was planning to remove it. “You’ve come for the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone?” Right at that moment, Zhou Zongzhi’s incomparably astonished voice sounded. “What, you have a complaint?” Chu Feng turned his cold gaze toward Zhou Zongzhi.

“No, I wouldn’t dare.”

“How could this junior have a complaint regarding senior? Merely, this junior wanted to call to senior’s attention to the fact that no one has been able to remove the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Senior... you must definitely prepare yourself for failure.”

No one expected that the incomparably arrogant Zhou Zongzhi would start to flatter Chu Feng and wear an appearance of being petty and low.

That said, the crowd had no idea that Zhou Zongzhi was thinking about something completely different from what he was saying, ‘Regardless of how powerful you might be, you will still not be able remove the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. I’ll watch as you humiliate yourself here.’

Chu Feng did not bother with Zhou Zongzhi again. Instead, he directly moved his right hand toward the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

The next moment, the entire region turned silent. It was so quiet that the only sounds that one could hear were intense heartbeats.

Everyone was stunned. This was especially true for that Zhou Zongzhi who was waiting for a show. He was completely dumbstruck.

Even Ma Yue and Tian Yi couldn’t believe their eyes, and were rubbing them nonstop.

The reason for that was because the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone that no one was able to move had been removed from the altar.

It was now being held in Chu Feng’s right hand.

Chapter 2377 – Stirring Up A Sensation

“So that’s the case,” Chu Feng held the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone in his hand and revealed a smile on his face.

“Chu Feng, what did you discover?” Eggy asked curiously. Even though she was able to share Chu Feng’s vision with him, she was unable to tell what he was thinking, nor was she able to sense what Chu Feng was currently sensing from the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

“This Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone contains an entirely separate space inside it,” Chu Feng said. “There’s actually such a thing? Are you able to enter it?” Her Lady Queen asked. “This space is most definitely not something that just anyone could enter. However, I... am able to enter it,” Chu Feng said confidently.

At that moment, Chu Feng swept his gaze through the crowd, and saw their stunned expressions.

From that, Chu Feng became even more certain that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was most likely as Tian Yi and the others had said, that it was not something that anyone could remove. However, not only did Chu Feng easily remove it, he was also able to sense the space within the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. All of that pointed to one thing — that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone possessed some sort of connection with Chu Feng.

It was as if the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone had been prepared for Chu Feng. “Quickly, go in and have a look. Maybe there are treasures there,” Her Lady Queen said excitedly.

“Mn,” Chu Feng did not hesitate. With a shift of his body, Chu Feng turned into blue light and entered the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

“What’s going on?!!!” The crowd had their eyes fixed onto Chu Feng the entire time. As such, they clearly saw what had happened just then. To them, it appeared as if Chu Feng had been sucked into the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

However, before then, they had never heard of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone possessing such an ability. As such, the crowd were feeling extremely alarmed and frightened. One by one, they moved away, distancing themselves from the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. “Exactly what happened earlier? Could it be that he triggered the power of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, and was refined by it?” The crowd that didn’t know exactly what had happened all thought that Chu Feng was killed by the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

While all that was happening, Chu Feng had already entered the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

This was an isolated space. The space was not very big. It was only large enough to contain a hundred people.

However, the walls of this place seemed to be formed of jadeite. They were jade green, and glimmering brightly. The materials of the walls greatly resembled the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone itself.

“Why is there nothing here?” After observing the surroundings, Her Lady Queen revealed a disappointed expression. She had thought that there would be treasures inside this space. However, there was nothing here at all.

“No, it’s not that there’s nothing here.”

“I am certain that this place... is most definitely a place that our Chu Heavenly Clan’s seniors prepared for later generations,” Compared to Her Lady Queen’s disappointment, Chu Feng was feeling very excited.

“Chu Feng, do you sense something?” Her Lady Queen asked excitedly.

“Natural Energies and the way of martial cultivation, this place contains both of them,” Chu Feng said.

“You mean to say?” Her Lady Queen revealed an excited expression. Being clever and quick-witted, she had already managed to guess some things.

“This place is a treasure deposit that the Chu Heavenly Clan’s seniors meticulously left behind. Not only am I able to obtain a great amount of Natural Energies, I am also able to make quick breakthroughs in cultivation,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s actually the case? Quickly, refine the Natural Energies,” Her Lady Queen was even more impatient than Chu Feng.

After all, what Chu Feng needed to do the most right now was reach breakthroughs in cultivation. The opportunity before him was simply akin to someone sending him charcoal in snowy weather. He had simply discovered it at the perfect time.

“Merely, I fear that I will not be able to avoid the Divine Tribulation even in here. For the sake of my safety, it is best that I set up a spirit formation first.” As Chu Feng spoke, he set up a layer of spirit formations that adhered to the jadeite walls in the space.

After Chu Feng finished those preparations, he sat down cross-legged and began to wholeheartedly refine the Natural Energies.

While this place possessed abundant amounts of Natural Energy, Chu Feng’s ability to refine them was superior.

In merely a short moment, Chu Feng had already refined all of the Natural Energies within that isolated space.

If it had been before he had reached Half Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng would definitely have reached a breakthrough immediately after refining the Natural Energies. However, he was currently obstructed by bottlenecks now. His path of martial cultivation was no longer as smooth as it had been before. This matter had been on Chu Feng's mind the entire time. Thus, regardless of whether he might be resting, journeying to some place or in a certain land, Chu Feng would always attempt to comprehend the path of martial cultivation. He had never once stopped that sort of training. That said, Chu Feng's efforts had not been in vain. To Chu Feng, this ended up being extremely helpful. This was made evident when Chu Feng encountered the first bottleneck before him, the junction to break through to rank six Half Martial Ancestor. Chu Feng did not have to rely on any external forces, nor did he have to waste time on comprehension.

Instead, merely by relying on the comprehension he had come to within that period of time, Chu Feng managed to break through the bottleneck.

However, Chu Feng's cultivation did not immediately reach a breakthrough. Instead, he started to frown. He opened his eyes, and then looked skyward. "Oh crap!"

"What's wrong?" Her Lady Queen asked in confusion. "Right now, I am breaking through to rank six Half Martial Ancestor. This means that I will have to withstand fifty percent of the Divine Tribulation's power."

"With fifty percent, the Divine Tribulation's power will no longer be formless."

"I was so anxious to reach a breakthrough that I actually forgot about that," Chu Feng said.

"What do we do then?" Her Lady Queen asked.

"Unless this Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone possesses some special power that can conceal the Divine Tribulation... I fear that I will cause a great commotion," Chu Feng said.

.....

At the same time, outside of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. In the Hundred Refinements Stage. Everyone was looking toward the sky with raised heads. Expressions of fear filled their eyes.

Even though the Hundred Refinements Stage was sealed by a spirit formation, they were able to see the sky from within the Hundred Refinements Stage's spirit formation.

At that moment, black clouds were surging in the sky. Lightning was flickering, and thunder was rumbling nonstop. The lightning pierced through the sky, and the rumbles shook the earth.

Black clouds and lightning were things that the crowd had all seen before. For cultivators like them, they were easily able to create abnormal signs in the sky. Logically, this should be a very common sight. There shouldn't be a reason for any of them to care about it.

However, what the crowd was seeing right now was completely different. Firstly, the black clouds and lightning originated from deep within the sky. It was a height that martial cultivators were unable to reach.

It was impossible for an abnormal sign to appear in a place like that. As for the black clouds, although they did not cover a vast area, they were surging violently like an army of countless demons galloping in the sky. Looking at them, one would feel painfully oppressed. The black clouds were so frightening, they made one feel like they were suffocating. However, the main reason why the crowd was so frightened was the lightning flickering in the clouds. That lightning was simply too frightening. It was no ordinary lightning, and resembled dragons more than anything else. Those were lightning dragons capable of splitting apart heaven and earth, capable of extinguishing all living things.

To the crowd, a scene like that was truly frightening to the extreme. Even though they were all martial cultivators, they were still extremely scared.

The reason for their fear was because they knew that they would undoubtedly die should a lightning bolt from the clouds strike them. ....

In fact, it was not only the people from the Hundred Refinements Stage that noticed the change in the sky. Even some of the people from the guardian clan outside of the Hundred Refinements Stage noticed it.

At that moment, led by their clan chief, people from the guardian clan were standing in the sky in an orderly manner with their eyes fixed to the scene that was happening in the depths of the sky. They all had the same sort of expression on their faces. It was the expression of unease.

“What is that?!” The guardian clan’s clan chief started to frown, and his frown grew denser and denser.

He had no idea exactly how powerful the lightning flickering in the black clouds was. However, he was able to tell that it was a power capable of destroying heaven and earth.

If the lightning was to pierce through the clouds and strike down, regardless of where it might land, the lightning would definitely bring about an unimaginable disaster. “What’s going on? Why does that lightning feel so frightening?”

Kong Zheng, Hu Xuanyi and the others who were journeying through the Hundred Refinements Stage also stopped their movements. They looked to the sky with uneasy gazes.

“Rumble~~~”

Suddenly, a loud explosion was heard from the sky.

“Oh no!!!!”

At that moment, everyone felt immense uneasy.

They had discovered that a lightning bolt had pierced through the black cloud, and was striking down. Furthermore, it was striking straight down toward their destination.

Chapter 2378 – Rank Six Half Martial Ancestor

“Heavens! That lightning is coming for us! Everyone, run away!!!” At that moment, the surrounding crowd were all pale with fear. They were starting to flee ignominiously.

“No, it’s useless. There’s not enough time. We won’t be able to escape,” However, there were people like Ma Yue who did not escape. It was not that they did not want to escape. Rather, they were able to see the power of that lightning bolt, and realized that they could not escape that calamity.

That lightning bolt was simply too powerful. Not only was it astonishingly powerful, it was also extremely fast. In merely a short moment, it had struck down upon them.

However, after that frightening lightning descended onto the Hundred Refinements Stage, it did not cause devastating destruction.

Shock. Everyone was shocked. They were completely puzzled.

They were unable to understand why the descent of such a frightening lightning bolt would not cause any damage.

In fact, even the defensive formation guarding the Hundred Refinements Stage was completely undamaged. That lightning was like a ray of light that penetrated through the defensive formation.

However, in terms of being the most shocked, it would be Ma Yue and the others who were around the altar.

Their eyes were wide open, and their tongues were tied as they looked to the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone on the ground. Disbelief filled their gazes.

“Did you all see that? Did you all see what just happened?” Zhou Zongzhi did not dare to believe what he had seen. Thus, he turned to ask the others.

“We saw. T-that lightning... it was actually sucked into the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone like Chu Feng,” The crowd said.

“What’s going on? Did that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone save us? Or could it be... that the lightning was caused by the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone to begin with? Was it warning us that it is a sacred item that no one must touch?”

“Frightening, too frightening. As expected of something from the Ancient Era, it is truly not something that we can touch at will. That reckless fool, he truly provoked an enormous calamity,” The crowd were feeling extremely uneasy. One by one, they stood up and began to flee. The reason for that was because they all felt that the cause of all this was the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Right at that moment, Zhou Zongzhi suddenly ordered, “Stop! All of you, stay there! None of you are allowed to leave!” “Big brother Zhou, this place is too dangerous. We must get away from here,” Someone urged.

“Fools! If that lightning wanted to harm us, none of us would be able to escape alive. As long as we’re in the Hundred Refinements Stage, it will be the same result regardless of where we go. That is, we will be killed,” Zhou Zongzhi said.

“Then, are we to wait for death here?” Someone asked.

“No, not death. Rather, we must wait for the arrival of the elders.”

“It is impossible for something like this to be noticed by only us. Likely, the guardian clan’s elders must have noticed it too. They will most definitely reach this place soon. Not only them, even that Lord Clan Chief who has never appeared will no doubt have to show himself.” “After all, the scene earlier was truly too terrifying.” “Since they don’t know what happened, they will most definitely be confused. However, we know exactly what happened, exactly what led to this disaster.” “Thus, we must all stay here and honestly report to the elders about this matter.”

“At that time, we will have committed a great service, and will most definitely be rewarded,” Zhou Zongzhi said.

“Big brother Zhou is truly brilliant,” At that moment, the crowd finally realized what Zhou Zongzhi was thinking. One by one, they revealed expressions of admiration.

After hearing Zhou Zongzhi’s plan, Ma Yue said to Tian Yi, “We cannot allow senior to be captured by the guardian clan. We must help.” “But, how are we to help? We don’t even know whether or not that senior is still alive,” Tian Yi was a bit bewildered.

“No matter what, we must try,” As Ma Yue spoke, she leapt onto the altar and extended her hand toward the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. She was planning to bring the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone away.

However, Ma Yue was simply unable to move that seemingly ordinary Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. No matter how much strength she put forth, she was unable to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone in the slightest.

“Hahaha. Ma Yue, you are simply getting carried away by your wishful thinking. Since the Ancient Era, there has never been anyone that could move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Someone like you will never be able to move it. It is best that you not bother wasting your strength.” “Moreover, that senior of yours is already dead,” Zhou Zongzhi mocked.

“Shut up! Senior is extremely powerful. Furthermore, he is an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. It is absolutely impossible for him to have died!” Ma Yue shouted angrily.

“Immortal-cloak World Spiritist? So that person was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Upon hearing what Ma Yue said, the crowd’s expressions all changed. To them, people from the Lower Realms, Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were akin to legends. Thus, after finding out that Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, they felt even more reverence toward Chu Feng.

“Humph, so what? He has already been sucked into the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Furthermore, that frightening lightning was also sucked into the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.”

“Even if he’s an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it will definitely be impossible for him to withstand the power of that lightning. He will undoubtedly die. In fact, he has most definitely died already,” Zhou Zongzhi said in a very fierce manner.

Actually, Zhou Zongzhi was very afraid. He was very scared at the thought that Chu Feng did not die. The reason for that was because Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were simply too frightening to him. With someone like that standing behind Ma Yue, Zhou Zongzhi was feeling very uneasy.

“You shut up!” As Ma Yue spoke, she shot forth a punch.

“Bang~~~”

That Zhou Zongzhi was knocked flying. When he fell to the ground, he rolled about repeatedly. “Ma Yue, you’re taking advantage of me now that I’m injured. Just you wait until my injuries are recovered. At that time, I will tear your flesh from your bones!!!” Zhou Zongzhi started to furiously gnash his teeth in rage. Although Ma Yue’s punch did not leave any serious injuries on him, it had insulted his ego, and he found it intolerable. .... Meanwhile. In the space within the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. The Divine Tribulation’s lightning had disappeared. Only Chu Feng still sat cross-legged in the space. Chu Feng’s aura was currently rising. In merely a short moment, it had increased from rank five Half Martial Ancestor to rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

“Success. Chu Feng, you’re amazing. That Divine Tribulation was so frightening. Yet, you were actually able to withstand it.” “You’ve passed the Divine Tribulation, and successfully become a rank six Half Martial Ancestor,” Her Lady Queen was endlessly excited.

Earlier, she had finally seen the appearance of the Divine Tribulation’s lightning. Merely by seeing it, she was able to imagine how frightening that Divine Tribulation’s lightning was. The way she saw it, that lightning was simply too powerful. With Chu Feng’s current cultivation, it should be simply impossible for him to withstand it. However, Chu Feng managed to withstand it. Her Lady Queen felt very proud of Chu Feng’s accomplishment.

“Indeed, that lightning was very powerful. However, there is an enormous difference between the actual might that it contained and what it appeared to contain.”

“Else, it would be impossible for me to withstand it,” Chu Feng said.

“So that’s the case. Could it also be because of that spirit formation? Did it lessen the might of the Divine Tribulation’s lightning?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“No, it’s most likely not only because of the spirit formation. Rather, there should be some other reason. That’s because the might of the Divine Tribulation’s lightning that landed on me differed too much from when I saw it.” “It might be possible that the Divine Tribulation did not unleash its true power.” “After all, if the Divine Tribulation’s lightning was as powerful as it had appeared to be, likely no one would be able to withstand it,” Chu Feng said.

“Well, that doesn’t matter. After all, you’ve successfully broken through to rank six Half Martial Ancestor.”

“Come, let’s go out. The Divine Tribulation’s lightning was simply too mighty. If the people outside were to see it, it would definitely lead to a major commotion. Likely, the people from the guardian clan will rush over here,” Her Lady Queen said.

“If the people from the guardian clan wish to capture me, I will likely not be able to escape. Thus, I might as well not leave so quickly,” Chu Feng said.

“Not leave? What are you staying for?” Her Lady Queen revealed a puzzled expression. “Continue breaking through,” Chu Feng said.

Chapter 2379 – The Reappearance Of The Divine Tribulation’s Lightning

“You’re kidding. You’re planning to continue with your breakthrough? But...” Her Lady Queen was pleasantly surprised. However, she also found it unbelievable. After all, she knew that Chu Feng had already gathered sufficient Natural Energy to break through to rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

The reason why Chu Feng had not broken through to rank nine Half Martial Ancestor yet was because he would have to face the various hurdles that all other martial cultivators had to face.

The hurdles were akin to closed gates before him. They were not things that he could burst through merely by gathering a sufficient amount of Natural Energy. If he wanted to pass through those gates, he would have to achieve comprehension of martial cultivation, and use wisdom exclusive to himself to decipher the method to achieve a breakthrough. Before, it was because of the Moonlight Immortal Spirit Herb’s root that Chu Feng was able to rapidly break through to rank five Half Martial Ancestor. Not only did the root contain a dense amount of Natural Energy of a berserk nature, it also contained comprehension towards martial cultivation. Thus, Chu Feng was able to reach sufficient comprehension to break through right after refining the root. As for before, Eggy felt that the reason why Chu Feng was able to break through to rank six Half Martial Ancestor was because Chu Feng had refined the Natural Energies contained in this place. After all, Chu Feng himself declared that not only did the isolated space contain dense Natural Energies, it also contained comprehension towards martial cultivation. Likely, those were opportunities and treasures left behind by the Chu Heavenly Clan’s seniors, treasures capable of allowing one to reach a breakthrough. Thus, Eggy felt that while Chu Feng’s comprehension towards martial cultivation that he had made in the recent period of time might have assisted in his breakthrough to rank six Half Martial Ancestor, it was mainly the comprehension towards martial cultivation contained in the Natural Energies in this place that allowed him to reach sufficient comprehension to reach a breakthrough. In other words, to the current Chu Feng, Natural Energies were no longer the most important aspect to reaching a breakthrough in cultivation. The most important thing for him would be attaining comprehension toward the way of martial cultivation. As such, Eggy was confused. Chu Feng had clearly attained comprehension here and reached a breakthrough. As such, how could he be able to reach another breakthrough? Could it be that Chu Feng had obtained an enormous harvest from this place, and received enough comprehension to break through two levels of cultivations in succession? “Eggy, if I am not mistaken, you must be thinking that I have relied on the comprehension from this place to reach my earlier breakthrough, right?”

“Actually, that is not the case. Before obtaining the comprehension from this place, I myself had already managed to comprehend quite a bit of the way of martial cultivation.” “Merely, I didn’t know whether or not the way of martial cultivation that I’d comprehended would be capable of helping me reach a breakthrough. That was why I had not yet attempted to break through in cultivation before this.” “However, earlier, when I was making my breakthrough, I discovered that the comprehensions I’ve made myself were actually sufficient to allow me to reach a breakthrough,” Chu Feng said.

“In that case, it means that your earlier breakthrough was unrelated to the comprehension toward the way of martial cultivation you’ve obtained from this place, and was purely your own comprehension?” Her Lady Queen was very shocked.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Boy, you’ve truly grown more and more amazing. You are making this Queen more and more proud,” Her Lady Queen began to praise Chu Feng nonstop.

“As a result, since I’ve already managed to achieve a new level of comprehension towards the way of martial cultivation myself, if I am to add the new comprehension that I’ve obtained from here, I might be able to attempt to break through to rank seven Half Martial Ancestor,” Chu Feng said.

“Great, this is truly great. There is simply nothing better than this. You’re actually able to reach two successive breakthroughs.”

“This journey was not in vain. This journey was truly not in vain,” Her Lady Queen was extremely excited. It was as if she were the one to receive this happy occasion, as she was even more delighted than Chu Feng. “Indeed, this journey has not been in vain. While I know clearly that the Chu Heavenly Clan’s seniors did not deliberately leave these for me, I still feel really grateful to be able to obtain all of this.”

The reason for that was because the way of martial cultivation in this place was different from that of the Exalted’s Remnants.

The way of martial cultivation in the Exalted’s Remnants existed as puzzles. Chu Feng had to personally comprehend those puzzles and solve each and every one of them to obtain the way of martial cultivation. If he wanted to comprehend everything in the Exalted’s Remnants, he had to solve all the puzzles. As for those puzzles, they were extremely difficult. Chu Feng did not possess certainty in his ability to solve all of them. However, that space was different. The way of martial cultivation in that space did not exist in puzzle form. Rather, it had been left untouched. However, for things like the way of cultivation, they were generally only things that one could grasp intuitively, and not be conveyed with words. Thus, to be able to turn one's comprehension into the way of cultivation to pass on to another was sufficient to show how much effort that Chu Heavenly Clan's senior had put forth.

As such, how could Chu Feng not feel grateful about obtaining the laborious efforts of his senior?

"Enough, stop acting so emotional now. There's no time to lose. It's better that you seize the opportunity to quickly reach another breakthrough, since you've just reached a breakthrough. Else, if you are to wait, you might end up being unable to reach another breakthrough," Her Lady Queen's expression suddenly changed, and she started to urge Chu Feng. Even though she was a world spirit, she also knew about how difficult it was to break through one's martial cultivation bottleneck.

Natural Energies and one's comprehension toward the way of martial cultivation were not the only important aspects to reaching a breakthrough.

There was even a requirement in one's state of mind. Else, there would not be that many people in closed-door training for decades yet still unable to reach a breakthrough.

And now, it was clear that Chu Feng's current state was very good. Thus, Her Lady Queen did not want Chu Feng to waste time and miss his opportunity. "Yes, Milady Queen," Chu Feng smiled mischievously. Then, without hesitation, he closed his eyes, gathered his thoughts and began to utilize the comprehension he himself had achieved, as well as the comprehension he had obtained from this isolated space, and all of the secrets he knew regarding the way of martial cultivation, to attempt to reach another breakthrough past the bottleneck to rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

Compared to the previous time, Chu Feng spent much more time this time around.

This caused Her Lady Queen to reveal a very nervous expression on her exquisite face. She was very scared that Chu Feng would fail.

After all, in all this time, Chu Feng had been able to reach breakthroughs in cultivation without failure as long as he was serious in reaching a breakthrough.

She also did not wish for Chu Feng to fail this time around. She was afraid... afraid that a failure would be a blow to Chu Feng's self-confidence, that it would affect Chu Feng's future accomplishments.

However, Her Lady Queen didn't know that her worries were unnecessary.

Even though Chu Feng spent quite some time this time around, he still managed to succeed in the end.

However, due to the presence of the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, the first thing to change after Chu Feng successfully reached a breakthrough was not an increase in cultivation.

Rather, in the depths of the sky... The black clouds and Divine Tribulation's lighting that had since disappeared were once again gathering in the depths of the sky where even martial cultivators were unable to reach. Furthermore, it was even mightier and more frightening this time around. "It's here again! Heavens! That frightening lightning is here again!"

"What's going on?! The pressure this time around is even more frightening than last time!"

The crowd's expressions changed enormously as they saw the change in the sky. Even though Zhou Zongzhi had already warned the crowd that they would not be able to escape, many people were unable to contain the fear in their hearts and began to flee in disarray when they saw the frightening lightning that appeared deep in the sky.

“Lil’ Yue, quickly, escape. That lightning is going to descend. If you stay here, you will definitely be struck dead by it,” Tian Yi began to panic upon seeing that scene. He hurriedly rushed over and wanted to bring Ma Yue away. After all, not only was Ma Yue standing by the altar, she was also tightly grabbing onto the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone with her hands. “No, I can’t give up like this, I can’t disregard senior,” Ma Yue said stubbornly. “Then I’ll accompany you,” Seeing that Ma Yue refused to move, Tian Yi did not escape by himself. Instead, he extended his hands and exhausted all of his strength with the intention of helping Ma Yue move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However, regardless of how hard the two of them tried, they were unable to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone in the slightest. “Haha. Two ignorant fools. By standing there, you two can just wait till that lightning strikes you to death,” Zhou Zongzhi mocked and laughed.

The way he saw it, standing in the vicinity of the altar should be safe. However, to stand that close to the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone itself was a deathwish.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, the Divine Tribulation’s lightning finally pierced through the clouds and struck straight down toward the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

Seeing the Divine Tribulation’s lightning descending, and its light basking the great earth, Ma Yue and Tian Yi felt that they would meet certain death, and finally released the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone from their grasp. The two of them then hugged one another and prepared to meet death. “You’re kidding!!!”

At that moment, the expressions of the surrounding crowd changed enormously.

The reason for that was because they saw with their very own eyes that the frightening Divine Tribulation's lightning brushed past Ma Yue and Tian Yi without injuring them in the slightest. Like the lightning before it, it entered the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

Chapter 2380 – Immovable

“We’re still alive?” Ma Yue and Tian Yi had astonished expressions on their faces. Neither of them dared to believe that they were still alive. After all, the two of them were so close to the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Thus, they had truly felt the terror of that Divine Tribulation’s lightning.

It was an indescribable terror. If they had to describe it, then it would be the sort of terror that would be their eternal nightmare.

“This... exactly what is going on?” After a moment of astonishment, Ma Yue and Tian Yi cast their gazes to the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

At that moment, their gazes had changed. They felt with even greater certainty that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was unfathomable.

They felt that the frightening lightning must have been caused by the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

To be able to give rise to such frightening lightning, it better signified how powerful the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, several figures flew over and descended outside the altar. As for those people, they were none other than Kong Zheng, Hu Xuanyi and the other elders. “We pay our respect to Lord Elders!!!” Upon seeing those people, the people from the Lower Realms did not dare to show any negligence. They immediately knelt on the ground and greeted them respectfully.

Furthermore, they possessed very nervous expressions on their faces. Especially when facing Hu Xuanyi, they did not dare to look him in the face.

Although Hu Xuanyi was a peak Half Martial Ancestor like all the other elders, Hu Xuanyi possessed a special status in the guardian clan. As such, he possessed enormous authority in the Hundred Refinements Stage. It could be said that he was the elder that the people from the Lower Realms feared the most.

“Did you all notice the descent of two lightning strikes earlier? Exactly where did those two bolts of lightning fall?” Hu Xuanyi directly asked the crowd.

The reason for that was because they had seen that the two lightnings had both descended at the altar.

“Lord Elders, we did indeed see them. Those lightning bolts were caused by the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone,” Zhou Zongzhi’s voice suddenly sounded.

“Zhou Zongzhi?” The elders turned toward the direction of the voices, and were immediately shocked.

The reason for that was because not only was Zhou Zongzhi beaten beyond recognition and covered in blood, he did not even possess the strength to stand up. As he spoke, he started to crawl towards them. That appearance of his was truly miserable.

“Zhou Zongzhi, how did you end up in this state? Who injured you?” Seeing such a Zhou Zongzhi, the elders were all very shocked.

“Could it be...” Suddenly, an elder thought of something. Then, he turned his gaze to Ma Yue and shouted angrily, “Ma Yue, how could you be this vicious?!”

“Are you a fool?! Zhou Zongzhi is now a rank four Half Martial Ancestor, whereas Ma Yue is still only a rank three Half Martial Ancestor. How could Ma Yue beat Zhou Zongzhi to such a state?” Hu Xuanyi said.

“But...” That elder who shouted at Ma Yue started to look around. His intention was clear. He felt that there was no one else here other than Ma Yue who would attack Zhou Zongzhi like so.

“Lord Elders, while it is true that I was not injured by Ma Yue, the person who injured me is deeply related to Ma Yue,” Zhou Zongzhi seized the opportunity to report on Ma Yue.

“Related to Ma Yue? Someone that is able to injure you and is related to Ma Yue? Who is it? Speak immediately!!!” An elder declared. “Wait. Leave this matter for now. Zhou Zongzhi, you said that the frightening lightning was caused by the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone?”

“Furthermore, why did the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone change its location all of a sudden?” “Exactly what is going on? Tell me everything truthfully,” Hu Xuanyi said. “Lord Elders, this is what happened...” Zhou Zongzhi began to narrate what happened in full detail to Hu Xuanyi and the others.

“You’re saying that a person who declared himself to be from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm arrived in this place and moved the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Then, he infuriated the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone and was refined by it. Then, the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone caused those two lightning strikes?” Hu Xuanyi asked with a face filled with astonishment. He didn’t really believe what Zhou Zongzhi said. Not only him, the other elders also didn’t really believe Zhou Zongzhi.

Not mentioning whether or not the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was able to cause that lightning, the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was something that was immovable by anyone. As such, how could that guy Zhou Zongzhi described possibly be able to move it? “Lord Elders, what I’ve described is absolutely true. This Zhou Zongzhi would not dare to deceive Lord Elders!!!” “If you all don’t trust me, you can go and ask them. They are able to bear witness to all of it,” Zhou Zongzhi said. “Lord Elders, it is as big brother Zhou said. Everything was caused by that person who proclaimed himself to have been from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm,” The crowd echoed. “Describe the appearance of that guy to me,” Right at that moment, Kong Zheng stood forth.

“This person is?” Faced with an unfamiliar face, Zhou Zongzhi and the others started to hesitate.

“He is Young Master Kong Zheng of the Kong Heavenly Clan. Answer all his questions honestly,” Hu Xuanyi ordered.

“So it’s actually Young Master Kong Zheng of the Kong Heavenly Clan. This lowly one has eyes but failed to recognize Mount Tai. I hope that Young Master Kong Zheng will not blame me,” At that moment, Zhou Zongzhi hurriedly greeted Kong Zheng to admit his mistake.

“We pay our respects to Young Master Kong Zheng,” At the same time, the others also started to respectfully greet Kong Zheng. Even though they had been in the Hundred Refinements Stage the entire time, they knew about the situation outside. As such, they naturally knew that the Kong Heavenly Clan was among the four strongest powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

It could be said that the Kong Heavenly Clan was a colossus that they dreamed of having connections with. And now, a young master of that powerful colossus was before them; how could they possibly dare to show any disrespect?

“Enough superfluous words. Speak immediately,” Kong Zheng looked down on Zhou Zongzhi and the others from the bottom of his heart. Thus, regardless of how they treated him, he would still hold them in contempt.

That said, Zhou Zongzhi did not dare to show negligence toward Kong Zheng. Thus, he hurriedly described Chu Feng’s appearance to Kong Zheng and the others.

“How could this be?!” After hearing Zhou Zongzhi’s description, Kong Zheng’s expression changed immediately. Then, he looked to Hu Xuanyi and revealed an angry expression. He said, “Didn’t you say that Chu Feng would absolutely not be able to come in here? How is it that he's in here? Furthermore, he arrived here before me!"

"You're saying that the man who proclaimed himself to have been from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm and moved the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is that Chu Feng?"

"That's impossible! Before you entered, the Hundred Refinements Stage's entrance had not been opened. It should be impossible for him to have entered here," Hu Xuanyi had an astonished expression.

"It truly hadn't been opened before?" Kong Zheng asked. "It hadn't. Absolutely not," Before Hu Xuanyi could answer, the others elders spoke in unison.

"Could it be that it isn't Chu Feng then? But... that description truly resembled that Chu Feng," At that moment, Kong Zheng's eyes were flickering nonstop with bewilderment. "Forget about it. It doesn't matter anymore. I've come here precisely for the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Regardless of what might have happened, it will all be fine as long as this Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is still here," As Kong Zheng spoke, he began to move toward the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. "Young Master Kong Zheng, don't go over there. If it is truly as they declared, if the lightning really was caused by the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, it would mean that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is currently extremely dangerous. It is best that you do not approach it," Hu Xuanyi stopped Kong Zheng.

"Humph, regardless of how dangerous it is, I must still take it. No one will be able to stop me," Kong Zheng was determined. He disregarded Hu Xuanyi and the others' advice and proceeded toward the altar with large strides.

"It would seem that the guardian clan's clan chief has deceived me. No one is able to move you? Didn't you already get moved?"

Kong Zheng looked to the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone and revealed a faint smile.

Originally, he had had a trace of worry in his heart. He was afraid that he would not be able to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. After all, he had guaranteed that he would be able to move it before arriving at the altar. Thus, if he were to fail, it would be extremely humiliating.

However, he no longer had the slightest bit of worry anymore. Being extremely confident, he felt that since someone else was capable of moving it, he would definitely be able to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone too. Kong Zheng then raised his sleeve and lowered his back. With overwhelming confidence, he placed his hands onto the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

“Mn?”

However, at that moment, Kong Zheng’s expression changed. He started to panic. He was shocked to discover that he was unable to lift that seemingly normal stone.

“I refuse to believe this!” After a declaration, lightning flickered in Kong Zheng’s eyes. Not only did he activate his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, he had also utilized a Heaven Taboo Martial Skill capable of increasing his strength.

“Amazing! Is this the legendary Heavenly Bloodline?!” “As expected of a Kong Heavenly Clan’s young master. His power is simply too astonishing!!!”

After seeing the lighting unleashed by Kong Zheng, Zhou Zongzhi and the others began to praise him nonstop. At that moment, they did not feel the slightest doubt towards Kong Zheng’s ability. They all felt that Kong Zheng would definitely be able to lift the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. After all, someone else had already accomplished it earlier.

They felt that since someone from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm was able to do it, an exceptional genius like Kong Zheng would definitely be able to do it too.

“Heeaaahh!!!”

Before the attentive gazes of the crowd, Kong Zheng suddenly shouted. Following that, a burst of boundless aura was emitted from his body.

At that moment, Kong Zheng’s veins bulged, and his entire body turned red. He unleashed all of his power in that split second.

“This!!!”

However, at that moment, the crowd were stupefied. They were at a complete loss.

The reason for that was because even though Kong Zheng had unleashed such overwhelming might and used such powerful abilities, the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone did not move in the slightest.

Chapter 2381 – Disbelief

---

“Ahh~~~”

A furious voice resonated. The surging aura seemed to be able to topple mountains and overturn the seas as it blasted through the trees.

Kong Zheng was unreconciled. He was still trying to lift the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However... he had been unable to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone the entire time.

“Even a Heavenly Bloodline possessor is unable to move that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone?”

“But, that guy earlier, how did he manage to accomplish it?”

At that moment, the crowd was certain that Kong Zheng would not be able to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However, the more this was the case, the more astonished the crowd felt. They were astonished at how Chu Feng was able to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

“Someone was truly able to move this Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone earlier?” After his efforts amounted to naught, Kong Zheng turned to question Zhou Zongzhi and the others.

“Y-yes, i-it was indeed moved. Else, it would be impossible for it to give rise to the lightning strikes,” Zhou Zongzhi said stuttering. Faced with Kong Zheng, he was feeling somewhat timid.

“Impossible! Even I am unable to move this Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, how could someone possibly be able to move it?!” Kong Zheng shouted loudly.

At that moment, he had a determined expression. It was as if what he had said was the truth. However, he was in fact feeling very diffident. The reason for that was if someone really had managed to accomplish what he had failed to do, it would truly be too humiliating for him. As for that, it was not a result that he wanted.

As for the people present, they were no fools. They were all able to tell that Kong Zheng was displeased. Thus, with the special status that Kong Zheng possessed, there would naturally be no one that dared to deny what Kong Zheng had declared to be true. Thus, even though they had seen Chu Feng moving the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone with their very eyes, no one dared to utter another word.

At that moment, it was absolutely quiet. “Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, an image suddenly shot out from the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Immediately after, the image took actual form and became a person.

As for that person, it was none other than Chu Feng.

“It’s him! Lord Elders, Young Master Kong Zheng, that is the man who proclaimed to be from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm and moved the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone!”

“He was the one who angered the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone and brought forth the wrath of Heaven, brought forth those frightening lightning strikes!”

“But... how... how... how is he still alive?!”

Zhou Zongzhi and the others were incomparably shocked. Not mentioning whether or not Chu Feng was refined by the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, those two frightening lightning strikes had both entered the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone as well. Logically, it should be impossible for Chu Feng to still be alive. Yet... not only was he safe and sound, he appeared to be even more spirited than before he had entered the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

“Chu Feng, it’s actually you?!!!”

Upon seeing Chu Feng, Kong Zheng’s expression changed enormously. The reason for that was because this verified his guess that Chu Feng had entered the Hundred Refinements Stage.

“He is that Chu Feng?”

“How did he enter this place?” At that moment, Hu Xuanyi and the others were also extremely surprised.

“You were the one who moved the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone earlier?” Kong Zheng turned to ask Chu Feng.

“That’s right. What about it?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

At that moment, Chu Feng was standing less than three meters away from Kong Zheng. Although they were standing extremely close, Chu Feng did not place Kong Zheng in his eyes at all.

The reason for that was because the current Chu Feng was no longer the same as the Chu Feng from back then. Chu Feng had managed to withstand the second Divine Tribulation’s lightning, and successfully reach two successive breakthroughs in cultivation, and was now at rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

Back then, when Chu Feng was a rank five Half Martial Ancestor, when Chu Feng had a level of cultivation below Kong Zheng, he was barely able to injure Kong Zheng. And now, Chu Feng was a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, a level of cultivation above Kong Zheng.

Even though Kong Zheng possessed a protective treasure, Chu Feng was confident in being able to completely defeat him.

“I refuse to believe this. Even I am unable to move that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. How could you possibly be able to move it?!”

“Speak! Exactly what sort of despicable means did you use to move this Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, which in turn led to the lightning strikes, the wrath of Heaven?!” Kong Zheng asked loudly, as if he were interrogating a prisoner.

“Despicable means?” Chu Feng snorted lightly. Then, he lowered his back, extended his right hand and effortlessly picked up the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. He said, “Is this your so-called despicable means?”

“This!!!” “This guy, he...!!!”

At that moment, not only were the bystanders astonished, even Kong Zheng moved back several steps and revealed an astonished expression.

The reason for that was because Kong Zheng knew very well how powerful that Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was. He had exhausted all of his strength and used all his abilities, but had been unable to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone in the slightest.

Yet, Chu Feng had managed to lift the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone with one hand in such an effortless manner. With how enormous the disparity between them was, how could Kong Zheng not be astonished?

“No, you must’ve used some sort of demonic method. That’s right... you’re an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, you must have used some sort of special method. Else... how could you possibly be able to hold the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone in your hand?!” Kong Zheng declared.

He was unable to accept that Chu Feng had accomplished what he was unable to accomplish. Thus, he thought of all sorts of means to provide a justification for himself, a means to reject Chu Feng’s otherworldly ability. “Demonic method? Since I’ve already used a demonic method, shouldn’t you also be able to lift it?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

Kong Zheng summoned up his courage and declared, “Of course!” The way he saw it, since the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone had already been lifted by Chu Feng, the special magical power that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone possessed should have disappeared. If he was to be asked to lift it, he should be able to lift it easily too.

“Then give it a try,” As Chu Feng spoke, he tossed the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone he held in his hand toward Kong Zheng.

Chu Feng was unable to be certain whether or not Kong Zheng would be able to lift the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone now. However, he was not afraid.

The reason for that was because even if Kong Zheng was able to lift up the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone now, Chu Feng possessed sufficient strength to snatch it back by force.

“Truly foolish,” Seeing that Chu Feng had actually really tossed the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone toward him, Kong Zheng was brimming with a mocking smile.

The way Kong Zheng saw it, if Chu Feng had not lifted the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, he, Kong Zheng, would not have been able to bring it away. Yet now, Chu Feng had helped him enormously.

“Ouch!!!”

However, the next moment, Kong Zheng let out a scream. The reason for that was because the moment his hands came in contact with the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, he was shocked to discover that the seemingly ordinary Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone had become incomparably heavy, so heavy that he was simply unable to withstand its weight.

Thus, not only did Kong Zheng fall to the ground, his hands were also crushed onto the altar by the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. He was unable to move in the slightest.

“Heavens!!!”

Seeing that scene, the crowd’s expression changed once again. The reason for that was because Chu Feng’s actions had once again signified how extraordinary the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was.

At the same time, this also clearly proved how extraordinary Chu Feng was. Else... why would he be able to so easily lift the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone that others were unable to lift?

“It seems that you are simply unable to lift the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Thus... it’s best that you stop boasting about your merits,” As Chu Feng spoke, he lifted the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone and placed it into his Cosmos Sack.

“How could this be?! How could that guy accomplish such a thing?!!!”

At that moment, the guardian clan’s elders were all unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

Over the years, they had tried all kinds of methods to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Among them was using a Cosmos Sack to directly absorb the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However, regardless of what method they used, it was useless.

At that time, the crowd felt that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was simply immovable. Or perhaps... only those with enormously powerful strength would be able to move it.

Yet now, they had personally seen Chu Feng lift the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone and place it into his Cosmos Sack. After seeing that, they realized one thing.

It turned out that what was important was not one’s strength or ability. Rather, it was who the person was.

As long as it was the correct individual, then any abilities they used would prove effective. However, if it wasn’t the right individual, all abilities they used would be ineffective.

However, the truth was simply too astonishing. This caused Hu Xuanyi and the others to feel disbelief.

Chapter 2382 – I Am Going To Force My Way Through

“Chu Feng, you... you... exactly what sort of demonic technique did you use?!” Kong Zheng was so furious that he started to shiver. He was still unable to accept the truth Chu Feng had revealed to him.

“You can say whatever you want. However, the truth remains as it is. You are unable to accomplish what I can accomplish.”

“Furthermore, even if I did use a demonic technique like you keep insisting, so what? It would only mean that I know that demonic technique, whereas you do not. To put it simply, you are inferior to me,” Chu Feng knew that Kong Zheng was extremely egotistical. Thus, he showed no quarter, and ruthlessly attacked Kong Zheng’s ego.

“You!!!” Sure enough, after being insulted by Chu Feng, Kong Zheng was unable to find a way to refute Chu Feng. and grew so furious that he began to step back repeatedly. Then, his complexion turned pale, and his mouth opened. “Puu,” he sprayed out a mouthful of blood.

He... was actually so angered by Chu Feng that he vomited blood!!!

“Ssss~~~”

Seeing all the things that were happening before them, the crowd sucked in a mouthful of cold air.

They were shocked to discover that not only did Chu Feng possess extraordinary strength, he also possessed dreadful eloquence, and was actually capable of angering someone to the state of vomiting blood with words. This was simply something that they’d never seen before.

After vomiting blood, Kong Zheng burst into a strange laughter.

The crowd were all perplexed by his laughter. They had no idea what Kong Zheng was thinking. The situation at hand could be said to be completely humiliating for Kong Zheng. As such, there shouldn't be any reason for him to burst into such wild laughter, no?

“Chu Feng, so what if you can move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone? Don't you forget that on the way here, you were beaten fleeing by this great young master!” Kong Zheng said to Chu Feng.

“What? Chu Feng was beaten fleeing by Kong Zheng?” Hearing those words, the first reaction of the crowd was astonishment. The reason for that was because they did not feel that Chu Feng would be defeated by Kong Zheng.

“Haha...” Faced with what Kong Zheng declared, Chu Feng chuckled.

“What are you laughing about?! Is what I said not the truth? Did you not flee from me?” Kong Zheng continued. He became more emotional. The reason for that was because he truly wanted to retrieve his lost face.

“That's right. I fled. So what?” Chu Feng had a smile on his face. He remained completely calm the entire time.

“You're kidding! That Chu Feng was actually really beaten fleeing by Kong Zheng? Could it be that Kong Zheng's strength surpasses Chu Feng's?”

Chu Feng's answer immediately cause an enormous commotion among the crowd. Originally, with what happened earlier, they all felt that Chu Feng possessed strength above Kong Zheng. However, they were surprised to discover that their previous guesses had been wrong. After all, even Chu Feng himself admitted to having been beaten fleeing by Kong Zheng.

At that moment, the crowd had an enormous drop in elevation toward Chu Feng.

“It’s good that you admitted to it,” Kong Zheng was listening to the conversations of the crowd. When he heard their conversations, his previously pale complexion finally became a bit more rosy.

The reason for that was because he felt that he had finally retrieved a bit of the face that he had lost earlier.

Like that, Kong Zheng planned to continue to retrieve his lost face. He wanted to trample Chu Feng underneath his foot and reveal himself to be the true genius.

“Indeed, I have admitted to it. That said, I am very curious. What exactly are you planning?” Chu Feng said to Kong Zheng with a beaming smile. Even though he was asking a question, his composed appearance made it seem as if he had already seen through Kong Zheng.

“What am I planning? Isn’t it obvious?”

“Very well, I’ll inform you right now what I plan to do. Even if I am unable to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, I am still going to be the one to win in this competition. After all, I merely need to defeat you and then bring you back,” Kong Zheng said to Chu Feng.

“So that’s what you’re planning. If that’s the case, then I’m afraid that I’ll end up disappointing you,” Chu Feng shook his head with a smile. This was undisguised mockery. He was ridiculing Kong Zheng for being ignorant.

“Disappoint me? Why?” Kong Zheng was surprised. He did not understand what Chu Feng meant. “Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s body suddenly shifted. Like a phantom, he arrived before Kong Zheng. Then, Chu Feng shot forth a punch.

“Bang!” That punch landed onto Kong Zheng’s abdomen.

“Wuuah.”

Everything happened too quickly. Before Kong Zheng could react, he was knocked flying. When he landed, he rolled on the ground repeatedly.

“This...” At that moment, the crowd’s expressions all changed once again. They all revealed shocked expressions.

What was going on?

Wasn’t it made known earlier that Chu Feng was no match against Kong Zheng? That Chu Feng was beaten fleeing by Kong Zheng.

Thus, what was with this situation now? How did Chu Feng manage to knock Kong Zheng flying with his punch?!!!

“You... your cultivation, how did it become rank seven Half Martial Ancestor?!!!” Kong Zheng held his abdomen with one hand and propped himself up from the ground with his other hand. He had a painful expression on his face. He had barely managed to crawl back up. Merely, at that moment, his eyes were filled with astonishment.

“Who told you that I’m not a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor?” Chu Feng smiled. His gaze was filled with contempt.

It was as if Chu Feng was an experienced old cat that was toying with a newborn rat. Everything... was within Chu Feng’s grasp.

“You... you actually concealed your cultivation. No wonder... no wonder!!!” “You despicable bastard. You dared deceive me by concealing your cultivation!!!” Kong Zheng started to gnash his teeth furiously. At that moment, he had determined that Chu Feng had been a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor instead of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor from the very start. Merely, for the sake of making him underestimate Chu Feng, Chu Feng had deliberately concealed his cultivation.

Seeing Kong Zheng's current appearance, the smile on Chu Feng's face grew denser and denser.

Chu Feng knew best what had happened to his cultivation. Before entering the Hundred Refinements Stage, he had indeed only been a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. His current rank seven Half Martial Ancestor-level cultivation was something that he had obtained through successive breakthroughs in the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. However, for the sake of not causing unnecessary trouble, he deliberately made Kong Zheng believe that he had been a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor from the very beginning. And now... he had evidently succeeded in his goal.

“Hu Xuanyi, why are you still standing there? This man has trespassed into the Hundred Refinements Stage and snatched away the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. As an elder of this place, shouldn't you execute him on the spot?!”

That Kong Zheng was truly vengeful. Sensing that he was no match for Chu Feng, he turned to demand that Hu Xuanyi attack. In fact, he even wanted Hu Xuanyi to directly kill Chu Feng. “Chu Feng, how did you reach this place?” At that moment, Hu Xuanyi stood forth and questioned Chu Feng with an ice-cold tone. It was clear that he did not possess good intentions.

“Chu Feng, tell him your identity. Since this place was established by the Chu Heavenly Clan, he will definitely not dare to make things difficult for you should he know your identity,” Her Lady Queen said.

“I came here for the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. As for how I entered this place, I'm afraid I cannot tell you,” Chu Feng said to Hu Xuanyi. “Chu Feng, why didn't you tell them your identity?” Her Lady Queen was astonished by Chu Feng's refusal to do as she had said.

“Eggy, I, Chu Feng, can no longer be considered to be a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan right now. Thus... even if I am to encounter difficulties, I cannot borrow the name of the Chu Heavenly Clan to break free from my predicament. Else... I will have let down the expectations my father has for me,” Chu Feng said.

“You...” Her Lady Queen was so furious that her face turned deep red. However, she soon heaved a long sigh and shook her head, “I truly don’t know what to do with you. What do you plan to do now?”

“If they decide to reconcile with me, it would naturally be for the best. Otherwise... I will force my way through,” Chu Feng said.

“You really refuse to tell? In that case, do not blame me for being impolite!!!”

At that moment, Elder Hu Xuanyi asked again. At the same time, the other guardian clan’s elders had already surrounded Chu Feng, sealing off his escape. Seeing that scene, Chu Feng facepalmed and then shook his head. He smiled lightly and said, “Seems like I’ll have to force my way through.”

Chapter 2383 – Shocking Everyone

---

“Force your way through? You really dare to boast!”

“What place do you consider this place to be?! Who do you take us all to be?!”

“I do not care exactly what sort of origin you might possess. However, I can clearly tell you that this place is the Hundred Refinements Stage, and that we are the guardian clan!”

“Today, you have trespassed into this place. Your action is a capital offense! We are fully entitled to execute you on the spot!” Hu Xuanyi shouted coldly at Chu Feng. As he spoke, he unleashed his rank nine Half Martial Ancestor-level aura.

Once his aura was unleashed, the winds immediately started to scatter the clouds.

It turned out that this elder Hu Xuanyi was not only a peak Half Martial Ancestor, he also possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

His strength could be said to be extremely powerful. One must know that those who possessed heaven-defying battle power were already extraordinary individuals in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. As for a battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, it was even more so.

“Kong Zheng wanted you to execute me on the spot, and you immediately decided to execute me on the spot. Seems to me like you don’t resemble a member of the guardian clan, and instead resemble a dog of the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Chu Feng mocked.

“Impudent! You are truly courting death!!!” Seeing that Chu Feng actually dared to publicly insult him, Hu Xuanyi was immediately enraged. He did not bother with superfluous words anymore. Like a phantom, he flew toward Chu Feng.

He did not utilize any martial skill. Rather, he swung his fists back and forth, shooting out successive punches. The blurs from his punches crisscrossed with one another. They were so numerous and densely packed that they looked like a torrential rain as they rushed to bombard Chu Feng.

“Zzzz!!!”

However, right at the moment when Hu Xuanyi’s attack was about to reach Chu Feng, lightning flashed in Chu Feng’s eyes. Immediately, magnificent wings of lightning extended from his back, and a domineering armor of lightning covered his body.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s cultivation increased by two successive levels. From rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, he was now a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

Moreover, Chu Feng also possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. Thus, all aspects of Chu Feng’s strength were on par with Hu Xuanyi.

Thus, regardless of how powerful Hu Xuanyi’s attack might be, Chu Feng managed to easily dodge all of them.

“This guy, he’s actually also a Heavenly Bloodline possessor?!!!”

“But, didn’t he declare that he was from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm? How could there be someone with a Heavenly Bloodline from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm?!!!!”

Seeing that Chu Feng had unleashed the special abilities of those who possessed Heavenly Bloodlines, the crowd and even the guardian clan’s elders had a change in their expressions as they looked to Chu Feng.

At that moment, they grew even more certain that Chu Feng possessed an extraordinary origin, that he was most definitely no ordinary member of the younger generation. “No wonder you were so confident. Turns out you’re actually a possessor of Heavenly Bloodline. However, even if that is the case, you will still undoubtedly be killed today!”

That said, Hu Xuanyi was determined to kill Chu Feng. Even though he knew that Chu Feng possessed an extraordinary origin, he did not feel the slightest hesitation. Instead, his attacks grew more powerful. He was determined to prove himself. He wanted to defeat Chu Feng using only his martial arts.

“Undoubtedly be killed? You wish to kill me with merely your fancy but impractical skills?” Chu Feng laughed.

“What did you say?!” Hu Xuanyi’s expression changed enormously. He simply did not dare to believe what he had heard.

The reason why he dared to declare that he would defeat Chu Feng using only his martial arts after discovering that Chu Feng possessed strength no inferior to his own was because he was extremely confident.

He was confident in his battle ability.

The reason for that was because his martial arts were the thing that he was most proficient in. No one in the guardian clan that was from the same generation as him was able to contend against him in terms of martial arts. As such, his martial arts were his strong suit, his pride.

Yet, at that moment, the thing that he was most proud of, his martial arts that were seen as godly by others, was actually called ‘fancy but impractical skills’. He simply did not dare to believe his ears.

Insult. This was an insult that he could not tolerate.

“I said, your martial arts are... fancy... but... impractical... skills,” Chu Feng repeated himself one word at a time. “You are truly courting death!” Being insulted by Chu Feng like that, Hu Xuanyi grew even more furious. His punches and kicks grew faster and faster. Merely his punching and kicking had already brought forth energy ripples. The strong winds from his attacks caused the bystanders to be knocked frantically rolling and crawling. Those that were unfortunate enough to be struck by the winds were seriously injured.

At that moment, the bystanders had no choice but to distance themselves from the battle. They were deeply afraid that they would be implicated.

As for Hu Xuanyi, he grew fiercer and fiercer. He had completely unleashed all of his abilities. However... he had yet to connect with any of his punches or kicks.

Most importantly, Chu Feng did not fight back. Instead, he was merely dodging the bombardment of attacks.

“This guy, why is he not fighting back?” Seeing that Chu Feng was dodging and not fighting back the entire time, the elders from the guardian clan became puzzled.

Suddenly, an elder from the guardian clan made an analysis in a deadpan earnest manner. “I got it! I finally understand why that brat is able to dodge Elder Xuanyi’s ferocious attacks.”

“He must have grasped some sort of special method that allows him to dodge Elder Xuanyi’s close-range attacks.” “Merely, that special method of his possesses a major flaw. That is, he can only dodge, and not fight back.”

“That sounds very reasonable. Perhaps that might be it,” Once that theory was presented, the elders of the guardian clan immediately voiced their agreement.

“That guy clearly does not possess any true abilities. Rather, he is relying on some sort of special method to dodge Elder Xuanyi’s attacks. However, he actually still dares to insult Elder Xuanyi. He is truly despicable and shameless!”

Once they all agreed to the proposed theory of Chu Feng relying on some special method and not his own abilities to dodge Hu Xuanyi’s attacks, they immediately started to look down on and even insult Chu Feng.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly attacked. Chu Feng’s fist was extremely fast. Like a flash of light, it shot forth. Before Hu Xuanyi could react, Chu Feng’s fist had landed on his chest.

“Bang~~~”

The fist struck. Immediately, Hu Xuanyi was knocked flying like an arrow that was shot out from a bow. He had been struck flying by Chu Feng’s fist. As he flew, he crashed through many giant trees and shattered many small hills. The might of that fist strike was simply astonishing.

However, it remained that Hu Xuanyi was a peak Half Martial Ancestor-level expert. Thus, when he managed to land on the ground, only blood flowed from the corners of his mouth; he was not seriously injured. However, at that moment, the surrounding crowd all had nervous expressions. They were extremely frightened by that scene.

At that moment, they finally realized that Chu Feng had not used any special methods. Rather, he was overwhelmingly powerful. He would either not attack, or when he did, he would definitely injure that Hu Xuanyi.

“Now do you admit to the fact that your martial arts are merely fancy but impractical skills?” Chu Feng said to Hu Xuanyi mockingly. “You are courting death!!!” As Hu Xuanyi snarled, he revealed a sword. It was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament.

Right after he unleashed his Incomplete Ancestral Armament, he slashed at the space before him. Immediately, a slash flickering with golden light and reaching a hundred meters in either direction shot forth. It sliced through space and flew toward Chu Feng to cut him down.

This was not an ordinary attack. Rather, it was a Taboo Martial

Skill, an extremely mighty attack.

Most importantly, this attack was filled with killing intent!!!

“Woosh~~~”

However, faced with Hu Xuanyi’s ferocious attack, Chu Feng’s expression remained unchanged. With a flip of his wrist, he took out the Magma Emperor Sword and sliced at the space before him.

“Boom~~~”

A wild blazing slash shot forth. That blazing slash basked all of heaven and earth in a fiery light. It was as if that place had turned into an infernal realm of flames.

“Rumble~~~” The two slashes collided with one another and let out berserk energy ripples.

In the end, Chu Feng had managed to rely on that slash to easily diffuse Hu Xuanyi’s slash.

“This guy, how could he be so powerful?!!!”

At that moment, the elders from the guardian clan were all so extremely frightened by Chu Feng that their complexions turned green. Involuntarily, they started to fall back from the battlefield.

Hu Xuanyi was the strongest among them. Yet, Hu Xuanyi’s powerful slash attack was easily canceled out by Chu Feng. As such, it clearly revealed how powerful Chu Feng was.

When even Hu Xuanyi was no match for Chu Feng, they knew that they would definitely not be a match for Chu Feng either. “If that’s all the ability that you possess, then I’m afraid you will not be able to stop me today,” Chu Feng said to the guardian clan’s elders.

Chapter 2384 – Jade Heavenly Sword Formation

“Chu Feng, don’t you make delirious utterances. Today, you will definitely not escape.”

Hu Xuanyi flew toward Chu Feng while holding the Incomplete Ancestral Armament in his hand. As he approached, he shouted to the crowd, “Set up the formation!!!”

“Clank~~~”

Once his words were said, the guardian clan’s elders present all revealed their Incomplete Ancestral Armaments.

Their Incomplete Ancestral Armaments were all swords. Regardless of their outer appearance or their auras, those swords were exactly the same as the sword Hu Xuanyi was using. At the same time that they revealed their Incomplete Ancestral Armaments, the elders also began to emit jade green gaseous substances from within their bodies. The gaseous substances started to fuse with their swords and started to emit an extremely powerful aura.

Most importantly, as a world spiritist, Chu Feng was able to sense that the bodies of the guardian clan’s elders were in resonance. Furthermore, this resonance was very powerful.

As for this, it generally meant that it was the effect of a formation. “Chu Feng, this is bad. That formation of theirs is no small matter. You must leave this place immediately,” Her Lady Queen warned. “Understood,” Chu Feng did not hesitate. With the Magma Emperor Sword in his hand and the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique beneath his feet, Chu Feng began to rapidly fly away. He planned to escape from that place.

“Trying to escape? Don’t you think about it!” Seeing that Chu Feng was escaping, the guardian clan’s elders all pointed the Incomplete Ancestral Armaments in their hands at Chu Feng.

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

“Buzz~~~”

.....

In the blink of an eye, several rays of jade green sword auras were emitted from the Incomplete Ancestral Armaments. They began to chase after Chu Feng. They were so fast that one would become speechless upon seeing them.

The many rays of sword auras soon caught up to Chu Feng even though he had utilized his Azure Dragon Dashing Technique.

“This formation is truly powerful.” At that moment, Chu Feng started to frown deeply. He was able to sense the frightening power of those sword auras. They had reached the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill level. Furthermore, they were on par with extremely powerful Emperor Taboo Martial Skills. In other words, there were a total of several dozen Emperor Taboo Martial Skills surrounding Chu Feng.

Placed in such a situation, Chu Feng had no choice but to unleash his strongest martial skill to scatter the sword auras that had surrounded him.

“Rumble~~~”

The Emperor Taboo: Heavenly Dome Transformation burst forth with overwhelming power. It completely dispersed the sword auras that had surrounded Chu Feng.

“How could this be?”

However, at that moment, not only did Chu Feng not have a cheerful expression on his face, instead, he had a very worried look.

He was shocked to discover that the sword auras he had managed to disperse were reforming. At that moment, they once again completely surrounded him, trapping him within.

“Chu Feng, it’s useless. Regardless of how powerful your abilities might be, you will not be able to break free from the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation,” Hu Xuanyi said complacently.

“Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, this is the guardian clan’s Jade Heavenly Sword Formation?!!!”

Upon hearing the words ‘Jade Heavenly Sword Formation,’ those from the Lower Realms all revealed pleasantly shocked expressions.

The Jade Heavenly Sword Formation was the consummate skill of the guardian clan. It was extremely powerful. Among those with the same level of battle power, no one would be a match for them once the guardian clan used the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation.

Furthermore, the strength of the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation was also related to the number of participants setting up the formation. The more there were, the stronger it was.

Normally, the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation could be set up with only five individuals. But now, including Hu Xuanyi, there were a total of twenty-seven individuals powering the formation. A Jade Heavenly Sword Formation unleashed by this amount of people was naturally no small matter.

“I’ve heard that the guardian clan’s Jade Heavenly Sword Formation is extremely powerful. Furthermore, it was said that ten thousand years ago, the guardian clan relied on the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation to beat back a True Immortal-level expert.”

“Seeing it today, it is truly amazing,” At that moment, even the extremely proud Kong Zheng was unable to stop himself from praising the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation.

As a martial cultivator, he was able to tell how powerful the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation was. It had already surpassed ordinary martial skills, and could simply be said to be invulnerable. The way he saw it, unless Chu Feng was still concealing his cultivation... with his current cultivation and strength, he would definitely not be able to escape.

“Chu Feng, tell me how you got in here. Who helped you?” Hu Xuanyi asked Chu Feng. “No one helped me. I charged in here myself,” Chu Feng said.

“Impossible. With merely your cultivation, how could you possibly be able to charge into our Hundred Refinements Stage?” Hu Xuanyi said.

“Cultivation? Could cultivation mean everything? If one’s cultivation means everything, then why has no one been able to take the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone over the years, whereas I am able to do so?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile. Even though he was already trapped by the formation, he was still as calm as before.

“You!!!” Hu Xuanyi turned pale with anger. The way he saw it, what Chu Feng had said was an insult to all of them. After all, among the people here, no one other than Chu Feng was capable of moving the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

“Chu Feng, this Jade Heavenly Sword Formation is the strongest formation of our guardian clan. Although we are still unable to unleash the true might of the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation with our low level of cultivation, it remains that we will still be able to kill you with certainty should we determine to do so.”

“Thus, I urge you to act obediently,” At that moment, another elder from the guardian clan urged Chu Feng. Compared to Hu

Xuanyi, his tone was much more good-natured.

Likely, he had managed to see through the fact that Chu Feng possessed an extraordinary origin. Thus, he did not want to make Chu Feng an enemy.

“This elder knows how to speak better. However, I’ve already said it. I will not tell you all how I got in. After all, even if I were to tell you all, you all would not believe me. Thus, it’s best that you do not ask me about it again.”

“If possible, why don’t you just release me? Like that, you would have made yourself a friend. I, Chu Feng, will remember this grace, and will definitely repay the favor in the future,” Chu Feng said.

“Release you? You are simply delusional. I might as well tell you this: regardless of whether or not you tell us how you got here, there is only one end for you — death,” Hu Xuanyi said to Chu Feng.

“You are truly a dog of the Kong Heavenly Clan. After your master gave the order, you are determined to kill. You are truly obedient.”

“However, I might as well tell you this. While I cannot break through this formation of yours, with merely the strength of this formation, you will not be able to kill me,” Chu Feng said confidently.

“Arrogant boasting! Kill him!!!” Hu Xuanyi shouted furiously.

“Why are you all still standing there?!” Evidently, Hu Xuanyi was unable to activate the formation by himself. Thus, he turned to look at the others elders furiously.

“Elder Xuanyi, this child possesses an extraordinary origin. Must we really kill him? If we are to kill him, we fear...” The other elders were worried. They were naturally worried that Chu Feng possessed a powerful character behind his back. If they were to kill Chu Feng, retaliations might be made against them.

“I said kill him! Are you all planning to go against my orders?!” However, before those elders could finish, Hu Xuanyi lashed out angrily at them.

“We wouldn’t dare,” The elders all lowered their heads. Evidently, they did not dare to go against Hu Xuanyi’s orders.

“Then set the formation in motion!” Hu Xuanyi shouted.

At that moment, the elders present did not dare to hesitate. They obeyed Hu Xuanyi’s order, and all began to urge the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

In an instant, the jade green sword auras that had surrounded Chu Feng began to fly toward Chu Feng with deathly auras and the sounds of splitting wind.

“Rumble~~~”

The sword auras interweaved with one another. Energy ripples were surging forth. As the jade green energy ripples started to scatter, Ma Yue and Tian Yi felt pain in their hearts, and closed their eyes.

It was not only them. All of the people present felt that Chu Feng had died.

After all, the might of the sword auras was so overwhelmingly strong and terrifying. However, right at that moment, Hu Xuanyi’s complexion changed enormously.

“Not good! He’s still alive!” “How could this be?”

Following closely behind him, the other elders’ expressions also changed. They too revealed incomparable shock in their eyes.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

At that moment, the jade green sword auras once again reformed.

They began to fly into the distance. In the end, they formed another net and encircled a region.

“Still alive? Chu Feng’s still alive?” After hearing Hu Xuanyi’s cry of alarm and seeing how those guardian clan’s elders once again set up the formation, those who had no idea what the situation was started to feel completely baffled. Confused, they all turned their gazes to the direction of the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation. Finally, the ripples gradually dispersed, and the crowd managed to clearly see everything. “What’s going on? There’s clearly nothing there.” However, upon being able to see everything, Ma Yue, Zhou Zongzhi and the others grew even more baffled.

They discovered that there was nothing in the center of the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation.

“Have I been discovered? It seems that this Jade Heavenly Sword Formation possesses a special sort of sensing ability.” Right at that moment, a wry laugh from Chu Feng sounded from the center of the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation.

Following that, five different elements appeared out of thin air. They fused with one another and formed into Chu Feng. “He’s really still alive!!!”

Upon seeing Chu Feng, the crowd were all greatly alarmed.

The reason for that was because not only had Chu Feng reappeared, he was also completely uninjured.

Chapter 2385 – Endlessly Astonishing

“Elder Xuanyi, what is going on?! Our sword auras clearly struck him earlier!” Seeing that Chu Feng was still alive, the elders of the guardian clan all revealed nervous expressions. Confusion and shock filled their eyes.

“That child most definitely possesses special abilities or heaven-defying treasures. Else, it would be impossible for him to still be alive.”

“No wonder he said that even though he couldn’t break free from our Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, our Jade Heavenly Sword Formation would be unable to kill him,” Someone analyzed.

The more they analyzed, the more the people from the guardian clan and the surrounding crowd started to feel fear toward Chu Feng.

After all, Chu Feng was still only a member of the younger generation. For a member of the younger generation to possess such ability was simply too frightening.

“There’s no need to worry too much. Even if we are unable to kill him today, he will not be able to escape from here. Set up the formation, continue killing him!!!” Hu Xuanyi ordered once again.

After his order was given, the elders of the guardian clan once again urged the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, and began to repeatedly bombard Chu Feng with attacks.

The might of the attacks this time could be said to be the same as the previous time. In an instant, Chu Feng’s body was shattered into pieces.

However, as Chu Feng possessed the Five Elements Secret Skills, he was unkillable by anyone with the same level of battle power as his own.

At that moment, Chu Feng possessed an undying body.

Regardless of how powerful the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation might be, it was unable to kill Chu Feng.

However, the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation possessed a special sort of detection ability. Thus, even after Chu Feng's body was destroyed, and after he had used his world spirit techniques to completely conceal his scattered body, he was still unable to escape from the detection of the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation.

Thus, the situation at hand was that Chu Feng was unable to escape from the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, whereas the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation was unable to kill Chu Feng. Like that, Chu Feng and the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation entered into a repeated cycle, a stalemate.

“That guy is truly frightening. Even the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation is unable to kill him.” “Could someone that powerful really be from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm?”

Seeing that Chu Feng was able to disregard the attacks from the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, that he possessed an undying and indestructible body, those from the Lower Realms all looked to Chu Feng with greater fear in their eyes.

After all, Chu Feng had proclaimed that he was from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm. As such, his status should be the same as their own.

For such a monster to appear among someone with the same status as their own, this caused them to feel enormously ashamed. Yet, at the same time, this also caused them to involuntarily feel admiration toward Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, exactly what is your origin?” Not to mention the others, even Kong Zheng looked to Chu Feng with a change in expression now.

He thought to himself that if he were the one facing such a powerful Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, he would definitely be killed with no chance of surviving.

However, Chu Feng was currently facing the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, and not only was he not dead, he was not injured in the slightest. This caused Kong Zheng to feel no choice but to admit the fact that there was an enormous discrepancy between him and Chu Feng, that he was much inferior to Chu Feng.

“Elders? What is going on? Why did you all unleash such a grand formation?!!!” Right at that moment, a voice suddenly sounded from the distant sky.

It was a female’s voice. Although this voice was pleasant to hear, it was also very imposing.

Upon hearing that voice, Zhou Zongzhi and the others from the Lower Realms were immediately shaken. Their bodies began to tremble involuntarily.

Although Zhou Zongzhi had declared himself to be from the strongest Splendor Night Lower Realm... he was only ranked second in the Hundred Refinements Stage’s ranking list. Toward the first rank, he did not even have the thought to challenge it.

The reason for that was because the person ranked first on the Hundred Refinements Stage’s ranking list was an extremely frightening existence. If they had to describe that individual, then even though Zhou Zongzhi and the others felt that Chu Feng was already a monster, there was still a certain amount of disparity between him and the number one individual on the Hundred Refinements Stage’s ranking list.

To Zhou Zongzhi and the others, that individual was simply not human, but rather a demon.

Days before, that person who had caused them to be terror-stricken had entered closed-door training. That was why Zhou Zongzhi was able to temporarily be the boss of this place.

Yet now, the person that had caused them to be terror-stricken had actually left her closed-door training. To Zhou Zongzhi and the others, this was no different than the descent of doomsday.

They would once again be enveloped by that frightening existence. “Lil’ Xue, it’s you? You’ve left your closed-door training?” Hearing that voice, Hu Xuanyi was overjoyed.

“Of course it’s me. I have successfully reached a breakthrough. I am now the same as elders, a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor,” That voice sounded again. Furthermore, the voice was growing closer.

“Chu Feng, this voice... do you not feel it to be very familiar?” Her Lady Queen let out an uneasy voice.

“Indeed. It’s very familiar. Could it really be her?” At that moment, Chu Feng started to frown. Upon hearing this familiar voice, Chu Feng had thought of a person. However... he deeply wished that he would be mistaken. If possible, he truly hoped for the person approaching him to be someone else.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, the space before them started to squirm. Then, a figure appeared in the crowd’s eyes out of thin air.

It was a young woman. She was an exceptional beauty, and possessed an extremely alluring body. Regardless of whether it was her facial features, her figure or her temperament, they were all exceptional. She was truly an extraordinarily beautiful woman.

However, upon seeing this woman, Chu Feng was unable to feel happy in the slightest. The reason for that was because he had recognized who she was. The woman that had appeared before him was the person that he did not wish to see the most, Xue Ji.

“It really is you,” Chu Feng said to Xue Ji.

“Yoh. And here I was wondering who it was that had caused such a grand commotion. Never would I have expected it to be you. This is truly a coincidence. I never expected to be able to run into you even in here.”

Upon seeing Chu Feng, Xue Ji revealed a charming and sweet smile. Merely, she did not have the same sort of shock Chu Feng had in his eyes.

“Lil’ Xue, you know this Chu Feng?” Upon seeing that Chu Feng and Xue Ji were acting like they knew one another, Hu Xuanyi and the others present all had a change in expression.

According to Xue Ji’s explanation, she should be from the Starsoul Lower Realm. As for Chu Feng, he had declared that he was from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm.

Being from two different Lower Realms, the two of them should not have come across one another at all. As such, how could they know one another?

Yet now, the two of them actually knew one another. This meant that one of them was lying.

The two of them must be from the same Lower Realm. Otherwise... it should be impossible for them to know one another.

“I know him, of course I know him. This man and I possess enormous enmity. Even if he turned to ash, I would still recognize him,” Xue Ji ran her beautiful fox-like eyes over Chu Feng. The enchanting smile on her face emitted a strange sensation.

Hearing what Xue Ji said, Hu Xuanyi was immediately overjoyed. Originally, he had been afraid that since Xue Ji knew Chu Feng, she might help him.

However, Xue Ji had now declared that she and Chu Feng were mortal enemies. Thus, the situation had become much better for him.

“Lil’ Xue, this child has trespassed into our Hundred Refinements Stage and plundered the Hundred Refinements Stone. He has committed an enormous mortal offense.”

“If you are to help us behead this child, I will definitely report this matter to Lord Clan Chief. You will have contributed meritorious service, and will be amply rewarded,” Hu Xuanyi said to Xue Ji.

Logically, it would be very unimaginable for an elder of this place to request the assistance of someone from the Lower Realm.

However, Chu Feng knew how powerful Xue Ji was. She was an unfathomably powerful existence. Even though she might only be a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng was still unable to see through her strength.

However, Chu Feng was able to be certain of one thing. That is, Xue Ji possessed the strength to kill the current him. “Elder Xuanyi, is what you said the truth?” Xue Ji turned to ask Hu Xuanyi.

“Absolutely. I dare to guarantee it with my personal dignity,” Hu Xuanyi guaranteed. “Since that is the case, I am more than willing to help,” Xue Ji smiled strangely. Then, she waved her sleeve, and her oppressive might swept forth.

“Wuuahh~~~”

All of a sudden, blood splattered everywhere, and screams were sounding nonstop. At that moment, not to mention the others, even Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously. They were all shocked.

The reason for that was because Xue Ji’s earlier attack was not aimed toward him. Rather, it was aimed at Hu Xuanyi and the other guardian clan’s elders.

At that moment, Hu Xuanyi and the other elders were all seriously injured by Xue Ji.

Chapter 2386 – Golden Mountain Burial Grounds

---

“What’s going on? Could it be a mistake?”

“But, with Xue Ji’s ability, she shouldn’t have mistaken her target,” The surrounding crowd were all puzzled.

“Xue Ji, what are you doing?! Have you gone insane?!” Hu Xuanyi pointed at Xue Ji and shouted furiously.

“I’m sorry Elder Xuanyi. My attack missed its mark,” Xue Ji smiled in an embarrassed manner. Then, she waved her sleeve again.

“Woosh~~~”

A golden ray flashed as Xue Ji shot forth another burst of martial power. Her attack was aimed directly at Hu Xuanyi.

“Boom~~~”

“Ouch!”

Hu Xuanyi was knocked flying a hundred meters up into the air before ruthlessly crashing down onto the ground. When he landed, his body was covered with blood, causing him to be powerless to stand back up. With a shivering finger and rage in his eyes, he pointed to Xue Ji. Unfortunately, he was unable to utter a single word.

“Oh, I’m sorry Elder Xuanyi. It seems that my attack missed its mark again,” Xue Ji had a harmless smile on her face. It was a very enchanting smile. However, when Hu Xuanyi saw the smile, he grew even more furious.

“Puu~~~”

Hu Xuanyi’s mouth opened, and a mouthful of blood sprayed out. Then, his knees grew weak, and he crashed to the ground. He had been beaten unconscious by Xue Ji.

In fact, it was not only Hu Xuanyi who was furious; the other elders of the guardian clan were also furious.

If missing one's target once might be understandable, then for it to happen again was definitely impossible. Likely, only fools would believe that Xue Ji had missed her target.

That said, even though they clearly knew that Xue Ji had done so deliberately, the guardian clan's elders were unable to do anything about it.

They knew very well that Xue Ji was extremely powerful. Although she was someone that was training here, she was an existence that even they, the elders, had to respect.

After all, she was truly a demon-level character. "Why are you still standing there? If you wish to leave, follow me," Xue Ji said to Chu Feng. After she finished, she proceed to fly toward the depths of the Hundred Refinements Stage. In response, Chu Feng did not hesitate, and directly followed after her. It was not that Chu Feng did not wish to escape. Rather, Xue ji possessed strength surpassing his own. If Xue Ji refused to let him go, even if he tried to escape, he wouldn't be able to. Furthermore, Chu Feng wanted to know why Xue Ji had saved him. Soon, Chu Feng was brought to a mountain range by Xue Ji. This mountain range was very special; it was completely golden. The mountain flickered with light, and was gorgeous and magnificent. This was the legendary Golden Mountain.

However, Chu Feng did not possess the heart to appreciate the Golden Mountain. Rather, his eyes were fixed onto the exceptional beauty before him the entire time.

Merely, Chu Feng did not have the heart to appreciate the beauty of the woman before him either. Instead, restraining fear filled his heart.

Xue Ji was originally a world spirit in Chu Feng's body. Merely, due to being sealed in Chu Feng's body, she felt deep hatred toward Chu Feng, and had declared that she would kill Chu Feng countless times.

And now, she was standing before Chu Feng and possessed the strength to kill Chu Feng.

"Chu Feng, it has truly been a very long time since we last met. It seems that you haven't changed much either," Xue Ji said to Chu Feng with a beaming smile on her face. Her charming gaze actually did not possess the slightest trace of hostility. It was as if she were seeing an old friend.

"Don't try that with me. Exactly why did you save me?" Chu Feng said to Xue Ji.

"Look at you, why are you not gentle at all towards a girl? Could it be that you also speak like this to that silly girl who declared herself to be a queen? I seem to remember that to not be the case, no?" Xue Ji said to Chu Feng.

"Enough of your superfluous words. Do not waste both of our time. Else, once the reinforcements from the guardian clan arrive, neither of us will be able to escape," Chu Feng said.

"Reinforcements? Rest assured, there will not be any reinforcements. Even if reinforcements are to come, they will be no match for me. There is a special restriction in the Hundred Refinements Stage. Those above Half Martial Ancestor are unable to enter this place," Xue Ji said.

"Then exactly why did you save me? Don't you tell me it's because of old affection. I remember very well that right after I released you at the Nangong Imperial Clan, you were determined to kill me. If it wasn't for Eggy concealing me with her ability, I would have already been killed by you," Chu Feng said to Xue Ji.

"Don't you speak of yourself so highly either. Back then, when you released me, you merely did so to save yourself. In other words, I was your savior at the Nangong Imperial Clan. Furthermore, I have saved you just now too. Thus, shouldn't you be thanking me?" Xue Ji said to Chu Feng.

"Thank you? Very well, tell me how you want me to thank you." Chu Feng asked with a sneer. He wanted to know exactly what this Xue Ji was planning. "How about sleeping with me?" Xue Ji said with a charming smile. "Truly shameless," Hearing what Xue Ji said, Her Lady Queen was unable to contain herself and cursed out.

As for Chu Feng, he would naturally not believe that Xue Ji would actually want him to sleep with her. Furthermore, who was Xue Ji? She was a truly poisonous woman, someone who was extremely dangerous.

Even if Xue Ji really wanted Chu Feng to sleep with her, Chu Feng would not dare to do it, because he feared that if he did, he would not even know how he had died.

"No matter what, I must thank you for saving me today. However, I am preoccupied with something that I must take care of. Since you do not need anything from me, I will take my leave," Chu Feng clasped his fist at Xue Ji. Then, without waiting for Xue Ji to say anything, he turned to leave.

"Buzz~~~"

However, Chu Feng had only flown a short distance when a boundless oppressive might arrived from behind him. It overtook him, and then blocked off the path ahead.

"Exactly what do you want?" Chu Feng turned around and looked at Xue Ji. After all, the oppressive might that was blocking his path was Xue Ji's.

"You are truly impatient. I still remember that you did not treat that silly girl in this manner."

"However, that's fine. After all, you have already managed to guess the reason why I saved you. Thus, I might as well tell you the truth.”

“I need your help,” Xue Ji said to Chu Feng.

“Continue,” Chu Feng said.

“You are now an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Thus, have you not noticed that this Golden Mountain is strange?” Xue Ji said to Chu Feng.

After hearing what Xue Ji said, Chu Feng turned his gaze downward toward the Golden Mountain.

Earlier, he was only concerned about Xue Ji, and did not bother to carefully inspect the mountain. However, upon closer inspection, Chu Feng’s gaze immediately changed.

That Golden Mountain was indeed extremely extraordinary.

“Buzz~~~”

Chu Feng activated his Heaven’s Eyes. Before his Heaven’s Eyes, everything became clear. “This is a burial ground,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s right. This is indeed a burial ground. Furthermore, it has existed since before the Hundred Refinements Stage was constructed.”

“Furthermore, as Martial Ancestor-level experts are unable to enter this place, and this place became a place where trash from the Lower Realms gathered, no one noticed that there was such a treasure in the Hundred Refinements Stage.”

“How about this: since you’ve already seen it, I might as well share. You help me open this treasure deposit, and we’ll divide the treasures evenly,” Xue Ji said to Chu Feng.

“How am I supposed to trust you?” Chu Feng asked Xue Ji. For some unknown reason, Chu Feng did not feel that exceptional beauty before him to be trustworthy.

“By the fact that I’ve saved you,” Xue Ji said. “Chu Feng, with the situation at hand being like this, you might as well give it a try. Perhaps this treasure deposit will be very beneficial to you,” Eggy said to Chu Feng.

“Very well, I will trust you this once,” Chu Feng agreed to help. However, he did not immediately descend to the ground. Rather, he stood in the sky and set up a concealing formation to cover the entire Golden Mountain. Then, he descended to the ground.

He did this to prevent the people from the guardian clan from chasing after him. With this concealment formation, unless they were to search for Chu Feng using the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, they would definitely be unable to discover Chu Feng and Xue Ji.

“As expected from an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. The speed at which you set up your spirit formation is truly fast. However, this Golden Mountain is no small matter. I truly wonder whether or not you will be able to open it,” Xue Ji said to Chu Feng with a beaming smile.

“You merely need to keep your promise,” Chu Feng said to Xue Ji.

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he began to set up a grand unsealing formation.

When the magnificent spirit power fluttered in the sky and moved about under Chu Feng’s control, even Xue Ji who had questioned Chu Feng earlier revealed an astonished gaze.

She had realized that Chu Feng would most definitely be able to open the burial ground.

Chapter 2387 – Mother's Power

“Brat, it seems that you do possess some skills. No wonder a genius like myself would be sealed in your body.” “It seems your mother thought quite a lot of you. If possible, I truly want to see what sort of person your mother is to be able to capture me from the Asura Spirit World and then seal me in your world spirit space,” After seeing Chu Feng’s current world spirit techniques, Xue Ji gasped in admiration.

“Chu Feng, let me out,” After hearing what Xue Ji said, Her Lady Queen said to Chu Feng in a serious manner. “Eggy, what’s wrong?” Chu Feng asked in a surprised manner. He rarely saw Her Lady Queen so serious.

“I have something that I need to ask this Xue Ji face-to-face,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Very well,” Although Chu Feng did not know what Her Lady Queen wanted to do, he still opened his world spirit gate.

Her Lady Queen walked out from his world spirit gate and arrived before Xue Ji.

“Yoh. Silly little girl, it seems that this is the first time we meet face-to-face, right?” Xue Ji said to Eggy.

It must be said that the scene of these two exceptional beauties standing together was one that would fascinate all men.

Although these two beauties were of completely different styles, they were both perfect. The two of them were akin to divine goddesses of one’s dreams.

“Earlier, you said that you were forcibly captured. In other words... when you were captured, you were awake, right?” Her Lady Queen asked Xue Ji.

“Of course I was awake. Were you not awake when you were captured?” Xue Ji asked.

“At that time, I was injured. I had fallen asleep while healing my injuries. When I woke up, I discovered myself sealed in his world spirit space. I do not know much about exactly how I arrived in this world,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Silly little girl, you are truly quite pitiful. You actually do not even know how you were captured, and you were already dead set on putting your life on the line for this brat,” As Xue Ji spoke, she took a glance at Chu Feng, who was setting up the spirit formation.

“As a world spirit, one must do what world spirits should do. Regardless of how I came to this world, since I was sealed in Chu Feng’s world spirit space, I should naturally work for him,” Her Lady Queen said.

“That’s right. What you said is reasonable. After all, you are still a world spirit. Unlike me... I am already an Evil Spirit. I will never again be able to return to the Asura Spirit World,” As Xue Ji spoke, she once again took a glance at Chu Feng. Although she still had a faint smile on her face, when her gaze landed on Chu Feng’s body, Chu Feng felt his blood run cold.

Sure enough, Xue Ji felt enormous hatred for Chu Feng.

“If you had just obediently obeyed Chu Feng, he would not have released you using that method,” Her Lady Queen said.

“What’s this? Did you deliberately come out so that you could provide justifications for Chu Feng?” Xue Ji asked.

“Of course not. However, there’s no need for me to tell you why I came out either,” After Her Lady Queen finished saying those words, she turned around and walked back toward Chu Feng’s world spirit space.

“No matter what, we are both from the Asura Spirit World. We should be treating one another as relatives. Yet, why must you feel so hostile toward me?” Xue Ji asked. She had been emitting an enchanting smile with her beautiful eyes the entire time.

“The fact that you made Chu Feng an enemy means that you are also my enemy. I do not care what you plan to do. However, it is best that you do not do anything harmful toward Chu Feng. Otherwise... I will make you suffer the consequences,” Her Lady Queen turned around and said to Xue Ji.

“Little girl, it doesn’t seem like the current you possesses the qualifications to say those words to me, no?” Xue Ji smiled a profound smile. At that moment, Her Lady Queen also narrowed her eyes and smiled. It was a gorgeous smile capable of enchanting all living things. Even the simultaneous blooming of a myriad of flowers would not be as beautiful as her smile.

However, the eyes of that beautifully smiling face emitted extremely ice-cold killing intent.

“I naturally possess the qualifications. Merely, I hope... that you will not have to see what my qualifications are. Else... you will definitely regret it,” After Her Lady Queen finished saying those words, she proceeded toward the world spirit gate.

“Why is it that after I hear what you said, I want to know exactly what your qualifications are even more?” Xue Ji said.

Her Lady Queen did not bother with Xue Ji. She had walked into the world spirit gate and returned to Chu Feng’s world spirit space.

“If I am not mistaken, you must be trying to determine the strength of Chu Feng’s mother by verifying whether or not I was forcibly captured and placed into Chu Feng’s world spirit space, right?” “You are truly giving it a lot of thought for this boy.”

“However, you didn’t actually have to do all that. You could have just asked me directly. I would not mind telling you such things,” Xue Ji said.

“You’ve met my mother?” Chu Feng asked Xue Ji.

“No, I have not. However, I have personally felt your mother’s power. Do you wish to know?” Xue Ji said to Chu Feng.

“Of course,” Chu Feng said. Xue Ji explained, “As a world spiritist, you should know that whether or not a world spirit is willing to serve a world spiritist depends on the world spirit itself.”

“The only thing a world spiritist can do is to use their spirit power to communicate with a world spirit. As for world spiritists, they would then have to determine the strength of the world spiritist by the strength of that spirit power.”

“If they feel that the spirit power is quite decent, they would then try to further communicate. Then, they can enter a contract, and thereby open the gate leading to that world spiritist’s world spirit space.”

“However, that gate is a gate that only world spiritists can travel to and fro through. World spiritists are forever unable to travel through that gate and enter the spirit world,” Xue Ji said. “Thus, my mother did the impossible. Not only did she forcibly open that gate and pour her power into it, she also went against your and Eggy’s desires to forcibly capture the two of you from the Asura Spirit World and seal the two of you in my world spirit space, right?” Chu Feng said.

“To be able to forcibly open that gate, to go against the desire of the world spirits and forcibly capture them is already something unimaginable.”

“However, what I want to tell you is that when I was captured, I had many seniors present. They possessed strength not only capable of shocking a baby like you, but strength that would shock many people in your world.”

“If those seniors of mine were to descend into this world, they would become the nightmare of countless martial cultivators.”

Chu Feng did not doubt Xue Ji in the slightest. While Xue Ji could be lying to him, he had a feeling that she was telling him the truth right now.

Furthermore, he also believed that there should be many unimaginably powerful world spirits in the Asura Spirit World.

After all, the Asura Spirit World was the most powerful of the Seven Spirit Worlds. At that point, Xue Ji suddenly sighed. She said, “Unfortunately, even after those seniors of mine acted together, they were still unable to protect me from your mother.”

“What?!” Chu Feng was startled upon hearing those words.

“As such, Chu Feng, what I want to tell you is that your mother is truly extremely powerful,” Xue Ji said as she looked at Chu Feng. Her current gaze was very complicated. It was a gaze that even Chu Feng could not see through. “Thank you for telling me all this,” Chu Feng said. “You don’t have to thank me. If you want to thank someone, then thank that silly little girl in your body that is still willing to serve you. It was her who caused me to want to tell you these things. I think... that is the reason why she came out.”

“Thus, I must admit that that silly little girl has managed to accomplish her aim. I have told you two all that I know,” Xue Ji spread open her arms and shrugged her shoulders.

“Eggy, thank you,” Chu Feng said to Eggy. He finally realized how considerate Eggy was. “There’s no need to be courteous with me. Actually, I merely wanted to let you know how powerful your mother is. And you... you have inherited your mother and your father’s bloodlines. Thus, I wanted you to realize how unfathomable your potential is. As long as you are determined, I believe that you will one day surpass your parents and become one of the strongest cultivators in this world,” Eggy said. “I will,” Chu Feng said. “Don’t be so urgent to guarantee that. If you truly want to mature, you must treasure your life even more. At the very least, you must make fewer needless sacrifices. You especially must not be implicated by your so-called spirit of loyalty and self-sacrifice,” Eggy said. At that moment, Chu Feng smiled. He had understood that the last sentence was what Eggy wanted to tell him the most.

Even though Her Lady Queen had advised him against it, Chu Feng was still unable to change his character. He would still sacrifice himself for his friends, and disregard his life doing things that he considered to be right. However, that final sentence Her Lady Queen said had brought great warmth to Chu Feng's heart.

Her Lady Queen was truly Her Lady Queen.

Chapter 2388 – Else, I’ll Have You Dead

---

Finally, Chu Feng finished setting up the grand unsealing formation. Chu Feng activated the grand unsealing formation, and began to wholeheartedly focus on unsealing the burial mounds.

By relying on the keen observational ability of his Heaven’s Eyes, Chu Feng had already discovered the entrance to the burial mounds. Although the entrance was sealed, Chu Feng possessed absolute certainty in being able to undo the seal.

After the grand unsealing formation was set in motion, everything happened as Chu Feng had expected. The Golden Mountain began to subside after being battered by the pounding from the grand spirit formation.

A bottomless passage that led to an unknown place appeared on the Golden Mountain, after which Chu Feng entered it without the slightest hesitation.

Chu Feng firmly believed that this passage was only the entrance to the burial ground.

The passage was very deep, unimaginably deep. Chu Feng had not encountered any hurdles in the passage. Just like that, he continued downward. Furthermore, Chu Feng was able to sense that Xue Ji was right behind him, that she had followed him into the passage. However, Xue Ji was very cunning. She had deliberately tailed behind Chu Feng because she was afraid that there would be dangers ahead. She was trying to make Chu Feng a scapegoat should there be dangers.

“Buzz~~~”

Finally, a speck of light appeared in the depths of the pitch-black passage. Furthermore, as Chu Feng continued deeper, the light grew brighter and brighter. “We’re here.” Chu Feng stopped. Before him was a gate. He knew that it was a world spirit gate that should lead to the burial grounds.

“Buzz~~~”

Everything was as Chu Feng anticipated. It was indeed a world spirit gate. Chu Feng managed to easily pass through it.

After passing through the gate, dazzling light stabbed Chu Feng’s eyes, causing him to feel a slight pain.

This was a world spirit space. There was no sky or clouds overhead. Rather, there was only dazzling white light.

In contrast to the dazzling white light above his head, the ground of this world spirit space was filled with bones.

It was a boundless sea of bones where layer upon layer of bones were piled upon one another. It was truly a stunning sight to behold. After all, the masters of those bones had all previously been alive.

As Chu Feng looked at the surrounding bones, he would from time to time see enormous bones reaching several hundred meters.

It turned out that there were not only a large amount of humans who had died there, there were also monstrous beasts that had died there as well.

Most importantly, all of the bones were glimmering with light. At a glance, they looked like treasures. They were extremely eye-catching.

Furthermore, their source energies were all present.

“Heavens! There’s this many bones, and all of their source energies are actually still here. Milady Queen, this is indeed a treasure deposit! This is a treasure deposit prepared for you!” At that moment, Chu Feng was endlessly excited. He felt that his blood was racing from head to toe. Compared to finding treasures that he could use, this brought him even greater joy.

Chu Feng had felt that he had let down Eggy all this time. He had always wanted to find treasures that Eggy could use.

Without a doubt, the treasure deposit before him had been prepared for Eggy.

Even though not many of the people that had died here were truly powerful... the number of bones was simply too numerous. Chu Feng firmly believed that those bones would provide an enormous help to Eggy. To world spirits and Evil Spirits, this space was simply akin to paradise. “There’s this many intact source energies. It would seem that this Queen will be able to enjoy a hearty meal today,” At that moment, Her Lady Queen was equally excited. “Sure enough, this battlefield was left intact,” A beautiful figure landed beside Chu Feng. It was Xue Ji, who had followed after Chu Feng.

“You knew about this place beforehand?” Chu Feng turned to ask Xue Ji. “Of course. This is a battle that occurred in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm a long time ago. Countless sects and schools were gathered in this place to battle. In the end, all sides suffered enormous casualties, and were nearly wiped out here.”

“Although their cultivations were generally not very strong, their source energies were intact. With this enormous amount, they would be of great assistance to me,” Seeing the scene before her, Xue Ji was unable to contain herself from licking her lips. Her sexy appearance was truly alluring. However, she soon turned around, looked to Chu Feng and said with a smile, “Chu Feng, I must truly thank you for helping me get here.”

“Don’t mention it. After all, I also need the treasures here,” As Chu Feng spoke, he opened his world spirit gate and prepared to let Her Lady Queen out so that she could refine the source energies here. “Woosh~~~” However, right at that moment, a crimson sword suddenly appeared in Xue Ji’s hand. That sword was very strange. It did not look like an ordinary weapon. However, being held by Xue Ji, the sword emitted an extremely powerful aura.

At that moment, Xue Ji did not aim her crimson sword at Chu Feng. Rather, she aimed it at the world spirit gate that Chu Feng had just opened.

“What are you doing?” Chu Feng frowned and asked uneasily. “If that little girl dares to come out, I will immediately kill her,” Xue Ji said. “Didn’t you say that we would divide the treasures here evenly? Are you planning to go back on your word?” Chu Feng asked with a cold voice.

“I am always one to keep my word. Thus, how could I possibly go back on them? However, I merely declared that I would divide them equally with you, and never said that I would divide them equally with her,” Xue Ji said.

“Since that’s the case, I should be able to refine the source energies here, no?” Chu Feng asked. As matters stood, the familiarity between Chu Feng and Eggy was extremely high. As long as Eggy was awake, she would be able to directly refine source energies through Chu Feng’s body. When Chu Feng was killing his enemies before, he would always destroy them till not even a speck of them remained. However, before killing them, Her Lady Queen would have already refined their source energies through Chu Feng’s body.

Thus, Her Lady Queen actually did not even have to come out of the world spirit gate to refine the source energies here. “That won’t do. While I can give all of the remains here to you, you are not allowed to touch an ounce of source energy,” Xue Ji said. “And what if I am to touch them?” Chu Feng narrowed his brow and asked coldly.

At that moment, Xue Ji narrowed her eyes slightly and revealed a devastatingly beautiful smile. With a very gentle voice, she said to Chu Feng, “If you dare to touch them, I will have you die here and be buried along with these bones.” “Chu Feng, forget about it, we have been deceived by this Xue Ji. As expected, she is untrustworthy.”

“However, at the very least, she is only interested in this treasure deposit, and does not have the intention to kill you. Thus, let’s forget about it.”

“After all, she was the one to discover this treasure deposit to begin with. Even if we cannot obtain it, we will not have suffered any losses,” Seeing that the situation was bad, Her Lady Queen actually began to urge Chu Feng against it.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt enormous pain in his heart.

Chu Feng knew very well what sort of person Her Lady Queen was.

Although this girl had a gentle appearance, she was actually extremely vicious and cruel. She was definitely not someone that was afraid of anything. When she did something, she disregarded thoughts of life or death even more than Chu Feng.

Had it been otherwise, she would definitely not accept the losses today.

However, she had decided to accept the losses. It was not because she was cowardly. Rather, it was because she was truly worried about Chu Feng.

She did not wish for Chu Feng to sacrifice his life in vain for the sake of her interests. “Eggy, listen to me. All these years, you have done an enormous amount of things for me. I, Chu Feng, remember all of them.” “I am not trying to repay you because with the relationship that the two of us have, there is simply no need to pay one another back. However, it is precisely because of this that I must seize what should be yours today.” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, his palm streaked across his Cosmos Sack. Then, a crimson sword appeared in Chu Feng’s hand. “Chu Feng, you...”

Upon seeing that crimson sword, Her Lady Queen’s heart was moved. She revealed a startled expression on her exceptionally beautiful face, and her beautiful eyes revealed a complicated gaze.

She had managed to recognize with a single glance that the crimson sword Chu Feng held in his hand was that unfathomable weapon, the weapon that possessed an enormous amount of martial power, but also hit its user with an extremely terrifying backlash, the Demon Armament Evil God Sword.

Even if he should brave the dangers of dying to the backlash, Chu Feng must still strive for Her Lady Queen for the source energies that belonged to her. “What are you trying to do?” Xue Ji looked to the Evil God Sword in Chu Feng’s hand and asked with a beaming smile.

After all, the Evil God Sword only looked like an ordinary Incomplete Imperial Armament. Before an expert like Xue Ji, a weapon like that was only a plaything that did not pose any threat.

“Woosh~~~” Suddenly, Chu Feng pointed the Evil God Sword at Xue Ji’s throat. His gaze was akin to a torch, and his killing intent was overwhelming.

One word at a time, Chu Feng coldly said, “Abide by your promise. Else, I’ll have you dead.”

Chapter 2389 – Breaking Out The Formation

---

Seeing the Evil God Sword in Chu Feng's hand, Xue Ji originally had a gaze filled with contempt. However, when she saw Chu Feng's ferocious and murderous-looking appearance and his gaze that viewed death with equanimity, her gaze grew serious.

“For the sake of that little girl, it seems that you truly are willing to part with everything.”

“Buzz~~~”

After Xue Ji finished saying those words, she spread open her hand and the crimson sword she held in her hand turned into crimson rays of light that dispersed and entered Xue Ji's palm.

This scene caused Chu Feng's gaze to change.

Sure enough, Xue Ji's weapon was extraordinary. It was most definitely not a normal weapon. Rather, it appeared more like a special sort of ability.

“I was merely joking with you earlier. Being here, I am alone and impoverished. With great difficulty, I came across someone from my hometown. As such, how could she and I try to massacre one another?” Xue Ji said with a beaming smile. “Are you planning to honor your promise?” Chu Feng asked.

“I can honor my promise. However, I have a condition,” Xue Ji said.

“Speak away,” Chu Feng said. “Although I do not know how you got in here, since you were able to get in, this means that you'll be able to get out. Later on... you must bring me away from this damned place,” Xue Ji said.

“You have already offended the people from the guardian clan for the sake of saving me earlier. Thus, it is only natural that I bring you out. There's no problem with that,” Chu Feng said.

“Good. Since that’s the case, you can bring that little girl out,” Xue Ji said.

Right after Xue Ji finished saying those words, Her Lady Queen walked out from the world spirit space.

“You actually dared to use me to threaten Chu Feng. I will settle our debt today sooner or later,” Her Lady Queen stared at Xue Ji with her gaze filled with grievance.

“I’ll wait for you,” Xue Ji said with a smile.

Suddenly, Xue Ji’s expression changed. She spread open her arms and closed her eyes. “Boom~~~” In an instant, violent wind surged forth. As Xue Ji’s long hair fluttered, black gaseous flames began to emit from her body. Like a magnificent army of thousands of men and horses, the black gaseous flames surged toward the sea of bones.

“Woosh~~~”

At that moment, Her Lady Queen also spread open her arms and closed her beautiful eyes. As Her Lady Queen’s short black skirt and long black hair fluttered in the wind, the dark black gaseous flames specific to Asura World Spirits was also overflowing out of Her Lady Queen’s body and rushing toward the sea of bones. The two streams of dark black gaseous flames were extremely fast. Even though the sea of bones was limitless and covered the ground to the horizon, the black gaseous flames emitted by Xue Ji and Her Lady Queen soon covered the entire sea of bones. The next moment, an enormous attractive force was emitted by the dark black gaseous flames as they began to return to Xue Ji and Her Lady Queen’s bodies. Although it was something invisible to the naked eye, Chu Feng knew that the source energies originally contained in the sea of bones were currently being refined by Xue Ji and Her Lady Queen in an unending stream.

At that moment, Xue Ji and Her Lady Queen were like two plunderers scrambling over the treasures of this place.

As for Chu Feng, he had held onto the Evil God Sword the entire time. The reason for that was because he truly did not trust Xue Ji. For the sake of preventing Xue Ji from going against her word, he must remain alert.

As Chu Feng held onto the Evil God Sword for a long period of time, Chu Feng began to feel the boundless power contained in the Evil God Sword even more. That power was very restless in nature. It was like an army eager to battle. As long as Chu Feng gave the order, they would immediately unleash a slaughter.

Merely, not only did Chu Feng manage to sense how strong that power was, he also managed to sense dense killing intent from it. That killing intent was truly too frightening. From the Nine Provinces Continent to the Eastern Sea Region to the Holy Land of Martialism and then the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, Chu Feng had encountered many fiendish and merciless beings. However, the killing intent that those people possessed were all nothing comparable to the killing intent within the Evil God Sword Chu Feng held in his hand.

The killing intent contained in the Evil God Sword was pure killing intent that did not contain the slightest bit of leniency. "Demon Armament, it would seem that you are truly a Demon Armament," Unable to contain himself, Chu Feng gasped. He became even more certain that the Evil God Sword was a double-edged sword. While Chu Feng might have obtained another method of confronting his enemies with the Evil God Sword, the Evil God Sword also served as a hidden danger. Actually, Chu Feng was also a bit scared. He was afraid that he would not be able to control the Evil God Sword. However, at the same time, Chu Feng was also filled with expectations. He was never one to be afraid of a challenge. Thus, Chu Feng was looking forward to the day when he would be able to conquer the Evil God Sword. Perhaps only an extraordinary Demon Armament like the Evil God Sword would suit an actual expert. "Silly little girl, it would seem that I've underestimated you,” Right at that moment, Xue Ji’s voice was suddenly heard. Chu Feng looked toward the two girls, and discovered that they had managed to completely refine all of the source energies contained in the sea of flames in a short period of time. At that moment, Xue Ji’s cultivation had increased. She was no longer a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, and had instead become a rank one Martial Ancestor.

As for Her Lady Queen, she had also obtained a major harvest. From her original cultivation of rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, she was now a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

Rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. For Chu Feng, he would have to utilize the power of both his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings in order to obtain a cultivation of rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

However, for Her Lady Queen, her actual cultivation was that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

In the Half Martial Ancestor realm, Chu Feng only possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

As for Her Lady Queen, she possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation.

In other words, Her Lady Queen was currently stronger than Chu Feng.

“Don’t think that just because my cultivation is weaker than yours that I will be slower than you in refining source energies. Although we are both Asura World Spirits, this Queen’s bloodline is far superior to yours,” After Her Lady Queen finished saying those words, she did not concern herself with Xue Ji’s reaction, and directly returned to Chu Feng’s world spirit space. As for Xue Ji, she did not refute Her Lady Queen. She merely smiled. No one knew exactly what she was thinking about and what her state of mind was. This woman was extremely good at concealing everything. Even someone with extremely strong perception like Chu Feng was unable to see through her.

“Let’s go. It’s time to leave this place,” Xue Ji said to Chu Feng.

“Didn’t you say that people above Half Martial Ancestor would be under restrictions in the Hundred Refinements Stage? Why are you fine now?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s because I broke through to the Martial Ancestor realm in here. Thus, even though I am a Martial Ancestor now, the Hundred Refinements Stage is unable to put restrictions on me,” After Xue Ji finished saying those words, she passed through the spirit formation space and flew outward.

“This Hundred Refinements Stage’s spirit formation is actually this complicated. I wonder, exactly which senior from our Chu Heavenly Clan set it up?”

Chu Feng gasped with admiration. Merely by looking at the Hundred Refinements Stage, he was able to imagine that there must be someone with extremely powerful world spirit techniques in the Chu Heavenly Clan.

The Chu Heavenly Clan was most definitely not only a clan proficient in martial techniques, but also a clan with expert world spiritists.

With merely that, it once again displayed how powerful the Chu Heavenly Clan was.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng’s body shifted. He too began to fly outward.

After Chu Feng exited the burial grounds, he used his world spirit techniques to completely seal the entrance shut.

“Let’s go. Let’s leave this place,” Chu Feng said to Xue Ji.

“How do you plan on leaving?” Xue Ji asked.

“Just follow me,” As Chu Feng spoke, he soared into the sky and began to fly toward the defensive barrier above the Hundred Refinements Stage. Seeing that Chu Feng was planning to directly leave through the sky, Xue Ji said, “You couldn’t possibly be planning to directly destroy that spirit formation, right? Don’t be foolish, that spirit formation is not that easily destroyed. This is especially true for the one overhead, it is extremely powerful.”

However, Chu Feng did not bother with Xue Ji. Instead, he continued flying upward. When Chu Feng approached the spirit formation, he took out a key and tossed it out toward the spirit formation. After the key collided with the spirit formation, a passage actually appeared in the impregnable spirit formation. “This guy!!!” Seeing this scene, even Xue Ji revealed an astonished expression.

Chapter 2390 – The Truth Revealed

---

After Chu Feng and Xue Ji left the Hundred Refinements Stage, they did not stop, and instead rapidly flew into the distance.

As for the entrance Chu Feng had opened, it soon quietly reformed itself not long after the two of them left.

Chu Feng and Xue Ji had disappeared. No one chased after them. However, they had no idea that their actions were actually being seen completely by the eyes of the guardian clan's Clan Chief.

It was not only the scene of Chu Feng and Xue Ji's escape; everything that had happened in the Hundred Refinements Stage earlier was seen by him.

"A descendant of the Chu Heavenly Clan has finally come to retrieve the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone."

"Merely, this descendant of the Chu Heavenly Clan, he's actually already an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist at such a young age. Furthermore, he brought forth that sort of lightning. Frightening, truly frightening," The guardian clan's clan chief placed his hands behind his head as he muttered softly.

When seeing all that, even though this person was a True Immortal-level expert, he still had an unconcealable, frightened expression on his face.

"Lord Clan Chief, this is bad!" After a short moment, Hu Xuanyi, who was seriously injured flew back leading all of the other injured elders.

He knelt in midair and spoke in a manner filled with grievances, "Lord Clan Chief, that Chu Feng has managed to collude with a traitor among our clan using some unknown method and actually managed to enter the Hundred Refinements Stage. Furthermore, he even stole the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone!"

"There's also that Xue Ji. She and Chu Feng were actually acquaintances. The two of them colluded with one another and seriously injured us. Lord Clan Chief, please activate the grand formation to kill them. We absolutely cannot let them escape.”

“They have already left,” The guardian clan’s clan chief said.

“They... they have already left?!”

“But...” Hu Xuanyi was stunned. The reason for that was because he had clearly asked the elders guarding the entrance when he was leaving the Hundred Refinements Stage. He had found out from the elders in charge of guarding the entrance that the entrance gate had been closed the entire time he had been in there. Thus, it shouldn’t have been possible for Chu Feng and Xue Ji to have escaped.

“Could it be that they’ve all received Chu Feng’s benefits?! Damn it! I shall severely punish them!” Hu Xuanyi thought that it was those elders in charge of guarding the entrance that had released Chu Feng and Xue Ji. After he made that declaration, he turned around and planned to immediately proceed toward the Hundred Refinements Stage’s entrance.

“Chu Feng left through his own means. Likewise, he came in by himself. There was no traitor in our guardian clan,” The guardian clan’s clan chief declared. “Ah? He actually entered and left by himself?... But... How could that be possible? How could our Hundred Refinements Stage’s grand formation possibly be...” Not to mention Hu Xuanyi, the other elders present also had expressions of disbelief on their faces.

“Fools, has there been anyone among our guardian clan that has ever managed to move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone? Yet that Chu Feng managed to do so. Do you all still not understand what that means?” The guardian clan’s clan chief said angrily. “.....” Hu Xuanyi and the others began to ponder. However, they were unable to think of what that could possibly mean. Thus, they asked, “We are foolish, Lord Clan Chief, please explain it to us.”

“Only the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan are capable of moving the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone,” The guardian clan’s clan chief said.

“Ahh!!!” Hearing those words, the expressions of Hu Xuanyi and the others changed enormously. At that moment, they were acting like they’d been struck by lightning. They felt their scalps going numb as fear filled their hearts. To the guardian clan, the Chu Heavenly Clan was no small matter.

To put it simply, the Chu Heavenly Clan was the master, while the guardian clan was the servant.

The master and servant relationship was engraved into the hearts of everyone from the guardian clan. Even though they were daring enough to make anyone an enemy, they never dared to disrespect anyone from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Even if a True Immortal-level expert from the guardian clan were to face a child without cultivation from the Chu Heavenly Clan, they would still be extremely respectful, and not dare to show the slightest bit of disobedience.

The reason for that was because the Chu Heavenly Clan had helped the guardian clan enormously. Even the strongest formation of the guardian clan, the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation, was something that the Chu Heavenly Clan had taught them.

However, earlier, Hu Xuanyi and the others had actually tried to use the Jade Heavenly Sword Formation to kill Chu Feng. This was simply akin to having committed a capital offense. As such, how could they not be alarmed, not be scared?

“But, if Chu Feng i-i-is a member of t-the Chu Heavenly Clan, why did he not say so?” Hu Xuanyi was so scared that his voice started to tremble.

“Just because he didn’t mention it doesn’t mean that he is not a member of the Chu Heavenly Clan. However, one thing is certain: that is, only people from the Chu Heavenly Clan are capable of moving the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.” “Likely, there is a reason why Chu Feng never mentioned his identity the entire time.”

“Thus, we must definitely keep the matter of Chu Feng being a part of the Chu Heavenly Clan confidential. This matter absolutely cannot be told to anyone. It is an absolute capital offense to anyone who dares to leak this information.”

“This is especially true for you, Hu Xuanyi. I know that you possess an extraordinary relationship with the Kong Heavenly Clan. However, I hope you keep in mind why our guardian clan was able to survive to this date,” The guardian clan’s clan chief used an ice-cold gaze to look at Hu Xuanyi.

“This lowly one wouldn’t dare, this lowly one wouldn’t dare forget the grace the Chu Heavenly Clan has shown our guardian clan.”

“This lowly one was truly foolish today. However, that was all because I didn’t know Young Master Chu Feng’s identity. If I had known, even if I were beaten to death, I wouldn’t dare to attack Young Master Chu Feng,” Hu Xuanyi knelt to the ground. His aged face was covered in weeping bitter tears.

Most importantly, he did not appear to be pretending, but rather regretting from the bottom of his heart.

“What about you all?” The guardian clan’s clan chief turned to ask the other elders.

“We wouldn’t dare leak this matter,” Those elders declared in unison.

“As Young Master Chu Feng has not mentioned his identity today, you were all unaware of it. As such, you are not to be blamed for your actions today, and I will not look further into it,” The guardian clan’s clan chief said. “Thank you for pardoning us, Lord Clan Chief!!!” Hu Xuanyi and the others were all extremely grateful. After all, to them, this was truly akin to having escaped a calamity.

“You all don’t have to thank me. If you want to thank someone... thank Young Master Chu Feng,” The guardian clan’s clan chief said. As he spoke, he turned around and looked to the direction Chu Feng had left in.

Looking at the direction where Chu Feng disappeared, the guardian clan’s clan chief suddenly had a change in expression. He turned around and asked, “Earlier, that Kong Zheng came to retrieve the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone because he wanted to save someone, right?”

“That’s right. He said that his elder brother was trapped at the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond, and could only be saved with the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone,” Hu Xuanyi said. “Oh no!” Upon confirming this matter, the guardian clan’s clan chief started to frown. Then, his body shifted, and he disappeared.

Chu Feng and Xue Ji were worried that the people from the guardian clan would chase after them. Thus, the two of them were journeying rapidly, and only stopped after they’d gotten very far away from the Hundred Refinements Stage.

“We’ve escaped this far without anyone chasing after us. It seems that there really isn’t anyone chasing after us,” Xue Ji said. “What do you plan to do next?” Chu Feng turned to ask Xue Ji.

“Regardless of what I plan to do, I wouldn’t be telling you. Why, could it be that you want to accompany me?” Xue Ji asked with a beaming smile.

“I merely wanted to advise you that it is best that you not commit outrageous atrocities. Else... I will not spare you,” Chu Feng said to Xue Ji.

“What are outrageous atrocities? This is a world where might is right. As for right and wrong, who could possibly determine that?”

“Perhaps what is right in your heart is wrong in my heart, whereas what is wrong in your heart is right in my heart. Thus, it is best that you not weigh me according to the rights and wrongs that you have in mind.”

“Furthermore, let me remind you of this. If I wanted to, I could take away your little life right now. You simply do not possess any qualifications to threaten me,” After Xue Ji finished saying those words, her eyes suddenly started to flicker, and a boundless oppressive might restricted Chu Feng. That was the oppressive might of a Martial Ancestor. Once that oppressive might appeared, that region of space started to distort and let out strange noises.

“What are you planning to do?” Chu Feng asked with a stern voice.

Chu Feng was actually not afraid of Xue Ji, as he had been holding onto his Evil God Sword the entire time. Even though Xue Ji’s oppressive might was very powerful, as long as Chu Feng activated the Evil God Sword, he would still be able to easily cut through her oppressive might. Xue Ji did not answer Chu Feng. Instead, with alluring steps, she stepped into the air and arrived before Chu Feng. Suddenly, her lips were raised upward, and a sexy and alluring smile appeared on her alluring face. She raised her slender and fair-skinned hand and gently caressed Chu Feng’s cheek. Then, she moved her alluring mouth toward Chu Feng’s ear. With a very ambiguous voice, she said, “Don’t be afraid, I am still reluctant to kill you.” After she finished saying those words, her oppressive might suddenly disappeared. At the same time, Xue Ji’s figure also disappeared. Xue Ji had disappeared without a trace.

Chapter 2391 – What Is It?

As Chu Feng was very worried for Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's safety, he did not delay, and immediately proceeded directly toward the Drought Demon's Damned Pond after Xue Ji left.

Finally, Chu Feng returned to the location where Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong and that Kong Cheng had been captured.

Even though Chu Feng's cultivation had increased compared to that day, he still did not dare to act carelessly upon arriving at that place.

After all, even Zhao Hong was no match for that humanoid clay monster. As such, Chu Feng would naturally not be a match for it either.

The only option would be to use the Evil God Sword. However, the Evil God Sword was also what Chu Feng did not wish to use the most.

"I've returned. I've also brought back the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone," Chu Feng raised his hand that held the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone and spoke loudly.

"Crash~~~"

Right after Chu Feng said those words, that region of pond water started to surge, forming a whirlpool.

Soon, the humanoid clay monster Chu Feng had met that day appeared at the center of the whirlpool.

"I've brought back what you want, quickly release my friends," Chu Feng said.

"How should I know whether or not the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone you hold in your hand is real or fake. Toss it over so I can inspect it first," The humanoid clay monster said.

"Allow me to see my friends first," Chu Feng said. "Very well. I'll let your desire be fulfilled,” After the humanoid clay monster said those words, another figure appeared from the pond water.

It was Kong Cheng. Although Kong Cheng was still trapped, his complexion had grown much better compared to that day.

It could be seen that during the period of time when Kong Zheng and Chu Feng were away, this humanoid clay monster had kept its promise, and had not deliberately made things difficult for Kong Cheng.

Chu Feng continued to observe that region of water. He was waiting for Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong to appear. However, after a short while passed, he did not discover either of them.

“Where are my friends?” Chu Feng asked.

“Isn’t this your friend?” The humanoid clay monster said.

“You’re trying to play with me?” Chu Feng revealed an angry expression.

Before Chu Feng left, this humanoid clay monster had told Chu Feng and Kong Zheng to compete in obtaining the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. The person to bring back the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone first would have their friends released.

Thus, this humanoid clay monster already knew that Chu Feng and Kong Zheng were enemies instead of friends. Yet now, it actually said such words. It was clear that it was deliberately toying with Chu Feng.

“Oh, I know what you’re talking about now. You’re talking about that stutterer and that delicate and pretty woman, right?”

“After you left, I questioned them about their reasons for coming here. After discovering their purpose, I decided to release them.” “As for exactly where they went, I have no clue,” That humanoid clay monster said. “.....” Chu Feng felt startled. If Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were to have truly left, Chu Feng naturally knew what the two of them planned to do. Naturally, they would have gone to search for Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures according to the map that Wang Qiang had.

Merely, Chu Feng did not believe that this humanoid clay monster would release Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong for no reason at all. "Although I do not know why you need this Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, but, with how insincere you are, I will not hand this Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone to you," Chu Feng put the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone away.

"You plan to have me snatch it away from you by force?" That humanoid clay monster revealed an ill-intended gaze from its empty eye sockets. "Woosh~~~"

Chu Feng was not to be outdone, and directly took out his Evil God Sword. He fixed his eyes at the humanoid clay monster and said, "Tell me where my friends are. Else, even if you do not attack me, I will definitely not spare you either." "Chu Feng, it did not lie to you! Your friends were indeed released by it! They have gone deep into the Drought Demon's Damned Pond!" Kong Cheng shouted.

"Woosh~~~"

However, Chu Feng completely ignored Kong Cheng, and pointed his Evil God Sword at the humanoid clay monster. With an extremely cold tone, he asked, "Where are my friends?!"

"Chu Feng, don't be impulsive," Her Lady Queen sensed that the situation was amiss, and spoke to console Chu Feng. As for Chu Feng, he knew very well how dangerous the Evil God Sword was. If Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were to have suffered bitter encounters, then even if the price he must pay would be death, Chu Feng would still definitely use the Evil God Sword to fight the monster before him." "Chu Feng, stop." "Brother, we're f-fine."

Right at that moment, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang's voices suddenly sounded from deep within the Drought Demon's Damned Pond.

Chu Feng turned his gaze over. Sure enough, he discovered that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were rapidly proceeding toward his location from the depths of the Drought Demon's Damned Pond.

Soon, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong arrived before Chu Feng. Most importantly... when the two of them passed by the humanoid clay monster, the humanoid clay monster did not try to prevent the two of them from moving onward. Just like that, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong arrived before Chu Feng.

"Wang Qiang, this cultivation of yours, could it be that you've succeeded?" Chu Feng was both surprised and delighted upon seeing Wang Qiang. The reason for that was because Wang Qiang's cultivation was no longer that of a Half Martial Ancestor. Rather, he had become a Martial Ancestor. Although he was only a rank one Martial Ancestor, it still remained that his cultivation was much stronger than when Chu Feng had left.

"Hehe. W-we've su-succeeded. T-that guy d-didn't lie to you, it really released us. Furthermore, I've a-already obtained what I wanted," Wang Qiang said with a beaming smile. At that moment, he was feeling extremely good.

At that moment, Chu Feng looked to that clay humanoid monster with a complicated expression. He was confused as to what exactly that humanoid clay monster had in mind. "Woosh~~~"

Right at the moment when Chu Feng was confused, that humanoid clay monster actually tossed Kong Cheng over too.

"That guy seems to have had no intention to kill to begin with. Could it be that it was deliberately toying with you?"

"Damn it, we have wasted all that effort to retrieve the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. Yet, this guy simply never planned to kill them to begin with." "Never have I ever been treated like this in my entire life. Once this Queen's cultivation becomes stronger, I will definitely tear this guy apart," Her Lady Queen was so furious that her little face turned a deep red. The way she saw it, she and Chu Feng had been played for fools by the humanoid clay monster. For the sake of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, Chu Feng had placed even his life on the line. Only she and Chu Feng knew about all of the hardships he had had to go through. Thus, how could the hot-tempered Queen possibly willingly accept all this?

“That’s not true. If I did not return with the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone successfully, then even if Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had obtained the treasures, they would not necessarily be able to stand before me safely like this,” Chu Feng said to Her Lady Queen.

“That’s true,” Her Lady Queen nodded in agreement.

“I have given you what you want. What about what I want?” That humanoid clay monster said to Chu Feng.

“Here,” Even though Chu Feng had a lot of questions in his heart, he still tossed the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone to the humanoid clay monster.

At the same time, Chu Feng also fixed his gaze tightly on that humanoid clay monster.

As matters stood, Chu Feng possessed a slight understanding of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, and knew how powerful it was.

Thus, he was very curious as to why this humanoid clay monster demanded the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

“Paa~~~”

Right at that moment, a shocking scene occurred before Chu Feng.

The Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone that only the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan were capable of moving was effortlessly caught by the humanoid clay monster. What happened immediately after that was even more shocking.

A gust of special power suddenly burst from within the body of that humanoid clay monster. That power actually dissolved the miraculous Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

Everything happened too quickly. In merely a short moment, the indestructible Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone had been completely dissolved into the hand of that humanoid clay monster. Furthermore, like martial power, the dissolved Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone was sucked into the humanoid clay monster's body.

“This guy, exactly what is it?!!”

Chu Feng and Her Lady Queen were both endlessly astonished.

Chapter 2392 – Arriving Ferociously

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, a burst of boundless energy ripples was emitted out from the humanoid clay monster’s body. That energy ripple was so strong that Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong and Kong Cheng were all forced back repeatedly by it.

“Oh no! That Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone actually still contained such a powerful amount of energy. That guy has completely refined it. I fear that it is unable to contain the power, and will soon explode to death.”

Chu Feng had been fixing his Heaven’s Eyes onto the humanoid clay monster the entire time. Earlier, he had been unable to see through it. However, now, after it had refined the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, Chu Feng was able to sense a boundless burst of energy surging about in its body.

Even though Chu Feng was unable to accurately analyze the power that was the humanoid clay monster’s body, Chu Feng was able to sense how frightening that power was.

That power was so strong that it had already surpassed the limit of the humanoid clay monster’s ability to withstand. If this were to continue, that humanoid clay monster would explode and die.

“Husband, Chu Feng, let’s get away from here immediately! That humanoid clay monster will not be able to contain that power! If it explodes and die, we will all be implicated by it and die too!” Zhao Hong shouted. As she spoke, she grabbed Chu Feng and Wang Qiang and began flying backward. She had also noticed what had occurred earlier.

Even though they knew it was dangerous, Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong all wanted to continue observing the situation. This was especially true for Chu Feng. He was very curious as to the identity of the humanoid clay monster. After all, it should only be the people from the Chu Heavenly Clan that were able move the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone.

Chu Feng was skeptical as to whether or not this humanoid clay monster possessed some sort of relationship with the Chu Heavenly Clan. Or could it be that it was so powerful that it could disregard the power of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone and forcibly lift it?

However, most importantly, the power contained in the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone had clearly been completely exhausted when it was used as the foundation of the Hundred Refinements Stage's formation during its construction. As such, how could it still contain such frightening power?

Exactly who was this humanoid clay monster?

How did it manage to know that the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone contained this sort of energy?

What was it using the energies for? All kinds of questions were hovering in Chu Feng's mind. He deeply wanted to know the answers to his questions.

Thus, even though Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had evacuated, the three of them stopped retreating upon reaching what they thought to be a safe distance and continued to observe the humanoid clay monster. "Woosh~~~"

Kong Cheng also flew over and landed beside Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. "W-w-why did y-you follow us? G-get t-the hell a-away," Wang Qiang gave Kong Cheng an ill-intended side eye.

"What, are you all the only ones that's allowed to enjoy a show?" Kong Cheng returned the side eye to Wang Qiang.

"It must possess some sort of method to confront this. Else, if this is to continue, it will not last for long," Chu Feng's gaze had been fixed onto the humanoid clay monster the entire time.

Perhaps it might be because the humanoid clay monster might be related to the Chu Heavenly Clan, but when it entered the fringe of life and death, when it was most likely going to die from refining the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, Chu Feng actually deeply wanted it to survive.

“Crash~~~”

Right at that moment, that humanoid clay monster suddenly submerged into the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond.

“Buzz~~~”

The next moment, light visible to the naked eye began to shine from the depths of the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond. It was dazzling, abnormally dazzling.

“That’s a spirit formation! What a powerful spirit formation. It seems that it was already prepared beforehand. This is the measure it prepared to handle this situation,” Zhao Hong said in astonishment.

“Indeed, this spirit formation is very powerful. Likely, it is not the work of an ordinary world spiritist. Merely... the power contained in the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone is too powerful. Even this spirit formation might not necessarily be able to control it,” Chu Feng said.

“Rumble~~~”

Right after Chu Feng finished saying those words, a loud explosion suddenly sounded from the region of water.

The next moment, waves began to surge about, reaching the sky. A burst of extremely powerful energy ripples soon swept in all directions.

Zhao Hong did not dare to hesitate. She grabbed Wang Qiang and Chu Feng and began to rapidly fly toward the distance. As for that Kong Cheng, he unleashed his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings and also began to rapidly flee.

The energy ripples were too frightening. Even though Chu Feng and the others thought that they had withdrawn themselves to a safe distance, the energy ripples appearing right now still surpassed their imaginations, and would implicate them. “Wuuahh~~~”

However, even though Chu Feng and the others were rapidly escaping, they were still caught by the spreading energy ripples. Even Kong Cheng, who was escaping even faster than them, was caught up by the energy ripples.

Fortunately, due to the fact that they were already so far away, Chu Feng and the others managed to escape the most powerful portion of the energy ripples. Thus, they only received minor injuries. To them, it was something negligible.

At that moment, rainwater filled the sky, and was gently sprinkling down. Merely, the rainwater was black in color.

That was not rain falling from the sky. Rather, what was sprinkling down from the sky was water from the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond that was shot into the air by the underwater explosion earlier.

Chu Feng and the others completely disregarded their injuries and turned their gazes to the distance.

It was the location where the humanoid clay monster had been submerged earlier. It was also the center of the explosion.

Energy ripples were still present in that area. They were surging nonstop, pushing around the waters.

“S-seems l-like it’s dead. I c-can no l-longer sense any l-living aura,” Wang Qiang said.

“That’s not for certain. That guy possessed an extremely powerful concealment ability. Else, how could we be captured by it?” Zhao Hong said.

“Someone’s coming,” Suddenly, Chu Feng turned his sharp gaze behind him.

He had already sensed that there were several extremely powerful auras rapidly approaching from behind.

Among them were many Martial Ancestor-level experts. In fact... there was even a True Immortal-level expert.

By observing with his Heaven’s Eyes, Chu Feng had managed to see those people. Furthermore, he had also managed to see what they were wearing. “It’s the Kong Heavenly Clan. Quickly, we must leave!!!” Chu Feng said to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“Damn it!” Zhao Hong did not dare to hesitate, and immediately released her strongest world spirit. Then, by relying on the power of her world spirit, she brought Chu Feng and Wang Qiang and began to fly toward the direction of the explosion.

“Little friend, please don’t go.”

However, right at that moment, a figure suddenly appeared before Chu Feng and the others like a phantom.

It was an old man. He was not tall, but remained very robust and muscular. He had white snow-like hair, but only a very scarce amount of it remained.

The headdress on his head was very imposing. Merely, his face was covered in wrinkles and age spots. As such, he looked very ugly. That said, even though his skin was all wrinkly, the complexion of his skin was rosy and filled with vitality.

Most importantly, standing there, that figure was like an insurmountable copper wall, an impassable iron bastion. Not to mention Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, even a peak Martial Ancestor would not be able to crash their way past him.

The reason for that was because this old man was a True Immortal-level expert.

An existence of his caliber was someone who stood at the apex of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. He stood before Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong like a nightmare.

“Junior Kong Cheng pay his respect to Lord Utmost Exalted Elder!!!”

Immediately, Kong Cheng knelt in midair.

“Utmost Exalted Elder? Sure enough, he’s someone f-from the K-Kong Heavenly Clan. T-this is b-bad,” Wang Qiang revealed a difficult expression.

“It’s good that you’re fine,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder turned to Kong Cheng and smiled lightly.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, quickly capture them! Especially that Chu Feng, he nearly killed me earlier!” Right at that moment, the following troops from the Kong Heavenly Clan arrived. From among them walked a man. It was Kong Zheng.

At that moment, Chu Feng and the others realized what had happened. Likely, after Kong Zheng failed to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, he had most definitely let out a signal for help. These Kong Heavenly Clan’s experts were brought over by him.

This was his alternative plan after failing to obtain the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone. With these powerful experts from the Kong Heavenly Clan, he would naturally be able to save Kong Cheng. Actually, Chu Feng had already guessed that Kong Zheng might do such a thing. He merely did not expect that the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan would arrive this quickly.

At that moment, they were completely trapped. Adding on the various conflicts they had with the Kong Heavenly Clan, and Chu Feng should be extremely frightened right now.

However, although Chu Feng was surprised, he did not think himself to be in desperate straits. After all, he was still holding onto his Evil God Sword.

Chapter 2393 – Doubt In One's Heart

---

“Big brother Kong Cheng, did Chu Feng and the others cause you your injuries?” Kong Zheng walked over to Kong Cheng and asked. “No, it wasn’t them. This was caused by that monster. However, my injuries were not deliberately caused by that monster. Rather, it was because I was careless,” Kong Cheng said.

“Monster?” Hearing those words, that Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder turned his gaze to the direction of the surging pond water.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, with a shift of his body and a flutter of his clothes, he dove directly into the pond water filled with surging energy ripples.

“As expected of a True Immortal,” Seeing that scene, Chu Feng’s gaze changed.

The location where that Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder dove into was the center of the explosion. Although there were still frightening energy ripples wreaking havoc in that region that caused Chu Feng and the others to not dare approach that location, that Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder was able to completely disregard the violently surging energy ripples.

“Chu Feng, weren’t you extremely arrogant before?! Why are you silent now?!”

“And you, you damned bitch! Did you not place our Kong Heavenly Clan in your eyes?! Didn’t you look down on our Heavenly Bloodline?!”

“Why are you not acting vigorous and overbearing now?!”

Kong Zheng arrived before Chu Feng and the others and began to wave his hands around while denouncing them. His appearance was precisely one of a dog threatening another by relying on its master's power.

“Pah!” Right at that moment, Zhao Hong actually spit at Kong Zheng. Everything happened too quickly. Furthermore, that Kong Zheng had never expected for Zhao Hong to dare to spit at him in such a situation.

Thus, he was caught off guard, and Zhao Hong's spit landed directly on his face. “You! You damned bitch! I'll beat you to death!” Kong Zheng was furious. He swung his arm and shot a ruthless slap towards Zhao Hong's cheek. However, a burst of oppressive might suddenly swept forth. Kong Zheng let out an ‘ouch’ sound and then began to roll in midair. He was sent flying several thousand meters away from Chu Feng and the others. “.....”

At that moment, not to mention Kong Zheng, even Chu Feng and the others had surprised expressions on their faces. The reason for that was because that oppressive might came from behind Chu Feng, from the experts of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Have you all gone insane? Why did you all attack me instead of taking care of them?!” Kong Zheng crawled back up. As he was extremely furious, he actually spoke rudely toward his seniors. “Kong Zheng, do not be rude,” Right at that moment, that True Immortal-level expert had flown out from the pond and returned to where he previously stood.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, it is not that this junior is rude, but rather those seniors are bullying me. That damned bitch bullied me. Yet, instead of helping me take care of that bitch, they actually helped her. I truly...” Kong Zheng half-kneeled in midair and spoke with an expression filled with grievances.

“Kong Zheng, what I mean is that you are not allowed to be rude towards little friend Chu Feng and his friends,” That Utmost Exalted Elder said. “Ah?!!!” Hearing those words, Kong Zheng's body trembled. Then, his eyes opened wide, and his mouth froze.

His appearance was as if he had been struck by lightning. His appearance showed that he was completely dumbfounded. What sort of situation was this? Hadn't he requested that these elders come so that they could take care of Chu Feng and the others?

Yet now, why was it that these seniors did not help him get revenge, and instead started to lecture him?

“Little friends, this old man is called Kong Shunlian. I am an Utmost Exalted Elder of the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“I know about all of the misunderstandings that had occurred between you and our Kong Heavenly Clan. Here, on behalf of our Kong Heavenly Clan, this old man apologizes to three little friends. I hope that three little friends will not take our wrongs to heart,” As that Kong Shunlian spoke, he actually bowed to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, what are you...” Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng were completely stunned.

This person here was Kong Shunlian, an Utmost Exalted Elder of the Kong Heavenly Clan. Among the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan, he was an existence of unsurpassed status. With the seniority he possessed, even the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief would have to be respectful towards him.

Never had they ever seen this grand character lower his head to someone else. It was simply something impossible.

Furthermore, he was lowering his head to three people of the younger generation?

“You two, shut up. The two of you have been strolling about outside all year round. Most likely, you still don't know about the past achievements of little friends Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, right?”

“Although you all are members of the younger generation, there are simply light-years between you two and the three of them,”

Right at that moment, a voice transmission entered Kong Zheng and Kong Cheng's ears. It was from a Kong Heavenly Clan's elder. He was also the person that had attacked Kong Zheng earlier. "Lord Elder, we..." Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng felt at a complete loss. The two of them had heard about the things regarding Chu Feng. In fact, they had heard a lot of things regarding him. However, if they judged merely by the things that Chu Feng had done in the past, there shouldn't be a reason for this elder to say that the two of them could not compare to Chu Feng, nor would it be reasonable for their supreme Utmost Exalted Elder to apologize and bow respectfully to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Although Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng were both hot-headed individuals, the two of them were no fools. At that moment, the two of them realized that it seemed like they didn't know about certain things. Then, the elder who had sent the voice transmission to Kong Zheng and Kong Cheng began to narrate to them what had happened in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds.

Upon finding out that Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang had managed to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds before all those experts, and that they even managed to save all the grand characters present from the Infant Soul Sect, Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng felt as if their minds had gone completely blank. They simply did not dare to believe it all.

However, after seeing the way their Utmost Exalted Elder treated Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, the two of them had no choice but to believe it.

If Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had not really managed to accomplish the impossible, how could their Utmost Exalted Elder apologize to them?

Upon beginning to trust what that elder said to be true, Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng began to feel lingering fear. If they had no idea what sort of opponent they were facing before, then they knew very well what sort of opponent they faced now. “Senior, you are being too serious. While it is true that there were some misunderstandings back then, they were only misunderstandings. We will not take them to heart,” Chu Feng was surprised to see that the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder did not have any malice toward him.

Furthermore, with his status, that Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder actually still offered an apology to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, three people of the younger generation. As such, if Chu Feng was to refuse to accept that apology, he would truly appear to not know how to appreciate favors. That said, Chu Feng was very concerned about the status of that humanoid clay monster. Thus, he asked, “Senior, I wish to ask, have you managed to find traces of that monster after entering the pond?”

“When I entered the pond earlier to inspect it, I discovered that there was a very powerful formation inside the pond. However, that spirit formation had already been destroyed. Furthermore, I am also unable to distinguish what level of world spiritist created that spirit formation.” “As for that so-called monster, I only managed to detect some aura. However, the aura was very disorderly. I think that monster is most likely dead,” Kong Shunlian said. “It’s dead?” After hearing that, Chu Feng actually felt some sentiment in his heart.

“Actually, I wanted to ask you, little friend Chu Feng, how did that monster die?” Kong Shunlian asked.

“I guess it could be considered to be suicide,” Chu Feng said.

“It’s actually suicide?!” Upon hearing those words, the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan all revealed surprised expressions. Likely, they had already obtained a rough understanding of the situation at hand here from Kong Zheng.

It was true that the monster was malicious earlier. Furthermore, when someone like Kong Zheng began to narrate the situation to them, he would most definitely add details to his story. Likely, the experts from the Kong Heavenly Clan must be holding a very bad impression of that monster.

Yet now, that monster had actually committed suicide. As such, how could they not be surprised? “To be exact, it was trying to refine the power contained in the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone, but ended up being unable to withstand the power, and died from an explosion of its body.” “However, I felt that trying to refine power that one cannot grasp and dying because of that is no different from suicide,” Chu Feng said. “What little friend Chu Feng says is reasonable,” Kong Shunlian nodded.

“Since the crisis has been resolved and our misunderstandings settled, seniors, we will take our leave now,” Chu Feng clasped his fist to Kong Shunlian and prepared to leave.

“Little friend Chu Feng, please wait,” However, that Kong Shunlian suddenly spoke. He said, “Actually, this old man has come here with a presumptuous request. That is, I wish to invite little friend Chu Feng and your friends to our Kong Heavenly Clan as guests.”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng was surprised. He truly never thought that the Kong Heavenly Clan would invite them as guests. The location of the treasures on the treasure map he obtained from Grandmaster Kai Hong was precisely located in the Kong Heavenly Clan’s territory. And now, the Kong Heavenly Clan actually wanted to invite them to be guests. This was an extremely rare opportunity. Merely, Chu Feng did not trust this Kong Heavenly Clan. In fact, Chu Feng was on guard against this Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder the entire time too. Thus, Chu Feng truly did not know how to answer this invitation.

The reason for that was because he wanted to go, but also didn’t want to go.

He wanted to go because of the treasures.

Yet he didn't want to go because he feared that the Kong Heavenly Clan might be plotting something.

Chapter 2394 – Feeling Of Danger

“Chu Feng, truth be told, although we have come for the sake of saving Kong Cheng, there would not be a need to trouble our Lord Utmost Exalted Elder for something like that.” “If it wasn’t for the fact that we heard you were here, our Lord Utmost Exalted Elder would simply not have come here.”

“He has not come for the sake of taking care of that so-called monster. Rather, he has come to invite you to be a guest of our Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“Thus, little friend Chu Feng, we hope that you will be able to disregard our former hatred and give our Kong Heavenly Clan face.” “That’s right. Little friend Chu Feng, our Lord Utmost Exalted Elder rarely ever invites others; you must give him face.”

At that moment, the experts from the Kong Heavenly Clan began to urge Chu Feng with kind words.

“Little friend Chu Feng, we were in the wrong back then. I hope that little friend Chu Feng will be magnanimous, and not take those things earlier to heart.”

In fact, the ones from the Kong Heavenly Clan that ended up clashing with Chu Feng at the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds were actually also present.

They took the initiative to walk forward and apologize to Chu Feng. Evidently, the Kong Heavenly Clan had already prepared beforehand so as to successfully invite Chu Feng.

“Kong Cheng, Kong Zheng, little friend Chu Feng is our Kong Heavenly Clan’s honored guest. The two of you actually offended him enormously earlier. Why are you still standing there? Quickly, apologize to little friend Chu Feng,” Someone shouted at Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng.

.....

At that moment, Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng looked to one another.

The two of them were no fools. They were able to tell that their Kong Heavenly Clan was truly planning to rope in Chu Feng and the others.

As for the two of them, they absolutely could not become obstacles to their Kong Heavenly Clan's intention to rope in Chu Feng.

Thus, even though it was definitely damaging to their ego for the two of them to apologize to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, they were not the only ones with egos.

When even their seniors and their Utmost Exalted Elder were willing to apologize to Chu Feng, what could their small egos possibly amount to?

“Chu Feng, Zhao Hong, Wang Qiang, we truly did not know about your previous accomplishments and deeds earlier.”

“However, we have now know been made aware of them. We brothers feel admiration for you all from the bottom of our hearts. As people of the younger generation, you three have truly honored us.”

“We will not bother with superfluous words; please accept a bow of respect from us brothers.”

After deciding, Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng bowed respectfully to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

“N-never w-would I have i-imagined that you a-all a-actually possess a bit of s-sincerity. S-since that's the case, b-brother, let's j-just go a-and stroll a-around the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Wang Qiang said to Chu Feng. “Chu Feng, you should go. How could you catch the tiger cub without entering the tiger's lair?” Her Lady Queen's voice sounded in Chu Feng's ear again.

As matters stood, Chu Feng had actually already made his considerations. If the Kong Heavenly Clan truly planned to do something to them, they were totally capable of attacking them right now. There was simply no need for them to spend that much effort to invite them to the Kong Heavenly Clan. Thus, Chu Feng felt that while it was true that the Kong Heavenly Clan would be dangerous to go to, the danger was relatively small. To put it differently, even if they were truly plotting something by inviting Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong to be their guests, Chu Feng was capable of contending against them with his Evil God Sword.

To put it briefly, even if they were to encounter danger after reaching the Kong Heavenly Clan, it would only be about as dangerous as facing the experts present here.

Most importantly, Chu Feng was truly anxious to reach a breakthrough in cultivation. If he wanted to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures, he would have to proceed for the Kong Heavenly Clan sooner or later.

If he were to refuse the Kong Heavenly Clan's invitation this time around, he might end up displeasing the Kong Heavenly Clan. In the future, even if he wanted to go to the Kong Heavenly Clan, it would become extremely difficult to do so.

Rather than being discriminating like that, it was better to resolve their conflicts now.

It was as Her Lady Queen said, how could one catch a tiger cub without entering the tiger's lair? A risk that must be taken would have to be taken sooner or later.

Thus, Chu Feng said, "Actually, I have heard about the fame of the Kong Heavenly Clan, and have always wanted to pay a visit. For seniors to be willing to invite me over today, I, Chu Feng, am truly honored." "Little friend Chu Feng is currently a mighty genius-level character in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. For our Kong Heavenly Clan to be able to invite little friend Chu Feng over as a guest is the honor of our Kong Heavenly Clan,"

After seeing that Chu Feng agreed to it, that Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elder revealed a joyous expression.

At the same time, the others from the Kong Heavenly Clan, those people that previously all had conflicts with Chu Feng, all heaved a sigh of relief.

After all, if they were unable to successfully invite Chu Feng this time around, they would definitely not be able to escape responsibility, and would become sinners.

"Then, little friends, might the two of you also be willing to come to our Kong Heavenly Clan as guests?" Kong Shunlian turned to Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang.

After all, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang had also shown off their abilities at the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. The Kong Heavenly Clan also did not dare neglect these two geniuses.

In fact, it was not only the Kong Heavenly Clan. At that moment, the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm was discussing these three geniuses: Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Chu Feng was, at the very least, already slightly famous before all this. Thus, at that moment, the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm were even more interested in Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. After all, compared to Chu Feng, the two of them were even more mysterious. "I'll g-go w-whenever my b-brother goes," Wang Qiang said indifferently. However, he had declared his standpoint. At that moment, the crowd all cast their eyes to Zhao Hong. As Wang Qiang had declared his standpoint, the only person remaining was Zhao Hong.

"Everyone, might you all please give the three of us some personal space?" Zhao Hong said to the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan.

"Of course," How could someone of Kong Shunlian's calibre possibly not understand what Zhao Hong meant with those words?

He immediately ordered the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan to withdraw. Then, he himself also withdrew.

At that moment, only Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang remained in that region of space.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, Zhao Hong waved her arm. As her sleeve fluttered, a burst of sweet aroma arrived as a layer of spirit formation covered the three of them.

That was a concealment formation. Being inside it, it would be very difficult for anyone outside to hear their conversation.

Even a True Immortal-level expert who possessed the ability to survey heaven and earth from afar would be unable to hear their conversation.

After all... this concealment formation was a technique from Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance; it was a very powerful spirit formation.

“Chu Feng, husband, the two of you must be extremely careful when you go to the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“It is not that I do not trust that Kong Shunlian. Merely, I truly do not trust the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Zhao Hong said to Chu Feng and Wang Qiang. “Zhao Hong, you're not planning to go with us?” Chu Feng asked.

“Chu Feng, my husband has managed to successfully retrieve the treasures and obtained a bountiful harvest.” “Right now, you are proceeding toward the Kong Heavenly Clan for the sake of obtaining your treasures too.”

“Thus, I am also very interested in seeing exactly what the treasures that belong to me would be like,” Zhao Hong said.

“That's a good plan. Wang Qiang... why don't you accompany Zhao Hong instead?” Chu Feng said to Wang Qiang.

“There’s no need. It’s better that my husband accompany you. Compared to my destination, the Phoenix Flame City, I feel that the Kong Heavenly Clan is a much more dangerous place. I feel that it is better for the two of you to go together so that you can look after each other,” Zhao Hong said. “It is precisely because this journey is very dangerous that I do not wish for Wang Qiang to accompany me.”

“Let alone, the Phoenix Flame City is also a dangerous location. I will feel more relieved for the two of you to journey together,” Chu Feng said. “B-brother, you a-are a-acting very boringly here. Do I, W-Wang Qiang, look like s-someone who will abandon my b-brother?” Wang Qiang said in a slightly displeased manner. He had made it clear that he wanted to accompany Chu Feng.

Zhao Hong did not show the slightest bit of displeasure from Wang Qiang’s desire to accompany Chu Feng. Instead, she said, “My husband has already made his decision. Chu Feng, you don’t have to urge him against it anymore; just allow him to accompany you.” “Zhao Hong, since you’re by yourself, you must be extra careful. After all, the Phoenix Flame City is one of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s forbidden areas” Seeing that Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang had made their decisions, Chu Feng stopped trying to urge them against it. Merely, he was worried for Zhao Hong from the bottom of his heart.

Chapter 2395 – Unpredictable World

---

“Rest assured, I am not a careless person,” Zhao Hong said with a smile. “Then, where are we to meet one another again after today’s separation?” Chu Feng asked.

“Let’s meet up at the Darknight Ghost Forest after everything is done,” Zhao Hong said.

“Very well,” Chu Feng said.

“The people from the Kong Heavenly Clan are still waiting for you two. Let’s go our separate ways here,” As Zhao Hong spoke, she planned to remove the concealment formation covering the three of them. She was planning to leave.

“W-wife,” Right at that moment, Wang Qiang suddenly called out. Even though Wang Qiang was always a shameless individual, he actually revealed a rare hesitating appearance. “Husband, go ahead and say what you want directly. For you to hesitate like this is quite uncharming,” Zhao Hong said with a smile.

“Since you are willing to be my w-wife, I will definitely m-marry you grandly in the f-future. Merely, b-before t-that, I hope that you do not c-continue to w-willfully slaughter the innocent,” Wang Qiang said to Zhao Hong. “Did you really consider me a demonic woman?” Zhao Hong asked.

“N-no, t-that’s not w-what I meant. I merely...” Wang Qiang started to become frantic after hearing what Zhao Hong said. He hurriedly tried to explain himself. “Haha... look at you...” However, seeing Wang Qiang’s reaction, Zhao Hong suddenly burst into loud laughter. Then, she said, “I was only joking. Look at how panicky you became. Turns out that you’re this stupid.”

“D-damned woman, I-I-I... I was t-trying to...” Wang Qiang was still trying to explain himself while stuttering.

“Husband, it’s alright. I know very well what you are worried about.”

“However, I do not blame you. It is true that I was a demonic woman, and had willfully slaughtered innocents and committed countless crimes.” “At that time, I possessed enormous grievances and killing intent. Ineffably, I felt enormous hatred toward all men of the world.” “It was as if killing lustful men was my life’s mission. Even if you want me to explain my state of mind back then, I would not be able to explain it. However, it is true that the me from back then was a demonic woman who viewed human life as grass.”

“However, the me now is no longer the same as the me from back then. So, you can rest assured, I will not do those sorts of things again,” Zhao Hong said.

“Zhao Hong, I do not care about the lives and deaths of others. However, as you are my friend, I am very concerned about your safety. You must definitely remember to not overdo yourself on this journey,” Chu Feng said again.

“Chu Feng, why have you also become mawkish like this? This is not like you at all,” Zhao Hong smiled slightly. However, suddenly, her expression turned extremely serious. A strong sense of apology flickered in her eyes. She said to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, I was excessively impulsive earlier. If you really consider me a friend, I hope that you will not take it to heart.” What Zhao Hong was apologizing about was naturally in regard to not listening to Chu Feng about the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond, and that she had instead started to clash with him. Seeing the apologetic Zhao Hong before him, Chu Feng’s heart was moved. How could a true friend possibly hold a grudge over this sort of quarrel? Chu Feng had already forgotten about that matter. The only thing that he was concerned about the entire time was Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang’s safety. Thus, Chu Feng laughed mischievously. He copied Zhao Hong’s movement and tone and said, “Zhao Hong, why have you also become mawkish like this? This is not like you at all.” “Really!

I am earnestly apologizing to you here. Why are you instead bullying me like this?" Hearing what Chu Feng said, Zhao Hong laughed. Furthermore, she punched Chu Feng's chest. That punch did not contain even a tiny bit of resentment. Rather, it was filled with affection. "It seems that the two of you are in no rush to leave. However, I am in a rush to obtain my treasures. Thus... farewell."

After Zhao Hong finished saying those words, she undid the concealment formation and directly left.

She did not plan to bid her farewells to the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan. The reason for that was because she did not care about etiquette, nor was she concerned about how those people would view her.

This was Zhao Hong, a seemingly cold-hearted yet affectionate and true woman. As long as you entered her heart, she would most definitely be a friend that you could depend on.

"Boy, it seems that you've started to have true feelings now. Did something happen while I was away?" Chu Feng asked Wang Qiang after Zhao Hong left.

In the past, Wang Qiang was fully determined to find an opportunity to escape from Zhao Hong's evil clutches. However, earlier, when they were parting ways with Zhao Hong, Wang Qiang revealed deep concern for Zhao Hong. That was not a hypocritical show of affection. Thus, it was absolutely not a completely uncalled-for change.

"S-Sure enough, I c-can't h-hide anything from you," Wang Qiang said with a mischievous laugh. Then, he began to narrate to Chu Feng what had happened during the time when he was away.

It turned out that the journey to obtain Wang Qiang's inheritance was not smooth-sailing at all.

Two things happened on the way there.

One of them was that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had encountered ferocious beasts created by mechanisms at the location where the treasures were. At that time, the situation was very serious. Wang Qiang had been trapped, and if Zhao Hong did not escape rapidly, she would end up dying there.

However, regardless of how Wang Qiang urged Zhao Hong to escape, she refused to listen to him, and risked her life to save him. In the end... Zhao Hong managed to successfully rescue Wang Qiang. However, she was seriously injured in the process.

Wang Qiang was not a heartless individual. Seeing Zhao Hong treating him like that, Wang Qiang was emotionally moved.

However, what had truly affected Wang Qiang was another matter.

At the beginning, Zhao Hong had treated Wang Qiang with such passion because Wang Qiang had used his special love potion on Zhao Hong during his moment of crisis.

However, that was still only a potion. Sooner or later, the effect of the love potion would wear off. In fact, the effects of the love potion had already worn off.

Thus, Zhao Hong's actions toward Wang Qiang were actually already no longer due to the effects of the medicine. Rather, Zhao Hong had truly fallen in love with Wang Qiang.

Something like love was without logic to begin with. Perhaps even Zhao Hong herself did not know when she had fallen in love with Wang Qiang.

However, what happened had happened. As such, Zhao Hong began to be hell-bent on treating Wang Qiang well.

However, with how intelligent Zhao Hong was, she naturally knew that Wang Qiang had used the love potion on her so as to save his life. Thus, when the love potion's effectiveness wore off, she had been keeping that to herself the entire time, and never mentioned it to Wang Qiang. She was afraid that Wang Qiang would avoid her once he discovered the truth.

However, during the moment of life and death crisis back then, Zhao Hong told Wang Qiang everything.

Everyone's hearts were made out of flesh. When someone treated you like that, how could anyone not be moved?

After Wang Qiang found out about that matter, it was unknown whether he was emotionally moved and became impulsive. Or perhaps it might be that Wang Qiang had already fallen in love with Zhao Hong unknowingly.

However, it remained that Wang Qiang no longer felt disgust towards Zhao Hong. Instead... he accepted the relationship of being husband and wife with Zhao Hong. If the relationship that the two of them had before was a one-sided relationship from Zhao Hong, then their current relationship was accepted by both parties. "As I got to know her during this period of time, I felt that Zhao Hong was truly a very good woman. Her origin is also very pitiful. If possible... I do hope that you will be able to treat her properly," Chu Feng said to Wang Qiang.

"Haha... d-do I l-look like a fickle p-person?" Wang Qiang asked with a beaming smile.

"You d-definitely do," Chu Feng said while copying Wang Qiang's manner of speech.

"Hey! You're a-actually m-mocking me!" Wang Qiang said in disdain. "Haha, I'm only joking around. Come, brother, let's go, the seniors from the Kong Heavenly Clan are still waiting for us," Chu Feng said with a loud laugh as he placed his hand on Wang Qiang's shoulder. Then, the two of them began to fly toward the direction of the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan. Kong Shunlian had actually already guessed that Zhao Hong might not be planning to be a guest of their Kong Heavenly Clan. Thus, he did not show any trace of surprise or regret when he found out that Zhao Hong had left. To him... being able to successfully invite Chu Feng was enough.

Just like that, the curtain dropped on Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's trip to the Drought Demon's Damned Pond. Chu Feng followed the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan and began to proceed for the Kong Heavenly Clan.

However, after Chu Feng and the others left, the humanoid clay monster emerged from a certain corner of the Drought Demon's Damned Pond. Most importantly, there were actually two such humanoid clay monsters there.

Furthermore, the humanoid clay monsters revealed an apologetic expression from their empty eye sockets.

They said, "The world is truly unpredictable. Never would have I expected the person to help me obtain the power of the Hundred Refinements Jadeite Stone to be you."

"Chu Feng, I owe you another favor now. Unfortunately, I still cannot return their bodies to you. Thus... I also cannot let them see you."

"However, once I am done with everything, I will definitely repay you. Even if you want my life, I will not refuse."

After the two humanoid clay monsters finished saying those words, they entered the Drought Demon's Damned Pond together. "Buzz~~~"

Suddenly, dazzling light once again shone from within the black pond water. The light was extremely bright, and soared straight into the sky.

It was the light of a spirit formation. If one could determine the strength of the spirit formation through the intensity of the light, then the spirit formation would be extremely powerful. Unfortunately, in an uninhabited place like this, no matter how stunning and magnificent that sight may be, no one was able to appreciate it.

Else, people would definitely exclaim in astonishment.

Soon, the light of the spirit formation gradually vanished. The sky once again turned pitch-black.

Never would anyone have imagined that there was such a formidable spirit formation underneath the pond water. Furthermore, never would anyone have imagined that there would be two humanoid clay monsters doing something unbeknownst to anyone in the spirit formation.

Chapter 2396 – Martial Cultivation Spittoon

Chu Feng and the others soon arrived at the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Their journey could be said to have been very secretive. Logically, no one should be able to know that the Kong Heavenly Clan had managed to invite Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

However, surprisingly, this news was still leaked. Soon, many people received the news, and began to arrive at the Kong Heavenly Clan in succession.

Their main purpose in their journey to the Kong Heavenly Clan was to become acquainted with Chu Feng and Wang Qiang. It would be one thing if those that arrived at the Kong Heavenly Clan were small sects and schools. However, the ones that had arrived were all grand characters, famous throughout the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. This caused Kong Zheng, Kong Cheng and the other members of the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation to fully realize how amazing Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were right now.

Young and promising Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. Martial cultivation geniuses with heaven-defying battle power. Grandmaster Kai Hong's successors. Unknown, yet mysterious origins.

All of this caused Chu Feng and Wang Qiang to become the favorites of all the various grand characters present. Everyone was trying to seize the opportunity to befriend Chu Feng and Wang Qiang before they truly matured and grew powerful, so that they could pave a road for their own futures. At that moment, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were basking in the limelight. They had the appearance of being able to surpass the strongest genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, Young Master Li Ming. In fact, there were already many people saying that it was very possible for Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong to become the strongest geniuses in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm and rule over the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm with no equal, like Grandmaster Kai Hong did before.

At that moment. Within a luxurious palace in the Kong Heavenly Clan. Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were sitting inside a palace hall. A layer of spirit formation covered the palace hall. It was a concealment formation capable of containing sound.

Although Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were enjoying the honored guest treatment here, the two of them did not consider themselves to be guests. Rather, they considered themselves to be lambs that had entered the tiger's den. As such, the two of them were extremely careful in all aspects. They were even unwilling to let others hear their conversations.

“R-really! E-every day, w-we have to m-meet those old fellows that c-come to pay a visit. S-so annoying! Who w-was it that was such a l-loudmouth as to l-leak this news?” Wang Qiang said in an annoyed manner. “If my guess is correct, it would most likely be your wife,” Chu Feng said.

“Z-Z-Zhao Hong?” Wang Qiang revealed a surprised expression.

“Who else would do this other than her?” Chu Feng asked.

Wang Qiang began to ponder the matter carefully. After thinking about it over and over again, he discovered that there really didn't seem to be anyone other than Zhao Hong who would be able to spread the news of them being in the Kong Heavenly Clan in such a short period of time.

“W-why is s-she spreading t-this information all o-over the p-place instead of h-hurrying to the Phoenix Flame C-City to find her treasure? Isn't s-she creating more trouble for us?” Wang Qiang said.

“Zhao Hong is not trying to cause trouble for us. On the contrary, she is helping us,” Chu Feng said.

“You m-mean to say...?” Wang Qiang was not slow. He immediately thought of something upon hearing what Chu Feng said. “Before we came here, we were all unable to be certain whether or not the Kong Heavenly Clan’s invitation was a plot. Even though the chances of it being a plot are very slim, it remains that it is possible.”

“If the news of us being guests here spreads, the Kong Heavenly Clan will definitely not be able to escape responsibility should any accident befall us.”

“After all, a lot of people now know that we are guests in the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“In this sort of situation, the Kong Heavenly Clan would have to be afraid of the consequences should they try to do anything to us.”

“Thus, Zhao Hong spread this news out of consideration for our safety. Perhaps this might be the actual reason why she didn’t want to accompany us to the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Chu Feng said.

“Hehe... never w-would I have e-expected that d-damned woman to be t-this thoughtful. S-she is t-truly worthy of being my w-wife,” Wang Qiang laughed complacently.

“The way I see it, Zhao Hong is much smarter than you,” Chu Feng said. “Tsk,” Wang Qiang did not get angry from Chu Feng speaking ill of him. Instead, he revealed a grand appearance and said, “How c-could a m-mere mortal l-like you possibly u-understand my w-wits?” “Of course, of course,” Chu Feng smiled and went along with Wang Qiang. That said, Chu Feng truly felt that at times he really was unable to see through Wang Qiang.

Suddenly, Wang Qiang said to Chu Feng in a very serious manner, “Brother, w-w-we will have to m-meet those o-old farts ccoming to pay us v-visits everyday. If t-this continues, I f-fear that the s-spirit formation y-you want to use will h-have to be d-delayed far in-into the indefinite f-future.” “H-how about w-we not bother m-meeting those old farts anymore so t-that we c-can focus on s-setting up your spirit f-formation?”

Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had not gone to the Kong Heavenly Clan for leisure. They had gone for Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures.

However, upon arriving, Chu Feng discovered that while the location of the treasures was not a forbidden area, it was guarded. In order to not to arouse the suspicions of others, Chu Feng had to first conceal this matter from everyone else if he wanted to enter that place.

However, the Kong Heavenly Clan possessed numerous experts; they even had more than a single True Immortal-level expert. With Chu Feng's cultivation, how could he possibly conceal himself from the detection of all those experts?

Thus, Chu Feng began to set up a spirit formation together with Wang Qiang.

That spirit formation was created by Grandmaster Kai Hong. As long as they successfully set up that spirit formation, the spirit formation would be able to completely conceal Chu Feng for a short period of time after it was activated. Even True Immortal-level experts would not be able to see Chu Feng or sense his aura.

Merely, as the spirit formation was very powerful, it was naturally also very difficult to set up, and was definitely not something that ordinary people could set up. Even for Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, who had obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance, the spirit formation remained extremely difficult to set up.

Over the last few days, other than spending time meeting those people that came to pay them a visit, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had been setting up the spirit formation practically the entire time. However, even with that being the case, the two of them had only managed to complete a tenth of the spirit formation over the course of the last few days.

From this, it could be seen how difficult that spirit formation was. “We are meeting those people so that they will know that the two of us are really guests here, so that they will spread the news.” “However, thinking about it, we have seen practically all that we should already. As such, we can stop meeting the remaining people,” Chu Feng said. “Then... w-what s-should we do to s-stop seeing them?” Wang Qiang asked.

“That’s simple. We merely need to tell them that we’re going to enter closed-door training,” Chu Feng said. “T-that’s a great s-suggestion.”

“However, b-brother, this is no small matter, and I am unable to a-accompany you. Thus, y-you should use that first,” As Wang Qiang spoke, he took out a spittoon from his Cosmos Sack.

It was a very shabby spittoon. In fact, regardless of how much one tried to air out the spittoon, it would still emit a very nauseating scent.

However, this shabby spittoon was emitting a magnificent light. Looking into the spittoon, one could see that the light was coming from scriptures. The scriptures were extremely complicated, and definitely not ordinary characters. If one were to use one’s naked eye to observe it, one would not be able to tell what the contents of the scriptures were. Only by using one’s heart to comprehend the scriptures would one be able to realize their meaning.

That said, each and every character contained enormous information, information regarding the profoundness of the path of martial cultivation.

To put it simply, the spittoon contained knowledge regarding the path of martial cultivation. If Chu Feng were to comprehend its contents with his heart, it was very possible that he would attain enlightenment and make a breakthrough, increasing his cultivation in the process.

Merely, the contents contained in the spittoon could only be attained by a single person. If Chu Feng was to use this spittoon, Wang Qiang would no longer be able to use it again. Furthermore... the profoundness of martial cultivation was not something that could be shared. To put it simply, although the spittoon was powerful, it could only be used once by a single person.

As for the spittoon, it was actually something that Wang Qiang had obtained from the treasures in the Drought Demon's Damned Pond. Merely, Wang Qiang did not directly comprehend the profoundness of martial cultivation contained within the spittoon immediately. Rather, he had kept the spittoon untouched.

The reason for that was because he wanted to save it for Chu Feng.

Chapter 2397 – Clearly Bullying Another

---

Seeing the spittoon Wang Qiang held in his hand that contained the profoundness of martial cultivation, Chu Feng smiled and shook his head. He said, “Wang Qiang, I’ve said it many times already. That belongs to you. I will not use it, nor could I use it.”

“It is better that you use it sooner. Perhaps it will help you advance your cultivation by leaps and bounds. At that time, if we are to encounter dangers, you will be able to protect me.”

Wang Qiang had told Chu Feng to use the spittoon countless times in the past few days. However, the spittoon could also be of enormous assistance to Wang Qiang. As such, how could Chu Feng possibly be willing to use it?

“I t-truly d-don’t understand. W-we’re b-brothers, i-is there even a n-need for you to be this courteous with m-me? Don’t y-you need it now? Since y-you need it, j-just use it.”

“W-while this p-place contains treasures, t-the treasures a-are e-extremely dangerous to o-obtain. If y-you are to use this, y-you might be able to reach a breakthrough i-in cultivation. W-wouldn’t t-this help y-you i-increase the certainty in being able to obtain your t-treasures more?” “If y-you r-really feel that y-you c-cannot accept it, w-wouldn’t it be fine f-for you to j-just g-give me something f-from the treasures y-you’ll be o-obtaining from here?”

“At t-that time, e-even if you a-are to r-repay me in double, I w-would have n-no objections either. Hehehe,” Wang Qiang said with a mischievous laugh. However, how could a small trick like this possibly work on Chu Feng? Chu Feng knew very well that Wang Qiang was saying these things so that he would use the martial cultivation spittoon.

As for the future, even if Chu Feng was to really obtain something akin to the martial cultivation spittoon, Wang Qiang would most likely refuse to accept it.

“Brother, there are things that one can yield to another, and things that one cannot.”

“If this item was useless to you but useful to me, then I would definitely accept it even without you telling me about it.”

“However, the truth is that this item is extremely useful to you. Perhaps you might need it even more than me.” “Thus, I appreciate your kind intentions. However... you should still keep this for yourself,” Chu Feng said resolutely. Chu Feng possessed his own principles. In order to increase his cultivation, he was willing to scramble, battle and put his life on the line.

However... he absolutely would not allow himself to take something from his brother. That... went against Chu Feng’s martial cultivation principle.

“Forget about it, forget about it. There’s t-truly nothing I can do a-about you. T-there are c-countless people that would enter closed-door training for their entire life t-to no avail in order to attain a single breakthrough in cultivation. If I were to g-give this t-to them, they w-would d-definitely accept it even if they must l-lose their entire f-family’s fortune for it, much less o-obtaining it for free.”

“Y-yet, you are being so f-foolish as to refuse it. I a-am not mocking you here, but you a-are the g-greatest f-fool in this world,” Seeing that he was unable to win against Chu Feng, Wang Qiang started to speak sarcastic remarks toward Chu Feng. “No, at the very most, I would be the second greatest fool in this world,” Chu Feng said.

“W-why’s that?” Wang Qiang asked. “That’s because the greatest fool would be you. When has there ever been someone who would be willing to give their opportunity to reach a breakthrough to another person instead of using it themselves? Exactly how many people kicked your head in your childhood for you to do something like that?” Chu Feng said with a laugh. “Fuck! W-with m-merely those words you've said, e-even if you want it now, I w-will not be g-giving it to you," Wang Qiang gave Chu Feng a side-eye, and then took back the martial cultivation spittoon.

"Is Chu Feng present?!!!" Right at that moment, a shout suddenly sounded from outside the palace.

Although the voice was not extremely resounding, it was capable of shaking one's heart. That voice had spoken with oppressive might.

"That group of a-annoying people is h-here again. It s-seems that w-we must quickly announce that we're in c-closed-door training so that t-they will not c-continue to demand t-to see us everyday," Wang Qiang said impatiently.

"No, the ones this time have not come with good intentions," Chu Feng said. "Oh?" Hearing what Chu Feng said, Wang Qiang's expression also changed. Then, he used a special method to observe the situation outside, and discovered that there was indeed a group of people gathered outside the palace. Merely, this group of people were not outsiders that had come to pay Chu Feng and Wang Qiang respects. Rather, they were people from the Kong Heavenly Clan.

They were all from the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation. Furthermore, they were actual people of the younger generation. With Chu Feng and Wang Qiang's observational abilities, they were able to tell that this group of people were all less than a hundred years old.

As for their cultivation, they were not weak either. The man leading the group was even a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, an actual peak Half Martial Ancestor, an existence a step away from becoming a Martial Ancestor.

Over the days Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had been in the Kong Heavenly Clan, there had been people from the younger generation of the Kong Heavenly Clan that came to pay them visits from time to time. Furthermore, as Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were fond of observing things, they already knew that this bunch were among the most elite of the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that even Kong Zheng was among them. Merely, Kong Zheng had not come to cause trouble. On the contrary, he was kindly trying to persuade the peak Half Martial Ancestor leading the group to not do this. "Brother Ruozeng, I am truly not deceiving you. That Chu Feng and Wang Qiang are not individuals with undeserved reputations, they are really Grandmaster Kai Hong's successors," Kong Zheng said.

"People like them were able to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong's treasures? They most definitely used tricks," The peak Half Martial Ancestor leading the group said with contempt.

"That's right. I refuse to believe that they will be as powerful as they're said to be," At the same time, the other people of the younger generation also began to echo his words in agreement. Their tones were very vile. It could be said that they were filled with contempt for Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

Actually, after Chu Feng and Wang Qiang arrived at the Kong Heavenly Clan, it was not only the outsiders that came to pay respectful visits to them, there were also some members of the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation that came to pay their respects to them out of admiration.

Those people were all people that revered Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, and wanted to befriend them.

However, at the same time, there was also a portion of the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation that simply did not believe that Chu Feng and Wang Qiang possessed actual abilities. They were filled with grievances and hostility toward Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

It was clear that the group of people that had come this time were all of the latter kind. They came to look for trouble.

“Brother Ruozeng, please hear me out. I thought of Chu Feng the same way as you all before, I simply did not place Chu Feng in my eyes. Thus, I once fought against that Chu Feng. However, it ended miserably for me,” Kong Zheng said.

“Humph, Kong Zheng, don’t you go shaming yourself here. Look at your cultivation, and look at big brother Ruozeng’s cultivation. You actually want to compare yourself to big brother Ruozeng? You are simply overestimating your capabilities,” Someone mocked Kong Zheng.

“Indeed, my cultivation is inferior to brother Ruozeng’s. But what about big brother Kong Cheng? Even big brother Kong Cheng was unable to defeat Chu Feng and his friends when fighting against them. Do you all really think that brother Ruozeng will be a match for them?” Kong Zheng refuted angrily.

“This...”

At that moment, the people that had spoken to mock Kong Zheng grew quiet. Although Kong Cheng’s age had surpassed that of the younger generation, it remained that he was a rank one Martial Ancestor. They would not dare to deny the fact that Kong Cheng was more powerful than Kong Ruozhen.

“Humph, I’ve heard that Chu Feng is merely a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor right now. I refuse to believe that I cannot defeat him,” However, after hearing what Kong Zheng said, that Kong Ruozeng grew even more displeased.

He pointed at the palace that Chu Feng was in and shouted loudly, “Chu Feng! I am a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation! My name is Kong Ruozeng! I have come here to challenge you today! If you are a man, then come out and accept my challenge!”

Although his voice was not resounding, the oppressive might contained in the voice grew stronger and stronger. Furthermore, that oppressive might was completely aimed at the palace hall Chu

Feng and Wang Qiang were in.

“F-fuck! S-sure enough, they’ve come to l-look for trouble. I-I’ll go out and t-teach that bastard,” Wang Qiang revealed an angry look. He planned to go out and confront Kong Ruozeng.

“Wait,” However, Chu Feng grabbed Wang Qiang. He said, “He has clearly asked for me. If you are to go out, I fear that it will go against his desires.”

Chapter 2398 – Voice of the Guest Overwhelms That of the Host

“B-but, he c-clearly knows that you’re a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, whereas he’s a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Isn’t his i-intention t-to bully you obvious?” Wang Qiang said.

“That is why he is someone who only dares to bully the weak and fears the strong. I have encountered a lot of people like him. It’s fine, we can have him act arrogant for a bit longer. I have my ways of taking care of him,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

At that moment, Wang Qiang was slightly startled.

Those members of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation had clearly come to look for trouble. The words they said were very rude and offensive. If it was someone else that was treated in such a manner, even if they managed to not become angry, their expressions would definitely turn ugly.

However, not only was Chu Feng not angry, he also had a smile on his face. He had an appearance as if he was a spectator watching a very good show.

This caused Wang Qiang to become curious too. He was very curious as to how Chu Feng, who clearly possessed a cultivation inferior to that Kong Ruozeng, planned to take care of Kong Ruozeng. Thinking of it, Wang Qiang revealed a smile. Like a spectator, he looked outward.

“Brother Ruozeng, don’t bother shouting anymore. Chu Feng and Wang Qiang are our Kong Heavenly Clan’s honored guests. Even Lord Utmost Exalted Elder treated Chu Feng with respect. If you are to continue to act like this, you will anger Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, and will most likely suffer punishments,” Kong Zheng continued to urge Kong Ruozeng against it.

However, that Kong Ruozeng simply ignored Kong Zheng. He continued, “Chu Feng, do you fucking dare to accept my challenge or not?! Could it be that you are nothing more than a coward?!”

Seeing that Chu Feng had not been answering him the entire time, Kong Ruozeng grew more and more pleased with himself. He turned to Kong Zheng and said, “Kong Zheng, look at this. That Chu Feng is only someone that only dares to bully the weak and fears the strong. Is this your so-called genius? Grandmaster Kai Hong’s successor? The way I see it, he is nothing more than cowardly trash.”

“Hahahaha...” After he finished saying those words, he burst into loud laughter.

“Sure enough, what big brother Ruozeng said is correct, that Chu Feng is nothing more than a coward that only dares to bully the weak and fears the strong. Although he might appear to be very exceptional when bullying Kong Zheng, he turned into an utter coward before big brother Ruozeng. Hahahaha...”

At that moment, the people of the younger generation that had arrived with Kong Ruozeng all began to feel that Chu Feng would not dare to come out. One by one, they all burst into loud and mocking laughter.

“Who said that I, Chu Feng, does not dare accept the challenge?”

However, right at that moment, the tightly closed palace’s entrance gate suddenly opened.

At that moment, the group of Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation that were previously laughing mockingly all went silent.

Everyone turned their gazes to the entrance gate. In fact, some among them even grew afraid, and moved to hide behind Kong Ruozeng.

From this, it could be seen that not all of those fellows were courageous individuals; many of them were merely people that had come to take advantage of Kong Ruozen's strength to bully Chu Feng. Even though they were displeased with Chu Feng, they only dared to come humiliate him by borrowing the strength of another.

Before the fixed gazes of the crowd, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang walked out from the palace.

Chu Feng had not hidden his cultivation. Thus, when they sensed Chu Feng's cultivation of rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, they revealed relaxed smiles. Those fellows were truly the epitome of bullying the weak and fearing the strong.

"Chu Feng, I had thought that you wouldn't dare to come out," Kong Ruozen said to Chu Feng.

"Why wouldn't I dare to come out?" Chu Feng asked.

"Very well. Since you've dared to come out, you must've made preparations to fight against me, right?" Kong Ruozen asked.

"Of course. Let's start now," Chu Feng said.

Hearing what Chu Feng said, the people of the younger generation from the Kong Heavenly Clan all revealed surprised expressions. They did not expect that Chu Feng would actually really dare to accept the challenge.

However, at the same time, they revealed mocking smiles on their faces. At that moment, they felt as if they were able to see the scene of Chu Feng being trampled upon by Kong Ruozen.

Furthermore, upon thinking about how such a scene would soon emerge before them, they became endlessly excited and itching to see that scene.

After all, the person that would be trampled upon was the renowned genius, Grandmaster Kai Hong's successor.

The person that was the happiest at that moment was none other than Kong Ruozen. He was so overjoyed by Chu Feng's appearance that he was nearly blooming with delight. With a loud voice, he said, “Very well. Frank and straightforward, I like it. Since that’s the case, don’t blame me for being impolite.”

As Kong Ruozeng spoke, he pulled up his sleeves and revealed his rank nine Half Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might. He was prepared to ruthlessly trample on Chu Feng. “Woosh~~~”

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and a layer of magnificent spirit power flew out from his sleeve. The spirit power overlaid itself in multiple layers which interweaved with one another. Soon, a spirit formation wall was formed. That wall stood right before Chu Feng.

“Ssss~~~” Seeing this scene, even those people that were filled with hostility toward Chu Feng were unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were extremely rare. Even they, children from a noble family, very rarely saw Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. And now, a fellow member of the younger generation was actually an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Although they greatly detested Chu Feng in their hearts, they still felt themselves to be inferior the moment they saw that Chu Feng was actually really an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

“What are you doing?” Upon seeing that spirit formation wall, Kong Ruozeng revealed a puzzled expression.

“Since you’ve come to find me to spar, you must’ve come to spar with me with world spirit techniques. As such, I naturally will have to satisfy your request. As per your desire, I have finished setting up my spirit formation. Go ahead and attempt to break it. As long as you are able to break my spirit formation wall using world spirit techniques, it would be considered your win,” Chu Feng said.

“What? Spar with world spirit techniques? W-who said I want...” Hearing what Chu Feng said, Kong Ruozeng’s expression changed enormously.

However, before he could finish his sentence, Chu Feng interrupted, “Oh, that’s right. Don’t say that I’m bullying you. Although I casually set up this spirit formation of mine, I will not put a restriction on how long it will take you to break it with world spirit techniques. Regardless of how much time you spend, it will be your victory as long as you can undo it. Even if you are to spend your entire life to undo my spirit formation, it will still be your win.”

“You!!!” Kong Ruozeng was so furious that his face turned pale.

In fact, it was not only Kong Ruozeng; the others from the Kong Heavenly Clan were all stunned as well. None of them expected Chu Feng to do something like this. Although Kong Ruozeng was also a world spiritist, he did not possess any gifts in the realm of world spirit techniques. Thus, even though he had devoted many years to mastering world spirit techniques, he was still only a Gold-cloak World Spiritist right now.

When compared to other people of his same generation, his attainments of being a Gold-cloak World Spiritist was actually quite decent. However, if compared to Chu Feng, a grand Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, they would simply be light-years apart. If Chu Feng was the heavens, then he would be the earth.

Not to mention this life, with the attainments Kong Ruozeng had in world spirit techniques, even if he were to spend his next life and the life after that, he would likely still be unable to undo Chu Feng’s world spirit formation. ‘The voice o-of the guest o-overwhelms that of the h-host. G-great job!’ Wang Qiang praised Chu Feng in his heart. Wang Qiang had already realized what Chu Feng’s intention was. Although Kong Ruozeng had come to provoke Chu Feng, he did not clearly state that he wanted to compete with Chu Feng through battle power.

And now, Chu Feng had used world spirit techniques first. Thus, this Kong Ruozeng would definitely be no match. With that, even if the two of them were to compete in terms of battle power, and Chu Feng was to lose to Kong Ruozeng, they would only end up in a tie.

However, Wang Qiang felt that Chu Feng would not give Kong Ruozeng the opportunity to win. Thus, he was looking forward to what Chu Feng would be doing next.

“Who said that I wanted to compete with you in terms of world spirit techniques?!” Sure enough, Kong Ruozeng shouted angrily. He immediately rejected Chu Feng’s intention to compete with world spirit techniques.

“Oh? So you didn’t come to compete with me in terms of world spirit techniques? Then, what did you want to compete in? You couldn’t possibly be planning to say that you want to compete with me in terms of battle power, right?”

“You’re a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, whereas I am a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor. You have cultivated for over eighty years, decades more than me. If you were to demand to compete with me in terms of battle power, wouldn’t that be too shameless of an action? After all, that would clearly be the strong bullying the weak. If word of that matter were to spread, you would be looked down on by others. I think that you, a grand young master of the Kong Heavenly Clan, would not be that shameless, right?” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“.....”

At that moment, not to mention the others, even Kong Ruozeng was left speechless.

He was only thinking about the fact that he possessed stronger strength than Chu Feng, and could use his strength to teach Chu Feng a lesson.

Never had he thought that Chu Feng would say that he was shameless by bullying the weak. Thus, if he were to continue to force Chu Feng to compete in terms of battle power, he would have fallen into Chu Feng's trap.

At that moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation looked at one another in dismay. They had no idea what to do.

Chapter 2399 – Furious Elder

Panic. Those of the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation that came to cause trouble for Chu Feng all started to panic.

Never did they expect that not only did Chu Feng possess true abilities and was a genius in terms of both martial cultivation and world spirit techniques, he was also a calm, shrewd and unscrupulous individual.

Even though they were clearly in the Kong Heavenly Clan's territory, Chu Feng was actually able to restrain them. This signified two things.

First, Chu Feng was most definitely not an ordinary person of the younger generation. He was someone who had experienced great things. Else, he would not be so calm.

Secondly, Chu Feng possessed outstanding wisdom. Regardless of whether it was his talent, his intelligence or his courage, they all surpassed their own, making them feel inferior by comparison.

At that moment, those members of the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation were truly at a loss as for what to do. Feeling helpless, everyone turned their gazes to Kong Ruozen.

At that moment, Kong Ruozen felt himself to be under enormous pressure.

"Big brother Ruozen, how about we just forget about this? Else, when Lord Elders and the others come, we will likely end up being punished," In panic, some people began to urge Kong Ruozen to retreat.

"Punish? What sort of place is this? This is the Kong Heavenly Clan! Who dares punish me here?!" Kong Ruozen said confidently.

In the Kong Heavenly Clan, Kong Ruozen could be considered a peak genius. He was someone who had obtained the fondness of his clansmen since he was a child. Not to mention his parents, even the several Utmost Exalted Elders and their Lord Clan Chief would pamper him.

He was rarely ever scolded in his entire life. Even if he were to make mistakes, he would never be punished, and would instead be shielded. To put it simply, he had been pampered by the Kong Heavenly Clan his entire life.

“That’s true, big brother Ruozeng is different from us. Even the Utmost Exalted Elders would not punish him. As for the other elders, they simply do not dare to punish him.”

At that moment, those of the younger generation present came to a sudden realization. If it wasn’t for Kong Ruozeng’s special status, they would not have gone to provoke Chu Feng either.

After all, Chu Feng’s residence was guarded by people from the Kong Heavenly Clan.

It was not that the guards did not try to stop them, Rather... after Kong Ruozeng became angry, even those elders guarding Chu Feng’s residence cowered before him. “Hahahaha...” Thinking of that, Kong Ruozeng became confident. The awkward expression on his face disappeared, and he raised his head towards the sky and started laughing heartily. Chu Feng’s gaze changed. He asked dully, “What are you laughing about?”

“What am I laughing about? I’m laughing at how foolish you are. Did you not know what sort of place this is?” Kong Ruozeng said to Chu Feng.

“This place is naturally the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Chu Feng said.

“Since you know that this place is the Kong Heavenly Clan, do you not feel the words you said earlier to be ridiculous?” Kong Ruozeng said.

“What do you mean by that?” Chu Feng asked.

“You don’t understand? Very well, I can explain to you.”

“I have come here today precisely so that I can bully you, a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, with my cultivation of rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. What can you possibly do about it?”

Kong Ruozeng pointed at Chu Feng and spoke one word at a time. Compared to before, he was filled with confidence right now. He did not feel what he declared to be something shameful. Rather, he felt it to be only natural.

“In that case, you’ve admitted to the fact that you’re a shameless individual?” Chu Feng asked.

“So what if I am shameless? There is no one here that will mock my shamelessness, nor would there be anyone that will punish me. The reason for that is because this place is the Kong Heavenly Clan, my, Kong Ruozeng’s, territory,” Kong Ruozeng said while beating his chest. “You clearly know that what you plan to do is wrong, yet you still plan to do it. If the Kong Heavenly Clan is to let you do as you wish without any punishments, then I, Chu Feng, have nothing to say,” Chu Feng shrugged his shoulders with a smile. However, a simple action like that completely evoked Kong Ruozeng’s fury. The way he saw it, Chu Feng simply did not place him in his eyes at all. Else, how could he show such contempt toward him?

“Since you’ve already said something like that, I must truly teach you a lesson today.”

After Kong Ruozeng said those words, he suddenly shot forth a punch. Like an invisible ferocious beast, his rank nine Half Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might swept forth to oppress Chu Feng.

However, facing that attack, the corners of Chu Feng’s mouth actually raised into a slight smile. He did not reveal his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings. In fact, he stood where he was without moving; he did not even try to avoid the punch.

It was not that he was looking down on Kong Ruozeng and thinking that Kong Ruozeng’s punch would not injure him.

Rather, Chu Feng was confident that Kong Ruozheng's punch would not be able to reach him.

“Stop!!!”

Sure enough, it was as Chu Feng had anticipated, before the might of Kong Ruozeng's punch could reach Chu Feng, a furious shout sounded in the sky.

Following that, a burst of oppressive might arrived. Not only did the might of Kong Ruozeng's punch instantly disappear, Kong Ruozeng and the others were also forced back repeatedly.

Turning their gazes toward the voice, Kong Ruozeng and the others were immediately shocked.

A large group of people were walking in from outside. They had already arrived at the vast plaza before the palace.

The group of people was mostly composed of the Kong Heavenly Clan's elders. As for the person leading the group, he was one of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders, Kong Shunlian. “We pay our respects to Lord Utmost Exalted Elder and seniors.”

At that moment, Kong Ruozeng and the others hurriedly kneeled to pay their respects.

After all, to them, these people that had appeared here right now were all grand characters and their seniors.

“What audacity! Little friend Chu Feng is an honored guest invited over by me. Yet, you all actually dared to behave this rudely toward little friend Chu Feng! Why are you all still standing there?! Apologize to little friend Chu Feng immediately!” Kong Shunlian pointed at Kong Ruozeng and shouted furiously. Kong Ruozeng was startled to see Kong Shunlian reacting in such a manner. Never had he ever seen this Utmost Exalted Elder becoming angry, and especially this angry, with him in his entire life.

Seeing Kong Shunlian becoming furious, Kong Ruozeng was not only extremely shocked, he also started to panic. He didn't dare to hesitate, and hurriedly explained, "Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, I have not come to create troubles for Chu Feng. I merely wanted to spar with Chu Feng." "Unfilial son, you still dare to talk back?!" Right at that moment, a white-haired middle-aged man suddenly walked out from behind Kong Shunlian. He walked toward Kong Ruozen, raised his hand, and gave Kong Ruozen a slap to the face. "Paa~~~"

Although that slap was not given with a lot of force, it remained that the person giving the slap was a peak Martial Ancestor. Thus, the slap caused Kong Ruozen to roll about repeatedly on the ground and disfigured half of his face. After being slapped, Kong Ruozen was extremely angry. After all, very few people in the Kong Heavenly Clan dared to beat him. Thus, he was unable to contain his anger, crawled up and wanted to curse furiously at the person that had slapped him. However, when Kong Ruozen saw the person who had slapped him, he was stunned. He swallowed the curses he had planned to dish out, unable to say them. The reason for that was because the person that had slapped him earlier was his own father.

"Father, you... why did you slap me?" Kong Ruozen held his disfigured face with his hand as he looked to his father. Grievance and confusion filled his eyes. This was the first time in his entire life that his father had slapped him.

"Why did I slap you? You were rude to little friend Chu Feng, are you to say that you shouldn't be slapped for that? Apologize to little friend Chu Feng immediately! If you still don't apologize, I will cripple your legs!" Kong Ruozen's father said furiously. "Cripple my... all for that Chu Feng?" Hearing those words, Kong Ruozen felt endless grievances. He never expected that his father, who had never hit him before, would actually hit him for the first time because of an outsider. Kong Ruozen felt unable to accept this.

Kong Ruozeng felt that he had been wronged. Thus, he shouted, “Very well, go ahead and beat me! If you can, go ahead and beat me to death! Even if you are to beat me to death, I will still absolutely not apologize to that trash!”

“You....” Seeing his son acting like this, even though Kong Ruozeng’s father was furious, he was at a loss as to what to do. After all, Kong Ruozeng was his own son. As such, how could he possibly steel himself to beat him to death?

“You dare bully my honored guest, yet still refuse to repent. Men! Drag this Kong Ruozeng away! He shall receive medicinal punishment!” Right at that moment, the Utmost Exalted Elder Kong Shunlian, who had been standing silently on the side for a very long time, suddenly gave an order.

“Medicinal punishment?!!!” Hearing those words, not to mention Kong Ruozeng, all the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan present had an enormous change in expression.

Medicinal punishment was a sort of internal punishment of the Kong Heavenly Clan. That sort of punishment would not kill the person being punished. In fact, it would not even affect that person’s life after they went through the punishment. There would also not be any scars from the punishment.

Merely, when they underwent the medicinal punishment, they would have to endure unbearable pain. That sort of pain was something that would make one wish they were dead.

That was one of the most cruel and fearful punishments of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Putt~~~” Suddenly, a muffled echo was heard.

The previously unyielding Kong Ruozeng who had declared he was unafraid of death actually fell onto his butt. His face was covered with sweat, and his complexion was pale white. Even his body was shivering nonstop...

Chapter 2400 – Severe Punishment

---

At that moment, Kong Ruozeng's father also started to panic. He truly never expected that Kong Shunlian would order a medicinal punishment for his son. After all, that was one of the most cruel punishments in their Kong Heavenly Clan.

As for Kong Ruozeng, he was already completely stupefied. He did not even dare to utter another refuting word, and merely sat stunned on the ground, shivering.

“Impudent! Immediately acknowledge your mistake!” Suddenly, Kong Ruozeng's father shouted loudly at him.

He had done so for Kong Ruozeng's sake. He did not want Kong Ruozeng to receive punishment. Thus, he wanted to force Kong Ruozeng to admit his mistake so that Kong Shunlian would not punish him.

After all, Utmost Exalted Elder Kong Shunlian was also very pampering of Kong Ruozeng. As such, how could he really put Kong Ruozeng through such a cruel punishment for a mere Chu Feng?

As long as Kong Ruozeng was to give up, Kong Shunlian would be able to get off the stage, and a crisis would be averted.

“Chu Feng, my apologies. I-I truly did not intend to provoke you. I really was only trying to spar with you. Perhaps the way I expressed myself was incorrect. However, I truly did not have the intention to provoke you. I hope that you will not take offense to my actions. Please, help me explain this to Lord Utmost Exalted Elder.”

Kong Ruozeng hurriedly got up and apologized while bowing to Chu Feng. His stubbornness earlier had completely disappeared now. Furthermore, Kong Ruozeng was very smart. Not only was he apologizing, he was also trying to have Chu Feng plead for leniency for him. He knew that while Kong Shunlian might not give face to the words spoken by anyone else right now, Chu Feng's words would hold significant weight.

At that moment, Kong Ruozeng had realized the status Chu Feng possessed in Kong Shunlian's heart. Merely, he deeply regretted that he had realized it too late.

However, Chu Feng's expression remained unchanged even after hearing what Kong Ruozeng said. Furthermore, he did not say anything.

Who was Chu Feng? He had already realized that Kong Ruozeng was not apologizing to him with sincerity. Someone like Kong Ruozeng was different from Kong Cheng and Kong Zheng. Once a grievance was formed, he would remember it for the rest of his life. As such, he would become Chu Feng's enemy for the rest of his life.

Even if Chu Feng were to plead for leniency on behalf of Kong Ruozeng, Kong Ruozeng would definitely still view him as an enemy and not let him get away with things in the future. Thus, since they were going to become enemies either way, why must Chu Feng plead on his behalf?

"It is too late to admit your mistake now. Today, you must undergo the medicinal punishment," Kong Shunlian said.

Once Kong Shunlian said those words, Kong Ruozeng was so scared that he fell back onto his butt again. He revealed a dejected expression, and felt as if he had fallen into the abyss with no way out today.

"Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, please take into consideration that Ruozeng is still very young. I will definitely punish him for his wrongdoings. Merely... this medicinal punishment, isn't it a bit too serious?"

Seeing that Kong Shunlian was still not planning to spare his son, Kong Ruozeng's father ended up having no choice but to personally plead for Kong Ruozeng.

“To only know how to acknowledge one's mistake after a calamity has befallen them, who was it that spoiled you to a state of problematic arrogance and willfulness?” Kong Shunlian pointed at Kong Ruozeng. Then, he turned to Kong Ruozeng's father and said, “Kong Yao, as Kong Ruozeng's father, should you not provide me with an explanation for this?”

“It is all my fault. I have failed in educating my son. Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, if you want to punish someone, please punish me instead,” Kong Ruozeng's father suddenly kneeled on the ground. He actually wanted to take on the punishment on behalf of his son. “Impudent! Are you telling me that even after living for all these years, you still do not know about the principle that one cannot stand in for the crimes committed by another?” Kong Shunlian said angrily.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, this junior understands that principle. Merely, Ruozeng is still young, I fear that he will not be able to endure a punishment as severe as the medicinal punishment. Thus, I beg of you, please be lenient, and allow me to take the punishment on Ruozeng's behalf.” “What foolery. It's no wonder that Kong Ruozeng is this senseless. It's all a consequence caused by the lack of education from you, his father.” “Good, good, good. Since you insist on receiving punishment today, then I shall have both of you, father and son, receive the punishment together,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Woosh~~~” After Kong Shunlian said those words, he waved his sleeve, and a layer of oppressive might swept forth. Like a rope, it tied up Kong Ruozeng and his father, causing the two of them to become unable to move or utilize any of their cultivation.

“Men! Drag the two of them down! Immediately execute the medicinal punishment on them! If anyone dares to disobey, I will have them suffer the same medicinal punishment as this father and son!” Kong Shunlian said.

Once Kong Shunlian said those words, how could anyone possibly dare disobey him? Soon, two law enforcement elders walked out and proceeded to drag Kong Ruozeng and his father away.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, we were wrong. We really know our wrongs now. Please, we beg of you, please forgive us. We will never dare to do this again, never dare to do this again.”

The next moment, the remaining members of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation hurriedly kneeled on the ground and began to kowtow and beg for forgiveness nonstop. In fact, many of them were so scared that they even started tearing up.

Among all the people of the younger generation that came here today, the person that was the most pampered and beloved by the Kong Heavenly Clan was none other than Kong Ruozeng. When even Kong Ruozeng was being forced to suffer such a severe punishment, this caused the rest of the younger generation present to be extremely scared.

“Why are you all apologizing to me? You should be apologizing to little friend Chu Feng,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Chu Feng, we were wrong. Please give us another chance, we will definitely not dare to do something like that again,” The others present began to beg for forgiveness from Chu Feng with weeping tears on their faces. “I have a question that I wish to ask you all. Your apology to me, is it because you all are sincerely repenting for your actions, or is it because you’re all scared by the punishments?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

“Chu Feng, we were mistaken. We are sincerely repenting for our actions, we truly will not dare to do something like that again. Please help, plead for leniency for us, please don’t have Lord Utmost Exalted Elder make us undergo medicinal punishment too,” Those members of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation were all deeply frightened. They were on the verge of kneeling and kowtowing to Chu Feng. “Let it pass. Today... you all didn’t really do much of anything either,” Chu Feng shook his head. These people were truly too timid and cowardly. They would not become his enemies in the future, nor did they possess the qualifications to become his enemies. Thus, Chu Feng said to Kong Shunlian, “Senior, how about you just spare them?” “Since little friend Chu Feng is pleading for leniency, I will spare you all this once. If this is to happen again, I will definitely not let you all off easily,” Kong Shunlian said. Hearing those words, the younger generation present heaved a sigh of relief. They not only turned to express their thankfulness to Kong Shunlian, they also started expressing their thankfulness to Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

“Where are the elders in charge of guarding this place?! Scram out here!” Kong Shunlian suddenly shouted.

“We pay our respects to Lord Utmost Exalted Elder,” Soon, a group of elders rushed out. These elders were all Martial Ancestors. However, they were on average only at the early ranks of Martial Ancestor. Among the Kong Heavenly Clan, they could not be considered to be very powerful.

From this, it could be determined that these people would most likely only possess medium tier status in the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Thus, when an existence like Kong Shunlian appeared before them, these elders reacted in practically the same manner as those people of the younger generation – they were all endlessly afraid and trembling with fear.

“I ask of you all, how did Kong Ruozeng and the others managed to get in here?” Kong Shunlian asked. “.....” Those elders started to stammer. They didn’t know how to answer him.

“To fail in blocking a group of children, you all are unworthy of being elders. All of you, go to the punishment department and receive the medicinal punishment of your own accord. Else... I will have you all regret your actions for the rest of your lives,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Yes,” Those elders did not dare utter the slightest bit of complaint. In fact, none of them dared to even look Kong Shunlian in the eyes. One by one, they hurriedly stood up and began to fly toward the punishment department. They would not go against Kong Shunlian’s orders because they did not dare to do so. “Ssss~~~”

At this moment, Kong Zheng, who was standing to the side, was unable to contain himself from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

He recalled how he had been somewhat unwilling to apologize to Chu Feng at the Drought Demon’s Damned Pond when this Utmost Exalted Elder ordered him to do so.

And now, as Kong Zheng saw the punishment that Kong Ruozeng and the others received, he felt truly glad that he had been so very fortunate.

It was only now that he became certain of what sort of status Chu Feng held in this Utmost Exalted Elder’s heart.

This Utmost Exalted Elder was truly planning to rope Chu Feng in. Else, it would be impossible for him to be this ruthless and strict to his own clansmen.

At this moment, Kong Zheng looked to his surroundings. He saw that regardless of whether it was the elders or the people of the younger generation, they all had the same sort of expression on their faces. After today... likely no one in the entire Kong Heavenly Clan would dare to make trouble for Chu Feng.

Chapter 2401 – Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation

“Little friend Chu Feng, I am truly sorry for how unruly our Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation has behaved. This old man has truly failed in disciplining them...” Kong Shunlian walked over to Chu Feng and began to personally apologize to Chu Feng.

However, before Kong Shunlian could finish what he wanted to say, Chu Feng interrupted him with a smile on his face. “Senior, you are being too courteous. This is merely a small matter. I, Chu Feng, never took it to heart. So, senior, please do not overthink this.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, your heart is truly broad. This old man is filled with admiration,” Kong Shunlian clasped his fist toward Chu Feng. He did not say those words casually. Rather, with his observation, he was able to tell that Chu Feng had truly not taken this matter to heart.

To be able to remain magnanimous like this after being insulted when invited over as an honored guest was something very difficult for even people of the older generation to accomplish, let alone a person of the younger generation like Chu Feng.

“Senior, this Chu Feng managed to obtain some comprehension today. I wish to enter closed-door training in the Kong Heavenly Clan for a period of time. Might that be possible?” Chu Feng asked. “For little friend Chu Feng to plan to enter closed-door training here would mean that little friend Chu Feng is confident in our Kong Heavenly Clan. As such, there’s definitely no issue at all.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, please rest assured, and enter closed-door training here at ease. I guarantee... that regardless of whether it might be people from our Kong Heavenly Clan or others, none of them will bother you again,” Kong Shunlian said. “Thank you senior,” Chu Feng clasped his fist.

Then, Chu Feng and Kong Shunlian continued to chat for a moment. When Kong Shunlian and the others left, the inside and outside of the palace that served as Chu Feng's residence became very quiet. "Haha, today has t-truly been to e-everyone's satisfaction. T-that guy by the name of Kong Ruozeng must've n-never thought that he would s-suffer this e-enormously in his o-own territory. Hahaha, satisfying, truly immensely s-satisfying." "I t-truly want to s-see w-what sort of a-appearance he will h-have when u-undergoing t-that so-called medicinal punishment," At that moment, Wang Qiang was laughing in an extremely delighted manner. However, Wang Qiang soon said, "Merely, I s-saw that Kong R-Ruozeng look a-at you with an e-expression filled with g-grievances when he was d-dragged away. I'm a-afraid that he will not l-leave the matter at that."

"He is but a brainless impertinent fellow that has been pampered for so long that he no longer knows the immensity of heaven and earth. There is simply no need to worry about someone like him."

"Rather, we should be on guard against his father. Merely, I think they will not dare to do anything again in the Kong Heavenly Clan. Thus, at the very least, we'll be temporarily safe here," Chu Feng said.

"Then, are w-we to..." Wang Qiang said. "Yes, it is like you thought. We are going to finish the grand formation," Chu Feng said.

After Chu Feng said those words, he revealed a smile of anticipation on his face. He was not only looking forward to the treasures, he was also looking forward to the spirit formation itself. After all, that grand spirit formation was the most difficult and also the most amazing spirit formation Chu Feng had ever challenged so far.

In fact, that spirit formation was one that surpassed one's cultivation. After all... that spirit formation was capable of avoiding the detection of even True Immortals.

Soon, the Kong Heavenly Clan released the news that Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had entered closed-door training. After Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were announced to have entered closed-door training, even though there were still people coming to pay respects to them, they were all refused by the Kong Heavenly Clan.

However, those people that came to pay respect to Chu Feng and Wang Qiang did not wish to journey here in vain. Thus, those with high statuses decided to directly stay in the Kong Heavenly Clan as guests.

Those with inferior levels of status who weren't qualified to stay in the Kong Heavenly Clan as guests decided to wait outside the Kong Heavenly Clan for news of Chu Feng and Wang Qiang exiting their closed-door training.

All of a sudden, a large group of people were gathered outside the Kong Heavenly Clan. It was a scene that was rarely seen.

Upon thinking of how those people had not gathered here for the Kong Heavenly Clan, but rather for two people from the younger generation, one could inevitably feel how extraordinary Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were.

Before this, there had only been a single member of the younger generation capable of causing all these seniors to come and pay him respect — the exceptional genius Young Master Li Ming.

After Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were able to focus on setting up the spirit formation, their speed increased enormously.

Merely, that spirit formation was extremely powerful, so powerful that it could even avoid the detection of True Immortals. As such, it was naturally very difficult to set up. Thus, even though Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were working together, it still took them several days to finish setting up the spirit formation. Fortunately, they still managed to succeed.

At that moment, two golden-bright and dazzling bodies of light were floating on Chu Feng's palm.

They resembled two stars, and although their size was very small, they contained an unbounded amount of power.

This was the result of Chu Feng and Wang Qiang's joint efforts of the past several days, the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation. As its name implied, once one donned this spirit formation, not even True Immortals would be able to detect them even if they were to walk right past them.

"T-these t-two t-tiny things a-actually took us s-so long to make," Looking at the two bodies of light on Chu Feng's palm, Wang Qiang gasped with admiration.

"This is a spirit formation that can evade even True Immortals, naturally it will require a bit more time to complete," Chu Feng said.

"S-say, w-wouldn't we be a-able to sell these two items for a g-great amount of wealth if we were to sell them?" Wang Qiang asked with a beaming smile.

"Of course. Merely, we have no proof of our words. I fear that no one will trust us. After all, the effect of this spirit formation is quite unbelievable," Chu Feng said.

"It can only be said that they are stupid and ignorant then. If they a-are unable to believe this Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation to be r-real, th-then wouldn't it mean that they would be s-scared to death once we b-become Snake Marked Immortal-cloak World Spiritists and set up that Immortal Burying Formation?" Wang Qiang said with an expression of anticipation.

Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were Grandmaster Kai Hong's successors. The two of them had obtained many powerful spirit formations from Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance.

Among the spirit formations they obtained was one by the name of Immortal Burying Formation. As its name implied, once the Immortal Burying Formation was set up, even True Immortals would end up losing their lives should they enter it. The Immortal Burying Formation was extremely powerful.

“The Immortal Burying Formation is extremely hard. If we attempt to set it up as only Snake Marked Immortal-cloaked World Spiritists, I fear that it will be extremely difficult to set up. The amount of time it will take us to set it up would be immeasurable. Furthermore, even if we were able to successfully set it up, its might would definitely be limited,” Chu Feng said.

“If t-the three of us a-are to join hands, I f-feel that it will be f-feasible.”

“F-furthermore, if we r-really d-do set up that Immortal B-Burying Formation, no one in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would dare to disrespect us, no?”

“A-at that time, w-who would provoke us?” Wang Qiang said with a face filled with resentment. It could be seen that Wang Qiang deeply remembered the times he was bullied by others.

“Although there are very few Immortal-cloak World Spiritists in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, there are still Immortal-cloak World Spiritists.”

“However, in terms of setting up a grand formation that can kill True Immortals, I reckon there is no one other than the Golden Crane True Immortal that is capable of doing that.” “If we are truly able to set up the Immortal Burying Formation, we will definitely shock all the people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Chu Feng said.

“Is t-that Golden C-Crane True Immortal really that powerful that he could set up something akin t-to the Immortal Burying Formation?” Wang Qiang asked.

“I feel that he is unfathomable. His strength is not something that the four tier one powers could compare to. However, strictly speaking, he is not someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Chu Feng said.

Even though Chu Feng had only met the Golden Crane True Immortal once, he believed the Golden Crane True Immortal to be extremely powerful. In fact, Chu Feng felt that the Golden Crane True Immortal might not only possess the cultivation of a True Immortal. After all, the title ‘Golden Crane True Immortal’ was only given to him by others, and not himself.

Of course, Chu Feng felt that the plain-clothed old monk should also be able to set up a spirit formation like the Immortal Burying Formation, or even one more powerful than the Immortal Burying Formation.

However, regardless of whether it might be the Golden Crane True Immortal or that plain-clothed old monk, the two of them would likely not setup those sorts of spirit formations even if they were capable of doing so. After all, the two of them possessed such overwhelmingly powerful cultivations; there was simply no need for them to set up a spirit formation, they would be able to kill True Immortals merely by relying on their martial cultivations.

Merely, as Chu Feng looked to the spiraling spirit formation in his hand, he still felt very excited. After all, he was not a powerful True Immortal-level expert. Instead, he was a weak individual with the mere cultivation of a Half Martial Ancestor.

Suddenly, Her Lady Queen’s voice was heard. “What’s wrong? Why have you been staring at that spirit formation the entire time?”

“Eggy, before this, I truly never expected that I would be able to set up such a powerful spirit formation. I am still only a Half Martial Ancestor. Yet, I am now able to avoid the detection of True Immortals. It would appear that the power of world spiritists is truly amazing,” Chu Feng said to Eggy. “World spiritists are naturally amazing. Martial cultivation is something that everyone can accomplish. However, not just anyone can become a world spiritist. As such, world spiritists should naturally be more powerful than martial cultivators.

“The reason why you did not notice the greatness of world spiritists before was because you were too weak as a world spiritist, and the spirit formations that you knew were too weak as well.”
“However, I can tell you with certainty. From what I’ve heard, world spiritists are extremely powerful. As long a world spiritist is given a sufficient amount of time, they will not even be afraid of expert martial cultivators much more powerful than them.”

“However, you have yet to encounter a world spiritist that powerful. They are existences far beyond you. Thus, regardless of how much I describe them to you, you will not necessarily be able to understand. However, you merely need to think of your mother. By thinking of your mother, you should be able to realize what sort of strength the powerful world spiritists possess,” Her Lady Queen said.

“My mother?” Chu Feng’s heart was moved. According to Xue Ji, his mother had been capable of tearing the Asura Spirit World apart and snatching world spirits from there by force.

What sort of place was the Asura Spirit World? It was the strongest of the seven spirit worlds. The world spirits in that place were extremely powerful.

It was precisely because of that that it showed how powerful Chu Feng’s mother was.

Chapter 2402 – Strange Change

---

“Creak~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng tightly clenched his fists.

Even though Chu Feng had never once doubted the fact that his mother was very strong, Chu Feng would never forget the sharp gaze his father had when he had asked him about his mother.

His father’s sharp gaze revealed a piece of news for him. That was that Chu Feng’s mother was most likely trapped in a predicament right now.

However, his mother was already that powerful. In that case, how powerful must the existence capable of trapping his mother in a predicament be?

If Chu Feng did not possess sufficient strength, what could he possibly do even if he was able to find his mother?

Weak and small, the current Chu Feng was simply too weak and small. Thinking of that, Chu Feng wished to become stronger even more urgently.

“I’ll go now,” Chu Feng said.

“W-why are you in such a r-rush?” Wang Qiang was very shocked. Then, he urged, “We’ve only just finished setting up this spirit f-formation. T-thus, your body should still be v-very weak. I f-fear that it is not w-wise to go r-right away.”

“This matter should not be delayed. I fear that if we are to delay, things will change. Furthermore, my current state could still be said to be fine. I think I should be able to handle it,” Chu Feng said.

“V-very well, l-let’s set off right a-away then,” As Wang Qiang said those words, he planned to set out.

“Brother, I fear that I will have to go alone,” Chu Feng extended his hand and stopped Wang Qiang.

“Why’s t-that?” Wang Qiang revealed a confused expression.

“This spirit formation is only sufficient for me alone,” Chu Feng said as he extended the spirit formation on his palm.

“Aren’t there two? Wouldn’t this be just r-right for the two of us t-together?” Wang Qiang said.

“Brother, can’t you tell? Even though we’ve managed to set up this spirit formation, it is only able to last for a very short period of time,” Chu Feng said.

“Eh... r-regarding that, I r-really didn’t pay attention,” As Wang Qiang spoke, he used his special means to inspect the spirit formation. Upon inspecting it, he discovered that it was as Chu Feng had said. Even though their spirit formation had taken the form of two bodies of light, enough for two people to use them simultaneously, they were only able to last for a very short period of time.

In other words, only a single person could proceed to obtain the treasures today. That person would have to use one of the two bodies of light on the way there, and use the other on the way back. Else, it wouldn’t work.

“Brother, I am t-truly not a-at ease for you to go by yourself. How a-about we set up a-another spirit formation?” Wang Qiang said.

“I fear that there’s not enough time. Brother, you should just stay. By staying here, if something is to happen, you can help me delay them,” Chu Feng said.

“W-what could possibly h-happen?” Wang Qiang asked.

“It’s better to be prepared just in case. Don’t forget, we were in actual conflict with the Kong Heavenly Clan earlier. Although the possibility is very small, it’s not a hundred percent guarantee that they will not come create troubles for us.”

“Most importantly, that place is guarded. Thus, even if it is not a forbidden area, it shouldn’t be an ordinary place either. I cannot be certain as to whether or not I will trigger any mechanisms or be detected upon entering there. If I am to really trigger something and cause them to discover that someone has intruded upon that place, they might end up suspecting us,” Chu Feng said.

“I u-understand now t-that you’ve explained it like this. V-very well, I’ll stay,” Wang Qiang said.

“Brother, it might be even more dangerous to stay behind. Remember, if possible, save yourself. You do not have to worry about me,” Chu Feng patted Wang Qiang’s shoulder.

“Re-rest a-assured, y-you’ll be satisfied w-with the w-way I handle things,” Wang Qiang said with his mouth wide open in a smile.

“Indeed, I am at ease with the way you handle things,” Chu Feng also smiled.

After it was decided, Chu Feng took out a special case and placed one of the two spheres of light into it. As for the other one, Chu Feng clenched his hand and shattered it, turning it into a shower of light that basked him.

The next moment, the light disappeared. As for Chu Feng, he also disappeared along with the light. Not only did his physical body disappear, his aura had also completely disappeared.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, Wang Qiang’s gaze started to shine brightly, revealing sharpness. It was as if Wang Qiang’s gaze could see through everything.

Wang Qiang focused his eyes before him and began to look up and down.

“Holy hell, I a-am really unable to see anything at all. T-this spirit formation is t-truly miraculous,” Wang Qiang said excitedly. The reason for that was because he knew that Chu Feng was standing right before him. That was why he had used such a powerful detection ability with the intention of seeing through the spirit formation. However... the result was obvious; he was unable to detect Chu Feng even when using his powerful detection ability.

“This spirit formation is indeed effective. Brother... I’ll be setting out now,” Chu Feng smiled complacently. After he finished saying those words, he proceeded toward the entrance gates.

Chu Feng did not open the door. The reason for that was because there was another effect to the spirit formation. That is, the user was capable of passing through walls. Even if it was a wall that possessed a spirit formation over it, as long as the spirit formation’s spirit power was stronger than the wall’s, Chu Feng would still be able to pass through it.

The result of Chu Feng and Wang Qiang’s joint efforts over the past several days was absolutely not something to be trifled with. Thus, the spirit power of Chu Feng’s spirit formation was nothing to be trifled with either. Unless it was a spirit formation set up by a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist... there would likely not be any spirit formation that could stop Chu Feng.

After Chu Feng left, he began to run with all his might. At that moment... he could not use martial power, nor could he use world spirit techniques. In fact, he could not even fly through the sky. However, this spirit formation of his could only last for a limited amount of time, and Chu Feng had to reach his destination before the effect of the spirit formation wore off. Thus, his only choice was to run as fast as he could.

At that moment, Chu Feng was like a person who had lost his cultivation. However, it remained that Chu Feng was a Half Martial Ancestor. Thus, Chu Feng possessed a very strong physical body. As such, he could not be compared to an ordinary person, and his running speed was also extremely fast.

As Chu Feng ran violently, he was somewhat nervous when he first encountered people from the Kong Heavenly Clan. However, after he became certain that they were indeed unable to see him, he gradually grew at ease.

In the Kong Heavenly Clan, practically all of the buildings were built with spirit formations. For some places that were guarded, the spirit formations there were extremely strong.

However, even though the Kong Heavenly Clan was capable of requesting Immortal-cloak World Spiritists to help them set up these spirit formations, those spirit formations were still unable to stop Chu Feng.

Just like that, Chu Feng continued straight forward completely unhindered. He was able to disregard all people and obstacles. In the end, he successfully reached the region that he wanted to enter.

It was a vast mountain, a mountain that was completely sealed off. Not only was there not a single person on the mountain, there was not a single monstrous beast either. Likewise... there were no trees that reached the sky or exotic plants and flowers.

Only ordinary flowers, plants and trees grew on this mountain. There were also many rarely-seen feral monkeys, wild hares, wild deer and other little animals.

In short, everything in this place was extremely ordinary.

Chu Feng felt as if he had returned to the Nine Provinces Continent, returned to the Azure Province, returned to that relatively ordinary land.

However, Chu Feng did not dare to be careless. He was able to tell that this seemingly-normal mountain was not normal at all. Instead, danger lurked on every side here.

At that moment, Chu Feng had no idea that there was an ancient pagoda in one of the Kong Heavenly Clan's forbidden areas. Inside the ancient pagoda was a spirit formation.

The moment Chu Feng set foot on the mountain, a strange change emerged from the spirit formation.

Chapter 2403 – The Most Dangerous Forbidden Area

---

This spirit formation was located at the center of the ancient pagoda. Surrounding the spirit formation were eighteen elderly individuals.

Of these eighteen elderly individuals, seventeen of them were peak Martial Ancestors. Furthermore, many among them were world spiritists.

As for the final individual, it was a woman with white hair, white clothes and a face covered in wrinkles. She possessed the same sort of aura as Elder Kong Shunlian; she was a True Immortal-level expert.

As for that person, she was one of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders, Kong Yuehua.

“Buzz~~~”

The strange change to the spirit formation caused all of the elders present, including Kong Yuehua, to suddenly open their eyes.

As they looked at the change in the spirit formation, they all revealed a change in expression. Then, the other seventeen elders turned their gazes to Kong Yuehua.

“Lady Utmost Exalted Elder, someone has intruded into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range!!!” The elders spoke in unison.

“I can see it myself without you all mentioning it,” Compared to the others, Kong Yuehua was more calm.

“Then, Lady Elder, what should we do?” The others asked in unison. Evidently, this was no small matter. Otherwise, they would not be this frantic.

“Call the Lord Clan Chief over, as well as all of the upper echelons of our clan that have not entered closed-door training,” Kong Yuehua said.

“Yes, Milady,” Once Kong Yuehua’s order was given, the remaining seventeen Utmost Exalted Elders immediately left the ancient pagoda and flew toward various different locations.

At that moment, only Kong Yuehua remained in the ancient pagoda. Her gaze grew sharp as she looked at the spirit formation that was giving off that unusual signal nonstop.

At that moment, Chu Feng was still within the mountain. He was running rapidly following the route in his mind. He did not dare to stop and rest because he knew that his spirit formation would not be able to last for long, and that he must reach the location he wanted to reach before the spirit formation’s effect disappeared.

As Chu Feng continued to run, he became even more certain that the map that Grandmaster Kai Hong had given him was correct.

The reason for that was because there were many hidden slaughtering formations in this seemingly-ordinary mountain range. While those slaughtering formations would not do anything to the ordinary little animals, if a martial cultivator was to approach them, they would immediately explode with extremely frightening power.

Furthermore, those slaughtering formations were extremely well-hidden. Even Chu Feng only noticed their existence after passing by them.

Fortunately, Chu Feng possessed the map in his head. He was only able to avoid those slaughtering formations by following the route according to the map in his head.

Else, even if Chu Feng were to become a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist and use his Heaven’s Eyes to observe his surroundings, it would have still been very difficult for him to evade the slaughtering formations in that place.

This vast mountain range was simply a vast slaughtering range. Devastating powers that Chu Feng could not withstand were hidden all over the place.

That said, even though Chu Feng had managed to avoid the slaughtering formations, he was still frowning. It seemed that he was pondering something.

Suddenly, Chu Feng said in a very stern manner, “Eggy, something’s amiss.”

“What’s wrong? What’s amiss?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“I keep feeling that this mountain range contains more than just slaughtering formations. It seems that there was a very powerful sensory formation that was also hidden here. It’s... very possible that I have already been discovered,” Chu Feng said.

“Ah? Then what do we do? They wouldn’t be coming in to capture you, right? Would you make it in time if you are to exit this place now?” After hearing what Chu Feng said, Her Lady Queen started to panic.

After all, this place was no ordinary place. Rather, it was the territory of one of the four strongest powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, the Kong Heavenly Clan.

There were simply too many experts in this place. They possessed even True Immortal-level experts. The amount of people capable of obliterating Chu Feng instantly were simply numerous.

If Chu Feng had really only come here to be a guest, the Kong Heavenly Clan would likely not dare to do anything to him due to external pressures.

However, when Chu Feng and Eggy arrived, they discovered that even though that place was not known to be a forbidden area, it was guarded exceptionally tightly — the guards were actually all peak Martial Ancestors. In fact, even the spirit formation that had sealed this place was extremely powerful.

If it wasn't because of the fact that Chu Feng's Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation was so powerful, he would not be able to enter this mountain range even if no one tried to stop him.

From this, it could be seen that there must be something fishy regarding this place. Although this place was not known to be a forbidden area, it was very possible that the place was regarded as a forbidden area by the Kong Heavenly Clan.

A place like that would be a place that outsiders would not be allowed to trespass into. If Chu Feng's intrusion into that place was to be seen by the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan, Chu Feng would be in the wrong even if news of the matter were to spread. Thus, should Chu Feng be captured, he would definitely end up suffering enormously.

"Since I've already entered this place, I cannot return empty-handed," Chu Feng did not have the intention to turn back. Instead, he continued to rapidly proceed forward.

"Very well. Since you've made the decision, then you might as well put your life on the line," Seeing that Chu Feng was determined to proceed onward, Her Lady Queen did not advise him against it, but instead became excited.

Rather than retreating, Her Lady Queen was actually more fond of bravely advancing.

Furthermore, since Chu Feng had already been discovered, even if they were to retreat, it would still be very difficult to escape. Thus, it was better that he risk his life and continue onward.

After continuing to run for some time, Chu Feng arrived at the foot of a mountain and stopped.

"It's here," Chu Feng said.

"Here?" Her Lady Queen was surprised.

"If the map is correct, then this is the entrance. Merely, I will need to spend some time to open this entrance. I don't know... if I can make it in time or not," Chu Feng said.

"Regardless of whether or not you can make it in time, you must still give it a try. Go on ahead and do it. Since you're already here, there's no need to hesitate," Her Lady Queen said.

"Eggy, you are thinking precisely the same as what I am thinking," Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he began to set up his spirit formation.

It was a very complicated unsealing formation. It was also a spirit formation that Chu Feng had obtained from Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance. According to the instructions on the map, only this unsealing formation was capable of opening the entrance to allow Chu Feng to enter and obtain the treasures.

At the same time when Chu Feng was putting forth all his effort to set up the spirit formation so as to open the entrance, many experts were already gathered in that ancient pagoda.

These people were all experts from the Kong Heavenly Clan. Three among them were even True Immortals.

Among them were Kong Yuehua and Kong Shunlian. As for the last individual, he was a dark-skinned old man. Like Kong Yuehua and Kong Shunlian, he was also one of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders. His name was Kong Moyu.

"Lord Clan Chief is actually away at such a time. This is truly a bad coincidence," Kong Yuehua sighed.

She had just received news that the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had a matter to attend to and left the Kong Heavenly Clan. Furthermore, the other Utmost Exalted Elders were still in closed-door training. As such, only the three of them were capable of overseeing the matters happening in the Kong Heavenly Clan.

"Even if Lord Clan Chief is to come now, the situation at hand will remain the same. One of our Kong Heavenly Clan's most important forbidden areas, the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, has been intruded upon,” Elder Kong Moyu said.

“How can we be certain that this is caused by an outsider?” Kong Shunlian asked.

“The people of our Kong Heavenly Clan all know what sort of place the Grief Calamity Mountain Range is. No one will enter that place, they would not dare. Furthermore, I have just checked the records. Other than the people that have gone out of our Kong Heavenly Clan, the rest of our clansmen are practically all present. Thus... this can only be determined to be caused by an outsider,” Kong Moyu said.

“Lord Elder, then I will immediately order people to enter the Grief Calamity Mountain Range and capture that intruder,” A peak Martial Ancestor-level expert said.

“Impudent! What sort of place is the Grief Calamity Mountain Range?! You want to bring people in, what use is that other than throwing away your lives?!” Kong Moyu shouted furiously.

At that moment, that peak Martial Ancestor lowered his head in shame.

It was not only him; all of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s experts grew silent.

The Grief Calamity Mountain Range was a place that the people from their Kong Heavenly Clan never dared to enter.

It could be said that not only was the Grief Calamity Mountain Range a forbidden area, it was also their Kong Heavenly Clan’s most dangerous forbidden area.

Chapter 2404 – The Primogenitor's Inheritance

---

The Grief Calamity Mountain Range was a forbidden area established by a hero-level character of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

That individual was an important individual who had helped push the Kong Heavenly Clan to the throne of a tier one power.

Not only did he possess overwhelming battle power and a powerful cultivation, he was also a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

It could be said that there would not be a Kong Heavenly Clan like the one there was today without him.

When he was alive, he had been one of the most revered existences of his era.

Although he was not really the Kong Heavenly Clan's primogenitor, he was the one who had brought about a rebirth to the Kong Heavenly Clan. Thus, the Kong Heavenly Clan addressed him as the Kong Primogenitor.

Furthermore, that individual was the widely-accepted strongest senior in the entire history of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

In the life of that Kong Primogenitor, he had gone through countless tribulations and encountered many chance opportunities.

He had passed down the treasures and skills that he had acquired in his lifetime, allowing the Kong Heavenly Clan to possess the glory to continue on till this day.

However, the Kong Primogenitor had not passed down all of the things that he had obtained in his lifetime. He had still left behind a small portion of them.

As for that small portion, it was hidden in the Grief Calamity

Mountain Range by him.

Furthermore, he had set up grand formations on the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

He declared that only the most outstanding individual of the Kong Heavenly Clan would be capable of obtaining all of his inheritance, and that only the person who had obtained all his inheritance would be a descendant that he acknowledged.

Merely because of that one sentence, countless talented individuals of the Kong Heavenly Clan had set foot into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range over the past few generations.

However, the results were tragic. For the sake of obtaining all of the Kong Primogenitor's inheritance, for the sake of becoming a descendant that he acknowledged, many of the Kong Heavenly Clan's talents that could become individuals that would move about unhindered in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm and become the pride of their Kong Heavenly Clan ended up losing their lives in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

Later on, for the sake of preventing this sort of tragedy from happening nonstop, that generation's Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief entered a discussion with the Utmost Exalted Elders. In the end, they decided to seal off the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, turning it into a forbidden area.

Unless there was someone from the Kong Heavenly Clan that was capable of reaching the True Immortal realm of cultivation whilst also being a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist... no one was allowed to enter the Grief Calamity Mountain Range again.

The reason for that was because the Grief Calamity Mountain Range was simply akin to being a graveyard of geniuses.

“Three Utmost Exalted Elders, please forgive this junior for speaking forthrightly. The treasures contained in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range are things that only the people of our Kong Heavenly Clan know about. Outsiders should have no clue about the treasures.”

“Yet now, an outsider has actually managed to trespass into it. I ask... could it be considered that a traitor has appeared in our Kong Heavenly Clan?” A peak Martial Ancestor-level expert asked sternly.

“Naturally, this matter would be spread by someone of our clan. However, it is still not the time to investigate this matter. Rather, we should be more concerned about that reckless intruder,” Kong Moyu said.

“The Grief Calamity Mountain Range is extremely dangerous. I believe this is something that everyone here knows about. If one does not enter deeply, they might still be fine. However, should one enter deeply, one will most likely end up dying.”

“Over the various generations, so many of our Kong Heavenly Clan’s talented seniors have attempted to penetrate the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. Yet, only a few of them managed to return alive. I reckon that the intruder will practically have no chance of survival.”

“Thus, everyone need not be too worried about it. Perhaps we simply do not have to do anything, and that intruder will die in there. We must believe in the power of Lord Primogenitor,” Kong Yuehua said.

“That’s true. That is the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, after all. Even the geniuses of our Kong Heavenly Clan do not dare to penetrate deeply into that place, how could an outsider possibly be able to?”

The people from the Kong Heavenly Clan all nodded in agreement at Kong Yuehua’s words.

Most importantly, they all possessed an air of arrogance in their hearts. They felt that no one would be able to accomplish what was impossible for the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“But, according to what the spirit formation is showing, that intruder has been in there for a very long time now. Furthermore, that intruder is still alive. I fear that the intruder’s origin is no small matter,” Someone said worriedly.

The reason for that was because whenever someone from the Kong Heavenly Clan attempted to challenge the Grief Calamity Mountain Range in the past, the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan would all use this spirit formation to determine the situation inside the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

After entering the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, those that were able to survive for longer were generally always the ones that were more powerful.

Thus, the Kong Heavenly Clan had recorded all the times that the people that entered the Grief Calamity Mountain Range managed to survive. In fact, their times were taught like textbooks to all the people in the Kong Heavenly Clan.

If one was to determine the strength of an individual according to that time, then the intruder in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range now would be extremely powerful.

“If we are to determine it according to the time, then yes, that intruder is no small matter,” The others from the Kong Heavenly Clan all began to worry.

“Everyone, you all shouldn’t forget about what sort of place the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is. Not only does this place possess a lot of renowned old monsters, there are also many non-famous monsters that have been in closed-door training for a very long time. It would be fine if they did not come out. However, when they do, they will be able to bring forth a rain of blood and gore.”

“Not mentioning the people born of our Hundred Refinements

Ordinary Realm, a lot of people from other Ordinary Realms have gathered here over the years, and even the amount of experts from the Lower Realms in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is innumerable.”

“As the saying goes, there are skies beyond the sky, and people beyond the person. The world of martial cultivators has never lacked true experts. Thus, we cannot look down on anyone.”

“As for this intruder, he was able to intrude into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range without being detected at all. This serves to prove how powerful that intruder is.”

“If it wasn’t for the fact that Lord Primogenitor had left this spirit formation, we would likely not even have been able to discover that there has been an intruder in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range even after that intruder left.”

“Thus, we absolutely cannot treat today’s matter lightly; we absolutely cannot lower our guard.”

“On the contrary, we must treat it very seriously, and make surefire preparations. The reason for that is because this might not only be someone intruding into our forbidden area, it might even be a calamity to our Kong Heavenly Clan,” Kong Shunlian said in a very serious manner.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, is it really that serious?” Hearing what Kong Shunlian said, many of the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan started to sweat cold bullets.

After all, if it was as Kong Shunlian had said, that intruder would not be an unknown nobody, but rather a frightening existence capable of bringing about a rain of blood and gore.

“Shunlian, in that case, what do you think we should do right now?” Kong Moyu raised his eyebrows and asked indifferently.

“Since Elder Yuehua is guarding this place, the two of us should guard the entrance to the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.”

“If that intruder is able to get out alive, a battle will be unavoidable,” Kong Shunlian said.

“You want the two of us to go together? Is there really a need for all this?” Kong Muyu smiled somewhat disdainfully. Evidently, compared to the seriousness Kong Shunlian possessed, Kong Moyu was filled with contempt toward the unknown intruder.

“Better safe than sorry,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Oh Shunlian, I must say that you are still the same after all these years, so afraid of everything.”

“Indeed, I admit that what you said is correct. There are skies beyond the sky, and people beyond the person. In this world, there are indeed hidden dragons and crouching tigers, and many powers that are much more powerful than our Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“However, what sort of place is this? This is the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, who could possibly contend against our Kong Heavenly Clan?” Kong Moyu said.

“What I am suggesting is just in case. Perhaps that intruder might not even be able to exit the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. Or perhaps that intruder possesses a cultivation below that of True Immortal. However, if that intruder is able to exit the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, and is someone with the cultivation of a True Immortal, what do we do then?” Kong Shunlian asked.

“Even if that intruder is a True Immortal-level expert, he will not be able to leave our Kong Heavenly Clan,” Kong Moyu said.

The two Utmost Exalted Elders argued nonstop. As for Kong Yuehua, she seemed to have already grown accustomed to such a scene. Thus, she did not bother to cut into the argument, nor did she tried to stop them. Instead, she turned her gaze onto that spirit formation, and began to carefully observe it.

“This is bad!”

Suddenly, Kong Yuehua revealed an extremely startled expression on her previously calm face.

Chapter 2405 – Extremely Alarmed

---

“Elder Yuehua, what’s wrong?” Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu asked in unison.

“An abnormality has once again arisen from the Grief Calamity Mountain Range’s spirit formation! That intruder has managed to open something in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range!!!” Kong Yuehua said.

“What?!” Hearing those words, the people present all revealed an enormous change in expression.

“Elder Yuehua, are you certain that something has been opened, that it is not that intruder triggering a slaughtering formation?” Kong Moyu asked.

“I am certain that it is not a slaughtering formation. However, it is indeed a spirit formation. Merely... that spirit formation has been broken through by the intruder,” Kong Yuehua said.

“Boom~~~”

A sudden clap of thunder.

The crowd from the Kong Heavenly Clan present felt as if they were struck by an invisible lightning strike. They felt as if their bodies had been split open, and their souls struck.

The Grief Calamity Mountain Range was the place where their Kong Heavenly Clan’s primogenitor had hidden his inheritance. That inheritance could be said to be the most precious item for their Kong Heavenly Clan.

If they were able to obtain the inheritance, it would mean that their Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance would be completely intact. At that time, it might even be possible for their Kong Heavenly Clan to surpass the other three tier one powers and become the strongest power in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Over all these years, countless seniors of their Kong Heavenly Clan had entered the Grief Calamity Mountain Range for the sake of the inheritance. However, all of them ended up in failure, and the great majority even lost their lives in there.

Yet now, an outsider had not only intruded into their Grief Calamity Mountain Range, but also actually managed to open up a spirit formation too.

What sort of spirit formation was that? What if it was the spirit formation to the inheritance?

If that was the case, wouldn't it mean that the last inheritance of their Kong Heavenly Clan would be snatched away by an outsider?

Intolerable. To the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan, this was absolutely intolerable.

“Damned bastard!!!”

Panic. Upon thinking of how their Kong Heavenly Clan's inheritance might be snatched away by an outsider, each and every person from the Kong Heavenly Clan was filled with endless anger. However, they were at a loss as to what to do.

That was their Kong Heavenly Clan's possession! That was the inheritance left for them by their Kong Heavenly Clan's primogenitor! How could they allow an outsider to snatch it away from them?

“Do you all believe what I said now?” Kong Shunlian swept his gaze across the crowd. Then, he began to walk out. He was planning to guard the entrance of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. He planned to wait for the intruder to exit and confront him at that time.

“That intruder's crimes cannot be forgiven!” As Kong Moyu spoke, he also began to walk out. As matters stood, he now planned to join hands with Kong Shunlian even without Kong Shunlian saying anything.

The reason for that was because he had no choice but to take the intruder seriously now.

“What!!!” Right at that moment, Kong Yuehua’s gaze suddenly changed, and incomparable shock appeared in her eyes.

“How could this be, h-how is this possible?!” Kong Yuehua’s eyes were fixed tightly onto the spirit formation, with an expression of disbelief on her face.

Seeing Kong Yuehua’s expression, even Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu hurriedly stopped their footsteps and returned to ask, “Elder Yuehua, what’s wrong?”

The three of them had known one another since their youth. Thus, they knew what sort of character Kong Yuehua was. All these years, they rarely ever saw Kong Yuehua reveal such an astonished expression.

Yet, during this moment of crisis, Kong Yuehua actually revealed such an expression.

As such, the two of them realized one thing from merely Kong Yuehua’s expression.

That is, the abnormal movement of the spirit formation was absolutely no small matter right now. Perhaps something even more serious was happening.

“According to the illustration of the spirit formation, the person who has managed to open that spirit formation in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range right now is a member of the younger generation who is not even a hundred years old,” Kong Yuehua said.

“Member of the younger generation?!”

“You’re saying that a member of the younger generation has managed to intrude into our Grief Calamity Mountain Range, and even managed to open a certain spirit formation on top of that?” Hearing those words, even Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu revealed astonished expressions.

“Elder Yuehua, are you sure you saw it correctly?” Kong Moyu asked. He felt this matter to be impossible.

“Although this spirit formation has rarely ever showed an abnormal change in all these years, I have studied how to observe this spirit formation since I was a child. As such, I can tell what is happening in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range from the abnormal changes to this spirit formation with certainty.”

“Thus, there is no mistake. The spirit formation’s abnormal changes will not be mistaken, nor will my readings of it be mistaken.”

“The intruder is definitely a member of the younger generation.”

“The only thing I do not understand is why he only revealed that he is a member of the younger generation now,” Kong Yuehua said with an astonished expression. She, who had always been calm, was unable to contain herself when she spoke those words to the point that even her tone had changed.

“I think what cannot be understood the most right now is not who that person of the younger generation might be, but rather how he managed to obtain such an otherworldly ability to intrude upon the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. This is not something that a person of the younger generation from our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm can accomplish,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Likely, the intruder is a genius from the Upper Realms,” Kong Shunlian said.

“This...” Merely that one sentence caused the crowd to turn pale. In fact, some people even started to involuntarily tremble.

What sort of existence would an Upper Realm’s genius be? Not to mention his strength, merely his background should be extremely frightening.

Regardless of how powerful their Kong Heavenly Clan might be in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, they could not contend against the powers from the Upper Realms.

If they must be compared, then the disparity between them would be akin to that of heaven from earth.

An existence from the Upper Realms was something that they could not afford to offend.

.....

At the same time. Chu Feng was still in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. Furthermore, by undoing that spirit formation, Chu Feng had successfully opened the entrance.

After that entrance was opened, a spirit formation vortex appeared. A gate was slowly opening inside the spirit formation vortex.

This gate was eight meters wide and ten meters tall. It was very simple and unadorned. Yet, at the same time, it was very extraordinary. Although it appeared to be made of stone, it was still extremely imposing and domineering.

“I’ve finally succeeded.”

Chu Feng felt very happy as he saw the gate before him. However, it was very difficult for him to smile. The reason for that was because he was still worried.

“Merely... my concealment formation has disappeared. I wonder... has my identity already been exposed?” Chu Feng wondered worriedly.

“Since it has already come down to this, there is no way to back out anymore. Thus, don’t worry about it, and enter that place first,” Her Lady Queen said excitedly.

“Of course,” As Chu Feng spoke, he pushed the gate open.

Although the gate was floating in midair, after Chu Feng pushed it open, what appeared before him was a world spirit entrance.

Without the slightest hesitation, Chu Feng entered the world spirit entrance. After entering it, Chu Feng’s body disappeared into the spirit formation.

As for that gate, it slowly shut itself. Then, it slowly descended back into the spirit formation vortex.

Soon, the region returned to the way it was before, calm and serene.

It was as if Chu Feng had never been there, as if the spirit formation had never been opened, as if nothing had happened here.

At the same time. In the Kong Heavenly Clan’s ancient pagoda, the crowd were still in a state of astonishment.

“Gone,” Kong Yuehua suddenly declared.

“What’s gone?” Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu asked in unison.

“The intruder is gone. Completely gone. All abnormality has disappeared,” Kong Yuehua said as she looked at the spirit formation before her.

“Could it be that the intruder was killed?” Kong Moyu asked.

“It’s possible that the intruder was killed. However, it’s also possible that the intruder escaped. Furthermore, there’s another possibility. That is... the intruder has managed to enter the place of Lord Primogenitor’s inheritance that was left for us,” Kong Yuehua said.

“Damn it!” At that moment, Kong Moyu shouted angrily. Then, he let out an extremely frightening aura. While emitting that frightening aura, he flew out and instantly disappeared. Only his frightening aura continued to linger in that place.

He had gone to the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. He was afraid that the intruder would escape the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. Thus, he was going to the entrance of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range to stop the intruder from escaping.

Chapter 2406 – Kong Primogenitor

---

“Elder Yuehua, this place will be in your hands then. Make sure to dispatch people to inform us if something unusual happens,” Kong Shunlian said to Kong Yuehua. He was planning to go and provide assistance to Kong Moyu in guarding the Grief Calamity Mountain Range’s entrance.

“With me here, you can rest assured. After all, I have studied how to observe this spirit formation since I was a child. If something abnormal is to happen, I should be able to detect it.”

“However...” As Kong Yuehua spoke, the gaze with which she looked to Kong Shunlian started to change somewhat. She said, “Compared to this place, that Grief Calamity Mountain Range’s entrance is the most dangerous place. Thus, you must be extra careful.”

“This matter concerns our clan’s inheritance. Even if I am to stake my old life on the line, I will still not allow that intruder to walk out from our Kong Heavenly Clan,” After Kong Shunlian finished saying those words, his body shifted, and he disappeared.

“Elder Yuehua, what should we do now?” The others present turned to ask Kong Yuehua.

As matters stood, they all realized how serious the situation at hand was. Even though they were all individuals holding high status, power and authority, they were still unable to conceal the panic in their hearts.

“If it’s a fortune, then it wouldn’t be a calamity. If it is a calamity, then it will be unavoidable.”

“This matter is currently undetermined. As such, do not make this matter public, so as to prevent needless panic.”

“However, all the forces of our Kong Heavenly Clan are not allowed to leave for the time being. Make preparations to confront an enemy.”

“Furthermore, send out word to Lord Clan Chief, and have him return as quickly as he is able,” Kong Yuehua said.

“Yes,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s elders accepted the orders.

At that moment, Chu Feng had already entered another space.

This space existed as a vast palace. The palace was very large, but also abnormally dark.

Chu Feng was walking in a vast corridor. Other than the forever-burning torches inlaid into the walls, there was not a single trace of light.

Even when using his Heaven’s Eyes and other techniques to observe his surroundings, Chu Feng was able to only see for a very limited distance.

As Chu Feng recalled the frightening slaughtering formations outside, he did not dare to be careless in the slightest while in that vast palace.

Chu Feng had practically brought forth two hundred percent of his focus. With every step forward, he would always cautiously observe his surroundings, fearing that he might have triggered some sort of frightening slaughtering formation.

The reason for that was because there was no longer any route in the map in his mind after he reached this place. He could really only rely on himself for the following journey.

Fortunately, Chu Feng did not encounter any traps or mechanisms on the way.

“There’s actually no traps or mechanisms. It would appear... that the slaughtering formations outside are the actual test. As long as one manages to enter this place, they will most likely no longer encounter any more traps and mechanisms,” Chu Feng comforted himself. Although he said it like that, Chu Feng did not let his guard down because of it.

“It might also be that this has been done deliberately so that you will loosen your guard. While there are no slaughtering formations so far, there might be some later on. It’s best to be careful. You’re already here, you absolutely cannot fall head over heels at the final pass,” Her Lady Queen said.

“I will do as Milady Queen instructs. I hope... that this person who set up all these spirit formations here is not that treacherous,” Chu Feng smiled wryly.

With the powerful slaughtering formations Chu Feng had seen earlier, and the fact that even his Heaven’s Eyes were restricted, Chu Feng was able to determine that the person who had set up the spirit formations here was extremely powerful. At the very least, that person would be a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist who possessed profoundly exquisite world spirit techniques.

Else, it would be impossible for Chu Feng to feel this powerless.

In such a cautious state, the speed at which Chu Feng proceeded forward was very slow.

In this situation, Chu Feng felt that he was feeling very impatient. However, he still did not dare to be careless, and could only continue to move onward like that.

After an entire day and night passed, light finally appeared before Chu Feng.

As he was approaching that light, Chu Feng discovered that it was a very vast palace hall. Martial Skills were spread all over the palace hall. There were not only Mortal Taboo Martial Skills, Earthen Taboo Martial Skills and Heaven Taboo Martial Skills, there were also Emperor Taboo Martial Skills and even Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills.

Apart from these, there were also a large amount of cultivation resources here. Most importantly, the walls of the palace hall were filled with complicated veined patterns. Those were... the profoundness of the way of martial cultivation.

In the center of that vast hall stood a golden-bright and dazzling sword.

That sword was two feet wide and three meters long. It was taller than an average person.

A golden dragon was carved onto the sword. The sword's appearance was very similar to Nangong Longjian's giant sword.

However, all aspects of this sword surpassed Nangong Longjian's giant sword by many times. Not only was that sword extremely sharp, it also emitted an extraordinarily domineering aura. As it stood there, it looked like a ruler looking down upon the world, emitting an unparalleled aura.

It was an Ancestral Armament, an actual Ancestral Armament. Furthermore, it was very high quality, not inferior to Chu Feng's Stormwind Edge.

From that, it could be seen that it was an extremely high quality Ancestral Armament.

"Treasure deposit! This is most definitely a treasure deposit! Chu Feng, this trip has been well worthwhile, this danger was not braved in vain. Hahaha..."

Her Lady Queen started to hop around in excitement. She was laughing very brilliantly.

The reason for that was because that place not only contained martial skills, there was also an Ancestral Armament and cultivation resources. In fact, it even contained profoundness pertaining to the way of martial cultivation. It could truly be said that this place possessed everything. They had managed to obtain an abundant harvest this time around.

"Buzz~~~"

Right at that moment, a ray of light suddenly appeared beside that Ancestral Armament.

That ray of light began to transform. Soon, it took the shape of an old man that stood beside the Ancestral Armament.

This was a white-haired old man, with a face filled with wrinkles. He was not tall, and his appearance was very ordinary. However, he emitted an overwhelmingly extraordinary heroic aura. From a glance, one could tell that that old man was no ordinary individual.

“This outfit of his...”

Upon seeing that old man, Chu Feng’s heart tightened.

The reason for that was because the old man’s outfit, as well as the title plate on his waist both illustrated his identity — he was someone from the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Fortunately, the old man was merely an image, and did not contain actual power. Chu Feng felt that he was no ordinary soul remnant, nor did he appear to be an awareness. Rather, he should have been formed with a spirit formation. Thus, Chu Feng was not excessively worried.

Merely, why would an image of someone from the Kong Heavenly Clan appear here? Could it be that this treasure deposit belonged to the Kong Heavenly Clan?

Or could it be that the treasures here possessed some sort of connection with the Kong Heavenly Clan?

Chu Feng began to ponder nonstop in his heart. As for his gaze, it was fixed onto the old man the entire time.

Chu Feng felt that the old man would be able to provide him with an answer.

Suddenly, that old man clasped his fist at Chu Feng and said, “This old man is Kong Yingyi. I have waited for your arrival for a very long time.”

As Chu Feng anticipated, the old man spoke. He had also revealed his identity. Sure enough, he was someone from the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Merely, this old man’s physical body has already been dead for a very long time. As for this image of mine here, it is merely created by a spirit formation. I simply do not possess any awareness. Thus, I am unable to determine whether or not you are a descendant of my Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“If you are a descendant of my Kong Heavenly Clan, this old man will definitely feel extremely gratified. However, if you are not a person of my Kong Heavenly Clan, haha...”

Suddenly, the old man started laughing. It was a very complicated smile. More or less, there was regret in his smile. However, he soon eased his state of mind and added, “This old man has traveled through the world all his life, and acquired countless treasures. However, the majority of the treasures this old man acquired were all thanks to the various seniors of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Thus, what I have obtained does not belong to the Kong Heavenly Clan. Even if you are not a descendant of my Kong Heavenly Clan, you will still be able to take away everything here.”

After the old man said those words, he suddenly pointed to the Ancestral Armament beside him. He said, “This sword is called the Flame Dragon Greatsword. It is from the Ancient Era, and is one of the several most famous Ancestral Armaments in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. This old man relied on this sword to move about unhindered in the world, cut down countless powerful enemies and push the Kong Heavenly Clan to the status of a tier one power during the latter half of my life.”

“Woah! He’s the one that pushed the Kong Heavenly Clan to the status of a tier one power? It would appear that this old man was quite amazing,” Hearing what the old man said, Her Lady Queen grew interested, As for Chu Feng, he too came to realize how amazing that old man was.

Evidently... he was not merely a senior of the Kong Heavenly Clan. Rather, he was a founder-level existence.

Chapter 2407 – Kill Chu Feng

“There are very deep feelings between myself and this Flame Dragon Greatsword. If you are able to have it recognize you as its master, I hope that you will treat it well. After all, it is something with life,” As the old man spoke, he gently stroked the Ancestral Armament.

He said, “Old friend, we will soon be separated completely. Yet, I am still reluctant to part with you. Merely, as I am no longer in this world, I really shouldn’t have you accompany me the entire time, burying your sharpness with me. Go ahead and accompany him. For him to be able to reach this place, it most definitely means that he is qualified to match you.”

It could be seen that the old man possessed very deep feelings for this Ancestral Armament.

Then, the old man turned around and pointed to the most alluring martial skill among all the numerous martial skills behind him, that one Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill.

“This Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill is the strongest martial skill in this place. Its name is Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement.”

“The Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement is the most difficult martial skill among all the martial skills this old man has obtained throughout his life. It is also the strongest of all my martial skills.”

“When this old man was only a Martial Ancestor, I was simply unable to unleash the might of this martial skill. It was only when my cultivation reached the True Immortal level that I was capable of unleashing this martial skill’s true power.”

“If I am to leave the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement to my Kong Heavenly Clan’s descendants, they might not necessarily be able to master it. However, since you were able to reach this place, you should be extraordinarily talented. I hope that you do not let this Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement down.”

After that, the old man began to introduce all of the treasures stored in that place one at a time.

However, what Chu Feng was concerned with the most was the way of martial cultivation that the old man had left behind.

Although the old man should’ve been a grand character in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm before his death, it remained that he was only someone who was able to move about unhindered in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Thus, Chu Feng was afraid that the profoundness of the way of martial cultivation he had left behind might not be able to provide Chu Feng with much benefits.

In fact, he feared that it would take him a lot of effort to comprehend it too. Thus, Chu Feng hoped that he would be able to obtain indications from this old man so that he could obtain comprehension easier.

“That would be the writings all over the walls. Those writings are no ordinary writings. Rather, I have used a special method to engrave my comprehension of the way of martial cultivation into those writings.”

“The way of martial cultivation can only be understood, but not described. Thus, it will be overwhelmingly difficult for one to inherit the contents of those writings.”

“However, since this old man has left it in this land of inheritance, I must naturally make it so that the person who arrives here will actually obtain the inheritance.”

“Those writings took this old man a total of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine years to engrave onto the walls. As long as you wholeheartedly comprehend them, I believe they will be helpful to you,” The old man pointed to the veined patterns that filled the walls.

“One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine years?”

“Doesn’t that mean nearly two thousand years?”

At that moment, Chu Feng felt great astonishment in his heart. He suddenly felt very ashamed of his opinion of the old man earlier.

Earlier, he felt that since the old man’s cultivation was limited to being at the apex of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, the profoundness toward the way of martial cultivation he left behind would definitely be limited too.

However, that old man had actually spent nearly two thousand years leaving behind the way of martial cultivation engraved on the walls. This caused Chu Feng to feel deep veneration for the old man.

A person’s lifespan would always come to an end eventually. Even though True Immortal-level experts would easily live for over ten thousand years, how many two thousand years could they possibly have in their life?

Heart’s-blood. These things left behind through nearly two thousand years of meticulous effort were most definitely this senior’s heart’s-blood.

“Finally, this old man has one last thing to say,” After the old man finished explaining the final contents, his gaze suddenly turned serious. He said, “If you are a descendant of my Kong Heavenly Clan, I hope that you will bring honor to your ancestors and lead our Kong Heavenly Clan to a new heights.”

“However, if you are not a person of my Kong Heavenly Clan, I reckon that my Kong Heavenly Clan must’ve already entered desolation for you to obtain all these. If you possess animosity toward my Kong Heavenly Clan, I hope that you will spare them, and not ruthlessly kill them all. Please leave my Kong Heavenly Clan with some lives left so that they can continue to exist.”

“This old man shall express his respect and thanks to you here,” After the old man said those words, he actually kneeled onto the ground and bowed respectfully to Chu Feng.

“Senior, you absolutely must not,” Seeing this scene, even though Chu Feng knew that this old man was merely an image created by a spirit formation, Chu Feng’s heart was still moved. He hurriedly rushed forth to support the old man.

However, before Chu Feng could reach the old man, he turned into a ray of light that dove deep into the ground. He had disappeared.

“This old man has truly suffered. Even though he has been dead for so long, he is still worrying for the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“However, he had no idea that it is not you that will make things difficult for the Kong Heavenly Clan but rather the Kong Heavenly Clan that will make things difficult for you,” Her Lady Queen said with a sigh.

“I hope that the Kong Heavenly Clan will not make things difficult for me,” Chu Feng said with a wry smile.

“What if they insist on making things difficult for you?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“That senior already said it himself. The things here cannot be considered to be the Kong Heavenly Clan’s possessions. I can take them away as much as I wish. There is no justification for them to attack me. If they insist on attacking me, I can only fight to the death,” Chu Feng said.

Chu Feng was not boasting. After all, he possessed the Evil God Sword. Chu Feng still had no idea how powerful that Demon Armament was. However, he was certain of one thing — that Demon Armament possessed a power that absolutely could not be looked down upon.

“If possible, I really do not wish for you to have to use the Evil God Sword,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Neither do I. We can only hope that they will not force me to that,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

Then, he gathered up all of the treasures in that place. The only things left were the cultivation resources.

Chu Feng did not have the time to master the martial skills, nor was he capable of subduing that Ancestral Armament. However, he was still able to refine the cultivation resources.

There were a lot of cultivation resources. However, for a martial cultivator that would never be picky about their food and would never be full no matter how much they ate, the cultivation resources here would naturally not suffice.

In merely a short moment, Chu Feng completely refined all of the cultivation resources left behind by the old man.

Then, Chu Feng closed his eyes and began to comprehend the writings engraved on the walls. Contained within those writings was profoundness toward the way of martial cultivation.

Whether or not Chu Feng would be able to reach a breakthrough in cultivation in a short period of time and the amount of breakthroughs he might be able to achieve would all be dependent on him.

.....

At the moment when Chu Feng was wholeheartedly focused on comprehending the profoundness of martial cultivation contained in the treasure deposit, the Kong Heavenly Clan was in utter chaos.

They had mobilized all their forces for battle. Even though the great majority of them had no idea what had happened, that didn't stop the crowd from making wild guesses.

Furthermore, there were no walls in the world that wind couldn't pass through. As such, Kong Ruozeng and his father also came to know about that matter.

"Lord Father," Kong Ruozeng arrived before his father's door.

"Ruozeng, why did you come? You've just suffered the medicinal punishment, shouldn't you be properly resting?" Kong Yao looked at his own son whilst grief filled his heart.

He had also been present when his son was punished with medicinal punishment. He himself had also personally suffered the pains associated with the medicinal punishment. Thus, he knew that the pain truly made him feel like he would rather die. It was an unforgettable pain that he would never want to experience again in his lifetime.

However, to him, what was the most painful was hearing the painful screams of his son, Kong Ruozeng.

As a father, he felt himself to be very powerless. He felt extremely pained. He wished that he was able to endure all of the pains that Kong Ruozeng had suffered.

"Lord Father, although the medicinal punishment is a painful torture, it only lasted for a period of time. I am already fine now."

"I have come here today to discuss one thing with Lord Father," Kong Ruozeng said.

"What is it?" Kong Ruozeng's father asked.

"I have a plan that could kill Chu Feng," Kong Ruozeng said.

Chapter 2408 – Framing

“Ruozeng, come in, we’ll talk inside,” Hearing what Kong Ruozeng said, his father hurriedly called for him to enter the room.

Then, he took out a pearl. That pearl was the size of a palm. Golden-bright and dazzling light was flowing in the pearl. That was Immortal level spirit power.

Kong Ruozeng’s father instilled his own aura into the pearl. Then, he raised his arm, and that pearl turned into golden gases that scattered about in all directions before attaching themselves to the walls of the room.

It turned out that the pearl was a world spirit treasure that even non-world spiritists could use. As for its usage, it was precisely to isolate sound.

“Ruozeng, you said that you have a plan to kill Chu Feng?”

“What sort of plan might that be?” Kong Ruozeng’s father asked him.

“Lord Father, I am unable to endure the grievances. I absolutely cannot allow that Chu Feng to leave our Kong Heavenly Clan alive. Else, I fear that he will cause no end of trouble,” Kong Ruozeng said.

“Then what do you have in mind? Go ahead and tell me,” Kong Ruozeng’s father said.

“I heard that someone has managed to intrude into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. Furthermore, I have heard that it is a member of the younger generation.”

“We can insist that Chu Feng is that intruder,” Kong Ruozeng said.

“Insist that Chu Feng is the intruder?” Kong Ruozeng’s father’s expression changed.

“That’s right. Chu Feng is a member of the younger generation, and an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist on top of that. Furthermore, he is not a person of our Kong Heavenly Clan. Thus, he greatly fits the identity of that foreign intruder,” Kong Ruozeng said.

“According to the people that we know, that Chu Feng really does fit the identity of the intruder a lot. However, what sort of place is the Grief Calamity Mountain Range? The people in our Kong Heavenly Clan know what sort of place it is very well.”

“Over the past generations, countless of our powerful seniors have attempted to enter that place. However, the great majority of them ended up dying in there. With Chu Feng’s strength, it should clearly be impossible for him to accomplish something like that. Thus, the people of our clan all suspect the intruder to be a genius from an Upper Realm,” Kong Ruozeng’s father said.

“Naturally, Chu Feng would not actually be the intruder. However, it will all be fine as long as he fits the status of the intruder,” Kong Ruozeng said.

“You mean... to frame him?” Kong Ruozeng’s father asked.

“That’s right. Lord Father, I want to frame him. Even if the intruder is someone else, we can still say that Chu Feng is his accomplice.”

“As for the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, it is no small matter. It concerns our Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance. To our Kong Heavenly Clan, there is nothing more serious than this matter.”

“Thus... I believe that Lord Clan Chief and the various Utmost Exalted Elders will rather wrongly kill someone than let the intruder escape,” Kong Ruozeng said.

“Ruozeng, for you to be able to think of this, I believe there are many others in the clan that have thought of this too. However, no one has voiced their opinions. Do you know why?" Kong Ruozeng's father asked.

"I know. I know the reason why. But, I am truly unable to understand exactly what is so extraordinary about that Chu Feng. Isn't it just because he was lucky enough to obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance? Are you to tell me that he is truly that amazing for even that old bastard Kong Shunlian to shield him like that?" When mentioning this matter, Kong Ruozeng revealed an expression filled with grievances.

"What you have said is only part of the reason. There's also a very important point. That is, Chu Feng has declared that he will be in closed-door training. During the time when he is in closed-door training, there have been people guarding his residence the entire time. Among them are peak Martial Ancestor-level experts. Logically, it should be impossible for Chu Feng to have left. Even if he left, someone would've noticed it."

"Thus, our words will have no proof behind them. I fear that it will be very difficult to make Lord Clan Chief and the various Utmost Exalted Elders believe us," Kong Ruozeng's father said.

"That's simple. I merely need to say that I saw Chu Feng outside during the time when he was in closed-door training. This will raise suspicions," Kong Ruozeng said.

"Ruozeng, you absolutely must not. Doing something like that will be too dangerous," Kong Ruozeng's father said.

"Lord Father, do you still not understand our current position? We have already offended that old codger Kong Shunlian because of that Chu Feng. All of our clansmen know about this matter."

"What is an Utmost Exalted Elder? All the people who have ever ended up offending an Utmost Exalted Elder will be given the cold shoulder by our fellow clansmen. I fear that it will be very difficult for the two of us to rise in power again."

“However, right now, one such opportunity has presented itself before us. As long as we can successfully frame that Chu Feng, we would have provided outstanding service to our Kong Heavenly Clan. In the future, even if Kong Shunlian is dissatisfied with us, no one will dare to despise us,” Kong Ruozeng said.

“Ssss~~~” At that moment, Kong Ruozeng’s father took in a long breath of air. Then, he closed his eyes. Only after a long time passed did he open his eyes again. Merely, this time around, there was no longer any hesitation in his eyes. Rather, they were filled with determination. It was a determination to face death with equanimity.

“This matter is very dangerous. We either succeed or we die trying. However, Ruozeng, as this matter concerns your future, we can take this risk.”

“Merely, you cannot be the one to report this matter, nor can I be the one to report this matter. The reason for that is because there is already conflict between we father and son and that Chu Feng. That is something that everyone knows about. If either one of us is to declare Chu Feng to be the intruder, we will definitely be struck down by others,” Kong Ruozeng’s father said.

“Then who is to report this matter then?” Kong Ruozeng asked.

“Have your mother do it. Our clansmen will definitely believe what your mother says,” Kong Ruozeng’s father said.

“My mother? We’re going to involve even her?” Kong Ruozeng was stunned. His mother was different from him and his father. His mother was someone who possessed a very grand status in the Kong Heavenly Clan. In addition to being very talented, the reason why Kong Ruozeng was pampered by the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan was actually not because of his father. Rather, it was because he was borne of his mother.

Furthermore, his mother possessed numerous connections. She was someone who never had disputes with others. Thus, his mother possessed great prestige in the clan, and was someone that people trusted.

“This matter concerns your future. I believe that your mother will be willing to help,” Kong Ruozeng’s father patted Kong Ruozeng’s shoulder.

Originally, Kong Ruozeng was concerned. He did not wish to have his mother take this mess upon herself. However, upon thinking about his own future, a determined expression flashed through his eyes. He said, “We can only trouble mother then.”

Then, Kong Ruozeng mentioned this matter to his mother. Originally, his mother was completely against it. Even though his mother did not know about that Chu Feng, and knew that it was because of Chu Feng that her son and husband ended up suffering medicinal punishments, his mother did not want to frame Chu Feng.

However, after Kong Ruozeng implored her nonstop, and even threatened her with his own death, his mother finally agreed to help.

As the saying goes, one’s parents will always worry about oneself. Motherly love... was always the greatest.

Then, Kong Ruozeng and his parents entered the ancient pagoda and found the Utmost Exalted Elder Kong Yuehua.

With Kong Ruozeng’s mother being the one voicing the claims, she declared that Kong Ruozeng had seen Chu Feng in the vicinity of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

Once the claim was spoken, it immediately brought forth a huge ruckus.

“Sure enough, it’s that Chu Feng. Our Kong Heavenly Clan treated him as a honored guest, and received him with kind intentions. Yet, he actually wants to seize our Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance? This is truly unforgivable!” Many of the elders present were endlessly furious.

“Indeed, that Chu Feng is very suspicious. However, does he really possess the capabilities to intrude into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, and undo a spirit formation on top of that?” However, there were also people voicing their suspicions to Kong Ruozeng’s mother’s claims.

“It’s better to kill him wrongly than to let the intruder escape. After all, this matter concerns our Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance,” Someone said.

“While that is the case, this Chu Feng is no ordinary individual. Right now, he is extremely famous in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, and many people know that he is staying in our Kong Heavenly Clan as a guest. If we do not possess concrete evidence, we cannot do anything to him,” Another elder voiced their worry.

“Who cares? Wouldn’t it be fine if we are to find a reason to ask that Chu Feng out? If he is truly still in closed-door training, we can forget about this. However, if he’s not in closed-door training, he must be the intruder of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range,” Someone said.

“No, that is too reckless. There are still a lot of people staying as guests in our Kong Heavenly Clan,” Someone felt that to be inappropriate.

“This won’t do, that won’t do. What do you suggest then?” The two sides started to argue.

“Lady Utmost Exalted Elder, what do you think we should do about this?” At that moment, all of the elders turned their gazes to Kong Yuehua.

A matter such as this was of the utmost importance. When their Clan Chief was not present, the only ones capable of making such a decision were the Utmost Exalted Elders.

Chapter 2409 – Inheritance Seized

---

“We naturally cannot disrespect our honored guests. Without concrete evidence, it is indeed inappropriate for us to cause a major disturbance. However, I believe that Qiuci should not be lying,” Kong Yuehua said as she looked to Kong Ruozeng’s mother.

“Seniors, this matter is of the utmost importance. This Qiuci would not dare to lie to everyone,” Kong Ruozeng’s mother said.

“That’s right. We have watched over Qiuci since she was a child, we all know Qiuci’s character very well. She would never frame someone,” The elders all felt very confident in the character of Kong Ruozeng’s mother.

“Thus, that Chu Feng is definitely suspicious. However, since it is difficult for us, people of the older generation, to step in, we should have people of the younger generation do the deed.”

“The people of the younger generation are unthoughtful. Even if they’re to truly cause some sort of trouble, I believe that outsiders will not say anything,” As Kong Yuehua spoke, she looked to Kong Ruozeng.

“Lady Utmost Exalted Elder, your intention is... to have Ruozeng go and provoke Chu Feng so as to force him out?” Kong Ruozeng’s father understood Kong Yuehua’s intention.

“Go on ahead. If you are to encounter any problems, I will back you all up,” Kong Yuehua said.

“This junior Kong Ruozeng will definitely not fail to live up to Lady Utmost Exalted Elder’s expectations,” At that moment, Kong Ruozeng revealed an extremely delighted expression.

When he had gone to cause troubles for Chu Feng earlier, even though he had possessed backing, he had still felt somewhat diffident in his heart.

However, it was different this time around. With the Utmost

Exalted Elder Kong Yuehua as his backing, Kong Ruozeng could do whatever he wanted to do; he would no longer have to be afraid anymore.

After the decision was made Kong Yuehua personally gave the order to send away the Kong Heavenly Clan's experts tasked with guarding Chu Feng and Wang Qiang's palace, their residence in the Kong Heavenly Clan.

After all, even if they intended to have Kong Ruozeng, a member of the younger generation, cause troubles for Chu Feng, they could not do it too obviously. They must transfer all of the experts and make others think that Kong Ruozeng was seizing this opportunity to provoke Chu Feng again.

Afterward, Kong Ruozeng directly arrived outside of Chu Feng's palace. This time around, he did not shout from outside. Rather, he directly smashed at the entrance, forcing his way in.

“Boom~~~”

A punch shot forth, sending energy ripples all over. The iron fragments of the entrance gate started to flutter about in midair.

That Kong Ruozeng actually used a martial skill to pulverize the palace's entrance gate.

“Chu Feng, scram the hell out here!!!” Kong Ruozeng shouted loudly as he proceeded into the palace. He already knew where Chu Feng was undergoing closed-door training. Thus, he had a clear-cut purpose when going in there.

This person was naturally Wang Qiang.

“F-fucking hell, h-how fucking un-uneducated are you? Not only a-are you making a h-huge ruckus, y-you've even f-fucking s-smashed a-apart the entrance gate and f-forced your way through?!”

“C-Could it b-be that y-you’ve g-grown a-addicted to the m-medicinal punishment, and w-want to e-experience it again?” Wang Qiang stared at Kong Ruozeng in a very displeased manner.

Even though Wang Qiang was also there as a guest, it remained that the palace was his residence there. As such, he felt extremely displeased to have the entrance gate smashed apart by someone.

“Humph, where is Chu Feng? Tell him to get the hell out here. Today... I insist on challenging him,” Kong Ruozeng said.

“C-Challenge my brother? Y-you t-think someone like you is q-qualified?” Wang Qiang looked at Kong Ruozeng and smiled with contempt. His smile was extremely low and vile, to the point that even bystanders would feel angered by it.

As such, Kong Ruozeng was so furious that his face turned red. He pointed at Wang Qiang and said fiercely, “Scram! Else, do not blame me for being impolite!”

“Impolite? Toward me? Yoh yoh yoh, l-little c-child, d-do you not f-fear that y-your incisors will f-fall off by b-boasting like that?”

“Your g-granddaddy Qiang will be a-able to beat t-trash like you r-rolling on the ground crying f-for mommy with merely one hand,” Wang Qiang said with a laugh.

“You are truly one who refuses a toast only to be forced to drink a forfeit,” As Kong Ruozeng spoke, he raised his arm with the intention to attack Wang Qiang.

“Rumble, rumble, rumble~~~”

However, right at that moment, rumbles sounded from the ninth heaven above.

The sound was so resounding that it startled both heaven and earth.

Turning upward, one could see that black clouds flickering with lightning densely covered the sky.

Although the black clouds did not cover a very vast area, the surging black clouds appeared to be composed of an army of a myriad of demons. As the demon army galloped in the sky, one would feel an extremely painful oppressive sensation. It was so frightening that one would feel as if one was suffocating.

As for the lightning flickering within the clouds, it was the main source of the crowd's fears.

That lightning was simply too frightening. It was definitely no ordinary lightning. Rather, it looked like dragons.

Those were dragons of lightning. They possessed boundless power, and were capable of splitting apart heaven and earth, killing all living things.

“What is that?!”

At that moment, Kong Ruozeng, who had been about to attack Wang Qiang, immediately walked out of the palace and looked to the sky.

In all his life, never had he ever seen anything like that. This was simply too terrifying.

“What is going on?!”

In fact, it was not only Kong Ruozeng. The Kong Heavenly Clan's various elders, and even Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu, the two Utmost Exalted Elders guarding the entrance of the Grief Calamity Mountain, the two True Immortal-level experts, also revealed expressions of unease as they looked to the lightning cloud in the sky.

“Lady Utmost Exalted Elder, this is bad!” The people in the ancient pagoda were also astonished. Those that were observing the situation outside began to run toward Kong Yuehua to report the matter to her.

“What are you all making such a big fuss about?” Kong Yuehua was originally completely focused on staring at the spirit formation. As such, she did not have the heart to look outside.

“There’s an abnormal sign in the sky. It is likely a calamity appearing above the skies of our Kong Heavenly Clan,” The elders outside said in a frightened manner.

“What?!” Hearing those words, Kong Yuehua hurriedly got up and arrived outside the ancient pagoda.

“That is?!!!” After she saw the lightning clouds deep in the sky, she also revealed an extremely astonished expression.

At that moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan started to panic.

The reason for that was because regardless of their age or what sort of cultivation they might possess, they all felt enormous danger from the lightning clouds deep in the sky. It was a sort of danger that they could not withstand.

“That thing...”

However, compared to the others, a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation actually had a completely different expression.

That person was Kong Zheng.

Compared to his clansmen, it was not the first time that he had seen that frightening scene in the sky. Even though the scene was even more frightening than the ones he had seen in the Hundred Refinements Stage, he still involuntarily turned his gaze toward Chu Feng’s residence.

Kong Zheng had suddenly realized that this seemed to not be a coincidence.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, a lightning strike suddenly struck down from the black clouds above. It was aimed directly at the Kong Heavenly Clan.

At that moment, the hearts of all the people in the Kong

Heavenly Clan sunk to the valley floor.

To them, the lightning striking down from above was not merely lightning. Rather, it was a calamity.

At that moment, it was the descent of a calamity.

“If it’s going to strike that palace, then this abnormal sign will definitely be related to Chu Feng,” Kong Zheng’s eyes were fixed in the direction of the palace that served as Chu Feng and Wang Qiang’s residence.

“Rumble~~~”

Finally, that lightning strike landed. However, it did not cause any destruction, nor was anyone injured.

“How could this be?!” As for Kong Zheng, he revealed a completely astonished expression.

The reason for that was because the lightning strike did not land at the palace that served as Chu Feng’s residence. Rather, it landed in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

“Grief Calamity Mountain Range? Could it be... our Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance has already been snatched away?”

At that moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s three Utmost Exalted Elders and the many upper echelon elders were all endlessly furious. They clenched their fists in anger.

They had no idea how the Divine Tribulation’s lightning had come about. However, as it landed in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, the first thing that came to their minds was their inheritance.

Thus, they felt that someone must’ve received their Kong Primogenitor’s inheritance, that the abnormal sign was caused by that.

This was something that they could not tolerate. Yet, at that moment, they were powerless to do anything.

In that sort of situation, many of the Kong Heavenly Clansmen wanted to rush into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range and capture that intruder with no regard for their own safety.

However, they were all stopped by Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu.

.....

The truth was, the lightning was indeed aroused from the Grief Calamity Mountain Range and their inheritance had indeed been snatched away.

Merely, that lightning was unrelated to their Kong Primogenator's inheritance.

The reason for that was because that lightning was caused by a single person, Chu Feng.

In the depths of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, inside that palace, Chu Feng was still sitting cross-legged.

However, lightning filled his surroundings. The lightning had penetrated the concealment formation Chu Feng had set up and reached Chu Feng's surroundings. Like blades of lightning, they were penetrating Chu Feng's body nonstop.

The lightning bolts were penetrating his skin and bones, and were even on the verge of penetrating Chu Feng's dantian to permeate his soul.

More and more lightning began to gather. Their aura also grew more and more frightening. Toward the end, it was as if there were countless frightening hands of lightning grabbing onto Chu Feng with the intention to rip him apart.

At that moment, even though Chu Feng's eyes were tightly closed, he was showing a painful expression.

However, he had to grit his teeth and bear the pain. He had to endure this sort of torture.

The reason for that was because he would only be able to reach a breakthrough by enduring such tribulation.

Chapter 2410 – Continuous Breakthrough

---

Frightening lightning surrounded a single person with the intention to kill, destroy and extinguish that person.

As for this person, he was none other than Chu Feng.

Faced with such a situation, Chu Feng could only endure. He had no other choice.

After all, this was the Divine Tribulation.

If he failed to endure it, even if he managed to survive, he would be seriously injured. In fact, his future prospects would likely end at that point as well.

However, if he was able to endure it, Chu Feng would be able to reach a breakthrough in cultivation.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, the frightening lightning started to dissipate. The next moment, the painful expression on Chu Feng’s face grew better, his complexion became rosy, and his aura became more powerful.

He had reached a breakthrough. From rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng had reached a breakthrough to rank eight Half Martial Ancestor.

However, Chu Feng’s eyes were still closed. The martial power within his body was still flowing following a special trajectory, pouring into his dantian and then rushing out.

Chu Feng was attempting to continue to breakthrough. He was attempting to batter the bottleneck to rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

However, Chu Feng was only concerned about making breakthroughs in cultivation, and had completely forgotten about the power of his Divine Tribulation and the commotion that it might cause.

Even though the Kong Heavenly Clan had not really suffered the attack of the Divine Tribulation, they were still filled with chaos and panic.

When speaking of it, it was quite ironic. The Kong Heavenly Clan was clearly one of the powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that possessed the most robust foundations and the strongest strength.

Yet now, they were panic-stricken and restless. Their appearance was as if they were experiencing the arrival of doomsday. It was as if an invisible shadow had enveloped this huge monster that was the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Could it really be that the inheritance has been snatched?”

“But, if the inheritance has been snatched, why would it give rise to such an abnormal sign?” Kong Shunlian did not feel that the lightning strike earlier was caused by their inheritance being snatched.

“We have no idea how powerful Lord Primogenitor was. However, one thing is certain, the inheritance he left behind was definitely extraordinary.”

“Furthermore, the power of our Heavenly Bloodline is related to lightning to begin with. The more dreadful that abnormal sign appears to be, the more it signifies how amazing that inheritance was,” Compared to Kong Shunlian, Kong Moyu was determined that their Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance had been snatched.

By associating the lightning earlier with the still-lingering black clouds in the sky, Kong Moyu was able to imagine how powerful the inheritance was.

The more he thought about it, the more furious he became. With overwhelming anger, he clenched his fists and gnashed his teeth. His killing intent was filling the air in an completely unconcealed manner.

In fact, the people that knew about there being an intruder in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range basically had two different opinions.

They either felt that the lightning was related to the inheritance.

Or they felt that the lightning was unrelated to the inheritance.

However, no one ever thought that this might be the legendary Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. In fact... not to mention the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan had never even seen the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique before.

The great majority of them trained in the Mortal Punishment Mysterious Technique. Even though the Mortal Punishment Mysterious Technique would also cause its users to receive punishments during their breakthroughs, those punishments would only originate from their own bloodlines.

The punishments from the Mortal Punishment Mysterious Technique was simply not one that would startle the heaven and earth, not one visible to others and definitely not one that could arouse such a frightening abnormal sign.

Thus, they simply would never imagine that such a frightening abnormal sign was created by the breakthrough of a Heavenly Bloodline possessor.

“Could it be that that thing being related to Chu Feng was merely a coincidence?” At that moment, Kong Zheng, who had suspected the lightning to be related with Chu Feng, was feeling puzzled.

If the frightening lightning being caused by Chu Feng made sense the last time around, then it didn’t make sense this time.

The reason for that was because the location where that lightning struck was truly quite far away from Chu Feng’s residence.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, the still-dispersing black clouds that were lingering in the sky suddenly started to gather once again. Together with the gathering of the black clouds, the frightening lightning once again started to gallop through the clouds. Furthermore, it was even mightier this time around.

Even though the lightning had descended upon the Grief Calamity Mountain Range and had not injured anyone from the Kong Heavenly Clan, the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan were once again immersed in panic and fear the moment that frightening abnormal sign appeared again.

They had no idea as to exactly what sort of power that Divine Tribulation’s lightning possessed. However, they were certain that the power it possessed was capable of destroying an entire region.

“Rumble, rumble~~~”

Soon, the Divine Tribulation’s lightning struck down once again. As for its target, it was the Grief Calamity Mountain Range again.

“It actually struck down twice in succession? It’s over, it’s over, the inheritance must’ve been snatched.”

“Damn it! Exactly who is the intruder that actually dared to snatch away our Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance?!”

Not only was Kong Moyu furious, he was also feeling very anxious, so anxious that his face was covered with sweat, and his body was restless.

The reason for that was because he had determined with certainty that it was their Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance that was being snatched away by the intruder to have caused that abnormal sign. Merely, he was powerless to do anything in this sort of situation. As such, he would naturally become anxious.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elders, this is bad!”

Suddenly, an elder ran over.

“What’s wrong? What’s happened now?” Kong Moyu asked in an annoyed manner.

“Kong Ruozeng has gone to challenge Chu Feng again. Furthermore, he has smashed apart the palace’s entrance gate and started fighting against that Young Master Wang Qiang,” That elder said.

“What utter impudence!!!” Upon finding out about it, Kong Shunlian was immediately furious. As he spoke, he planned to move to stop it. However, suddenly, his expression changed. He asked, “Didn’t I have people guarding Chu Feng’s residence? How did Kong Ruozeng manage to charge in?”

“This... actually, this is Lady Yuehua’s intention,” That elder replied.

“Elder Yuehua?” After hearing that, not to mention Kong Shunlian, even Kong Moyu revealed a change in expression.

“What is wrong with Yuehua? Does she not know that Chu Feng is an honored guest that Lord Clan Chief personally ordered Elder Shunlian to invite?”

“Earlier, that Kong Ruozeng had already committed a mistake and left behind a very bad impression.”

“Yet now, why did even Elder Yuehua involve herself in this? Could it be that she has gone foolish before such a great catastrophe?” Elder Kong Moyu said in a very displeased manner.

His mood was bad to begin with. Thus, upon hearing the news, he naturally felt even more displeased.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elders, there’s a reason for this,” That elder said with a difficult expression.

“Exactly what is going on?” Kong Shunlian urged.

After being urged by Kong Shunlian, that elder relayed what had happened to Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu.

“So it’s actually that Chu Feng! What an utter ungrateful bastard! Our Kong Heavenly Clan treated him so well, yet he actually wanted to steal our Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance,” After hearing about what had happened, the killing intent Kong Moyu was emitting grew even stronger.

“Brother Moyu, have you gone muddled? What sort of place is the Grief Calamity Mountain Range? How could Chu Feng possibly be able to enter it?” Kong Shunlian said.

“But, isn’t that Chu Feng in closed-door training? Why would he appear in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range’s vicinity?”

“Don’t you tell me that Qiuci is lying so as to help her son and husband obtain revenge.”

“We have watched Qiuci grow up. We know very well what sort of character she is.”

“In the past, even if she was bullied by others, she would not be willing to tell on them. How could someone as kind-hearted as her possibly do something like lying?” Kong Moyu said.

“That child Qiuci will naturally not lie. Merely... it’s impossible for Chu Feng to be able to enter the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. Furthermore, even if he did enter it, he would not be capable of opening that spirit formation,” Kong Shunlian said.

“This matter is of the utmost importance. Neither you nor I can determine the truth of this matter. However, since that Chu Feng is suspicious, we absolutely cannot let him get away.”

“I feel that Elder Yuehua’s decision to have a member of the younger generation act is very correct. If Chu Feng is really undergoing closed-door training, it would mean that Qiuci is lying. At that time, even if you didn’t say anything, I would definitely not spare her.”

“However, if that Chu Feng is not in closed-door training, it would mean that he must've entered the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. In that case, we absolutely cannot allow him to leave here alive," Kong Moyu said.

"Moyu, I understand your state of mind. The interest of our clan surpasses everything else."

"However, it was I who invited little friend Chu Feng over here. At that time, I said that I would guarantee his safety. Even if what is happening today concerns our clan's inheritance, I still cannot go against my promise."

"Thus, I cannot watch with folded arms."

After he finished saying those words, Kong Shunlian soared into the sky and began to fly toward Chu Feng's residence.

"Truly foolish," Seeing that, Kong Moyu actually went chasing after Kong Shunlian. The two Utmost Exalted Elders guarding the entrance of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range actually left at the same time.

Chapter 2411 – Rank Nine Half Martial Ancestor

---

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

At that moment, explosions were resounding nonstop outside of the palace that served as Chu Feng’s residence.

They were caused by the battle between Wang Qiang and Kong Ruozeng.

Very rarely would battles occur in the Kong Heavenly Clan. Even when sparring among the younger generation, they would do so in special sites.

As for that place, it was a residence for guests. As such, there would hardly ever be any battles in that place to begin with. As such, the sudden appearance of a battle inevitably caused countless people to gather and watch in a circle.

At that moment, not only were there a lot of people from the Kong Heavenly Clan gathered outside the palace, there were a lot of guests who had come to pay their respects to Chu Feng.

Perhaps it might be because the Divine Tribulation’s lightning had struck down twice but caused no destruction, that the crowd was no longer worried about the Divine Tribulation’s lightning. As such, they began to eagerly enjoy the lively show.

“As expected of an extraordinary genius. This Wang Qiang is the one that obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance with Chu Feng, right?”

“Amazing indeed. Judging by their appearances, this Wang Qiang should be much younger than that member of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation. Yet, his cultivation is much stronger. If it wasn’t for that Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation possessing a Heavenly Bloodline, he would simply be no match for that Wang Qiang.”

“Amazing, truly amazing. As expected of a genius known to be able to contend against that Young Master Li Ming.”

The surrounding crowd was praising nonstop as they looked at the battle between Wang Qiang and Kong Ruozeng.

However, the great majority of them were praising Wang Qiang. Their praise could even be said to be unending.

“You bastard, you actually concealed your cultivation?” At that moment, Kong Ruozeng had unleashed both his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, the signature abilities of Heavenly Bloodline possessors.

At that moment, his cultivation had increased from rank nine Half Martial Ancestor to rank two Martial Ancestor.

Adding on his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, the current Kong Ruozeng was truly powerful.

However, he was unable to defeat Wang Qiang.

The reason for that was because Wang Qiang’s cultivation was no longer that of a rank one Martial Ancestor. Rather, he was a rank two Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, Wang Qiang also possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation.

“C-concealed my c-cultivation?”

“Humph, y-your granddaddy I am n-never one to conceal m-my cultivation. I-it’s merely t-that your granddaddy I m-managed to r-reach a breakthrough during m-my closed-door t-training,” Wang Qiang said with a beaming smile.

Wang Qiang was not lying. He had indeed reached a breakthrough in closed-door training. After all, he possessed that spittoon that contained comprehensions toward the way of martial cultivation. As long as he comprehended the contents within the spittoon, he would be able to successfully reach a breakthrough. Thus, Wang Qiang's rank two Martial Ancestor-level cultivation had been obtained through the martial cultivation spittoon.

That said, Kong Ruozeng did not believe Wang Qiang in the slightest. He mocked and ridiculed, "Reached a breakthrough in closed-door training? You've only been in closed-door training for a short period of time. Yet you're telling me you managed to reach rank two Martial Ancestor from rank one Martial Ancestor in such a short period of time?"

"Hehe, h-h-how could m-mere t-trash like you p-possibly understand the l-loneliness of a g-genius like y-your granddaddy I?" Wang Qiang mocked and ridiculed back. He was mentally attacking Kong Ruozeng nonstop. While he was doing that, he did not stop his onslaught of attacks either.

At that moment, both fighters were holding Incomplete Ancestral Armaments. They both possessed the same level of cultivation and the same heaven-defying battle power. As such, the two of them fought to a wild frenzy and were unable to determine a victor.

"Kong Ruozeng, stop immediately!!!"

Right at that moment, a furious shout was heard. It was Kong Shunlian.

Once Kong Shunlian arrived on the scene, the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan immediately felt enormous veneration for him.

They had all heard of Kong Ruozeng being punished with the medicinal punishment after provoking Chu Feng earlier.

Thus, they knew that Kong Shunlian shielded Chu Feng enormously. And now, with his arrival, Kong Ruozeng would likely end up suffering.

"Brother Shunlian, it is merely a spar between members of the younger generation. There's no need for you to be this furious, no?" Right at that moment, Kong Moyu also arrived. And stopped Kong Shunlian.

Like Kong Yuehua, Kong Moyu also suspected that Chu Feng was the intruder. Since Kong Yuehua had plotted this, he would naturally not want Kong Shunlian to destroy their plan.

"Hehe, t-this senior, i-it's fine, we are merely sparring," Wang Qiang said to Kong Shunlian with a beaming smile.

"Look, this little friend here has no objection to it. As such, why must you insist on obstructing them? A spar between people of the younger generation is nothing major to begin with," Kong Moyu said to Kong Shunlian.

However, once Wang Qiang said his following words, that Kong Moyu's expression turned ugly.

"R-rest as-assured, I will n-not beat him to death; at the v-very most, I'll beat him till he p-pisses and shits himself, and is unable to p-provide for himself," Wang Qiang said with a complacent expression.

Wang Qiang had totally not considered this place to be the Kong Heavenly Clan, nor did he put the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan in his eyes at all. He was unhesitant to say anything he wanted. This was who Wang Qiang was.

"You're fucking spouting bullshit!" Kong Ruozeng was already furious to begin with. Thus, he overflowed with immense anger the moment Wang Qiang dared to insult him before their Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders. He unleashed a fatal attack at Wang Qiang. This was simply not a sparring match at all; he was simply trying to take Wang Qiang's life.

"Kong Yao, Qiuci, what is going on here?" Seeing that he could not stop this battle, Kong Shunlian turned his gaze to Kong Ruozeng's parents.

In response, Kong Ruozeng's parents hurriedly sent voice transmissions to Kong Shunlian to explain what had happened.

In actuality, Kong Shunlian already knew what had happened.

"I will only tell you all one thing. Little friend Chu Feng is an honored guest invited over by our Kong Heavenly Clan. Today, if you all are to have wrongly accused him, I will absolutely not let you get away with it," Kong Shunlian said through his own voice transmission. That voice transmission entered only Kong Ruozeng's parents' ears.

Upon hearing those words, Kong Ruozeng's parents immediately shivered. Even their hearts started to tremble.

Killing intent. The two of them actually felt killing intent from Kong Shunlian's words.

This was the first time in their entire lives that they had seen Kong Shunlian targeting his killing intent at his own clansmen, and at them, to top it off.

As matters stood, they finally realized how serious the situation was. However, as they'd already gone too far, there was no way for them to back out. They could only insist that Chu Feng had appeared at the entrance of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

Fortunately, they had Kong Yuehua standing behind them. That was why they were still able to withstand Kong Shunlian's pressure.

Furthermore, as he was stopped by Kong Moyu, Kong Shunlian was unable to stop this farce, and could only remain as a spectator.

Merely, he no longer possessed any confidence. He thought in his heart, 'Little friend Chu Feng, I hope that the intruder is not you. Else, even this old man will not be able to protect you.'

As Wang Qiang and Kong Ruozeng continued to remain locked in battle, more and more people arrived to spectate the battle.

Although there were many guests who felt that it was inappropriate for a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation to provoke Wang Qiang like this, it remained that this was a showdown between geniuses. Thus, as they took pleasure in watching the excitement, they did not say anything, and instead grew more interested the more they watched.

However, Chu Feng had no idea about this battle and crisis.

At that moment, Chu Feng was still inside the palace in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

He had opened his eyes. As for his aura, it was actually even stronger than before. He was already no longer a rank eight Half Martial Ancestor, but instead a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

Chu Feng had managed to make two successive breakthroughs, and became an actual rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, an actual peak Half Martial Ancestor.

"Chu Feng, why aren't you continuing to attempt to break through? Could it be that the engravings containing the profoundness of martial cultivation that old fellow spent so much time engraving are only sufficient for you to reach rank nine Half Martial Ancestor?" Her Lady Queen asked nervously upon seeing that Chu Feng had stood up and seemed like he did not plan to continue to attempt to break through.

"I've already made two successive breakthroughs, is that still not enough? This here is even more powerful than what my Chu Heavenly Clan's senior left behind," Compared to Her Lady Queen, Chu Feng was quite satisfied with the result.

"But, that stutterer managed to break through to the Martial Ancestor realm. Furthermore, he even left behind that martial cultivation spittoon. That thing is extremely powerful; he might even be able to reach another breakthrough after comprehending it."

“You are simply too foolish. He offered you the martial cultivation spittoon, so you should’ve accepted it. If you had accepted it, you would be a Martial Ancestor now too,” Her Lady Queen said.

“It’s enough. My dear Eggy, my dear Queen, that is my brother’s possession, how could I accept it?” Chu Feng smiled and shook his head.

He knew very well that Her Lady Queen was thinking for his sake. However, her concern had reached an excessive state.

That is, as long as it was beneficial to Chu Feng, Her Lady Queen would completely disregard the lives and deaths of others.

This sort of consideration was not something that ordinary people could have. Chu Feng was actually very emotionally moved by it. Merely, he also possessed his own principles. That is, he could not touch what was useful to his brother.

“What is with that old fart Kai Hong anyways? Isn’t the disparity for the treasures in these two places too enormous?” Her Lady Queen felt aggrieved, and sighed. She was truly angry because the benefits Chu Feng had obtained was inferior to what Wang Qiang had obtained.

“Well then, Milady Queen, it is time for us to leave this place,” Chu Feng comforted Eggy with a smile. As he spoke, he planned to leave.

“Young man, don’t leave.”

Suddenly, a voice sounded from behind Chu Feng.

“Who? Who is speaking?”

Hearing that voice, Chu Feng’s heart tightened. The reason for that was because that voice was very gloomy. Merely by hearing that voice, Chu Feng felt as if his hair was standing on end.

Turning around, Chu Feng felt even greater unease.

The reason for that was because he discovered that there was nothing behind him at all.

“Don’t be afraid. I am like you, an enemy of the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Right at that moment, that gloomy voice sounded again.

Chapter 2412 – Hero City, Ying Mingchao

“Don’t be scared, I am like you, an enemy of the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Right at that moment, that gloomy voice sounded again.

This time around, Chu Feng was able to be certain of the location where the voice had come from. However, even after using his Heaven’s Eyes, that powerful observation ability, Chu Feng was unable to find anyone at that location.

“Exactly who are you? Why do you say that I am an enemy of the Kong Heavenly Clan?” Chu Feng asked with a stern voice.

“In that case, you’re not an enemy of the Kong Heavenly Clan. If that’s the case, I cannot allow you to leave here alive,” After saying those words, that voice sounded once again.

Merely, this time around, a dense killing intent and boundless oppressive might accompanied the voice. That oppressive might was too powerful. It had managed to instantly envelop Chu Feng.

Before that oppressive might, Chu Feng was like a fallen leaf before a violent gale; he simply have no way to withstand it.

“True Immortal?” Chu Feng subconsciously felt that this unknown individual was at least a True Immortal-level expert.

Furthermore, this individual was not formed through a spirit formation. Rather, he was an actual human.

No, to be exact, this individual was no longer human. His cultivation had reached the True Immortal level, and thus surpassed the limits of humanity, becoming an Immortal. An actual Immortal had appeared before Chu Feng’s eyes.

However, this place was the place containing the Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance. Yet, there was someone in this place. In that case, why were the treasures here left completely intact?

Could it be that this individual was like Grandmaster Kai Hong, who had discovered this place but did not have the intention to take away the treasures, and instead decided to leave it for others?

But, that shouldn't be the case. This person had declared himself to be the Kong Heavenly Clan's enemy, and even revealed killing intent toward Chu Feng.

"Indeed, the Kong Heavenly Clan and I are not enemies. However, judging from the situation at hand, we are no different from being enemies," Chu Feng said.

"Why do you say that?" That voice asked.

"Because I've obtained the treasures here. It is equivalent to snatching away their inheritance. I believe that if they were to know about this matter, they would definitely not let me get away," Chu Feng continued to explain.

It was not that Chu Feng was afraid after encountering a True Immortal-level expert. Rather, what Chu Feng said was the truth.

"You should've said that from the very start. If you did, you wouldn't have forced this great sir to reveal his might. I think that to be the case too. After all, the Kong Heavenly Clan is a group of narrow-minded individuals. They will definitely not spare you."

As that voice was heard again, the killing intent disappeared following it. Merely, that oppressive might still enveloped Chu Feng, sealing his path to leave.

"Senior, since you do not want me to leave, it seems like you have something you wish to say to me. In that case, can you reveal yourself?" Chu Feng asked.

"Brat, it seems that you are a smart person. Since you're a smart person, you should be able to think of the reason why this great sir is not revealing himself," That voice said.

"Could it be that senior is unable to reveal yourself?" Chu Feng asked.

“That’s right. This great sir is currently without the freedom to act independently,” That voice said.

“Then, may I know who senior might be, and why you’ve come to this place?” Chu Feng asked again.

“You must’ve heard this great sir’s name before. Thus, I urge you best prepare yourself, for you will likely be scared witless after hearing my great name,” The voice said in a very proud manner.

“Who is this guy? He’s too arrogant, no?” Her Lady Queen pouted her lips with an expression of contempt.

As for Chu Feng, he had a smile on his face as he courteously said, “Senior, please inform me of your identity.”

“This great sir is called Ying Mingchao. I am the Hero City’s City Master,” That voice said.

“Ying Mingchao? Hero City?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s expression turned sluggish. The reason for that was because he had truly never heard of that name or that place before.

“Boy, what the fuck is with your expression?! You couldn’t possibly have never heard of this great sir’s name before, right?!” Seeing Chu Feng’s dazed expression, the voice was immediately agitated. Evidently, he realized that Chu Feng might not know of him.

Merely, he had already boasted of his greatness earlier. If Chu Feng really didn’t know him, he would find himself in a very awkward situation.

At that moment, Chu Feng laughed awkwardly. Then, he said, “Senior, to tell the truth, this junior is not from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Furthermore, I have only been in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for a short period of time. Thus, I know very little about the people and events of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“So that’s the case. You’re a member of the younger generation from an Upper Realm. No wonder, no wonder. If that's the case, it is normal for you to not know about this great sir," The man who declared himself to be Ying Mingchao had determined Chu Feng to be someone from the Upper Realms.

As for Chu Feng, he did not bother to explain this misunderstanding. Instead, he asked, "Then, senior, might you be willing to explain to this junior?"

"That's of course not an issue," Ying Mingchao was very frank and straightforward. He began to tell Chu Feng about himself.

After hearing about it, Chu Feng found out that this Ying Mingchao was truly a top existence.

He could be said to be the person in the several tens of thousands of years between Zhan Haichuan and Grandmaster Kai Hong to possess the greatest talent for martial cultivation. He was someone who had been very likely to become the number one expert of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

This Ying Mingchao had not belonged to any powers, and had originally been a bandit.

Merely, although he was a bandit, he would never bully the commoners. Instead, he was someone who would perform righteous acts, and rob the rich to help the poor.

This bandit Ying Mingchao possessed extraordinary talent. His cultivation also rapidly increased. As such, his banditry grew more and more grandiose.

By relying on his extraordinary abilities, he turned from a nameless bandit into a widely famous hero in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Furthermore, as he possessed a straightforward and frank temperament, he managed to befriend a group of like-minded individuals. Furthermore, those friends of his were all extraordinary individuals.

This group of people were all talented individuals that did not belong to any power. They gathered together, settled in one location and established the so-called Hero City.

As for this Hero City, it would only recruit the able and virtuous individuals of the world. Regardless of their cultivation, as long as they wanted to join them, they would be allowed to join their Hero City.

However, the Hero City had a strict rule. That was that the people of the Hero City were not allowed to willfully slaughter the innocent, not allowed to bully the weak, not allowed to bring about misfortunes upon others, and not allowed to ignore others in need.

Those who went against this rule would all be killed without exception.

In short, this Hero City was a power that would root out the strong and support the weak. They did not let down the title of 'hero.'

As for Ying Mingchao, he was a cultivation genius. When he was only a thousand years old, he became a True Immortal-level expert and was deemed to be the existence that was most hopeful to stand at the apex of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm after Zhan Haichuan and Grandmaster Kai Hong.

This also caused Hero City to grow and bustle with publicity. Furthermore, as they became very popular, Hero City grew larger and larger.

Everyone felt that Hero City had become another tier one power in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Furthermore, they felt that it would surpass the Kong Heavenly Clan, Zhou Heavenly Clan, Immortal Sword School, and Buddha's Heavenly Temple to become the strongest power in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

“Hero City was actually that famous. In that case, I shouldn’t have never heard of it,” Chu Feng said.

“Boy, you’re thinking that this great sir is lying to you?”

“You can go and make inquiries about me. When have I, Ying Mingchao, ever lied? When have I ever boasted? I am someone who says one thing and means just that. I am someone who will always keep my word,” Ying Mingchao had a very annoyed tone to his voice. In fact, there was even a trace of agitation. It could be seen that he was very displeased with how Chu Feng questioned his words.

“Senior, your strength is before me. How could this junior suspect you of lying?”

“However, this junior has never before heard of your accomplishments. Furthermore, it is also true that I’ve never heard of the Hero City.”

“That is why it is suspicious. Thus... might this be related to the reason why you’re here?” Chu Feng asked.

“It seems that my Hero City is already no longer present,” Hearing what Chu Feng said, that Ying Mingchao’s voice immediately grew downcast. Then, he suddenly laughed bitterly and said, “Kong Heavenly Clan, Zhou Heavenly Clan, you all are truly ruthless.”

Chapter 2413 – Taboo Technique

---

“Senior, exactly what happened?” Chu Feng asked. He had realized that this Ying Mingchao seemed to really possess enormous hatred against the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Didn’t you ask me why I would be here? This is all forced by the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Ying Mingchao said.

Then, Ying Mingchao began to narrate what had happened to Chu Feng in full detail.

Over a thousand years ago, Ying Mingchao and his Hero City were most flourishing.

The Hero City of that time not only possessed their own territory and range of influence, they also possessed some remnants.

Ying Mingchao had just left a remnant with a group of experts. Although he was exhausted at that time, he was very delighted at being able to successfully obtain benefits from that remnant.

Prompted by a sudden impulse, Ying Mingchao decided to bring his brothers with him to enjoy some wine.

It just so happened that he encountered the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chiefs.

The two clan chiefs insisted on inviting Ying Mingchao to be a guest at the Kong Heavenly Clan. They even told him that the Kong Heavenly Clan possessed great wine that had been kept in storage for ten thousand years.

As Ying Mingchao and his brothers were all people who were fond of drinking, they were naturally prompted by the promise of good wine. Furthermore, as the two clan chiefs were very eager, they found it hard to refuse them. Thus, they arrived at the Kong Heavenly Clan.

However, never did they expect that invitation to be a trap.

It turned out that the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan were afraid that Ying Mingchao would continue to mature and one day become the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's overlord. Thus, they wanted to kill Ying Mingchao before he could mature.

When Ying Mingchao found out what they wanted to do, it was already too late. All of his brothers that had accompanied him to the Kong Heavenly Clan were killed. He himself was also unable to defeat the joint forces of the Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhou Heavenly Clan's clan chiefs.

With no other option, Ying Mingchao had no choice but to attempt to escape. However, the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan had already been prepared, and blocked off all his routes of escape. In the end, Ying Mingchao had escaped into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

Unfortunately, he had triggered a slaughtering formation, and was sucked into it. The slaughtering formation was so powerful that it was capable of killing him.

With no other option, Ying Mingchao used a taboo technique. This taboo technique that he used was able to prevent him from being killed by the slaughtering formation.

That taboo technique of his was very powerful. After using it, Ying Mingchao's body disappeared. Although it didn't truly disappear, it would make it so that the great majority of the spirit formations became unable to detect him, and no eyes could see him.

However, since it was a taboo technique, it would naturally also possess a very serious side effect. That side effect was that, he would no longer be able to move. Unless he was to undo the taboo technique, he would not be able to move a single step.

Luckily, Ying Mingchao was not in the slaughtering formation the entire time. The reason for that was because within the depths of the slaughtering formation was a teleportation formation. Thus, when Ying Mingchao came in contact with the teleportation formation, he was sent to this place.

Merely, after Ying Mingchao arrived, the side effect completely burst forth. As such, Ying Mingchao ended up being trapped there.

“It seems like one can reach this place should one be able to survive the slaughtering formations. This place’s trial is truly interesting,” After finding out about Ying Mingchao’s experience, Chu Feng understood the design Kong Yingyi had toward this place.

Although those slaughtering formations were very dangerous, they actually served as a shortcut to the palace. As long as one could survive through a slaughtering formation, they would be able to arrive at that place. However, evidently, over all these years, Ying Mingchao was the only one that managed to survive.

However, it was very unfortunate for Ying Mingchao. Due to the fact that he had used the taboo technique, even though he had managed to reach the location where his enemy’s treasures were contained, he was unable to bring any away with him.

“Logically, after senior used your taboo technique, you should not only be unable to move, but also become unable to speak or use your oppressive might, no?” Chu Feng said.

“That’s right. I have been trapped in here for over a thousand years. Although the side effect of my taboo technique has gradually weakened, I am still unable to leave this place.”

“Boy, think about it. A person being trapped in one place for over a thousand years. There is no one to speak to him, and even if he is tired, he cannot change his position. Furthermore, there is nothing to eat and drink. Merely by thinking about it, one can imagine how painful it is.”

“Oh, that’s right. Do you have anything to eat? Wine, that’s right, wine, boy, do you have any wine with you?” Ying Mingchao suddenly asked.

“I do,” Chu Feng took out some food and a jug of good wine from his Cosmos Sack.

“Boy, you actually really carry wine around with you? Quickly, quickly, quickly give it to me, give it to me,” After seeing the drinks and wine in Chu Feng’s hands, Ying Mingchao became incomparably excited.

Even though Chu Feng was unable to see Ying Mingchao, Chu Feng was able to faintly feel Ying Mingchao’s gaze. At that moment, Ying Mingchao was most definitely staring at Chu Feng’s food and wine like a starved tiger on the verge of death encountering a little sheep.

Chu Feng walked over to where Ying Mingchao was. He was not afraid. The reason for that was because if Ying Mingchao wanted to do something to him, there would be no way for Chu Feng to survive.

After Chu Feng arrived before Ying Mingchao, he asked, “Senior, since you’re unable to move, how are you to eat? You couldn’t possibly be planning to have this junior feed you, right?”

“Get out of here! If you were a woman, it would be fine for you to feed me. Yet, you, a grown man, want to feed me? This great sir does not have that sort of indulgence.”

“Although this great sir is unable to move, I possess cultivation. Merely by controlling my oppressive might, I am able to provide for myself,” At the same time Ying Mingchao said those words, a burst of oppressive might arrived before Chu Feng. That oppressive might took away the food and wine Chu Feng held in his hand.

“Since you’re able to use your oppressive might to handle the food, why do you still want me to bring them over?” Chu Feng asked in a slightly dissatisfied manner.

“After all is said and done, this great sir still does not possess liberty. While using my oppressive might to kill others is something doable, to operate it for a task like handling food is still quite troublesome. If you’re too far away, I fear that I might make a mistake and scatter my wine.”

“Woah! It’s been over a thousand years! It’s been over a thousand years since I last smelled the fragrance of wine! This is truly the most aromatic smell in the entire world!” After Ying Mingchao finished saying those words, gulping sounds could be heard nonstop. Likely, Ying Mingchao had begun his wine drinking.

“Boy, is there any more wine? Come, accompany this great sir in drinking,” Ying Mingchao asked.

“I do, I have a lot,” Chu Feng took out over a hundred jugs of wine.

“Woah! Boy, you actually carry this much wine with you?!” Upon seeing those jugs of wine, Ying Mingchao grew even more excited and emotional.

“When outside, one must always prepare a lot of good wine just in case the situation calls for it.” Chu Feng said with a smile. As he spoke, he sat cross-legged on the ground and opened a jug of wine. He said, “Senior, this junior offers you a toast.”

“Very well. You’re frank and straightforward. Boy, I admire you. Come, drink,” Ying Mingchao said excitedly.

Even though Chu Feng was unable to see Ying Mingchao, he was able to see Ying Mingchao controlling the jug of wine with his oppressive might so as to toast with him.

“Drink,” Chu Feng smiled. Then, he gulped the jug of wine in his hand down in one go.

“Ahh, rejuvenating,” Ying Mingchao gulped down his jug of wine. However, he was not yet content. Using his oppressive might, he directly opened two jugs of wine.

As for the food that Chu Feng gave him, he did not bother to take a single bite. Sure enough, this Ying Mingchao was a drunkard. His love for wine surpassed everything else.

“Senior, it’s time that we move on to proper business. For you to want me to stay, it should be because you hope that I will be able to help you, right? What must I do to help you? You can go ahead and tell me,” Chu Feng said to Ying Mingchao.

Chu Feng was unable to see Ying Mingchao. Thus, he knew that Ying Mingchao’s taboo technique must be extremely powerful.

Not to mention that Chu Feng would not be able to bring him away, it would likely be very difficult for Chu Feng to help Ying Mingchao even though he was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

Since Chu Feng had no idea how he was to help Ying Mingchao, he had no choice but to ask Ying Mingchao about it. He hoped that Ying Mingchao, the person who used the taboo technique, knew how to undo the taboo technique.

“We’re enjoying ourselves right now, there’s no need to rush. Come boy, accompany this great sir in drinking some more,” A jug of opened wine flew toward Chu Feng.

It turned out that Ying Mingchao had opened two jugs of wine because he had prepared one of them for Chu Feng.

Chapter 2414 – Deceive The Heavens To Cross The Sea

---

Chu Feng accepted the wine, but did not drink it. Instead, he said, “Senior, truth be told, this junior is unable to stay here for a long time. If there’s anything that I can help senior with, I hope that senior will tell me directly, so that I can try my best to help.”

“However, if this junior is truly unable to help senior, I hope that senior will let this junior leave.”

“The reason for that is because I am not the only one to have come to the Kong Heavenly Clan this time around. I have a brother that is still currently in the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“It’s very possible that the matter regarding me entering the Grief Calamity Mountain Range has been exposed. I fear that it will become dangerous for my brother if I stay here for too long.”

“Oh?” Hearing those words, Ying Mingchao also put his jug of wine down. He said, “Since that’s the case, I will tell you frankly.”

“The side effect of my taboo technique is very powerful. It has been over a thousand years already, yet I’ve only managed to recover this much of my freedom. I have no idea how long it will take for me to recover my freedom completely.”

“As for you, you will not be able to help me. There is only a single person in the entire Hundred Refinements ordinary Realm that can help me.”

“Go find that person, and tell her that I am trapped here. She will definitely come save me.”

“Of course, that’s assuming she’s still alive,” As he said those words, Ying Mingchao’s tone grew sentimental.

His current emotions were understandable. After all, from his words, Chu Feng was able to tell that that person was the only person capable of helping him; she was his sole hope. Furthermore, it seemed that the two of them possessed very deep sentiments.

“Who is she?” Chu Feng asked.

“Go to the Demon Elimination Cave and search for Zi Xunyi,” Yin Mingchao said.

“Is that place easy to find?” Chu Feng asked.

“You can go and make inquiries about the Demon Elimination Cave. I believe the great majority of people know where it is. As long as she is still alive, she will definitely be in the Demon Elimination Cave.”

“Merely, the Demon Elimination Cave is not an easy place to travel to. It is filled with traps, mechanisms and slaughtering formations from the Ancient Era. I will tell you a route. By following this route, you will be able to reach the depths of the Demon Elimination Cave,” Then, Ying Mingchao began to tell Chu Feng the route that would allow him to avoid all the traps, mechanisms and slaughtering formations.

“Boy, if you are able to save me from here, I promise you glory, splendor, wealth and rank. I will recognize you as my brother. No one in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm will dare to bully you again,” Ying Mingchao said to Chu Feng.

“Even if senior didn’t promise me that, I would still do my best to help you,” Chu Feng said.

“Why’s that?” Ying Mingchao asked.

“For us to encounter one another here is fate. Furthermore, senior has trusted me like this. Merely by the trust senior has in me, this junior should help senior the best I can,” Chu Feng said.

“Great! You are truly frank and straightforward. Merely by those words you said and this wine you have left for me, even if you decide not to help me, I should still reward you.”

“Unfortunately, my entire body is restricted by my taboo technique. Even the treasures I have on me are restricted by it, causing me to be unable to give them to you.”

“However, I dare to guarantee that once I manage to undo this binding, I will definitely present with you a satisfactory treasure,” Ying Mingchao said.

“However, as human life is beyond value, I cannot disregard my brother’s safety. If senior has nothing else, this junior shall take his leave now,” Chu Feng said.

“I have nothing else that I need you to do. Go on ahead and leave. Oh, that’s right...”

“You must be careful,” Ying Mingchao said.

“Definitely,” Chu Feng clasped his fist respectfully and then began to walk towards the exit.

However, after Chu Feng arrived at the entrance to that long passage, he did not directly leave.

“Why are you stopping?” Her Lady Queen asked in a confused manner.

“It is very possible that I have already exposed myself. It might be possible that the Kong Heavenly Clan has begun to suspect me. If I am to leave like this, it will be very difficult for me to escape. I might even end up implicating Wang Qiang,” Chu Feng said.

“The situation at hand is already like this, there’s nothing that you can do,” Her Lady Queen said.

“No, there might be a way to save this,” As Chu Feng spoke, he began to set up a spirit formation.

Soon, Chu Feng finished setting up his spirit formation. It was actually a small humanoid. To be exact, it was a spirit body.

It was only half a foot tall, and possessed a translucent body. It did not possess a distinct outline. However, it possessed an aura very similar to that of Chu Feng.

“You’re planning to use this spirit formation to fool them?” Her Lazy Queen came to a sudden realization.

“Hopefully it’ll work,” Chu Feng placed the small spirit formation humanoid into his sleeve. Then, he used the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation to conceal himself. Only then did he step out.

The next moment, from the location where Chu Feng had entered, the spirit formation gate in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range slowly emerged from the ground. Then, it opened by itself.

Soon, Chu Feng flew out from the gate. After he came out, he tossed out the small spirit formation humanoid he held in his hand.

“Buzz~~~”

Light flickered. That spirit formation humanoid started to rapidly grow in size. Soon, it was as large as Chu Feng.

Chu Feng did not stop. Instead, he rapidly rushed toward the Grief Calamity Mountain Range’s entrance. He had to return to his residence before his spirit formation humanoid disappeared.

.....

Due to the fact that the frightening black clouds and lightning in the sky had already dissipated, Kong Yuehua and the others had already returned to the ancient pagoda.

As this matter concerned their Kong Heavenly Clan’s inheritance, Kong Yuehua did not dare to show any negligence. As such, her gaze was fixed onto the spirit formation that could bring her news of the situation inside the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

“He’s here, he’s here again!”

Suddenly, Kong Yuehua's expression changed enormously.

She had managed to detect from the spirit formation in the ancient pagoda that the intruder had reappeared. Merely, this time around, the intruder had directly revealed his location.

“Sure enough, he's alive. Could it be that the abnormal sign earlier was truly caused by him? Did he really manage to obtain the inheritance Lord Primogenitor left for our Kong Heavenly Clan's descendants?!” Kong Yuehua grew even more worried.

However, she had no idea that the existence that she was seeing in her spirit formation right now was actually the spirit formation humanoid Chu Feng had set up.

As for Chu Feng, even though he was still in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, due to the fact that he was using the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation, the spirit formation Kong Yuehua was observing was simply unable to detect Chu Feng's current position or his overall aura.

Of course, even though Chu Feng possessed the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation, the spirit formation Kong Yuehua was observing him from was still capable of capturing Chu Feng. However, that spirit formation was only capable of displaying that someone had entered the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, and not how many people had entered the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

With that being the case, Chu Feng's spirit formation humanoid actually ended up being effective.

What Chu Feng was planning to do right now was to deceive the heavens to cross the sea. He was planning to have the spirit formation humanoid replace him and make everyone think that the spirit formation humanoid was him.

As for his actual self, even if he were to leave the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan would likely not be able to detect him. The reason for that was because his humanoid spirit formation would continue to remain in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range for some time.

.....

At the same time. The battle between Wang Qiang and Kong Ruozeng was still going on.

The two of them had unleashed all of their abilities. However, they were still unable to determine a victor.

“Wang Qiang, admit defeat right away. Else, I will no longer hold back,” Kong Ruozeng said to Wang Qiang.

“Get the fuck o-out of here. I-I’ve seen shameless, b-but I’ve never met someone a-as shameless as you.”

“Y-you’re speaking a-as if you’ve been g-going easy on me. I-If you c-can’t win, th-then go ahead and say so. Y-yet, you want me to a-admit defeat? H-how shameless c-could you get?” Wang Qiang spat toward Kong Ruozeng.

Kong Ruozeng’s body shifted, and he easily dodged Wang Qiang’s spit. However, at that moment, his eyes had turned crimson red.

The next moment, Kong Ruozeng’s body started to emit crimson gaseous flames. His crimson gaseous flames interweaved together with his Thunder Armor. It was a very abnormal sight.

“This guy,” At that moment, Wang Qiang’s gaze also turned serious.

Although Kong Ruozeng’s current cultivation was on par with Wang Qiang’s, both being rank two Martial Ancestors, he had managed to instantly increase his battle power by a lot.

“Rouzens, he...” Seeing that scene, compared to the others, Kong Ruozeng’s parents grew nervous.

They knew that Kong Ruozeng had been prepared to force Chu feng out. As for his preparations, it was that he had hidden a forbidden medicine in his mouth.

That forbidden medicine was very precious; it could even be called a treasure. Although it would allow its user to increase their battle power for a short period of time after using it, one could not avoid the pain of the backlash from that forbidden medicine.

As for the backlash from this forbidden medicine, it was not something to belittle.

“Receive my attack.”

Kong Ruozeng moved. Holding his Incomplete Ancestral Armament in hand, he carried it with his overwhelming might. Like an Ancient Era’s ferocious beast, Kong Ruozeng charged toward Wang Qiang.

Wang Qiang hurriedly unleashed his own attack to confront Kong Ruozeng. However, Wang Qiang’s counterattack was easily broken by Kong Ruozeng. With his Incomplete Ancestral Armament in hand, Kong Ruozeng arrived before Wang Qiang and pierced his weapon into Wang Qiang’s left shoulder.

“Puu~~~”

Blood splattered everywhere as the weapon penetrated his body.

Like a nail, the weapon Kong Ruozeng held in his hand penetrated Wang Qiang’s left shoulder and then ruthlessly nailed Wang Qiang into the ice-cold floor.

Chapter 2415 – Ice-cold Killing Intent

---

“The red gaseous flames emitted by that member of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation are strange.”

“It seems like he has used a forbidden medicine.”

Although Kong Ruozeng had managed to prevail against Wang Qiang now, the bystanders were all disapproving of him.

All those that were able to be guests in the Kong Heavenly Clan were people with status and position. As such, they were also people with a lot of experience and knowledge.

Thus, they were all able to tell that Kong Ruozeng’s sudden increase in battle power was most likely due to him using a forbidden medicine. To win against one’s opponent by relying on a forbidden medicine, that was truly too shameful.

At that moment, not to mention the others, even some of the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan who had no idea what was going on felt very humiliated by Kong Ruozeng’s action.

At that moment, all kinds of discussions could be heard. The majority of them were voicing their disgust toward Kong Ruozeng’s actions.

However, Kong Ruozeng acted as if he couldn’t hear the discussions of the crowd. He looked at Wang Qiang and spoke with a proud and arrogant tone, “Admit defeat.”

“A-admit d-defeat?”

“G-go f-fuck yo-yourself!”

Not only did Wang Qiang not admit defeat, he instead spat a mouthful of spit at Kong Ruozeng again.

This time around, Kong Ruozeng was caught off guard. He only managed to dodge a portion of the spit, while the remainder landed on his clothes.

“I’m telling you to admit defeat!” As Kong Ruozeng spoke, he started twisting the weapon in his hand. Following his weapon, a powerful burst of martial power entered Wang Qiang’s body and started to wreak havoc all over.

“Puu~~~”

Affected by the martial power wreaking havoc throughout his body Wang Qiang sprayed a mouthful of blood and revealed an expression of pain.

“Admit defeat,” Kong Ruozeng said again.

“I-I a-admit... you to b-be my grandson. You d-damned unfilial g-grandson, r-relying on a forbidden medicine to w-win against y-your granddaddy, y-you have f-farts for skills! W-with merely y-your bits of a-ability, y-you actually c-came to find y-your granddaddy to spar with you? Y-you are truly as shameless as o-one can get,” Wang Qiang cursed loudly.

“I’ll teach you to talk back!” Kong Ruozeng suddenly brandished the Incomplete Ancestral Armament he held in his hand. Blood splattered as Wang Qiang’s arm was ruthlessly sliced off.

“This... this is too excessive.”

“That’s right, to win by relying on a forbidden medicine is unfair to begin with. Yet, he’s actually still acting this aggressive! This is simply too unreasonable!”

“Isn’t little friend Wang Qiang an honored guest invited by the Kong Heavenly Clan? Is this how one should treat one’s honored guest?”

“Is the Kong Heavenly Clan going to ignore this?”

Seeing this scene, the crowd were truly unable to watch it anymore. The guests started to voice their condemnation.

“Ruozeng, stop immediately.”

.....

There were many from the Kong Heavenly Clan that shouted at Kong Ruozeng to stop too.

However, no one acted to stop them. After all, Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu, two grand characters, were present. If the two of them did not act, the others had no qualifications to act.

“All of you, shut up! Since when was it allowed for you all to meddle in a spar between the younger generation?”

Right at that moment, Kong Moyu suddenly spoke. Not only was his tone very stern, he also faintly emitted his True Immortal-level oppressive might.

All of a sudden, the crowd present felt a chill run down their spines. Not to mention the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan, even the guests did not dare to say anymore.

After all, the one that had spoken was Kong Moyu, one of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders. He was a character that was famous throughout the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

However, after Kong Moyu spoke, the guests felt extremely dissatisfied in their hearts.

Kong Moyu was someone with a very high status. Yet, instead of coming forth to uphold justice, he discriminated in favor of his own clansman. This was clearly bullying another.

“Are you going to admit defeat or not? If you still refuse to admit defeat, I’ll kill you,” Kong Ruozeng said coldly. He actually really revealed killing intent in his eyes.

Kong Ruozeng had come here with the intention of taking care of Chu Feng. It was only because Wang Qiang had obstructed him that he had ended up being delayed for so long.

Furthermore, when he had fought against Wang Qiang, he suffered all sorts of humiliations from him. Being unable to win against Wang Qiang with words, he already felt enormous hatred for Wang Qiang in his heart.

And now, this Utmost Exalted Elder Kong Moyu was openly backing him up. Thus, Kong Ruozeng grew more courageous. If Wang Qiang were to still refuse to admit defeat, he would really kill Wang Qiang.

“Hahahaha...”

However, faced with Kong Ruozeng’s fatal threat, Wang Qiang burst into sudden laughter.

“If y-you want to k-kill me, then go a-ahead and kill me. If y-you want to c-cut off my flesh, g-go ahead and d-do so. If y-your g-granddaddy, I, a-am to b-blink once, I s-shall be y-your son,” Wang Qiang said.

“Very well, since you want to die this much, I will grant you your wish,” As Kong Ruozeng spoke, he raised his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and actually really planned to kill Wang Qiang.

“Bang~~~”

However, right at that moment, an overwhelmingly robust burst of martial power swept forth from the palace.

Everything occurred too suddenly. Before Kong Ruozeng could react, he was struck by the martial power and knocked flying several meters away.

“Kong Ruozeng, the one you’re trying to challenge is me, why do you insist on making things difficult for my brother?” The very next moment, a voice was heard.

Before the gazes of countless eyes, Chu Feng walked out from the palace with his Thunder Armor covering his body, his Thunder Wings extending out from his back and a rank two Martial Ancestor-level aura emitting from his body.

“Chu Feng! It’s Chu Feng!!!” Once Chu Feng appeared, cheerful and excited voices immediately sounded from the crowd. It was the guests.

They had come here precisely to meet Chu Feng. And now, they finally got to meet Chu Feng; naturally, they would be happy.

“Rank two Martial Ancestor. After using his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, Chu Feng’s cultivation is that of a rank two Martial Ancestor?”

“Doesn’t this mean that Chu Feng’s true cultivation is that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor?”

“Wasn’t it rumored that Chu Feng’s current cultivation was only that of a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor? How did he become a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor so quickly?”

“Could it be that he had succeeded in reaching breakthroughs while undergoing closed-door training here?”

“But, he seemed to have only entered closed-door training for a short period of time. Yet, he managed to reach two successive breakthroughs this quickly?”

“An extraordinary genius, Chu Feng is most definitely an extraordinary genius.”

Chu Feng’s cultivation shocked the crowd.

“Little friend Chu Feng actually managed to make two successive breakthroughs?” Compared to the others, Kong Shunlian was very certain that Chu Feng had been a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor before.

Thus, he was able to tell with certainty that Chu Feng’s current cultivation of rank nine Half Martial Ancestor was something that he had obtained in that short period of time.

However, that was something extremely astonishing. How could the way of martial cultivation be that easily grasped?

It would already be extremely incredible if one were able to reach a single breakthrough in cultivation in such a short period of time. To reach two successive breakthroughs was simply unheard of.

However, Kong Shunlian had no idea that the two successive breakthroughs Chu Feng had obtained were bestowed by their Kong Heavenly Clan's Lord Primogenitor.

At that moment, Kong Moyu spoke coldly, "Go, go to Elder Yuehua and ask her whether the intruder in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range is still there."

"Yes, Milord," That elder did not dare hesitate. He turned around, entered the void and began to fly toward the ancient pagoda.

At that moment, Kong Shunlian's heart tightened.

He knew that it would be one thing if the intruder was still in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. However, if the intruder was no longer there, it would mean that Chu Feng was the intruder.

If Chu Feng was the intruder, not even the Heavenly Emperor would be able to save Chu Feng today.

Upon thinking of that inheritance and then seeing Chu Feng's unimaginable cultivation, Kong Shunlian also grew skeptical.

He thought in his heart, 'little friend Chu Feng, the intruder that entered the Grief Calamity Mountain Range and seized the inheritance couldn't possibly really be you, right?'

Chu Feng had no idea what Kong Shunlian was thinking, nor was he interested in knowing. At that moment, there was only a single person in Chu Feng's eyes and mind: his brother, Wang Qiang.

He arrived before Wang Qiang and set up a healing formation that covered him. Soon, Wang Qiang stopped bleeding, and Chu Feng also reattached his severed arm. It was reattached perfectly, as if Wang Qiang's arm had never been severed.

Merely, the puddle of blood was still there. It was still a shocking sight.

“Brother, I’ve implicated you,” Chu Feng looked at Wang Qiang with an apologetic expression all over his face.

As for Wang Qiang, he revealed a grin, and then stood up. He patted off the dust from his clothes and, as if nothing had happened, said, “I-Implicated your h-head. L-Look at me, a-aren’t I f-fine?”

“Go and rest yourself properly. Leave the rest to me,” Chu Feng patted Wang Qiang on his previously injured left shoulder. Then, he looked to Kong Ruozeng behind him.

Merely, Chu Feng’s gaze had instantly changed the moment he had turned around.

If his gaze was filled with grief and apology toward his brother earlier.

Then, at this moment, there was only a single emotion in his gaze.

It was an extremely ice-cold emotion — killing intent!!!

Chapter 2416 – Betting Lives On The Battle

---

“Chu Feng, you finally dared to come out now?” Kong Ruozeng looked to Chu Feng with a gaze filled with grievances.

“Kong Ruozeng, you have wanted to spar against me the entire time. Today, I will satisfy you. However, I have a condition,” Chu Feng said.

“Condition? You’re not old, yet you have a lot of demands.”

“Well, whatever. Go ahead and say your condition. As long as you are willing to spar with me, I will agree to any condition,” Kong Ruozeng said in a disapproving manner.

“My brother Wang Qiang and I have arrived here as guests. As guests, we should abide by the rules of the host. As such, we did not want to provoke any quarrel.”

“However, you... you are truly too overbearing.”

“Earlier, not only did you torment my brother Wang qiang, you actually even wanted to actually kill him. Since you are so fond of killing others, I, Chu Feng, shall accompany you in this.”

“Today, I, Chu Feng, am willing to fight against you, Kong Ruozeng. However, I have a condition.”

“Unless either you or I are to die, this battle is not allowed to end,” Chu Feng’s gaze was burning like flames, and his voice echoed like thunder.

When the crowd heard what he said, they felt as if they had been struck by lightning.

“Ah? Not over unless one is to die? That would be a fight to the death.”

“Chu Feng, he actually wants to battle with their lives on the line against that member of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s younger generation?”

The crowd were all tongue-tied with their eyes wide open. They were stunned. It was not only the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan; even the bystanders were feeling endlessly shocked.

A spar and a fight to the death were two completely different things.

Even though Kong Ruozeng had indeed been excessive earlier, and Chu Feng's hatred and desire for revenge from seeing his brother being humiliated was also understandable, it remained that this was the Kong Heavenly Clan's territory.

To want to kill a Kong Heavenly Clan's genius in the Kong Heavenly Clan's territory, this was simply too brazen.

Chu Feng's action was simply akin to not placing the Kong Heavenly Clan in his eyes at all.

"I've heard that this Chu Feng is a man of real emotions, that he is someone that will fear nothing when he feels grievances in his heart. Seeing him today, he is actually truly as rumored."

"Although he might appear to be overly daring at first glance, his fearless attitude is something that ordinary people do not possess. Furthermore, the people who generally possess this trait are all people that will achieve greatness in the future. This Chu Feng is truly extraordinary."

"It has been a very long time since someone like Chu Feng has appeared in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm."

"It seems that my decision to come to the Kong Heavenly Clan was truly a correct one."

After a moment of astonishment, the guests all cast admiring gazes toward Chu Feng.

At the same time, their eyes were filled with anticipation. They had come precisely to see Chu Feng's graceful bearing. And today... they would soon be able to witness Chu Feng's strength, granting their desires.

“Why have you grown quiet? Are you scared?” Chu Feng saw that Kong Ruozeng was silent, and thus questioned him intensely.

“Bullshit!!!”

“How could I, a grand genius of the Kong Heavenly Clan, possibly fear you?”

Although Kong Ruozeng was trying to act tough with words, the cold sweat on his forehead betrayed him.

At that moment, he was indeed slightly scared.

If it were only a spar, he would not be afraid of Chu Feng. After all, the two of them possessed the same sort of inherited bloodline. As such, they should be equally matched.

Furthermore, as he had taken the forbidden medicine, his battle power should surpass Chu Feng’s enormously. As such... he was very confident in himself.

However, Chu Feng’s declaration of betting their lives from the get-go caused him to lose confidence in himself.

It was their lives they were talking about here. People only had a single life. If one’s life was lost, everything would be gone.

It just so happened that Kong Ruozeng was someone who feared death.

“Ruozeng, the men of our Kong Heavenly Clan fear nothing,” Right at that moment, Kong Moyu suddenly spoke.

His intention was very obvious. Chu Feng had come here as a guest. Thus, even if they were truly capable of proving that Chu Feng was the intruder, it would still remain unsuitable for them to attack Chu Feng without sufficient proof.

However, Chu Feng had taken the initiative to prompt a battle to the death. With that, they would be able to borrow Kong Ruozeng’s hands to kill Chu Feng.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, please rest assured. I, Kong

Ruozeng, will definitely not bring shame upon our Kong Heavenly Clan,” Seeing that Kong Moyu had spoken, Kong Ruozeng immediately grew confident.

Thus, he turned his gaze around and then said loudly, “The many seniors here today can bear witness to both Chu Feng and myself.”

“I, Kong Ruozeng, only wanted to spar against Chu Feng. Yet, he insisted on a battle to the death. This is a condition that he proposed. I am merely agreeing to it.”

“Thus, even if I am to kill him later, it will not be our Kong Heavenly Clan treating our guest inconsiderately. Rather, it is him who proposed an unreasonable demand.”

After Kong Ruozeng finished saying those words, Kong Moyu nodded in a satisfied manner. He could tell that Kong Ruozeng had understood the implied meaning behind his words, and had deliberately said those words to place Chu Feng in the wrong.

“What a great ‘not your Kong Heavenly Clan treating your guest inconsiderately’. If that is the case, how are you to explain your manner of conduct towards my brother Wang Qiang?”

“Are you to say that this is what you mean by treating your guests considerately?”

“It turns out that this is how the Kong Heavenly Clan treats their guests. Today, I, Chu Feng, have truly gained knowledge,” Chu Feng sneered.

Although the bystanders did not say anything after hearing what Chu Feng said, they all nodded their heads to express their agreement.

In fact, many of the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan lowered their heads in shame.

After all, they had all seen what had happened earlier. As such, they were well-aware of who was in the right and who was in the wrong.

“Enough of your nonsense. Since you want a battle to the death, come, let’s start.”

Kong Ruozeng knew that he would not win against Chu Feng in an argument. Thus, he decided not to speak, and directly started to attack Chu Feng.

“Boom~~~”

A slash sliced across the sky, cutting the air itself in two. Even the clouds in the sky were sliced in two.

It was a Taboo Martial Skill. Although it was only a Mortal Taboo Martial Skill, it still possessed extremely impressive might.

At such close range, the Mortal Taboo Martial Skill was able to unleash its full potential.

It could be said that Kong Ruozeng had seized a decisive opportunity by attacking first.

“Perfect timing.”

However, faced with that attack, Chu Feng remained calm and composed.

He flipped his palm, and the Magma Emperor Sword appeared in his hand. He swept his sword toward the sky, and immediately brought forth a blaze.

“Boom~~~”

The next moment, Chu Feng’s slash collided with Kong Ruozeng’s slash.

Kong Ruozeng’s slash was destroyed.

Yet, not only was Chu Feng’s slash still present, it also possessed remnant power. At that moment, the remaining might of Chu Feng’s slash was violently moving to cut down Kong Ruozeng.

“Amazing!!!”

Seeing this scene, the guests present all began to voice praises.

Some among them even started to applaud and cheer for Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because both Chu Feng and Kong Ruozeng had used Mortal Taboo Martial Skills. However, it was evident that Chu Feng's Mortal Taboo Martial Skill had surpassed Kong Ruozeng's.

"Humph," Kong Ruozeng was not to be outdone. He did not dodge to avoid Chu Feng's slash, and instead waved his Incomplete Ancestral Armament again.

"Rumble~~~"

Once his slash was sent forth, the sky turned dark. Black clouds gathered. The earth trembled, and even space itself shattered from the vibration.

Earthen Taboo Martial Skill. Kong Ruozeng had unleashed a very powerful Earthen Taboo Martial Skill.

"Very well, I'll play with you."

However, faced with Kong Ruozeng's attack, Chu Feng did not feel the slightest amount of fear. He took a step forward and shot forth a palm strike.

In an instant, the pitch black sky brightened. The black clouds that filled the sky dissipated in an instant.

Chu Feng had also unleashed an Earthen Taboo Martial Skill. Not only did his Earthen Taboo Martial Skill successfully defeat Kong Ruozeng's Earthen Taboo Martial Skill, there was once again lingering might moving toward Kong Ruozeng.

"Damn it!"

At that moment, Kong Ruozeng did not have the time to unleash a counterattack. Thus, with no other option, he unleashed a movement martial skill and soared into the sky to avoid Chu Feng's attack.

"Trying to escape?" Chu Feng smiled coldly, and then soared into the sky after Kong Ruozeng.

“Escape? What a joke! How could I, Kong Ruozeng, possibly fear you?” Kong Ruozeng refuted with a sneer.

“Rumble~~~”

The very next moment, Chu Feng pointed at Kong Ruozeng with his Magma Emperor Sword. Then, a fire dragon was shot forth.

This fire dragon was several hundred meters long. Carrying with it a might as if it were capable of devouring the sky, it rushed toward Kong Ruozeng.

Chapter 2417 – The Outcome Of The Battle Has Been Decided

---

The fire dragon soared into the sky. Immediately, the temperature started rising. Even space itself was burned to a fiery red color.

“Damn it!”

After Kong Ruozeng boasted, he had originally wanted to display his might by defeating Chu Feng.

However, at that moment, he had no choice but to turn to escape. The reason for that was because that fire dragon was not only extremely powerful, but also extremely fast. Furthermore, the distance between him and Chu Feng was very close. As such, he simply had no chance to unleash a counterattack.

If Kong Ruozeng did not flee, he would definitely be struck by Chu feng’s attack. If he was struck, even if he managed to survive, he would definitely be injured.

However, never did Kong Ruozeng imagine that Chu Feng would continue to not give him the opportunity to fight back.

Following that fire dragon, Chu Feng began to unleash multiple Taboo Martial Skills in succession. They forced Kong Ruozeng to flee all over the sky, trapping him in a dilemma.

“Ssss~~~”

At that moment, the surrounding crowd were all unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

Kong Ruozeng was a genius at martial cultivation. Else, it would be impossible for him to have fought against Wang Qiang for so long. As he had taken a forbidden medicine that increased his battle power, it made it so that very few people with the same level of battle power could contend against him.

However, it was precisely such a Kong Ruozeng that was beaten fleeing by Chu Feng after a mere two exchanges. He actually no longer possessed the ability to fight back. With that being the case, they could naturally imagine how powerful Chu Feng was.

Thus, not to mention the guests, even many of the Kong Heavenly Clansmen started to have a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng.

They were all subdued by Chu Feng's strength.

"He is truly qualified to be known as a genius."

Some of the elderly individuals among the crowd began to look at Chu Feng with eyes filled with praise.

A Kong Heavenly Clan's elder turned to ask Kong Shunlian, "Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, Ruozeng took a forbidden medicine. His battle power has reached the limits of rank two Martial Ancestors. How is that Chu Feng... still able to suppress Ruozeng like this?"

"While it is true that Ruozeng's battle power has reached the limits, it does not mean that Chu Feng's battle power would be inferior to Ruozeng's. Furthermore... there is one aspect regarding Chu Feng that surpasses Ruozeng," Kong Shunlian said.

"Which aspect?" That elder asked.

"Chu Feng's understanding and mastery over his martial skills is extremely exquisite. It greatly surpasses that of Ruozeng."

"This is the first time that I have encountered a Half Martial Ancestor-level expert who is able to utilize martial skills to this degree. It is precisely because Chu Feng's comprehension and mastery toward martial skills surpasses that of ordinary people that he has managed to completely suppress Ruozeng after unleashing his martial skills," Kong Shunlian explained.

"That Chu Feng, he's actually that powerful?"

After hearing Kong Shunlian's explanation, the Kong Heavenly Clan's elders beside him all started to have a whole new level of respect for Chu Feng.

If one only possessed overwhelming battle power, it would only mean that one was gifted in martial cultivation. However, that would not amount to anything too extraordinary. After all, a lot of the Heavenly Bloodline possessors possessed overwhelming battle power.

However, to be able to comprehend martial skills to such a degree would mean that individual was not only gifted with talent, but also possessed great comprehension ability. A genius like that would be very rarely seen, even among the Heavenly Bloodline possessors.

"Indeed, he's amazingly powerful. Else, how would he be able to become famous throughout the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm in such a short period of time, and even obtain Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance?" Kong Shunlian said.

"Regardless of how amazing he might be, if he has snatched away our Kong Heavenly Clan's inheritance, he will still die today," Suddenly, an ice-cold voice sounded. It was a voice transmission that entered the Kong Heavenly Clan's elders' ears. That voice shattered the current atmosphere.

It was Kong Moyu. At that moment, Kong Moyu was staring at Chu Feng. His ice-cold gaze grew colder and colder. Merely by looking at his gaze, one would tremble with fear.

"Lord Utmost Exalted Elders," Right at that moment, space slightly trembled. Then, a figure appeared.

Upon seeing that person, Kong Shunlian, Kong Moyu and some of the elders present revealed tense expressions.

The reason for that was because this elder was precisely the elder that Kong Moyu had dispatched to inquire about the situation at the ancient pagoda.

What he said would determine Chu Feng's life and death.

"How was it? Is that intruder still inside?" Kong Moyu asked.

"Lord Utmost Exalted Elders, Lady Yuehua said that the intruder has appeared again. Furthermore, that intruder is currently inside the Grief Calamity Mountain Range," That elder replied.

"Ah?" Hearing those words, Kong Moyu immediately revealed a disappointed expression. Then, he asked, "Are you certain?"

"Lord Utmost Exalted Elder, as this matter is of the utmost importance, this junior would not dare to be careless. I have asked Lady Yuehua three times, and received the same answer each time."

"On the way back, Lady Yuehua even said that she had wrongly accused Chu Feng. She told me to tell Lord Utmost Exalted Elders that you two must definitely stabilize the situation and return Chu Feng's innocence to him," That elder said.

Hearing those words, Kong Shunlian did not say anything. However, he was unable to keep himself from heaving a long sigh of relief. From the bottom of his heart, he did not wish for Chu Feng to be related with that intruder.

And now, the boulder on his heart was finally lifted.

"This is bad," At that moment, Kong Moyu also revealed a worried expression. He took a glance at Wang Qiang, and then took a glance at Chu Feng.

Then, he looked to Kong Shunlian and said, "Brother Shunlian, it seems that you were correct. I truly never expected for that girl Kong Qiuci, that girl who had been honest all these years, to tell such an enormous lie to all of us for the sake of her disappointing son and husband."

"I will definitely look into this matter, and not forgive them easily,” After saying those words, Kong Moyu cast a glance at Kong Ruozeng’s parents, Kong Yao and Kong Qiuci, in the distance. Anger filled his eyes.

However, he soon turned his gaze to Kong Shunlian again. With a wry smile, he said, “However, the situation at hand has already reached this point. Thus, I will have to trouble you to explain this matter to little friend Chu Feng.”

“Rest assured, I know how to handle this. What we should do now is just continue watching the battle,” Kong Shunlian said with a smile. Then, he turned his gaze to the battle in the sky again.

“Heavens!”

“This is truly too...”

Upon seeing the scene in the sky, the elders’ expressions all changed to one of utter astonishment.

In merely a blink of an eye, Kong Ruozeng was forced into a corner by Chu Feng. Even though he was still fleeing nonstop, there were already many wounds on his body.

There were cut marks, burn marks and even marks of being struck by lightning.

Most importantly, the crimson gaseous flames that were interwoven with the lightning covering his body were gradually disappearing.

Following the disappearance of those crimson gaseous flames, Kong Ruozeng’s aura grew weaker and weaker.

As for Chu Feng, his attacks grew fiercer and fiercer.

“It would seem that Ruozeng’s forbidden medicine is starting to lose its effect. The outcome of this battle is decided,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s elders started to shake their heads and sigh.

Today, they of the Kong Heavenly Clan had truly been humiliated.

“Wuuahh~~~”

Right at that moment, a scream was heard. One of Chu Feng’s slashes had landed on Kong Ruozen.

Like a loose kite, Kong Ruozen spun in the sky. Then, he ruthlessly fell to the ground.

Thick smoke immediately filled the air. However, by looking through the smoke, the crowd were able to see that Kong Ruozen’s left shoulder and left arm had both been sliced off.

Blood was bubbling from his wound, and his aura grew extremely weak. An expression of pain filled his face.

“Bang~~~”

Right at that moment, a figure suddenly landed from the sky and ruthlessly stepped on Kong Ruozen’s legs, shattering them.

“Chu Feng, I admit defeat, I admit defeat!!!” Kong Ruozen endured the pain and started to strenuously beg for forgiveness.

“Indeed, you’ve lost. However, I’m not going to spare you.”

Chu Feng was expressionless toward Kong Ruozen’s begging for forgiveness before his deathbed. Instead, he slowly swung his Magma Emperor Sword.

In the end, Chu Feng’s Magma Emperor Sword was aimed at Kong Ruozen’s dantian.

Chapter 2418 – Kong Ruozeng's Death

---

“Father, mother, save me! Save me!!!”

Kong Ruozeng started to panic after seeing that Chu Feng was determined to kill him. He hurriedly cried for help from his parents.

“Little friend Chu Feng, please stop. We can talk things out. You must absolutely not kill him,” Kong Ruozeng's parents immediately started to plead for him.

It was not only Kong Ruozeng's parents who spoke; others from the Kong Heavenly Clan also started to plead for leniency.

Kong Ruozeng was, after all, their Kong Heavenly Clan's genius. He was someone that was rare to come by in many years. As such, they would naturally not wish for Kong Ruozeng to die just like that.

“Shut up!!!” Right at that moment, Kong Shunlian shouted. Then, he said, “They have already decided on a battle to the death. For you all to beg for forgiveness now, are you planning to utterly humiliate our Kong Heavenly Clan?!”

Once Kong Shunlian said those words, all of the Kong Heavenly Clans' clansmen shut their mouths.

They had already realized what Kong Shunlian meant. That is, he planned to have Kong Ruozeng die.

“Lord Utmost Exalted Elder.”

While others did not dare say anything, Kong Ruozeng's parents were unwilling to give up. With no other option, they turned their gazes to Kong Moyu.

Kong Moyu was the only hope that they had to save Kong Ruozeng.

“Shut up, you all actually have the nerve to ask me for help?”

Kong Moyu shouted angrily and swept forth his oppressive might.

His oppressive might knocked Kong Ruozeng's parents hundreds of meters away. When they landed, both of them vomited blood. They had been seriously injured.

"This..." Seeing that scene, no one dared to have the slightest thought of pleading for Kong Ruozeng anymore.

However, right at that moment, Kong Moyu looked to Chu Feng and said, "Little friend Chu Feng, it is fine for you to kill Kong Ruozeng. After all, he has brought this upon himself."

"However, this old man does hope that you can be lenient. After all... it is a life that we're talking about here. Furthermore, there is not that much of a hatred between the two of you."

Once Kong Moyu said those words, the people that were worried about Kong Ruozeng heaved a sigh of relief.

Kong Moyu's intention was very clear. He could punish Kong Ruozeng, and even punish Kong Ruozeng's parents. However, he still wished that Chu Feng would spare Kong Ruozeng.

What sort of status did Kong Moyu possess? What sort of existence, what sort of character, was he?

After he spoke, the crowd all felt that the situation had been decided. They felt that Chu Feng would not go against Kong Moyu's desire.

They felt that he would, to a greater or lesser degree, give Kong Moyu face.

However, who would've thought that Chu Feng would completely ignore Kong Moyu's words. It was as if he did not hear them at all.

Chu Feng's gaze was still fixed onto Kong Ruozeng.

Furthermore, the hand that he held his Magma Emperor Sword with was clenching tighter and tighter.

“Puu~~~”

“Ahhh~~~”

Suddenly, the sword descended. Blood splattered everywhere, and Kong Ruozeng let out a miserable scream.

The Magma Emperor Sword Chu Feng held in his hand had pierced into Kong Ruozeng's body. Although it had yet to destroy his dantian, it had already pierced into it.

This scene deeply frightened the bystanders.

Kong Moyu had already spoken. Could it be that Chu Feng was planning to go against Kong Moyu's desire?

Could it be that Chu Feng was really planning to kill Kong Ruozeng in the Kong Heavenly Clan's territory?

That... would be truly too audacious!!!

“Little friend Chu Feng, are you really insistent on killing him?” Kong Moyu frowned and revealed a displeased expression.

“Senior, why are you not allowing me to kill him?” Chu Feng asked.

“I never said that I wouldn't allow you to kill him. If you insist on killing him, I will not stop you.”

“Merely... It remains that it is a life that we're talking about here. He still has parents he has to look after. Thus... I still hope that you can think over your decision.”

“Very well. What you have said is very reasonable. Merely, why did you not say those words when this Kong Ruozeng planned to kill my brother Wang Qiang earlier?”

“Could it be that you do not consider my brother Wang Qiang's life as a life?” Chu Feng asked.

“.....” Kong Moyu was left speechless. He did not know how to answer Chu Feng's question, and his expression grew gloomy.

At that moment, many of the bystanders started to feel cold sweat for Chu Feng.

Even though what Chu Feng said was reasonable, it remained that the person he was speaking to was Kong Moyu. What Chu Feng did was simply putting Kong Moyu on the spot.

Chu Feng turned around and saw that Wang Qiang was looking at him with a smile.

This was the first time that Chu Feng saw Wang Qiang urging him not to kill someone.

However, Chu Feng knew very well what sort of character Wang Qiang was. He was someone who feared nothing, someone who was willing to sacrifice himself for his friends.

However, the more loyal Wang Qiang was to his friends, the more determined Chu Feng was to kill Kong Ruozen.

Suddenly, the corners of Chu Feng’s lips lifted into a smile. He said to Wang Qiang, “Brother, today, I, Chu Feng, am precisely planning to play it big.”

“Else, the people of the world will really think that we brothers are people who are easily bullied.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, killing intent suddenly flashed through Chu Feng’s eyes. Abruptly, the Magma Emperor Sword he held in his hand descended.

“Puchi,” Chu Feng’s Incomplete Ancestral Armament completely penetrated Kong Ruozen’s dantian.

Soon, Kong Ruozen’s aura was completely gone. Like clay, he spread onto the ground. He was dead.

He was killed by Chu Feng with his sword.

At that moment, heaven and earth grew completely silent.

Even though the crowd were already able to tell that Chu Feng was determined to kill Kong Ruozeng, they still felt endless astonishment after Kong Ruozeng was actually killed by Chu Feng.

After all, Kong Ruozeng was a genius of the Kong Heavenly Clan, and this place was the Kong Heavenly Clan itself!!!

“I’ll kill you!!!” Suddenly, a furious roar exploded in the sky.

Boundless martial power and intense killing intent swept forth from the sky. It was coming straight for Chu Feng.

It was Kong Yao. He was planning to kill Chu Feng to avenge his son.

“Wuuahh~~~”

However, before Kong Yao could approach Chu Feng, he was knocked flying by a strong burst of power.

It was Kong Shunlian.

“It was your son who caused this upheaval. It’s also your son who personally agreed to a life and death battle against Chu Feng. You and your wife were also present when he agreed.”

“At that time, neither of you said anything. Yet now, you want to reveal your might? Do you not know what it means to accept one’s losses?”

“Or could it be that you feel that your son’s actions today were not humiliating enough? You, as his father, still seek to avenge him? Are you planning to utterly disgrace our Kong Heavenly Clan?!”

At that moment, Kong Yao grew silent.

At the same time, many of the Kong Heavenly Clansmen moved forward and surrounded Kong Yao. They began to earnestly advise and console Kong Yao.

As for Kong Yao, even though he was filled with unwillingness, he was still able to understand the situation at hand. Even though he felt endless fury in his heart, he no longer tried to attack Chu Feng.

“All of you, listen carefully. If anyone dares to cause troubles for Chu Feng and Wang Qiang again, I will cripple their cultivation,” Kong Shunlian said those words with his oppressive might.

His oppressive might surged forth, and his voice echoed. Everyone closed their mouths. They could tell that Kong Shunlian was serious.

After Kong Shunlian said those words, the guests present all nodded their heads to display their approval.

At the very least, there was still a person in the Kong Heavenly Clan who was willing to support Chu Feng.

“Qiuci, go and bring Ruozeng back,” Kong Shunlian said.

At that moment, Kong Qiuci was feeling a pain like a knife being twisted in her heart. She was shedding tears like falling rain. Slowly, she walked toward Chu Feng.

At that moment, the guests started to worry again.

Even Kong Shunlian’s gaze was tightly fixed onto Kong Qiuci.

They were afraid, afraid that Kong Qiuci would also try to avenge her son and attack Chu Feng after approaching him.

However, Chu Feng did not have any intention to move away from the slowly approaching Kong Qiuci.

Instead, as he looked at Kong Qiuci’s tear-stained face, he actually felt pain in his heart.

This was maternal love, something that Chu Feng had never experienced before. Yet, Kong Ruozeng had possessed maternal love.

Chu Feng realized that he had destroyed the happiness of Kong

Ruozeng's family. Likely, from today onward, Kong Ruozeng's parents' hearts would be shadowed.

However, Chu Feng did not regret killing Kong Ruozeng.

To have a family, paternal love and maternal love was definitely not an excuse for one to commit malicious deeds.

Thus, when faced with his enemy, Chu Feng would never show compassion.

Chapter 2419 – Major Event

---

Kong Qiuci finally arrived before Chu Feng.

The bystanders all held their breath.

However, to the crowd's surprise, she did not attack Chu Feng.

Instead, she bowed to Chu Feng in a very apologetic manner. Then, she said, "I'm sorry."

Hearing those words, not to mention the others, even Chu Feng was startled.

Chu Feng had clearly killed Kong Qiuci's son and left her in enormous pain, like a knife being twisted in her heart, with tears filling her face. She should be feeling enormous hatred and fury toward Chu Feng. Yet, why was it that she did not attack Chu Feng, and instead apologized to him?

However, compared to the confusion the rest of the crowd was feeling, Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu's gazes turned complicated.

While others did not understand why Kong Qiuci apologized to Chu Feng, the two of them did.

Unable to help themselves, they said in their hearts, 'Qiuci is, after all, Qiuci. Her nature is still good and honest. It is truly unfortunate.'

After Kong Qiuci finished saying those words, she picked up Kong Rouzeng's corpse and began to walk away.

She knew that they had brought this result upon themselves, and could not blame others. Even though her son had been killed, it remained that it was their fault. After Kong Qiuci and Kong Yao brought Kong Rouzeng's corpse away together, the bystanders also began to leave one by one.

However, when they recalled that Chu Feng had really killed a Kong Heavenly Clan's genius in the Kong Heavenly Clan, their hearts were unable to remain calm.

What had happened here today was destined to spread. Once word of the matter spread, it would definitely create an enormous sensation in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

After all, a guest staying in the Kong Heavenly Clan killing someone from the Kong Heavenly Clan was something that had never happened before.

At that moment, only three people remained in the palace. They were Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Kong Shunlian.

“Senior, you have also borne witness to what happened here today. Although senior treated us brothers very well, the rest of the people in the Kong Heavenly Clan still felt deep hatred for us brothers.”

“Today, it was only Kong Ruozeng that came to attack us. However, if it turns out in the future that the ones to attack us are no longer people of the younger generation, but people that we brothers cannot handle, what are we to do then?”

“Thus, senior, we brothers actually do not wish to continue to stay here,” Chu Feng said to Kong Shunlian.

Chu Feng was not afraid that there would be retaliation against him after killing Kong Ruozeng. He felt that the Kong Heavenly Clan was not stupid enough to retaliate against him for only that.

What Chu Feng was worried about was that his intrusion into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range would be exposed.

Thus, to Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, the current Kong Heavenly Clan was most definitely a tiger's den. As it would be extremely dangerous for the two of them to stay in a tiger's den, Chu Feng would naturally want to leave immediately.

“Truth be told, little friend Chu Feng, some things have happened in our Kong Heavenly Clan. At this time... not to mention guests, even our own Kong Heavenly Clansmen are not allowed to leave. I will not stop two little friends from leaving. However, please stay for a few more days so that we can handle this matter first,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Since that’s the case, we’ll do as senior says,” Chu Feng felt helpless, but nodded his head.

Chu Feng was currently lacking confidence. He had no idea how much the Kong Heavenly Clan knew about what had happened in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

With what Kong Shunlian had said, if Chu Feng still insisted on leaving right away, it would instead make him appear more suspicious. As such, he could only reach a compromise and agree to stay.

“Two little friends, I...”

Suddenly, Kong Shunlian’s expression turned complicated. It seemed as if he wanted to say something. However, he had no idea how to start. Thus, he suddenly clasped his fist at Wang Qiang and Chu Feng as he sighed, “This old man has let you two down in regards to what has happened today.”

After he finished saying those words, Kong Shunlian soared into the sky and left. He did not give Chu Feng and Wang Qiang the opportunity to reply.

Actually, Kong Shunlian had a lot of things he wanted to say. Merely... he felt that he had no face to say those words. In fact... he felt ashamed to even look at Chu Feng and Wang Qiang for an extended period of time.

After Kong Sunlian left, Wang Qiang walked toward Chu Feng and said, “B-Brother, it s-seems that y-you’ve succeeded?”

“Yes, it was a success. However, I still ended up creating some troubles. I think that I’ve already been exposed slightly, and they have already grown suspicious of me.”

“The way I see it, Kong Ruozen provoking us this time around was no longer of his own accord. Rather, it was what the Kong Heavenly Clan wanted,” Chu Feng said.

“I c-can tell. O-Otherwise, w-why would no one t-try to stop him when t-there were so many grand c-characters present? N-no, Elder Kong Shunlian tried to stop him. M-merely, he w-was stopped b-by that old man.”

“A-Actually, t-this E-Elder Kong Shunlian is n-not bad,” Wang Qiang said with a laugh. It was as if all that had happened earlier didn’t matter to him.

“That’s true. Sandwiched between his clan and us, he has been placed in a truly difficult situation. As a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan, to be able to accomplish what he did must not have been an easy task,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

Neither Chu Feng or Wang Qiang blamed Kong Shunlian.

“Not mentioning this, brother, you were clearly able to easily kill Kong Ruozen. Why did you not do so, and instead allow yourself to be bullied?” Chu Feng asked Wang Qiang.

“That guy used a f-forbidden medicine t-that pushed his battle power ab-above mine,” Wang Qiang said.

“He possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation, whereas yours is capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, why did you deliberately conceal one level?” Chu Feng asked.

Chu Feng had already discovered this when Wang Qiang’s cultivation had increased to rank one Martial Ancestor. Merely, he did not point it out bluntly.

“Hehe, s-so you’ve a-already discovered it. Y-your powers o-of observation are t-truly remarkable,” Wang Qiang scratched his head as he laughed.

“I truly don’t understand you,” Chu Feng looked at Wang Qiang and Confusion filled his heart.

With Wang Qiang's battle power, not to mention Kong Ruozeng, even the current Chu Feng would not be a match for him.

However, Wang Qiang had deliberately concealed his true strength. Even after Kong Ruozeng had cut off his arm and planned to kill him, Wang Qiang still did not reveal his battle power that was capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation. This caused Chu Feng to feel very puzzled.

"I-I've said it b-before, I-I like to e-enjoy an amusing l-life. T-Thus, d-don't worry too much about this. You m-merely need to keep in mind that Kong Ruozeng cannot k-kill me," Wang Qiang said with a mischievous smile.

"I truly don't know what to do with you," Seeing Wang Qiang's expression, Chu Feng felt helpless.

Right at that moment, Her Lady Queen's mischievous voice suddenly sounded. "Perhaps this guy was deliberately allowing you to be in the limelight. It seems that he's truly in love with you. It's no wonder that demonic woman Zhao Hong is jealous."

"Milady Queen, please don't scare me," Hearing those words, Chu Feng's body became covered with goosebumps.

Thinking about it, Wang Qiang was truly extremely good to him; it was so strong that it surpassed that of ordinary people.

Due to the fact that Wang Qiang was a man, this would naturally mean a brotherly affection. However, if he were a woman, it would become something completely different.

However, with how enormous the world was, nothing would be too bizarre. Furthermore, Chu Feng had indeed heard that there were men who liked men.

Seeing Wang Qiang laughing this happily even after being clearly oppressed by Kong Ruozeng today, Chu Feng inevitably felt his heart tighten.

However, the misgivings Chu Feng had soon disappeared. He recalled how lustful Wang Qiang appeared when he saw beauties, and concluded that he did not resemble someone who liked men.

“B-Brother, s-since they’ve grown suspicious of us, w-wouldn’t it b-be very d-dangerous for us to stay here? How a-about the t-two of us t-try escaping?” Wang Qiang said.

“Indeed, it’s very dangerous. However, if we try to escape right away, we will definitely not be able to escape. Thus, we must set up that Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation once again,” Chu Feng said.

“Hehe, b-brother, w-we’re thinking the same thing,” Wang Qiang said.

Neither Chu Feng or Wang Qiang were people that wanted to resign themselves to fate. And now, the only thing capable of helping them escape would be the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

The two of them did not dare to hesitate. Immediately, they started to jointly set up the spirit formation.

.....

However, they had no clue that the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had returned to the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Furthermore, he had gathered all of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s upper echelons in one place. Even the Utmost Exalted Elders that were in closed-door training were summoned by him.

Even though the Kong Heavenly Clansmen had no idea what their Lord Clan Chief planned to do, the fact that even their Utmost Exalted Elders that were in closed-door training were summoned meant that this... was absolutely no small matter.

Something major had most definitely occurred.

Chapter 2420 – Must Kill Chu Feng

---

Inside the most extravagant and grand palace of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Not only were Kong Shunlian and Kong Moyu present, but even the other two Utmost Exalted Elders who were still in closed-door training had appeared as well.

At that moment, other than Kong Yuehua, four of the five Utmost Exalted Elders were all present.

Furthermore, practically all of the peak Martial Ancestor-level experts of the Kong Heavenly Clan were gathered here too.

Their gazes were all fixed on a single person inside the palace hall.

It was a white-haired old man with tidy clothes.

While that individual had the appearance of an old man, he emitted an extraordinary aura, the aura of a king.

Most importantly, not only was that old man a True Immortal-level expert, his aura was also much more powerful than Kong Shunlian's or Kong Moyu's.

He... was a rank two True Immortal.

As for that man, he was none other than the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, Kong Jitian.

“Lord Clan Chief, if the inheritance has truly been snatched, this is definitely no small matter. This old man is willing to personally enter the Grief Calamity Mountain Range to capture that intruder,” Kong Moyu said to the clan chief.

“The intruder triggered a slaughtering formation and died,” Right at that moment, Kong Yuehua walked in.

“Elder Yuehua, is what you said the truth?” Kong Shunlian asked.

“Absolutely. The change to the ancient pagoda’s spirit formation will not be mistaken. The intruder was indeed killed by a slaughtering formation,” Kong Yuehua said.

“If he is really dead, wouldn’t it mean that the inheritance Lord Primogenitor left for us has also been...”

“Truly, damn it!” Kong Moyu felt endless heartache when he thought about the fact that the inheritance might have disappeared along with that intruder.

“Elder Moyu, don’t be too pessimistic. Although an abnormal sign appeared in the sky, it does not necessarily mean that the intruder managed to seize our inheritance.”

“Since that intruder was actually killed by the slaughtering formation, it means that his abilities were not that heaven-defying either.”

“Lord Primogenitor is, after all, our Lord Primogenitor. We must be confident in him,” Kong Yuehua said.

“But... it is still possible that the inheritance has been snatched, no?” Kong Moyu was still worried.

“Lord Clan Chief, regardless of whether or not the inheritance has been snatched, it remains that an intruder has trespassed into our Grief Calamity Mountain Range. This is no small matter. We must definitely strengthen the defenses around the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. Lord Clan Chief, please make a decision,” Kong Moyu said to their Lord Clan Chief.

“Since that intruder has died, we will leave this matter to the side for now. It will not be too late for us to discuss this again later. The reason for that is because, compared to the inheritance being snatched or not, I have something more important that I must discuss with everyone,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

Once he said those words, the expressions of the crowd present all changed.

An outsider getting into their Grief Calamity Mountain Range was no small matter at all. Yet, their Lord Clan Chief actually declared that there was something more important than that. As such, how could they not be startled?

“It concerns our Kong Heavenly Clan’s continued existence,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said with a stern expression.

Once the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief declared those words, the expressions of the elders all changed enormously. Some among them were so frightened by those words that their complexions turned blue, and their bodies started shivering.

For it to concern the continued existence of the Kong Heavenly Clan, this was definitely an enormous matter.

“Everyone, do you all remember that Grandmaster Prophet had declared that in the next hundred years, an exceptional genius would appear in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, and that said genius will bring about our Kong Heavenly Clan’s destruction?” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“We naturally remember that. But, wasn’t it declared that the exceptional genius was Young Master Li Ming?” Someone said.

“Young Master Li Ming is the person we guessed to be that exceptional genius. However, Grandmaster Prophet has not managed to prophesy the name of that genius.”

“However now, Grandmaster Prophet has managed to prophesize who will cause the destruction of our Kong Heavenly Clan,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Who?” The crowd asked in unison.

As that individual concerned the continued existence of the Kong Heavenly Clan, as long as they knew who that individual was, the people present would definitely disregard their lives and put everything on the line to eliminate that individual.

“Chu Feng,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Chu Feng?!” Hearing those words, the expressions of many of the people present changed.

However, in terms of who was shocked the most, it would be none other than Kong Shunlian.

“Lord Clan Chief, are you certain about this? Little friend Chu Feng does not seem to possess any enmity toward our Kong Heavenly Clan,” Kong Shunlian said.

“I left so urgently this time around because Grandmaster Prophet wanted to meet me. He indicated that he had prophesied that the person who would bring about the destruction of our Kong Heavenly Clan was Chu Feng.”

“Till this date, when has Grandmaster Prophet ever failed in a prophecy?” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“But, Lord Clan Chief, little friend Chu Feng is an honored guest invited over by our Kong Heavenly Clan. Must we really kill him?”

“Right now, the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm knows that little friend Chu Feng is staying in our Kong Heavenly Clan as a guest. If we are to kill him, what will the people of the world think of our Kong Heavenly Clan?”

“Furthermore, it is not as if Chu Feng does not possess a backer. Everyone, do you all still remember the old monk that appeared in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds?” Kong Shunlian said.

Actually, Kong Shunlian had not been present when the plain-clothed monk had appeared to back Chu Feng.

However, as of now, that matter was something that the Kong Heavenly Clan and the other three tier one powers knew very well.

They all knew that standing behind Chu Feng was a plain-clothed old monk, a True Immortal-level expert.

Actually, the reason why the Kong Heavenly Clan had tried so hard to invite Chu Feng over that day was precisely so that they could pull a relationship with Chu Feng's True Immortal-level backer.

"Chu Feng is indeed a rare genius. Back then, I ordered you to invite him precisely so that we could rope him in."

"That is also precisely the reason why I gathered everyone here to discuss this," The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

"Lord Clan Chief, there's no need for discussion. Since we are certain that Chu Feng will be a threat to our clan, we should directly kill him."

"So what if he possesses a True Immortal backer? Our Kong Heavenly Clan has existed for so many years, since when have we not had True Immortals?"

"Furthermore, after killing Chu Feng, we can put a crime on his face. For example, we can forcibly declare him to be the intruder."

"Back then, we were even able to erase that Ying Mingchao and his Hero City, and make it so that no one dared to mention them again within a thousand years."

"Could the current Chu Feng possibly be even more popular with the masses than Ying Mingchao from back then? Could he possibly be stronger than Hero City?" Kong Moyu asked.

"That's true. Since Grandmaster Prophet has already prophesied that Chu Feng will bring a disaster upon our Kong Heavenly Clan, we absolutely cannot let him live,” The crowd began to voice their agreement.

“But, Chu Feng is different from Ying Mingchao. The Ying Mingchao from back then already had the intention to rule over the world. Furthermore, he declared that he would eliminate our Kong Heavenly Clan. He was someone who really did pose a threat to our Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“As for the current Chu Feng, he does not harbor any malice towards our Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“Furthermore, we can only be certain that plain-clothed old monk is a True Immortal, and cannot be certain as to how powerful he really is. What if he is not a rank one True Immortal?” Kong Shunlian said.

“Even if he might be a rank two True Immortal, so what? Our Lord Clan Chief is also a rank two True Immortal.”

“Furthermore, we also possess the Zhou Heavenly Clan as our allies. Although our relationship is not as good as before, the Zhou Heavenly Clan will definitely not refuse to help us during this moment of our life and death. Don’t forget, we are on the same boat,” Kong Moyu said firmly.

“What Elder Moyu says is reasonable,” The crowd nodded their heads to express their agreement.

“It seems that everyone has come to a decision,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Lord Clan Chief, there’s no need to hesitate. Kill that Chu Feng,” The crowd said in unison.

At that moment, Kong Shunlian’s heart tightened. He hurriedly asked, “Lord Clan Chief, are you really determined to kill Chu Feng?”

“Elder Shunlian, I know that you are the one who invited Chu Feng over. Now that we want to kill Chu Feng, it will indeed place you in a very difficult situation.”

“However, this matter concerns the continued existence of our clan. As such, I have no other options.”

“Chu Feng must be killed. Even if we are to have our reputation swept away, he must still be killed. Even if he possesses a powerful backer, he must still be killed. He absolutely cannot be left alive.”

“And now, he is actually in our Kong Heavenly Clan as a guest. This is the best opportunity to kill him. We absolutely cannot miss it,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Lord Clan Chief, this subordinate requests that he be allowed to go and kill Chu Feng.”

“Lord Clan Chief, I will go and kill Chu Feng right now.”

Seeing that their Lord Clan Chief was determined to kill Chu Feng, countless voices requesting permission to kill Chu Feng sounded in the palace hall.

However, right at that moment, Kong Shunlian’s voice sounded again. “Since I am the one who invited Chu Feng over, I should be the one to settle his life.”

Chapter 2421 – Believe it or Not

---

“Elder Shunlian, you want to personally kill Chu Feng?”

Hearing those words, the expression of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief changed. He truly never expected that Kong Shunlian would request to personally kill Chu Feng.

“As this matter concerns our clan’s continued existence, this subordinate is ready to put his life on the line,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Brother Shunlian, it is better that I take care of this matter,” Kong Moyu said.

Kong Moyu harbored hatred toward Chu Feng because of Chu Feng contradicting him. Thus... he wanted to personally kill Chu Feng.

“I have a plan that will allow us to kill Chu Feng and prevent others from speaking ill of our Kong Heavenly Clan,” Kong Shunlian said.

“What is it?” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

Actually, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had come here to discuss the matter with his clansmen mainly because he was worried about two things.

Firstly, he was worried about that plain-clothed old monk supporting Chu Feng.

Secondly, Chu Feng was currently their Kong Heavenly Clan’s guest. If they were to kill Chu Feng directly in their Kong Heavenly Clan, it would most likely be talked about by others.

If Kong Shunlian really did possess a method to avoid others from speaking ill of their Kong Heavenly Clan, it would naturally be for the best.

“If we are to allow Chu Feng to leave, and then tail him to assassinate him, it might be possible that we will fail. After all, Chu Feng is an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, and Grandmaster Kai Hong's successor. Perhaps he possesses abilities we do not know of."

"Thus, I feel that it would be best to kill Chu Feng in our clan," Kong Shunlian said.

"Indeed," The crowd nodded to express their agreement.

"However, if we are to kill Chu Feng in our Kong Heavenly Clan, we will inevitably be talked about by others. Thus, I have a very simple plan. I will shoulder the blame," Kong Shunlian said.

"You will shoulder the blame? How?" Kong Yuehua revealed a worried expression.

"Since Chu Feng wants to leave, we will let him leave. I can accompany him in the name of seeing him off. Then, on the way, I will kill him," Kong Shunlian said.

"If that Chu Feng is to die while you are escorting him out, our Kong Heavenly Clan will definitely not be able to clear our involvement," Kong Moyu said.

"I can put my own name on the line and shoulder the crime of killing him," Kong Shunlian said.

"You absolutely mustn't. If you are to do that, you will be chased after and killed by that plain-clothed old monk. Our Kong Heavenly Clan will not be able to keep you safe. Your entire life's reputation will be ruined," Kong Yuehua said.

"My life and reputation simply cannot be compared with the future of our Kong Heavenly Clan at all," Kong Shunlian said.

"Brother Shunlian, in that case, you intend to bring Chu Feng and Wang Qiang out first. However, who can guarantee that you will not release them after bringing them out of the Kong Heavenly Clan?" Kong Moyu sneered.

“Then, are you suggesting that we must kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang in our Kong Heavenly Clan, that we must have our Kong Heavenly Clan shoulder the reputation of being disloyal and unjust?” Kong Shunlian asked in return.

“That is naturally not my intention. Merely... I do not trust you.”

“After all, before this, you have defended Chu Feng many times. Even when Ruozeng was killed by Chu Feng, you did not even help plead for Ruozeng. Rather, you were leaning toward Chu Feng,” Kong Moyu said coldly.

“I trust you,” However, right at that moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief spoke.

“Lord Clan Chief!!!” Kong Moyu’s expression changed enormously. He wanted to say something.

Before Kong Moyu could finish what he wanted to say, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief swept his gaze across the crowd and asked, “To sacrifice himself for the sake of our clan, which among you all is capable of doing that?”

At that moment, everyone, including Kong Moyu, grew silent.

They all knew what sort of consequences they would have to bear if they were to personally shoulder the blame of killing Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

Not to mention that mysterious plain-clothed old monk, there might be many righteous individuals in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that would start to chase after them to kill him.

Death would be the only way out.

However, that would not be the worst. Worst of all, their reputation would be completely swept away. This would even affect their descendants. As such, none of them wanted to shoulder such infamy.

Thus, it was as their clan chief said, none of them were capable of doing that.

“Merely, Elder Shunlian, are you really planning to do that? This would be extremely wrong of you to do, no?” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“Lord Clan Chief, this Shunlian only possesses an aged life. I will not be able to live for much longer anyways.”

“I have not done much for our clan in my life. If I am able to contribute greatly to our clan before my death, it would serve to settle a cherished desire that this old man has,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Since that’s the case, Elder Shunlian, when do you plan to act?” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“This matter is extremely important. It is better done sooner than later. I will let Chu Feng out today and kill him while escorting him away,” Kong Shunlian said.

“In that case, we will have to trouble Elder Shunlian with this. In the future, even if you are not part of our Kong Heavenly Clan on the surface, we will still secretly protect you,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“No, after this matter is decided, I do not require any protection. Regardless of whether it is in name or in actuality, I will no longer be a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

After he finished saying those words, Kong Shunlian directly walked out from the palace hall and began to proceed toward Chu Feng and Wang Qiang’s residence.

At that moment, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were originally wholeheartedly setting up the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

However, with the sudden arrival of Kong Shunlian, the two of them had no choice but to conceal the spirit formation and go out to greet Kong Shunlian.

After Kong Shunlian entered the guest hall, he looked to his surroundings in a very stern manner. After he was certain that there was no one outside the palace monitoring them, ‘putt,’ Kong Shunlian kneeled before Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

“Senior, what are you doing?” Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had startled expressions.

“Little friend Chu Feng, little friend Wang Qiang, this old man is incompetent,” Kong Shunlian said with a very apologetic expression.

Chu Feng and Wang Qiang looked to one another. Then, they asked together, “Senior, exactly what has happened?”

Kong Shunlian actually did not try to conceal the truth, and began to tell Chu Feng and Wang Qiang exactly what had happened.

This included Grandmaster Prophet’s prophecy and the Kong Heavenly Clan’s decision, as well as him telling the Kong Heavenly Clan that he would personally kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

However, there was one thing that the Kong Heavenly Clan did not know. That was that he, Kong Shunlian, was not truly planning to kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

Rather, he was trying to seize this opportunity to safely escort Chu Feng and Wang Qiang out of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Preposterous! T-They a-actually want to kill us b-brothers because of a bullshit p-prophet’s p-p-prophecy. What utter ridiculousness!” Wang Qiang felt endlessly furious.

“Indeed, it is ridiculous. However, it appears that the Kong Heavenly Clan have already decided,” Compared to Wang Qiang, Chu Feng was much more calm.

“Thus, you two must leave the Kong Heavenly Clan right now. I will escort the two of you out,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Senior, if you are to do that, you will be making an enemy of the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Chu Feng said.

“Heh...” At that moment, Kong Shunlian chuckled. It was a very profound laughter, “I have long since wanted to sever my relationship with this unrighteous and unjust clan. It’s merely because of my gratitude toward some of my seniors that I couldn’t bear to leave.”

“Little friend Chu Feng, little friend Wang Qiang, I am able to tell that you two are not people that would willfully slaughter innocents. I can tell that you are not malicious or evil.”

“I am the one that brought the two of you here. It is I who brought you two to this tiger’s den. As such, I should be the one to bring you two away. Else, this old man will not feel at ease.”

“Well then, there’s no need to continue to hesitate. The matter is already decided.”

“I will go and announce the matter of the two of you leaving the Kong Heavenly Clan right now. Then... I will escort the two of you out,” After Kong Shunlian said those words, he walked out.

“B-Brother, can we t-trust this old guy?”

“He wants the two of us to o-openly go out, he p-plans to have e-everyone know that we brothers are leaving the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“B-but, w-what if he i-is to a-attack us in the shadows?”

“If t-the two of u-us are to die in the Kong Heavenly Clan, the Kong Heavenly Clan will have to shoulder the infamy.”

“If we are to die outside the Kong Heavenly Clan, it will be unrelated to the Kong Heavenly Clan,” Wang Qiang said to Chu Feng. He did not trust Kong Shunlian.

“What you are worried about is precisely what I am worried about.”

“But, throughout the entire Kong Heavenly Clan, who else other than Kong Shunlian are we able to trust?”

“If we are to trust him, it might be possible that he will really escort us out.”

“However, if we do not trust him, it will be as he said. The Kong Heavenly Clan will disregard everything to kill us.”

“If that’s the case, the two of us will really end up dying here,” Chu Feng said.

“T-Then, y-you are s-suggesting that w-we do as he says?” Wang Qiang asked.

“Let’s give it a try. If he is truly trustworthy, we will be able to safely escape. We will naturally also remember his grace.”

“However, if he schemes to kill us enroute, the two of us are not fish on the chopping block that he can easily slaughter either.”

As he said those words, Chu Feng took out his Evil God Sword and held it in his hand.

At that moment, the Evil God Sword trembled slightly, as if it understood everything. It began to emit layer upon layer of powerful aura that was transmitted through Chu Feng’s palm to Chu Feng.

It was as if the Evil God Sword was telling Chu Feng that it was prepared for a massacre.

Chapter 2422 – Imminent War

---

After Kong Shunlian deliberately spread the news of Chu Feng and Wang Qiang leaving the Kong Heavenly Clan, everyone soon came to know about it.

The people outside the Kong Heavenly Clan were confused as to why Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were leaving. However, the people staying in the Kong Heavenly Clan as guests were all able to call the reason to mind.

The way they saw it, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were originally the most honored of all honored guests to have appeared in the Kong Heavenly Clan. However, they had been provoked by Kong Ruozeng. Thus, it could be said that they had not received the treatment they should have received as honored guests.

Even if it were anyone else, they too would be angered, and would most likely no longer want to stay.

However, they had no idea that the actual reason why Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were leaving was because a great catastrophe was going to befall them.

The Kong Heavenly Clan wanted to kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang. The decision to leave was the only way out for them.

Furthermore, they could not publicise this matter; they must conceal the fact that the Kong Heavenly Clan wanted to kill them.

If this matter were to be made public, the Kong Heavenly Clan would disregard everything and openly kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

After the news of their departure was announced, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang publicly left the Kong Heavenly Clan.

As for Kong Shunlian, he gave the reason that he did not want others to bother Chu Feng and Wang Qiang to escort them away.

With a True Immortal-level expert bringing Chu Feng and Wang Qiang away, they instantly disappeared. As such, the guests that wanted to curry favor relationships with Chu Feng and Wang Qiang no longer possessed the opportunity to do so.

One by one, they all prepared to leave that place with disappointment in their hearts.

However, right at the moment when the crowd was planning to leave, a sudden voice transmission entered the guests' ears.

“Everyone, don't be so urgent to leave. Instead, pretend to leave and then proceed toward the southeast. At that place... not only will you all see little friends Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, you will also be able to see the true identity of the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

Once that voice sounded, everyone that heard that voice transmission revealed a change in expression. Some people even planned to question who it was that had sent the voice transmission.

However, the following moment, that voice sounded in the crowd's ears again.

“Do not ask who I am, and do not disclose what I have said. Else... none of you will be able to see anything, and you may even... face life-threatening danger.”

Regarding those words, some people felt it to be a prank. Although they did not disclose it, they also did not believe it, and decided to leave directly.

However, there were also a lot of people that did believe it. After all, they had waited for Chu Feng for such a long time already.

If they were to leave now, they would really have come here for nothing.

However, if they were to listen to the person who had sent that voice transmission and proceed toward the southeast, they would, at the very least, have a chance of seeing Chu Feng again. Thus, they all wanted to give it a try.

.....

At that moment, Kong Shunlian was escorting Chu Feng and Wang Qiang and rapidly heading toward the southeast.

The speed of True Immortals was truly fast. In merely the blink of an eye, they had left the Kong Heavenly Clan's range of influence.

However, Kong Shunlian suddenly stopped. With an ice-cold gaze, he stared into the empty sky behind him. He said, "Why have you been following me this entire time?"

Once Kong Shunlian said those words, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang's hearts tightened. Chu Feng also started to tightly grip the Evil God Sword he held in his hand. They had both become aware that the situation was amiss.

Sure enough, after Kong Shunlian said those words, the sky that originally did not have a single soul in sight started to tremble slightly. Soon, three figures appeared.

These three people were all Utmost Exalted Elders of the Kong Heavenly Clan. Like Kong Shunlian, they were all True Immortal-level experts.

Two among them were individuals who had just left closed-door training. As for the third individual, the person leading the group of three, he was Kong Moyu.

"Brother Shunlian, if you do not act now, how long are you planning to wait?" Kong Moyu said to Kong Shunlian.

"I said that I'll do it, so I'll definitely do it. You, on the other hand, why did you follow me? Could it be that you do not trust me?" Kong Shunlian asked coldly. At that moment, dense anger filled his gaze.

"It is not that we do not trust you. Merely, Chu Feng's life and death concerns our clan's continued existence. As such, we must treat this matter cautiously," Kong Moyu said with a light smile. Then, he said, "Go on. Kill him. Do it, and everything will be settled."

"G-go f-fuck yourself! My b-brother's life and death concerns y-your clan's con-continued existence? Do y-you think my b-brother is your ancestor?" Wang Qiang cursed loudly.

"What insolence!" Kong Moyu narrowed his eyebrows. He did not raise any wind or move any clouds. There was no change to heaven and earth. In fact, one could not feel the slightest bit of martial power.

However, at that moment, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang both felt an extremely frightening killing intent moving toward them from all sides.

That killing intent was extremely powerful. It was as if, in the very next moment, they would die without a corpse remaining.

"Woosh~~~"

Right at that moment, Kong Shunlian, who stood before Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, raised his arm. Immediately, the killing intent disappeared.

"Kong Moyu, what is the meaning of this?" Kong Shunlian asked coldly.

At that moment, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang came to a realization that the frightening killing intent they felt earlier had not been a baseless sensation.

Rather, it had been caused by Kong Moyu.

Without even moving, Kong Moyu was able to emit a killing intent that frightening. Furthermore, he did not cause the slightest change to the weather around them.

Fortunately, Kong Shunlian was there. Else, Chu Feng and Wang

Qiang would most likely be dead already.

Thus, Chu Feng started to grip his Evil God Sword even tighter. He was uncertain as to whether or not his Evil God Sword would be able to contend against True Immortals.

After all, True Immortals were existences that had surpassed the limits of mortals. The title of ‘Immortal’ was not a baseless claim. They were indeed extremely powerful.

“What is the meaning of this? That is what I should be asking you. It’s one thing for you to not kill them, but you actually dare to stop me from killing them. Sure enough, you were planning to escort them away, and not actually trying to help our clan eliminate harm,” Kong Moyu said angrily.

“Brother Shunlian, the safety of our clan surpasses everything else. You should quickly settle them. Else... do not blame us for not taking our old affection into consideration.”

“Brother Shunlian, you’re on your own.”

The other two Utmost Exalted Elders also spoke.

“Heh...”

At that moment, the already furious Kong Shunlian raised his mouth into a smile. Following that, the anger in his eyes grew even more intense.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Kong Shunlian flipped his palm, and a silver spear appeared in his hand.

“Rumble~~~”

Once that spear appeared, the weather immediately changed. Lightning flashed and thunder rolled. It was as if the entire world was being controlled by Kong Shunlian’s weapon.

It was an Ancestral Armament, an actual Ancestral Armament.

Being held by Kong Shunlian, that Ancestral Armament was able to completely unleash the pinnacle of its power.

“I am the one who invited the two of them here. I have sworn that I will ensure their safety.”

“If you all insist on killing them, you must kill me first,” Kong Shunlian said.

“Sure enough, you’re planning to betray our clan,” At that moment, dense killing intent emerged in Kong Moyu’s eyes.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

The next moment, Kong Moyu and the other two Utmost Exalted Elders also took out their respective Ancestral Armaments.

At that moment, the entire region was controlled by the aura of four True Immortal-level experts. Violent wind burst forth, and torrential rain dashed down. Even the earth itself was trembling violently. In fact, even the space around them started to shatter.

It was as if that region would be turned into hell the next moment.

“Brother Shunlian, you must consider this properly. To betray one’s clan is an enormous crime. We possess the authority to execute you on the spot,” An Utmost Exalted Elder said.

“Even if I am to die, I will still protect the two of them, allowing their safe departure,” Kong Shunlian said.

Kong Shunlian was very calm when he said those words. It could be seen that he had already made his decision.

Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were moved. As matters stood, they were able to ascertain of Kong Shunlian’s character.

To think that Kong Shunlian would actually fall out with his clan for the two of them, two outsiders, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang were extremely moved.

“Brother Shunlian, although we’re all rank one True Immortals, you're going against three by yourself. Say... how certain are you in being able to defeat us?" The other Utmost Exalted Elder mocked.

The intention behind his words was that Kong Shunlian would definitely be defeated.

"Who told you that he was fighting against three by himself?"

Right at that moment, a voice suddenly sounded from behind Kong Moyu and the others.

Chapter 2423 – Origin Life Treasure

---

“Who is it?!”

The sudden voice surprised Kong Moyu and the other two Utmost Exalted Elders. They hurriedly turned their heads.

Right at that moment, the space behind them started to distort. Soon, a figure appeared.

That person had the appearance of a middle-aged man. Not only was he wearing the outfit of the Kong Heavenly Clan, but he also had a Kong Heavenly Clan’s title plate on his waist.

As for his cultivation, it was peak Martial Ancestor.

Not to mention Kong Moyu and the other two Utmost Exalted Elders, even Kong Shunlian knew that man.

However, when they looked at that man, their eyes were filled with alertness.

If that man were truly only a peak Martial Ancestor, it would be impossible for him to have kept up with their speed. Thus, they were certain that the man before them was not the same man that they knew. Most likely, he was someone disguised as their Kong Heavenly Clansman.

“Exactly who are you?” Kong Moyu asked coldly. The way he saw it, since his clansman was disguised, it meant that his clansman was most likely already dead.

“Who I am is not important,” As that mysterious man spoke, he removed his clothes and the title plate on his waist and tossed them far away.

At that moment, his appearance started to change. He had turned into a man with a face filled with scars and indeterminable facial features. That mysterious man was still hiding his identity.

“Then why are you here? Why are you pretending to be someone from our Kong Heavenly Clan?” One of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders asked.

“Why I am here is also not important. What is important is that I have infiltrated your Kong Heavenly Clan for many days.”

“Furthermore, it just so happened that I was also present when you all conducted that secret meeting.”

“Thus, I also know about your Kong Heavenly Clan’s decision to eliminate Chu Feng merely from a single prophecy from Grandmaster Prophet.”

“Woosh~~~”

Right after that mysterious individual finished saying those words, the Ancestral Armament Kong Moyu held in his hand was swept forth.

In an instant, a sword ray flashed through the air as martial power roared. Space was shattered and the earth caved in. That frightening power proceeded to bombard that mysterious individual.

That Kong Moyu... was planning to silence the mysterious man.

“Humph.”

That mysterious individual waved his sleeve. Then, a long sword appeared in his hand.

Following that, a powerful radiance swept through space and the void. It forcibly blocked Kong Moyu; that True Immortal’s, attack.

That long sword was an Ancestral Armament.

Most importantly, the fact that the mysterious individual was capable of blocking Kong Moyu’s attack meant that... he was at least a rank one True Immortal.

“You’re trying to silence me? It’s useless. Unless you are to kill all of the guests here, otherwise... the matter of what has happened here today is destined to spread,” That mysterious individual laughed a strange laughter.

Sure enough, a large group of people were approaching from far away. Those were the people who had received the mysterious man's voice transmission. They were people who did not know about the truth, but decided to check things out.

“Quickly, look, there's a battle over there.”

“It seems like a major event is indeed happening. That person who sent us the voice transmission did not deceive us.”

“Those attacks were so powerful. They don't resemble something that Martial Ancestors could accomplish. Could it be... True Immortals?”

“True Immortal? Isn't that the Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elder Kong Shunlian then?”

“Even legendary True Immortals are fighting. Exactly what is happening?”

“Could it be that little friends Chu Feng and Wang Qiang are in danger?”

The devastation brought forth by a battle between True Immortals was simply too powerful. Even though the approaching crowd was still very far away, they still managed to discover it.

Upon seeing that frightening devastations, a small portion of those people became afraid. They hurriedly turned around to leave. After all, True Immortals were too powerful. They were afraid that they would be implicated in the battle, and meet miserable deaths.

However, the great majority of the crowd decided to stay. They all wished to see exactly what was happening.

Thus, not only did they not turn around, they instead began to use their various abilities to increase their speed, so as to rapidly reach the place where Chu Feng and the others were.

.....

“You’ve already made this matter public?” Kong Moyu narrowed his eyebrows. A faint ominous glint was flashing in his scheming eyes.

“What’s wrong? Are you scared? Since you dared do something like this, you shouldn’t be scared,” That mysterious individual said with a light laugh. Faced with Kong Moyu, who was already intent on killing him, this mysterious man did not show the slightest bit of fear.

“Exactly who are you?!” The other two Utmost Exalted Elders of the Kong Heavenly Clan asked in unison. Like Kong Moyu, their eyes were also brimming with killing intent.

“Who I am doesn’t matter. All you have to know is that I will be ensuring Chu Feng’s safety today,” That mysterious man said.

“Clank~~~”

After he finished saying those words, that mysterious man clenched the Ancestral Armament in his hand and took the initiative to rush toward Kong Moyu and the two Utmost Exalted Elders.

“You wish to protect Chu Feng? I fear that you’ll be powerless to protect even yourself,” Kong Moyu sneered. Then, he collided with that mysterious man.

That direct confrontation between the two True Immortals wreaked havoc throughout the entire region. Their oppressive might caused heaven and earth to tremble nonstop.

Their attacks brought forth violent energy ripples that caused the winds to rise, blew away the clouds and formed lightning in the sky. It was as if a doomsday storm was engulfing that region.

That place could no longer be considered the mortal world. Rather, it was more akin to hell itself, a hell filled with the power of death.

“I’ll stop him, the two of you go and kill that traitor Kong Shunlian,” Kong Moyu shouted to the two other Utmost Exalted Elders as he fought the mysterious man.

Those two Utmost Exalted Elders did not hesitate. They hurriedly surrounded Kong Shunlian. However, they did not attack him directly. Instead, they asked, “Brother Shunlian, are you still going to be this set on doing things this way? Betraying our clan?”

“I will not kill you all. However... you all can forget about killing little friends Chu Feng and Wang Qiang today.”

After Kong Shunlian finished saying those words, he took out a copper bowl. Once he raised the copper bowl, it turned into a ray of golden light that enveloped Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

Although that golden light was transparent in nature, it still maintained the shape and veined patterns of the copper bowl.

Most importantly, as they were basked in the golden light, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, these two Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, felt an incredible sense of safety.

This copper bowl was a protective treasure. It would only allow the people inside to leave, and not others from outside to enter.

Most importantly, the defense of that copper bowl was extremely powerful. It was as if even True Immortal-level experts would not be able to breach it.

As for what surprised Chu Feng and Wang Qiang the most, it was that the copper bowl was filled with a familiar aura; it was Kong Shunlian’s aura.

It was as if this copper bowl was Kong Shunlian.

“B-Brother, c-could it be, t-this bowl?” Wang Qiang sensed the abnormality too, and looked to Chu Feng.

“Senior Kong Shunlian has decided to protect us even if he must sacrifice himself,” At that moment, Chu Feng looked to Kong Shunlian. Admiration and the feeling of being emotionally moved filled his hearts.

Both Chu Feng and Wang Qiang had noticed the special aspect of the bowl.

Without a doubt, this bowl was a treasure. However, if that were all it was, the bowl would not really be able to withstand the attacks of True Immortals.

The reason the bowl possessed such strong defensive power was deeply related to Kong Shunlian.

Kong Shunlian had used his life as the price to link with the treasure.

In other words, unless Kong Shunlian was killed... the strength of this bowl would not decrease.

To put it simply, Kong Shunlian’s action of placing the copper bowl over Chu Feng and Wang Qiang meant that he was going to protect them with his life.

However, Kong Shunlian had only known Chu Feng and Wang Qiang for a short period of time.

Yet, he actually, for the sake of not letting down his own conscience, decided to go against his clan, making them enemies, and putting his life on the line to protect Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

As such, how could Chu Feng not be moved? In fact, even Wang Qiang was looking at Kong Shunlian with a complicated gaze now.

Chapter 2424 – The Truth Revealed

---

“Brother Shunlian, you actually used a life origin treasure to protect them? Do you really not care about dying?” Seeing the copper bowl, the two Utmost Exalted Elders revealed astonished and difficult expressions.

As they were members of the same clan, they had already anticipated that Kong Shunlian might end up betraying their clan.

However, they did not make preparations to actually kill Kong Shunlian.

“We’ve known each other for so long, do you all still not understand me, Kong Shunlian? You can either let me and these two little friends leave together today, or kill me together with them,” Kong Shunlian said with a beaming smile.

Kong Shunlian did not show the slightest bit of cowardice or fear when he said those words. Instead, those words sounded more like a jest.

The current Kong Shunlian no longer feared death. He had truly made the decision to protect Chu Feng and Wang Qiang with his life.

“Brother Shunlian, to tell the truth, we truly cannot bear to kill you.”

“However, the interest of our clan surpasses everything else. Today... even if we cannot bear to kill you, we will still attack you with the intent to kill,” After these words were said, the two Utmost Exalted Elders both unleashed attacks at Kong Shunlian.

“Then come, and let’s battle to our heart’s content,” Holding his Ancestral Armament in his hand, Kong Shunlian collided with the two Utmost Exalted Elders.

At this moment, it was no longer only two True Immortals fighting in this region. Instead, it had become a battlefield with five True Immortals fighting.

The might of the battlefield instantly increased by manyfold. The frightening energy ripples also expanded their range.

Furthermore, the people that had come to visit Chu Feng had also managed to gradually approach the battlefield.

However, as they saw the darkened sky and earth, and the surging black clouds that rapidly flashed with dazzling light, they simply did not dare to approach the battlefield.

“What frightening might. This old man was fortunate to have witnessed a confrontation between two True Immortals. However, their might is far inferior to this. It would appear that the True Immortals fighting today are even more powerful. Exactly what is happening?”

The crowd did not dare to approach, and could only watch from afar. In this sort of situation, the great majority of them were simply unable to see exactly what was happening.

“Allow this old man to have a look.”

Right at this moment, an old man wearing a cloak moved to the front of the crowd.

After this old man appeared, many people started to scoff at him. There were a lot of people present. Thus, although they possessed all different sorts of cultivation, many of them were peak Martial Ancestors.

When even peak Martial Ancestors were unable to determine the situation of the True Immortals' battle, how could this old man possibly possess the capability to do so?

Seemingly knowing the crowd's misgivings, the old man removed the hood over his head and revealed his appearance.

This was a dark-skinned, horse-faced, white-skinned old man that emitted an extraordinary aura.

Upon seeing this old man, the expressions of the crowd all changed.

This old man was called Zhuge Mingren. He was a grand character.

What did the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm lack the most? That would be none other than Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. As for this Zhuge Mingren, he was a Snake Marked Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he could be said to be a very renowned individual.

“Everyone, don’t be anxious. This old man will observe what is happening.”

Zhug Mingren’s gaze started to shine like two small lights.

His shining gaze was able to see through the surging energy ripples that were wreaking havoc and creating dust storms throughout the battlefield.

Gradually, Zhuge Mingren was able to clearly see what was happening on the battlefield.

“This... it’s actually the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders who are fighting,” Zhuge Mingren revealed an astonished voice.

“What? The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders?” Hearing those words, the crowd were also endlessly astonished.

“That’s right, Kong Shunlian is fighting against Kong Moyu and two other Utmost Exalted Elders.”

“However, Elder Kong Shunlian is not alone either. There is another person helping him.”

“Merely, that individual assisting Elder Kong Shunlian is someone who I'm unfamiliar with. However, that individual is also a True Immortal-level expert."

"Likely, that individual must be a senior who has withdrawn from worldly affairs for a very long time."

"Chu Feng and Wang Qiang are also present. Currently, they are being protected," Zhuge Mingren told everyone all that he managed to see.

"Crap! Kong Moyu and the others are actually planning to kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang," Zhuge Mingren was, after all, a Snake Marked Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Merely by looking at the movements of their mouths, Zhuge Mingren was able to tell what they were saying.

"They're actually planning to kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang? Why are they doing this?" The crowd was both confused and astonished by this. This news was truly too explosive.

One must know that Chu Feng was the Kong Heavenly Clan's honored guest who had just left the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Earlier, the Kong Heavenly Clan had seen him off enthusiastically. As such, how could they decide to kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang the very next moment?

"They're saying something like Chu Feng concerns the Kong Heavenly Clan's continued existence. Furthermore, it seems that this is related to Grandmaster Prophet," Zhuge Mingren had no idea what was happening, and could only learn a bit from the conversation between Kong Shunlian, Kong Moyu and the others.

"Everyone, don't bother guessing anymore. It is Grandmaster Prophet, he prophesied that Chu Feng would bring about the destruction of the Kong Heavenly Clan."

"Thus, the Kong Heavenly Clan is planning to kill little friend Chu Feng, who possessed neither hatred nor grievances against their Kong Heavenly Clan, merely because of that one prophecy."

“The Kong Heavenly Clan is simply incomparably selfish. They are unqualified to be known as an upright power, a tier one power.”

Right at this moment, a thunder-like voice sounded from the battlefield and entered the crowd’s ears.

It was that mysterious individual. That mysterious individual had noticed that the crowd had approached the battlefield, and knew that they must be guessing what was happening. Thus, he took the initiative to reveal the truth to the crowd.

“Abominable! The Kong Heavenly Clan actually wants to kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang merely because of a prophecy?”

“Chu Feng and Wang Qiang are rare geniuses of our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. They are existences that could potentially become the second Grandmaster Kai Hong, the second Zhan Haichuan.”

“Humph, no wonder the Kong Heavenly Clan refused to allow us to see little friends Chu Feng and Wang Qiang. Turned out they planned to kill them to begin with.”

“The way I see it, it’s simply not because of a prophecy. Instead, it’s because the Kong Heavenly Clan is jealous of Chu Feng and Wang Qiang’s talent. They are afraid that they will suppress their Kong Heavenly Clan once they mature. Thus, they want to strangle their growth by killing them before they mature.”

“That’s right. Thinking about it, Lord Ying Mingchao’s death back then was also extremely fishy.”

“Though the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan declared that Lord Ying Mingchao was the one who wanted to kill them, that they only managed to kill Lord Ying Mingchao after resisting him with their all, it remains that that was only what they declared to have happened.”

“As for what truly happened, we simply have no idea at all. The only pitiful thing is that Hero City was destroyed by the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan just because of that.”

“That’s right. What happened back then was extremely suspicious. It was only because the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Ying Heavenly Clan were so powerful that no one dared to say anything.”

“Yet today, this Kong Heavenly Clan actually wants to kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, two rare geniuses. We absolutely cannot allow them to get away with this.”

“That’s right. We cannot allow them to get away with this. I will immediately spread word of this matter. We cannot let Chu Feng and Wang Qiang die like this.”

Upon knowing the truth, the crowd was furious. After all, these were all people who had come here for Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

At this moment, many people chose to leave. They were not trying to escape. Rather, they planned to quickly spread news of this matter. They hoped that they could attract the attention of True Immortal-level experts to help save Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

Chapter 2425 – The Reveal Of The Demon Armament

---

“Those people were drawn here by you?” Kong Moyu also noticed that there were a lot of bystanders observing their battle from afar. He determined that their plot to kill Chu Feng and Wang Qiang was already exposed. As such, he became so furious that his complexion turned deathly pale.

At the same time, Kong Moyu’s killing intent grew even stronger, and his attacks fiercer. He wanted to defeat and kill that mysterious man as quickly as possible.

Unfortunately, that mysterious individual was not to be trifled with.

The mysterious individual held a long sword in his hand and began to unleash all sorts of sword martial skills with utter perfection.

The sword flashed around and sword rays surged forth.

Even though Kong Moyu was very strong, he was unable to defeat that mysterious man.

“If you don’t want anyone to know, don’t do it. Since you’ve already done it, why do you fear that others will know?” That mysterious individual mocked and ridiculed.

“Even if everyone in the world is to know this, Chu Feng must still die today!” Kong Moyu shouted and actually turned to attack Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.

However, before his attack could reach Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, it was neutralized by that mysterious individual.

“Your opponent is me. If you want to harm them, you must pass through me first,” That mysterious individual said.

“Damn you!” Kong Moyu gnashed his teeth in fury. However, he was unable to break free from the mysterious individual. Thus, he could only shout to the other two Utmost Exalted Elders, “What are you two still dilly-dallying for?! Quickly kill Kong Shunlian and then eliminate that Chu Feng and Wang Qiang.”

In fact, being one against two, Kong Shunlian was currently in a disadvantaged situation where he could only defend.

Merely, his opponents had yet to fight with the intent to kill. Else... Kong Shunlian would really unable to persist for much longer.

“Brother, i-it seems that t-the rumor is true,” Wang Qiang said to Chu Feng.

“What rumor?” Chu Feng asked.

“T-The r-rumor a-about possessors of Heavenly B-Bloodlines like you h-having their strength r-restricted after reaching the True Immortal realm,” Wang Qiang said.

“I don’t think that’s a rumor. Rather, it should be the truth. Else... being all True Immortal-level experts and with the Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhou Heavenly Clan possessing Heavenly Bloodlines, how could they be standing on equal footing against the Immortal Sword School and Buddha’s Heavenly Temple?” Chu Feng said.

The so-called rumor was that when Heavenly Bloodline possessors reached the True Immortal Realm of cultivation, they would lose their Heavenly Bloodline’s power.

This so-called power actually only meant the Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, as well as the Lightning Mark from the Nine Lightnings Fusion.

The Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings could be said to be the strongest abilities of Heavenly Bloodline possessors.

The reason for that was because those two abilities would directly increase one’s cultivation upon activation.

For example, right now both Kong Moyu and that mysterious individual were rank one True Immortals.

If Kong Moyu were to activate his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, he would be able to instantly increase his cultivation to rank three True Immortal. At that time, how could the mysterious individual possibly contend against him?

The reason why Kong Moyu had yet to use those abilities was not because he did not wish to use them. Rather, it was because he could not use them.

The reason for that was because his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings had already been restricted.

Thus, this was not a rumor, but rather a fact.

In fact, not only could he not use his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, he couldn't even utilize his Lightning Mark.

“Wuuahh.”

Suddenly, Kong Shunlian vomited a mouthful of blood. His right leg had been pierced through.

“Brother Shunlian, it is still not too late to turn around now,” One of the Utmost Exalted Elders said.

“Ever since I made this decision, I never planned to turn back,” As Kong Shunlian spoke, the injury to his right leg was instantly healed. It was as if he had never been injured.

“In that case, don't blame us for being ruthless,” After those two Utmost Exalted Elders said those words, they revealed killing intent for the first time.

It appeared that both of them had made their decisions — they were really planning to kill Kong Shunlian.

This was, however, understandable. From their point of view, they had to kill Chu Feng.

Yet, Kong Shunlian was protecting Chu Feng and Wang Qiang with his Origin Life Treasure. As such, unless they were to kill Kong Shunlian, they would not be able to breach the Origin Life Treasure.

Seeing that scene, Chu Feng's gaze grew stern. He took a step forward and planned to step out of the treasure protecting them.

“Chu Feng, you must reconsider this. Even if you are to utilize the Evil God Sword, you might not necessarily be able to contend against actual True Immortals.”

“However, it is certain that by using the Evil God Sword, you might end up dying from its backlash,” Right at that moment, Her Lady Queen's voice sounded.

Her Lady Queen understood Chu Feng very well. She had already managed to tell that Chu Feng did not plan to watch with folded arms, that he wanted to utilize the Evil God Sword to join the battle.

However, the side effects of the Evil God Sword was truly too enormous. Back in the Holy Land of Martialism, Chu Feng nearly died after using it.

And now, the opponents Chu Feng had to face were even stronger. If he were to really use the Evil God Sword, the backlash would definitely be even stronger too. As such, it might really pose a fatal danger to him.

“This matter was caused by me to begin with. As such, how could I look on without doing anything as someone puts their life on the line for me?” As Chu Feng spoke, he took several more steps forward and walked out of Kong Shunlian's Origin Life Treasure.

“B-Brother, w-what are you doing?” Wang Qiang was immediately worried upon seeing that scene. As he spoke, he moved to rush out and grab Chu Feng back.

“Die!”

However, the two Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders also noticed that Chu Feng had walked out of the Origin Life Treasure.

The two Utmost Exalted Elders immediately unleashed attacks at Chu Feng with the intention to kill.

“Clank~~~”

However right at that moment, Chu Feng raised the Evil God Sword in his hand.

“Rumble~~~”

At that moment, the attacks unleashed by the two Utmost Exalted Elders approached Chu Feng. The attacks exploded before Chu Feng and turned into violent energy ripples.

Those attacks were truly too powerful. Merely those energy ripples were sufficient to cause Chu Feng to die miserably.

However, the very next moment, the two Utmost Exalted Elders, Kong Shunlian, Kong Moyu and even that mysterious individual revealed astonished expressions.

Chu Feng was standing where he was completely unscathed.

“He actually blocked it?!”

“How is that possible?! Could it be... it’s that Incomplete Imperial Armament?”

After being astonished, the True Immortals present all turned their gazes to the Evil God Sword in Chu Feng’s hand.

At that moment, the Evil God Sword was no longer tranquil like before. Not only was it trembling, it was also emitting layer upon layer of crimson gaseous flames. At that moment, the crimson gaseous flames had surrounded Chu Feng.

“Heavens! This is simply unimaginable!” Far away, that Zhuge Mingren also noticed that scene through his observation with his special techniques.

“Senior Zhuge, exactly what happened over there?” The crowd asked in succession.

Merely from Zhuge Mingren’s expression, they were able to tell that something unexpected must’ve happened on the battlefield over there.

“Little friend Chu Feng, by relying on an Incomplete Imperial Armament, blocked the joint attacks of two True Immortals,” Zhuge Mingren said.

“What? An Incomplete Imperial Armament blocked attacks from two True Immortals? How can that be possible?!” The crowd were all astonished.

“Senior Zhuge, you wouldn’t be mistaken, right? Could it be that someone helped little friend Chu Feng block those attacks? How could he possibly block them himself?” Some of the crowd didn’t believe it.

“This old man is definitely not mistaken,” Zhuge Mingren said with determination.

“I got it. I’ve heard that little friend Chu Feng possesses an extraordinary Demon Armament.”

“Back in the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds, he relied on that Demon Armament to scare away a True Immortal-level expert from the Infant Soul Sect.”

“Originally, I had only thought this to be an exaggerated rumor. Never would I have expected that it was actually real. Little friend Chu Feng actually really does have a Demon Armament capable of contending against True Immortals,” Someone suddenly said.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, rumbles sounded from the sky.

Turning toward the sky, the crowd noticed that there were crimson clouds spreading out from the location of the battlefield.

Those clouds had actually reached above their heads.

As the crimson clouds surged around, only a single aura could be felt — a demonic aura.

“Ssss~~~”

At that moment, the sounds of people sucking in a mouthful of cold air could be heard nonstop.

All of the people immediately associated the crimson clouds that covered the sky with the Demon Armament.

The reason for that was because that was the first time that they had felt such a frightening demonic aura. That sensation truly felt like the arrival of doomsday.

Chapter 2426 – The First Manifestation Of Might

---

“There’s actually such a powerful Demon Armament in this world? This is simply many times more powerful than even Ancestral Armaments. Chu Feng is actually able to use such a powerful Demon Armament?”

“Chu Feng... exactly what is his origin?”

As the crowd praised in admiration, they began to ponder Chu Feng’s origin again.

“Chu Feng, are you alright?”

Compared to the overwhelming might emitted by the Evil God Sword, Her Lady Queen was more concerned about Chu Feng’s safety.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had officially unleashed the power of the Evil God Sword.

“For the time being, this sword has yet to go out of control. It has given its power to me, allowing me to use it.”

“I now have a rough sensation of its power. If my guess is correct, I will be able to contend against True Immortals as long as I have it,” Chu Feng grew excited.

“Really? Then quickly activate your Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings to increase your cultivation so that you can kill those Kong Heavenly Clan’s old farts,” Her Lady Queen said.

“No. right now, I have only obtained the strength of the Evil God Sword, and my cultivation isn’t really at the True Immortal realm.”

“Furthermore, not only am I unable to use the Heavenly Bloodline’s power, I am also unable to use my martial power to unleash my martial skills and secret skills.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng looked at the Evil God Sword he held in his hands, he said, “Right now, this sword is the only thing that I can use.”

“The Evil God Sword is the only thing you can use?” Her Lady Queen revealed an astonished expression.

“However, I feel... that this sword by itself is sufficient.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng pointed the Evil God Sword in his hand toward one of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders.

“Roar~~~”

At that moment, a strange and ear-piercing voice sounded. Then, a crimson sword ray was shot directly toward that Utmost Exalted Elder.

“This aura, damn it!”

Faced with the sword ray unleashed by the Evil God Sword, that Utmost Exalted Elder revealed a panic-stricken expression. He simply did not even dare to block the attack. Rather, he immediately moved aside to dodge it.

However, Chu Feng did not give up just like that. He continued to brandish his Evil God Sword, and unleashed several sword rays toward that Utmost Exalted Elder.

“Damn!”

In Such a situation, that Utmost Exalted Elder could only try to dodge continuously.

It was not that he did not want to fight back. Rather, Chu Feng’s attacks were simply too fast.

Furthermore, it wasn’t that he didn’t want to block the attacks. Rather, the crimson sword rays emitted by the Evil God Sword were simply too frightening.

Those sword rays brought that Utmost Exalted Elder a sensation, that... he was simply unable to block them.

Thus, he naturally did not dare to block them.

In merely a blink of an eye, that Utmost Exalted Elder was forced many thousands of meters away by Chu Feng.

As for Chu Feng, he did not continue to chase after that Utmost Exalted Elder. Rather, he arrived beside Kong Shunlian.

“Little friend Chu Feng, that sword of yours!!!” Kong Shunlian was also astonished by Chu Feng’s Evil God Sword.

“Senior Kong, I will tell you about the origins of this sword in detail in the future.”

“Right now, we must get through this crisis first. As you’re already injured, you should not battle anymore. Leave with Wang Qiang first, I’ll handle them,” Chu Feng said.

“.....”

Hearing those words, Kong Shunlian revealed a surprised expression.

However, Chu Feng completely disregarded Kong Shunlian’s expression.

Instead, Chu Feng looked at the mysterious individual and said, “Senior, I do not know who you are. However, this Chu Feng is truly thankful that you have placed your life on the line to come to my assistance.”

“Might you be willing to leave me your distinguished name? If this Chu Feng is able to live past today, I will definitely repay senior’s kindness today.”

“Young Master Chu Feng, this old man is your servant,” That mysterious individual said.

“Servant?” The response from that mysterious individual came like a sudden clap of thunder in the hearts of all the crowd present.

“Servant? That unknown True Immortal actually declared himself to be Chu Feng’s servant?!”

“Heavens, a True Immortal-level expert is actually Chu Feng’s servant?! Sure enough, Chu Feng possesses an extraordinary origin, a truly extraordinary origin!”

The word ‘servant’ was caught by Zhuge Mingren. He immediately cried out in alarm.

Once he muttered those words, the rest of the bystanders all heard it too.

“True Immortal servant?! Chu Feng’s servant is a True Immortal?! Heavens! Chu Feng not only possesses such a powerful Demon Armament, what sort of huge monster does Chu Feng have behind his back too?!”

“He is most definitely not someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. He must be a Young Master from a certain Upper Realm.”

“Haha, Kong Heavenly Clan... oh Kong Heavenly Clan, you all have truly met your match now, no?”

Upon finding out the matter of that True Immortal being Chu Feng’s servant, the crowd was completely astonished. However, they all burst into laughter too.

They were all people standing on Chu Feng’s side. Thus, to them, this news was extremely great.

At that moment, they were all certain that Chu Feng was not someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Although there were indeed some hidden True Immortal-level experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, they were all proud and arrogant individuals, and would definitely refuse to submit to others as servants.

Thus, merely from one word from that mysterious True

Immortal, the crowd was certain that Chu Feng must be someone from an Upper Realm.

As for the Upper Realms' huge monsters, how could a mere Kong Heavenly Clan possibly contend against them?

At that moment, everyone felt that the Kong Heavenly Clan had kicked an iron plate, that they would definitely suffer enormously in the future.

In fact, even the destruction of their Kong Heavenly Clan was possible.

“Servant?”

In fact, Chu Feng was also very astonished right now. No matter how hard he thought about it, he was unable to think of a True Immortal-level servant.

“Senior, regardless of who you might be, I still thank you for your grace today. However, what happened here today is caused by me, Chu Feng. As such, I truly do not wish to implicate you. Thus... please leave too. You can leave the rest to me.”

“Chu Feng, you...”

Kong Shunlian's expression grew increasingly shocked. He simply did not dare to believe his own ears.

Chu Feng was actually planning to take on three True Immortals by himself?

“What shameless boasting. Do you really think that you can contend against True Immortals with a mere weapon?”

“I will let you experience exactly how powerful the might of a True Immortal is right now.”

The remaining Utmost Exalted Elder who was fighting against Kong Shunlian grew extremely furious and rushed to attack Chu Feng.

He brandished the Ancestral Armament he held in his hand and shot a slash toward Chu Feng.

That slash was no ordinary attack. Rather, it was a martial skill, an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill.

A True Immortal unleashing an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill with an Ancestral Armament, oh how powerful must that be?

It was so frighteningly powerful that even Kong Shunlian, a fellow True Immortal, would not dare be careless toward it. Kong Shunlian raised his Ancestral Armament with the intention of blocking that attack.

However, right at the moment when Kong Shunlian was about to act, Chu Feng suddenly thrust forth his Evil God Sword.

“Roar~~~”

A crimson sword ray was once again shot forth from Chu Feng’s Evil God Sword.

The very next moment, the crimson sword ray collided with the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill unleashed by the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder.

To the crowd’s astonishment, the collision did not end in a loud explosion, nor did it create energy ripples wreaking havoc through the surroundings.

Instead, like a stream assimilating into the sea, it quietly and completely disappeared.

That’s right, it was like a stream assimilating into the sea.

That Utmost Exalted Elder’s Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was devoured, devoured by the Evil God Sword’s sword ray.

At that moment, not only did that crimson sword ray not grow weaker, it instead became more powerful than before.

That scene stunned everyone present.

One should know... that the people involved, with the exception of Chu Feng and Wang Qiang, were all True Immortals.

When even True Immortals were stunned, one could tell how astonishing what had just happened was.

Chapter 2427 – Bloodline Grand Formation

---

“I refuse to believe this.”

That Utmost Exalted Elder did not dodge and flee like the other Utmost Exalted Elders when faced with the incoming sword ray.

Instead, he raised his Ancestral Armament horizontally before him.

“Buzz~~~”

Dazzling golden light shone from the Ancestral Armament. Then, it turned into an enormous ferocious beast.

That ferocious beast was a hundred meters tall and a thousand meters long. It looked like an impenetrable wall as it let out an ear-piercing roar and emitted an invulnerable sensation.

It was as if that ferocious beast was alive, as if it were a living fort.

“That is...”

Kong Shunlian revealed an astonished expression. As a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan, he recognized that martial skill with a single glance.

What that Utmost Exalted Elder used was one of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills, the Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast.

As its name implied, the Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast was not an offensive martial skill, but rather a defensive martial skill.

One could very well imagine how powerful an Ancestral Taboo-level defensive martial skill was.

If one wanted to describe it, then it could be described with two words: absolute defense.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the crimson sword ray landed on the Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast.

“Rooooaarr~~~”

The Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast that was known to be an absolute defense actually let out a miserable roar the moment it came in contact with the crimson sword ray.

It was as if a wolf had come across a lion, a ferocious beast of the mortal world encountering a demon from hell. The roar that Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast emitted was not only miserable-sounding, it was also trembling.

As that voice sounded, the Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast started to distort. Like the Emperor Taboo Martial Skill before it, it was assimilated into the crimson sword ray.

“Damn it!”

Witnessing that scene, that Utmost Exalted Elder finally realized how bad the situation was. Light immediately flashed under his feet, as he tried to escape.

However, the crimson sword ray was simply too fast. At such a close distance, the crimson sword ray arrived in an instant. Before that Utmost Exalted Elder could fully escape, that crimson sword ray pierced through his left arm.

“Puuu~~~”

Blood sprinkled through the sky. Although that Utmost Exalted Elder had managed to escape, a large chunk of flesh was missing from his left arm.

Most importantly, an injury like that should not be anything serious to a True Immortal.

However, that Utmost Exalted Elder had a very miserable expression on his face. His twisted face was unable to conceal the pain that he was suffering.

Blood was flowing from his wound nonstop and there didn't seem to be any indication of healing.

“That sword is actually that powerful?” Kong Shunlian, that mysterious individual and even Kong Moyu were dumbfounded.

At that moment, the proud and arrogant Kong Moyu finally revealed an expression of panic on his face.

The reason for that was because that was truly no small matter, the martial skill that Utmost Exalted Elder had used was the Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast.

The Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast, that overwhelmingly powerful defensive martial skill, was actually completely ineffective before that crimson sword ray. This matter caused him to feel fear toward Chu Feng.

At that moment, he seemed to have finally realized why Grandmaster Prophet said that Chu Feng would bring about the destruction of their Kong Heavenly Clan.

That prophecy was not just some frightening words to scare them. Merely by relying on that sword, Chu Feng seemed to really be able to bring about the destruction of their Kong Heavenly Clan.

“He actually injured a Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elder?! He's a True Immortal!” Far away, Zhuge Mingren uttered a cry of alarm.

“Ah? Chu Feng actually injured a True Immortal?!” The crowd were all astonished upon knowing about it. At the same time, they all grew extremely excited.

Although they were very far away from the battlefield, they were still witnesses to the battle.

Today, they were witnessing a matter that could shock the world, something that had never happened in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

That is, a Half Martial Ancestor-level person of the younger generation was fighting against True Immortals and winning against them.

That was something that should be impossible. Yet, it was actually happening at that moment.

As such, how could they not be emotional? How could they not be excited?

“Kong Shunlian, do you not see? This child possesses a Demon Armament, an extremely heaven-defying Demon Armament. He really does possess the power to bring about the destruction of our Kong Heavenly Clan!” Kong Moyu said to Kong Shunlian. He had become extremely emotional.

“What sort of power I possess is my own matter. However, if your Kong Heavenly Clan did not force me to this, why would I end up fighting against you all?” Chu Feng said.

“Enough of your nonsense! Today, regardless of what you say, you absolutely cannot leave here alive!” Kong Moyu shouted angrily. Then, he unleashed an attack.

The mysterious individual did not stop him from attacking Chu Feng this time around. The reason for that was because he was able to tell that Chu Feng could answer it himself without his assistance.

“Roar~~~”

Sure enough, Chu Feng shot forth a thrust with his Evil God Sword again. Then, a crimson sword ray was shot out again.

Like last time, the crimson sword ray directly devoured Kong Moyu’s attack and started to fly toward Kong Moyu.

“Damn it!”

Kong Moyu had experienced how powerful the crimson sword ray was. Thus, how could he possibly hesitate? Immediately, he moved to dodge.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

However, Chu Feng was unwilling to let him get away. He thrust forth the Evil God Sword repeatedly, and shot consecutive crimson sword rays.

At that moment, it was not only Kong Moyu who was fleeing. The Kong Heavenly Clan's two other Utmost Exalted Elders were also only able to flee.

Thinking about it, three grand True Immortals were actually forced to flee all over the place by Chu Feng, a mere Half Martial Ancestor.

This scene was truly a bit ridiculous.

“Set up the formation!!!”

Right at that moment, a female's voice suddenly sounded.

Then, another True Immortal's oppressive might appeared out of nowhere.

It was Kong Yuehua. Kong Yuehua had suddenly appeared before Kong Moyu.

After Kong Yuehua appeared, the other two Utmost Exalted Elders hurriedly moved to Kong Yuehua's side.

Seeing Kong Yuehua, Kong Moyu and the other two Utmost Exalted Elders said in unison, “Elder Yuehua, you've finally decided to show yourself.”

“I am unable to attack my own clansman. However, since that Chu Feng wants to kill you all, I cannot disregard you either,” As Kong Yuehua said those words, she took a profound glance at Kong Shunlian.

Kong Shunlian and that mysterious individual did not reveal much surprise at Kong Yuehua's appearance.

From this, it could be seen that Kong Yuehua must have been here for a while now. Likely, she had arrived together with Kong Moyu and the others.

Merely, Kong Yuehua was considering former affections, and did not want to attack Kong Shunlian. That was why she had not revealed herself the entire time.

However, Kong Moyu and the others were now in a crisis. As such, she had no choice but to reveal herself.

“That child’s sword is extremely strange. Even when sword rays are shot forth from the sword, it will let out a demonic roar.”

“That is most definitely not an ordinary Demon Armament. Rather, it is a very powerful Demon Armament. We cannot be careless against it.”

“Set up the Bloodline Grand Formation. We will link our origin lives and use the spirit formation to take care of him,” As Kong Yuehua spoke, a body of light appeared from her dantian.

That body of light was very strange. It looked like a living snake moving about through the air and approaching Kong Moyu and the other two Utmost Exalted Elders.

“Very well, we’ll use the Bloodline Grand Formation to take care of this animal.”

Kong Moyu and the other two Utmost Exalted Elders did not hesitate. As they spoke, they also emitted bodies of light from their dantian.

Soon, the four bodies of light shining from the four True Immortals interweaved with one another.

The next moment, nine-colored lightning emerged in the eyes of Kong Yuehua and the others.

After the nine-colored lightning appeared, they began to gather at their foreheads.

Soon, a pattern resembling the character ‘Mortal’ appeared on their foreheads.

And now, their auras had become much more powerful than before.

“Lightning Mark?” Chu Feng’s eyes flashed.

“Indeed, it’s the Lightning Mark. After Heavenly Bloodline possessors reach the True Immortal realm, a portion of their Heavenly Bloodline’s power will be sealed off. The weaker the Self-Punishing Mysterious Technique one trains in, the more of their Heavenly Bloodline’s power will be sealed.”

“The Self-Punishing Mysterious Technique that we trained in was the simplest and weakest Mortal Punishment Mysterious Taboo. That is why, after we reach the True Immortal realm, practically all of our Heavenly Bloodline’s power will be sealed off.”

“However, as long as we utilize the special Bloodline Grand Formation, we will be able to activate our Lightning Marks.”

“Merely, the Bloodline Grand Formation is related to our origin life, our bloodlines. It is a heaven-defying method.”

“Every time it is used, the person using it will drain their lifespan. Furthermore, their lifespan will be burned very quickly.”

“To put it simply, although they have successfully activated their Lightning Marks using the Bloodline Grand Formation and unleashed the power of their Lightning Mark once again, they are using their remaining lifespan as the price,” Kong Shunlian explained.

“So that’s the case. They’re truly willing to part with their lives for the sake of killing me.”

“Unfortunately, I fear that they will still not be able to kill me with only this bit of power,” Chu Feng said.

Chu Feng was not boasting. At that moment, the power of the Evil God Sword had been unleashed. As such, he had a rough understanding of how powerful the Evil God Sword was.

At the very least, the Evil God Sword was not something that the four Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders before him could contend against.

Chapter 2428 – Crimson Gaze

---

“What shameless boasting!!!” Kong Moyu shouted angrily and then immediately unleashed an attack.

It was not only him who unleashed an attack, as Kong Yuehua and the other two Utmost Exalted Elders also joined him in attacking Chu Feng.

Furthermore, all four of them used Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills.

A total of four Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills turned into four lightning dragons that roared with voices capable of penetrating the sky itself as they moved to oppress Chu Feng together.

“Chu Feng, run away!”

Once the four lightning dragons appeared, Kong Shunlian’s expression changed enormously.

As a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan, he knew very well how frightening the lightning dragons were.

This Martial Skill that the four Heavenly Immortals had used was named Ancestral Taboo: Lightning Dragon Transformation.

The ‘Transformation’ was in its name for a major reason. That is, the Ancestral Taboo: Lightning Dragon Transformations could fuse with one another to become an even more powerful martial skill.

“Roar~~~”

Accompanying the dragon roars, as the four lightning dragons galloped toward Chu Feng, they gathered in one location and fused into one.

Not only was this new lightning dragon many times larger than the four before, it was also emitting an aura many times more powerful.

As it roared, it caused vibrations that shook everything.

Not to mention the people on the battlefield, even the bystanders far away felt the violent trembling of its roar.

The bystanders ended up covering their ears. Some among them even activated special methods to block the dragon's roar.

However, even with that being the case, there were still those with low levels of cultivation that ended up shaken, bleeding from all seven of their facial orifices and losing consciousness.

There were even those who were so shaken by the roar that they died on the spot.

From that, one could tell how powerful that lightning dragon was.

“Evil God Sword, go ahead and allow them to experience exactly how powerful you are.”

Chu Feng thrust forth the Evil God Sword in his hand once again, shooting out another sword ray.

“Roar~~~”

Right at that moment, a shocking sight occurred.

That crimson sword ray actually changed. Not only did it rapidly increase in size, it also turned into two enormous crimson sharp claws.

The crimson claws ruthlessly grabbed onto the lightning dragon's body.

“Wuuahh~~~”

At that moment, that astonishingly powerful lightning dragon was actually unable to approach Chu Feng in the slightest. It could only violently flutter its enormous body in midair and let out miserable shrieks.

That's right, the lightning dragon was letting out miserable shrieks. It was the sort of sound that one would let out when under incomparable pain and misery.

“Zzzzzz~~~”

Suddenly, the crimson claws shot forth by the Evil God Sword forcibly tore the lightning dragon to pieces.

Lightning lingered in the sky and scattered about in all directions. The miserable shrieks from the lightning dragon were still echoing.

“This...”

At that moment, not to mention Kong Moyu and the others, even Kong Shunlian and that mysterious individual were filled with fear.

They were able to tell that the sword Chu Feng held in his hand most definitely possessed life.

It had done that deliberately; deliberately tearing the lightning dragon to pieces.

“Did you all really think that you were qualified to contend against me?”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s eyes turned red. The Evil God Sword he held in his hand was suddenly swept across the space before him.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

In an instant, several crimson sword rays shot forth from the Evil God Sword. Densely packed, they filled the sky. Like a crimson meteor shower, they flew toward Kong Yuehua and the others.

Furthermore, the speed of the sword rays was even faster than before.

“Crap!”

Witnessing that scene, Kong Yuehua and the others all revealed dejected expressions.

The reason for that was because they knew that they would not be able to dodge the incoming sword rays with how close and how fast they were.

“Puu, puu, puu, puu, puu~~~”

The very next moment, many crimson sword rays pierced through the bodies of Kong Yuehua and the others.

Bringing streams of blood with them, the crimson sword rays exited their bodies and even severed their Bloodline Grand Formation.

Finally, everything ended. That region turned silent for the time being.

“Cough, cough, cough...”

Suddenly, miserable coughing sound shattered the quietness of this place.

It was Kong Yuehua and the others. At this moment, not only were the four of them violently coughing, they were also coughing up blood.

It was not only their mouths that were covered with blood; their bodies were also covered with blood. The reason for that was because their bodies were filled with thousands of holes.

“So powerful, that sword... is so powerful,” Far away, Zhuge Mingren let out another cry of surprise.

“Senior, what has happened now?”

“Exactly who won?”

The crowd asked in succession. Through the narration from Zhuge Mingren earlier, they already came to know that the Kong Heavenly Clan’s four Utmost Exalted Elders had unleashed their Bloodline Grand Formation and activated their special Lightning Marks, symbols of their Heavenly Bloodlines, for the sake of killing

Chu Feng.

The crowd knew very well what Lightning Marks were. They were methods for Heavenly Bloodline possessors to increase their battle power.

However, upon reaching the True Immortal realm, their Bloodline powers would be sealed. As such, they would not be able to form their Lightning Marks.

Earlier, the four Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders had utilized their Bloodline Grand Formation to once again form their Lightning Marks.

That caused the bystanders to become extremely worried about Chu Feng's well-being.

True Immortals with Lightning Marks, that was a very powerful matter.

"Chu Feng won. They were simply unable to contend against Chu Feng."

"And now, they have all been injured by Chu Feng. Furthermore, it seems that it is very difficult for them to heal their wounds. As such, they are very badly injured," Zhuge Mingren was very emotional. It was the first time he had seen such a shaking scene.

"It's actually that powerful?"

After knowing about this matter, the bystanders grew even more emotional.

They all knew that the bodies of True Immortals had already surpassed those of mortals, and could be said to be indestructible and undying. Even if an attack was able to injure them, their bodies would rapidly heal those injuries.

An attack that caused True Immortals to be unable to recover would only mean one thing — that that attack was too powerful, and greatly surpassed the limits of what a True Immortal's body could withstand.

“Come, kill me, why are you all only standing there?”

Chu Feng’s eyes grew more and more red. A dense killing intent was being emitted from his body. Most importantly, that killing intent was actually visible to the naked eye; it was crimson red in color.

The current Chu Feng looked as if he had fused with the crimson clouds in the sky.

Holding the Evil God Sword in his hand, he stepped through the air and slowly moved toward Kong Yuehua and the others.

With each step from Chu Feng, Kong Moyu and the others grew a bit more nervous.

At that moment, Kong Moyu and the others were extremely weak. They were simply unable to contend against Chu Feng anymore.

With Chu Feng moving toward them, they knew what was going to happen to them.

It was not that they did not wish to escape. Merely... a powerful oppressive might was binding them. They did not have the strength to escape.

As for the oppressive might that bound them, it was naturally from the Evil God Sword.

“Little friend Chu Feng, please let it go and spare their lives.”

Seeing that Chu Feng was determined to kill, Kong Shunlian hurriedly grabbed his arm.

After all, those four were his clansmen. While he did not wish for his clansmen to kill Chu Feng, he also did not wish for Chu Feng to kill his clansmen.

“What did you say? You want me to spare them? You actually want me to spare them? Them? People who wanted to kill me?”

Chu Feng turned around and asked Kong Shunlian coldly.

“.....”

When Kong Shunlian saw Chu Feng's current expression, he immediately released his hand from Chu Feng's arm and even moved several steps away.

From Chu Feng's eyes, he saw a frightening gaze that he had never seen before.

At the moment when his eyes met Chu Feng's, he had felt a sensation.

He felt that that was simply not Chu Feng, but rather a demon whose second nature was killing.

Kong Shunlian was not someone who was afraid of death. Yet, the moment he saw Chu Feng's gaze, he felt enormous fear in his heart.

“Do you know what sort of consequence one will suffer if they fail to kill me?” Chu Feng arrived before Kong Moyu and asked him.

“If you want to kill, then go ahead and kill me. If you want to torture, then go ahead and torture me. If this old man begs you once, I will consider you my ancestor,” Kong Moyu said loudly.

He knew that he would definitely be killed today. Thus, he had no intention of begging for forgiveness.

“As you wish.”

As Chu Feng spoke, he abruptly waved the Evil God Sword he held in his hand. A crimson light flashed past, and Kong Moyu's head was sliced off.

Chapter 2429 – Assimilation Of Demonic Aura

---

Kong Moyu was beheaded. However, he was not dead. His head floated before Chu Feng, and he burst into loud and mocking laughter.

“Ignorant fool, I am a True Immortal. My body is undying and indestructible. Even if you are to behead me, you will not be able to kill me.”

“Who said that I’ve beheaded you for the sake of killing you?” Chu Feng asked.

“Then why did you behead me?” Kong Moyu frowned. From Chu Feng’s words, he felt misgivings.

“Don’t be anxious, you’ll come to know,” Chu Feng chuckled. The next moment, his other hand pierced into Kong Moyu’s dantian.

“It’s useless. I’m a True Immortal. Even if you destroy my dantian, you will still not be able to destroy my cultivation,” Kong Moyu thought that Chu Feng would do something to him. However, after seeing that what Chu Feng did was still common practice, he started to mock Chu Feng again.

Only other True Immortals knew how powerful they truly were. Thus, Kong Moyu was very confident that Chu Feng’s methods would not be able to kill him.

After thinking that, he became completely confident. After all, Chu Feng was only able to confront them by relying on his Demon Armament.

However, it remained that he was a True Immortal. While Chu Feng possessed the Demon Armament, he did not possess the cultivation. Thus, Kong Moyu felt that Chu Feng might not necessarily be able to kill him.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored Kong Moyu. Instead, he said, “Milady Queen, do you wish to see what a True Immortal’s source energy tastes like?”

Naturally, Chu Feng’s words were meant toward Eggy. Merely, he did not say those words in his heart, but rather spoke them out loud.

Thus, everyone, including Kong Moyu, heard what Chu Feng said.

“I do, of course I do.”

Her Lady Queen nodded her head repeatedly in excitement. She even involuntarily extended her little tongue to lick her sexy lips. It was truly an adorable and enchanting sight.

How could she not want to taste a True Immortal’s source energy?

“Haha, so you wanted to have your world spirit refine my source energy?”

“Chu Feng, it’s not that I am looking down on you. If you were a True Immortal, then perhaps you might be able to accomplish that. However, you are only relying on the power of a Demon Armament to be able to contend against me right now. What makes you think you’ll be able to refine my source energy?”

“You should know that I’m a True Immortal. My body is different from that of ordinary mortals. With merely your Half Martial Ancestor-level cultivation, you wouldn’t even know where my source energy is,” Kong Moyu mocked Chu Feng again.

“Is that so?” Chu Feng chuckled. He said, “Isn’t it here?”

“Buzz~~~”

Once Chu Feng’s voice landed, a boundless suction power was emitted from Chu Feng’s palms and enveloped Kong Moyu’s body.

“Ahhh!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”

The next moment, Kong Moyu let out an incomparably miserable scream.

“How... how is this possible? How... how did you a-accomplish this? No... no... no...!!!!”

Kong Moyu let out a snarl of irreconciliation. The reason for that was because his source energy was being refined by Chu Feng.

“Not only am I able to find your source energy, I am also able to let you be in so much pain that you’d wish you were dead,” Chu Feng’s smile grew denser and denser.

Merely, not only was Chu Feng’s smile strange, it was also very sinister. Chu Feng had never had that sort of smile on his face before. It was as if... this was not Chu Feng at all.

“Stop! Stop!!!” Kong Moyu’s face was distorted. Even his face started to shiver.

Not only was his True Immortal source energy being refined by Chu Feng, he was also suffering from a pain that he had never suffered from before. That sort of pain felt truly unbearable for him.

“You want me to stop? Beg me,” Chu Feng said.

“.....” Evidently, Kong Moyu did not wish to beg Chu Feng for forgiveness. Thus, he clenched his teeth and said no more.

Chu Feng seemed to have already expected Kong Moyu’s reaction. He was still smiling as he continued to stare at Kong Moyu. It was as if he was waiting for Kong Moyu to give in.

At that moment, the others present were all stunned. They were confused as to exactly how Chu Feng was able to accomplish that how he was able to bring Kong Moyu such overwhelming pain.

After all, Chu Feng was using his own abilities, and not the Demon Armament to pierce into Kong Moyu’s body.

Could it be that Chu Feng did not need the Demon Armament, and possessed this sort of power himself?

Kong Moyu's face grew more and more distorted. His expression changed unceasingly. Finally, he opened his mouth and used an even more trembling and weaker voice to say, "I... I beg you, please spare me, please spare me."

Kong Moyu began to actually beg Chu Feng for forgiveness.

At that moment, Kong Yuehua, Kong Shunlian and the other were all stunned.

They had known Kong Moyu since when they were children, and knew that he had always been an extremely stubborn individual. They had never seen him beg someone for forgiveness before.

Yet now, Kong Moyu was actually begging Chu Feng for forgiveness.

"Haha..."

However, after Kong Moyu begged for forgiveness, Chu Feng's smile remained unchanged. It was as if he did not see this at all.

Thus, Chu Feng continued to refine Kong Moyu's source energy. He did not lessen his torment of Kong Moyu.

"Chu Feng, I've already begged you for forgiveness, why are you not stopping?!!!"

"Stop! Stop immediately!"

"Exactly what do you want me to do?"

"Do you even have integrity?!"

Kong Moyu let out an incomparably furious snarl.

However, the smile on Chu Feng's face grew even stronger. He said, "I don't have to be sincere towards someone as despicable as you."

After he finished saying those words, the suction emitted from Chu Feng's palm grew even stronger, and Kong Moyu let out even more miserable screams.

His source energy was rapidly being sucked out and refined by Her Lady Queen.

“Chu Feng, just release him,” At that moment, Kong Shunlian started to entreat Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored him. He did not plan to stop at all.

“Noo!!!!”

Finally, Kong Moyu let out a final scream. That scream was so loud that he shouted himself hoarse. Then, he grew quiet.

He died... A True Immortal was dead. He died after his source energy was completely absorbed and refined.

“Chu Feng, he, he killed the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder, Kong Moyu.”

“A True Immortal has fallen. He was killed by Chu Feng.”

Far away, Zhuge Mingren saw everything, and let out a cry of alarm.

After finding out about it, all of the bystanders revealed faces of disbelief.

After all, the one that had died was a True Immortal!!!

After killing Kong Moyu, Chu Feng did not plan to stop. Instead, he turned his gaze to Kong Yuehua and began to walk toward her.

“Chu Feng, stop!”

In response, Kong Shunlian shouted. He held his Ancestral Armament and rushed toward Chu Feng. He was planning to stop Chu Feng by force.

However, Chu Feng raised his arm, and a red stream of gaseous flames was emitted from Chu Feng’s arm.

That red gaseous flames was incomparably ferocious. It forcibly knocked Kong Shunlian away just as he was about to reach Chu Feng.

“Crap, it’s the assimilation of the demonic aura.”

Seeing that scene, Her Lady Queen’s heart tightened.

Earlier, Chu Feng had said himself that he could only use the Evil God Sword.

However, it was now evident that it was not only the Evil God Sword itself, but also Chu Feng who possessed the Evil God Sword’s power.

With the understanding Her Lady Queen had of Chu Feng, she knew that he would not attack Kong Shunlian no matter what.

Thus, there was only a single possibility for it. That was that Chu Feng had already been invaded by the Evil God Sword. Not only had he received the Evil God Sword’s power, he was also being eroded by the demonic nature of the Evil God Sword.

A Chu Feng like that would be very dangerous. The reason for that was because while Chu Feng possessed emotions, the Evil God Sword did not.

Chu Feng might end up unleashing a massacre afterwards. Not only would it be dangerous for the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan, it would also be dangerous for Kong Shunlian and Wang Qiang.

“Ta, ta, ta~~~”

Sure enough, it was as Her Lady Queen expected, after Chu Feng knocked Kong Shunlian flying, Chu Feng did not bother to take a single glance at him. With overwhelming killing intent and his Evil God Sword in hand, Chu Feng began to walk toward Kong Yuehua one step at a time.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, a golden flash of light suddenly swept past Chu Feng from behind. It flew toward Kong Yuehua and enveloped her.

It was that copper bowl, Kong Shunlian's origin life treasure.

Kong Shunlian had moved his copper bowl from Wang Qiang and enveloped Kong Yuehua with it.

"Are you insistent on hindering me?" Chu Feng finally looked at Kong Shunlian.

However, Chu Feng's gaze had completely changed right now. There was not a single trace of emotion in the gaze with which he looked at Kong Shunlian. It was as if Kong Shunlian was a stranger.

"Kong Shunlian, get away from here. Don't worry about us. He will really kill you."

Kong Yuehua had also noticed the abnormality in Chu Feng's behavior. She started to urge Kong Shunlian to leave, and tried hard to move her body. She wanted to walk out of Kong Shunlian's origin life treasure that had enveloped her body and was protecting her.

"Buzz~~~"

However, right after Kong Yuehua struggled out of the origin life treasure, the origin life treasure immediately moved and enveloped Kong Yuehua again.

Naturally, it was Kong Shunlian who was operating his origin life treasure.

"Chu Feng, if you want to kill her, you must kill me first," Kong Shunlian said to Chu Feng resolutely.

Kong Shunlian was acting the same way he had toward Kong Moyu and the others earlier.

He would not allow the Kong Heavenly Clan to kill Chu Feng. But by the same account, he would not allow Chu Feng to kill the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Earlier, when Chu Feng had killed Kong Moyu, he had been unable to react in time. However, now, he was able to react.

Thus, even if he must risk his aged life, he would still protect Kong Yuehua.

It would be the same as how he had protected Chu Feng and Wang Qiang from the Kong Heavenly Clan earlier.

“Did you really think that you could hinder me?” Chu Feng asked Kong Shunlian. Not only were Chu Feng’s eyes blood red, but his voice was also exceptionally ice-cold.

“I know that I cannot stop you now. However, even if that is the case, I still cannot watch with folded arms. Come, since you insist on killing, kill me first.”

After saying those words, Kong Shunlian closed his eyes. He was prepared to face death.

“B-Brother, c-calm down. T-That is Senior Kong Shunlian, y-you m-must not kill him.”

Wang Qiang also started to urge Chu Feng against it. The reason for that was because he had also realized that Chu Feng might be controlled by the Demon Armament and lost his reason.

In that sort of situation, Chu Feng might really end up killing Kong Shunlian.

“Hah...”

Suddenly, Chu Feng burst into laughter. Merely, that laughter was very sinister and strange. One could not determine exactly what Chu Feng was thinking.

Chapter 2430 – Great Catastrophe

---

Suddenly, Chu Feng looked at Wang Qiang. He said, “Rest assured, I will not kill him. The reason for that is because his Origin Life Treasure is simply unable to stop me.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng thrust the Evil God Sword he held in his hand toward Kong Yuehua.

“Roar~~~”

A crimson sword ray shot forth with a shocking sound akin to the wailing of ghosts and the howling of wolves.

The crimson sword ray streaked through the sky and accurately landed on the Origin Life Treasure covering Kong Yuehua.

“Boom~~~”

An ear-piercing explosion was heard. Then, golden light began to radiate all around, and the copper bowl appeared. Merely, at that moment, the copper bowl was like the golden light; it had been shattered into countless pieces and scattered in all directions.

Kong Shunlian’s Origin Life Treasure was actually destroyed by Chu Feng with a single sword thrust.

One should know that this Origin Life Treasure was said to be indestructible unless Kong Shunlian was killed.

However, Chu Feng had not attacked Kong Shunlian. Instead, he had directly attacked the Origin Life Treasure. Just like that, Chu Feng broke through the defense of the Origin Life Treasure. As such, how could the crowd not be astonished?

“Puu~~~”

At the same time as his Origin Life Treasure was destroyed, Kong Shunlian vomited a mouthful of blood.

After vomiting that mouthful of blood, Kong Shunlian’s complexion instantly became pale. He started to lose his balance, and began to sway left and right in midair.

In merely an instant, Kong Shunlian appeared to have aged tens of years. He simply appeared like a person on his deathbed.

“S-S-Senior K-Kong, a-are you a-alright?” Wang Qiang walked toward Kong Shunlian and supported him.

At the same time, that mysterious individual had also arrived at Kong Shunlian’s side.

However, Chu Feng, who had shattered Kong Shunlian’s Origin Life Treasure, did not continue to attack Kong Yuehua. Instead, he stood there, motionless.

To be exact, he was not standing there motionlessly. The reason for that was because the arm with which he held the Evil God Sword was trembling violently.

“Damn it,” Suddenly, Chu Feng spoke. He revealed a painful expression.

Then, he looked at the Evil God Sword he held in his hand and asked, “Why are you continuously instilling killing intent into me to affect my wisdom?”

“Tsk, tsk, tsk...” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, a strange laughter entered his ears.

“Brat, they are planning to kill you. Don’t tell me that you’re planning to spare them.”

“Kill!!!”

“Exterminate their entire clan! Only like that will you be able to establish your might!” That voice continued to resound in Chu Feng’s ears. It was only Chu Feng that could hear that voice, the voice of the Evil God Sword.

“Today, Senior Kong Shunlian risked his life to save me. And now, he is putting his life on the line to stop me. I cannot injure him,” Chu Feng said.

“What relationship does his life and death have with you? If he plans to stop you, you should just kill him,” The Evil God Sword said.

“Senior Kong Shunlian has shown kindness and grace towards me. How can I kill him?” Chu Feng said.

“Soft-hearted. Since you cannot bear to kill them, I will help you kill them today,” After the Evil God Sword finished saying those words, Chu Feng once again felt wave after wave of killing intent pouring into his body.

That killing intent was too powerful. It was on the verge of completely swallowing Chu Feng’s reasoning. Chu Feng found it very difficult to remain calm now. His heart was filled with hatred and killing intent. At this moment, he only had one thing in mind — kill all of the Kong Heavenly Clansmen.

“Milady Queen, I... I am being controlled by this Demon Armament, help me, help me dispel this killing intent,” Sensing that the situation was amiss, Chu Feng turned to ask Her Lady Queen for help.

“Chu Feng, it’s not that I don’t want to help you. Rather, I am powerless against something like this.”

“Furthermore, to tell the truth, even if I’m able to help you, I would choose not to help you. I feel that these Kong Heavenly Clan’s old farts deserve to be killed, that the Kong Heavenly Clan should be exterminated.”

“If you fear losing control and harming those that are close to you, it’s best you tell Wang Qiang and the others to leave hurriedly,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Damn it,” Chu Feng’s eyes turned red. His anger soared, and his entire body started to tremble. It was as if he was making a very difficult decision.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng moved. He extended his hand toward Kong Yuehua.

“Stop!!!” Seeing this, Kong Shunlian let out a loud yet hoarse shout.

Unfortunately, as he was already seriously injured, he was unable to do anything at all.

As for Kong Yuehua, she was also already seriously injured by Chu Feng. As such, she was powerless to do anything herself.

Thus, she closed her eyes and prepared herself for death.

To Wang Qiang and the others, they felt that Kong Yuehua would also undoubtedly be killed.

“Woosh~~~”

However, after Chu Feng grabbed Kong Yuehua, he did not kill her. Instead, he tossed her to Kong Shunlian.

This scene was something that no one had anticipated!!!

“This is all I can do! You all, leave immediately! If you continue to stay here, I might end up killing you all!!!” Chu Feng shouted at Kong Shunlian and the others.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s long hair was fluttering in the sky, and he was emitting overwhelming killing intent.

His entire body was covered with crimson gaseous flames that were reflecting the crimson clouds in the sky. At a glance, he simply did not appear like a human at all. Rather, he appeared more like a great demon.

“Let’s go. Chu Feng is being controlled by that Demon Armament. Soon, he will not even recognize us.”

At that moment, Wang Qiang and the others were able conclude that Chu Feng was affected by the Demon Armament, and that his conduct and deeds were not really what he wanted to do.

“Go!!!” Seeing that Kong Shunlian and the others were still hesitating, Chu Feng let out a loud shout.

After that loud shout was heard, a powerful energy rippled swept forth. Even True Immortals were blown away.

“Master, I understand your intentions. Rest assured, I will definitely protect them.”

The mysterious individual realized Chu Feng’s desire. He grabbed Kong Shunlian, Kong Yuehua and Wang Qiang and rushed to leave.

After Kong Yuehua and the others left, Chu Feng looked to the Evil God Sword in his hand. He said, “Must we really do this?”

“Tsk, tsk. Boy, let yourself go. This Evil God guarantees that no one in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm will dare bully you again after today,” The Evil God Sword’s voice sounded again.

“Heh...” At that moment, the corners of Chu Feng’s mouth lifted into a smile. It was a very frightening smile.

No one knew whether the smile belonged to Chu Feng or the Evil God.

“Woosh~~~”

After that, Chu Feng suddenly waved the Evil God Sword he held in his hand. Immediately, crimson rays swept past the other two Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder’s heads, beheading them.

Then, Chu Feng raised his hand, and those two Utmost Exalted Elders let out miserable screams.

Merely, they only let out a single scream. The reason for that was because they were immediately killed, and their source energies were devoured by Chu Feng.

Then, Chu Feng spread open his hand. Including Kong Moyu, the three Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders’ heads were sucked toward Chu Feng's hand. With the three heads in his hand, Chu Feng rapidly flew toward the direction of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Chu Feng's coming, he... couldn't possibly be planning to kill us, right?” Seeing Chu Feng flying over, Zhuge Mingren and the other bystanders all revealed frightened expressions.

Zhuge Mingren had seen all that had happened earlier. As such, the crowd already knew that Chu Feng's killing intent had been aroused. As such, they were truly afraid that Chu Feng would kill them.

After all, in a short period of time, three True Immortals had already fallen by Chu Feng's hands.

“Woosh~~~”

However, Chu Feng flashed past them. He did not attack the bystanders. Instead, he was directly flying toward the Kong Heavenly Clan.

However, the overwhelming killing intent emitted by Chu Feng caused the crowd's hair to stand on end. Some people were so scared that their legs grew weak.

Everyone was frightened by Chu Feng.

After a moment of panic, someone turned to ask Zhuge Mingren, “Senior Zhuge, do you know... what little friend Chu Feng is planning to do?”

After all, only Zhuge Mingren knew the full details as to what happened.

Zhuge Mingren sighed. He looked to the direction of the Kong Heavenly Clan and said, “I fear that today a great catastrophe will befall the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

Chapter 2431 – Exterminating The Kong Heavenly Clan

---

Inside the Kong Heavenly Clan. The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was still inside that palace hall. There were still a lot of Kong Heavenly Clan elders gathered in the palace hall.

“Lord Clan Chief, could it be that some sort of accident has occurred?” Someone asked worriedly.

After all, the life and death of Chu Feng concerned their Kong Heavenly Clan's continued existence. Thus, they were very scared of failure.

“You all can rest assured. I believe that Elder Kong Shunlian will definitely not betray our Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“Even if he really cannot steel his heart to kill Chu Feng, Kong Moyu, Kong Yuehua and the others will definitely not show any mercy. Chu Feng is but a member of the younger generation, he is but someone with a cultivation of Half Martial Ancestor. With our Kong Heavenly Clan's five Utmost Exalted Elders after him, he will definitely die,” The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was confident that Chu Feng would be killed.

After all, for one insignificant member of the younger generation, they had dispatched all five of their Kong Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders to deal with him.

One should know that they were five True Immortal-level experts!!!

However, it could also be determined from those words that it was actually the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief who had ordered Kong Moyu and the others to secretly follow Chu Feng.

This Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was truly an astute and circumspect individual. Even though he kept saying that he trusted Kong Shunlian, he actually did not trust Kong Shunlian at all. If he did, why would he dispatch four other Utmost Exalted Elders to tail him?

“What Lord Clan Chief says is correct,” After hearing what their Lord Clan Chief said, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s elders present all revealed relaxed smiles.

“Rumble~~~”

However, right at that moment, ear-piercing rumbles sounded from outside the palace hall.

“Rumble~~~”

“Rumble~~~”

.....

The rumbles echoed nonstop. Even the palace hall itself started to tremble violently.

“What’s going on?”

Sensing that the situation was amiss, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s elders, led by their Clan Chief, all flew out of the palace hall to inspect the situation outside.

When they arrived outside of the palace hall, they all revealed stunned expressions.

The Kong Heavenly Clan, that vast and boundless colossus, already had countless palaces destroyed, and countless clansmen killed.

The sounds of the collapse of the palaces, the sounds of the flattening of mountains and the screams of their dying clansmen filled the entire Kong Heavenly Clan.

It was a truly appalling scene of devastation!!!

As for all this, it was caused by a person standing in the sky.

That person was holding a crimson sword in his hand. With each wave of the sword, a crimson slash shot forth.

When the crimson slashes descended from the sky, no one was able to stop them. With each slash, a path of utter destruction was left behind.

Countless buildings and palaces were destroyed with each slash. Countless Kong Heavenly Clan clansmen were killed with each slash.

“Who dares come attack our Kong Heavenly Clan?! You’re courting death!!!”

Seeing that scene, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief raised his hand and shot forth a punch. His rank two True Immortal-level martial power carried with it a might of absolute destruction as it was shot forth toward the figure in the sky.

His punch was extremely powerful; it was absolutely destructive.

As that individual standing in the sky was already attacking the Kong Heavenly Clan, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief did not care about who that person might be, and sent forth a fatal attack from the get-go. He planned to directly kill his opponent.

“Buzz~~~”

However, facing the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, this rank two True Immortal’s attack, the individual standing in the sky only waved the red sword in his hand and easily neutralized the incoming attack.

“How could this be?” Seeing his own attack neutralized, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief immediately had a change in expression.

“That guy?!” When even the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was shocked, the elders had even greater astonishment on their faces.

One should know that the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was a rank two True Immortal. Not only was he the strongest existence in the Kong Heavenly Clan, he was also one of the strongest existences in the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Exactly who was it that was able to easily block the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's attack?

“You’ve finally decided to show yourself?”

Right at that moment, the person standing in the sky turned his gaze to the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief. There was a slight bit of mockery in his voice.

As the person standing in the sky stopped his attacks, the energy ripples started to gradually vanish. As such, the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan were able to clearly see the appearance of the man in the sky.

“It’s him?!!!!”

However, upon seeing the appearance of the man in the sky, the expressions of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief and the others of the Kong Heavenly Clan all changed enormously.

The reason for that was because they had seen that the person in the sky was Chu Feng.

They had thought about many possibilities for who that individual in the sky might be...

They had felt that it might be an expert of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

They had felt that it might be someone from the Infant Soul Sect who came to attack their Kong Heavenly Clan.

They had even felt that it might be an expert from an Upper Realm.

Yet, they never thought that the person that was bringing about such destruction and devastation to their Kong Heavenly Clan, the person that was able to easily block their Lord Clan Chief's attack, was actually Chu Feng, that person of the younger generation, Chu Feng!!!

At that moment, Chu Feng was standing in the sky and holding a crimson sword in his right hand.

That sword was truly dazzling and extremely domineering. Together with the frightening crimson sea of clouds in the sky, they were reflecting one another.

Even though the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan were very shocked, they had to admit that the current Chu Feng brought forth an enormous sense of oppression and unease within them.

“Chu Feng is actually alive? Could it be that Lord Utmost Exalted Elders failed?”

There were people among the Kong Heavenly Clansmen that started to worry about the safety of their five Utmost Exalted Elders. After all, those five were the strongest battle power of their Kong Heavenly Clan apart from their Lord Clan Chief.

“Heavens! In his hand are...!”

Suddenly, many Kong Heavenly Clansmen let out a cry of surprise. They just discovered that Chu Feng was carrying three heads in his left hand.

After seeing those three heads, countless Kong Heavenly Clansmen started to cry bitterly. There were even people who were so frightened that they sat powerlessly on the ground. Some even lost consciousness on the spot.

The reason for that was because they managed to clearly discern those three heads. Those three heads belonged to their Kong Heavenly Clan’s three Utmost Exalted Elders.

“Chu Feng, you killed our Kong Heavenly Clan’s three elders?!” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked furiously.

Not only was his voice filled with anger, it was also filled with overwhelming killing intent. His voice echoed for a very long time.

Although it was merely a single sentence, it was sufficient to show how furious the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was.

"You ordered them to kill me, why can't I kill them?"

"Truth be told, not only will I kill them today, I will also kill everyone in your Kong Heavenly Clan. This is the consequence of making an enemy of me," Chu Feng said in an emphatic manner. He had a smile on his face the entire time. It was a very frightening smile.

"In that case, you really did kill them?!" The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's expression turned increasingly furious. Even his body started to tremble.

He was not trembling out of fear. Rather, it was out of anger. His anger had already reached its limit. He was on the verge of losing control.

Originally, he did not believe that Chu Feng had been the one to kill the three Utmost Exalted Elders. After all, they were only three heads. Those were not sufficient to prove that the three Utmost Exalted Elders were already dead.

Yet, Chu Feng made the declaration that he had killed the three Utmost Exalted Elders. As such, the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had no choice but to believe they had really been killed.

After all, Chu Feng was able to easily block his attack earlier. This signified that Chu Feng... possessed the strength to kill the three Utmost Exalted Elders.

"I've said it already. Today, I will exterminate everyone in your Kong Heavenly Clan."

"And you... you will only be able to look on helplessly."

"Furthermore, I will also tell you this. This was all brought on by you yourself," Chu Feng said.

"What arrogant boasting!!!"

"I will dismember you into ten thousand pieces!!!" The Kong

Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief shouted furiously. Then, he soared into the sky.

At that moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was holding a curved blade in each hand. His curved blades were each one and half meters long. They were both blue, and seemed to have been made from gemstones.

They were two Ancestral Armaments. Furthermore, their quality was superb.

After those two Ancestral Armaments appeared, the aura of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief grew even more powerful!!!

He looked down upon all others, and considered everything to be beneath him. It was as if he was the ruler of this region.

Chapter 2432 – Scram Out Of My Body

---

“Boom~~~”

The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had unleashed his attack. Drawing help from the power of his two Ancestral Armaments, he shot forth a slash.

That slash was blue in color. It was formed by two intersecting slashes. It didn’t shake space nor shatter the earth.

However, that slash was extremely powerful. That slash was a Taboo Martial Skill, an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill.

This Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had unleashed an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill from the very start. His intention was clear: he wanted to quickly kill Chu Feng so that Chu Feng could not cause further damage to their Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Buzz~~~”

Chu Feng waved the Evil God Sword and shot forth a crimson slash, easily neutralizing the incoming blue slash sent forth by the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

“How could this be?!”

Witnessing that scene, not to mention the others, even the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief revealed an expression of shock.

Although the slash he sent forth was not his strongest attack, it was still a very powerful attack.

Yet, it was so easily neutralized by Chu Feng.

Furthermore, he was shocked to discover that when his Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill collided with Chu Feng’s crimson slash, it was absorbed by Chu Feng’s crimson slash in addition to being neutralized by it.

That, was simply too frightening. It caused him to become subconsciously aware that he would be no match for Chu Feng, absolutely no match at all.

But, Chu Feng was merely a person of the younger generation, a mere Half Martial Ancestor. Thus, how could it be possible for him to not be a match for Chu Feng?

“This guy, how could he possess such power?”

At that moment, panic appeared on the previously malevolent face of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

As one of the few most powerful existences in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he rarely ever revealed such an expression.

Yet now, before Chu Feng, a person of the younger generation, he actually revealed such an expression.

The reason for that was because he realized that the person standing before him might not only be a person of the younger generation. In addition to that, it was very likely that Chu Feng was someone that he could not defeat.

Soon, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief realized the cause of it. He felt that it was very likely that the source was that crimson sword Chu Feng held in his hand.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng unleashed his attack. Holding the Evil God Sword, he rapidly flew toward the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

“Roar~~~”

Abruptly, the Evil God Sword was rapidly thrust forth. Immediately, a sound akin to the wailing of ghosts and howling of wolves could be heard.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Several crimson sword rays filled the sky. Like a rainstorm, they moved to pierce the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

“Haaahhh!!!!”

The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief let out a loud shout. Then, an enormous ferocious beast appeared out of thin air, surrounding him.

It was the Kong Heavenly Clan’s defensive Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill, the Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast.

Merely, compared to the Utmost Exalted Elder that Chu Feng had killed before, the Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast unleashed by the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was several times stronger.

“Puu, puu, puu, puu, puu~~~”

The very next moment, the crimson sword rays descended. Not only did the crimson sword rays easily penetrate the Ancestral Taboo: Guardian Beast, leaving it beyond recognition, many of the crimson sword rays even managed to pierce through the body of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief actually suffered the same fate as the three Utmost Exalted Elders.

Although he was a rank two True Immortal, he was still powerless to resist Chu Feng’s attack.

“Lord Clan Chief!!!”

At that moment, the complexions of everyone from the Kong Heavenly Clan turned ashen.

The person in the sky was their Kong Heavenly Clan’s strongest expert.

Yet, even he was defeated by Chu Feng, and seriously injured on top of that.

It signified that no one in their Kong Heavenly Clan would be able to stop Chu Feng.

At that moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had a pale complexion. His body was covered with blood as he half kneeled midair after suffering very serious injuries.

Not to mention continuing to fight against Chu Feng, the current him did not even have the strength to stand up.

Merely, he was filled with irreconciliation. He looked at Chu Feng and said, “You... exactly who are you?”

“Who am I?”

“Am I not Chu Feng?”

“I am someone who your Kong Heavenly Clan wanted to kill even though I possessed no hatred nor grievances with your Kong Heavenly Clan,” Chu Feng said those words filled with mockery.

“I am the one who made that decision. If you possess complaints in your heart, you can kill me. However, if it’s possible... please spare our Kong Heavenly Clan.” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Hahahaha...”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng burst into loud laughter.

It was a very frantic and frightening laughter. It was as if that laughter was simply not a human’s laughter at all. Hearing that laugh, one would feel extremely scared and tremble with fear.

“Rest assured, I will kill you. However, before that, I will have you personally witness the destruction of your Kong Heavenly Clan by my hands.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, his lips were once again raised into a strange smile. Following that, he waved the Evil God Sword he held in his hand.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Sounds of the air being sliced through were accompanied by sounds akin to the wailing of ghosts and the howling of wolves.

This time around, the crimson sword rays were not aimed toward the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief. Instead, they once again descended upon the buildings of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

At that moment, screams and explosions sounded nonstop.

Seemingly as if this was not satisfactory, Chu Feng directly descended onto the ground and began to personally kill the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan.

All those that encountered Chu Feng, regardless of their cultivation, were all beheaded by Chu Feng with a single slash from his sword.

The speed of Chu Feng's sword was simply too fast, and the speed of Chu Feng's movements were also too fast. Even though he was only killing a single person with each slash of his sword, several thousands were killed by him in merely a split second.

Blood splattered everywhere. The Kong Heavenly Clansmen did not even have the time to scream before they were killed by Chu Feng.

Most importantly, the Kong Heavenly Clansmen were powerless to stop the situation.

At that moment, Chu Feng was like a fierce tiger that was moving among a flock of sheep. To Chu Feng, the Kong Heavenly Clansmen were akin to sheep waiting for slaughter.

As such, he could kill them as much as he wanted!!!

“Haha...”

Seeing that his own clansmen were dying by Chu Feng's hand nonstop, the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief actually started laughing.

Merely, it was a very tragic and pitiful laughter. It was the bitter laughter of powerlessness.

“It seems that Grandmaster Prophet's prophecy was right.”

“Our Kong Heavenly Clan is indeed going to be destroyed by Chu Feng. Merely, never would I have thought that the reason why Chu Feng attacked our Kong Heavenly Clan is actually because of us. It is us who forced Chu Feng to eliminate us.”

The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief muttered as he laughed bitterly.

He knew that there was no one that could stop Chu Feng today, that their Kong Heavenly Clan was destined to be exterminated.

Merely, he was filled with regret. He regretted not listening to Kong Shunlian, and deciding instead to kill Chu Feng, someone who did not possess any hatred or grievance against their Kong Heavenly Clan, merely because of a prophecy.

It was because they wanted to eliminate Chu Feng that they ended up infuriating Chu Feng, causing him to attack their Kong Heavenly Clan.

It was all his mistake. Merely... it was already too late.

“Ancestors, I, Kong Jitian, am a sinner. Because of my mistaken decisions, I have brought about the destruction of our Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“I am unable to redeem myself, and can only apologize with my death,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief knelt in midair with both his knees. Although he was extremely weak, he once again held up the two blades in his hands. However, the two blades were pointed toward himself.

This Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was actually planning to commit suicide.

“Clank~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng, who was openly slaughtering the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan, suddenly stopped.

The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief also noticed the change. Thus, he looked over.

At that moment, Chu Feng was still standing there. He had a murderous appearance on his face, and his hand was still holding onto the Evil God Sword.

The Evil God Sword in his hand was pointed at a person. As for that person, he was not someone powerful. He was merely a person of the Kong Heavenly Clan's younger generation, Kong Zheng.

At that moment, tears stained Kong Zheng's face. His body was trembling, and his complexion was pale. One could see his crumbled heart from his outward appearance.

“Putt~~~”

Suddenly, Kong Zheng kneeled onto the ground.

“Chu Feng, I beg of you, please stop!!!”

“I don't know why you have decided to slaughter us. But, even if our Kong Heavenly Clan has let you down, please, please spare us this once.”

“After all, many of our Kong Heavenly Clansmen are innocent.”

Kong Zheng was crying with incomparable suffering as he begged Chu Feng.

“Buzz~~~”

The very next moment, the sword Chu Feng held in his hand started to tremble violently.

Chu Feng's previously murderous expression started to become complicated. It was as if he wanted to kill Kong Zheng, but also didn't want to kill Kong Zheng.

Suddenly, Chu Feng shouted furiously, “Insolent fool! I am killing them for your own good, why are you stopping me?!”

After that voice sounded, the earth started to violently rupture, and the sky started to tremble.

Once Chu Feng said those words, the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan were all stunned. They all thought that Chu Feng was saying those words toward Kong Zheng.

However, Kong Zheng was also a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan. How could it be for Kong Zheng's good to kill the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan?

The moment when Chu Feng said his next sentence, the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan were all completely stunned.

"I will not allow you to kill another person. Get the hell out of my body," Chu Feng said furiously.

Chapter 2433 – Seizing Body

---

“Insolent fool! I am helping you. Yet you dare scold me?”

“If it wasn’t for this Evil God lending my power to you, you would’ve already been dead. How could you possibly be able to act so mighty now?”

A voice entered Chu Feng’s ears. This voice was something that only Chu Feng could hear; it was the Evil God Sword’s voice.

The Evil God Sword did not have any hint of anger as it said those words. Rather, its tone was filled with mockery.

“I said scram so you should just scram. I am the one who will determine my own affairs. How could I allow you to control my body?” Chu Feng said.

“Boy, don’t be incapable of differentiating good from bad. If I am to retrieve my power from you right now, do you think you’ll be able to leave here alive?”

“You do not want to eliminate the Kong Heavenly Clan. However, if my power is not protecting you, do you think they’ll let you get away?” The Evil God Sword asked.

“Enough of your nonsense. From this point on, I refuse to allow you to use my body to kill another person,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well, I’ll retrieve my power and let you meet a tragic death,” After the Evil God Sword finished saying those words, it planned to actually retrieve its power.

However, it soon let out a surprised voice, “You... you’re actually stopping me?”

The Evil God Sword was very surprised to discover that it was unable to retrieve the power that it had given to Chu Feng.

“You’re my weapon. Thus, you should be used by me. Don’t forget that I am your master,” Chu Feng said.

At this moment, the Evil God Sword had invaded Chu Feng's body and indirectly gained control over Chu Feng's body with its overwhelming killing intent. This had caused Chu Feng's heart to be affected, which in turn led him to unleash a massacre.

Earlier, Kong Zheng had stood before Chu Feng. Kong Zheng was someone that Chu Feng knew. Although they had conflicted with one another, Chu Feng really did not wish to kill Kong Zheng.

This allowed Chu Feng to regain his rationality. The reason why the Evil God Sword was violently trembling earlier was because Chu Feng was putting forth a great effort to break away from the killing intent the Evil God Sword had instilled into him.

Chu Feng did not wish to continue with his massacre. Even if the Kong Heavenly Clan had been unjust toward him, he felt that he should not massacre and exterminate the entire Kong Heavenly Clan. After all, there were a lot of Kong Heavenly Clansmen who did not know anything at all, and did not harbor any malice toward Chu Feng. In fact, there were even many people from the younger generation who adored Chu Feng and viewed him as their idol.

If Chu Feng hadn't been affected by the Evil God Sword's killing intent, he would definitely not have killed this many innocent Kong Heavenly Clansmen.

And now, Chu Feng no longer wanted to continue with the massacre. However, he also knew that if the Evil God Sword was to retrieve its power, he would end up dying here.

While he might have spared the Kong Heavenly Clan, the Kong Heavenly Clan would definitely not spare him.

Thus, Chu Feng controlled the Evil God Sword's power with his own willpower. He made it so that he could continue to use the Evil God Sword's power.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng soared into the sky and began to fly toward the distance. In the blink of an eye, he had completely disappeared.

“He... he really left?!!!”

Seeing that Chu Feng had left, the people of the Kong Heavenly Clan heaved sighs of relief. However, the fear in their hearts was unable to be pacified.

Although Chu Feng had left, the crimson clouds that covered the sky were still present. It was like a sharp blade placed right above their heads, making them feeling extremely uneasy, and think that they could be killed by Chu Feng at any moment.

However, after Chu Feng left, the crimson clouds also began to gradually vanish. The overwhelming killing intent that filled the area also started to dissipate.

It was only then that they were able to believe that Chu Feng had really left.

Merely, the current Kong Heavenly Clan was an utter mess. In merely a short moment, close to half of all of the Kong Heavenly Clan's buildings were destroyed, and a third of the Kong Heavenly Clansmen were killed by Chu Feng.

Fortunately, many of the Kong Heavenly Clansmen were away from the Kong Heavenly Clan. Else... their losses would have been even more disastrous.

“Lord Clan Chief!!!”

At this moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan's various elders soared into the sky and supported the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, who was kneeling in the sky.

“Lord Clan Chief, that Chu Feng... how could he possess such power?”

“Fortunately, he left. Else, our Kong Heavenly Clan might really have ended up being extinguished by him.”

“Lord Clan Chief, it would appear that our Kong Heavenly Clan’s five Utmost Exalted Elders have all died by Chu Feng’s hand. Today, we have truly suffered extremely disastrous losses.”

At this moment, the aged elders, those peak Martial Ancestors, were all crying.

They were feeling very pained. After all, this was their clan that had suffered this disaster. Just a moment ago, their clan had nearly been wiped out.

“Chu Feng, he is too vicious! I will definitely obtain revenge for what has happened today!”

As they grieved, there were also elders that let out furious snarls.

“Do not cause trouble for Chu Feng again,” However, right at this moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief spoke with a weak voice.

Hearing those words, the Kong Heavenly Clansmen were all startled. They looked to their Clan Chief with surprise.

Their Clan Chief had always been someone who would definitely take revenge. What he just said did not fit his character at all.

Seemingly knowing what his clansmen were thinking, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief continued, “I have made a wrong decision. I should not have ordered Chu Feng killed.”

“Even if Chu Feng wanted to destroy our Kong Heavenly Clan, it was only brought about through our own actions.”

“I am the one who was in the wrong. If you all want to hate someone, hate me. If you need to blame someone, blame me,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“But, Lord Clan Chief, this cannot be blamed on you. After all, that was the result of Grandmaster Prophet’s prophecy. Even if we should blame someone, it should be Grandmaster Prophet that we should be blaming,” An elder said.

“Grandmaster Prophet was not mistaken. His prophecy came true. Today... our Kong Heavenly Clan was nearly exterminated by Chu Feng.”

“Merely, I never anticipated that the reason Chu Feng would attack our Kong Heavenly Clan was actually us. Hah...”

The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief laughed bitterly. Guilt filled his face.

Seeing their Clan Chief acting like this, the Kong Heavenly Clansmen did not blame him. Instead, they started to feel very sorry for him.

After all, this person was their Lord Clan Chief, the person who had always been very imposing and domineering. But at this moment, he had lost the imposingness that he should have.

They knew that it was all because of a single person that their Lord Clan Chief had become like this. As for that person, it was Chu Feng.

“However, it remains that Chu Feng has nearly extinguished our Kong Heavenly Clan. How can we not take revenge for this?” There were still elders who were unwilling to let it go.

“Chu Feng was already lenient toward us. If we are to provoke him again, do you know what sort of consequence we’ll suffer? Must I explain it to you?”

“Could it be that us bringing about harm to ourselves once is not enough, that we must do so a second time?”

“If we are to provoke Chu Feng again, we might not be this fortunate the next time around. At that time, the prophecy will really come true,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief declared.

Hearing those words, the unreconciled elders all grew silent.

Indeed, although Chu Feng was only a member of the younger generation, although he was only a peak Half Martial Ancestor, they had seen Chu Feng's abilities for themselves just now.

Even their Lord Clan Chief was unable to contend against Chu Feng. As such, how could any of them possibly contend against Chu Feng?

Merely a single crimson sword had allowed Chu Feng to become unparalleled.

With the power Chu Feng had displayed earlier, not to mention them, it was likely not a single person in the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm could contend against Chu Feng.

Indeed, Chu Feng could not be provoked again.

This was what countless Kong Heavenly Clansmen were thinking right now.

Meanwhile, Chu Feng was rapidly flying in the sky. Crimson clouds appeared in all the places he passed through.

Overwhelming killing intent covered the region. That killing intent caused all living things to hide in fear.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk..." Suddenly, a strange laughter entered Chu Feng's ears. It was the Evil God Sword.

"What are you laughing about? I will no longer be engulfed by your killing intent," Chu Feng said.

Although Chu Feng was saying that, Chu Feng was not confident in his heart. The reason for that was because the killing intent the Evil God Sword had instilled in him was truly too frightening.

The reason why Chu Feng had left the Kong Heavenly Clan and was proceeding toward an uninhabited region was because he feared that he would be controlled by the Evil God Sword's killing intent and willfully slaughter the innocent again.

"Boy, I've already told you before. You will not be able to subdue me, and will only be used by me," The Evil God Sword said.

"What do you mean?" Chu Feng sensed that the situation was amiss.

“Since you are so disobedient, I can only seize control of your body and turn you into my puppet.”

After the Evil God Sword finished saying those words, Chu Feng’s expression changed immediately. He felt that an indescribable aura was charging into his body from the Evil God Sword.

That aura was truly too strange and frightening.

It was as if the aura was devouring his skin, devouring his meridians, devouring his bones, devouring his brain, devouring his wisdom... it was trying to devour his everything.

Most importantly, that aura wanted to seal Chu Feng off from his own body. It was actually trying to replace him and gain complete control over his body.

In this sort of situation, Chu Feng hurriedly tried to let go of the sword. He wanted to toss the Evil God Sword away.

However, Chu Feng did not even have the strength to open his hand.

At this moment, his body was no longer under his control!!!

Chapter 2434 – A Nightmare

“Eggy, what do I do? My body!!!” Chu Feng felt that his body was about to be seized. Helpless, he turned to request Her Lady Queen for help.

“Never did I expect this Demon Armament to be so powerful. I have already thought of a way to help you seize your body back. But... it has sealed off your world spirit space, making it impossible for me to get out to help you,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Could it be that my body is really going to be seized by this thing?”

At that moment, Chu Feng felt very helpless and pained.

He was gradually losing control over his body. This caused Chu Feng to recall Su Rou and Su Mei.

Su Rou and Su Mei had had their bodies seized by the Moon Immortal.

And now, it seemed he would also have his body seized by the Evil God Sword. Thus, at that moment, he was able to feel the suffering that Su Rou and Su Mei experienced when their bodies were seized.

However, the Moon Immortal was different from the Evil God Sword. The Moon Immortal said that she had something that she needed to do, and she would only be temporarily borrowing Su Rou and Su Mei’s bodies.

However, the Evil God Sword was different. If Chu Feng’s body was to really be seized by the Evil God Sword, a great demon would emerge in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm and openly slaughter the innocent.

Thinking about that, Chu Feng began to gather up his spirit. He planned to take back his body.

“Tsk, tsk, tsk. It’s useless. What could you possibly contend against me with?” The Evil God Sword let out a mocking laugh.

Although Chu Feng was angered by that mockery, he was indeed powerless to contend against the Evil God Sword.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, a strange aura was suddenly emitted from Chu Feng’s dantian and spread through Chu Feng’s body.

“Ahh!!!” The next moment, Chu Feng let out an incomparably painful shout.

That voice was not only let out by Chu Feng, it was also let out by the Evil God Sword. At that moment, both Chu Feng and the Evil God Sword were enduring extreme pain.

That strange aura had indeed come from Chu Feng’s dantian. However, it was unrelated to Chu Feng’s Heavenly Bloodline.

It was a bamboo slip. The bamboo slip was dark gold in color, and emitting a very ancient aura. Furthermore, it contained an air of absolute supremacy.

It was that bamboo slip that brought such suffering to Chu Feng.

Under the unbearable pain, Chu Feng gradually felt that he seemed to have regained control of his body.

Merely, his mind was no longer clear. At that moment, Chu Feng’s awareness started to grow indistinct.

However, he was able to sense that his body was still moving. Merely, he had no idea where he was moving toward.

Muddleheaded, Chu Feng felt that a long time had passed. However, he had no idea as to exactly how long it was.

His mind was in absolute chaos. The only thing he knew was that he had been flying in the sky the entire time this was happening. Furthermore, he seemed to be holding the Evil God Sword in his hand too.

.....

Still muddleheaded, Chu Feng opened his eyes, and was shocked to discover that he was lying in a forest.

The sun shone brightly here. There were singing birds and fragrant flowers. His surroundings, including even the sky, all seemed very familiar.

“Chu Feng, you’ve woken up.”

Suddenly, a sweet-sounding voice sounded beside Chu Feng’s ear. Turning toward the voice, Chu Feng saw that a young woman was standing beside him with her hands behind her back. She was looking at him with a smile on her face.

That young woman was exceptionally beautiful. Especially when she laughed; it was an incomparably brilliant sight filled with brightness.

It was truly enchanting.

“Lil’ Mei?”

Upon seeing that young woman, Chu Feng stood up excitedly and immediately embraced her.

The reason for that was because the young woman before him was none other than the lover that he yearned for day and night, Su Mei.

“What’s wrong? Why did you appear to have gone stupid after waking up from your sleep?” Su Mei said in surprise. Her face turned red.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing to my little sister?” Right at that moment, a stern voice sounded from nearby.

That voice was so resounding that the birds in the forest were frightened, and flew away.

Turning toward the voice, Chu Feng discovered that there was another woman standing nearby.

As for that woman, she possessed an alluring build and emitted a threatening air. It was Su Rou.

“Chu Feng, let go of my little sister!” Su Rou pointed at Chu Feng and shouted angrily.

“This is truly great! Both of you are here!” Chu Feng let go of Su Mei and rushed toward Su Rou, embracing her tightly.

“Chu Feng, what are you doing? You are truly presumptuous! You dare act this rude toward me?!” Su Rou flew into a rage out of humiliation. She immediately pushed Chu Feng aside.

“Lil’ Rou, what’s happened to you?” Chu Feng was very surprised. He did not understand why Su Rou was so emotional.

“Haha, big sister, don’t bother pretending anymore. I know that you also like Chu Feng,” Su Mei burst into a laughter.

“Lil’ Mei, you shut up. What sort of nonsense are you spouting?” Su Rou’s face turned red like an apple. This caused her alluring face to grow cuter, making her even more attractive.

“If you don’t like Chu Feng, why did you turn red?” Su Mei said.

“I...” Su Rou’s face grew more and more red. Then, she stormed off in a huff. She was really angry.

“Big sister, don’t be angry. I was only joking around with you,” Su Mei ran after Su Rou while hopping and bouncing.

In response, Chu Feng also wanted to follow after them. However, he was surprised to discover that he was unable to move.

“Lil’ Rou, Lil’ Mei, wait for me!!!” Chu Feng hurriedly shouted.

However, Su Rou and Su Mei acted as if they could not hear him and soon disappeared from his line of sight.

As Su Rou and Su Mei gradually grew further and further away,

Chu Feng's eyes turned pitch-black. The only thing he could hear were the angry footsteps of Su Rou and the sweet-sounding laughter of Su Mei.

“Lil' Rou, Lil' Mei!!!”

Suddenly, Chu Feng got back up.

At that moment, he was still sitting inside a forest. Merely, that forest was completely different from the forest earlier.

This was simply a different place.

“It was a dream. What happened earlier was a dream. What a realistic dream.”

Chu Feng came to a sudden realization. The scene earlier had taken place in the Azure Dragon School's forest. It was when Su Mei was still only a young woman, when Su Rou was still an elder of the Azure Dragon School, and when neither of them were his lovers.

It had indeed been a dream. Merely, that dream had been too life-like. It had been so realistic that it came like a sharp blade that pierced through Chu Feng's heart.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt pain all over his body. It was as if his body was being torn apart. That sort of pain was very unbearable.

However, the pain he felt on his body was far inferior to the pain he felt in his heart.

It was the pain from longing for Su Rou and Su Mei, as well as the guilt he felt toward them.

At that moment when Chu Feng was feeling sentimental, he suddenly discovered that he was holding onto the Evil God Sword with his right hand.

He suddenly recalled what had happened earlier.

He clearly remembered that the Evil God Sword had nearly seized his body.

Recalling that, Chu Feng immediately tossed the Evil God Sword away.

Then, he turned his consciousness toward his world spirit space. He wanted to see how Her Lady Queen was doing.

However, he was shocked to discover that he was actually unable to enter his world spirit space, and could not sense the situation inside his world spirit space.

It was as if his world spirit space had disappeared from his body.

Chapter 2435 – The War Clan's Ancient Domain

---

“Eggy, are you alright?!” Filled with nervousness, Chu Feng hurriedly shouted for Eggy.

“Chu Feng, you’ve finally woken up? How are you feeling?” Right at that moment, Her Lady Queen’s voice sounded. Like Chu Feng, her voice was filled with concern and nervousness.

Hearing that familiar voice, Chu Feng’s tensed heart was finally at ease.

With that voice, Chu Feng knew that Her Lady Queen was, at the very least, still alive.

“Eggy, I’m fine. How about you? Are you okay?” Chu Feng asked anxiously.

To him, Her Lady Queen was simply too important. Thus, he was extremely concerned about Her Lady Queen’s safety.

“I’m also fine. Judging from the current situation, you’ve managed to retrieve your body. I am at ease now,” At that moment, Her Lady Queen was very joyous.

“Eggy, my awareness was fuzzy earlier. I do not remember a lot of things. Do you know where we are now?” Chu Feng asked.

Although Chu Feng had no idea where they currently were, he knew that this place was most definitely not the Kong Heavenly Clan. Furthermore, he knew that this place was very far away from the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“The connection between us was severed earlier. Thus, I was unable to see anything or hear anything at all. As such, I also do not know where we are.”

“However, you might be able to ask that person where we are,” Her Lady Queen said.

Even without Her Lady Queen mentioning it, Chu Feng had also discovered that a youth was walking toward him from a nearby place.

That youth appeared to be fifteen or sixteen years old. However, he possessed the cultivation of a rank one Martial Emperor.

A fifteen or sixteen-year-old youth was actually a Martial Emperor. That was truly shocking. After all, when he was fifteen or sixteen years of age, he was still so very weak.

Martial Emperor? That was simply akin to a legend back then.

However, the current Chu Feng was not very surprised. After all, this place was the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, a world ruled by True Immortal-level experts. This was a world where Martial Ancestors were everywhere.

Martial Emperor? They were simply unworthy of being mentioned at all.

That youth had a very plain and simple outfit. In fact, his clothes could even be said to be somewhat worn out. Although worn out, those clothes were still very clean and neat.

The youth was holding a canteen. After he saw Chu Feng, he was immediately overjoyed. He hastened his pace and soon arrived before Chu Feng.

He said, “Big brother, you finally woke up. I thought that you might not wake up. Come, have some water.”

“This here is water that I’ve fetched from the Healing Water Pond. It is effective at healing one’s injuries and brightening one’s psyche.” {basically making you think clearer}

After he finished saying those words, the youth opened the canteen and handed it to Chu Feng. Sure enough, a refreshing aura was being emitted from the canteen.

At that moment, Chu Feng realized that he had most likely been discovered by this youth when he was unconscious.

“Thank you.”

As Chu Feng was indeed thirsty, he received the canteen from the youth and gulped mouthfuls of water.

After drinking the water, the pain Chu Feng felt indeed lessened slightly. He felt grateful toward the youth and then asked, “Brother, was it you who discovered me? We are unrelated to one another, yet you actually cared for me like this. I am truly grateful, thank you.”

“Aiyah, there’s no need to be this courteous. It’s nothing serious.”

The youth laughed. From his unconcerned manner, one could tell that he was eager to help others.

“Brother, may I know where this is?” Chu Feng asked.

“Where this is? This is the Maple Leaf Forest,” The youth said.

“Maple Leaf Forest?”

Chu Feng looked around, and discovered that maple trees were indeed everywhere. Merely, the maple trees here were many tens of times larger than ordinary maples. Their leaves were also much more lush.

From a glance, the place was truly beautiful.

However, after pondering for a moment, Chu Feng couldn’t remember having ever heard of that place before. That said, he felt that the forest was not very large, and was thus most likely not famous in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Furthermore, as Chu Feng recalled that his body had not been seized by the Evil God Sword, he felt that everything was good.

Furthermore, although his body was in pain, he possessed the ability to move. That meant that the backlash he had received from the Evil God Sword was not very serious. As such, he felt happy.

“That is?” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s expression changed.

He discovered a title plate on the youth’s waist. On that title plate were four large characters.

Ancient Era’s War Clan!!!

Chu Feng firmly remembered that a renowned individual had appeared in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm approximately fifty thousand years ago.

That man was called Zhan Haichuan. He held a silver spear and wore silver armor. After he appeared, he remained undefeated, and soon became the strongest expert in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

However, not long after Zhan Haichuan made his name, he disappeared. When he appeared again, very few people knew of it. In fact, only the Sunset Cloud Valley’s second generation Valley Master knew of Zhan Haichuan’s re-emergence.

Zhan Haichuan found the Sunset Cloud Valley’s second generation Valley Master and became close friends with him. He taught the Sunset Cloud Valley’s second generation Valley Master various mysterious techniques and martial skills, allowing the Sunset Cloud Valley to obtain their current glory.

Afterwards, Zhan Haichuan died. He established his tomb in the Sunset Cloud Valley’s forbidden area. Then, Zhan Haichuan’s tomb disappeared. Chu Feng had received the trust of the Sunset Cloud Valley’s Valley Master to enter the forbidden area and search for Zhan Haichuan’s tomb. In there, he had encountered that mysterious old cat.

That old cat had called itself Lord Tiger, and proclaimed itself to be the founder of the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple. Furthermore, the old cat was very powerful and Zhan Haichuan’s tomb had been robbed by it.

That old cat was so strong that its strength was simply unassessable. Chu Feng felt that it was most likely not a creature from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

However, even that extremely powerful old cat was trapped in Zhan Haichuan's graveyard for many years. Had it not been for Chu Feng's arrival and then being exploited by the old cat, the old cat would most likely not have been able to escape.

From that, it could be imagined that Zhan Haichuan was indeed very powerful. At the very least, Zhan Haichuan was much more powerful than that old cat. Else, it would be impossible for Zhan Haichuan's tomb to trap that old cat.

Likely, after Zhan Haichuan left the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, his cultivation reached a new peak. Perhaps he had also managed to make a name for himself in the expert-filled Upper Realms.

As for the extraordinary Zhan Haichuan, he proclaimed to have been from the Ancient Era's War Clan.

However, according to what Chu Feng knew, while the Ancient Era's War Clan existed in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, they lived in an isolated world that practically no one was able to find.

As such, how could a member of the Ancient Era's War Clan appear before him? Chu Feng wondered whether he had accidentally entered the Ancient Era's War Clan's world, or whether there were people from the Ancient Era's War Clan who came out from that world again.

Or could it be that the youth before him was merely an impersonator who did not possess any relationship with the Ancient Era's War Clan at all?

"Brother, where did you obtain that title plate of yours?" Chu Feng asked.

“Where I obtained it? This here is mine,” The youth said.

“Yours?” Chu Feng revealed a surprised expression.

“Big brother, this title plate is naturally mine. You couldn’t possibly be thinking that I had picked this up or stolen this from somewhere, right?”

“Truth be told, my name is Zhan Lingtong. Not only am I a member of the Ancient Era’s War Clan, but I am also the Young Master of the Ancient Era’s War Clan,” The youth said proudly.

“Young Master? Chu Feng, tell him to stop fooling around. Judging by his appearance, he’s more likely a peasant. How does he resemble a young master at all?” Her Lady Queen mocked.

“Milady Queen, you can’t judge a person by their appearance. I do not feel that he resembles someone that boasts a lot.”

Chu Feng looked at the youth and smiled lightly. Then, he asked, “Is this place the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?”

“Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm? Of course this place isn’t the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. This place is the War Clan’s Ancient Domain.”

“Big brother, I now know why you’ve lost consciousness, and for so long too.”

“Did you attempt to leave the War Clan’s Ancient Domain to enter the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?”

“I’d urge you to stop trying. We will not be able to leave the War Clan’s Ancient Domain. All these years, other than senior Zhan Haichuan, there has never been anyone who managed to exit the War Clan’s Ancient Domain and enter the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

The youth had an earnest and well-meaning appearance as he advised Chu Feng.

That said, the words spoken by the youth came like a sudden clap of thunder as they entered Chu Feng's ears, making him unable to remain calm.

“Wow! Chu Feng, you've struck gold! It seems that this War Clan's Ancient Domain was the place where that Zhan Haichuan trained in the past.”

“If you are able to find the place where he comprehended the way of martial cultivation, your cultivation will definitely advance by leaps and bounds,” Her Lady Queen was wild with joy.

Chu Feng also had an unconcealed expression of joy on his face.

He naturally knew of that too.

Right now, a large amount of Natural Energies were gathered in Chu Feng's body. All he needed to do right now was reach the junction for a breakthrough.

As for the place where Zhan Haichuan had stayed to comprehend the way of martial cultivation, it would most definitely be an extraordinary location. If Chu Feng was able to find it, he would definitely receive an enormous harvest.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, the sounds of rumbling reverberated through the distant sky.

Turning toward the sound, a vast amount of black clouds that carried many lightning bolts with them was rapidly approaching.

“Big brother, run quickly! It's the people from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan!”

At that moment, the expression of that youth changed enormously. As he spoke, he turned to flee toward the distance.

“Rumble~~~”

However, right at that moment, black clouds appeared from all directions. They were gathering in the direction of Chu Feng and that youth.

“Crap! We’ve... been surrounded,” Seeing such a scene, the youth revealed a dejected expression.

Chapter 2436 – Reputation

---

Seeing the youth panic, Chu Feng activated his Heaven's Eyes to observe the surroundings.

It was then that he discovered that there was a magnificent army concealed within the dark clouds that surrounded them.

Furthermore, Chu Feng managed to tell with a single glance that they were monstrous beasts. The reason for that was because their eyes were green, their hair was green, their ears were different from those of humans, and they had sharp fangs.

Although the majority of their characteristics were identical to humans, they were indeed still monstrous beasts.

“Who are those guys?” Chu Feng turned to ask the youth.

“They are people from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan. They are enemies of our Ancient Era's War Clan. This is extremely bad. Never did I expect that they'd find me this quickly.”

As the youth spoke, he grabbed the title plate on his waist. He clenched it with great strength and actually shattered it.

Chu Feng knew what the youth was trying to do; he was trying to not have that Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan know that he was someone from the Ancient Era's War Clan. That was why he had destroyed his title plate.

It could be seen that the Ancient Era's War Clan and the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan were hostile powers.

“Actually, you don't have to be afraid of them,” Chu Feng said.

“What? Big brother, you must be ignorant and inexperienced. Could it be that you do not know how vicious the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan is?”

Seeing how confident Chu Feng appeared to be, the youth's eyes were filled with shock. He was looking at Chu Feng with the gaze of someone looking at a fool.

“They are only a bunch of Half Martial Ancestors. Even the strongest among them is only a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. With their strength, they will not be able to harm you today,” Chu Feng said after patting the youth’s shoulder.

The youth was only a rank one Martial Emperor. Faced with those Half Martial Ancestor-level experts, he would naturally be very scared.

However, Chu Feng was a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Thus, regardless of how numerous those monstrous beasts might be, he would not place them in his eyes.

“Big brother, you...” Seeing how calm and collected Chu Feng was, the expression with which the youth looked at Chu Feng changed again. He suddenly discovered that Chu Feng did not appear to be ignorant and inexperienced. Rather, he looked more like someone with a plan in his heart.

At that moment, the youth felt that perhaps the man before him was truly able to handle the monstrous beast army.

“Brazen humans, you dare intrude into our Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s territory? Have you grown tired of living?”

Soon, the group from the so-called Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan surrounded Chu Feng and the youth in many layers.

That said, although there were thousands of people from the Monstrous Clan in the black clouds, only four appeared before Chu Feng and the youth. Those four all possessed the cultivation of rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

Evidently, they simply did not place Chu Feng and that youth in their eyes at all.

“Milords, we were merely lost. We did not intentionally intrude upon your territory. Please, please spare us.”

At that moment, the youth actually knelt on the ground with a ‘putt.’ He started to beg for forgiveness. His appearance was truly humble; there was no trace of the attitude that an Ancient Era’s War Clan’s young master should possess.

Earlier, the youth had indeed thought that Chu Feng would be able to take care of the group of people from the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan.

However, that thought of his only persisted for a split second. When those four monstrous beasts appeared before him, after he felt their Half Martial Ancestor auras, he immediately felt that a great catastrophe would befall them.

Begging for forgiveness, that was the only way for him to survive.

“Get up. Why kneel to them? As a man, you must have dignity,” Chu Feng grabbed the youth and stood him up.

“Oh my, you have quite the dignity. Let me ask you this, is your dignity more important, or is your life more important?” One of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s monstrous beasts looked at Chu Feng with its peculiar gaze.

“Naturally, both dignity and life are important,” Chu Feng replied.

“What if you can only choose one?” The monstrous beast asked with a ridiculing tone.

“That’s very hard to choose. Merely... you all lack the qualifications to make me choose,” Chu Feng smiled. It was a very meaningful smile.

“We lack the qualifications?” Hearing those words, the monstrous beasts revealed furious expressions.

“Not to mention you all, even that rank five Half Martial Ancestor above does not possess the qualifications to ask me to choose,” Chu Feng pointed to the black cloud where that rank five Half Martial Ancestor was concealed.

“You...” At that moment, the monstrous beasts of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan grew scared.

It was not only the ones outside who were scared; even that rank five Half Martial Ancestor within the clouds revealed a startled expression.

He had concealed his cultivation. Logically, unless one possessed strength stronger than his own, it would be impossible for one to see through his concealed cultivation.

Yet, Chu Feng had seen through his cultivation with a single glance. That could only mean one thing — Chu Feng’s strength surpassed his own.

“Exactly who are you?” At that moment, a stern voice sounded from the black clouds. Naturally, it was that rank five Half Martial Ancestor asking those words.

“If you insist on having me answer that, I can only say that I am someone that you all cannot afford to offend,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he waved his hand disdainfully at the sky, “Leave now. Take advantage of the fact that I am not yet angry to disappear. Otherwise... you will all regret it.”

“You...” Faced with the insulting words spoken by Chu Feng, the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s clansmen were extremely furious. However, no one dared to do anything to Chu Feng.

“Wow! Big brother, so you were actually this powerful?” At that moment, that Ancient Era’s War Clan’s youth looked to Chu Feng with a face filled with admiration and adoration.

He was no fool. From the reaction of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan, he was able to tell that they were scared.

This meant that the man before him was extremely powerful. Else, how could he cause the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s army to be scared?

“What audacity! I’ll tell you this, this place is our Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s territory! You are but a mere human, don’t you think that you can behave atrociously here!” One of the rank one Half Martial Ancestor-level monstrous beasts standing before Chu Feng pointed at him and shouted.

However, when he shouted those words, his entire body was shivering. In fact, even his voice was trembling. From this, it could be seen that he was extremely flustered when he said those words.

“I insist on behaving atrociously, what can you possibly do about it?” Chu Feng said to that monstrous beast. As he spoke those words, he even took two steps forward, arriving before that monstrous beast.

“This is what you get for behaving atrociously!!!” That monstrous beast sent forth a punch as he shouted. His punch was aimed directly at Chu Feng’s face.

At that moment, Chu Feng revealed a slight smile. That punch was simply too slow. He could see the entirety of the punch. If he wanted to dodge it, he would be able to easily dodge it.

“What’s going on?”

However, the next moment, Chu Feng started to panic. He was shocked to discover that while his opponent’s punch was very slow, he was even slower.

Faced with this extremely weak punch, he was actually... unable to dodge!!!

“Bang~~~”

The punch struck Chu Feng’s face.

It remained that his opponent was a rank one Half Martial Ancestor. Thus, his punch was no small matter. After being struck, Chu Feng was knocked several thousand meters away. As he flew, he smashed through countless trees and many large boulders.

However, after Chu Feng landed, he actually did not have any wounds on his body. Nevertheless, Chu Feng had a completely perplexed expression on his face.

“What’s going on? How is it possible that I wasn’t able to dodge it?” Chu Feng was very shocked.

“Quickly, quickly check your cultivation!” Her Lady Queen shouted.

“How could this be?! My cultivation... my cultivation is actually that of a rank nine Martial Emperor?”

Chu Feng was stunned. His current cultivation was not that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor at all. Rather, it was that of a rank nine Martial Emperor.

Chu Feng’s cultivation had actually fallen. Furthermore, it had fallen by that much.

“Fucking hell, and here I thought you were extremely powerful. Turns out you’re nothing more than trash.”

“Brothers! Beat him up!”

Seeing that Chu Feng was knocked flying by a single punch, the monstrous beasts of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan immediately rushed toward Chu Feng. It was not only the four from before, as several dozen more had descended from the black clouds. They surrounded Chu Feng and began to beat him up.

From this, it could be seen that Chu Feng had enraged them by making them become afraid earlier. Thus, they wanted to properly teach Chu Feng a lesson.

Faced with the group beating from the monstrous beasts, Chu Feng could only get thrashed. After all, his current cultivation was only that of a rank nine Martial Emperor, completely inferior to the group of monstrous beasts.

Furthermore, his world spirit space had been sealed. As such,

Chu Feng was unable to even use his world spirit techniques.

“Damn it! What’s going on? Why did my cultivation disappear while my body... is still that of a Half Martial Ancestor?” Chu Feng turned to ask Her Lady Queen.

Chu Feng was able to sense that his current cultivation was indeed that of a rank nine Martial Emperor. Else, it would be impossible for him to not be able to dodge the punch from that mere rank one Half Martial Ancestor.

However, Chu Feng’s body was that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. Else... it would be impossible for him to feel not the slightest pain even after being beaten by the group of Half Martial Ancestors.

“Chu Feng, something is definitely wrong here. Perhaps this might be the backlash from using the Evil God Sword. Your world spirit space has been sealed, and your cultivation has also been sealed.”

“That’s right, it has been sealed. Your cultivation has merely been sealed. It is not lost,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Eggy, do you know of a way for me to regain my cultivation or open my world spirit space?” Chu Feng asked.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt very humiliated. Earlier, he had spoken so arrogantly. Yet now, he was actually being beaten.

Humiliating, truly humiliating. It was the first time Chu Feng had felt such overwhelming humiliation in his entire life.

He felt that he had lost all of his face at that moment.

If he was unable to quickly regain his cultivation and beat up this bunch, Chu Feng’s reputation would be ruined.

Chapter 2437 – Reduced To A Slave

---

“I do not know what the source of the issue is. Thus, I have no way to help you.”

“But, Chu Feng, it’s only your cultivation that is sealed. Your body is still that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. It’s impossible for this bunch of shrimp soldiers and crab generals to cause you harm.”

“However, you are also unable to do anything about them. Other than being beaten up, there is nothing you can do.”

“I’d urge you to submit to them for now. It will not be too late to settle this debt with them after you regain your cultivation,” Her Lady Queen said.

“You want me to submit to them?” Chu Feng was naturally unwilling to do so. However, upon thinking about it, the monstrous beasts were quite ruthless in their attacks. If they were unable to cause him harm even after beating him up for an extended period of time, they would inevitably start to suspect something.

Although these guys would not be able to injure Chu Feng, it was as Her Lady Queen said, Chu Feng would also not be able to do anything to them.

If they were to discover the abnormality with Chu Feng, they might end up bringing him back to their Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan.

What if there were True Immortal-level experts in their clan? Even if there weren’t any True Immortal Experts, what if there were Martial Ancestor-level experts? At that time, Chu Feng would definitely suffer.

Thinking about that, Chu Feng took out a special medicinal pellet while the monstrous beasts continued to beat him up. He secretly swallowed the medicinal pellet.

“Fuck! You’re eating a forbidden medicine? Do you really think that you can defeat us by taking a forbidden medicine?” Chu Feng’s swallowing of the medicine was discovered. They all thought that Chu Feng was taking a forbidden medicine. Thus, their attacks grew even more ruthless.

However, right after that medicinal pellet was swallowed by Chu Feng, Chu Feng started to bleed from his seven facial orifices. Bruises appeared all over his body. Soon, he was changed beyond recognition.

What Chu Feng had taken was a special disguise pellet. Upon taking it, it would cause its user to appear to suffer from serious injuries. However, those were merely disguises. The user of the pellet would not receive any actual injuries.

Back then, Chu Feng had only created the disguise pellet for fun. He had never expected that it would actually come in handy.

“Stop beating him, stop beating him. If you all continue beating him, you’ll beat him to death.”

Right at that moment, that young master of the Ancient Era’s War Clan ran forward and began to plead for leniency. However, those monstrous beasts completely ignored the youth’s pleas.

“Sure enough, humans are a bunch of trash who only know how to bluff.”

Suddenly, a voice filled with mockery sounded from the sky. It was that rank five Half Martial Ancestor.

After those words were said, the black clouds that covered the sky started to dissipate. Evidently, the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s army had discovered that Chu Feng was not strong, and decided to not waste any more time. They had decided to have their remaining clansmen take care of Chu Feng and that youth.

It was only when the black clouds completely disappeared that the monstrous clan army left, and the monstrous clan's clansmen stopped beating Chu Feng.

Although they stopped their beating, they did not plan to leave the matter at that.

"You boasted so arrogantly earlier. And here we were thinking how amazing you were. Turns out you're utter trash."

"However, you have invoked our fury. If you want to live, kneel down for your daddies. Else... we will definitely beat you to death today," The monstrous beasts said.

Chu Feng did not speak. He would naturally not kneel to those trash. To Chu Feng, his dignity was very important.

However, Chu Feng also knew the situation he was in. As the saying goes, a wise man knows better than to fight when the odds are against him. Thus, he would no longer contradict them with words.

Thus... he chose to be silent and pretended to be unconscious.

"Not speaking? I'll teach you not to speak."

As they spoke, the group of monstrous beasts started to punch and kick Chu Feng again. Some among them even started to use martial skills.

At that moment, the medicinal pellet Chu Feng had taken took effect again. Chu Feng's body was covered with a greater amount of blood. He was beyond recognition.

"Forget about it, forget about it. If we continue to beat him up, we really will beat him to death. The mining site lacks people right now, it is better to work him to death than to beat him to death. At least he'll be able to make a contribution to our Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan like that," someone said.

"That's true. Look at him, he can't even speak. He has most likely lost consciousness. Truly trash."

“That said, to be honest, this guy’s bones are quite tough. My hands and feet actually felt numb from beating him up. This made it so that I did not dare to attack him with my fists and feet.”

“It’s more than just feeling numb, beating him up is like hitting an adamantium metal plate. It hurts like hell.”

“However, look at his current wretched appearance. Seems like he is no one great either. He merely has tough bones,” The monstrous beasts of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan started to discuss Chu Feng.

“Take their Cosmos Sacks. Let’s check to see whether or not there are treasures inside,” Someone said.

“Don’t. Although our Lord has left, you know the rules we have here. We are not allowed to confiscate the humans’ possessions. We can only hand their possessions to our Lord after they are worked to death in the mine.”

“Furthermore, look at the wretched and poor appearance of these two fellows. Do they look like people with treasures?” Someone urged against it.

“That’s true, they’re beggars. Look, here’s an Incomplete Imperial Armament. They’re Martial Emperors now, yet they’re still using Incomplete Imperial Armaments,” One of the monstrous beast picked up the Evil God Sword. Then, he turned to that youth and asked, “Is this yours?”

“No... it’s his,” The youth pointed at Chu Feng.

“This trash doesn’t even possess an Imperial Armament. Yet he actually dared to shoot off his mouth toward us, not placing us in his eyes.”

“If it wasn’t for the fact that the mines lacked workers, I would definitely tear him to pieces and then feed him to my pets. Else, my anger would not be quelled,” The monstrous beasts of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan looked at Chu Feng with gazes filled with disdain.

They were certain that Chu Feng was someone who only knew how to boast, someone who did not possess any actual ability.

Yet, they were actually frightened by Chu Feng earlier. The more they thought about it, the more furious they became.

Upon feeling furious, there were actually people among them that rushed to punch and kick Chu Feng again.

That said, even though they were beating Chu Feng up by punching and kicking him, their punches and kicks were infused with martial power. None of them used their own physical bodies to attack Chu Feng.

Although they had no idea why it was the case, they had to admit that Chu Feng's body was so tough that their fists and feet were unable to endure.

"Here. Brat, take this. Hold it for him," That monstrous beast who picked up the Evil God Sword tossed it to the youth in a very disdainful manner.

Then, those monstrous beasts brought Chu Feng and the youth to a mine.

The mine was very large. It was guarded by the monstrous beasts of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan. Interestingly, all of the miners in the mine were humans.

At that moment, the sky had darkened, yet the miners were still mining. The sounds of mining resonated throughout the entire mountain.

It was very noisy, ear-piercing, and saddening.

Chu Feng was pretending to be unconscious. Strangely, even though his world spirit space and cultivation were both sealed, he was still able to use his Heaven's Eyes.

Thus, Chu Feng discovered that the army of monstrous beasts that had left earlier were actually all from the mine. Likely, they were tasked with guarding it.

That said, the strongest monstrous beast there was not the rank five Half Martial Ancestor he met earlier. Rather, it was a rank six Half Martial Ancestor.

However, such strength was insignificant to Chu Feng. As long as he recovered his cultivation, he would not fear even rank nine Half Martial Ancestors.

The issue at hand was how to recover his cultivation.

“Putt~” Chu Feng and the youth were dropped onto the mining grounds.

“From today on, the two of you will be living here.”

“Boy, feed that trash with this medicinal pellet. You two can rest for tonight. When morning comes, you are to properly work. If you dare slack off, we will make it so that you will wish you are dead,” After tossing over a medicinal pellet and saying those words, the monstrous beasts left.

The youth dragged Chu Feng to the location where they would be living from now on.

It was a stone house. To be accurate, rather than calling it a stone house, it would be more apt to call it a cave.

In short, it was very simple and crude. That said, with the level of cultivation of the monstrous beasts, it would be extremely simple to create residential palaces.

However, they did not. From this, it could be seen that the monstrous beasts truly did not consider the miners as people.

Chapter 2438 – Method To Undo Seal

---

“Say, big brother, why must you do this and make yourself suffer? Quickly, take the medicinal pellet. Being able to recover a bit is better than nothing. Else, if you are unable to properly mine tomorrow, you will likely end up receiving a beating again.”

As the youth spoke, he moved the medicinal pellet to Chu Feng’s mouth.

However, right at that moment, a voice transmission entered the youth’s ear.

“Little brother, are you really the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s young master?”

Naturally, the voice transmission came from Chu Feng.

The rooms here did not even have doors, much less spirit formations to isolate sound. Thus, everything was within the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s surveillance.

As Chu Feng wanted to discuss some secret matters with the youth, he could only do so through voice transmission.

“You... you’re fine?” The youth was shocked.

Although Chu Feng appeared to be very seriously injured, his voice was very resounding and vigorous. It simply did not resemble the voice of someone who was injured. This completely dumbfounded the youth. He felt this to be very miraculous.

“Rest assured, I am fine. Answer my question first,” Chu Feng continued to ask.

“Big brother, I, Zhan Lingtong, am never one to lie. I am indeed the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Young Master. My father is the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief,” This Zhan Lingtong was very smart. While pretending to be attending to Chu Feng’s injuries, he started to converse with Chu Feng through voice transmission.

“In that case, answer three of my questions.”

“First, what is the relation between the Ancient Era’s War Clan and the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan?”

“Second, what is the cultivation of the strongest fellow in the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan?”

“Last, why did you come to the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s territory?”

Chu Feng asked three questions in succession.

Zhan Lingtong began to answer Chu Feng’s questions through voice transmission.

With this, Chu Feng came to know about the situation at hand.

Firstly, the Ancient Era’s War Clan and the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan had been hostile powers for many generations.

The two of them were equally strong in this day and age. It was only during the time when Zhan Haichuan appeared that the Ancient Era’s War Clan was able to suppress the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan. However, Zhan Haichuan did not eliminate the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan.

Zhan Haichuan did not provide an explanation as to why he decided not to do so. Thus, not to mention the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan, even the people from the Ancient Era’s War Clan were puzzled.

And now, the strongest individual in the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan was a rank five Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, that individual possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation.

Chu Feng was actually quite disappointed upon finding this out. Although a rank five Martial Ancestor with a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation was very powerful, so strong that Chu Feng would not be a match even if he was to regain his cultivation, it was simply too ordinary of a cultivation when placed in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Not to mention the people from tier one powers, even some of the experts from tier two powers would be able to contend against someone of that cultivation and battle power, and even defeat them.

The reason why Chu Feng was so disappointed was because this was, after all, the War Clan's Ancient Domain, the birthplace of Zhan Haichuan. For the strongest fellow here to only possess that sort of cultivation and strength was simply too weak.

To Chu Feng's greater disappointment, although the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief was weak enough, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief, Zhan Lingtong's father, was even weaker.

Although Zhan Lingtong's father, the current Clan Chief of the Ancient Era's War Clan, also possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, he was only a rank four Martial Ancestor, an entire level of cultivation weaker than the Clan Chief of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

If it wasn't for the fact that the Ancient Era's Monstrous Beasts were afraid of Zhan Lingtong's grandfather, an existence who had been in closed-door training for a long time, and the Ancient Era's War Clan's grand defensive formation, they would most likely have already led their army to exterminate the Ancient Era's War Clan.

"Then why did you come here?" Chu Feng asked again after hearing about the situation. That was something that he was curious about himself.

"I like a girl. Although she is a human, she is not a part of our Ancient Era's War Clan. My clan has refused to permit me to be with her the entire time.”

“During this period of time, our Ancient Era’s War Clan and the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan have been fighting nonstop. In recent years, the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan has grown more and more powerful, and they have forcibly taken many of our clan’s territories. It just so happened that the place where that girl lives in is now a territory occupied by the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan.”

“If I want to find her, I need to infiltrate into the territory of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan. Actually, this mine and the forest that we were in before were both our Ancient Era’s War Clan’s territory in the past. Merely, they are now...” When mentioning that matter, Zhan Lingtong had a helpless and unreconciled expression.

Chu Feng understood his feelings very well. After all, Zhang Lingtong was someone from the Ancient Era’s War Clan. As such, the sensation of one’s clan’s territory being seized by another would most definitely be unpleasant.

Zhan Lingtong sighed. “And now, I’ve been captured by the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan and reduced to their slave. I am truly too useless.”

“Fortunately, they do not know who I am. Else, if they were to use me as a hostage, I fear...” Zhan Lingtong had an expression of self-blame.

“Don’t think that way. I actually feel that you’re very brave,” Chu Feng said.

“I’m brave?” Zhan Lingtong asked.

“At the very least, I feel that the fact you are willing to bear this risk for someone you love is something that ordinary people cannot accomplish. I believe that you will definitely attain great accomplishments in the future,” Chu Feng said.

“You are truly good at comforting others. Merely... I don’t understand. Do you really not know about the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan? Why did you do that?” Zhan Lingtong asked Chu Feng.

Zhan Lingtong was actually indirectly implying something with his questions. He wanted to ask Chu Feng why he had confronted the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan only to suffer in the end.

“If I were to tell you that I’m from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, would you believe me?” Chu Feng asked.

“Don’t joke around. With your cultivation, how could you possibly enter this place?” Zhan Lingtong said.

“In that case, if I am to tell you that I didn’t lie to you, and that I would have been able to take care of those fellows, you would definitely not believe me too, no?” Chu Feng asked again.

“Your injuries are very serious. It is best that you take this medicinal pellet and rest yourself. We will have to work laboriously tomorrow.”

“The mountain mine is called the Martial Essence Stone Mine. The ores in this mine possess Natural Energies. However, they are extremely labor intensive to mine. One must use special tools to mine them. Furthermore, if one does not possess the cultivation of a Martial Emperor, one will simply not be able to mine the ores.”

“Comparatively, when Half Martial Ancestors try to mine the ores, it will be easier. As both you and I are Martial Emperors, we will likely end up suffering hardships from tomorrow onward,” Zhan Lingtong evidently did not want to continue on this topic. Thus, he started to earnestly urge Chu Feng to rest.

“Very well. In that case, you should properly rest yourself tonight,” Chu Feng didn’t try to continue the previous conversation. He swallowed the medicinal pellet and closed his eyes to rest.

“Oh, that’s right, here’s your weapon,” Suddenly, Zhan Lingtong tossed the Evil God Sword to Chu Feng.

The Evil God Sword appeared very ordinary right now. In fact, it appeared inferior to even ordinary Incomplete Imperial Armaments. It no longer possessed its overwhelming killing intent and destructive power.

Seeing this Evil God Sword, Chu Feng felt very complicated.

He had experienced the might of the Evil God Sword. That sword was even more frightening than he had anticipated it to be.

He... nearly became a cold-blooded murderous demon because of the sword.

However, if it wasn’t for the Evil God Sword, how could he possibly have been able to escape from the Kong Heavenly Clan? Likely, he would’ve been killed by those Utmost Exalted Elders.

Thus, no matter what, regardless of whether it might be the fact that his cultivation and world spirit space were sealed or the fact that he had nearly had his body seized by the Evil God Sword, it remained that... Chu Feng was only able to survive thanks to the Evil God Sword.

With those thoughts in mind, Chu Feng received the Evil God Sword and placed it into his Cosmos Sack.

He would be very cautious when using the Evil God Sword again in the future. However, when absolutely necessary, the Evil God Sword might save his life again.

“Chu Feng, I thought of a way that might be able to undo the seal around your world spirit space and your cultivation,” Right at that moment, Her Lady Queen’s voice suddenly sounded.

“What is it?” Chu Feng hurriedly asked.

This was what Chu Feng wanted to know the most right now.

Chapter 2439 – Recovering Cultivation

---

“Back in the Asura Spirit World, I met a senior whose cultivation was also sealed. Later on, his cultivation was restored. I asked him how he accomplished that, and he was able to do it by practicing the martial skill that he had trained in in reverse.”

“Right now, you are training in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. Why don’t you try doing so with it?”

“Of course, that senior explicitly stated that training in one’s martial skill in reverse is a very dangerous thing to do.”

“It is very possible for one to lose one’s mind and even die in the process. If you are to discover anything amiss, you must immediately stop,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Indeed. Ordinary methods will most definitely not be able to unseal one’s sealed cultivation. Perhaps by doing things in reverse, one will be able to break through the hurdle. This method is worthy of trying,” Chu Feng closed his eyes and began to train in his Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. Merely... he was training in reverse this time around.

“Eeahh...”

Chu Feng immediately let out a miserable scream right after he started.

To train a martial skill in reverse was a very dangerous thing to do. By doing it, Chu Feng felt a pain akin to his body and soul being torn apart.

Such pain was something that ordinary people would find unbearable. Even Chu Feng was unable to keep himself from screaming in pain.

Seeing that, Zhan Lingtong hurriedly moved toward Chu Feng and asked nervously, “Big brother, what’s wrong?”

“I’m alright. Perhaps it might be the effect of the medicine. Don’t bother with me. Perhaps my injuries will be completely healed by tomorrow morning,” At that moment, Chu Feng’s complexion had turned pale and his face was covered in sweat. However, he still forced a smile at Zhan Lingtong.

“You said it’s the effect of the medicine that caused you to react in this manner?”

“But, that’s a medicinal pellet for healing injuries. It should be bringing relief to pain, why would you be in greater pain?” Zhan Lingtong evidently did not believe Chu Feng.

“That’s why you’re inexperienced. For some healing medicines, their effects are very fast. However, the process is very painful. This is what it means by experiencing a shorter moment of greater pain than a prolonged journey of lesser pain. Don’t worry about me. I will be fine.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he sat cross-legged and closed his eyes. The next moment, he let out another painful scream.

Chu Feng did not stop. The reason for that was because he had discovered that this method... was effective.

Chu Feng’s cultivation began to gradually recover. Not only that, but the unbearable pain was actually also gradually fading.

In that situation, everything grew more and more smooth. Chu Feng’s cultivation also started to rapidly recover.

Seeing that Chu Feng no longer screamed in pain, Zhan Lingtong also grew relieved.

When the sky was still dark, two monstrous beasts from the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan arrived outside of the stone house that Chu Feng was in.

Those two were familiar faces. They were the ones who had ruthlessly beaten up Chu Feng earlier.

Merely, this time around, the two of them were both holding long whips. It could be seen that they had come with ill intentions.

“Pow~~~”

One of the two lashed his whip at the roof of the stone house, creating a split on the roof.

Many crushed stones started to fall from the top of the stone house, startling the sleeping Zhan Lingtong awake.

Upon seeing the monstrous beasts, Zhan Lingtong hurriedly asked, “Milords, what’s wrong?”

“What’s wrong? It’s time now! Why are you still sleeping?! Quickly, get up and start working!” The two monstrous beasts said with a malicious tone.

It turned out that the two of them had come to urge Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong to work.

“Milords, weren’t we told to properly rest ourselves for the night? The sky is still dark right now,” Zhan Lingtong spoke in grievance.

“Look carefully. There’s all those people over there... other than the ones that have lost consciousness from overworking, who else is resting lazily like you two?”

“If it wasn’t for the fact that we have badly beaten that trash over there, causing him to need time to recover his injuries, how could we allow you two to rest?”

“And now, that trash is already fine. Yet you two still want to continue resting? Hell the fuck no!!!”

“Get the hell up and start working immediately! Otherwise, this whip of mine will not show any mercy!”

That monstrous beast spoke fiendishly as he fiddled with the whip in his hand. His tone was filled with impatience.

They had simply not considered Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong to be human beings. Rather, they were treating them as domesticated animals, whose only purpose was to work for them. In fact, they felt Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong to be inferior to even animals.

Zhan Lingtong sighed helplessly. Then, he started to walk toward Chu Feng.

Earlier, Chu Feng had been screaming in pain. However, he was now pretty much no longer screaming. Furthermore, his complexion had become much better. Zhan Lingtong felt that Chu Feng should be alright now.

“Big brother, stop sleeping. Quickly, wake up. We have to go work now,” Zhan Lingtong hurriedly walked over to Chu Feng and called out for him to wake up.

“Wait a moment,” Chu Feng said.

At that moment, Chu Feng had reached the final junction in recovering his cultivation. Thus, he would naturally not give up so easily.

“What did you say?!” It just so happened that what Chu Feng said was heard by the two monstrous beasts.

The two of them harbored hatred toward Chu Feng to begin with. And now, Chu Feng actually dared to act arrogant before them again. Immediately, the two of them grew furious.

“Shut your mouths! If you dare interrupt me again, I’ll cripple you,” Chu Feng opened his eyes and glared at the two monstrous beasts standing in the sky. Then, he closed his eyes again.

“Big brother, you...”

Zhan Lingtong was stunned. He felt that what Chu Feng was doing was simply akin to courting death.

The two monstrous beasts were also stunned. They had truly never expected that Chu Feng would dare to act so arrogantly even after they’d beaten him up so ruthlessly yesterday.

“You are truly courting death!”

Suddenly, one of the two monstrous beasts swung his arm and lashed his whip toward Chu Feng.

“Paa~~~”

Chu Feng raised his arm and actually grabbed the whip.

“Woosh~~~”

Then, Chu Feng suddenly exerted strength and pulled the whip back. An enormous power forcibly pulled that monstrous beast into the cave, smashing him onto the ground.

“Rumble~~~”

Rocks scattered about everywhere. That monstrous beast was thrown deep into the cave and lost consciousness.

“This guy!!!” Seeing that scene, the other monstrous beast revealed an expression of astonishment and fury.

“If you dare disturb me again, I’ll take away your dog lives,” This time around, Chu Feng did not even bother to open his eyes when he spoke. His attitude was filled with contempt.

“You damned bastard, I, I, I’ll beat you to de...” The other monstrous beast turned red with fury. He raised the whip in his hand and planned to attack Chu Feng.

However, when he saw the appearance of to the other monstrous beast who had attacked Chu Feng earlier, he stopped his movements.

After hesitating for a moment, he left, saying, “Just you wait!” turned around and rushed to leave.

At that moment, other than the unconscious monstrous beast, only Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong remained there.

At that moment, Zhan Lingtong was both astonished and frightened. He was astonished by how Chu Feng was able to easily defeat that Half Martial Ancestor.

However, more than that, he was panic-stricken. After all, this was the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's territory. For Chu Feng to cause trouble there was truly akin to courting death.

“Big brother, y-you've b-brought about a great calamity! Quickly, run away! They will not let you get away with this!” Frightened, Zhan Lingtong said to Chu Feng.

“Don't panic. Give me a moment longer, and I'll bring you away from here,” Chu Feng said.

Chapter 2440 – This Is A Treasure Mountain

---

“Big brother, look at the situation. Please stop saying these sorts of things, okay?”

Actually, Zhan Lingtong wanted to tell Chu Feng to stop boasting. He wanted to remind Chu Feng about the beating he had received yesterday.

As for Chu Feng, he had grown silent after he finished saying what he wanted. No matter how worried Zhan Lingtong was, there was nothing he could do.

Soon, several hundred Ancient Era's Monstrous Clansmen arrived before Kong Lingtong's line of sight.

The person leading the group was actually that rank five Half Martial Ancestor from yesterday. Standing beside him was the monstrous beast that Chu Feng had scared away earlier.

“Could he be the rebellious individual you spoke of?” After that rank five Half Martial Ancestor discovered that it was Chu Feng, he looked to his clansmen beside him with a furious expression on his face. He thought that he had been lied to.

“Milord, it is indeed him. I do not know what happened to that guy. However, he actually managed to beat Yao Feng unconscious with a single attack,” The monstrous beast from earlier explained.

After it was pointed out to him, that rank five Half Martial Ancestor discovered that there was indeed a fellow clansman that was unconscious and seriously injured deep in the cave where Chu Feng stood. After discovering that, his expression turned serious.

“Brat, exactly what is your origin?” That rank five Half Martial Ancestor asked.

However, Chu Feng did not answer him. He continued to sit there in a cross-legged manner with his eyes closed.

“I am talking with you! Do you not hear me?!” The next moment, that Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s rank five Half Martial Ancestor revealed a voice many times more resounding than thunder.

At this moment, the rocks of the mountain started to rumble, and space itself started to tremble.

However, even with this being the case, Chu Feng was still paying no attention.

Although Chu Feng was confident, Zhan Lingtong was deeply frightened.

That monstrous beast had already unleashed his rank five Half Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might. Before a Martial Emperor like Zhan Lingtong, that was simply an existence akin to gods.

And now, that rank five Half Martial Ancestor was enraged. Zhan Lingtong was afraid that if Chu Feng continued to play dumb, that rank five Half Martial Ancestor would directly kill them.

Thus, he hurriedly said to Chu Feng, “Big brother, quickly, get up and say something. Just apologize to them.”

After Zhan Lingtong finished saying those words, Chu Feng finally opened his eyes. Furthermore, he revealed a smile on his face.

“Brother, don’t be afraid. I am here,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he stood up, ran his eyes toward the sky and said, “Not enough people.”

“What did you say? Not enough people?” That rank five Half Martial Ancestor asked.

“The people that beat me yesterday are not all here. Gather them all here for me. Else I’ll have you suffer the consequences,” Chu Feng said.

“You damned trash, was the beating yesterday not enough for you? Now that you've recovered a bit from yesterday's injuries, you're immediately starting to play dumb with us again?" The monstrous beasts that had attacked Chu Feng yesterday were furious. They started to mock Chu Feng again.

"Injury?" Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, his injuries started to rapidly recover. In merely the blink of an eye, Chu Feng's injuries all disappeared. There was not a single scar or bruise remaining on him.

"That is merely a trick that I used. Did you all really think that you'd be able to injure me?" Chu Feng asked.

"Don't you bluff here!!!"

"Today, I will whip you to death."

The monstrous beast that was scared away by Chu Feng earlier seemed to have grown confident because the rank five Half Martial Ancestor was beside him.

He actually took out an Incomplete Ancestral Armament and rushed forth to attack Chu Feng.

Furthermore, he had unleashed an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill from the get-go. Powerful martial power gathered, forming a pillar of flame as it shot toward Chu Feng.

At this moment, Zhan Lingtong's expression turned ashen. He felt that if that attack were to land, both he and Chu Feng would definitely be killed.

"Humph, ignorant fool," A cold light flashed in Chu Feng's eyes. Then, he raised his arm and shot forth a palm strike.

"Boom!" A loud explosion was heard as the flame pillar was shattered.

"Wuuah~~~"

At the same time, the monstrous beast that had attacked Chu Feng let out a scream and was knocked flying far away. He landed motionlessly on the ground. It was unknown as to whether he was still alive.

“What audacity!!!”

At this moment, that rank five Half Martial Ancestor let out a furious shout. Then, he flipped his hands and actually revealed two Incomplete Ancestral Armaments.

At this moment, he had completely unleashed his rank five Half Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might.

Black clouds began to surge behind him. Thunder was rumbling in the clouds. As his aura descended from the sky, Zhan Lingtong felt a chill covering his entire body, and he started to shiver violently.

It was not only the might of a rank five Half Martial Ancestor. In addition to that, that rank five Half Martial Ancestor had also unleashed overwhelming killing intent.

This monstrous beast was not only going to attack Chu Feng, he planned to kill Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong too.

However, right at this moment, Chu Feng shot forth another palm strike.

“Wuuahh.”

Following that, a scream was heard.

That rank five Half Martial Ancestor from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan was actually knocked flying far away after uttering a scream like the monstrous beast before him. Furthermore, he too grew motionless when he fell to the ground.

Unlike the one before him, his life and death was certain. He had died.

Chu Feng had actually managed to kill this rank five Half Martial Ancestor with only a single palm strike.

“This!!!”

This time around, not to mention Zhan Lingtong, even the rest of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clansmen were stunned.

That was a rank five Half Martial Ancestor!!!

"I originally did not want to kill. However, with how you all treat us humans, if I do not teach you all a lesson in blood today, I fear that you will not learn your lesson," After Chu Feng finished saying those words, killing intent suddenly emerged in his eyes.

Upon seeing Chu Feng's gaze that was filled with killing intent, the monstrous beasts in the sky all started to tremble with fear.

At this moment, they finally realized that the human before them was not bluffing. He really did possess overwhelming power.

Furthermore, he was very frightening!!!

"Run!!!"

Someone let out a shout to run. It was unknown who said it, but when that voice was heard, the monstrous beasts in the sky immediately turned around and began to flee in all directions.

"Today, not a single one of the monstrous beast from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan here will be able to escape!"

As Chu Feng spoke, he raised his arm and spiraled it toward the sky.

"Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~"

The next moment, martial power surged forth. It turned into a tornado that engulfed the sky.

Sand began flying as rocks were moved about; the sky and the earth had darkened.

The fleeing monstrous beasts were all caught by the violent tornado. None of them were able to escape.

As the tornado surged on, miserable screams could be heard.

After that, Chu Feng soared into the sky and waved his sleeve.

Immediately, many more tornados appeared in the vast mine. They completely rolled up all of the members of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

However, one thing was worthy of mentioning. That is, not a single human was caught in the tornados.

“What is going on?”

What was suddenly occurring astonished all of the miners. One by one, they stopped mining and turned to look at the sky.

“Heavens! Who is that?!” Everyone saw Chu Feng. They were all bewildered.

The reason for that was because the sky was filled with chaos. Enormous tornadoes were like huge dragons wreaking havoc through the mine.

Not only were the people from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan screaming in the tornadoes, one could also see them spinning round and around, colliding with one another.

To the people from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Race, the scene before them was akin to the arrival of doomsday.

As for Chu Feng, he was the only person standing in the sky.

Furthermore, he was not someone from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan. Rather, he was an ordinary human.

At this moment, the miners subconsciously felt that the devastation those Ancient Era's Monstrous Clansmen were undergoing must be related to Chu Feng.

As such, to the humans that were tormented by the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan, they felt as if they were seeing a god when they saw Chu Feng.

“Never would I have expected that there's actually such a treasure hidden here.”

“How could this possibly be a mine? This is simply a treasure mountain!”

“It would appear that this journey has not been made in vain.”

“Even if I was beaten before, it was worth it.”

At this moment when the miners were all looking to Chu Feng as if he was a god, Chu Feng’s eyes were running through the vast mine the entire time.

This vast mine contained an extremely and even unimaginably dense amount of Natural Energies.

The Natural Energies contained here were many times denser than all of the Natural Energies Chu Feng had refined throughout his life!!!

Chapter 2441 – Be Lenient

---

Chu Feng opened his mouth, and an enormous suction power soon enveloped the entire vast mine.

The very next moment, the mine started to tremble. Like an earthquake, no one was able to remain standing firm. One by one, they started to soar into the sky.

“My god! What... what is happening?”

The crowd all revealed dumbfounded expressions as they saw the changes to the mine.

Many streams of Natural Energies visible to the naked eye were flowing out from all over the mine like reverse waterfalls. They were all gathering toward Chu Feng.

“Big brother, he... he... he is actually refining the Natural Energies in the mine.”

“How is he managing to accomplish that? This... this is simply unimaginable.”

Zhan Lingtong was also stunned. After all, the mine used to be part of their Ancient Era’s War Clan’s territory.

Thus, he knew fully how amazing the mine was. The ores gathered there truly did contain an extremely strong amount of Natural Energies. That was also the reason why it was so troublesome to mine the ores.

It was why mining the ores required special tools, and the miners needed to have a cultivation of at least Martial Emperor.

However, most importantly, the mined ores had to be specially refined to extract the Natural Energies contained within them.

Yet, Chu Feng was actually directly devouring the Natural Energy. To Zhan Lingtong, that was simply something impossible.

Soon, the Natural Energies visible to the naked eye stopped rushing out from the mine.

With that, the vast mine lost the radiance it had emitted before. Not only did it not appear to be special at all, but it actually appeared to be inferior to even ordinary mountain ranges.

“He... actually managed to completely devour all of the Natural Energies contained in the mine?” At that moment, the crowd was looking at Chu Feng with gazes of fear.

They felt that what Chu Feng had done was most definitely not something that a human could accomplish.

As for Chu Feng, he wiped his mouth in a very satisfied manner. To him, it was like he had just enjoyed a very delicious meal. Furthermore, that meal could be said to be the best of the best.

Although he was unable to estimate how much Natural Energy he had devoured, he felt that the Natural Energies contained in his dantian would be sufficient for him to break through to at least the True Immortal level of cultivation.

Back when Chu Feng was in the Holy Land of Martialism, he had exhausted enormous effort for the sake of finding Natural Energies.

At that time, he most definitely would have never thought that he would one day gather so much Natural Energy in his dantian.

Suddenly, Chu Feng noticed that none of the crowd had left. Rather, they were all standing in midair and staring at him.

“Why are you all still standing there stunned? Leave now. Or could it be that you all want to continue to be enslaved?” Standing high in the sky, Chu Feng’s voice was like thunder as it shook the surroundings.

“Milord, m-might you be someone from the Ancient Era’s War Clan?” The humans asked Chu Feng.

However, none of them fled. It was not that they did not wish to flee, but rather that they did not dare to flee. After all, this place was now the territory of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

“You dared come to our Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan to cause trouble, exactly who are you?”

Right at that moment, a furious shout sounded from outside the mine. Following that, a figure rapidly flew into the mine.

It was that rank six Half Martial Ancestor-level monstrous beast from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan, the strongest individual tasked with guarding the place.

Upon seeing that monstrous beast, the crowd all turned pale. One by one, they started to shiver in fear.

As they had been enslaved for a long time, the crowd knew very well how frightening that person was. He was truly an individual that murdered without blinking an eye.

However, Chu Feng showed absolutely no fear upon seeing that person. Rather, he let out a single word, “Scram.”

“Arrogant little thief, you dare speak to me in such a manner?! Today, I will definitely dismember your body into ten thousand pieces!” That rank six Half Martial Ancestor took out his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and rushed to attack Chu Feng.

Furthermore, he attacked with overwhelming killing intent. He was planning to kill Chu Feng.

In response, Chu Feng shot forth a punch. “Bang,” that rank six Half Martial Ancestor's body exploded.

“Heavens! He actually managed to kill him with only a single strike!” The crowd was dumbfounded and disbelief filled their eyes.

“He... he is actually really that powerful?” Zhan Lingtong did not dare to believe his eyes.

He had personally witnessed Chu Feng taking a beating yesterday.

Yet, the Chu Feng before him, when compared to the Chu Feng of the past, was simply a day and night difference; they were simply two different people.

This was especially true for Chu Feng's arrogant and completely confident attitude of absolutely not placing any of his opponents in his eyes. Even in his Ancient Era's War Clan, that sort of attitude was rarely seen.

Furthermore, it was the first time that Zhan Lingtong had met someone so powerful at such a young age.

“Why are you all still not fleeing? Could it be that you wish to be slaves your entire life?” Chu Feng said to the humans again.

At that moment, all of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clansmen were taken care of by him. Yet, those humans were actually not escaping. Chu Feng was very puzzled by it.

“Milord, we beg of you, please lead us away from here. Else... we fear that the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan will retaliate against us.”

“At that time... we will definitely meet even more miserable ends.”

“Milord, please lead us away.”

.....

The humans actually started to kneel in front of Chu Feng.

They had already endured the bullying and humiliation from the monstrous beasts for a long time now. As such, they were extremely fearful of the monstrous beasts.

To them, Chu Feng's appearance was simply akin to the appearance of a savior. As such, how could they escape by themselves? Naturally, they would want to tightly cling to this savior of theirs.

“Chu Feng, although you have recovered your cultivation, you will still not be able to match the true experts of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan if you are to encounter them. These people will be an enormous burden. You absolutely cannot take them along with you,” Her Lady Queen urged.

“But... I cannot disregard their lives. After all, I am the one that has caused this calamity. I cannot have them shoulder the consequences meant for me,” Chu Feng said.

“What do you plan to do then? Do you really plan to bring these burdens along with you?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“It will not be difficult for me to bring them with me. Merely, before that, I have something that I must do first,” Chu Feng said.

“What is it?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“Help Zhan Lingtong find his lover,” Chu Feng said.

“You’re planning to involve yourself in something like that?” Her Lady Queen was astonished. She was very unwilling to help.

“I feel that Zhan Lingtong is very courageous. Furthermore, I know very well how it feels to lose one’s lover.”

“Thus, I cannot watch with folded arms.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he waved his sleeve repeatedly at the space before him.

The next moment, the screams from the monstrous beasts grew more and more ear-piercing. Soon, the screams completely disappeared.

Chu Feng did not unleash a massacre. He had only killed the rank six Half Martial Ancestor and the rank five Half Martial Ancestor, the two strongest monstrous beasts there.

As for the remaining monstrous beasts, Chu Feng only left them seriously injured.

He had made it so that they became powerless to bully the people there, and powerless to run away. They were no longer a threat to the humans.

“Why not directly kill them?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“With the strength that Senior Zhan Haichuan possessed, he was completely capable of eliminating the so-called Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan. Yet, he did not do so. I believe there is a reason for that.”

“Before knowing what that reason is, I cannot exterminate the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan,” Chu Feng said.

Chapter 2442 – Three Great Secret Skills

---

“Then why did you kill that rank six Half Martial Ancestor and rank five Half Martial Ancestor?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“They unleashed killing intent toward me. If my cultivation was weaker than theirs, the one to die right now would have been me. To people who want to kill me, there’s no reason for me to be lenient.”

“Right, you always have your justifications,” Her Lady Queen said in a very helpless manner.

“Brother, come here,” Chu Feng looked to Zhan Lingtong.

“Big brother, I truly never expected for you... for you to be this powerful.”

“You are simply my idol.”

Zhan Lingtong arrived before Chu Feng. The gaze with which he looked to Chu Feng had changed. Even the tone that he spoke with had changed. His tone when he spoke to Chu Feng was filled with admiration and adoration.

“Enough of your flattering. Tell me... do you know where your beloved is at now?” Chu Feng asked Zhan Lingtong.

“I do, of course I do,” Zhan Lingtong nodded his head repeatedly.

“Guide me,” Chu Feng said.

“Big brother, you’re... could it be that you’re planning to help me save her?” Zhan Lingtong revealed a joyous expression.

“Don’t bother with superfluous words. Bring me there,” As Chu Feng spoke, he soared into the sky with Zhan Lingtong.

“Milord, please, you must not disregard us,” Seeing this, the humans started to howl in grief.

“The monstrous beasts here are powerless to bring harm to you all. You all can stay here. I will return.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, his hands started to move about. Then, golden-bright and dazzling spirit power started to flow out of his body. In a flash, his spirit power covered the entire mine.

The spirit power formed two layers of spirit formations. The first layer was a concealment formation capable of concealing the actual circumstances inside the mine.

As for the second layer, it was a defensive formation capable of stopping others from intruding.

As Chu Feng's cultivation increased, his world spirit power also grew stronger. Thus, even though the dual layer of spirit formations was set up by Chu Feng effortlessly, they would still be very difficult to breach for all those with cultivations below rank nine Half Martial Ancestor.

“Wow! Big brother, you're also a world spiritist? You are simply too amazing! I admire you more and more now!” Zhan Lingtong saw everything and began to feel even greater admiration and adoration for Chu Feng.

“Enough of your flattering. C'mon, lead the way,” Chu Feng said.

“That way,” Zhan Lingtong gave the directions.

Right after Zhan Lingtong said those words, both he and Chu Feng disappeared.

Guided by Zhan Lingtong, Chu Feng activated his Azure Dragon Dashing Technique and was rapidly journeying.

His speed was simply too fast. For someone of Zhan Lingtong's cultivation, they were unable to even make out the scenery that they were rapidly passing below them.

Every time Zhan Lingtong gave Chu Feng directions, he would need Chu Feng to stop. Only by doing that would he be able to determine where they were.

That said, Zhan Lingtong was capable of clearly seeing the azure dragon beneath his feet.

“Big brother, if I am not mistaken, this dragon of yours should be a secret skill, right?” Zhan Lingtong asked.

“Indeed, it is a secret skill. It would appear that you’ve seen secret skills before?” Chu Feng asked with a smile.

To be able to recognize a secret skill immediately generally meant that one had seen secret skills before. Else, they would only wonder if a technique was a secret skill, and not be able to be absolutely certain.

“Of course. Our Ancient Era’s War Clan has inherited three secret skills.”

“The first secret skill is called the Ancient Era’s War Sword.”

“The second secret skill is called the Ancient Era’s War Spear.”

“The third secret skill is called the Ancient Era’s War Axe.”

“Reportedly, these three secret skills were created by our ancestor. It is said that they are extremely powerful.”

“However, those three secret skills are different from your secret skill. It’s very exhausting to unleash them. Generally, one will exhaust all of their physical strength upon using one. That said, it’s true that they are extremely powerful,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Oh? There are such secret skills?”

Not only did Chu Feng possess the Four Symbols Secret Skills, he also possessed the Five Elements Secret Skills. However, all of them were extremely effortless for Chu Feng to unleash. He had never experienced an exhaustion of all his strength from using a secret skill.

“Big brother, to tell you the truth, the other reason why the Clan Chief of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan feared my grandfather was because my grandfather grasped one of our Ancient Era's War Clan's Three Great Secret Skills, the Ancient Era's War Axe," Zhan Lingtong said.

"Could it be that this Ancient Era's War Axe was capable of deciding the outcome of a battle if both fighters possessed the same cultivation and battle power?" Chu Feng asked curiously.

Although the current Ancient Era's War Clan was not strong, it remained that they had given birth to an enormously powerful existence like Zhan Haichuan.

Furthermore, even now, Chu Feng did not have much understanding of the Ancient Era's War Clan. However, he felt that the Ancient Era's War Clan could not be looked down upon. At the very least, they should have been very powerful in the past.

Thus, Chu Feng was very curious about their secret skills; he was curious as to how powerful they were.

"No, my grandfather possesses the same cultivation and battle power as my father," Zhan Lingtong said.

"In that case, your grandfather's cultivation is a level weaker than the clan chief of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan?" Chu Feng was very surprised.

"That's right. However, my grandfather is currently in closed-door training. If he is able to successfully reach a breakthrough, we will no longer have to fear the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan," Zhan Lingtong said.

"In that case, that would mean that the secret skill, the Ancient Era's War Axe that your grandfather grasped, could allow him to battle against those with a cultivation one level above him?" Chu Feng asked.

"Let's explain it like this. The Ancient Era's War Axe is extremely exhausting to use. Not only will it consume enormous martial power, it will even consume one's source energy, soul and life."

“As long as my grandfather is willing to do so, he can unleash the Ancient Era’s Battle Axe with his own life on the line as the price. Upon unleashing the Ancient Era’s Battle Axe, even the clan chief of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan will not be able to withstand it,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Never would I have imagined your Ancient Era’s War Clan’s secret skills to be so powerful,” Chu Feng was very shocked.

Although Chu Feng’s secret skills were also very powerful, they clearly did not possess the sort of power that Zhan Lingtong described.

Although the prerequisite of sacrificing oneself to unleash the secret skill was an enormous cost, it remained that being able to prevail over an opponent a level of cultivation above oneself was very astonishing.

“Stop gasping in admiration,” Her Lady Queen said, “Who created your secret skills? It was Qing Xuantian. When he created the secret skills, his cultivation was not strong. Naturally, his secret skills will not be very strong either.”

“However, their secret skills are different. They were created by the ancestor of the Ancient Era’s War Clan.”

“While the Ancient Era’s War Clan might be very weak now, I feel that their ancestor was most definitely an extraordinary individual. If their secret skills were created at their ancestor’s peak, they would naturally not be something that your secret skills could compare with.”

“Truth be told, the only reason why your secret skills are still able to unleash such great power is because you yourself possess extraordinary power.”

“If ordinary people were to have your secret skills, they might be inferior to even Taboo Martial Skills now.”

“After all, the power of a secret skill, apart from being related to its creator, is also greatly related to its possessor.”

“Indeed,” Chu Feng agreed with what Her Lady Queen said.

“With how powerful the Ancient Era’s War Axe is, could it be the strongest of the three secret skills?” Chu Feng asked Zhan Lingtong.

“It is not. It is actually the weakest of the three,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“It’s actually the weakest?” At that moment, not to mention Chu Feng, even Her Lady Queen was surprised.

“That’s right. The strongest of the Three Great Secret Skills is the Ancient Era’s War Sword. The second strongest is the Ancient Era’s War Spear. The Ancient Era’s War Axe ranks third.”

“The Ancient Era’s War Spear was conquered by Lord Zhan Haichuan. As for the Ancient Era’s War Sword, no one has been able to conquer it so far,” Zhan Lingtong said.

Chapter 2443 – Should Be Beheaded

---

“There’s actually no one capable of subduing it? Even senior Zhan Haichuan was unable to do so?” Chu Feng asked.

“Even Lord Zhan Haichuan was unable to subdue the Ancient Era’s War Sword,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Sssss...” Even Chu Feng was unable to contain himself from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

That Zhan Haichuan was the publicly accepted strongest expert to have appeared in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm in the past tens of thousands of years.

Even though Grandmaster Kai Hong had once ruled over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, his status in the hearts of the people was still inferior to Zhan Haichuan’s.

From this, it could be seen that Zhan Haichuan’s might was definitely not undeserved.

Yet, that secret skill called the Ancient Era’s War Sword was something that even Zhan Haichuan was unable to subdue.

This served to signify even more how powerful the secret skill was.

“Chu Feng, this is a great opportunity. Since no one was able to conquer that secret skill, you should conquer it,” Her Lady Queen said in a very excited manner. It was as if she had discovered a treasure.

“Milady Queen, that is the possession of the Ancient Era’s War Clan. Even if I wanted it, I fear that they will not allow me to have it,” Chu Feng said.

“If they refuse, you can just snatch it,” Her Lady Queen said.

Chu Feng smiled at those words and did not answer.

Chu Feng knew very well what sort of personality Eggy had. As long as it was something beneficial to Chu Feng, she would disregard the lives and deaths of everyone and everything else.

However, Chu Feng possessed neither hatred nor grievance toward the Ancient Era's War Clan. As such, he would not go and snatch away their possession in a completely uncalled-for manner.

Although Chu Feng was also tempted after hearing about how powerful the Ancient Era's War Sword was, he would not go and snatch the Ancient Era's War Clan's secret skill just because of that.

The reason for that was because that was not the sort of person Chu Feng was.

"Brother, I am truly curious. What is the origin of your Ancient Era's War Clan?" Chu Feng asked.

As matters stood, Chu Feng was certain that the Ancient Era's War Clan was definitely extraordinary. Likely, they might possess a grand origin.

"Big brother, I won't conceal this from you. Actually, our Ancient Era's War Clan was very powerful. We have existed continuously since the Ancient Era," Zhan Lingtong said.

"In that case, do you all know about what happened in the Ancient Era?" Chu Feng asked.

The things that had happened in the Ancient Era was one of the things Chu Feng was most curious about.

However, faced with that question, Zhan Lingtong shook his head. He said, "We are only a branch family of our Ancient Era's War Clan. Thus, even we ourselves do not know the history of our Ancient Era's War Clan very well."

"You should also be able to tell that we've been trapped in here."

"So that's the case."

Chu Feng came to a realization. It was as he had guessed, the Ancient Era's War Clan was indeed very powerful. Perhaps it was a colossus in that vast starry sky that even his clan, the Chu Heavenly Clan, would pale in comparison to.

As for the Ancient Era's War Clan in the sealed domain, they were most likely in a similar situation as Chu Feng himself. They had a home that they could not return to. Furthermore... they most likely did not receive their clan's teachings.

Else... how could they be so weak?

"Big brother, are there a lot of experts in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?" Zhan Lingtong asked.

"Didn't you not believe that I came from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?" Chu Feng said with a smile.

"I was blind earlier. However, I have managed to experience your strength. Other than the people from our Ancient Era's War Clan, it is impossible for other humans to possess your sort of cultivation in this War Clan's Ancient Domain."

"Thus, I feel that you should be from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm," Zhan Lingtong said.

"Seems like you're not stupid," Chu Feng smiled.

Then, Chu Feng began to tell Zhan Lingtong a bit about himself and the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Of course, Chu Feng spoke a lot about the heroic deeds Zhan Haichuan had accomplished in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Upon hearing that his senior had managed to be completely undefeated in a place filled with experts like the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, Zhan Lingtong became extremely excited.

Although Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong were chatting nonstop, Chu Feng's speed did not slow down in the slightest. Soon, they arrived at the place where Zhan Lingtong's lover resided.

Sure enough, this place had already been occupied by the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan. Everyone with a cultivation of Martial Emperor and above had been captured to work as slave miners in the mine.

All those who remained were a bunch of elderly, weak and disabled individuals. Fortunately, Zhan Lingtong's lover was still there. Furthermore, she was completely unscathed.

After Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong discussed with one another, they decided that they would bring all those people away with them.

Then, they returned to the mine and brought all the people in the mine with them too.

Furthermore, Zhan Lingtong would always ask Chu Feng to bring away anyone who was suffering hardships that they encountered on their journey.

In the blink of an eye, several tens of thousands of people were following Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong.

While two individuals would not appear to be extraordinary, when several tens of thousands of people flew in the sky together, it was like a vast black cloud, an extremely attention-catching sight.

For the sake of not catching the attention of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan, Chu Feng had no choice but to set up a concealment formation to conceal all of them.

Thus, although they were traveling with a vast amount of people, only three of them could be seen.

As for the third individual, it would naturally be Zhan Lingtong's lover.

Zhan Lingtong had managed to meet his lover again after great difficulty. And now, he was unwilling to part with her and tightly holding her hand.

“That boy is simply too perverted, no? Look, the girl’s hands have turned red from how tightly he is holding her,” Sure enough, Her Lady Queen was unable to contain herself, and began to criticize Zhan Lingtong’s public display of affection to Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng was able to understand Zhan Lingtong’s behavior.

If he were to encounter Zi Ling, Su Rou and Su Mei, Chu Feng would likely have the same sort of reaction as Zhan Lingtong.

After journeying for some time, Chu Feng and the others finally arrived at the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s territory.

It was a vast land. It was also the last line of defense for the Ancient Era’s War Clan.

Through using his Heaven’s Eyes, Chu Feng was able to see that the vast and boundless land before them was actually isolated by a hidden grand formation.

To put it simply, there was an invisible wall standing before them. Unless one possessed a special key, one would not be able to pass through the wall.

It just so happened that Zhan Lingtong actually possessed the key.

Zhan Lingtong held the key in his hand and started to lead the crowd past the grand defensive formation.

However, immediately after passing through the grand defensive formation, a large group of people majestically appeared in the sky. Soon, they arrived before Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong, blocking their path.

Those people were all wearing armor and holding the same sorts of blades in their hands. They were people from the Ancient Era’s War Clan.

Their leader was a middle-aged looking man. However, Chu Feng could tell that he was someone who had lived for hundreds of years.

As for his cultivation, he was a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

“Zhan Lingtong, where have you been?!”

When the man leading the group saw Zhan Lingtong, he did not display any feelings of joy, and instead grew furious.

“Brother-in-law, I... I went out to find Yue’er,” Zhan Lingtong said as he held the hand of his lover.

Perhaps because he knew very well that his clansmen were against him being together with Li Yue’er, there was no confidence in Zhan Lingtong’s tone as he spoke.

“You ran out for the sake of that lowly woman?! Do you know how many people you’ve harmed?!” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law spoke in a very furious manner.

Chu Feng was unable to watch this go on anymore. He stood before Zhan Lingtong, pointed at his brother-in-law and said, “I do not know what sort of relationship you have with Zhan Lingtong. However, if you are a man, I hope that you will learn how to respect women.”

“Who are you?” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law took a very displeased look at Chu Feng.

His stare contained disdain, contempt, anger and threat.

“Who I am doesn’t matter. However, I’d urge you to speak with respect,” Chu Feng said.

“What an audacious wicked commoner! You dare speak to me like this?! Do you know who I am?!” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law roared in a very displeased manner. As he spoke, he unleashed his oppressive might to attack Chu Feng.

However, to his surprise, Chu Feng's expression remained unchanged after being attacked by his rank seven Half Martial Ancestor-level oppressive might.

This caused his gaze to change to one of shock.

“What’s wrong? You want to fight?”

“Rank seven Half Martial Ancestor, oh how impressive it must be,” Chu Feng laughed mockingly. Then, he said, “If you possess such overwhelming ability, why don’t you go out to take care of the monstrous beasts from the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan? Why are you not seizing back your lost territory, and instead trying to show off your might here?”

“The way I see it, you are not strong at all. You’re simply someone who can only bully the weak and fear the strong. You’re someone who is meek in public but a tyrant at home. You’re nothing more than trash.”

“You!!!” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law was left speechless by Chu Feng’s words. That said, he grew more and more furious.

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, he pulled out the Incomplete Ancestral Armament on his waist and pointed it at Chu Feng, “To offend one’s superior, you should be beheaded!!!”

Chapter 2444 – I'll Go Save Her

---

“Brother-in-law, don't be like this. He is my savior. If it wasn't for him... I fear that I would not have been able to return.”

In response, Zhan Lingtong hurriedly moved before Chu Feng and tried his best to defuse the situation. He was deeply afraid that his brother-in-law and Chu Feng would start fighting.

“Lingtong, what did you just say? You're saying that you were captured by people from the Monstrous Clan?”

Hearing what Zhan Lingtong said, his brother-in-law immediately had a change in expression. In a flash, the anger in his eyes lessened and was replaced with worry.

“That's right. I never expected the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan to be that tight in their patrol. I unfortunately ended up being captured by them and was sent to the mine as their slave miner.”

“Fortunately, this benefactor here saved me. Else... I fear that I will have been worked to death in the mine,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“You...” Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law sighed.

“Lingtong, it is not that I am trying to lecture you, but you are, no matter what, Lord Clan Chief's biological son. Can't you show some future prospects?”

“Say, why did you dress yourself up as a commoner and then run out? What if something were to have really happened to you?”

“For the sake of saving you, your older sister went against the opposition from Lord Clan Chief and the various elders to personally lead a group of people to search for you.”

“Perhaps you might be fine after returning. However, your older sister will have to undergo punishment upon her return,” When mentioning this matter, Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law started to sigh repeatedly.

At that moment, both Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong realized why Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law was so angry. It turned out, he was worried about his wife.

His actions were actually... quite pardonable.

“Brother-in-law, I know that you're worried about my older sister. I am also worried about my older sister. But, you know very well how strong my older sister is. She is our Ancient Era's War Clan's number one genius, and possesses the cultivation of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor. She will definitely be fine,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Yes, I am reassured by your older sister's strength,” Upon mentioning the cultivation of Zhan Lingtong's older sister, his brother-in-law actually revealed a proud expression.

Zhan Lingtong was quite smart. Seeing that his brother-in-law had had a change in mood, he immediately said, “Brother-in-law, I have endured great difficulty to bring Yue'er back. This time, no matter what, I will definitely bring her to our clan. Else... I would rather leave the clan to be together with Yue'er.”

“There's nothing I can do about you. However, I can only let you all enter. As to whether or not she can stay in the clan, it will be up to Lord Clan Chief to decide,” Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law said with a sigh.

“Since that's the case, everyone, come on out,” As Chu Feng spoke, he waved his sleeve. Then, the space behind him started to wiggle.

In the blink of an eye, several tens of thousands of people appeared behind Chu Feng.

“What is this?”

Witnessing such a scene, Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law and the Ancient Era's War Clan's guards all had an enormous change in expression. They were all stunned.

“Brother-in-law, they are all pitiful people. If we are to disregard them, they will only be enslaved by the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan. Can we shelter them?” Zhan Lingtong said.

“No, absolutely not!!!” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law said in a very determined manner.

“Why not? These people here used to live in the territory of your Ancient Era’s War Clan. In other words, they are your citizens.”

“When your citizens are met with disaster, are you all planning to watch with folded arms?” Chu Feng was unable to look on anymore.

“What do you know? This place here is the place where our Ancient Era’s War Clan lives. This is a sacred land where ordinary commoners are not allowed to enter,” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law said in a determined manner.

“Sacred land? Did this sacred land manage to nurture a bunch of heartless, smug and self-righteous people like you all?”

“Although I do not know much about the Ancient Era’s War Clan, I know with certainty that you all, the later generations, have completely disgraced the Ancient Era’s War Clan,” Chu Feng mocked in a righteous manner.

“What did you say? I dare you to say it again!” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law revealed a furious look.

At the same time, the guards behind him all drew their weapons. Evidently, what Chu Feng said had also enraged them.

“Humph,” Chu Feng snorted coldly. In Chu Feng’s eyes, these people were akin to a group of trash.

Furthermore, Chu Feng felt that trash like them would definitely bully the weak and fear the strong. Thus, he would not lower his head to people like them, and would instead teach them a lesson. Only by teaching them a lesson would they respect and fear him.

Thus, Chu Feng and the Ancient Era's War Clan's clansmen could be said to be in a mutually hostile situation, ready to fight at any moment. This deeply worried Zhan Lingtong.

“Milord, this is bad!”

However, right at that moment, shouts were heard from afar. Soon, a figure appeared.

It was an Ancient Era's War Clan's clansman. Furthermore, his cultivation was quite decent; he was a rank six Half Martial Ancestor. However, at that moment, he was in a very weak state.

Not only were there many fresh wounds on his body, but his flesh was also burned. It was a very shocking sight. Moreover, his aura was exceptionally weak right now.

“What is wrong? What happened? What about Lil' Ling? Where's Lil' Ling?”

Upon seeing that person, Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law, as well as the others from the Ancient Era's War Clan immediately revealed expressions of panic. One by one, they rushed toward that man.

“Milord, we encountered the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's Yao Liutian. Lady Ling was captured by Yao Liutian.”

“Fortunately Lady Ling used her treasure to protect me. Else... I fear that even I would not have been able to return alive,” When mentioning this matter, that rank six Half Martial Ancestor started to shed silent tears.

“What? Lil' Ling, she, she was actually captured by Yao Liutian?” Upon hearing those words, Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law's expression immediately turned ashen.

“Big sister was actually captured?” Zhan Lingtong had a similar expression to his brother-in-law.

At that moment, Chu Feng realized that the so-called Lil Ling must be Zhan Lingtong's older sister.

She had unfortunately encountered the people from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan while searching for Zhan Lingtong, and was captured by them.

"Milord, what are we to do? That Yao Liutian is a rank one Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, he is someone who commits all sorts of imaginable misdeeds, and is lustful of our human race's females."

"With how beautiful Lady Ling is, for her to be captured by Yao Liutian, wouldn't it mean that she'll be...?" Someone spoke in a panic.

"Shut up! You are not allowed to say that sort of thing!" Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law spoke furiously.

"Brother-in-law, that Yao Liutian's reputation is indeed extremely bad. We cannot afford to delay this matter. We must immediately go and save big sister," Zhan Lingtong said.

"That Yao Liutian is a rank one Martial Ancestor. Even if we are all to go, we will only be throwing away our lives," Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law said.

"Are we to disregard the life and death of my older sister then? She is your wife!" Zhan Lingtong said.

"Do you think that I'm not worried about your sister? I am more worried about her than any of you. However, at times like this, we cannot make meaningless sacrifices."

"I will immediately return to the clan and report this matter to Lord Clan Chief," Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law said.

"But, will we make it in time?" Zhan Lingtong said.

"Even if we can't make it in time, there's nothing that can be done... This... this is the only way," After saying those words, Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law spoke to the man who had escaped alive,

“Do you know where Lil’ Ling and Yao Liutian are at right now?”

“I do,” That person nodded.

“Come, follow me to see Lord Clan Chief,” Zhan Lingtong’s brother in law grabbed that man. He planned to rush back into the Ancient Era’s War Clan to report this matter.

“Wait a moment,” However, right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly spoke.

“What do you want now?” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law was still burning with fury. He immediately unleashed overwhelming killing intent upon hearing Chu Feng’s words.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored him. Instead, he turned to the man who had escaped and asked, “Are there any other experts from the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan at the place where that Yao Liutian is at right now?”

“There aren’t. He is the only Martial Ancestor level expert there. He must’ve come out to capture women,” That man replied.

“Bring me there,” Chu Feng said.

“What did you say?” At that moment, the expressions of everyone present changed enormously.

“I said to bring me there. I’ll go save her,” Chu Feng said.

Chapter 2445 – This Sort Of Terror

---

“You’re going to save her? What makes you think you can save her?” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law asked. His eyes were burning with deep rage.

As matters stood, he had reached a point of being utterly incapable of tolerating Chu Feng.

“Heh...” Chu Feng chuckled. Then, he said, “What’s wrong? Just because you don’t have the balls to go and save your woman, you’re refusing to allow me to go save her now?”

“You... you dare say this sort of thing to me?!” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law gnashed his teeth furiously. As a man, he felt that he had received an enormous humiliation.

“Bastard, you must be a spy from the Monstrous Clan! You will be killed!” Suddenly, Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law shouted angrily. Then, he raised the Incomplete Ancestral Armament in his hand and hacked down toward Chu Feng’s head.

He was trying to kill Chu Feng with that one attack. Furthermore, he was planning to hack Chu Feng in two.

Seeing that scene, Zhan Lingtong’s expression changed enormously. After all, his brother-in-law was a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

Although Chu Feng was very powerful and capable of easily killing a rank six Half Martial Ancestor, Zhan Lingtong still had no idea as to what Chu Feng’s cultivation was.

As for his brother-in-law, Zhan Lingtong knew very well how powerful he was. Else, his older sister would not have taken a fancy to him.

Thus, at that moment, Zhan Lingtong was uncertain as to whether or not Chu Feng would be able to safely block the attack.

As for the people from the Ancient Era's War Clan, they all revealed smiles of joy as they awaited the disaster that would befall Chu Feng.

Chu Feng had been insulting them the entire time since he had arrived. Thus, they felt very displeased with him to begin with. They were delighted that Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law would attack Chu Feng.

Furthermore, they felt that since Chu Feng was not someone from the Ancient Era's War Clan, he must be an ordinary commoner.

For ordinary commoners, how could they possibly match Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law? Thus, they felt that Chu Feng would definitely die.

Right at the moment when the Incomplete Ancestral Armament was about to strike Chu Feng's head, Chu Feng suddenly raised his hand.

"Clank!" Sparks fluttered about as energy ripples surged forth. The surrounding bystanders were all forced back repeatedly.

"How could this be?!!!"

When the crowd managed to stabilize themselves and turned to look, they were all stunned.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had actually managed to stop the Incomplete Ancestral Armament with his palm.

"Is he even a human?!"

The crowd were unable to calm themselves. They were filled with incomparable shock.

That was an Incomplete Ancestral Armament. Furthermore, it was being used by a rank seven Half Martial Ancestor.

How could that guy before them be able to stop the Incomplete Ancestral Armament with his hand? Exactly how powerful was he?

“Scared of going to fight against the people from the Monstrous Clan, and instead starting to showing your might to me here?”

“Unfortunately for you, your granddaddy Chu Feng is not accustomed to your shortcomings.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he waved his sleeve, and Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law was thrown to the ground with his Incomplete Ancestral Armament like a scarecrow.

“Rumble~~~”

Surging energy ripples were formed from the enormous power behind the collision. An enormous ravine appeared on the previously flat earth.

As for Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law, he was smashed deep underground. From this, it could be seen how powerful Chu Feng’s attack was.

“Milord!!!”

Witnessing that scene, the people from the Ancient Era’s War Clan all started to panic. One by one, they flew toward the ravine that was still filled with thick surging dust.

The reason for that was because they had no idea whether or not their lord was still alive at that moment.

After all, Chu Feng’s attack appeared to be so fierce and ruthless.

Even Zhan Lingtong was stunned. Even though he had already experienced how fierce and ruthless Chu Feng was, he had never expected that Chu Feng would remain so fierce and ruthless against his brother-in-law.

Of course, as the person was, after all, his brother-in-law, Zhan Lingtong was worried.

“Stop being stunned. Come, follow me to save your sister.”

At the moment when Zhan Lingtong was in a daze, Chu Feng grabbed him. Then, a strong wind surged past, and Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong disappeared.

Together with them, the Ancient Era's War Clansman that had escaped also disappeared.

.....

The location where Zhan Lingtong's older sister was imprisoned was actually not far from the final territory of the Ancient Era's War Clan.

Being guided by that escapee, Chu Feng and Zhan Lingtong soon arrived at the place where that Yao Liutian was resting.

It was a base camp, a gold, dazzling, glorious and imposing camp.

In the past, it used to be a branch camp for the Ancient Era's War Clan. But at that moment, it was occupied by the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

"He actually chose to set up camp here. How are we supposed to find my older sister?"

Zhan Lingtong was so anxious that he teared up. Although they had arrived at that place quickly with the help of Chu Feng's secret skill, Zhan Lingtong knew that former branch camp of their Ancient Era's War Clan very well.

Each and every one of the buildings there was infused with spirit formations.

Not only were there defensive formations on them, but there were also sound-proofing and concealing formations on them.

Even if one were to increase the power of one's sight through special methods, one would still be unable to see through those spirit formations. As such, it was simply impossible for them to find his older sister.

Furthermore, that Yao Liutian was a famous lecher. He had lusted over his older sister Zhan Lingling for more than a day or two.

Perhaps he might be planning to sexually assault his older sister. If they were to delay in the slightest, his sister's innocence might be ruined.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng said, "Found her."

"Found her?!" Zhan Lingtong and that injured War Clansman both revealed astonished expressions.

"Is your sister wearing silver armor with a head of black hair in a ponytail tied with a silver band?" Chu Feng turned to ask Zhan Lingtong.

"Right, right, right. That is my sister," Zhan Lingtong nodded repeatedly. He also revealed even greater astonishment in his eyes. Originally, he had been skeptical. However, after hearing what Chu Feng said, he was certain that Chu Feng had discovered his sister.

"Rest assured, your sister has only suffered some minor injuries right now. It is nothing major. Furthermore... as of now, she is still safe."

"However, that Monstrous Clan's animal is conspiring to attack. If I do not act now, I fear that your sister's innocence will be ruined," Chu Feng said.

"Milord, I beg of you, please save Lady Ling."

Hearing what Chu Feng said, that War Clansman knelt in midair with a "putt." Then, he actually started to kowtow to Chu Feng.

"Even without you begging me, I would save her. Merely, the two of you do not have to get involved in this. It will do if you just stay here and wait for my return." After Chu Feng finished saying those words, lightning flashed in his eyes.

"Zzzz~~~"

The next moment, the Thunder Wings extended from Chu Feng's back, and the Thunder Armor covered his body.

At that moment, Chu Feng's cultivation increased from rank nine Half Martial Ancestor to rank two Martial Ancestor.

The Magma Emperor Sword covered with rising flames also appeared in Chu Feng's hand.

“Woosh~~~”

Then, with the Magma Emperor Sword in hand and his body covered with the Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, Chu Feng streaked down from the sky toward the direction where Zhan Lingtong's older sister and that Yao Liutian were like a divine eagle capturing its prey.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

Rumbles sounded nonstop as surging energy ripples rushed into the sky.

However, that situation only persisted for a short moment before Chu Feng soared back into the sky, returning to where Zhan Lingtong and that injured War Clansman had remained.

At that moment, not only was Chu Feng completely unscathed, there was also a beautiful woman beside him. As for that woman, she was naturally Zhan Lingtong's older sister, Zhan Lingling.

At that moment, it was not only Zhan Lingtong and that injured War Clansman that had stunned expressions on their faces; even Zhan Lingtong's older sister had the same sort of stunned expression.

The reason for that was because she had discovered that she had been saved before she even knew what was going on. As for the person who had saved her, he was not someone that she knew, but rather a very handsome and foreign man.

“That is?!”

Suddenly, Zhan Lingtong's gaze changed enormously. He was shocked to discover that Chu Feng was also holding a head in his hand. As for that head, it was actually Yao Liutian's head.

It meant that Chu Feng had already killed Yao Liutian. But, who was Yao Liutian? He was a grand, vicious and imposing rank one Martial Ancestor.

Countless people in their Ancient Era's War Clan did not dare to confront him. Even their elders that also possessed cultivations of rank one Martial Ancestor might not necessarily be able to defeat Yao Liutian.

Yet, Chu Feng had actually managed to behead Yao Liutian in such a short period of time. As such, how could he not be astonished?

“Fearless humans! You dare intrude upon our Monstrous Clan's territory?!!!”

Right at that moment, the monstrous beasts of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan discovered Chu Feng and the others. A large group of troops began to surround Chu Feng and the others from all directions.

At that moment, Zhan Lingtong subconsciously grew nervous. After all, Yao Liutian's subordinates were all extraordinary individuals.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng said, “My mood right now is not good. As such, I cannot let you all live.”

Then, Chu Feng swept his Magma Emperor Sword across the sky.

In an instant, flames raged as magma sprung forth. Blazing light burned through the sky, igniting their surroundings.

“Ahhh!!!”

In an instant, screams began to sound nonstop.

The Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's army of thousands that were approaching from all directions were all devoured by the blaze, and died when their bodies exploded. In an instant, they were all killed by Chu Feng.

“.....”

At that moment, Zhan Lingtong and the injured War Clansman were completely stunned. It was as if they were petrified.

It was only at that moment that they truly realized how frighteningly powerful the man before them was.

Even Zhan Lingtong's older sister was looking to Chu Feng with complicated emotions in her eyes.

If one must describe her gaze, it would be the gaze of a woman who felt great adoration and admiration toward a man.

After all, the more powerful a man was, the more women would be fond of him.

Chapter 2446 – Returning Domineeringly

---

“Big brother Chu Feng, the person I admire the most in my life is Lord Zhan Haichuan.”

“However, the person that I now admire the second most would be you.” Zhan Lingtong said to Chu Feng with a gaze filled with admiration.

“Lingtong, this person is?” Zhan Lingtong’s older sister Zhan Lingling asked in a very curious manner.

She was truly filled with curiosity toward Chu Feng. She really wanted to know who it was that had saved her from Yao Liutian.

Furthermore, he had saved her at a crucial moment.

“Big sister, this person here is big brother Chu Feng. He is an extraordinary individual; he is from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?” Upon hearing that name, both Zhan Lingtong’s older sister and the other injured War Clansman revealed an enormous change in expression. Both of them revealed deep shock.

What sort of place was the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm? It was the place that everyone in the War Clan’s Ancient Domain wanted to enter.

To them, being able to enter the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm was an extravagant hope.

To put it simply, the people there had pretty much the same sort of mindset as the people of the Holy Land of Martialism had in wanting to enter the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

To both of them, it was a sort of extravagant hope.

“Benefactor, are you really from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?” Zhan Lingtong’s older sister asked Chu Feng.

Although she still felt disbelief, the fact that she addressed Chu Feng as ‘benefactor’ fully showed how grateful she was toward Chu Feng.

“Don’t address me like that. I’m not that old. You can just call me Chu Feng,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

This Zhan Lingling was several hundred years old already. In terms of age, she was much older than Chu Feng.

“My apologies, I was lacking in manners. Merely, a place like the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is truly...” Zhan Lingling spoke in a slightly embarrassed manner.

“I know that this matter might be a bit hard for you to believe. However, I am not lying to you.”

“We can talk more about this on our way back. I fear that if we do not return soon, those refugees will end up suffering at your husband’s hands,” Chu Feng said.

“My husband? Refugees? What is going on here?” Zhan Lingling revealed a puzzled look.

“Big sister, this was what happened. When I was searching for Yue’er, I was unfortunately caught by people from the Monstrous Clan and sent to the mine. It is big brother Chu Feng who saved me.”

“However, the citizens of our Ancient Era’s War Clan were also captured and reduced to slaves in the mine. At that time, they begged big brother Chu Feng to save them. Seeing how pitiful they were, we decided to bring them with us.”

“However, when we returned to the clan with great difficulty, brother-in-law barred the way and refused their entrance. He said that those commoners possessed petty and low statuses, and were not qualified to set foot into the territory of our Ancient Era’s War Clan,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“He is truly becoming more and more excessive.”

“I will definitely reason with him upon my return.”

After finding out about that, Zhan Lingling did not show any trace of planning to side with her husband. Instead, she revealed an angry expression and took the lead to fly toward the direction of the Ancient Era’s War Clan.

In response, Chu Feng hurriedly followed after. Furthermore, he unleashed his Azure Dragon Dashing Technique.

After all, if he was the one leading the way, their speed would be faster.

.....

Inside the Ancient Era’s War Clan. Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law, as well as the others from the Ancient Era’s War Clan, were still present.

Merely, the humans, including Zhan Lingtong’s lover Yue’er, were all driven out of the territory of the Ancient Era’s War Clan.

Like a bunch of refugees, they stood in midair, unable to enter but unwilling to leave. They looked very pitiful.

“That bastard, I will definitely teach him a lesson!”

At that moment, Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law’s face was completely bruised up and there was still blood at the corner of his mouth.

Naturally, his injury was caused by Chu Feng. Actually... for martial cultivators of their level, such bruises were only minor injuries.

As long as he took some medicinal pellets, he would be able to completely recover from the bruises. However, he did not do so. The reason for that was because he wanted to keep those injuries.

“Milord, we have already dispatched men to request Lord Clan Chief’s presence. I believe that Lord Clan Chief will soon arrive,” Someone said.

“Mn,” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law nodded. A strange expression was flashing in his eyes.

“Zhan Quezhi, what’s going on?”

“Where are Lingling and Lingtong right now?”

“Exactly what has happened here?”

Suddenly, an ear-piercing voice exploded in the sky.

Following that, a figure appeared out of thin air and stood before the crowd.

He was an old man. He was wearing a gold gown with a headdress.

His sword-like eyebrows appeared very imposing even without him being angry. His entire body was emitting the presence of a ruler.

Furthermore, he possessed the powerful aura of a rank four Martial Ancestor.

As for that individual, he was naturally the current Clan Chief of the Ancient Era’s War Clan, Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong’s father.

This Lord Clan Chief had received news that his daughter had been captured by the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s great sex fiend.

Furthermore, he had also received news that his son, Zhan Lingtong, was captured by a spy of the Monstrous Clan. Thus, he was burning with anxiety.

After all, his daughter and son were his beloved children.

“We pay our respects to Lord Clan Chief!!!”

Upon seeing the Lord Clan Chief, Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law and all of the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen present immediately half-kneeled in midair to show their respect.

“All of you, stand up. Do you even know what the situation is to continue to bother with this etiquette? Zhan Quezhi, exactly what happened? Quick, provide me an explanation,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“Lord Clan Chief, it is all because of my incompetence, all because of my incompetence,” Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law immediately started to blame himself with an expression of grievance.

Then, he told their Lord Clan Chief of what had happened.

He was quite truthful in telling their Lord Clan Chief how Zhan Lingtong’s older sister had been captured.

However, when it came to the matter regarding Zhan Lingtong himself, what he told was completely false.

The way he spoke, Chu Feng was simply not the benefactor that had saved Zhan Lingtong.

Rather, he was the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s spy.

He declared that it was Chu Feng that had captured Zhan Lingtong and their injured War Clansman that knew where Zhan Lingling was.

He declared that they were unable to rescue Zhan Lingling because they did not know where she was.

“What utter bastards! I truly never would expected the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan to be so despicable as to disguise themselves as people of our of War Clan.”

“If I am to capture that spy, I will definitely make him suffer a fate worse than death.”

Sure enough, after Zhan Lingtong’s brother-in-law twisted the truth, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief grew extremely furious.

Practically everyone could sense his overflowing killing intent.

They could tell that their Lord Clan Chief was truly furious.

However, no one noticed that when Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law discovered that their Lord Clan Chief was truly furious, he revealed a proud smile at having succeeded in his plot.

“Father!!!”

Right at that moment, two familiar voices sounded.

When those two voices were heard, the expressions of everyone present changed.

The reason for that was because those voices were simply Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling's voices.

However, weren't the two of them captured?

“Roar~~~”

The very next moment, a dragon roar was heard, shaking the sky.

Soon, an enormous azure dragon arrived in midair. It directly passed through the Ancient Era's War Clan's grand defensive formation and entered their territory.

When they saw the azure dragon, the people of the Ancient Era's War Clan thought that it was an invasion from the Monstrous Clan, and subconsciously raised their weapons.

However, upon clearly seeing the four individuals standing atop the dragon's head, they were all stunned.

The reason for that was because those four individuals were naturally Chu Feng and the others.

“This...” In terms of being the most stunned, it would be none other than Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law.

Although he was stunned, it remained that the people standing on the dragon were his wife and his brother-in-law. As such, he was feeling very joyous in his heart. He hurriedly walked toward his beloved wife.

“Lil’ Ling, you’re alright? This is truly great. I was worried dea...”

However, faced with her husband who was walking toward her with a deeply concerned expression on his face, Zhan Lingling did not bother to even pay attention to him. Instead, she walked past him.

“.....”

At that moment, Zhan Quezhi stood there in a stunned manner. He was completely perplexed.

As for Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong, they arrived before their father, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief.

Chapter 2447 – Telling The Truth

---

“Lord Father, why were you so alarmed?” Zhan Lingling asked.

“I’d heard that you and your younger brother were both captured by the Monstrous Clan. As such, how could I not be anxious?” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“I was indeed captured by Yao Liutian. But, how could my younger brother be captured by the Monstrous Clan?” Zhan Lingling revealed a puzzled expression.

“Wasn’t that Chu Feng the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s spy? Didn’t he capture Lingtong?” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief asked. As he spoke, he took a deliberate glance at Chu Feng, who was standing atop the head of the azure dragon.

After all, he knew everyone else present. The only unfamiliar face was Chu Feng. Thus, he determined with a single glance that that sole remaining individual was Chu Feng.

“Father, where did you hear that nonsense? Not only is big brother Chu Feng my savior, he is also big sister’s savior. How could he possibly be the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s spy? Look at his hand, do you see what he is holding?” Zhan Lingtong said in a very excited manner.

After all, to him, Chu Feng was truly his idol right now. As such, he would naturally not allow anyone to slander Chu Feng.

“That is?!”

After hearing what Zhan Lingtong said, the crowd realized that Chu Feng was actually holding a head.

As for that head, it was actually the head of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Martial Ancestor-level expert, Yao Liutian.

“You’ve killed Yao Liutian?” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief revealed an astonished expression.

“Father, he was the one to save me from Yao Liutian. He was also the one to kill Yao Liutian. I personally witnessed it,” Before Chu Feng could answer, Zhan Lingling answered for him.

“A talent! Never would I have expected that there would be such a talent among our Ancient Era’s War Clan’s citizens. Why have I never heard of you before?” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief had an ecstatic expression on his face.

After all, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief knew very well what sort of character Yao Liutian was. To be able to kill Yao Liutian, this meant that Chu Feng was very powerful.

Right now, the Ancient Era’s War Clan and the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan were battling one another. The Ancient Era’s War Clan had been slowly forced to retreat in defeat by the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan. As such, they were at the point when they needed talented people the most.

To discover a human that is capable of killing Yao Liutian at such a time, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief would naturally be extremely overjoyed.

“Father, you are overthinking things. Benefactor Chu Feng is not a citizen of our Ancient Era’s War Clan. Rather, I’m afraid that his origin will startle you,” Zhan Lingling said.

“Oh? What sort of origin might he have to be able to startle me? There’s no harm in mentioning it,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief had a smile on his face.

However, it was more of a joking smile. After all, the War Clan’s Ancient Domain was only so big, and only contained so many clans. Thus, no matter how extraordinary one’s origin might be, it would not be as amazing as their Ancient Era’s War Clan.

“Benefactor Chu Feng is from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Zhan Lingling said.

“Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm!!!”

Once those four words were said, not to mention the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief, even Zhan Quezhi and the others had an enormous change in expression.

The reason for that was because the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm possessed an extraordinary significance to them.

It was precisely because it was so extraordinary that the great majority of the people showed that they did not believe it after a moment of shock.

"Benefactor, I am sorry to inconvenience you. However, could you please display your special abilities? Else... I fear that my father and the others will not believe that you're from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm," Zhan Lingling said to Chu Feng.

"Zzzzz~::~"

Right at that moment, lightning flashed in Chu Feng's eyes. Then, his Thunder Armor covered his body, and his Thunder Wings extended out from his back.

It was a dazzling sight. It was as if Chu Feng's lightning was brightening the entire region.

However, the crowd was most astonished by Chu Feng's current cultivation.

Chu Feng had not concealed his cultivation. Rather, for the sake of displaying his strength, Chu Feng had unleashed his aura without any reservations.

A cultivation of rank two Martial Ancestor and a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. This was... the strength that Chu Feng currently possessed.

"Amazing, truly amazing."

The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief was convinced. The special ability that Chu Feng displayed, as well as his heaven-defying battle power, were all not things that ordinary commoners possessed.

This was especially true for Chu Feng's lightning power. Even their Ancient Era's War Clan did not possess that power. Thus, he was certain that Chu Feng was not someone from their War Clan's Ancient Domain.

"Never would I have expected that an expert from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would come to our assistance. This is truly a blessing to our Ancient Era's War Clan."

The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief was overjoyed. The way he saw it, this was simply the will of the Heavens, that it was the Heavens that was trying to help their Ancient Era's War Clan.

"But, since we're of the same side, why did you injure Quezhi?" As the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief said those words, he looked to Zhan Lingtong's brother-in-law.

According to Zhan Quezhi, Chu Feng was trying to capture Zhan Lingtong. For the sake of protecting Zhan Lingtong from being captured, he was injured by Chu Feng.

However, what sort of existence was the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief? As matters stood, he already knew that the truth was not as Zhan Quezhi had said to him earlier.

"Lord Clan Chief, I was mistaken. This is all a misunderstanding," In response, Zhan Quezhi hurriedly spoke to explain himself.

"I did not ask you. Do not interrupt," The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief shut him down coldly.

Zhan Quezhi hurriedly closed his mouth. However, he had a very ugly expression on his face. Fear was flickering in his eyes.

After all, he would be truly humiliated if the truth was to be declared. He truly did not wish for the Lord Clan Chief to discover the truth.

“I’m afraid that it would not be trustworthy for me to tell you why I beat him. Why not ask your clansmen why I beat him?” Chu Feng said.

Once Chu Feng said those words, Zhan Quezhi revealed a joyous expression. After all, everyone from the Ancient Era’s War Clan was on his side.

He believed that none of his fellow clansmen would attack him for the sake of an outsider like Chu Feng.

Perhaps the truth would be buried just like this.

Sure enough, it was as Zhan Quezhi expected, none of the people from the Ancient Era’s War Clan wanted to offend him. In fact, none of them dared to offend him.

Thus, at that moment, all of the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s men lowered their heads. None of them wanted to tell the truth of what had happened back then.

“Heh...” Witnessing that scene, Zhan Quezhi revealed a pleased expression. In fact, he even cast a provocative glance at Chu Feng.

He seemed to be stating with his gaze ‘So what if you’re from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm? This is my territory here.’

‘You want to fight with me? You’re not qualified at all.’

“Father, I know about what happened back then. I can tell you what happened,” Right at that moment, Zhan Lingtong stood forth.

“This!!!”

When Zhan Quezhi saw that his expression immediately changed. The complacency he had displayed earlier disappeared in an instant. At that moment, his expression was uglier than someone who had eaten dog feces.

He never expected that the person to betray him at such a time would be his wife’s younger brother, his own brother-in-law.

“Very well, tell me what happened,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief nodded.

“Earlier, big brother Chu Feng and I rescued a lot of our clan’s citizens on our way back. Originally, I planned to bring them into our clan to offer them temporary shelter.”

“However, brother-in-law was against it the entire time. In fact, he even tried to attack big brother Chu Feng because of that. Fortunately, I tried my best to stop them. Else, with the strength that big brother Chu Feng possesses, it is obvious what would happen if they were to truly fight,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Lingtong, what sort of nonsense are you spouting?”

Hearing till that point, Zhan Quezhi’s expression had already turned deathly white from fury. He truly never expected that his own brother-in-law would speak for an outsider, speak for that Chu Feng, at such a crucial time.

He spoke because he wanted his brother-in-law to stop while he could. He didn’t want Zhan Lingtong to continue.

“Brother-in-law, I am merely telling the truth,” However, Zhan Lingtong did not have the slightest intention of stopping.

“Lingtong, you...” Zhan Quezhi was so furious that he felt as if he was about to vomit blood.

“You shut up!” Right at that moment, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief shouted once again.

This time around, even though Zhan Quezhi was very unreconciled, he had no choice but to shut his mouth again. The reason for that was because he was able to tell that their Lord Clan Chief was truly angered.

Merely, he truly could not understand why his own brother-in-law would be helping Chu Feng.

That said, even though Zhang Quezhi started to panic, he had not become extremely panicky.

The way he saw it, even if Zhan Lingtong were to help Chu Feng, it would still only be words spoken by a single person.

As long as the others present did not testify against him, he would still be able to argue that such a thing had never happened.

Furthermore, he was confident that the others would not testify against him.

After all, the remaining clansmen did not dare to go against him.

As for his wife, she had always been very affectionate toward him.

As such, he felt that she would also not speak on behalf of an outsider.

Chapter 2448 – Presumptuous Request

---

“As for what happened later, brother-in-law grew even more excessive. After finding out that big sister was captured, he did not immediately set out to save her. Rather, he wanted to return to the clan and request your appearance.”

“However, there is still quite a far distance between here and our clan’s headquarters. We were all afraid that we would not be able to make it in time.”

“At that time, big brother Chu Feng said that he would go and save big sister.”

“However, not only was brother-in-law against it, he also declared big brother Chu Feng to be a spy and attacked big brother Chu Feng.”

“Big brother Chu Feng was forced without any other option, and ended up injuring brother-in-law. However, big brother Chu Feng was truly lenient already.”

“Else, with the strength that big brother Chu Feng possesses, even Yao Liutian was beheaded by him. As such, how could brother-in-law only suffer a bruise?” Zhan Lingtong explained. He was looking at his brother-in-law with a gaze filled with disdain.

Perhaps it might be because he knew his brother-in-law very well, but Zhan Lingtong had managed to guess that his brother-in-law must’ve already twisted the truth. That was why he was trying to tell the truth for Chu Feng.

After hearing what Zhan Lingtong said, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief’s expression turned very ugly. Zhan Quezhi was his son-in-law, and he had treated him very well.

However, never did he expect that Zhan Quezhi would be such a coward at a crucial moment. At that moment, he was extremely disappointed with Zhan Quezhi.

Zhan Quezhi was able to discern that the situation was amiss from the expression on the Clan Chief's face. Thus, he summoned up his courage and said, "Lingtong, even if I refused to allow you to bring Yue'er into the clan, there shouldn't be a need for you to slander me like this, no?"

"Lil' Ling is my wife. After finding out that she was captured, I was more worried than anyone else. How could I do something like what you have said?"

After refuting what Zhan Lingtong said, Zhan Quezhi revealed a very wronged expression as he looked to their Clan Chief and his wife, "Lord Clan Chief, please do not believe what Lingtong said. Lil' Ling, you must not believe his lies."

"Father, big sister, all the things I have said are true. If you do not trust me, you can ask him," Zhan Lingtong pointed to their clansman that had returned with injuries and then brought Chu Feng to rescue Zhan Lingling.

Seeing that Zhan Lingtong was trying to have a witness testify against him, Zhan Quezhi hurriedly signaled with his eyes while also secretly sending a voice transmission to threaten that man to not tell the truth.

In that sort of situation, that War Clansman also revealed a very difficult expression. After all, Zhan Quezhi's status was no small matter. In the Ancient Era's War Clan, people like himself who lacked status did not dare to offend Zhan Quezhi.

"Exactly what happened? Speak immediately," The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief urged that clansman.

"Putt~~~"

After a moment of hesitation, that War Clan's Clansman actually knelt in midair.

He declared, "Lord Clan Chief, Lady Ling, this matter is extremely important. As such, this lowly one does not dare to lie.

However, the truth is as Young Master Lingtong said.”

“You... even you dare to frame me?! Exactly what sort of benefits did that Chu Feng give you?!”

Seeing that, Zhan Quezhi was immediately furious. He pulled out his Incomplete Ancestral Armament and wanted to attack that man.

“Zhan Quezhi, you damned bastard!!!”

At that moment, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief was also furious. He cast his eyes burning with rage at Zhan Quezhi.

It was not only their Clan Chief, even Zhan Lingling cast the same sort of rage-filled gaze at Zhan Quezhi.

At that moment, Zhan Quezhi stood stunned. He had no idea what to do.

“Paa~~~”

Suddenly, a sharp echo was heard. The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief had actually unleashed a slap onto Zhan Quezhi’s face from afar.

“Wuuahh~~~”

A scream was heard, and Zhan Quezhi started to, like a kite with its string cut, spin around in the sky nonstop. He was actually slapped tens of thousands of meters away.

However, immediately after he stabilized himself, Zhan Quezhi flew right back and knelt in midair.

At that moment, blood covered his face. Half of his face had been deformed by the slap. Furthermore, his aura was very weak.

Not only had Zhan Quezhi received external injuries, he had also received internal injuries. From this, it could be seen that even though the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief was lenient, his attack was still quite strong.

However, Zhan Quezhi did not dare to utter the slightest bit of complaint. Rather, while shedding tears, he lamented, “Lord Clan Chief, I was indeed in the wrong back then. However, my considerations were not mistaken either.”

“You know very well how strong we are. We would not have been a match for that Yao Liutian. Even if we were to go try to save Lil’ Ling, we would only have been throwing our lives away.”

“Not only that, we would also have delayed the rescue. At that time, finding you was indeed the most rational decision.”

“As for me declaring that Chu Feng to be the Monstrous Clan’s spy, it was totally a misunderstanding.”

“Please think about it, he is an unfamiliar person. Yet, he wanted to bring with him the only person who knew where Lil’ Ling was with talk about saving her. How could I not suspect him?”

“Lord Clan Chief, although I was wrong, I was actually not mistaken in my judgment.”

After Zhan Quezhi said those words, Zhan Lingling’s gaze was moved slightly. The anger in her eyes had lessened by a lot.

After all, what Zhan Quezhi said was indeed reasonable.

However, the anger of the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief did not decrease.

He pointed at Zhan Quezhi and said, “I am not blaming you because you did not rush to save Ling’er immediately.”

“Rather, it is because you tried to invert right and wrong, tried to twist the truth and slander another. This means that your moral quality is bad.”

“From today on, you are to be removed from all your posts. Go and properly reflect upon your mistakes. Furthermore, immediately apologize to Chu Feng for me. Remember this, if it wasn’t for him today, it was very possible that your wife would’ve already met with an unfortunate encounter.”

The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief spoke in a very furious manner.

“Lil’ Ling, I...” Zhan Quezhi looked to Zhan Lingling. He wanted his wife to plead for him.

“Why are you looking at me? Are you not supposed to apologize to Chu Feng?” Zhan Lingling said with an angry expression on her face.

Zhan Quezhi’s expression turned dejected. He had never expected that his affectionate wife who would help him out even if he was to have made mistakes would actually helping an outsider at that moment.

Although he was feeling extremely unreconciled, Zhan Quezhi did not dare to go against the orders from the Clan Chief. Thus, in an insincere manner, he apologized to Chu Feng.

Then, at Chu Feng’s request, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief agreed to take Yue’er and the other commoners into their Ancient Era’s War Clan’s final territory.

Furthermore, for the sake of welcoming Chu Feng and thanking him for saving his daughter, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief ordered a banquet to be held.

However, as they were in times of war and the morale of the Ancient Era’s War Clan was low from the constant retreats, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief did not make the banquet too extravagant.

Other than culinary delicacies and fine wines, he did not prepare any singing or dancing. That said, he ordered all of the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s management elders over.

At the banquet, the management elders started to size Chu Feng up nonstop. It was as if Chu Feng was simply not a human at all.

After all, Chu Feng was from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

To them, the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm was an extremely remarkable place.

Furthermore, they had heard of the news of Chu Feng killing Yao Liutian. Adding on the fact that Chu Feng was this young, they started to have a whole new level of respect toward Chu Feng and did not dare to show any negligence.

Even for the elders that had lived for over ten thousand years, they would still be extremely respectful when speaking with Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, not only have you saved my son, you’ve also saved my daughter. I truly do not know how I am supposed to repay you for this kindness.”

“How about this: if there’s anything you want, as long as our Ancient Era’s War Clan is capable of giving it to you, I will agree to anything,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief said to Chu Feng.

“Lord Clan Chief, are you serious about that?” Chu Feng asked.

“As long as we have it, I will agree to anything,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief said in a frank and straightforward manner.

“That’s right. Young Hero Chu Feng, please don’t hold back. If you have anything you want, go ahead and tell us.”

The elders, as well as Zhan Lingtong’s elder brothers and sisters, all echoed what the Clan Chief said.

To them, Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling were the two individuals with the purest bloodline in their Ancient Era’s War Clan. To the Ancient Era’s War Clan, Chu Feng’s rescue of them was an enormous favor.

“Since that’s the case, I will speak my mind,” For the sake of showing his sincerity, Chu Feng stood up.

After he ran his gaze over the crowd, he said, “I, Chu Feng, have always admired senior Zhan Haichuan. Thus, for me to be able to be fortunate enough to arrive at the Ancient Era’s War Clan today, I have a presumptuous request.”

“I wish to go and visit the place where senior Zhan Haichuan trained. If possible, I wish to be able to train there for some time.”

Using this opportunity, Chu Feng told them what he wanted the most. That was, he wanted to train at the place where Zhan Haichuan comprehended his way of martial cultivation.

However, after Chu Feng finished saying those words, there was no reply. In addition to that, Chu Feng saw that everyone present had difficult expressions on their faces.

Chapter 2449 – Emergence Of The War Sword

---

“Truth be told, we are merely a branch family of the Ancient Era’s War Clan. We do not know much about the past of the Ancient Era’s War Clan.”

“Thus, to us, that great senior of ours who first arrived in this place and taught us the way of martial cultivation is our Ancestor.”

“Our Ancestor was very powerful. Not only did he establish this War Clan’s Ancient Domain, he also used his last bit of power to create a Martial Comprehension Ground.”

“After he finished constructing this place for martial cultivation, our Lord Ancestor passed away, having exhausted all of his energy.”

“Thus, to our Ancient Era’s War Clan, that Martial Comprehension Ground is extremely important.”

“As for Lord Zhan Haichuan, the place where he trained back then was also that Martial Comprehension Ground.”

“Because of that, it is a place where only the people of our War Clan are allowed to enter.”

“As such, we are truly sorry. We fear that we will not be able to satisfy Young Hero Chu Feng’s desire.”

After being silent for a long time, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief spoke. He had a very apologetic expression on his face when he said those words.

His reaction was understandable. After all, he had made such extravagant claims earlier. And now, after Chu Feng gave his request, he was actually unable to satisfy it. As such, he would naturally feel very embarrassed.

“Father, Lord Ancestor indeed spent a great amount of effort to create the Martial Comprehension Ground. In fact, he even lessened his own lifespan.”

“But, Lord Ancestor never said that only the people of our Ancient Era’s War Clan are allowed to use that Martial Comprehension Ground.”

“We were the ones who decided that the Martial Comprehension Ground can only be used by the people of our clan. It is not Lord Ancestor who decided that.”

“Thus, I feel that it would be fine for Chu Feng to train in the Martial Comprehension Ground,” Zhan Lingling said.

Hearing those words, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief revealed an angry expression. He wanted to lash out at his daughter.

“Lord Clan Chief, Young Hero Chu Feng has shown grace to our Ancient Era’s War Clan. You also declared earlier that as long as it was something that our Ancient Era’s War Clan was capable of, we would satisfy any demand that he might make.”

“As for the Martial Comprehension Ground, it is evidently a place that we can allow him to enter. If we are to refuse his request now, wouldn’t it mean that we would have gone back on our word?” Right at that moment, a very old elder got up and started to urge their Clan Chief.

“Senior, you...”

After hearing the old man speak, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief revealed a surprised expression.

Actually, he had wanted to agree to Chu Feng’s request. Merely, their Ancient Era’s War Clan possessed their own rules. He had only refused Chu Feng’s request because he did not want others to say that he had broken the rules because Chu Feng had saved his son and daughter.

That was also the reason why he had wanted to lash out at his daughter earlier.

Merely, he never expected that an elder of their Ancient Era's War Clan would also agree to have Chu Feng train in the Martial Comprehension Ground.

Furthermore, the elder who spoke was no ordinary elder.

He was a person who possessed grand status in the Ancient Era's War Clan, someone with greater seniority than even his father. In the Ancient Era's War Clan, that elder's word held great weight.

In addition to that elder, there were three more elders with grand Statuses and great seniority in the Ancient Era's War Clan.

At that moment, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief turned his gaze to the other three elders. He wanted to see what their opinions might be.

"The Martial Comprehension Ground is a treasure left behind by our Ancestor. However, it remains that a treasure will forever be a treasure, and inferior to one's life."

"Today, Young Hero Chu Feng saved the lives of Lingling and Lingtong. I believe Lord Clan Chief is capable of determining which among them is more important."

"Indeed. Young Hero Chu Feng only wants to enter that place to train because of his admiration for our clan's Lord Zhan Haichuan. Thus, I feel that we must allow him to enter the Martial Comprehension Ground to train. Else, it would make our Ancient Era's War Clan appear to be extremely petty, no?"

"I agree with them. Rules are dead, whereas people are alive. We cannot be hidebound by conventions."

After that, the remaining three elders with great status and seniority also voiced their positions.

At that moment, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief was both shocked and overjoyed.

These four elders had always been people who were very hard to deal with. They were the sort of stubborn old antiques with very obstinate views.

Logically, according to their characters, they should have been making a supreme effort to refuse Chu Feng's request.

It was precisely because of that the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief initially refused Chu Feng. He assumed that the four elders would most definitely oppose him if he were to agree to Chu Feng's request.

However, to his surprise, the four elders were completely different today. Not only did they not refuse, they even urged him to reconsider.

When even the four elders agreed to Chu Feng's request, the others in the Ancient Era's War Clan would naturally not voice any objections. Naturally, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief would also not object to it anymore.

However, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief did not make an announcement right away. Rather, he swept his gaze to the others present and asked, "Everyone, what do you all think?"

"We agree with what Lord Elders have said. Lord Clan Chief, let's allow Young Hero Chu Feng to enter the Martial Comprehension Ground."

.....

It was as the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief had anticipated, none of the remaining people spoke against the decision to allow Chu Feng to enter the Martial Comprehension Ground.

"Since everyone feels this way, then our Ancient Era's War Clan will make an exception for Young Hero Chu Feng and satisfy this cherished desire of his," The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief said.

“Thank you everyone,” Chu Feng clasped his fist at the crowd.

Although Chu Feng had a calm expression on his face right now, he was incomparably excited in his heart.

At that moment, he no longer lacked cultivation resources. On the contrary, the Natural Energies contained in his dantian were craving to reach a breakthrough.

What Chu Feng needed right now was comprehension toward the way of Martial Cultivation so that he could reach a breakthrough in his cultivation.

In other words, what Chu Feng needed right now was precisely something like the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Martial Comprehension Ground.

“Lord Clan Chief, this is bad!!!”

Right at that moment, an elder wearing a black cloak rushed over hurriedly from the Ancient Era’s War Clan.

Two individuals were following him. They were also wearing black cloaks.

Their cultivations were all quite strong; they were all Martial Ancestors.

“What’s happened?” Upon seeing those three individuals, all of the people present stood up anxiously.

The reason for that was because those three individuals were no ordinary elders. Rather, they were all tasked with a very important mission.

Normally, the three of them would never show themselves. However, as long as they showed themselves, it meant that something major had happened. This was even more so with how panicky the three of them were right now.

“Lord Clan Chief, the Ancient Era’s War Sword is moving,” That elder said.

“Moving?” Hearing those words, the gazes of all of the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen present changed. All sorts of complicated expressions appeared in their eyes.

As members of the Ancient Era’s War Clan, they knew very well what the Ancient Era’s War Sword was.

It was the strongest of the Three Great Secret Skills that their Ancestor had left for them.

In all these years, the Ancient Era’s War Sword had been still.

Even the strongest person to have appeared in their Ancient Era’s War Clan since the death of their Ancestor, Zhan Haichuan, was unable to even awaken the Ancient Era’s War Sword even though he had managed to conquer the second strongest Ancient Era’s War Spear.

Today, the Ancient Era’s War Sword actually started to move. How could they not be alarmed by it?

“Let’s go,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief soared into the sky. He planned to investigate what was happening.

“Rumble~~~”

However, right at that moment, an ear-piercing sound was heard.

The sunny and cloudless sky started to turn dark.

The earth covered with a layer of spirit formations also started to violently tremble.

Every inch of space itself was affected by it. Regardless of their cultivation, regardless of whether they were standing in the sky or on the ground, no one was able to stand firmly.

Following the shaking space, they too started to sway left and right.

Soon, dazzling golden light shone from the direction where the sound originated.

Turning to look, the crowd discovered that an enormous sword was flying toward them.

That sword was a thousand meters long and the sword's body was golden in color. As it flew over, it hid the sky and covered the earth.

“That is?!!!”

Upon seeing that sword, everyone from the Ancient Era's War Clan was stunned. They started to sweat cold bullets.

They had managed to recognize with a single glance that the incoming sword was their Ancient Era's War Clan's strongest secret skill, the Ancient Era's War Sword.

“Clank~~~!!!”

With incomparable might, the Ancient Era's War Sword rapidly approached.

In the end, it stopped above the crowd like a god overlooking mortals.

Chapter 2450 – Going Against One’s Master; Rebellion

---

The golden war sword stood horizontally in the sky, covering it and shadowing the earth.

Like a god, the sword overlooked the beings below. It emitted an overwhelming and unparalleled aura.

“This is the Ancient Era’s War Sword, the secret skill created by the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s ancestor?”

“What a powerful aura. Secret skills... there really are differences in strength between them.”

After sensing the aura of the Ancient Era’s War Sword, great waves emerged in Chu Feng’s heart.

Although Chu Feng had felt overwhelming power from the Four Symbols Secret Skills and the Five Elements Secret Skills when he had first encountered them, if Chu Feng were to encounter the Four Symbols Secret Skills or the Five Elements Secret Skills with his current cultivation, he would definitely be able to easily subdue them.

After all, the current Chu Feng was already a peak Half Martial Ancestor. If he were to be in the Holy Land of Martialism with his cultivation, he would most definitely be an unparalleled individual capable of covering the sky with his hand.

However, even with his current level of cultivation, Chu Feng felt extremely tiny when underneath the Ancient Era’s War Sword; he was unable to feel his strength at all.

If the Ancient Era’s War Sword above Chu Feng’s head was a mountain, then the current Chu Feng would be an ant. The disparity in strength between them was simply akin to the disparity between heaven and earth, unable to be discussed alongside one another.

This Ancient Era's War Sword was simply too powerful. Not to mention in the War Clan's Ancient Domain, it would be incomparable even in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

“We, descendants of the Ancient Era's War Clan, pay our respects to Lord War Sword!!!”

Right at that moment, led by the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief and the four grand elders, all of the grand characters present knelt onto the ground.

Following them, the rest of the Ancient Era's War Clansmen present also knelt.

There were also people that had rushed over due to the commotion, and upon seeing that scene, they too knelt on the ground.

Simply none of the people in the Ancient Era's War Clan considered the Ancient Era's War Sword as a secret skill.

Rather, it appeared more like they considered the Ancient Era's War Sword their ancestor, a sort of relic. No one dared to show any trace of disrespect toward the Ancient Era's War Sword.

Respect and reverence toward the Ancient Era's War Sword filled the everyone's heart.

At the same time, they were also joyous.

“A bunch of trash. You all are a disgrace to the Ancient Era's War Clan.”

Right at that moment, an extremely imposing voice sounded from the Ancient Era's War Sword.

That voice was extremely stunning. Not only did it shake the air, but it also shook the hearts and souls of the crowd.

Upon hearing that voice, many of the War Clansmen started to frown. They revealed extremely scared expressions. One by one, they lowered their heads and did not dare to raise them again.

“Lord War Sword, we are indeed incompetent. We were actually beaten back continuously by the Monstrous Clan. Right now, we have lost all of our territories. Even this final territory of ours is facing imminent danger.”

“However, with Lord War Sword here, our Ancient Era’s War Clan will definitely be able to exterminate the Monstrous Clan,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief thought that the Ancient Era’s War Sword was reprimanding them because they were losing in the battle against the Monstrous Clan.

“Not only were you all beaten to such a state by that bunch of trash from the Monstrous Clan, but now you all actually want me to help you? You all are truly useless.”

“You are not qualified to be the descendants of the Ancient Era’s War Clan. Your continued existence will only serve to bring humiliation to the Ancient Era’s War Clan. Today... I will get rid of all you trash on behalf of the Ancient Era’s War Clan so that you do not bring humiliation to the Ancient Era’s War Clan after leaving this place in the future.”

Once the Ancient Era’s War Sword said those words, overwhelming killing intent immediately filled the entire Ancient Era’s War Clan.

Not to mention the people directly underneath the Ancient Era’s War Sword, everyone in the Ancient Era’s War Clan felt that frightening killing intent.

“This secret skill is actually planning to exterminate the Ancient Era’s War Clan? Is this not going against its master? Is this not a rebellion?”

“This is truly getting a little interesting,” At that moment, even Her Lady Queen revealed a surprised expression. However, she appeared to be more like someone who was enjoying a show. she was in very high spirits.

To Her Lady Queen, a secret skill would remain a secret skill. Regardless of the enormous power a secret skill might have, it would still remain an instrument for others to use.

And now, the Ancient Era's War Sword actually wanted to eliminate everyone from the Ancient Era's War Clan. To Her Lady Queen, this sort of reaction was no different from a rebellion against one's master.

“Lord Clan Chief, this... this...”

At that moment, everyone in the Ancient Era's War Clan started to panic. One by one, they turned their gazes to their Lord Clan Chief.

They had originally thought that the Ancient Era's War Sword would assist them in taking care of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan after waking up. Never did they expect that it would instead want to kill them.

This was simply the complete opposite of what they thought would happen. Overwhelmed with panic, they had no idea what to do. As such, they could only entrust their final hopes with their Clan Chief.

“Lord War Sword, you have not shown any sign of movement for all these years. For you to come out today, did you really do so just for the sake of eliminating us?”

“If we are to be eliminated, this War Clan's Ancient Domain will become the Monstrous Clan's world. Wouldn't you have helped the Monstrous Clan then?” The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief asked.

There was not the slightest trace of anger in his tone. On the contrary, only confusion, irreconciliation and absolute humility were present.

“I have no heart to concern myself with the battle between you all and the Monstrous Clan. However, the Martial Comprehension Ground is what Zhan Aoxue left for you all. Yet, right now... you all, for the sake of flattering someone, were planning to allow an outsider to use it. Tell me, do you all still have any dignity?" The Ancient Era's War Sword said.

At that moment, the crowd came to a sudden realization. It turned out that the reason the Ancient Era's War Sword had moved and wanted to eliminate their Ancient Era's War Clan was not because of their incompetence, but rather because they wanted to allow Chu Feng to train in the Martial Comprehension Ground.

The people of the Ancient Era's War Clan were left speechless by this. After all, it was the truth.

"I am indeed in the wrong with this. However, Lord Ancestor did not explicitly state that we could not allow outsiders to use the Martial Comprehension Ground."

"Furthermore, Young Hero Chu Feng has helped us. As such, we wanted to repay him. That is the reason why we decided to allow him to train in the Martial Comprehension Ground. I hope that Lord War Sword will be willing to be lenient and give us an opportunity to reform ourselves."

"After all, no matter how incompetent we might be, we are still descendants of the Ancient Era's War Clan."

The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief spoke honestly. His tone was very humble. After he finished saying those words, he started kowtowing.

"You dare quibble with me? Truly not even death can wipe away your crimes."

However, the Ancient Era's War Sword was simply deaf to the humble words. At that moment, the killing intent it emitted grew even stronger.

It was as if all the people of the Ancient Era's War Clan would die the very next moment.

“Lord War Sword, we know our wrongs!”

“Lord War Sword, please spare us!”

.....

At that moment, the people from the Ancient Era’s War Clan, including their clan chief and elders, all started to beg for forgiveness.

None of them wanted to die. Faced with certain death, they made their final struggle.

“Wuuahh!!!”

Suddenly, a powerful aura started to shroud them. It covered the bodies of all of the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen.

Like dying dogs, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen were forced ruthlessly to the ground and were unable to move in the slightest. At that moment, they were unable to even speak.

Many people started to shed sorrowful tears of irreconciliation.

It was truly a tragic sight all around.

However, Chu Feng was unable to feel that oppressive might. It turned out that that oppressive might was only aimed at the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s clansmen.

That Ancient Era’s War Sword was only planning to kill the Ancient Era’s War Clans men, and did not have the intention to attack Chu Feng.

“Incompetent bunch, your deaths cannot be pitied.”

That Ancient Era’s War Sword spoke again. This time around, its voice contained killing intent capable of causing one to feel despair.

It was planning to attack and kill all of the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s men within the Ancient Era’s War Clan.

“Wait a moment.”

However, right at that moment, a voice was suddenly heard. Like a sudden clap of thunder, it exploded at that moment of despair.

It was Chu Feng. Chu Feng was the one who had spoken.

Chapter 2451 – I Will Shoulder The Responsibility

---

“Mn?”

Once Chu Feng spoke, the Ancient Era’s War Sword immediately let out an annoyed snort.

At the same time, Chu Feng felt that there seemed to be an invisible gaze being cast onto him.

Although the gaze was invisible, it was incomparably cold. Chu Feng felt as if he had been thrown into a bitter cold region as the hair on his body instantly stood erect.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng still managed to raise his head toward the Ancient Era’s War Sword in a manner that was neither servile nor overbearing.

In a very calm manner, Chu Feng said, “Senior, since this matter was caused by me, please allow me to take responsibility for it. There is simply no need for you to kill the seniors of the Ancient Era’s War Clan. If you really want to kill someone, you should be killing me.”

“Chu Feng, have you gone insane? This matter does not concern you, why must you throw your life away for this?”

Seeing that Chu Feng was actually planning to throw his life away for the people of the Ancient Era’s War Clan, Her Lady Queen who was originally sitting cross-legged in Chu Feng’s world spirit space spoke.

Upon hearing those words, the expressions of the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen also changed. Although they were unable to raise their heads, and could not see the expression Chu Feng had right now, they were able to hear him.

They had truly heard that Chu Feng was planning to die for them.

“You wish to die on their behalf?” The Ancient Era’s War Sword said.

“Chu Feng, immediately take back what you said earlier. You’re completely unrelated to them, how could you throw away your life for them?”

Before Chu Feng could answer, Her Lady Queen spoke out against it again.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored Her Lady Queen.

Instead, he looked to the Ancient Era’s War Sword and said, “This matter was caused by me. It is unrelated to them. As such, I am willing to die on their behalf.”

“Merely, I have a world spirit in my body. This matter is also unrelated to her. Senior, with how overwhelmingly powerful you are, you most likely possess the means to kill me without killing her. Thus, I hope that senior will kill only me and spare her.”

“Of course. I can sever your relationship with her. I’ll kill only you and have her return to her world,” The Ancient Era’s War Sword said.

“Since that’s the case, senior, please go ahead,” Chu Feng said calmly.

“You really do not fear death?” The Ancient Era’s War Sword asked. At that moment, there was an evident change in the tone with which the Ancient Era’s War Sword spoke to Chu Feng.

It was no longer high and aloof like before. This time around, it was filled with curiosity toward Chu Feng.

“I am afraid of death. Who in this world would not be afraid of death? However, even if I am afraid of death, I cannot have these people die because of me.”

“As a man, there are some responsibilities that one should shoulder. Else... one will not be qualified to be a man,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well. I admire your courage. Compared to this trash, you are much stronger.”

“Thus, I will give you another opportunity. Consider it properly,” The Ancient Era’s War Sword said.

Chu Feng was about to reply when a voice filled with concern, anger and various other complicated emotions exploded in Chu Feng’s ears.

“Chu Feng, shut up immediately! You don’t have to die, why do you want to die for them?!”

“Think about your father, think about your mother, do you not feel it to be pitiful if you are to die here like this?”

“Are you not letting down your father who is trapped in the Lower Realm?”

“Are you not letting down your mother who intruded into the Asura Spirit World without hesitation to seal me in your body?”

It was Her Lady Queen. At that moment, Her Lady Queen was shouting and roaring. Anger filled her beautiful face.

Very rarely did she ever act this way. However, she did so then. The reason for that was all because she did not want Chu Feng to die in vain like that.

To her, this was simply too unworthy.

“No, I would’ve let them down. If I am to die here today, I will naturally be letting my parents down.”

“But... it’s impossible for me to allow these people to die because of me.”

“Furthermore, there’s also a very important aspect. Milady Queen, I feel that this might be a show,” Chu Feng said.

“Show? What show?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“It is a show that the Ancient Era’s War Sword has deliberately put on for me,” Chu Feng said.

“You’re saying that the Ancient Era’s War Sword is not really planning to kill the people of the Ancient Era’s War Clan, and is instead trying to see if you will bravely step forward for them?” Her Lady Queen was very smart. She immediately realized what Chu Feng meant.

“That’s right,” Chu Feng said.

“Now that you mention it, there is indeed such a possibility,” Her Lady Queen had only been concerned with enjoying the show earlier, and had not bothered to think much about it.

When she had heard what Chu Feng said, she discovered, upon thinking about it, that what Chu Feng said was very reasonable. There were indeed a lot of flaws in the Ancient Era’s War Sword’s actions.

Perhaps it might really be a show.

If it were to be a show, it would be a good thing.

The reason for that was because that show might very well be a test for Chu Feng. In short, if it was a show, then it would mean that the Ancient Era’s War Sword had taken a fancy to Chu Feng.

Merely, it was planning to test Chu Feng’s moral character.

“If this really is a show, what will happen if you do not step forward bravely?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“If I do not step forward bravely, it is likely that no one from the Ancient Era’s War Clan will die. Instead, the person who would die in the end would be me,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s true. But, if this is not a show, wouldn’t it mean that you would’ve thrown your life away in vain?” Her Lady Queen was still worried.

“I feel that if it truly plans to kill the people from the Ancient Era’s War Clan, I will definitely be killed alongside them,” Chu Feng said.

“Why’s that?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“If it truly plans to kill all of the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen here, it would mean that it will have done so because it possesses deep sentiments toward the Ancient Era’s War Clan.”

“After it kills the people of the Ancient Era’s War Clan, if I am to survive, it would mean that everything here would be mine to keep.”

“Say, do you think that it will allow me, an outsider, to inherit everything from the Ancient Era’s War Clan?” Chu Feng asked.

“Now that you mention it, why didn’t I think of it earlier?” Her Lady Queen came to a sudden realization. She realized that what Chu Feng said was very reasonable.

“My Eggy was only concerned about my safety. Naturally you would’ve neglected these things. Else, with how smart you are, you would definitely have been able to think of it.”

“As they say, love will make one stupid. Right now, I have truly managed to experience it,” Chu Feng said in an embarrassed manner.

“Mn, that is indeed the case. I had neglected it... wait a moment... you said love is what?”

“Damn you! Chu Feng, you actually dared to seize this opportunity to take advantage of this Queen? Do you believe that this Queen will bite you to death?” Her Lady Queen pouted her little mouth angrily and began to shake her fist in the world spirit space. It was truly adorable.

“Chu Feng, have you finished thinking it over?” Right at that moment, that Ancient Era’s War Sword’s urging voice was heard.

“I’ve already decided. Allow me to shoulder this responsibility,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well, since you’ve decided, I will satisfy you,” Right after the Ancient Era’s War Sword said those words, the oppressive might and killing intent that enveloped the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen disappeared instantly.

At that moment, the people from the Ancient Era’s War Clan finally regained their freedom. They stood back up and raised their heads.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, you!!!”

After they regained their freedom, they all revealed worried expressions on their faces.

The reason for that was because they were shocked to discover that the oppressive might and killing intent covering their bodies previously had all gathered on Chu Feng now.

At that moment, Chu Feng was actually faced with all of the power that had enveloped all of them earlier.

Such power was incomparably berserk. It caused Chu Feng’s hair and clothes to flutter violently.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng’s expression remained unchanged. Furthermore, he was not lying on his stomach in a sorry manner like the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen did earlier.

Although the Ancient Era’s War Sword was planning to kill Chu Feng, it had given Chu Feng this final honor.

Chapter 2452 – Life And Death Gamble

---

“Lord Father, this matter is unrelated to Chu Feng. We cannot let him die because of our Ancient Era’s War Clan.”

“That’s right. Father, please think of something.”

Seeing that Chu Feng was about to die, Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong both started to plead with their father.

As for the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief, he had a very complicated expression on his face. He wanted to say something, but then hesitated to do so. In the end, he did not say anything.

“Buzz~~~”

However, the very next moment, the Ancient Era’s War Sword suddenly moved. It turned into a dazzling golden ray that shot toward Chu Feng.

At that moment, everyone felt that Chu Feng was going to die. After all, the might of the Ancient Era’s War Sword was too frightening.

However, after the golden ray enveloped Chu Feng, they were shocked to discover that Chu Feng had not died, that they were still able to sense Chu Feng’s aura.

“What’s going on?” The Ancient Era’s War Clansmen all revealed puzzled expressions.

“It didn’t kill you, have you succeeded?” Her Lady Queen was pleasantly surprised.

“I’m afraid that I haven’t succeeded yet. The killing intent is still enveloping me,” Compared to Her Lady Queen, Chu Feng was much more calm. It was as if he had already seen through life and death.

In fact, it was not that he had seen through life and death. Rather, he knew very well that his life and death was not up to him to decide at the moment.

Besides, Chu Feng was quite confident in his guess. Even though the conclusion had not yet been reached, he still felt that he should be able to survive.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the golden ray started to shrink and shrouded Chu Feng’s entire body.

It had covered Chu Feng like golden armor.

At that moment, Chu Feng was emitting light even more dazzling than that of the sun.

“That is?” The Ancient Era’s War Clansmen grew even more puzzled.

“Chu Feng, I am fond of someone loyal and affectionate like you.”

“Today, I will give you a chance. I will set up a formation. There are nine hundred million nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine swords in the formation.”

“Among them is a Life Sword and a Death Sword.”

“The Death Sword will continue to chase after you to kill you. Its speed will gradually increase. As long as it catches up to you, you will undoubtedly be killed.”

“Thus, you must capture the Life Sword before the Death Sword catches up to you,” The Ancient Era’s War Sword said.

“What the hell! To find a Life Sword among nine hundred million nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine swords?!”

“The chance for survival is simply too low, no?!” Her Lady Queen was furious.

As for the people from the Ancient Era’s War Clan, they too shook their heads in succession.

Although the Ancient Era's War Sword had indeed given Chu Feng an opportunity to live, they all felt that his chance of survival was simply too small.

However, when the next sentence was spoken by the Ancient Era's War Sword, everyone was greatly shocked.

"If you are capable of capturing the Life Sword, I will be yours to use," The Ancient Era's War Sword said.

"What?" Hearing those words, the expressions of the Ancient Era's War Clansmen changed enormously.

The Ancient Era's War Sword was their Ancient Era's War Clan's strongest secret skill.

Throughout the many years, there had never been anyone capable of awakening it. And now, Chu Feng actually managed to receive an opportunity to obtain it.

At that moment, many of the people from the Ancient Era's War Clan no longer looked to Chu Feng with gazes of sympathy. Rather, their sympathy was replaced with slight admiration and jealousy.

Although the trial was extremely terrifying, Chu Feng would be able to obtain the Ancient Era's War Sword, that extremely powerful secret skill, in addition to being able to survive if he passed the trial. When thinking about it, those Ancient Era's War Clansmen felt the trial to be simply something that one could only wish for.

If it were them who were given that trial, they too might brave the risk to attempt it.

"Chu Feng, have you made your preparations?" The Ancient Era's War Sword asked.

"Senior, I'm ready," Chu Feng said.

"Buzz~~~"

The very next moment, Chu Feng felt that the scene before him was rapidly changing, and that his body was sinking nonstop. It was as if he was falling into a bottomless pit.

When everything returned to normal, Chu Feng discovered that he had arrived at a vast and boundless space.

In that space, his surroundings and the area above his head were pitch black. However, dazzling golden light shone from underneath Chu Feng's feet.

Golden swords were standing below him. Each and every one of them was over three meters tall.

They were arranged below him in a densely packed manner. Their numbers were so numerous that they formed a sea of swords.

“This is quite difficult,” Chu Feng revealed a difficult expression.

He was surprised to discover that all of the golden swords looked the same as the Ancient Era's War Sword.

In other words, the nine hundred million nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine swords all had the same appearance.

Most importantly, Chu Feng's Heaven's Eyes were ineffective here. In fact, he was unable to use even his spirit power, as well as his various perceptive abilities.

The only thing Chu Feng was capable of using were his most primitive perceptive abilities.

However, with this, how could he find the so-called Life Sword from all these swords?

“Clank~~~”

Right at that moment, a dazzling sound was heard from behind Chu Feng.

Chu Feng turned around, and discovered that a golden sword had appeared behind him. It was rushing toward him with an extremely fast speed.

It was also an Ancient Era's War Sword. Merely, that Ancient Era's War Sword emitted an absolute killing sensation and power capable of obliterating Chu Feng.

Without a doubt, Chu Feng's body would explode on the spot, killing him, if he were to be struck by the sword.

“Zzzz~~~”

At that moment, how could Chu Feng dare to show any negligence? He immediately unleashed his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings as he started fleeing from the sword.

After Chu Feng's cultivation reached its peak, he unleashed the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique to assist in his escape.

In fact, Chu Feng also took out his Magma Emperor Sword. He was borrowing the power of the Incomplete Ancestral Armament to increase his speed.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng was surprised to discover that the Death Sword behind him was still rapidly gaining on him.

The difference in strength between them was too great. Chu Feng was simply unable to escape from the sword.

“Isn't this utter nonsense?! With how fast that Death Sword is, how could you possibly escape it?”

“That Ancient Era's War Sword simply never planned to give you the opportunity to search for the Life Sword. You will soon be caught up to and killed by the Death Sword.”

“This is simply a scam. It was simply toying you,” Her Lady Queen was both panicky and furious. She restlessly began to walk back and forth in the world spirit space. In fact, sparkling radiance actually emerged in her furious eyes.

Her Lady Queen felt that the speed of the Death Sword was simply too fast. Not to mention finding a Life Sword from nine hundred million nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine swords, she felt that the task would be impossible to accomplish even if there were only nine hundred swords because there simply wasn't a sufficient amount of time.

“Chu Feng, what should we do? You can't just die like this.”

“That's right, the Evil God Sword! Quickly, use the Evil God Sword! You will have a chance of survival if you are to use the Evil God Sword!” Her Lady Queen shouted.

“Evil God Sword?” At that moment, Chu Feng's heart moved.

Indeed, in a situation like this, his own strength was practically useless.

However, the power the Evil God Sword contained was inestimable. If he were to use the Evil God Sword, then perhaps he would really have the opportunity to survive.

“No, I can't,” However, in the end, Chu Feng shook his head. He said, “Since this is a trial, I must rely on myself. If I am to use the Evil God Sword, even if I am to succeed, this trial will have lost all meaning.”

“Have you gone stupid? Look at the situation, is it still time to consider something like that?”

“Stop hesitating. Quickly, use the Evil God Sword. Although the Evil God Sword is very dangerous, you will still have a chance of survival if you are to use it,” Her Lady Queen said.

“No, I must rely on myself this time around,” However, Chu Feng was determined to not use the Evil God Sword.

“Step~~~”

Furthermore, as he spoke those words, Chu Feng actually released the Azure Dragon Dashing Technique under his feet and stopped in midair.

Chu Feng had actually stopped fleeing, and stood where he was without moving.

Chapter 2453 – Sharp Weapon For Killing

---

“Chu Feng, run away immediately. Even if you are to rely on yourself, you must not resign yourself to fate. Isn’t this simply throwing away your life?”

At that moment, Her Lady Queen was nearly driven mad with worry.

After all, with Chu Feng just standing there, the Death Sword would soon approach. With his actions, Chu Feng was simply waiting for death.

“Clank~~~”

Sure enough, the Death Sword instantly arrived. It carried with it a dazzling golden light, as well as overwhelming killing intent, as it moved to pierce through Chu Feng’s back.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at the moment when the Death Sword was about to piece into Chu Feng’s back, Chu Feng suddenly shifted his body and dodged the sword.

“You dodged it?”

Seeing that Chu Feng had dodged the sword, a trace of joy appeared in Her Lady Queen’s eyes that were filled with worry.

However, the very next moment, the joy in her eyes instantly disappeared.

The reason for that was because Her Lady Queen was surprised to discover that Chu Feng had actually extended his arm toward the Death Sword.

“Paa~~~”

Chu Feng grabbed the hilt of the Death Sword.

Seeing this scene, Her Lady Queen wanted to lash out at Chu

Feng.

However, right at that moment, a voice was suddenly heard.

“You’ve actually managed to accomplish it.”

It was the Ancient Era’s War Sword. This was the voice of the Ancient Era’s War Sword.

Not only did Chu Feng come into contact with the Death Sword, but he had also grabbed it by the hilt. Yet, Chu Feng was actually not dead.

“I get it now. So this is actually what it is. Chu Feng, you are simply too amazing to be able to think of this.”

Finally, the serious and worry-filled expression Her Lady Queen had on her face was swept clean. It was replaced with an extremely sweet and enchanting smile. Excitedly, she started to jump and hop in the world spirit space. She was truly overjoyed.

Right at that moment, the nine hundred million nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine swords down below began to disappear.

It turned out that the Life Sword was the Death Sword, that the Death Sword was the Life Sword.

If one wanted to obtain the Life Sword, one must grasp the Death Sword.

“Tell me, how did you come to realize that the Death Sword was the Life Sword?” The Ancient Era’s War Sword asked curiously.

“Firstly, the Death Sword was too fast, there was simply no time for me to search for the Life Sword from the nine hundred million nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine swords. This would be extremely unreasonable unless senior had never planned to let me pass this trial to begin with.”

“However, I felt that senior was not such a person,” Chu Feng said.

“Very good. Boy, I quite enjoy your flattery. Continue,” The Ancient Era’s War Sword said.

“Then, there’s the fact that senior is a very powerful slaughtering secret skill. Since the Life Sword is you, that means that the Death Sword that emitted that overwhelming power resembled you the most, that the Death Sword was most likely to also be you.”

“However, even with the analysis I made, I was still extremely nervous and uneasy before grasping the Death Sword,” Chu Feng said.

“Mn? This is quite interesting.”

“With how thoroughly you’ve analyzed the matter, why would you still be nervous? Look, weren’t you very confident the entire time?” The Ancient Era’s War Sword asked.

“Heh...” Chu Feng laughed wryly. Then, he said, “I’m not afraid of senior laughing at me. To be completely honest, I am also afraid of death. Earlier, it was truly a matter of life and death.”

“Haha. Great! What a great ‘I am also afraid of death.’”

“Everyone is afraid of death. Only those that are willing to put their lives on the line to bravely advance are able to obtain greatness.”

“The path of martial cultivation is like this. It is like rowing a boat upstream. The moment you stop moving forward, you’ll start falling back.”

“Although the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen here possess very decent bloodlines, they ended up degenerating to their current state because they did not go forward.”

“A bunch of trash like them actually dared to think about subduing me all day long. They are simply delusional,” The Ancient Era’s War Sword said in a very resentful manner.

“Senior, it must be because you are dissatisfied with the people here that you ended up having no other choice but to choose me, right?” Chu Feng asked.

“You’re right. Logically, I should be used by the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen. However, not a single person here is capable of satisfying me.”

“This includes that boy by the name of Zhan Haichuan from back then. Although he was quite talented, his personality was not to my liking.”

The Ancient Era’s War Sword gave a long sigh

“All these years, I have been awake the entire time and observing everything. I was searching for the fated individual to obtain me. But in a flash, many generations have passed. I have truly grown extremely lonely.”

“I was originally a sharp weapon for killing. Yet, I have become an object of worship. This is truly not what I desired, nor was it what my creator desired.”

“It is truly rare for me to meet someone that suits my taste. Thus, I decided to not shackle myself and follow you,” The Ancient Era’s War Sword said.

“But senior, you still put me through a trial, no?” Chu Feng did not know whether to laugh or cry. Although he had managed to successfully pass the trial, when he recalled the trial, he remembered how dangerous it was. If he had taken one wrong step, there would only be one end for him.

Not to mention obtaining the acknowledgement from the Ancient Era’s War Sword, he would likely have lost his life.

“Hahaha. No matter what, I am still the Ancient Era’s War Sword, one of the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Nine Great Secret Skills. As such, how could I casually allow myself to follow a mere boy? Naturally I would have to put you through a trial.”

“Furthermore, even though I managed to witness all the things you've done after you've arrived in the War Clan's Ancient Domain, I was still unable to be absolutely certain about your nature. Thus, this final trial was needed to verify things."

"And you did not disappoint me. Although I am not extremely satisfied, you are indeed qualified to wield my power," The Ancient Era's War Sword said.

"Senior, you're flattering me. Merely, senior, you mentioned Nine Great Secret Skills earlier? Weren't there supposed to only be Three Great Secret Skills?" Chu Feng asked.

"Humph, the people here are ignorant to everything, and simply could not be considered to be descendants of the Ancient Era's War Clan. The hell would they know?"

"Back then, the ancestor of the Ancient Era's War Clan created a total of Nine Great Secret Skills. Those Nine Great Secret Skills all took the form of weapons, and were effective killing weapons. Each of them was stronger than the last. Even I am only ranked third among the Nine Great Secret Skills."

"Ranked third? Senior, with how powerful you are, you're actually only ranked third?" Chu Feng was extremely shocked.

Chu Feng had experienced the aura of the Ancient Era's War Sword. It was truly something capable of startling heaven and earth and scaring away even ghosts and gods. It was simply boundlessly powerful.

"That's right, I am only ranked third. However, the strength of a secret skill is related to its master. Thus, boy, if you turn out to be promising, I might not necessarily be on the losing side should I confront those two old fellows in the future."

"Thus, Chu Feng, you must remember this. If you are to encounter the Nine Great Secret Skills, do not be scared if they are stronger than me, and do not be arrogant if they are weaker than me. In all cases, you must take them very seriously," The Ancient Era's War Sword said.

“Thank you for your advice, senior. This junior will keep it in mind,” Chu Feng said.

“Since that's the case, I will entrust my power to you. I hope that you do not disappoint me. Else, even if you are to die, I will still not let you get away with it,” As the Ancient Era's War Sword spoke, the golden sword Chu Feng held in his hand started to blossom with dazzling light.

“Senior, please don't rush to leave this quickly. Can you tell me where the main family of the Ancient Era's War Clan is, whether they still exist, how powerful they are and why the founder of this War Clan's Ancient Domain arrived in this place with the Three Great Secret Skills?”

“Furthermore, as this place was created by the War Clansmen, why would there be a Monstrous Clan here? What is the origin of the Monstrous Clan, and why didn't Zhan Haichuan eliminate them back then?”

Chu Feng knew that the Ancient Era's War Sword was going to pledge complete allegiance to him. However, Chu Feng was afraid that it would not be able to speak anymore should it do so. Thus, he hurriedly asked multiple questions that he had in his heart.

“In the vast world of martial cultivation, the heavenly dome struggles against the universe. If I were to tell you everything, wouldn't it become very boring?”

“Thus, it is better that you find the answers yourself. If there is something that you wish to know, go and find it. Only then... should one be delighted .”

“Hahahahaha...”

Chu Feng's line of sight started to change. Soon, the space before him collapsed. Chu Feng had returned to the War Clan's Ancient Domain again, returned to where the Ancient Era's War Clansmen were.

However, the Ancient Era's War Sword's voice was still lingering in Chu Feng's ears.

“In the vast world of martial cultivation, the heavenly dome struggles against the universe?”

Chu Feng's heart was still shocked by those words.

The reason for that was because those simple words once again told Chu Feng exactly how enormous the vast Outer World was.

Chu Feng was once again flooded with an irresistible attraction toward the Outer World.

Chapter 2454 – Repay Kindness With Malice

---

“Big brother Chu Feng, you’re actually fine!!!”

“This is great, this is truly great!”

Suddenly, an incomparably joyous voice sounded beside Chu Feng’s ear.

It was Zhan Lingtong. Not only was Zhan Lingtong standing beside Chu Feng, but Zhan Lingling was also standing beside Chu Feng.

The two of them were unable to conceal their happiness, and were grinning from ear to ear upon seeing that Chu Feng had returned completely unscathed.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, you... could it be that you’ve obtained Lord War Sword’s acknowledgement?” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief had also arrived beside Chu Feng.

At that moment, everyone from the Ancient Era’s War Clan were looking at Chu Feng with complicated gazes. They all wanted to obtain definite answers from Chu Feng’s mouth.

“Seniors, truth be told, Lord War Sword is indeed in my body now. I have obtained Lord War Sword’s acknowledgement.”

“Merely, Lord War Sword is truly too powerful. I am still unable to completely grasp it for the time being. I reckon that it will still take a long while before I can grasp its power,” Chu Feng did not conceal anything, and told the truth.

The reason for that was because even if he wanted to conceal the truth, he would not be able to do so. After all, all of the people present had heard what the Ancient Era’s War Sword had said earlier.

Furthermore, they had all seen what had happened earlier. Earlier, the Ancient Era’s War Sword had covered his body. And now, it had assimilated into his body.

Actually, everyone knew that Chu Feng had obtained the Ancient Era's War Sword, that great secret skill that none of their Ancient Era's War Clansmen were capable of subduing.

"Young Hero Chu Feng is truly an extraordinary genius. You actually managed to obtain Lord War Sword's acknowledgement."

"Merely, Young Hero Chu Feng, Lord War Sword is the possession of our Ancient Era's War Clan. I'm afraid that we cannot allow you to take Lord War Sword away," The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief said.

"This bunch of shameless bastards. You saved them earlier, yet now they actually want to demand the Ancient Era's War Sword from you?"

"If it wasn't for you, they would all be dead already. How could they be so shameless?" Hearing those words, Her Lady Queen immediately voiced her resentment.

Actually, Chu Feng also felt a bit displeased. However, he still only showed a calm expression on his face as he said, "Lord Clan Chief, what happened earlier was actually a trial, a trial that Lord War Sword had for me."

"I managed to pass the trial. That is how I managed to obtain Lord War Sword's acknowledgement. Since Lord War Sword has chosen me, I find it unsuitable to let him down. Thus... I'm afraid that I cannot hand over Lord War Sword."

"Young Hero Chu Feng, we have treated you as an honored guest. How could you treat us like this? You clearly know that Lord War Sword is our Ancient Era's War Clan's supreme treasure. Thus, how could you insist on snatching it away?" An elder began to point at Chu Feng as he spoke angrily.

Seeing that, Chu Feng's expression grew gloomy. He said, "Do not forget, your Lord War Sword was planning to kill you all earlier.”

“If it wasn’t for me, you all would’ve already been dead by now. Is this how you treat your benefactor?”

“.....”

Once Chu Feng said those words, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen grew a lot more quiet.

After a moment of silence, that elder said, “Return Lord War Sword to us. We would rather be killed by Lord War Sword than have you bring it away. Else... we would have let down our ancestor.”

“Heh...” Hearing those words, Chu Feng laughed. It was an extremely mocking laughter.

“Lord War Sword chose me of its own accord. Else, with its power, I would not be able to force it to submit to me either.”

“Yet now, you all want to go against the desire of Lord War Sword. Is this what you mean by not letting down your ancestor?”

“What a joke. Allow me to be frank: it is not that I cannot return Lord War Sword to you all. Merely, if I am to return Lord War Sword to you, you might meet even more miserable ends,” Chu Feng said.

“You!!!” That elder’s face turned deep red with fury. However, he was unable to refute Chu Feng.

What happened earlier was still fresh in their memories. They knew very well that what Chu Feng said could very well happen.

Thus, at that moment, they all turned their gazes to their Lord Clan Chief. They wanted to have their Lord Clan Chief make the decision.

Of course, if their Lord Clan Chief wanted to allow Chu Feng to bring away the Ancient Era’s War Sword, they would definitely be against it.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, if you really want to return Lord War Sword to us, there is actually a way.”

“Back then, our Lord Ancestor was afraid that the Three Great Secret Skills would go out of control. Thus, he specially left behind a grand formation. That grand formation was capable of suppressing the power of the Three Great Secret Skills.”

“Back then, out of respect for Lord War Sword, we never sealed it in the grand formation. Never did we expect that it would really end up going out of control wanting to kill us.”

“Judging from how things are now, it seems that we must place it in the grand formation,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“That’s right. How did we forgot about the grand formation Lord Clan Chief left behind?” At that moment, the elders all echoed in succession.

“Your intention is to have me place Lord War Sword into that formation so that you can seal it?” Chu Feng frowned and asked with a cold voice.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, I know that you are a man of virtue. You most definitely would not want us to die by Lord War Sword’s hands. And this... would be the best method to handle this,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Indeed, I do not want you all to die. Otherwise, I would not have offered to die on your behalf. However, I’ve also stated that since Lord War Sword has already chosen me, I cannot fail to live up to its expectations, and definitely cannot place it in the so-called grand formation.”

“Thus, my apologies, but I’m afraid that I cannot agree to this matter,” Chu Feng said resolutely.

“Clank~~~”

Right at that moment, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief suddenly pulled out a golden spear and pointed it at Chu Feng.

Once the spear appeared, a boundless oppressive might enveloped Chu Feng, causing him to be unable to move a single step.

That spear was an Ancestral Armament. As for that Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief, he was, at the very least, a rank four Martial Ancestor. As he possessed a battle power one level above Chu Feng, Chu Feng would naturally not be able to move once he used his Ancestral Armament to suppress Chu Feng.

"Lord Father, what are you doing? Big brother Chu Feng is the benefactor who saved my life and big sister's life," Zhan Lingtong hurriedly rushed over.

"Lord Father, I beg of you, please stop immediately. Chu Feng has shown grace toward us. We cannot repay kindness with malice," Immediately afterward, Zhan Lingling actually kneeled before the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief.

"Scram!" The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief waved his sleeve, and a strong wind lifted Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong and blew them away.

At that moment, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief was still pointing at Chu Feng with the golden spear. A complicated expression filled his eyes.

"Young Hero Chu Feng, Lord War Sword belongs to our Ancient Era's War Clan. Are you really not planning to return it?" The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief asked.

"Unless you are to kill me... I will definitely not return the Ancient Era's War Sword to you," Chu Feng said.

"I will not kill you, because you have shown grace to our Ancient Era's War Clan. If I am to kill you, I will have repaid kindness with malice, I will have become an unjust and heartless fellow."

"However, Lord War Sword is simply too important to our Ancient Era's War Clan. As such, I cannot allow you to bring it away."

"Thus, I can only inconvenience Young Hero Chu Feng to stay in our Ancient Era's War Clan for a bit longer."

"Paa~~~"

After he finished saying those words, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief instantly arrived before Chu Feng and grabbed his shoulder.

The next moment, the scene before Chu Feng started to rapidly change. When everything was over, Chu Feng had left where he previously stood and arrived in an underground prison.

"Young Hero Chu Feng, I hope you will properly consider the matter. As long as you are willing to cooperate with us in sealing Lord War Sword in the grand formation, I will immediately release you. Furthermore... I will also apologize for my actions today."

After he finished saying those words, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief clasped his fist toward Chu Feng in a very apologetic manner.

Then, a 'clank' was heard, and the prison cell was closed shut. Only Chu Feng remained in the prison cell.

Chapter 2455 – Remaining Calm

---

Chu Feng looked around. After observing his surroundings, he discovered that this prison cell was truly remarkable. Likely, with the strength that he possessed right now, it would be very difficult to break free from that prison cell in a short period of time.

However, that would only hold true for a short period of time. After all, Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. As long as he was given sufficient time, he would definitely be able to break free from that prison cell.

“Those despicable bastards, they actually repaid your kindness with malice. Chu Feng... take out the Evil God Sword and kill them all. Else... they will truly think that you are easily bullied.”

Her Lady Queen was gnashing her teeth in anger. She was clenching her little fists so tightly that creaking sounds could be heard.

It seemed that she was truly enraged.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly had a thought, and entered his world spirit space. As he saw Her Lady Queen before him, Chu Feng revealed a faint smile on his face.

“Look at the situation, you’ve been reduced to a prisoner now and are already at death’s door. Yet you’re still able to smile?”

“Since when did your heart grow this magnanimous?” Seeing that Chu Feng remained calm even after all this, Her Lady Queen was even more furious.

However, the smile on Chu Feng’s face grew even stronger. He said, “The love Milady Queen has for me is truly deep. Every time I encounter a difficult situation, you will always be more nervous than me.”

Hearing those words, Her Lady Queen’s little face instantly turned red. Then, she bit her lower lip with her pearly white teeth and revealed an even more furious expression. “Pah! Damn shameless bastard, who said I love you? I merely do not want you to die because you’ll cause me to die too if you do.”

“Is that so? In that case, why was it that I saw someone so worried that she was about to cry when I was on the verge of failing to subdue the Ancient Era’s War Sword?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile on his face.

Her Lady Queen raised her chin in a very proud manner as he said, “That’s because I didn’t want to die. It is unrelated to you, okay?”

“Milady Queen, there’s no need to bother explaining. I know everything,” Chu Feng said with a mischievous laugh. Furthermore, as he spoke, he began to walk toward Her Lady Queen.

“If you dare continue with this, do you dare believe that even without that Ancient Era’s War Clan killing you, I will exterminate you myself?” Her Lady Queen revealed an angry look.

The very next moment, an oppressive might was emitted from her. That oppressive might actually forced Chu Feng into a corner.

At that moment, Chu Feng revealed a pleasantly surprised expression. He had a smile on his face as he looked at the fierce-looking little beauty before him, “Rank two Martial Ancestor, and a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation.”

“Milady Queen, your cultivation has actually reached this level already?” Chu Feng was very pleasantly surprised.

Before this, Her Lady Queen’s cultivation had not been so powerful. Her battle power had also not been as frightening as it was now.

Likely, Her Lady Queen must’ve gained her current level of cultivation after she refined the source energies of the Kong

Heavenly Clan's True Immortals when Chu Feng was using the Evil God Sword to kill the Kong Heavenly Clan's True Immortals.

Merely, Chu Feng did not expect that not only did Her Lady Queen's cultivation increase, but even her battle power had increased.

Right now, Chu Feng still only possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. Even the Ancient Era's War Clansmen that possessed their special War Clan's bloodline were only able to obtain a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation after reaching the Martial Ancestor level.

However, Her Lady Queen actually possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation. As such, Chu Feng had no choice but to exclaim in admiration.

"That's right. Earlier, your power was sealed by the Evil God Sword. Thus, this Queen's cultivation was also sealed. I was so worried earlier that I forgot to inspect my own cultivation."

"Never would I have expected that I would be a rank two Martial Ancestor now. Furthermore, even my battle power has increased."

"It seems that the source energies of True Immortals are not only tasty, but also very useful. Haha," At that moment, Her Lady Queen was overjoyed.

"Chu Feng, let this Queen out right away. I will personally teach that bunch of shameless Ancient Era's War Clansmen a lesson," Her Lady Queen said excitedly.

She was extremely worried about Chu Feng's safety earlier. That was why she became so nervous and fretful.

However, she was now no longer that worried.

The always confident Her Lady Queen, upon finding out that her cultivation had increased to rank two Martial Ancestor, and her battle power had increased to being able to surmount five levels of cultivation, would naturally feel that she would be able to contend against the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief.

In fact, she wanted to go out right then and cause havoc throughout the Ancient Era's War Clan.

“No. Eggy, although you are very strong, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief is not weak either. I do not wish for you to take this risk,” However, Chu Feng immediately refused her.

Although Her Lady Queen possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting five levels of cultivation, a level above that of the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief possessed a cultivation of rank four Martial Ancestor, two entire levels of cultivation above Her Lady Queen.

Thus, when judging from things as a whole, Her Lady Queen's battle power was a level weaker than the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief.

Furthermore, as the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief was someone who had received the teachings of the Ancient Era's War Clan, Chu Feng had no idea what sort of abilities he might possess.

As such, Chu Feng would naturally not want Her Lady Queen to take the risk.

“You should be able to tell that they're a bunch of useless trash. This Queen is not afraid of them,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Even if you're not afraid of the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief, you should still be on guard against Zhan Lingtong's grandfather.”

“That person was already a rank four Martial Ancestor before he entered closed-door training. Furthermore, he had been attempting a breakthrough the entire time. It might be possible that he's already a rank five Martial Ancestor now. Furthermore, he has grasped the Ancient Era's War Axe, one of the Ancient Era's War Clan's Three Great Secret Skills.”

“I really do not wish for you to fight against him,” Chu Feng said.

“What do we do then? Are we to resign ourselves to fate? If that's the case, that old fart might end up killing you after coming out of his closed-door training,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Of course we're not going to resign ourselves to fate. It is good that they treated me this way; like this, I can do what I want with no regard for them,” Chu Feng said.

“So you already had a plan?” After hearing what Chu Feng said, Her Lady Queen revealed a joyous look. She said, “Quickly, tell me what you plan to do.”

“Although I am a prisoner now, the Ancient Era's War Clan is evidently inferior to the Kong Heavenly Clan. As such, they have naturally not reached a level where I must use the Evil God Sword.”

“Most importantly, although my cultivation is inferior to theirs, I am, after all, an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. My world spirit techniques are evidently stronger than theirs.”

“Although this prison cell is enchanted with powerful spirit formations which make it impossible for me to get out using regular techniques, I am still able to leave this prison cell should I use extraordinary methods.”

“Don't forget, even in the Kong Heavenly Clan, I was able to move about unconstrained,” Chu Feng said confidently.

“You're saying that you plan to set up the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“That's right, I'm going to set up the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.”

“Since they're not planning to kill me for the time being, I am able to spend some time setting up the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation to leave this place.”

“Not only do I plan to leave this prison cell, but I am also going to find that Martial Comprehension Ground. Since I’ve come, I will not return empty-handed,” Chu Feng said.

“Good, it’s decided then,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Wait,” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s eyes narrowed.

“What’s wrong?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“It seems like someone’s here,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he cast his awareness back into his body.

Sure enough, Chu Feng discovered that the entrance to the prison cell was being opened by someone.

“Clank~~~”

Soon, the prison cell was opened, and a figure hurriedly ran in.

Merely, Chu Feng did not show any fear upon seeing that individual. Instead, he was very surprised. The reason for that was because that individual was not the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief, or one of their elders.

Rather, it was Zhan Lingling.

Chapter 2456 – Chu Feng’s Plan

---

“Benefactor, I am truly sorry for how unrighteous and unjust my clan has been. We have made you suffer.”

After Zhan Lingling entered the prison cell, she had a very apologetic expression on her face. However, she did not try to say too many superfluous words, and instead got to the main subject right away.

She grabbed Chu Feng and said, “Benefactor, the guards of this place have already been lured away by my brother. Let’s seize this opportunity to escape. Else, if we are to delay, I fear that you will not be able to escape.”

She had actually come to save Chu Feng.

“I’m afraid that it wouldn’t do to leave like this. You and your brother will end up being punished by your father,” Chu Feng shook his head.

Chu Feng had no idea how Zhan Lingling managed to obtain the key to the prison cell.

However, he knew that if he were to escape like that, the matter of Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong helping him escape would definitely be discovered.

Once the matter got exposed, Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong would definitely be severely punished.

Chu Feng did not wish to implicate Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong.

“Benefactor, you do not have to concern yourself with this. Come, follow me,” Zhan Lingling urged anxiously.

“How about this: answer me a question. Are there any Immortal-cloak World Spiritists in your Ancient Era’s War Clan?” Chu Feng asked.

“Immortal-cloak World Spiritists? No, we do not. We have only heard of that sort of powerful world spiritist before, how could our clan possibly possess any?”

Zhan Lingling said no immediately. Furthermore, she had a perplexed expression on her face. Evidently, she had no idea why Chu Feng had asked that question.

“If there aren’t, it will be easy to deal with then,” As Chu Feng spoke, he sat cross-legged, and his hands started to rapidly change.

Spirit power began to flow out from Chu Feng’s body in a steady stream. In the end, it took the form of a person before him.

That person, regardless of whether it be clothes or appearance, was exactly the same as Chu Feng.

“This is?” Seeing that, Zhan Lingling immediately revealed an astonished expression.

She was able to tell that that person must’ve been created by Chu Feng through a spirit formation. Actually, she had seen many clones formed with spirit formations before too.

However, for the great majority of them, one could tell with a single glance that they had been formed with a spirit formation. Never had she ever seen a spirit formation clone that looked like a carbon copy of the original, like Chu Feng’s spirit formation.

Thus, she felt it to be incredible. Thus, she asked, “Benefactor, could this be your clone?”

“Indeed, it is my clone. This clone of mine possesses my aura and shares by vision and hearing. If I am to leave it here, no one will discover that I’ve left,” Chu Feng said.

“But, Benefactor, how were you able to set up such a powerful clone like that? Furthermore, your world spirit techniques are extremely strong. Could it be that... you’re an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Zhan Lingling asked Chu Feng.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded with a smile on his face.

“Heavens! You’re... you’re really an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?”

“Benefactor, you... you are simply too amazing. At such a young age, you not only possess an extremely high level of cultivation, yet you’re actually also an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.”

At that moment, Zhan Lingling was looking at Chu Feng with a gaze filled with admiration. In fact... she was somewhat frenetic.

Before that, she had truly never expected that someone much younger than her would be so much more powerful than her.

“The world is enormous, there are countless people stronger than me.”

Chu Feng smiled lightly. Then, he began to set up another spirit formation. Soon... he had turned invisible.

“Let’s go. This concealment formation of mine is capable of concealing me from all those below the Martial Ancestor level of cultivation. However, if I am to encounter your father, I might not necessarily be able to conceal myself from him,” Chu Feng said.

“Okay,” Zhan Lingling was completely stunned by Chu Feng’s various techniques.

At that moment, Zhan Lingling couldn’t help but to listen to Chu Feng’s instructions. She began to act according to Chu Feng’s orders.

As per Chu Feng’s instructions, Zhan Lingling did not directly bring Chu Feng away from the Ancient Era’s War Clan. Instead, she brought Chu Feng to her residence.

Zhan Lingtong was also present in Zhan Lingling’s residence.

The reason for that was because the siblings had planned to have Zhan Lingtong lure away the guards while Zhan Lingling rescued Chu Feng, then bring him away.

Zhan Lingtong had arrived in Zhan Lingling's residence to wait for his older sister's good news.

"Big sister, why didn't you bring big brother Chu Feng out, and instead brought him here?"

"Lord Father and the various elders are currently conducting an emergency meeting so as to stabilize our clansmen's state of mind."

"They do not have the time to concern themselves with big brother Chu Feng. This is the best time for us to rescue big brother Chu Feng. If we are to miss this opportunity, I fear that an opportunity like this will never present itself again."

"Come, let's go and bring big brother Chu Feng out right now. We absolutely cannot afford to let this opportunity slip by," Upon seeing Chu Feng, Zhan Lingtong became extremely worried. As he spoke, he planned to bring Chu Feng away from their Ancient Era's War Clan.

"Lingtong, this is my decision, don't blame your older sister," Chu Feng said.

"Ah? Big brother Chu Feng, why are you not planning to leave? Could it be that you want to continue to be trapped here?" Zhan Lingtong had a confused expression.

"Listen to me. Right now, your clansmen are in a very unstable state of mind. If I am to truly escape like this, they will definitely find out that it was you and your older sister who helped me escape."

"With their current state of mind, they might end up disregarding the fact that you two are their fellow clansmen and punish you two by killing you. I, Chu Feng, cannot bring harm upon you for the sake of my own escape."

"Furthermore, your Ancient Era's War Clan is currently facing a great enemy in the form of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan. I still want to help you guys out in this battle.”

“If I am to leave like this, wouldn’t it mean that I will not be able to help you all at all?” Chu Feng said.

“Big brother Chu Feng...” Hearing what Chu Feng said, both Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling revealed stunned expressions. In their eyes it could clearly be seen that they were emotionally moved.

Their Ancient Era’s War Clan had repaid Chu Feng’s kindness with malice. Yet, not only did Chu Feng not hold a grudge, but he was actually still concerned about the safety of their Ancient Era’s War Clan. That truly moved the two of them.

“Big brother Chu Feng, you are truly too kind. However, our clan is truly unworthy of you doing all this.”

“We... are unworthy of your kindness,” Glistening teardrops appeared in Zhan Lingtong’s eyes as he said those words.

“What are you doing? Real men do not easily cry,” With a smile on his face, Chu Feng lightly patted Zhan Lingtong’s shoulder.

Then, he said, “You don’t have to panic. Actually, I have a plan in mind. As long as the two of you are to help me with it, not only will I be able to safely escape, I might even be able to help you all neutralize the threat of the Monstrous Clan.”

“Really?” Hearing those words, Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling’s expressions both changed.

“Big brother Chu Feng, go ahead and tell us what you want us to do. As long as we siblings are capable of doing it, we will definitely help you,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Benefactor, go ahead and tell us what you have in mind. We will definitely do as you say,” Zhan Lingling echoed.

Then, Chu Feng informed Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong of his plan.

The spirit formation Chu Feng had set up was extremely powerful. Not only were Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong unable to determine that Chu Feng's clone was a spirit formation, but even the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief would likely not be able to determine that it was a spirit formation clone.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was able to see everything that the clone saw, and could respond using the clone's mouth.

In a nutshell, Chu Feng was capable of controlling his clone.

However, a spirit formation that powerful would naturally have flaws. As for its flaw, it would be the fact that Chu Feng could not be too far away from the clone.

Thus, when Chu Feng set up his spirit formation clone, he had already decided that he would not leave the Ancient Era's War Clan.

What Chu Feng planned to do was to trick everyone into thinking that he was still trapped in the prison cell.

As for his actual body, he was planning to enter the Martial Comprehension Ground. Chu Feng planned to train there to reach a breakthrough in his cultivation.

Moreover, Chu Feng was speaking his true feelings when he said that he planned to help the Ancient Era's Clan neutralize their crisis.

The reason for that was because he had seen a scene of Zhan Haichuan's training. Although it was only a scene, Chu Feng was able to tell that the Martial Comprehension Ground was no small matter.

Unless he somehow failed to enter it, Chu Feng was certain that he would definitely obtain a great harvest.

If Chu Feng was able to increase his cultivation to a level where he could defeat the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan, he would definitely help the Ancient Era's War Clan take care of the threat that was the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

While the actions of the Ancient Era's War Clan today were indeed extremely unkind and unjust, it remained that they did not truly plan to kill him, and merely did not want him to take away the Ancient Era's War Sword. Thus, when looking at it from a different point of view, Chu Feng found it to be pardonable.

Furthermore, as Chu Feng had obtained the powerful secret skill that was the Ancient Era's War Sword, he wanted to make it up to the Ancient Era's War Clan.

After all, the Ancient Era's War Clan was very different from the Kong Heavenly Clan. At the very least, they could still be considered kind-hearted individuals.

After hearing Chu Feng's plan, Zhan Lingtong asked, "Big brother Chu Feng, you mean to say that you want us to bring you into the Martial Comprehension Ground?"

Chapter 2457 – Martial Comprehension Ground

---

“Is there a problem?” Chu Feng asked.

“No, not at all. That is a simple task. Actually, the Martial Comprehension Ground is composed of three levels.”

“The first level is the easiest. The great majority of our clan’s younger generation are training there. However, after one reaches the Half Martial Ancestor realm, it will not be very effective. As such, all those training in the first level are Martial Emperors.”

“From the second level, things start to become difficult. It is the place where Half Martial Ancestor-level experts train. However, due to the fact that it is so difficult, the majority of the people who go there are unable to attain any comprehension. As such, very few Half Martial Ancestor-level experts will actually go there to train.”

“As for Martial Ancestor-level experts, there would be even less of a reason for them to go there. This leads the second level to be empty all the time.”

“As for the third level, it is even harder. Not only is it very difficult to comprehend things there, it also possesses an enormous pressure. Those with insufficient talent are simply unable to enter the third level.”

“Other than Lord Zhan Haichuan, there has never been anyone else in our clan’s history that has managed to set foot into the third level.”

“Thus, the situation in the Martial Comprehension Ground is like so. The first level is filled with Martial Emperors, the second level is practically empty, and the third level has been empty all the time, as no one has ever dared to set foot into it.”

“Looking at things like that, it would instead appear the Martial Comprehension Ground is the safest place in our Ancient Era’s

War Clan.”

“Big brother Chu Feng, you are simply too smart. You actually thought of this,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Very well. In that case, this matter should not be delayed. Let’s set off right away,” Chu Feng said.

Then, the siblings Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling brought Chu Feng to the Martial Comprehension Ground.

Chu Feng had once again concealed himself through his concealment formation.

Furthermore, as the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief and the upper echelons were all in an emergency meeting on how to calm their clansmen’s state of mind, no one discovered Chu Feng.

Without a hitch, Chu Feng, Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong entered the Martial Comprehension Ground.

“This is the Martial Comprehension Ground?”

At that moment, Chu Feng finally managed to see the place where Zhan Haichuan had trained in the past.

It was a place that resembled a mountain peak. There were a total of three levels. That place was enveloped by a special sort of power that made it impossible for one to fly. The only way to move upward would be by using the flight of steps that spiraled around the mountain.

There were countless complicated writings and symbols on the mountain. Having arrived here, even without seeing those countless complicated writings and symbols, Chu Feng was able to sense the existence of dense martial comprehension.

After arriving here, Chu Feng did not stop. Rather, he directly walked to the steps that spiraled around the mountain. He did not wish to waste time there, and began to proceed directly toward the Martial Comprehension Ground’s second level.

Compared to the first level, the second level was not as expansive. Furthermore, it also covered a much smaller area. However, the martial comprehension contained in that area was much denser.

That said, Chu Feng did not stop there either. Instead, he cast his gaze toward the steps leading to the third level.

Chu Feng had a feeling that the place where Zhan Haichuan trained at was the third level.

“Big brother Chu Feng, people only come to the second level very rarely. It would be fine to just train here.”

“That’s right. Benefactor, the pressure in the third level is extremely powerful. It is very difficult for one to withstand it. Many people have attempted to enter the third level, and were instantly injured the moment they set foot into it.”

Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling simultaneously urged Chu Feng to stay in the second level after discovering that Chu Feng wanted to continue upward. They urged Chu Feng against it because they were afraid that he would be injured.

“While people only come here rarely, it remains that people do come here. It is impossible for me to maintain my concealed state forever while training here.”

“If your father or your grandfather were to come here one day and discover me, I would end up suffering greatly.”

“Furthermore, the martial comprehension contained here does not contain enormous benefits for me. Thus, no matter how one looks at it, the third level would suit me better,” Chu Feng said.

“But, big brother Chu Feng, the pressure is truly no small matter. The further up you climb, the greater the pressure will be.”

“Truth be told, my father could be considered to be the most talented individual in our Ancient Era’s War Clan in the past thirty thousand years.”

“However, back then, he was only able to climb one third of the steps toward the third level before he started bleeding from his seven facial orifices due to the pressure he had to sustain. He ended up being seriously injured, and even nearly lost his life,” Zhan Lingtong said to Chu Feng.

“Rest assured, I am confident,” Chu Feng smiled, and then proceeded to walk toward the steps to the third level.

“Big brother Chu Feng,” At that moment, Zhan Lingtong suddenly called out for Chu Feng again.

Chu Feng turned around and asked, “What’s wrong?”

“Big brother Chu Feng, I wish to see how you’re going to climb to the third level. Thus... could you undo your concealment formation?” Zhan Lingtong asked.

“As we’re the only ones here, that’s of course not an issue,” Chu Feng smiled, and his body emerged as he spoke.

Then, Chu Feng continued toward the steps to the third level.

At that moment, Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling were both staring at Chu Feng.

Their eyes were filled with worry. However, there was also an unconcealable anticipation.

After all, the place Chu Feng wanted to reach was the place where only Zhan Haichuan had ever managed to reach.

As for Chu Feng, he was obviously not an ordinary individual. Not only did he possess a powerful cultivation, but his world spirit techniques also shocked the two siblings.

Thus, they were thinking...

Chu Feng, would he truly be able to climb to the third level? If he really managed to do so, wouldn’t it mean that he possessed talent on par with Zhan Haichuan?

If that was the case, the two of them would have witnessed a miracle.

Thus, at that moment, the siblings were very hopeful for Chu Feng to succeed.

As he was being watched by the siblings, Chu Feng stepped onto the steps to the third level.

“Buzz~~~”

Sure enough, the moment Chu Feng stepped onto the steps, he felt a burst of pressure. However, to Chu Feng, this pressure was not enough to affect him.

Chu Feng began to steadily and slowly walk up the steps.

The journey upward was very easy. Soon, Chu Feng arrived at the location where Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong’s father was seriously injured.

“Big brother Chu Feng is amazing.”

When the siblings recalled how their father started to bleed from his seven facial orifices and was seriously injured when he reached that far, and then seeing how Chu Feng had managed to step past the limit their father had reached without any change in expression, they realized that Chu Feng was truly amazing.

Soon, Chu Feng had managed to reach the halfway point.

Even though the pressure Chu Feng felt was gradually increasing, it was still insufficient to stop Chu Feng.

However, the journey upward was no longer smooth. When he was about to reach the two-thirds point, Chu Feng’s footsteps became heavy, and sweat appeared on his body.

When Chu Feng reached the two-third point, he was sweating profusely. His clothes were already drenched. In fact, even his footsteps started to shiver. Each and every step of his became extremely challenging to take.

“It would seem that the third level is truly not that easily reached,” At that moment, Chu Feng revealed a bitter smile.

At that moment, Chu Feng had realized that it was not an easy task to reach the third level.

The reason for that was because the pressure was rapidly increasing. With each step upward, the pressure would increase by a lot. Such pressure had truly surpassed Chu Feng’s expectations.

At that moment, not even Chu Feng possessed absolute confidence in being able to reach the third level.

However, Chu Feng did not give up. He clenched his jaw and continued to climb the steps.

However, soon, not only were Chu Feng’s legs trembling, but his entire body started to tremble.

In fact, he even felt somewhat dizzy; his line of sight grew fuzzy, and buzzing began to fill his ears.

It... had become very difficult for Chu Feng to continue onward, for Chu Feng was unable to even stabilize himself.

“Big brother Chu Feng, quickly, come back down. Don’t persist on going up anymore.”

Suddenly, Zhan Lingtong’s voice transmission entered Chu Feng’s ear.

As for Zhan Lingling, she was tightly grabbing onto her skirt with her hands. She was extremely worried for Chu Feng.

Although the mountain peak was very tall, they were still able to see that Chu Feng’s eyes, nose and ears were all bleeding.

This meant that the same sort of condition that their father experienced back then had started to appear on Chu Feng.

Furthermore, Chu Feng’s body was swaying back and forth.

It was evident that Chu Feng was no longer capable of withstanding the pressure.

Chapter 2458 – Martial Comprehension Ground

---

The pressure had reached a state that Chu Feng found unbearable now.

However, even with this being the case, Chu Feng continued to challengingly take another step forward.

“Swoosh~~~”

However, before Chu Feng’s feet could stabilize, he suddenly slipped. Chu Feng rolled down the flight of steps.

“Big brother Chu Feng!!!”

“Benefactor!!!”

Witnessing that scene, Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling were immediately alarmed. They were deeply worried.

However, the two of them were simply unable to ascend that flight of steps. Thus, they could only watch impatiently and worry for Chu Feng helplessly.

“Paaa~~~”

When Chu Feng fell down the flights of steps until he reached the halfway mark, the pressure he felt had decreased so much that he actually managed to grab onto the steps to stabilize himself.

Seeing that Chu Feng had managed to stabilize himself, Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong heaved sighs of relief.

However, the expressions on their faces only managed to ease for a moment before they became nervous again.

Chu Feng had not walked down the steps. Rather, he wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and began to proceed upwards again.

“Big brother Chu Feng, do not force yourself. That pressure is no small matter; it might even end up killing you,” Seeing that Chu Feng refused to give up, Zhan Lingtong started to urge him to not continue.

However, Chu Feng did not pay attention to Zhan Lingtong’s warning, and continued onward. Soon, he returned to the spot where he had been previously.

This time around, Chu Feng was prepared. He did not urgently step forward. Rather, he took a long while to stabilize his breathing and allow himself to get used to the pressure there.

When he felt that he could continue onward, he took another step forward.

Chu Feng managed to successfully walk up. However, the pressure once again caused him to bleed from his seven facial orifices, once again causing his body to tremble.

Chu Feng had returned to the same state he was in when he fell before.

However, the location where Chu Feng currently stood was still a certain distance from the end of the flight of steps.

It was already extremely difficult for Chu Feng to resist the pressure there. Yet, the pressure upward would be more and more powerful. Thus, the two siblings felt that Chu Feng would not be able to successfully scale the steps and reach the top.

“Big brother Chu Feng, I beg of you, please stop forcing yourself. You do not know how frightening those flight of steps are. It really has caused many people to die before. The injuries that my father sustained from it could already be considered light.”

Seeing that Chu Feng was risking his life, Zhan Lingtong grew so worried that tears began to flow out from his eyes.

The way he saw it, Chu Feng was someone that possessed superb talent, someone that would achieve greatness in the future even without reaching the third level. As such, there was simply no need for Chu Feng to take such a risk with his life.

“Lingtong, let me ask you, what sort of situation was it like for senior Zhan Haichuan when he ascended the steps?” Chu Feng suddenly asked in a weak voice.

“Lord Zhan Haichuan? I believe it was very effortless for him to reach the third level,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“Then, since the time when your ancestor created the Martial Comprehension Ground, has there been anyone else other than senior Zhan Haichuan who managed to reach the third level?” Chu Feng asked again.

“No, there hasn’t. Lord Zhan Haichuan is the only person. Apart from him, there has never been anyone that managed to ascend to the third level. In fact, there has never been anyone who managed to reach where you’re standing right now, big brother Chu Feng.”

“Thus, big brother Chu Feng, you are already extremely amazing. You are the second most amazing person apart from Lord Zhan Haichuan.”

“You are already extremely amazing to be able to accomplish all this. There is simply no need for you to force yourself like this,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“What Lingtong says is correct. Benefactor, you have already proved yourself. There is no need for you to force yourself to continue onward. There is no need for you to take this risk anymore,” Zhan Lingling echoed.

The way she saw it, if Chu Feng were to continue onward, he would definitely be seriously injured even if he wasn’t killed by the pressure. As for that, it was not something that they wished to see.

“I’m afraid that you all have most likely been deceived,” Chu Feng smiled and shook his head.

“Deceived?” Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling’s expression turned sluggish. They revealed puzzled looks.

“If only senior Zhan Haichuan had managed to reach where I’m standing, he... would definitely not have been able to easily ascend to the third level,” Chu Feng said.

“Big brother Chu Feng, what do you mean by that?” Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling asked in unison.

“There are bloodstains here. Although they have already dried up through the passage of time, I am still able to see the bloodstains. The bloodstains continue all the way up until the third level,” Chu Feng said.

“In that case, Lord Zhan Haichuan was also overwhelmed by the enormous pressure and seriously injured?!” Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling were startled.

After all, the Zhan Haichuan that they’d heard about all their lives was the picture of utter perfection.

Zhan Haichuan had never been defeated in his entire life. Even for the flight of steps leading to the Martial Comprehension Ground’s third level that no one was able to scale, he managed to easily ascend it.

However now, after hearing what Chu Feng said, it would appear that Zhan Haichuan’s achievements were not true. At the very least... he had not managed to ascend the flight of steps to the third level with ease.

“Lingtong, it is impossible for me to determine that the bloodstains here are most definitely senior Zhan Haichuan’s. However, I am going to tell you one thing.”

“In the path of martial cultivation, one must go against the current. If you are to cower and stop, it will be very difficult to become strong.”

“As far as I’m concerned, this flight of steps is already no longer a mere flight of steps. It is also a path, a path to becoming stronger.”

“Perhaps it is not the only path to becoming stronger. However, I do not wish to waste time finding another path.”

“Thus... no matter what, I must surmount it.”

“This is the courage that a martial cultivator should possess.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he took another step forward.

Upon reaching a step higher, the pressure grew much stronger again.

However, this time around, the trembling on Chu Feng’s body did not grow stronger. He had actually managed to withstand it.

“Big brother Chu Feng, you!!!” Zhan Lingtong was stunned by Chu Feng’s behavior.

He was already stupefied by Chu Feng. It was not the words that Chu Feng said to him. Rather, he was stupefied by Chu Feng’s willpower.

Chu Feng’s willpower was so unyielding and stubborn. To martial cultivators, this sort of willpower was extremely precious. Yet, it was also a sort of willpower that the great majority of people did not possess.

With each step forward, Chu Feng would take a short breather to adapt to the pressure.

Then, Chu Feng actually managed to, one step at a time, ascend to the top and reach the third level.

“Success! Big brother Chu Feng actually succeeded!”

“Big sister, did you see that?! Big brother Chu Feng managed to successfully ascend to the Martial Comprehension Ground’s third level!”

“Heavens! That is the third level that only Lord Zhan Haichuan has ever managed to ascend to!”

Zhan Lingtong was endlessly excited. He was so overjoyed; it was as if the person that had managed to ascend to the third level was him.

“It would seem that geniuses are not only determined by their talent. More than that, it is by their effort.”

Zhan Lingling’s eyes were also filled with shock. At that moment, she was clenching her fists tightly.

The reason for that was because she had come to a sudden realization that it was not only her talent that was inferior to Chu Feng’s; her effort was also inferior to Chu Feng’s.

It was no wonder that she had lived for so many years more than Chu Feng, yet was so much weaker than him.

Chu Feng had managed to reach the third level. Upon reaching the third level, he felt relieved.

The frightening pressure that was capable of stressing his body and soul to the brink of exploding had disappeared at the same time.

The journey upward was truly difficult.

However, when Chu Feng saw the scene before him, the place where Zhan Haichuan had trained, and sensed the martial comprehensions contained in the walls, the ground and even the air, he felt that all of it was worth it.

“Chu Feng, you’ve succeeded. Earlier, your eyes were so fuzzy that I was truly worried that you’d fall down again.”

“Never would I have expected those flight of steps to be so difficult to ascend. Even you nearly failed,” Her Lady Queen was also overjoyed. The reason for that was because she was truly worried for Chu Feng earlier.

As for Chu Feng, he turned around and took a glance at the flight of steps he had just ascended.

Bloodstains were still present on the steps. That was Chu Feng’s blood. Although there wasn't a lot of blood, it was still present on each and every step.

Thus, from a glance, one could tell that Chu Feng had walked through his own blood to ascend the flight of steps.

Seeing the flight of steps, Chu Feng sighed emotionally.

Suddenly, a smile appeared on his face. He said, "The path to becoming stronger has never been that simple."

"However... I am fond of that sort of path."

Chapter 2459 – Two Years In The Blink Of An Eye

---

Chu Feng stood at the edge of the third level and looked downward. Emotions filled his eyes.

Down below, Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong were able to faintly see Chu Feng's silhouette. Admiration filled their eyes.

To them, Chu Feng was already no longer an ordinary individual. Rather, he resembled a god.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, Chu Feng clenched his right hand. Golden strands of light began to faintly spill out of his fingers.

At the moment when Chu Feng opened his hand, a circular title plate appeared on his palm.

“Woosh~~~”

Chu Feng tossed away the title plate. The title plate began to roll down the flight of steps all the way to the second level.

“That is?” Zhan Lingtong picked up the title plate and revealed a puzzled expression.

“Lingtong, keep that title plate. If the Monstrous Clan is to come in the future, you merely need to pinch apart that title plate. Regardless of what cultivation I might have at that time, I will definitely come to your assistance,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he smiled at Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong before turning around to leave.

Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong were no longer able to see Chu Feng's silhouette, as Chu Feng had entered the third level.

After arriving in the third level, Chu Feng chose a place adjacent to where Zhan Haichuan had trained to sit down.

“Senior Zhan Haichuan, allow this junior to experience what you have experienced.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he closed his eyes and began to wholeheartedly concentrate on comprehending everything there.

As for the third level of the Martial Comprehension Ground, it did not disappoint Chu Feng.

Sure enough, that place contained extremely powerful martial comprehension.

Since the martial comprehension contained on the third level was hidden very deep, Chu Feng made a decision to train there. Until he managed to reach a cultivation that was to his satisfaction, he did not plan to leave that place.

After the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief finished his emergency meeting, he immediately came to find out that Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong had lured away the guards in charge of watching Chu Feng and stolen the keys to Chu Feng's prison cell.

Originally, the Clan Chief was overwhelmed with anger, and planned to punish his children. However, upon rushing to the prison cell and discovering that Chu Feng was still inside the prison cell, his anger instantly vanished.

After all, with Chu Feng still inside the prison cell, it meant that his children had not overstepped their bounds. At the very most, they had held the intention to help Chu Feng, but had not dared to do so.

Of course, he had no idea that inside the prison cell was not Chu Feng, but rather his clone. Chu Feng's actual body was currently training in the third level of their Martial Comprehension Ground.

.....

Time flew past. In the blink of an eye, two years had passed.

Over the course of those two years, from time to time, people from the Ancient Era's War Clan would go and urge Chu Feng to return the Ancient Era's War Sword to them.

Merely, as Chu Feng always refused them, they also came less and less frequently to visit Chu Feng and urge him to return the Ancient Era's War Sword.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that the Ancient Era's War Clan never planned to kill Chu Feng during that period of time.

They felt that if Chu Feng were to truly refuse to return the Ancient Era's War Sword to them, they would, at the very most, place Chu Feng under house arrest the entire time.

Of course, they had no idea that the Chu Feng that they had imprisoned the entire time was merely Chu Feng's clone.

That said, the battle between the Ancient Era's War Clan and the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan had grown fiercer and fiercer within those two years

At that moment, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan had gathered all of their battle power to unleash a final offensive against the Ancient Era's War Clan.

They intended to completely destroy the Ancient Era's War Clan.

“Rumble!!!”

Under the darkened sky, flames of war scattered everywhere. The final battle between the Ancient Era's War Clan and the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan had finally begun.

Not only were there thunderous explosions, but the sounds of the earth sinking and the bitter screams from the crowd could also be heard.

The Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's army was led personally by the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief. With their Clan Chief at the vanguard, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan broke through the Ancient Era's War Clan's grand formation. Like a hot knife through butter, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan began to slaughter their way to the Ancient Era's War Clan's headquarters.

At that moment, a monstrous beast emitting the aura of a rank five Martial Ancestor emerged from among the Monstrous Clan's troops. With an enormous black ax in hand, a robust build and a height greater than three meters, he faced toward the sky and shouted, "Today is the doomsday of your Ancient Era's War Clan!"

As he shouted, he was unrestrainedly killing the Ancient Era's War Clansmen. That man was too powerful, so powerful that there was not a single person in the Ancient Era's War Clan capable of contending against him.

As for that person, he was naturally none other than the Clan Chief of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

"Puu~~~"

Suddenly, a splash of blood splattered forth. It caused everyone from the War Clan to tense up.

The reason for that was because that blood was from their Clan Chief; their War Clan's Clan Chief had been injured. His chest has been pierced through, and blood was flowing steadily from his chest.

Furthermore, the person that had defeated him was actually not the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief. Rather, it was another person from the Monstrous Clan, an expert that possessed the cultivation of a rank four Martial Ancestor like the War Clan's Clan Chief.

"Truly trash. You are unable to even defeat my subordinate. It would seem that there is simply no need for me to act personally today in order to exterminate your War Clan," The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief mocked.

"Monstrous Clan's younger generation, don't you dare act savage here!!!"

A shout was heard. That shout shook everyone present.

Then, an elderly man appeared before the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief out of thin air. Then, that old man waved his sleeve, and a strong wind immediately swept forth. The wind forcibly smashed away the Monstrous Clan's expert that had injured the War Clan's Clan Chief.

“Grandfather!!!”

“Milord!!!”

Upon seeing that individual, the Ancient Era's War Clansmen all reacted as if they had seen their savior.

The reason for that was because that old man was the person who had been in closed-door training for a very long time, the person that the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan was afraid of the entire time.

He was the father of the War Clan's Clan Chief, the grandfather of Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling, the existence that had grasped one of the Three Great Secret Skills, the Ancient Era's War Axe.

He was... Zhan Yuanmo.

“Zhan Yuanmo, you are truly useless. I have given you this much time, yet you actually still haven't managed to reach a breakthrough, you are still a rank four Martial Ancestor.”

After seeing Zhan Yuanmo, the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief was only surprised for a split second. Soon, only contempt remained in his eyes.

The reason for that was because he had discovered that even though Zhan Yuanmo had been in closed-door training for so long, he was still only a rank four Martial Ancestor.

Before, the War Clan had let out news stating that Zhan Yuanmo had long since broken through to rank five Martial Ancestor. That was why the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan had not dared to attack the Ancient Era's War Clan for a final life and death battle for so long. That fear had caused them to delay their attack for two entire years.

However, in the past two years, they had not discovered Zhan Yuanmo, and the War Clan had also not shown any signs of a counterattack.

Thus, they grew suspicious. In the end, they determined that Zhan Yuanmo had simply not reached a breakthrough. Thus, they decided to attack the War Clan for a final battle.

And now, the appearance of Zhan Yuanmo had proven that their guess was correct. As such, it inevitably caused the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief, as well as his entire army, to feel complacent.

They felt that as long as Zhan Yuanmo was still a rank four Martial Ancestor, the battle might very likely be the final battle between their Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan and the Ancient Era's War Clan.

Furthermore, there was an enormous chance that they would win the battle.

"As long as this old man is here, don't you all dare behave atrociously in our Ancient Era's War Clan."

Zhan Yuanmo flipped his wrist, and a large axe appeared in his hand.

The axe was copper in color, and seemed to be made of brass. Yet, the enormous might and aura it emitted could not be affected by its color and appearance.

It was a weapon, an actual Ancestral Armament. Being held in Zhan Yuanmo's hand, that Ancestral Armament was emitting an extremely frightening power.

"Yoh, you're but a rank four Martial Ancestor, what makes you think that you can contend against me? Today... even if you are to join hands with your son, you will still meet your death by my hands.”

However, when faced with such a powerful Zhan Yuanmo, the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief did not fear in the slightest.

“Boom~~~”

The enormous black axe the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief held in his hand was suddenly swept forth. Immediately, a black ray of light slashed across, straight towards Zhan Yuanmo.

Once that black ray of light appeared, everyone in the Ancient Era’s War Clan revealed ashen looks.

As the saying goes, one will know the ability of an expert the moment they reveal themselves.

When the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief unleashed that slash, they realized that even their Ancient Era’s War Clan’s strongest Zhan Yuanmo would not be a match for him.

After all, the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief was a rank five Martial Ancestor, an entire level of cultivation above Zhan Yuanmo.

Chapter 2460 – Unfavorable Battle Situation

---

“What makes me think that I can contend against you? This is what!”

However, faced with the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan Chief’s attack, Zhan Yuanmo’s expression remained unchanged.

He held his Ancestral Armament with his right hand and formed a palm with his left hand. Toward the incoming black slash, he shot forth his palm.

“Clank~~~”

The next moment, the sound of metals colliding with one another was heard. The black ray of light was actually forcibly beaten back.

At the same time, golden light began to spring forth everywhere as a hundred-meter-long enormous golden axe appeared in the sky.

The moment the enormous golden axe appeared, an extremely frightening aura appeared with it.

At that moment, Zhan Yuanmo’s aura was actually not at all inferior to that of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief.

“The secret skill, Ancient Era’s War Axe?”

At that moment, the people of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan revealed stunned expressions. In fact, even their Clan Chief had an enormous change in expression.

Actually, the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief had broken through to rank five Martial Ancestor for more than two years now. The other reason why he had been afraid to attack the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s headquarters was because he was afraid of Zhan Yuanmo’s secret skill, the Ancient Era’s War Axe.

Today, the Ancient Era's War Axe was revealed before him. Sure enough, it was no small matter.

The Ancient Era's War Axe was extraordinarily domineering. It had the aura of a ruler. Even without Zhan Yuanmo in the picture, merely that Ancient Era's War Axe's aura was already frightening enough.

At that moment, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clansmen all grew afraid. One by one, they began to retreat.

"While you all might not have experienced the might of the Ancient Era's War Axe before, I'm certain that your seniors must've mentioned it to you all before, no?"

"If you all are to retreat now, I am still able to consider letting you all go. Else... do not blame this old man for unleashing a slaughter," With a malevolent expression, Zhan Yuanmo spoke coldly.

"Humph, for the past two years, you've been in closed-door training the entire time, afraid to fight me. This already revealed that you are not confident in being able to defeat me," The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief said.

"If I am to truly use the Ancient Era's War Axe, even if I must sacrifice my life, I will still be able to kill you," Zhan Yuanmo said.

"Is that so? Then allow me to experience whether or not your Ancient Era's War Axe really does possess such legendary power."

The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief sneered. Then, intense killing intent emerged in his eyes.

He pointed his weapon forward and shouted loudly, "Soldiers of the Monstrous Clan, listen up! In today's battle, it is either the War Clan that will be extinguished, or our Monstrous Clan that will be extinguished! Kill them all!!!"

"Kill!!!"

The next moment, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's soldiers reacted as if they were given an order of death.

Not only did they stop becoming timid, but their morale also rose dramatically. As if they had gone berserk, they once again rushed forth to confront and kill the Ancient Era's War Clan's army.

They had an attitude that made it seem like they had to exterminate all of the Ancient Era's War Clansmen today.

“Kill them!!!”

As for the Ancient Era's War Clan, they were not to be outdone. Their vast army was determined to battle to the death for the sake of their survival and honor.

Today, they were going to fight to the death against the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

In the blink of an eye, the two armies collided with one another, killing one another.

“This won't do. Big sister, this won't do. Over the past two years, our Ancient Era's War Clan has grown much weaker. We are simply no match for the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.”

“Furthermore, even if grandfather is truly able to kill the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief by relying on the Ancient Era's War Axe, he will definitely end up losing his life.”

“At that moment, our War Clan will still not be a match for the Monstrous Clan, we will still be defeated,” Zhan Lingtong said to Zhan Lingling in panic.

“I can tell even without you mentioning it,” Zhan Lingling also had a very ugly expression on her face.

“Let's go and find big brother Chu Feng. He said that we can call for him if the Monstrous Clan is to come and attack us. He said that he would definitely help us.”

As Zhan Lingtong spoke, he took out a circular title plate. It was the title plate Chu Feng had given him two years ago.

Upon seeing that title plate, Zhan Lingling also revealed a change in expression. She still remembered the scene of the youth ascending to the Martial Comprehension Ground's third level two years ago.

Her heart still shook upon recalling that scene now. After all, that youth did not only rely on his talent to ascend to the third level. In addition to his talent, there was also his unyielding willpower.

Chu Feng could be said to be the person that she felt the greatest admiration for so far. In fact, her admiration for Chu Feng might even surpass her admiration for Zhan Haichuan.

After all, no matter how powerful Zhan Haichuan might be, he was only a legend. He was someone whom she had never met before.

As for Chu Feng, she had clearly experienced his strength.

Chu Feng held an irreplaceable status in her heart.

However, even with that being the case, Zhan Lingling still shook her head. She said, "If Chu Feng is to join the battle, he will indeed help our Ancient Era's War Clan enormously. However, the ones that are difficult to deal with right now are all Martial Ancestor-level experts."

"Facing those experts, even if Chu Feng is to join the battle, he will definitely not be a match for them."

"If we are to call Chu Feng for assistance, we will end up harming him. Rather than calling him and causing him to throw his life away, it is better that we allow him to continue his closed-door training."

"After all, even if the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan is capable of eliminating our Ancient Era's War Clan, they are definitely not able to set foot onto the Martial Comprehension Ground's third level. With Chu Feng's talent, he will definitely be able to defeat the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan one day and help our War Clan get revenge," Zhan Lingling said.

Zhan Lingtong felt what Zhan Lingling said to be very sensible.

Indeed, no matter how strong Chu Feng might be, what sort of progress in cultivation could he possibly obtain in a short two years' time?

If it was said that Chu Feng was a Martial Ancestor-level expert now, then Zhan Lingtong would definitely believe it. However, if it was said that Chu Feng could contend against the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief, that rank five Martial Ancestor-level expert, Zhan Lingtong would not believe that to be possible.

Although it was now the moment of life and death for their Ancient Era's War Clan, although Zhan Lingtong hoped that someone would be able to help their Ancient Era's War Clan, what would Chu Feng possibly be able to do even if he were to come down from the Martial Comprehension Ground's third level? Wouldn't calling him only serve to have him throw his life away in vain?

When recalling how affectionate and true Chu Feng had been to them, Zhan Lingtong felt even more that he could not be selfish with no regard for others. Slowly, Zhan Lingtong pulled back the circular title plate in his hand. He planned to place it back into his bosom.

"Wuuahh~~~"

However, right at that moment, a scream sounded from the sky. Following that, a spray of blood sprinkled down.

"Grandfather!!!"

Seeing this scene, Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling immediately revealed worried and pained expressions.

The blood was from their grandfather, Zhan Yuanmo. Zhan

Yuanmo was actually already injured. His entire left arm had been sliced off.

Although Zhan Yuanmo immediately used a special method to reform his lost arm, he was unable to erase the bloodstains.

As for the thing that he was most unable to erase, it was the fact that he had his arm sliced off by the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief stared at Zhan Yuanmo, and then spoke in a very confident manner. "You've lost."

"'Tis but a minor injury. As far as I'm concerned, this neither hurts nor tickles. The outcome of the battle has yet to be decided," Zhan Yuanmo said in refusal to admit defeat.

"Oh?" The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief lightly raised his eyebrows. Then, he said, "Are you certain?"

"Of course," Zhan Yuanmo refused to accept his defeat. He moved his left hand, and then started to attack the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief again.

"Puu!!!"

Suddenly, Zhan Yuanmo sprayed out a mouthful of blood and revealed an incomparably painful expression. Then, he actually half-kneeled in midair.

At that moment, his expression turned very pale, and his aura became extremely weak. Shock filled his aged face.

The reason for that was because he was shocked to discover that his secret skill, the Ancient Era's War Axe, was actually also growing weaker.

"How can this be?"

It was not only Zhan Yuanmo that was puzzled. The others of the Ancient Era's War Clan were also puzzled by what was happening.

That attack had clearly left only a superficial wound. For an expert like Zhan Yuanmo, it should not have been able to affect him at all.

“Did you think that my previous attack was only an ordinary attack?”

“I might as well tell you the truth. What I used earlier was a secret skill especially meant to restrain your Ancient Era’s War Axe,” The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief spoke complacently.

“Who are you trying to scare here? There is no such thing as a secret skill that can restrain the Ancient Era’s War Axe. Furthermore, I’ve never heard of your Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan having some sort of secret skill.”

“Exactly what sort of despicable means did you use to injure my father?” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief pointed at the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief angrily. He did not believe what the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief had just said.

“Just because there wasn’t such a secret skill before doesn’t mean that there isn’t one now. While you can refuse to believe what I said now, you will definitely believe me once I tell you its creator.”

“This secret skill of mine is called Enemy Restraining Slash.”

“It is something that our clan’s senior, Lord Yao Xing, created with all of his energy,” The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief said proudly.

“Yao Xing? It’s actually Yao Xing?!!!”

Hearing that name, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen all revealed unease and terror.

Chapter 2461 – Soaring Nine Lightnings

---

Yao Xing was truly a grand individual. He was a super genius who had appeared at the same time as Zhan Haichuan.

Back then, had Zhan Haichuan not appeared in the Ancient Era's War Clan, then, with how talented Yao Xing was, he would've already completely obliterated the Ancient Era's War Clan.

Although Yao Xing ended up being defeated by Zhan Haichuan, had his cultivation crippled by Zhan Haichuan and ended up dying pitifully a few years later, Yao Xing's great name was still deeply engraved into the hearts of the Ancient Era's War Clansmen. They all knew how powerful Yao Xing was.

If it were someone else that had created the secret skill, they would really have not believed it. However, since it was Yao Xing, they truly believed it.

The reason for that was because Yao Xing possessed the capability to create that secret skill.

“Once struck by my secret skill, you will no longer be able to continue to use the Ancient Era's War Axe. If you are to continue to use it, you will suffer a backlash from it.”

“The more power you put forth to use the Ancient Era's War Axe, the greater the backlash will be. If you insist on using the Ancient Era's War Axe now, merely the backlash will be sufficient to kill you.”

“Thus, you will no longer be able to utilize the Ancient Era's War Axe anymore. Without the Ancient Era's War Axe, what could you possibly contend against me with?”

“Your Ancient Era's War Clan is destined to be extinguished today,” The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief declared.

“Heeaahh!!!”

Suddenly, Zhan Yuanmo let out an ear-piercing snarl. At the same time he did that, he shot forth his left palm explosively. He wanted to utilize the Ancient Era's War Axe again.

“Puu~~~”

However, like last time, he soon sprayed out a mouthful of blood.

The very next moment, his body started to sway, and then he started to fall from midair. He had actually lost the ability to fly.

“Father!” Seeing his father fall, the War Clan's Clan Chief hurriedly flew up to catch the falling Zhan Yuanmo.

The current Zhan Yuanmo's aura was even weaker than before. He was so weak that he was unable to even hold onto his Ancestral Armament. He had completely lost all of his battle power.

“Haha. The Ancient Era's War Clan, the Three Great Secret Skills. It turns out, they are but jokes.”

“Zhan Yuanmo, if I knew that you would be unable to withstand a single blow, I wouldn't have waited two years.”

The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief laughed in an ear-piercing manner. When his laughter reached the ears of the Ancient Era's War Clan's men, they were like sharp blades piercing through their hearts, their egos and their final hopes.

At that moment, everyone belonging to the Ancient Era's War Clan, including their Clan Chief, had dejected expressions on their faces.

They knew that if even Zhan Yuanmo had been defeated, they would definitely be exterminated.

“Damn it! We cannot wait for death like this!”

However, right at the moment when everyone was in despair, Zhan Lingtong let out a furious shout.

Everyone heard his shout. Regardless of whether it was the Monstrous Clansmen or the War Clansmen, there were people that turned their gazes to him.

However, upon seeing Zhan Lingtong, they realized that his shout was merely there to boost the War Clan's morale. Yet, at such a time, what use was there in saying those words? Thus, the crowd all felt that Zhan Lingtong was a joke.

However, no one noticed that when Zhan Lingtong let out that furious shout, he had also pinched the circular title plate he held in his hand.

“Woosh~~~”

At that moment. Deep inside the Ancient Era's War Clan's headquarters, in the third level of the Martial Comprehension Ground, a pair of eyes suddenly opened.

“The Monstrous Clan has finally come?”

A sigh was heard. Then, an individual slowly stood up and turned his gaze toward the direction of the battlefield.

It was Chu Feng. Chu Feng's aura was still that of a rank nine Half Martial Ancestor, the same as he had been two years ago. Merely, the current him, regardless of whether it was his aura or his expression, was completely different from two years ago.

If one had to describe this difference, it would be that he was confident.

Compared to two years ago, Chu Feng was a hundred times more confident.

.....

“Putt~~~”

Right at that moment, the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief did something that puzzled everyone. He actually knelt in midair and raised his Ancestral Armament with both hands. He faced his head toward the sky and then performed a kowtow.

“Lord Yao Xing, today, this junior has managed to help you accomplish your grand desire.”

“Lord Yao Xing, if Your Greatness is able to hear this in heaven, please open your eyes.”

“I hope that you will be able to bear witness to the grand occasion where our Monstrous Clan will eliminate the War Clan.”

After he finished saying those words, the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief stood up. At that moment, deep killing intent filled his eyes.

Upon seeing the gaze of the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief, the people of the Ancient Era’s War Clan were all completely dejected. They felt that the end of their Ancient Era’s War Clan had arrived.

At that moment, they felt extremely unreconciled. At that moment when they were feeling unreconciled, countless people began to hope that someone could come and save their Ancient Era’s War Clan.

But, when even their Ancient Era’s War Clan’s strongest secret skill, the Ancient Era’s War Sword, was no longer present, what or who could possibly save them?

Thus, what they felt was merely an extravagant hope, something impossible to accomplish.

Everyone in the Ancient Era’s War Clan understood this. That was why they all felt such great despair.

At that moment, many people let go of their weapons and decided to give up on resisting.

They closed their eyes and prepared to wait for death.

“Sure enough, you’re a bunch of trash.”

Upon seeing the reaction of the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen, the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief grew even more complacent.

“Exterminate this bunch of trash!” Suddenly, an order was given.

“Kill!!!” The next moment, all of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous

Clansmen raised their weapons. They planned to unleash a massacre.

“I shall see who dares!!!” Right at that moment, a thunder-like voice exploded in the distance.

At that moment, not to mention the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clansmen, even the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen were stunned.

That voice was incomparably deep and resounding. Furthermore, it was extraordinarily domineering. It was evident that that voice had not come from the mouth of an ordinary individual.

Furthermore, as that voice originated from deep within the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s headquarters, the crowd realized that the person who had spoken was a helper of the Ancient Era’s War Clan.

The Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief narrowed his brows and asked with a stern voice, “Who is it?!”

“Chu Feng,” That voice sounded again.

“Chu Feng?” Hearing that name, the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clansmen all revealed puzzled expressions. As for the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen, they all revealed disappointed expressions.

Who was Chu Feng? Practically everyone in their Ancient Era’s War Clan knew of him. Although Chu Feng was a genius, he was merely their Ancient Era’s War Clan’s prisoner.

Thus, at that moment, many of the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen revealed wry smiles.

When they had heard the voice earlier, they had actually hoped that the person who spoke would be able to save them.

However, upon thinking that the person that they hoped to be able to save them was actually the person that they had imprisoned, they felt themselves to be truly ridiculous.

“Chu Feng? Who is Chu Feng?” The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief

asked. The reason for that was because he had never heard of the name Chu Feng before.

“Who I am is not important. What is important is that if you all are to retreat now, I will only cripple your cultivations and spare your dog lives.”

“However, if you do not do as I say, I will have no choice but to kill you,” Chu Feng’s voice sounded again.

“Kill me? Hahahaha!!!”

“Ridiculous! Truly ridiculous! Even Zhan Yuanmo was defeated by me, who among the War Clan could possibly contend against me?”

“Ancient Era’s War Clan, I am truly in awe of you. Do you only know how to bluff to scare others?”

The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief laughed wildly. The way he saw it, Chu Feng was merely bluffing. He felt that there was simply no one in the Ancient Era’s War Clan that could contend against him.

“Seems like you’re not planning to retreat, and prefer to die, right?” Chu Feng’s voice sounded again.

At that moment, the people of the War Clans all felt very helpless. They truly never expected that Chu Feng was actually also capable of shooting off his mouth.

Kill the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief? When he couldn’t even defeat their War Clan’s Clan Chief, what made him think that he could kill the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief?

As for the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief, his laughter grew even louder now.

He said, “Come, kill me! I am truly itching for you to kill me! Hahahaha!!!”

He said those words while laughing. His words were filled with disdain and mockery.

“Very well, I will satisfy you.”

Chu Feng’s voice was heard again.

“Rumble~~~”

The very next moment, incomparably ear-piercing rumbles sounded in the sky. At the same time, magnificent and dazzling light shone in the sky.

“Heavens, those are?!”

At that moment, all those who raised their heads toward the sky, regardless of whether they were from the War Clan or the Monstrous Clan, regardless of their cultivation, all revealed an enormous change in expression as shock filled their eyes.

Thunderclouds had densely covered the sky. Countless nine-colored lightnings were spiraling in the sky.

Each and every lightning bolt resembled an enormous dragon. Each and every dragon emitted an inestimable aura.

Those auras oppressed the crowd to a state of being unable to breathe easily. It was as if there was a boundlessly enormous boulder crushing down on their hearts, oppressing their souls and causing them to lose the strength to resist.

Before such an aura, they felt only a single sensation. That was, that they were so very small.

Chapter 2462 – Unleashing Divine Might

---

“What are those?!”

As they saw the scene in the sky, everyone revealed despair in their eyes.

“Snap~~~”

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, the Nine Divine Lightnings up high in the sky interweaved with one another. Like a nine-colored lightning dragon, it struck down from the ninth heaven.

The ground was brightly lit as it was covered by the splendor of the nine-colored radiance, by that divine might.

Witnessing that scene, countless people fell to their butts powerlessly and began to shiver. They had lost the strength to support themselves.

It was not that the oppressive might from the incoming lightning strike had oppressed them to such a state. Rather, it was purely because they were deeply frightened by it.

They felt that as long as such a frightening lightning bolt were to strike, they would definitely be killed.

Never had they ever experienced such a frightening and irresistible power in their entire lives.

If it were to strike, they would definitely die!!!

“Buzz~~~”

Finally, the nine-colored lightning dragon struck. It landed deep in the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s headquarters. Yet, it did not create world-shaking devastation like they had anticipated. It was as if it had disappeared in midair. Everyone managed to come out from it unscathed.

“What is going on?”

The crowd were speechless and stunned. Confusion filled their eyes.

They felt that even if that overwhelmingly frightening lightning did not destroy the entire War Clan’s Ancient Domain, it would definitely be able to obliterate all of them.

Yet, after it struck, there was actually no destruction at all. This caused them to feel extremely confused.

“Rumble~~~”

After a short moment passed, another lightning bolt struck from the ninth heaven.

The lightning this time around was not interweaved with nine colors. Rather, it was merely one of the nine-colored lightnings.

However, this one lightning bolt was actually thicker than the previous nine lightnings combined. It was also much more ferocious, and many times stronger.

Like the lightning bolt before it, this lightning bolt also struck at the same place. Furthermore... it also did not create any sound.

“Exactly what is happening?” The crowd became even more perplexed. They were at a complete loss as to what was going on.

“Rumble~~~”

Immediately after the second lightning bolt, a third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh lightning bolt struck in succession.

Each was stronger than the last. Each was more ferocious than the last.

However, they all ended the same way. Although they were extremely frightening, they showed no actions. Each time they struck, they disappeared.

If something like that were to happen once or twice, it would still be tolerable. Yet, it had happened eight times in succession.

This caused the people from the War Clan and the Monstrous Clan to realize that even though the lightning was extremely mighty, it seemed to not possess any destructive power.

“Strange. Why did all eight lightning bolts strike the same location?” The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief pondered.

Although the lightning did not cause any destruction, he still felt fear toward it from the bottom of his heart. He wanted to know exactly what had caused that lightning.

“Lord Clan Chief, it seems that the place where those lightning bolts struck was the same place where that Chu Feng’s voice sounded from,” A Monstrous Clansman said.

“Now that you mention it, that is indeed the case. Could it be that those lightning bolts were caused by that Chu Feng?” The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief started to ponder. Unease started to emerge in his eyes.

“How could that be? How could he possess that sort of ability? The way I see it, it’s more likely that he displeased the gods with his boasting, and was struck by lightning as punishment,” The Monstrous Clansmen began to laugh.

“Struck by lightning because of boasting? Your imagination is truly decent,” Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s voice sounded again.

Merely, this time around, Chu Feng’s voice was very close to them. Furthermore, as Chu Feng’s voice sounded, Chu Feng also appeared.

Chu Feng was currently walking toward the battlefield in midair.

“Chu Feng, it’s really Chu Feng?”

“How... how did he get out?”

Upon seeing Chu Feng, compared to the people from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan, the people from the Ancient Era's War Clan were more confused.

The reason for that was because they felt that it should be impossible for Chu Feng to escape their prison. Furthermore, if Chu Feng were to escape, he would definitely attack them.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored the Ancient Era's War Clan's men. Instead, he walked past them, and arrived at the forefront of the Ancient Era's War Clan.

"Boy, who are you? Are you a part of the Ancient Era's War Clan?" The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief asked with a stern voice.

He was not looking down on Chu Feng. The reason for that was because he was surprised to discover that he was unable to see through the cultivation of the young man before him.

"If you are to kneel down and kowtow to me right now, I will leave you a complete corpse," Chu Feng said to the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

"You!!!" The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had an enormous change in expression. It was one thing if Chu Feng did not answer his question. Yet, he never expected that Chu Feng would actually say that sort of thing right away.

"Arrogant bastard, you dare speak to our Clan Chief in such a manner?! Watch as I cut off your tongue and tear your mouth apart!"

A Monstrous Clansman grew incomparably furious. He raised his weapon and soared into the air. With overwhelming killing intent, he flew straight for Chu Feng.

"Bang~~~"

"Wuaahh~~~"

However, before he could approach Chu Feng, he seemed to have collided into an invisible wall and sprayed out a mouthful of blood.

He was seriously injured. Then, like a loose kite, he fell from the sky, his life or death uncertain.

“.....”

Witnessing that scene, regardless of whether it was the people from the Monstrous Clan or the people from the War Clan, they all had an enormous change in expression. The reason for that was because the monstrous beast that had charged to attack Chu Feng earlier was a rank one Martial Ancestor.

Most importantly, Chu Feng had clearly unleashed his aura earlier. Yet, the people present were still unable to determine his cultivation.

However, one thing was certain. This young man who was not even thirty years old possessed strength that surpassed that of a rank one Martial Ancestor.

But, to be able to obtain the cultivation of Martial Ancestor at such a young age was already extremely rare. Yet, to be able to easily crush a rank one Martial Ancestor, was simply unheard of.

“Exactly who are you?” The Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief now looked to Chu Feng with a gaze that was not only serious, but also contained a bit of restraining fear.

“I gave you a chance to keep your life earlier. Yet, you did not seize that chance. Thus... you are destined to die here today, destined to die by my hands.”

Chu Feng spoke indifferently. He had completely ignored the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief’s question, and only bothered to express his own intentions.

However, although Chu Feng was acting like that, he did not make others feel that he was being arrogant. On the contrary, they could only feel his dominance over everyone else.

“Big sister, big brother Chu Feng, he’s simply too cool!” Zhan Lingtong was baffled by Chu Feng’s presence.

As for Zhan Lingling, her face had turned red. She was unable to take her eyes off Chu Feng. Adoration and admiration filled her eyes.

Courageous, capable of clearly differentiating gratitudes and grudges and overwhelming talent; how many women could possibly not be captivated by such a Chu Feng?

“Don’t you act this excessively!!!” At that moment, the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief revealed an angry look.

As the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief, was the current strongest existence in the War Clan’s Ancient Domain, he felt that his honor and status was being gravely challenged by Chu Feng.

Thus, he must act. He must use his powerful strength to retrieve his honor and everything else.

He held his Ancestral Armament axe and rushed forth to attack Chu Feng, shooting a black slash toward him.

He had not unleashed all of his power. On the contrary, he did not even use a martial skill with his attack. His attack was merely an ordinary slash. He was only planning to probe Chu Feng’s strength.

That said, his rank five Martial Ancestor cultivation and heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation had still allowed him to become the ruler of the world.

As such, although his attack was only an ordinary slash, everyone felt fatal danger from it.

At that moment, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s men all closed their eyes.

They did not expect that Chu Feng would step forward bravely to help their Ancient Era’s War Clan at such a time.

It was precisely because of how righteous and loyal Chu Feng was that they did not wish to personally witness Chu Feng’s miserable death by that slash.

“Humph!”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng let out a light snort.

After that cold snort sounded, the space before Chu Feng started to distort.

Immediately after that, the slash sent forth by the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief entered that distorted space. Like a piece of rock thrown into the vast sea, it disappeared.

“This!!!” The expressions of the Monstrous Clansmen changed enormously. It was only at that moment that they realized how powerful that young man was.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, he...”

As for the War Clan’s men, they were also shocked and frightened. Their expressions were exceptionally strange. After all, they had imprisoned Chu Feng for such a long time.

Never had they ever imagined that their prisoner would actually be so powerful, so powerful that he could neutralize the attack of the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief without even moving.

One must know that the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief was a rank five Martial Ancestor, an existence that no one in their Ancient Era’s War Clan was capable of withstanding.

An attack unleashed by such a powerful existence was actually neutralized by Chu Feng in such a deemphasizing manner.

Most importantly, Chu Feng still hadn’t revealed his cultivation yet.

They felt this to be truly inconceivable, truly frightening.

“Who is this young man? Is he someone from our Ancient Era’s War Clan?” Zhan Yuanmo asked the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief beside him.

“Father, Chu Feng is not from our Ancient Era’s War Clan. Rather, he’s from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“He’s actually from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm? No wonder, no wonder he’s so powerful. Is he a guest of our Ancient Era’s War Clan? This is truly great... today, our Ancient Era’s War Clan will be saved,” Zhan Yuanmo was truly glad. Gratefulness filled his eyes as he looked at Chu Feng.

As for the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief, he wanted to say something, but ended up hesitating. A guilty, ashamed and self-blaming expression was present on his face.

As for the elders standing behind him, they had the same sort of expression as him.

After all, they knew very well that Chu Feng had been in their Ancient Era’s War Clan for two years now. Yet, during those two years, he had never received the treatment of a honored guest. Rather, he had become their prisoner.

Most importantly, before they had imprisoned Chu Feng, Chu Feng had saved their lives.

They knew very well that they were truly inhumane with their actions.

As matters stood, they truly regretted their actions.

Chapter 2463 – Rank Seven Martial Ancestor

---

“Is this all the ability you possess? Turns out the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan is only this powerful.”

“I’ll give you another chance. This is the final chance.”

“I’ll stand here without moving. I will allow you to attack me as you wish.”

“However, if you are still unable to kill me this time around, I’m sorry, but I will have to attack you,” Chu Feng said to the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief.

“Ssss~~~”

Hearing those words, many of the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s men were unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

Arrogance. Oh how arrogant this was. Yet, Chu Feng’s arrogance caused their blood to race. They began to feel admiration for Chu Feng from the bottoms of their hearts.

As for Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling, they were so excited that their hearts were about to jump out of their chests. They thought that Chu Feng would have become powerful, but they had never imagined that Chu Feng would become so unimaginably powerful.

He had actually reached a level where he was able to completely disregard the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief.

Most importantly, the current Chu Feng had already managed to completely suppress the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief in terms of his manner of bearing.

At that moment, the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief was no longer calm and collected. His brows were tightly narrowed, and he was dripping with sweat. This was the first time that anyone had seen the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief react in such a manner.

“Are you certain that you will not fight back?” The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief asked sternly.

“Heh...” Chu Feng chuckled. Then, he said, “A rank five Martial Ancestor with a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation. You're very strong.”

“However, with merely that, you are still not qualified to have me fight back. Go ahead and attack me. As long as you have the ability, my life will be yours to take.”

Chu Feng placed his hands behind his back. He was indicating to the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief that he would neither hit back nor dodge his attacks.

Most importantly, he really did not place the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief in his eyes at all.

“Ignorant person of the younger generation. Since you are this arrogant, I will have you die here!!!”

Seeing Chu Feng like that, ruthlessness flashed through the eyes of the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

Suddenly, the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief flipped his palm. Then, three red medicinal pellets appeared in his hand.

The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief swallowed the medicinal pellets with a single gulp. The next moment, crimson gaseous flames began to flare up from his body.

At that moment, the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief's aura also became exceptionally fierce.

Furthermore, his aura was still increasing unceasingly. His eyes turned crimson, and even his skin turned crimson. A red vortex emerged on his forehead.

The current him simply did not resemble a person at all, nor did he resemble a monstrous beast. Rather, he was simply a demon.

“Forbidden Medicine: Red Demon Pellet. He actually took three of them? He is planning to gamble with his life here.”

“Young Hero Chu Feng, be careful. That Forbidden Medicine: Red Demon Pellet is the Monstrous Clan’s secret treasure. You absolutely must not be careless.”

Seeing that the situation had turned bad, Zhan Yuanmo spoke to warn Chu Feng. As someone who had fought against the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan for a long time, he knew very well how powerful the Forbidden Medicine: Red Demon Pellet was.

“Senior, thank you for your warning. I know what to do,” Chu Feng lightly smiled at Zhan Yuanmo.

That said, even though Chu Feng said those words, his expression remained unchanged. He continued to have the same confident smile on his face the entire time.

“Watch my attack!”

Abruptly, the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief started to attack. He tightly gripped the enormous black axe he held in his hand and, with an aura infinitely close to that of a rank six Martial Ancestor, slashed down at Chu Feng.

“Snap~~~”

As the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief hacked down with his axe, an enormously large axe appeared out of thin air.

That axe was not an Ancestral Armament. Rather, it was formed with martial power. The moment it appeared, heaven and earth immediately went dark. Even space itself was hacked in two.

A black and crimson slash ran through heaven and earth as it came slicing down at Chu Feng.

At that moment, all of the Ancient Era’s War Clans men began to sweat cold bullets for Chu Feng.

As matters stood, they had to admit that Chu Feng was their savior.

Yet, the slash unleashed by the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief was truly not a small matter. They were afraid that Chu Feng would not be able to withstand that slash.

The reason for that was because what the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had unleashed was an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill. Furthermore, it was the strongest Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill of their Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan, the Ancestral Taboo: Heaven-slicing Axe.

The might of this Ancestral Taboo: Heaven-slicing Axe was over several hundred times more powerful than the casual slash that the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had unleashed earlier.

The Ancient Era's War Clansmen were afraid that Chu Feng would not be able to withstand the attack if he did not block or dodge.

“Buzz~~~”

However, even though it was precisely such a ferocious attack, it still had the same result as the casual slash before it, and sunk into the distorted space before Chu Feng the moment it arrived before him.

The trembling sky, the crumbling space and the doomsday-like sights all returned to normal at that point.

“How can this be?!!!”

Everyone from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan were stunned. Many among them even started to shiver with ashen faces.

Even the people of the Ancient Era's War Clan all had their mouths wide open in shock. Amazement filled their eyes.

As for the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief, he was nearly driven mad. He began to shout hysterically, “You... exactly who are you?”

Exactly what is your origin?!”

“I gave you a chance. Yet, you did not seize it properly. As such, it is my turn to attack now.”

Chu Feng smiled. Then, lightning flashed in his eyes. The next moment, a boundless oppressive might pulsed from his body, enveloping the entire region.

At that moment, everyone’s expressions changed enormously. The reason for that was because they finally managed to sense Chu Feng’s cultivation.

Rank seven Martial Ancestor, with a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation. That was Chu Feng’s current cultivation.

“You!!”

“With how young you are, how could you... how could you be so powerful?!”

The hysterical expression was no longer present on the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief’s face. Instead, endless fear and shock filled his face.

He finally realized why he was unable to cause Chu Feng any harm. Although they possessed the same sort of heaven-defying battle power, Chu Feng’s cultivation was two entire levels above his own. With such a disparity, it would instead be strange if he could defeat Chu Feng.

“Are you prepared to die now?” Chu Feng asked indifferently.

“Putt~~~”

Right after Chu Feng asked that question, the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief immediately kneeled on the ground and began to kowtow to Chu Feng while begging for forgiveness.

“Milord, I was wrong. I have eyes, but failed to recognize Mount Tai. I was wrong to behave like a snob.”

“Please, please give me a chance. Please spare me. I beg of you, please spare my life,” The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief began to beg in a lowly manner.

At that moment, not to mention the War Clan’s men, even the Monstrous Clan’s men were stunned by it.

Their Lord Clan Chief had always been an aloof and proud individual who did not fear death. This was the first time that they had ever seen their Lord Clan Chief acting in such a manner.

This petty and low, this craven and cowardly.

“If I had not appeared in time, would you have spared the War Clan today?” Chu Feng asked.

“Milord, please spare me, please spare me. I was wrong. I truly know my wrongs now.”

The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief did not answer Chu Feng’s question. He knew that it would be useless for him to try to explain himself at that moment. The only way for him to survive would be to beg Chu Feng for forgiveness.

“Rest assured, I will not exterminate your Monstrous Clan after your death. Instead, I will spare them so that they can continue existing,” Chu Feng said.

“Really?” The Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief slowly raised his head and asked in a serious manner. At that moment, he reacted as if he had prepared to accept death.

“Really,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, the Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief had a rapid change in expression. He suddenly turned around and began to rush into the distance with rapid speed. In the blink of an eye, he had disappeared.

The grand Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief had actually escaped.

At that moment, everyone was stunned. They had no words to describe what had just happened, no words to describe this dramatic change.

As for Chu Feng, he chuckled and shook his head helplessly.

He did not give chase. Instead, he slowly raised his arm and faced it in the direction where the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had escaped.

“Paa~~~”

In the instant that Chu Feng's palm was opened, a strong wind immediately swept forth. Not only were the trees uprooted from the ground, but even the clouds were sucked into Chu Feng's palm.

An enormous attractive force was being emitted by Chu Feng's palm. It was planning to devour everything in its path.

“Noo!!!”

Following a scream, a figure that was frantically trying to escape was sucked toward Chu Feng from afar. It was none other than the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

That Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief, the person proclaimed to be the strongest existence in the War Clan's Ancient Domain. was actually unable to resist Chu Feng in the slightest.

“I want you dead, so you cannot live,” Chu Feng spoke in a dull manner. The same moment he spoke those words, sharp killing intent emerged in his eyes.

“Bang~~~”

The next moment, a muffled explosion was heard. Before everyone, the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief exploded and died. He was killed by Chu Feng.

Chapter 2464 – Subduing The Secret Skill

---

The Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief's Ancestral Armament axe fell from the sky. However, his body had long since disappeared. It had shattered into pieces in the sky, turning into a rain of blood.

The Monstrous Clan's Clansmen all had ashen looks of despair on their faces. They never expected that their Lord Clan Chief would be obliterated by someone like this.

But, when even their Lord Clan Chief was completely helpless before Chu Feng, what could they possibly do?

Today would likely be their doomsday.

“Roar~~~”

However, right at that moment, an ear-piercing snarl suddenly sounded from within the rain of blood.

The next moment, a dark black gaseous substance appeared. Furthermore, the gaseous substance began to grow larger and larger.

The dark black gaseous substance seemed to have intelligence. It seemed to be a person, yet not a person, seemed to be a blade ray, yet not a blade ray. Yet, it was emitting a sinister and strange roar, and a majestic and powerful aura.

“Secret Skill: Enemy Restraining Slash!!!”

The Ancient Era's Monstrous Clansmen's expressions all changed. They naturally recognized the secret skill.

After all, this secret skill was their Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's secret skill.

“Secret skill? Never would I have expected that this guy actually possessed such a secret skill.”

“Interesting. Seems like killing him today was the right decision.”

Upon seeing the secret skill, Chu Feng actually revealed a joyous expression. Then, he opened his palm, and his boundless attractive force was revealed once again. This time around, it enveloped the secret skill.

“What is that guy planning to do? Could it be... he wants to seize the secret skill?” Seeing what was happening, the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clansmen all revealed astonished expressions.

“Ignorant brat, you actually dare to think about obtaining me? You are simply courting death,” However, not only did Chu Feng’s attractive force not move the secret skill, it instead caused the secret skill to let out an incomparably furious snarl.

The next moment, layer upon layer of boundless power began to move toward Chu Feng to oppress him.

Everything happened too quickly. Chu Feng was caught off guard. “Boom!” Chu Feng was actually knocked several tens of thousands of meters away.

It was only when Chu Feng was knocked into a building that he stopped. However, that ferocious energy ripple had already covered Chu Feng.

“Young Hero Chu Feng!!!”

Witnessing that scene, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen were all shocked. Deeply alarmed expressions emerged on their faces.

After all, the aura emitted by that secret skill was no small matter. Furthermore, Chu Feng was clearly knocked away by it and was currently covered by the energy ripple. It was unknown as to whether or not Chu Feng was alive. Thus, how could they not be worried for Chu Feng?

“This is great! Lord Secret Skill is actually this powerful. We’re saved! Our Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan is saved!!!”

“That Chu Feng is truly foolish. He actually provoked Lord Secret Skill. Seems like he will undoubtedly die today.”

At that moment when the Ancient Era's War Clansmen were worried, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clansmen all revealed joyous expressions on their faces.

Originally, they had thought that their Monstrous Clan would definitely be extinguished after facing such a powerful enemy.

However, after witnessing how powerful the secret skill was, they suddenly realized that they could still be saved. In fact, it could even be said that they still had hopes of being able to eliminate the Ancient Era's War Clan.

They might still be able to obtain victory in their battle.

After all, that secret skill was created by their Lord Yao Xing. Thus, the secret skill itself should be extremely powerful.

Back then, even their Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had not managed to conquer the secret skill with his own power. Rather, he had only managed to inherit it.

Thus, they actually had no idea exactly how powerful the secret skill was.

However, judging by how things were going at the moment, that secret skill was truly powerful. Even Chu Feng was not a match for it. As such, they would naturally be overjoyed.

“Die!!!”

Suddenly, a sinister voice was heard. Following that, overwhelming killing intent surged forth.

The secret skill began to pursue Chu Feng to where he had fallen. As it flew toward Chu Feng, its overflowing black flames covered the entire sky.

“Zzzzzz~~~”

Right at that moment, dazzling lightning suddenly emerged in the region covered by the energy ripples.

“Woosh~~~”

The next moment, an enormous hand suddenly broke through the energy ripples. Like a water dragon emerging from the sea, it flew out and grabbed the secret skill.

“Heavens! That is?!!!”

At that moment, the bystanders’ eyes turned sluggish. They were confused as to what was happening.

After all, that hand was so very enormous. No matter how one looked at it, that hand did not resemble a human’s hand.

Soon, the energy ripples started to gradually vanish. At that moment, the crowd finally managed to see the owner of that enormous hand.

That enormous hand was formed with martial power, martial power that originated from Chu Feng. It turned out that enormous hand was a technique from Chu Feng.

Merely, compared to before, Chu Feng was completely different.

At that moment, not only was lightning flashing in Chu Feng’s eyes, but his body was also covered with a suit of armor made of lightning and a pair of lightning wings also extended out from his back.

Most importantly, Chu Feng’s current cultivation was no longer that of a rank seven Martial Ancestor. Rather, he had become a rank nine Martial Ancestor.

With how overwhelmingly powerful Chu Feng had become, even the secret skill was only able to struggle without being able to break free from Chu Feng’s enormous hand made of martial power.

“You have two choices. Either work for me or die,” Chu Feng said to the secret skill.

“Never had I expected you to be this powerful at such a young age. Compared to that trash from the Monstrous Clan, you are countless times more powerful.”

“I am not someone who is unable to differentiate good from bad. My existence is so that I can be used by others.”

“As the saying goes, a fine bird chooses a tree to nest in. Boy, you have ability. Thus, I will recognize you as my master,” That secret skill actually did not hesitate in the slightest, and directly gave Chu Feng an answer. It was planning to follow Chu Feng.

“You’d best not lie to me,” Chu Feng released the secret skill. However, his gaze was still fixed onto the secret skill. He was still on alert.

“I am always one to keep my word. Since I have said that I will follow you, I will definitely be loyal and devoted to you.”

After the secret skill finished saying those words, it turned from a vast black gaseous flame to a little wisp of flame. Then, it entered Chu Feng’s forehead.

That Monstrous Clan’s secret skill actually really ended up surrendering to and pledging allegiance to Chu Feng.

“It’s actually a secret skill meant to attack other secret skills. This has truly surpassed my expectations.”

At that moment, Chu Feng became aware of the abilities of that secret skill.

Originally, Chu Feng was not looking forward to that secret skill too much after having already grasped the powerful secret skill that was the Ancient Era’s War Sword.

He had merely... intended to subdue it for the heck of it. After all, secret skills were extremely rare. Furthermore, that secret skill was the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s secret skill.

However, upon discovering the special capabilities of the secret skill, Chu Feng was unable to contain his feelings of joy. He had discovered that he had managed to pick up a treasure.

That secret skill was called the Enemy Restraining Slash. When unleashed, it would appear only like an ordinary slash without any particularities. In fact, one could not even determine that it was a secret skill through its aura.

However, if one were to be struck by it, one would not be able to use secret skills again. If one were to try to use one's secret skill again, they would receive a backlash.

Furthermore, to be exact, that secret skill was not created by that Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's Yao Xing.

Rather, it was created by someone else. To put it simply, that secret skill, the Enemy Restraining Slash, possessed an extraordinary origin. It had been polished by the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's various experts for many years, but still remained incomplete.

When that secret skill landed in Yao Xing's hands, it had nearly reached a state of completion. Using the methods left behind by his seniors, Yao Xing added the final polish, and successfully created the secret skill.

It was precisely because of the fact that the secret skill had been through the hands of many people, and the person who had finally managed to successfully complete it was also not very strong, it led to the secret skill itself possessing a much weaker power than the Ancient Era's War Clan's secret skill.

However, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan had managed to successfully forge its usage. In other words, while the secret skill itself was not very strong, it was extremely useful. This was especially true when the secret skill was used against opponents that possessed secret skills. It could be said that the secret skill would be a marvelous technique.

“He... he actually managed to subdue Lord Secret Skill.”

“How could this be? Exactly who is he?”

At that moment, Chu Feng had a smile across his face. However, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clansmen were completely ashen.

To them, the secret skill was their Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's final hope. Yet at that moment... Chu Feng had obliterated even their final hope.

Chapter 2465 – Mentioning The Truth

---

“Young Hero, you are truly a genius, truly a genius,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Zhan Yuanmo began to praise Chu Feng nonstop. He even started to applaud Chu Feng.

The others in the Ancient Era’s War Clan also began to applaud Chu Feng.

However, Chu Feng did not bother with the admiration and applause from the crowd. Rather, he turned his gaze to the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan. Then, he took a glance at the Ancient Era’s War Clan.

He said, “This War Clan’s Ancient Domain was originally created by two seniors. One was the War Clan’s senior, whereas the other was the Monstrous Clan’s senior.”

“The two of them were close friends. They should have given a rigid order to you descendants that you all must coexist peacefully.”

“I do not understand why you all do not know about this matter now, and have turned on your former union to become archenemies.”

“However, to have the Monstrous Clan and the War Clan jointly continue in the War Clan’s Ancient Domain is your seniors’ final wishes.”

“Thus, today, I will not extinguish your Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan. However, I hope that the Ancient Era’s War Clan and the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan can coexist peacefully in the future.”

“If the Monstrous Clan still doesn’t learn from this lesson, I will return here in the future. At that time... I will no longer be lenient toward you all,” Chu Feng said.

“You... you’re planning to spare us?” An Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan’s elder asked.

“Was I not clear enough?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

“No, it’s clear, very clear. Thank you Milord, thank you Milord.”

That Monstrous Clan’s elder suddenly kneeled onto the ground and began to kowtow to Chu Feng while thanking him.

Following that, the others of the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan also kneeled before Chu Feng and started to kowtow to him while thanking him.

“You all do not have to thank me. If you want to thank someone, thank your senior. However, you all must definitely learn from your lesson. Do not go against the words of your senior for the sake of your own selfish desires,” Chu Feng said.

“We understand. We will definitely keep it in mind. We will never dare go against our Lord’s desire,” The Monstrous Clansmen nodded repeatedly.

What Chu Feng said was most definitely not nonsense.

In the two years that he had been in closed door training in the Martial Comprehension Ground, Chu Feng had not only managed to attain martial comprehension, he had also managed to attain comprehension toward world spirit techniques.

The reason why Chu Feng was able to reach successive breakthroughs earlier was precisely because Chu Feng had managed to attain a certain amount of martial comprehension. In fact, Chu Feng was only a bit away from reaching rank eight Martial Ancestor. It could be said that Chu Feng had managed to obtain enormous harvest in the two years’ time.

In fact, Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques had also reached a breakthrough. He was no longer an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Rather, he had become a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

All those things were harvests Chu Feng had obtained from the Martial Comprehension Ground.

Apart from that, Chu Feng had also managed to learn a bit about the story of the Martial Comprehension Ground's creator.

The creator of the Martial Comprehension Ground was someone from the Ancient Era's War Clan. Back then, due to a certain reason, he had had no choice but to go into hiding.

That was why he had created the War Clan's Ancient Domain. Its main purpose was for hiding .

Arriving together with him were not only a group of his Ancient Era's War Clan's followers, but also a group of people from the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

The then leader of the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan was that Ancient Era's War Clan's expert's close friend. The two of them possessed a very close relationship.

That was why there were two clans, the War Clan and the Monstrous Clan, in the War Clan's Ancient Domain.

Actually, Chu Feng had no idea whether or not the creator of the Martial Comprehension Ground told his descendants that they must peacefully coexist with the Monstrous Clan.

That was only Chu Feng's guess...

However, Chu Feng knew that the reason Zhan Haichuan had not exterminated the Monstrous Clan back then was most likely because he had also come to find out about what happened back then.

When even Zhan Haichuan, a descendant of the War Clan, did not exterminate the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan, Chu Feng would naturally not exterminate the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan.

Else, he feared that he would be going against the desire of the creator of that Martial Comprehension Ground.

.....

Soon, the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan's army withdrew from the War Clan's headquarters. As for the Ancient Era's War Clan, after being instructed by Chu Feng, they also did not give chase to kill the Monstrous Clansmen.

Instead, they only dispatched their army to retrieve their former territories.

As for Chu Feng, he was once again invited back to the Ancient Era's War Clan's headquarters.

As the battle had just ended, it should be a time to clean up the battlefield and help cure the injured instead of celebration. However, it remained that Chu Feng had saved the Ancient Era's War Clan by himself. Thus, Zhan Yuanmo was determined to thank Chu Feng.

"Young Hero Chu Feng, this old man is called Zhan Yuanmo. I am Lingtong and Lingling's grandfather."

"I have already heard about you. You are truly the benefactor to our Ancient Era's War Clan."

"Not only did you save Lingtong and Lingling back then, you've also saved our entire Ancient Era's War Clan today."

"Today, I, on behalf of our Ancient Era's War Clan, offer a toast to Young Hero Chu Feng," Zhan Yuanmo raised his wine cup and spoke to Chu Feng in a very joyous manner.

"Young Hero Chu Feng, we also offer you a toast," Following that, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief and the various elders also raised their wine cups to express thanks to Chu Feng.

At that moment, those people all had eagerly attentive expressions on their faces. Merely, their smiles were very uncomfortable. After all, they were feeling guilty.

That said, they did not mention anything regarding what had happened in the past. It was as if nothing had happened. It caused Chu Feng to feel very displeased.

Chu Feng understood what those people were thinking; they were afraid that Zhan Yuanmo would know of the truth and punish them.

“They are truly a bunch of shameless bastards. They actually do not even have the courage to shoulder the consequences of their actions. Are they not planning to bring up what happened back then at all? Are they planning to pretend that nothing happened? They are truly too shameless!” Her Lady Queen cursed out in rage. She had also managed to see through the thoughts of those Ancient Era’s War Clan’s men.

“Chu Feng, we absolutely cannot drop this subject. We must teach them a lesson. Else... they will truly think that you can be easily bullied,” Her Lady Queen said angrily.

“Rest assured. Milady Queen, you don’t need to be angry. With me here, I will not allow them to try to pass things by like this.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words to Her Lady Queen, he did not immediately turn hostile toward the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen. Rather, he started to smile.

Of course, Chu Feng did not stand up to receive the toasts of wine from those people. In fact, he did not even bother to drink the wine off the wine cup that he slowly raised.

Instead, he watched as Zhan Yuanmo and the others of the War Clan drank their respective cups of wine.

Then, he said, “Everyone from the Ancient Era’s War Clan, it seems that you are truly eminent individuals with short memories. You’re thanking me for saving you all now, why did you not mention the time when you imprisoned me?”

“Imprisoned?” Hearing those words, Zhan Yuanmo’s expression changed. The smile on his face instantly froze.

As for the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief and those elders, their expressions also turned extremely ugly instantly.

One by one, they started to speak, yet hesitated. It was as if they wanted to explain themselves, yet did not know how to.

Zhan Yuanmo discovered that the situation was amiss. Immediately, his sword-like eyebrows rose. With a cold voice, he asked his son, “What is going on?!”

“Lord Father, regarding this, it’s actually... actually... actually...”

“I... this...”

The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief started to stammer. He didn’t know how to respond to that question.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, exactly what is going on? Have our Ancient Era’s War Clan shown negligence toward you before?”

“Or could it be that this is a misunderstanding?” Seeing that his clansmen refused to answer, Zhan Yuanmo turned to Chu Feng. He wanted to obtain an answer from Chu Feng directly.

“Misunderstanding?” Chu Feng chuckled. Then, he said to Zhan Yuanmo, “Senior, if this is truly a misunderstanding, then this would be an enormous misunderstanding.”

“Senior, please help this junior analyze whether or not this misunderstanding should happen.”

“Young Hero Chu Feng, please go ahead and tell me what happened. If they were truly excessive in what they’ve done, this old man will uphold justice for you today,” Zhan Yuanmo guaranteed as he patted his chest.

“Since senior says it like this, I will no longer conceal the truth, and tell you what happened.”

Without any hesitation, Chu Feng informed Zhan Yuanmo about everything that happened back then.

As he heard what Chu Feng said, Zhan Yuanmo’s expression started to turn ugly. From time to time, he started to glare fiercely at his clansmen behind him.

However, he continued to endure his anger, and did not say anything or flare up. Just like that, he quietly listened to what Chu Feng had to say.

It was only when Chu Feng finished that he erupted like a long-brewing volcano.

“Ingrates! Truly a bunch of ingrates!!!”

Zhan Yuanmo’s furious voice resonated through heaven and earth. It was more ear-piercing than thunder. It shook the earth and caused the palace to tremble violently.

“Milord, we were wrong.”

At that moment, the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief, those Ancient Era’s War Clan’s elders and the others present all hurriedly knelt onto the ground. They did not even dare to raise their heads.

One by one, they were all dripping with sweat and shivering in fear.

Chapter 2466 – Akin To Legend

---

“It seems that you all have admitted to it. Was what happened back then truly as Young Hero Chu Feng said?”

“Repaying kindness with malice, this is truly repaying kindness with malice!”

“Young Hero Chu Feng had saved you all, yet you’ve actually repaid his kindness with malice! You all... do you all even possess humanity?!”

Zhan Yuanmo was so furious that his face turned deathly pale. Even his body started to shiver.

Suddenly, his body stiffened, and his mouth opened.

“Pfff~~~”

A large mouthful of blood sprayed out of his mouth. The next moment, he was unable to stand firm, and began to fall toward the ground.

Fortunately, Chu Feng was quick to react. His body immediately moved, arriving before Zhan Yuanmo to support him, preventing him from falling to the ground.

“Father...”

“Milord!!!”

“We are wrong. Please punish us severely. Milord, please don’t get angry and bring harm upon yourself.”

Seeing that Zhan Yuanmo actually vomited blood out of anger, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen were all deeply frightened.

“Severely punish? Indeed, you all should be severely punished. You bunch of ingrates should be punished with death!!!” Zhan Yuanmo said furiously.

“Death?” Upon hearing that word, the Ancient Era’s War

Clansmen all turned ashen with fear. They stood there as if petrified.

Some among them felt their legs grow weak and fell onto their butts, a stunned expression on their faces.

They had all anticipated that Zhan Yuanmo would punish them severely upon hearing about the matter. However, they never expected for him to bring up the subject of death as a punishment.

As they knew very well what sort of temperament Zhan Yuanmo possessed, they knew that he was never someone to joke around. Since he declared that they should be punished with death, it meant that... he would likely really end up killing them.

“Milord, we know our wrongs. Please, please show us leniency and spare our lives.”

At that moment, all kinds of begging voices could be heard. Not to mention the people that made things difficult for Chu Feng that day, even the siblings Zhan Lingling and Zhan Lingtong started to beg for forgiveness.

Naturally, they were pleading for their father, their siblings, and their seniors.

The two of them both anticipated that their grandfather would punish their father and the others. However, they never expected for the punishment to be so severe.

“You all still have the nerve to beg for forgiveness? If it wasn’t for Young Hero Chu Feng saving you all twice, you would have already died twice by now.”

“As your lives were already saved twice by Young Hero Chu Feng, your lives are already no longer yours. Rather, they belong to Young Hero Chu Feng.”

“Yet, you all... actually imprisoned him. Tell me, where did your humanity go?”

“How have I taught you all? Did the benevolence and righteousness that I taught you all go to the stomachs of dogs?” Zhan Yuanmo pointed to the War Clan’s Clan Chief and the others with his shivering hand as he snarled his questions furiously.

He was truly furious. At the same time, he was utterly disappointed and ashamed. After all, those people were his clansmen, people that he had nurtured.

Being reprimanded by Zhan Yuanmo in such a manner, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen grew quiet. They stopped begging for forgiveness.

Some among them started to gnash their teeth, some started to tightly clench their fists, and some started to slap themselves. There were also those that started weeping bitter tears.

However, regardless of what sort of reaction they had, they all felt the same sort of thing — regret!!!

Regret, they were truly regretful.

They regretted their conduct and deeds back then.

Especially after they saw how Chu Feng did not attack them, and instead drove away the Monstrous Clan to save their War Clan even though he possessed such overwhelming power, they were truly filled with endless regret.

They discovered that they were so petty, low and narrow-minded when compared to Chu Feng.

“Senior, forget about it. What happened has already happened. Furthermore, I am fine. Thus, it would suffice to just give them a warning. There is really no need to actually punish them.”

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly spoke with a smile on his face.

At that moment, not only did Zhan Yuanmo reveal a stunned expression, but the other War Clansmen also revealed stunned expressions.

They all felt that Chu Feng had mentioned the matter so that they would be punished.

Yet, why did Chu Feng suddenly start pleading for leniency for them right when they were about to be punished?

They were truly unable to understand exactly what Chu Feng was thinking.

Seemingly able to guess what the crowd was confused about, Chu Feng stood up with a smile on his face. He said, “Originally, I had never thought about doing anything to you all. Merely, earlier, not a single one of you bothered to try to provide an explanation for what had happened to me back then. Furthermore, you all even tried to conceal the truth, tried to let things pass on just like this. As such, I could not accept it.”

“The reason for that is because your actions were nothing more than evasion. And that, is not a good thing at all.”

“Big brother Chu Feng, you mean to say that you actually... never planned to take revenge?” At that moment, Zhan Lingtong stood forth.

What Zhan Lingtong asked was actually what the others in the Ancient Era’s War Clan wanted to ask too.

“My little brother Lingtong, if I had wanted to take revenge, why would I have bothered to take care of the Monstrous Clan today?”

“Have you forgotten what I told you two years ago when I stepped into the Martial Comprehension Ground?” Chu Feng said to Zhan Lingtong with a smile on his face.

“No, I haven’t. I naturally remember it. That’s right, big brother Chu Feng has never considered our War Clan as enemies.”

“Even back then when Lord Father and the seniors insisted on imprisoning big brother Chu Feng, he never thought about retaliating against everyone.”

“At that time, big brother Chu Feng said that if the Monstrous Clan were to come and invade, that I must definitely inform him, and he would definitely come down to help us.”

“Big brother Chu Feng kept his promise. When I pinched the title plate big brother Chu Feng gave me that day, he really appeared immediately.”

When Zhan Lingtong said those words, he had an immensely proud expression on his face. After all, he felt that if he hadn't pinched the title plate, Chu Feng might not have appeared. At that time, their Ancient Era's War Clan would have been destined to be extinguished.

Actually, Zhan Lingtong spoke those words not only so that he could show off to the crowd, but he was also trying to inform the War Clansmen as to what sort of individual Chu Feng was.

Sure enough, after hearing what Zhan Lingtong said, the Ancient Era's War Clansmen all revealed even more obviously ashamed and guilty expressions.

The more magnanimous Chu Feng was, the more it set off how narrow-minded and petty they were.

The more sentimental and righteous Chu Feng was, the more it set off how ungrateful and unjust they were.

“Martial Comprehension Ground?”

“Wasn't Young Hero Chu Feng trapped in the prison cell the entire time? When did he ascend to the Martial Comprehension Ground?” Suddenly, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief asked with a questioning expression on his face.

“That's true?”

Suddenly, the other elders also managed to react. They too revealed dumbfounded expressions.

During the past two years, they had been to the prison cell that Chu Feng was held in many a time to urge him to renounce their Ancient Era's War Sword.

Logically, it shouldn't be possible for Chu Feng to have ascended to the Martial Comprehension Ground.

"Haha. Lord Father, seniors, when mentioning it, you all might not believe me. However, that prison cell is simply unable to hold my big brother Chu Feng," Zhan Lingtong spoke proudly.

"How could it not hold Young Hero Chu Feng? I've seen Young Hero Chu Feng in the prison cell many times, and have even conversed with him," The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief said.

"Hahaha. My dear Lord Father, the person you met was simply not my big brother Chu Feng. Rather, it was merely my big brother Chu Feng's clone," Zhan Lingtong spoke with a loud laughter.

"Clone? It was merely a clone? Impossible! That was most definitely not a clone," The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief refused to believe it.

"Lord Father, the one trapped in the prison cell is indeed a clone," Right at that moment, Zhan Lingling also spoke.

"But, how could a clone be that lifelike? It is simply no different from Young Hero Chu Feng, it is simply a carbon copy," The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief said.

"It would naturally be impossible for ordinary world spiritists to create clones that lifelike. However, Young Hero Chu Feng is capable. The reason for that is because... he's an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist," Zhan Lingling said.

"Immortal-cloak World Spiritist!!!"

"Young Hero Chu Feng is actually..."

"He's actually an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?!!!"

Once Zhan Lingling said those words, they came like an explosion to the crowd's ears, and caused them to burst into an uproar.

The reason for that was because, other than their Ancient Era's War Clan's ancestor and their senior Zhan Haichuan, there had never been anyone else who had managed to reach the level of Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

To them, Immortal-cloak World Spiritists were akin to legends.

Chapter 2467 – The War Axe’s Command

---

“Young Hero Chu Feng is truly a genius,” Zhan Yuanmo’s eyes were filled with completely unconcealed admiration as he looked at Chu Feng, who stood beside him.

Chu Feng had already completely revealed how extraordinarily talented and strong he was in terms of martial cultivation. However, Zhan Yuanmo truly never expected that Chu Feng’s attainments in terms of world spirit techniques would also be so exceptional.

“Grandfather, not only is my big brother Chu Feng an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he also managed to ascend to the Martial Comprehension Ground’s third level,” Zhan Lingtong said.

“The third level?!” What Zhan Lingtong said was once again enormous news that exploded in the hearts of the crowd.

At that moment, none of the crowd were able to keep calm. Emotions and disbelief covered their faces.

Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, and being able to ascend to the third level of the Martial Comprehension Ground. Both were things akin to legends to them.

Apart from Zhan Haichuan, there had never been anyone who had ever ascended to the third level.

Yet, Chu Feng had done so. Standing before them, Chu Feng was like a god.

“Wuu~~~”

Right at that moment when the crowd were astonished by Chu Feng’s accomplishments, Zhan Yuanmo’s expression started to distort. Following that, he let out a painful sound.

“Milord!!!” Upon seeing that, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen hurriedly rushed toward Zhan Yuanmo.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Zhan Yuanmo suddenly raised his hand and said, “Don’t worry, I’m fine.”

Then, Zhan Yuanmo raised his head and looked at the crowd with a complicated gaze. “No matter what, our Ancient Era’s War Clan was unrighteous and unjust to imprison Young Hero Chu Feng. While Young Hero Chu Feng can decide to not look into it, we cannot pretend as if nothing has happened.”

“Senior, let’s just forget about this matter. After all, it is all thanks to that Martial Comprehension Ground that I managed to obtain my current level of cultivation,” Chu Feng said.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, please listen to me. No matter what, our Ancient Era’s War Clan owes you for this.”

“Even if you truly do not plan to look further into it, our Ancient Era’s War Clan must still compensate you,” Zhan Yuanmo said.

“Indeed, we must definitely compensate Young Hero Chu Feng. Lord Father, please decide,” The War Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“No, I am unable to decide this matter,” Zhan Yuanmo shook his head.

.....

Hearing those words, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen’s expressions all turned frozen. They were confused.

Although Zhan Yuanmo was not their Clan Chief, he had always been the person with the greatest authority in their Ancient Era’s War Clan.

If even he could not make the decision, who in the Ancient Era’s War Clan could possibly decide?

“This matter must be personally decided by Lord War Axe,” Zhan Yuanmo said.

“Lord War Axe? The Ancient Era’s War Axe?” Everyone came to a sudden realization.

“Lord Father, what sort of instructions does Lord War Axe have?” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“Lord War Axe is going to personally speak in regards to this matter,” Zhan Yuanmo said.

“Personally speak?” The crowd were startled. As the Ancient Era’s War Axe was a secret skill, it would be capable of communicating with Zhan Yuanmo. However, it would likely be a very difficult task for it to personally speak.

“Regarding this, I must have Young Hero Chu Feng help me. Once a secret skill enters one’s body, unless its user is to die, the secret skill will not be able to be removed from its user’s body. However, that’s with the exception of Immortal-cloak World Spiritists.”

“Young Hero Chu Feng, since you are an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, please help me remove Lord War Axe from my body,” Zhan Yuanmo said to Chu Feng.

“Lord Father, if you truly want Lord War Axe to be removed from your body, it would be fine to use the grand formation that our Ancestor left behind. There is simply no need for Young Hero Chu Feng to act,” The Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Clan Chief said.

The reason he said that was because he was not very confident in Chu Feng. Even though Chu Feng was an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it remained that a secret skill was no small matter. Compared to Chu Feng, he believed in the grand formation left behind by their Ancestor more.

“Shut up. This matter must be done by Young Hero Chu Feng.”

Zhan Yuanmo glared at his son. Then, he looked at Chu Feng and said, “Young Hero Chu Feng, you must definitely help me with it.”

“I am indeed able to accomplish that. Merely... your body will be affected. You are already wounded. I’m afraid that it would not be suitable for you to undergo this now,” Chu Feng said.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, this is the desire of Lord War Axe. I cannot go against the desire of Lord War Axe. Please, I beg of you, help me with this,” As Zhan Yuanmo spoke, he actually knelt before Chu Feng.

“Senior, don’t be like this,” Chu Feng hurriedly helped Zhan Yuanmo up. Then, in a very helpless manner, he said, “I will help you.”

Then, Chu Feng began to set up a special formation to help Zhan Yuanmo remove the secret skill from his body.

As Chu Feng was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist now, his world spirit techniques were incomparably magnificent. As they were unleashed, they started illuminating heaven and earth.

“Amazing. Is this the legendary Immortal-cloak World Spiritist? This is truly a well-deserved reputation.”

The crowd were all stunned by Chu Feng’s exquisite world spirit techniques.

“Look! Look at those veined patterns, they’re Snake Marks! Young Hero Chu Feng is not only an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he’s actually also a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist!”

“Young Hero Chu Feng should only be in his early thirties, right? With how young he is, he should only have trained in martial cultivation and world spirit techniques for a very short period of time.”

“This is truly too unimaginable. He is simply an otherworldly genius. This is what it means to be an otherworldly genius. Compared to him, we are truly insignificant.”

There were experienced and knowledgeable individuals among the Ancient Era’s War Clan. After they recognized that Chu Feng was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist and declared it, Chu Feng's status in the hearts of the Ancient Era's War Clansmen naturally increased by another tier.

"I wonder, would Young Hero Chu Feng's spirit formation be feasible?" At the same time they were astonished, the Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief was also worried.

After all, secret skills were different from ordinary martial skills. Secret skills possessed lives. After they recognized someone as their master, it should logically be impossible to remove them.

The only alternative would be special formations or powerful abilities. However... regardless of what sort of ability, they must obtain the cooperation of the secret skill's master.

If the secret skill's master did not want to release the secret skill, then regardless of what sort of method one might use, one would still not be able to forcibly extract the secret skill. The only exception would be... to kill the secret skill's master.

It would be just like when Chu Feng took care of the Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

However, by the same accord, even if the secret skill's master was willing to cooperate, it would still be very dangerous to extract a secret skill.

Originally, for the sake of making it more convenient for secret skills to be passed on, there was a grand formation left behind by their ancestor in the Ancient Era's War Clan.

That grand formation was no small matter at all. If one was willing, one would be able to extract the secret skill.

The Ancient Era's War Clan's Clan Chief felt that while Chu Feng's world spirit techniques were indeed extremely powerful, it would be more reliable for them to use the grand formation of their clan to extract the secret skill. After all, they had used that grand formation to extract the secret skill many times already.

Thus, he was truly confused as to why his father insisted on having Chu Feng extract the secret skill.

It was not that he did not trust Chu Feng. Rather, he was merely afraid that some sort of mishap might happen to his father.

After all, he felt that, regardless of how powerful Chu Feng might be, he would not be as powerful as their ancestor, who founded the War Clan's Ancient Domain.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng's spirit formation began to shine much brighter.

Furthermore, Zhan Yuanmo appeared to have fused with that spirit formation.

Soon, a special symbol appeared on Zhan Yuanmo's forehead. That symbol blossomed with a special light.

At the beginning, the light was only glimmering faintly. However, it soon became a dazzling light.

The next moment, that golden light shone from Zhan Yuanmo's forehead. Then, it turned into an enormous golden axe measuring hundreds of meters in length. That enormous axe was floating in the sky.

That enormous axe appeared to be very ordinary-looking, and did not possess too many veined patterns. However, it emitted an overwhelming desire for battle and a threatening aura.

“This is the Ancient Era's War Axe?” At that moment, even Chu Feng's gaze changed.

Before them was the original form of the Ancient Era's War Axe with its original power. It was extremely powerful.

Although it was truly unable to compare to the Ancient Era's War Sword that Chu Feng had encountered that day, it was many times more powerful than the Enemy Restraining Slash.

While Chu Feng was able to easily subdue the Enemy Restraining Slash, he knew that he was still pathetically tiny before the Ancient Era's War Axe.

“Lord Father, are you alright?” At that moment, the War Clan's Clan Chief immediately arrived before Zhan Yuanmo.

As Zhan Yuanmo was, after all, his biological father, he was more concerned about his father's well-being than anything else.

“Rest assured, I am fine,” Zhan Yuanmo said with a smile. Furthermore, as he spoke, he took a glance at Chu Feng and said, “Young Hero Chu Feng's world spirit techniques are even more exquisite than I imagined them to be.”

At that moment, the War Clan's Clan Chief looked to Chu Feng again. Admiration filled his eyes.

The reason for that was because he was astonished to discover that while his father was indeed suffering from the effect of the extraction of a secret skill, the effect was extremely weak, and seemed to be not much different from their ancestor's grand formation.

It was at that moment that he truly realized that Chu Feng's world spirit techniques were truly grand.

“Are you all going to listen to my order?”

Right at that moment, a voice filled with imposing might resonated through heaven and earth.

It was the Ancient Era's War Axe!!!

Chapter 2468 – Forced Learning

---

Zhan Yuanmo knelt before the Ancient Era's War Axe and spoke loudly, "We, clansmen of the Ancient Era's War Clan, are willing to listen and obey Lord War Axe's orders."

"We are willing to listen and obey Lord War Axe's orders."

Immediately after, the others of the Ancient Era's War Clan also knelt before the Ancient Era's War Axe.

"Chu Feng, they were ungrateful toward you and returned your kindness with malice. Are you truly not planning to look further into this?" The Ancient Era's War Axe asked Chu Feng.

Sure enough, it had come out of Zhan Yuanmo for the sake of upholding justice for Chu Feng.

"Although they imprisoned me, they did not cause me harm. As such, it could be considered that they have taken our friendship into consideration."

"Furthermore, the Ancient Era's War Sword possesses a special significance to the Ancient Era's War Clan. I am able to understand their unwillingness for me to bring away the Ancient Era's War Sword."

"Thus, I had never planned to do anything to them from the very start," Chu Feng said.

"Very well. You are truly a heroic young man. Although you are very young, you actually possess such a vast heart. Someone like you is truly rare to come by," The Ancient Era's War Axe praised Chu Feng.

"Ancient Era's War Clansmen, listen up. While Chu Feng can refuse to look further into this, we cannot let this matter end like this. Else, we will truly become unrighteous and unjust."

"We must compensate Chu Feng. I propose that we bring all of our Ancient Era's War Clan's signature martial skills for Chu Feng to train. That will serve as our compensation to him," The Ancient Era's War Axe said.

"Ah? Bring our signature martial skills for Chu Feng to train in?! This!!!"

Hearing those words, the Ancient Era's War Clansmen were all astonished. One by one, they turned their gazes to Zhan Yuanmo.

After all, their Ancient Era's War Clan's martial skills were meant to only be taught to people of their Ancient Era's War Clan.

"Did you not hear what Lord War Axe said? Why are you all still standing here? Go and bring all of our signature martial skills immediately," Zhan Yuanmo said.

Seeing that even Zhan Yuanmo was in agreement, even though the others in the Ancient Era's War Clan were unwilling, they still found it difficult to refuse. Thus, soon, a group of people left to retrieve their Ancient Era's War Clan's martial skills.

Soon, those people returned, carrying giant steles.

Those steles were very special. They were most definitely not made of ordinary stones, as they all emitted the sensation of being indestructible.

However, most important would be the countless characters that were engraved onto the steles in a densely packed manner.

None of those were ordinary characters. One could not comprehend them using common sense. However, if one were to turn one's gaze to them, the characters would emit a faint glimmer.

From a single glance, Chu Feng was able to tell that the steles were martial skills. Each stele represented a single martial skill.

At that moment, thirteen steles were present. Among the thirteen, ten were Emperor Taboo Martial Skills, and the remaining three were Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills.

All of them were martial skills that the Ancient Era's War Clan would only teach their fellow clansmen.

Chu Feng did not bother to carefully examine the martial skills. However, he was able to tell with mere intuition that those martial skills were no small matter at all.

To put it briefly, those martial skills surpassed all of the martial skills that Chu Feng knew at the moment.

To be honest, Chu Feng was tempted. Faced with such powerful martial skills, how could Chu Feng not be tempted?

However, he was also able to tell that many of the Ancient Era's War Clansmen were merely forced by the Ancient Era's War Axe, and were not actually willing to hand those martial skills to him to learn.

"Chu Feng, with such a good thing before you, you must not refuse it. If you dare to refuse it, this Queen will break off all relations with you," Seemingly able to guess what Chu Feng was thinking, Her Lady Queen hurriedly spoke to urge him.

At that moment, Chu Feng was truly placed in a difficult situation. As he had already profited enormously in the Martial Comprehension Ground, he truly did not wish to make things difficult for the Ancient Era's War Clansmen and obtain benefits from the Ancient Era's War Clan again.

"Woosh~~~"

However, right at that moment, the Ancient Era's War Axe suddenly emitted an oppressive might. That oppressive might descended abruptly and formed a tornado. From inside to outside, it began to expand.

"Wuuahh~~~:

The next moment, the Ancient Era's War Clansmen were all knocked flying.

Soon, they were blown several meters away. Although they looked extremely sorry-looking as they were blown away, they all landed safe and sound without any injuries.

“This is?!” After landing, the crowd all revealed confused expressions.

They were surprised to discover that all of their Ancient Era’s War Clansmen were blown out. However, Chu Feng was not affected by that tornado.

Chu Feng was still standing there. Furthermore, the thirteen martial skill steles had also been placed before Chu Feng.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the Ancient Era’s War Axe emitted a ray of golden light.

Like a fort, the golden light enveloped Chu Feng and the thirteen steles.

At that moment, Chu Feng spoke to ask, “Senior War Axe, what are you intending to do?”

“Chu Feng, I know that you’re an affectionate and true individual. Thus, I was afraid that you would refuse. As such... I am going to force you to learn them.”

“I will let you out the moment you master all of these martial skills. Otherwise... I will trap you here for the rest of your life,” The Ancient Era’s War Axe said.

“Ah? Why... why would Lord War Axe... why would Lord War Axe act like this?” The Ancient Era’s War Clansmen were all stunned.

“Hahaha. Never would I have expected there to be such a good thing in this world. There’s actually someone who will force an outsider to learn the martial skills that they do not teach outsiders.”

“Interesting. Chu Feng, this Ancient Era’s War Axe is pretty decent. I am fond of its personality.” At that moment, Her Lady Queen was clapping her hands.

“This senior War Axe is indeed a bit too cordial,” Chu Feng had a wry smile on his face.

Originally, he was faced with the difficult decision as to whether or not he should accept the Ancient Era’s War Axe’s kind intentions and learn those martial skills.

However, there was now no need for him to be tangled up in that matter anymore, he simply had no ability to choose any longer.

At that moment, there was only a single path before Chu Feng. That is, he would have to master all of those Ancient Era’s War Clan’s martial skills.

“Now then, don’t bother standing there. Go on and quickly learn them. Don’t tell me you want to be trapped here for the rest of your life?” Her Lady Queen urged.

“Since that’s the case, senior War Axe and the seniors of the Ancient Era’s War Clan, this Chu Feng will accept your kind intentions.”

Chu Feng clasp his fist at the crowd. Then, he turned his gaze to the steles. Starting from the first one, he began to move his gaze over one after another. Once he started observing the steles, it lasted an entire hour. After that, Chu Feng sat down cross-legged and closed his eyes. No one knew what he was doing.

“Never would I have expected Lord War Axe to force big brother Chu Feng to learn those martial skills.”

“With this being the case, I’m afraid that big brother Chu Feng will likely be trapped in there for some time,” Zhan Lingtong said with a sigh.

“Don’t worry about it. With how extraordinarily talented benefactor is, even if those martial skills are difficult to grasp, he will definitely still be able to learn them very quickly,” Zhan Lingling said.

Zhan Lingtong was still unable to stop himself from sighing.

He naturally knew that Chu Feng possessed extraordinary talent. However, those martial skills were truly difficult to learn.

For example, one of the Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills among the thirteen martial skills took his father ten entire years to learn the basics, and a hundred years to master.

Thus, he felt that regardless of how talented Chu Feng might be, it would still take him several years to completely master all those martial skills.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly opened his tightly closed eyes. Then, he stood up and said to the Ancient Era’s War Axe, “Senior War Axe, you said that you’ll let me out the moment I master these martial skills, right?”

“That’s right,” The Ancient Era’s War Axe said.

“Then, senior, please validate this Chu Feng today,” Chu Feng said to Zhan Yuanmo.

“Validate? Validate what?” Zhan Yuanmo asked in a confused manner.

“It would naturally be as to whether or not the martial skills I’ve learned meets the standard of mastery,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s naturally not an issue. Merely, Young Hero Chu Feng, you said that you want me to validate today? But, learning those martial skills will at least take...” Zhan Yuanmo wanted to say that he could validate them for Chu Feng, but today would likely not do. After all, he felt that it would be impossible for Chu Feng to master all of those martial skills that same day.

“Zzzz~~~”

Right at that moment, golden lightning emerged on Chu Feng’s body.

The golden lightning were like serpents of lightning. As they revolved around Chu Feng, they formed a defensive barrier composed of golden lightnings.

“Heavens, that... that is!!!”

At that moment, the expressions of the Ancient Era’s War Clans’ men all changed enormously.

Even that Ancient Era’s War Axe in the sky was startled.

The reason for that was because what Chu Feng had unleashed was one of their Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Emperor Taboo Martial Skills by the name of Emperor Taboo: Golden Lightning Shield.

Chapter 2469 – Obtaining The War Axe

---

“Senior, is this Emperor Taboo: Golden Lightning Shield satisfactory?” With the Golden Lightning Shield around his body, Chu Feng turned to ask Zhan Yuanmo.

“It is. To be able to utilize the Golden Lightning Shield to such a degree, Young Hero Chu Feng has completely grasped the profoundness of the martial skill,” Zhan Yuanmo nodded repeatedly. Admiration and astonishment filled his eyes.

While the Emperor Taboo: Golden Lightning Shield was one of the relatively easier-to-learn martial skills among the thirteen martial skills, it was still truly unimaginable for Chu Feng to be able to grasp it in merely a short moment.

“Senior War Axe, what do you think?” Chu Feng asked.

“Mn, indeed, you have mastered this martial skill,” The Ancient Era’s War Axe spoke in praise.

“Since both seniors have acknowledged it, I will continue then,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he deactivated the Emperor Taboo: Golden Lightning Shield. Then, he unleashed another Emperor Taboo Martial Skill. This was also one of the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

After unleashing the second Emperor Taboo Martial Skill, Chu Feng continued to unleash more martial skills. In merely a short moment, Chu Feng had unleashed all thirteen martial skills.

“I’m... I’m not dreaming, right? This is for real?”

“Big sister, give me a slap on the face so that I can see if this is a dream or not,” Zhan Lingtong was so astonished that his mouth dropped wide open.

“It’s real. Merely... this is simply too unimaginable. Exactly how did benefactor manage to accomplish that?”

“Could it be that he is simply not a human, but is instead a god?” Zhan Lingling was also extremely astonished. Complicated emotions filled her beautiful eyes as she looked at Chu Feng.

At that moment, the great majority of the people present had the same sort of expression as Zhan Lingling. After all, they knew that all those martial skills were extremely difficult to learn.

Even the simplest Emperor Taboo: Golden Lightning Shield should not be able to be successfully mastered in such a short period of time.

Yet, Chu Feng had actually managed to completely grasp all thirteen martial skills. He was able to even skillfully unleash the three Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills.

Thus, they felt that ... it was definitely not something that an ordinary person could accomplish.

Chu Feng was naturally not a god. There were mainly two aspects as to why he was able to grasp those martial skills so quickly.

Firstly, Chu Feng’s current cultivation was that of a rank seven Martial Ancestor. For the current Chu Feng, regardless of whether it might be his body’s tolerance toward martial skills or his control over martial power, they had both reached a state where he could easily handle those martial skills.

As for the reason why Chu Feng was able to unleash those martial skills after knowing the method of training and attaining even greater mastery than those who had spent hundreds of years learning those martial skills, it would be because... of the second aspect.

This was also the most important aspect. That is, within Chu Feng’s dantian was a bamboo slip that emitted the aura of the Ancient Era.

That bamboo slip had allowed Chu Feng to have a whole new level of understanding toward martial skills. It led to Chu Feng’s martial skills being stronger than others of the same level.

Most importantly, after Chu Feng experienced the backlash from the Evil God Sword, that Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip became even more powerful, and allowed Chu Feng to have a more incisive understanding of martial skills.

As long as Chu Feng reached a cultivation where he could control a certain martial skill, he would be able to immediately learn that martial skill should he see it.

At that moment, not only had Chu Feng grasped the Ancient Era's War Clan's thirteen martial skills, he had also managed to completely grasp the Kong Heavenly Clan's martial skills, including that Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement!!!

"Never would I have expected that you would be able to grasp everything so quickly."

"No wonder Lord War Sword chose you. After all, your accomplishments are truly astonishing."

At that moment, not only were the crowd exclaiming in admiration, even that high, remote and majestic Ancient Era's War Axe was praising Chu Feng.

"Chu Feng, for you to be able to grasp all those martial skills in such a short period of time, it is most definitely not because of your innate comprehension ability. You must have encountered an enormous chance opportunity, right?" The Ancient Era's War Axe asked.

"Enormous chance opportunity?" Chu Feng's heart moved. Indeed, when he had obtained the Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip, he knew that it was a chance opportunity.

However, back then, Chu Feng was only concerned about obtaining cultivation resources so that he could quickly increase his cultivation. Back then, the Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip could not be considered to be an enormous chance opportunity.

However, things were completely different now. Before the current Chu Feng, the Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip was brimming with mysteriousness and inestimable power.

Furthermore, what the Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip had bestowed him were indeed not things that cultivation resources could ever bestow him. Perhaps it was as the Ancient Era's War Axe had said, and the Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip was indeed an enormous chance opportunity that Chu Feng had encountered.

"I do not care what sort of chance opportunity you've encountered. However, those that have encountered an enormous chance opportunity possess great fortune."

"Since ancient times, experts might all have different experiences. However, one thing was identical about them. That is, they all possessed great fortune."

"And you, you already possess this most important aspect to becoming a grand expert. That is, fortune," The Ancient Era's War Axe said to Chu Feng.

"Great fortune? No wonder Young Hero Chu Feng is so powerful," At that moment, the Ancient Era's War Clan's men felt more and more admiration and envy toward Chu Feng.

While their talent might be inferior to Chu Feng's, it turned out now that even their fortune was inferior to Chu Feng's. As such, how could they not feel envious, not feel admiration, for Chu Feng?

Suddenly, the Ancient Era's War Axe asked Chu Feng, "I am unwilling to guard this place and live the rest of my life all holed up. Chu Feng, can you bring me out of here to fight in the vast starry sky, in the boundless Outer World?"

"Milord, what are you...?!!!"

The Ancient Era's War Clansmen were all astonished upon hearing those words. They had expressions as if they had been fed feces. They truly never expected that the Ancient Era's War Axe would want to follow Chu Feng and leave this place.

"Senior, you?" Not to mention the others, even Chu Feng was feeling extremely surprised.

"I'm going to consider that you've agreed to it," However, before Chu Feng could finish his words, the Ancient Era's War Axe turned into a golden ray and entered Chu Feng's forehead.

"Buzz~~~"

The next moment, Chu Feng felt the power of the Ancient Era's War Axe. That power was now under his control.

"Wow! Chu Feng, you've truly profited enormously today! You actually obtained another Ancient Era's secret skill."

"Didn't you say that it was still very difficult for you to control the Ancient Era's War Sword with your current power? What about this Ancient Era's War Axe?"

"This Ancient Era's War Axe shouldn't be that hard to control, right? After all, even that old man was capable of using it. You should also be able to use it at will, right?" Her Lady Queen was endlessly excited.

As for Chu Feng, even though he was extremely surprised, he was also feeling very delighted.

It was as Her Lady Queen had said, although the Ancient Era's War Sword was very strong, it was too powerful. Even if Chu Feng could force himself to use the Ancient Era's War Sword, he would not be able to unleash its true power.

However, this Ancient Era's War Axe was different. Although it was much weaker than the Ancient Era's War Sword, it did not have an extremely high requirement for its user. At the very least, Chu Feng would be able to use the Ancient Era's War Axe right now.

Thus, to Chu Feng, obtaining the Ancient Era's War Axe was a great thing.

Merely, Chu Feng still felt hesitant. He did not know whether or not the Ancient Era's War Clan would agree to him bringing the Ancient Era's War Axe away.

After all, the Ancient Era's War Spear had already been taken away by Zhan Haichuan.

Right now, only two secret skills remained in the Ancient Era's War Clan.

Now that Chu Feng had come, he was going to bring both of them away. To the Ancient Era's War Clan, this would be an enormous loss.

“This!!!”

“What do we do about this?”

“Milord, say... what should we do?”

“Lord War Axe is truly...”

Sure enough, the Ancient Era's War Clan was in utter chaos.

This was especially true for the elders; they all had depressed expressions on their faces. Evidently, they were unable to accept it.

“This is Lord War Axe's decision. What can we possibly do? Are we to demand Lord War Axe from Young Hero Chu Feng?”

“If we were to do that, we would've gone against Lord War Axe's desires. We absolutely cannot do such a thing,” Zhan Yuanmo said.

“But, Milord, if we are to do that, our Ancient Era's War Clan will not have a single secret skill remaining. We will become the same as the Monstrous Clan. What are we supposed to pass on to our future generations?” An elder said.

“Indeed. What you all say is very correct. Without the secret skills, we will have lost a type of inheritance.”

“However, you all should understand this. At the very least, our Ancient Era’s War Clan still exists right now. Don’t you all know why our Ancient Era’s War Clan is still able to exist?”

“When all is said and done, is it our lives that are more important, or the secret skills that are more important?!” Zhan Yuanmo asked with a cold tone.

Hearing those words, the elders grew silent. They would naturally not have forgotten that if it wasn’t for Chu Feng, they would’ve already been exterminated by the Ancient Era’s Monstrous Clan. At that time, they wouldn’t have been able to pass on anything to future generations.

By remembering that Chu Feng had saved them, they also remembered that Chu Feng was no longer comparable to back then. If Chu Feng was to refuse to hand over the secret skills to them, what could they possibly do about it?

Thus, since the Ancient Era’s War Axe had decided to follow Chu Feng, it was already Chu Feng’s possession. There was no way for them to retrieve it.

Right at the moment when everyone was silent, Zhan Yuanmo walked over to Chu Feng. With an apologetic expression on his face, he clasped his fist at Chu Feng, “Young Hero Chu Feng, this old man understands very well why Lord War Axe has chosen you.”

“Merely, this old man has a presumptuous request. I wonder if Young Hero Chu Feng might be willing to agree to it?”

Chapter 2470 – Returning To The Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm

---

“Fuck! What is this old man trying to do? He couldn’t possibly be thinking of having you renounce the Ancient Era’s War Axe, right?”

“I had originally thought that he was different from the others. Turns out, he’s the most shameless of them all,” Her Lady Queen spoke in a very disgusted manner.

“Eggy, don’t think of such a thing. I don’t think this senior is such an individual,” Chu Feng started to calm Eggy. Then, with a very polite tone, he said to Zhan Yuanmo, “Senior, please speak.”

“In that case, Young Hero Chu Feng, I will speak frankly. Both the Ancient Era’s War Sword and the Ancient Era’s War Axe are our Ancient Era’s War Clan’s secret skills that have been passed on for many generations.”

“Although they have chosen you, it remains that they belong to our Ancient Era’s War Clan.”

“If in the future, when you no longer need the Ancient Era’s War Sword and the Ancient Era’s War Axe anymore, I hope that... you will not pass them on to others, and instead pass them on to the descendants of our Ancient Era’s War Clan,” Zhan Yuanmo said.

It turned out that Zhan Yuanmo was not planning to demand the secret skills right away. Instead, he approved of Chu Feng obtaining the two great secret skills.

He merely wanted Chu Feng to return them to the Ancient Era’s War Clan if he no longer needed them in the future.

“Of course. This Chu Feng will definitely do that,” Chu Feng nodded.

“Thank you for your trouble,” Seeing that Chu Feng had agreed to it, Zhan Yuanmo revealed a smile of ease.

Then, Chu Feng began to chat with Zhan Yuanmo and the others about many things. Once they began, they chatted for an entire night.

When the second day arrived, Chu Feng began to bid his farewells to the crowd.

As Chu Feng did not belong there, he would naturally not stay there forever. He would have to return to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm soon.

As for the people of the War Clan's Ancient Domain, they could not find any reason to stop Chu Feng from leaving either. Merely....

When their ancestor created the War Clan's Ancient Domain, he had sealed it off. That was also the reason why the people of the Ancient Era's War Clan and the Ancient Era's Monstrous Clan had been trapped there the entire time.

Although Chu Feng had already revealed his extraordinary talent and made the people of the Ancient Era's War Clan feel full admiration and adoration for him, they were still unable to determine whether or not Chu Feng would be able to leave the War Clan's Ancient Domain.

Only Chu Feng was filled with confidence in himself. Since he was able to come in, he felt that he would definitely be able to leave.

At that moment, Chu Feng and the people from the Ancient Era's War Clan all arrived at the place where Chu Feng had fallen when he had arrived in the War Clan's Ancient Domain, the place where Chu Feng had first encountered Zhan Lingtong.

“Lingtong, I will be leaving. In the future... if you ever decide to try leaving this place, you must choose this location,” Chu Feng said to Zhan Lingtong.

“Big brother Chu Feng, you mean to say that this place is the weakest location in the War Clan’s Ancient Domain?” Zhan Lingtong asked.

“No, this is not the weakest place. If the space above the War Clan’s Ancient Domain is a fort, then the space above here is a gate.”

“Unless one possesses overwhelming power capable of cutting through the barrier sealing this place... this would be the only place where one can go out from,” Chu Feng said to Zhan Lingtong.

As Chu Feng’s world spirit techniques grew stronger, his Heaven’s Eyes had also grown stronger. In the beginning, he was unable to see the spirit formation above that place. However at that moment, he was able to faintly see it. Furthermore, he had managed to find the exit to that spirit formation.

“No wonder. No wonder our clan’s clansmen were simply unable to leave,” Hearing those words, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen all came to a sudden realization.

“That said, even with that being the case, one will not be able to leave without sufficient cultivation,” Chu Feng said.

“Then, big brother Chu Feng, what level of cultivation must one need in order to exit?” Zhan Lingtong hurriedly asked.

“Their cultivation must be at least that of a Martial Ancestor. However, one’s talent is also related to this. Thus, it is very hard to judge.”

“That said, Lingtong, I will advise you of this: the world outside is much more dangerous than here. Unless you feel that the War Clan’s Ancient Domain is truly unable to contain you any longer, it would be best for you to continue to stay here with your clansmen,” Chu Feng said to Zhan Lingtong.

Chu Feng felt that Zhan Lingtong was a very good child.

However, both his temperament and his current strength were unsuited for the world outside.

“I got it, big brother Chu Feng. After hearing about the outside world from you, I actually also feel that staying in the War Clan’s Ancient Domain with my family is pretty good.”

“That said, big brother Chu Feng, you must take care of yourself. If possible, please come back to visit us frequently,” Zhan Lingtong said to Chu Feng. Reluctance filled his eyes as he looked at Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was not merely a friend to him, he was also his idol.

“If possible, I will definitely return to visit everyone.”

“Everyone, take care,” Chu Feng clasped his fist at the crowd.

Then, Chu Feng stepped forth and soared into the air. Like a water dragon leaving the sea, he shot straight toward the sky.

At that moment, the Ancient Era’s War Clansmen were all closely watching Chu Feng with fixed gazes.

Contained in their eyes were worry, doubt and reluctance to part.

Although Chu Feng possessed outstanding talent, they were still unable to be certain as to whether or not Chu Feng would be able to leave the War Clan’s Ancient Domain.

After all, this was a grand formation set up by their ancestor.

However, Chu Feng soon disappeared. It was not that Chu Feng had flown beyond the crowd’s line of sight, but rather that he had truly disappeared. It was as if he had entered another world.

“Young Hero Chu Feng seems to have succeeded,” Zhan Yuanmo said.

At that moment, the majority of the people were all thinking of the same thing as Zhan Yuanmo; they all felt that Chu Feng had succeeded.

However, upon ascertaining that Chu Feng had successfully left, they started to feel a sense of loss.

As for the reason why, they each had their respective reasons.

Some people felt that Chu Feng's existence would bring about change to the War Clan's Ancient Domain, that Chu Feng leaving would cause the War Clan's Ancient Domain to have a lot less joy.

There were also people that were purely reluctant to part with Chu Feng. Examples of such would be the siblings Zhan Lingtong and Zhan Lingling.

Of course, there were also a lot of people who were reluctant to part with their Ancient Era's War Clan's secret skills.

However, Chu Feng had really left...

Chu Feng was currently in another world.

He was floating in midair. Below him was a vast plain. That vast plain was very desolate and uninhabited. There was not even a single plant to be seen.

Chu Feng descended from the sky and stood on the plain. He was unable to discover anything extraordinary regarding that place.

Even when he activated his Heaven's Eyes, Chu Feng was unable to find anything extraordinary.

However, Chu Feng knew that he had truly left the War Clan's Ancient Domain, and returned to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

"That Ancient Era's War Clan's senior was truly extraordinarily powerful. If I hadn't experienced it myself, I truly would never have believed a War Clan's Ancient Domain was hidden above this vast plain," Chu Feng gasped with admiration.

"Stop being so moved about the War Clan's Ancient Domain. What you need to make sure of right now is the current situation in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm," Her Lady Queen said.

“That’s true. Although two years is not long, it is not short either.”

“To some people, they will not be able to make any progress in cultivation in two years’ time. Thus, a period of two years is simply of no significance.”

“However, to other people, they are able to accomplish a lot in two years’ time.”

“Among the latter are Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. I wonder what their cultivations are now,” Chu Feng exclaimed.

“That’s not like you. Shouldn’t you worry about your two friends’ safety? Why are you instead worried about their cultivation?” Her Lady Queen said in a very astonished manner.

“Although I have completely offended the Kong Heavenly Clan, and Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong will definitely be implicated by it, I trust them.”

“The two of them are not fools. They will definitely be able to protect themselves,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s true. However, shouldn’t you be worrying about the situation of the Kong Heavenly Clan then?”

“Back then, those bastards of the Kong Heavenly Clan treated you very badly. They are simply too excessive. Although you nearly exterminated them all by borrowing the strength of the Evil God Sword, it remains something that the Evil God Sword did, and not you.”

“I feel that you should go and personally teach them a lesson. You should let them know that you, Chu Feng, are not that easily bullied,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Indeed, I must settle the debt with the Kong Heavenly Clan. However, we can place this matter to the side for now. I must first find Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong,” Chu Feng said.

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng’s gaze suddenly shifted. He immediately turned around and looked behind him.

At that moment, there was no motion in the direction that Chu Feng looked. However, Chu Feng was able to see something completely different.

There was a large group of people majestically rushing toward his location.

Chapter 2471 – Encountering An Old Friend

---

“This group of people should be from the same power. This is a perfect opportunity, I can ask them about the situation in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

As Chu Feng wanted to ask them about the situation in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he decided to stop and wait for them to arrive.

Then, as he was bored, he began to read their lips to see what they were talking about.

It was as Chu Feng had guessed: those people were from the same power. They were from a place called the Jade Mountain Sect.

The Sect Master of the Jade Mountain Sect was an old man with a cultivation of rank four Martial Ancestor.

At that moment, the Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master had gathered practically all of their elites. With him personally leading them, they were moving to suppress a hostile power.

When they mentioned that hostile power, they mentioned a person’s name.

Chu Feng was surprised to see that name.

“Liu Xiaoli?”

Chu Feng was extremely familiar with that name. The reason for that was because the Society Master of the Red Butterfly Society was named Liu Xiaoli.

Furthermore, from the conversations of the Jade Mountain Sect members, Chu Feng found out that the Liu Xiaoli they were talking about was also a woman.

Furthermore, she possessed the cultivation of a rank two Martial Ancestor, a cultivation very close to that of the Liu Xiaoli Chu Feng knew.

When Chu Feng had left Liu Xiaoli back then, she had only been a rank one Martial Ancestor. However, she possessed outstanding talent. Thus, it was very possible for her to be a rank two Martial Ancestor at the moment.

“Perhaps it might just be a coincidence. There are countless people in the world with the same name and surname.”

“Furthermore, no matter where the Red Butterfly Society’s bunch move to, they couldn’t possibly have moved to here, no?” Her Lady Queen said.

“Perhaps it is a coincidence, but might also not be a coincidence. After all, their descriptions of Liu Xiaoli resemble the Liu Xiaoli that we know too much. Since I’ve encountered this matter, I will go and have a look,” After Chu Feng finished saying these words, he entered the void and concealed himself.

With Chu Feng’s current level of cultivation, if he wanted to conceal himself, it would be very difficult for anyone below the True Immortal level of cultivation to discover him.

Soon, the group of people from the Jade Mountain Sect moved past Chu Feng and continued onward.

They had not discovered in the slightest that someone had been hiding in the void and then snuck into their ranks, following them.

Following that group of people, Chu Feng soon passed through the vast plain and arrived at a great mountain.

Through observing with his Heaven’s Eyes, Chu Feng discovered that there was a sect inside the mountain.

That sect did not possess many people, and also contained very few palaces. Furthermore, everything was very new. Likely, it had all been recently constructed.

At that moment, the sect was surrounded by five different powers.

Thus, Chu Feng was able to tell that the Jade Mountain Sect that he had followed should have come to besiege and attack that sect.

Adding them all up, there were a total of six powers besieging and attacking that sect.

Fortunately, the two sides were only standing in confrontation at that moment. and had yet to actually start battling.

However, as that sect was currently facing enemies on all sides by itself, it did appear that it was facing imminent danger.

That said, that sect master's expression actually remained unchanged even though they were besieged by five powers and five rank three Martial Ancestors.

Most importantly, that sect's master only possessed the cultivation of a rank two Martial Ancestor.

Compared to the masters of the five powers, that sect's master was a level of cultivation weaker.

Most importantly, that sect master was a female.

While her appearance was different from Liu Xiaoli, Chu Feng was able to recognize with a single glance that she was Liu Xiaoli. She had merely altered her appearance.

Not only had Liu Xiaoli altered her appearance, but the elders standing beside her were actually also the Red Butterfly Society's elders. Merely, they too altered their appearances like Liu Xiaoli.

"It really is them," After ascertaining that it was Liu Xiaoli, Chu Feng was overjoyed.

After all, it could be said that he had experienced life and death with Liu Xiaoli and the others. How could Chu Feng not be overjoyed to run into them again?

"What a coincidence, it really is them." At that moment, Her Lady Queen was also very surprised. As she spoke, one could actually feel excitement in her tone.

After all, back then, Chu Feng had only just arrived in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. His cultivation was still very weak back then. Furthermore, things were made difficult for him by Luyang's Pavilion. Yet, at such a time, the Red Butterfly Society had offered him a helping hand.

That said, while she was happy, Her Lady Queen also started to ponder. She looked to the banner floating above Liu Xiaoli's sect, the banner with the name of 'De-cocoon Sect' and said, "Why would they change their name from Red Butterfly Society to De-cocoon Sect? Could it be that their strength has suffered greatly after what happened last time, and they are thus planning to break free from their cocoons for a rebirth?"

"Wouldn't we know when we ask them about it?" As Chu Feng spoke, he suddenly accelerated. In a blink of an eye, he entered the mountain and arrived before Liu Xiaoli and the others.

However, Chu Feng did not immediately reveal himself. Rather, he stood beside his old friend.

He wanted to see exactly what the group of powers that surrounded Liu Xiaoli and the others wanted to do. He also wanted to make sure of what was going on first.

"Liu Xiaoli, bring your De-cocoon Sect and leave Mount Modang immediately. Do that, and we will consider nothing to have happened."

"Otherwise, do not blame us for being impolite," The masters of the five powers said to Liu Xiaoli.

"Impolite? I wish to see how you all plan to be impolite toward me."

As Liu Xiaoli spoke, a majestic aura swept forth from her body. The next moment, the sky changed color.

It was Divine Power. After Liu Xiaoli unleashed her Divine

Power, her cultivation increased from rank two Martial Ancestor to rank three Martial Ancestor.

She had reached the same level of cultivation as the masters of those five powers.

However, most importantly, Liu Xiaoli's aura was not only limited to that of a rank three Martial Ancestor.

Apart from her cultivation of rank three Martial Ancestor, Liu Xiaoli was also emitting heaven-defying battle power. Although her heaven-defying battle power was only capable of surmounting one level of cultivation, when added to her current cultivation of rank three Martial Ancestor, her actual battle power was on par with ordinary rank four Martial Ancestors.

“Sure enough, that girl was concealing her strength.”

Upon sensing Liu Xiaoli's cultivation, not to mention the others that were besieging her sect, even the masters of the five powers involuntarily moved backwards and revealed fear on their faces.

“Are you all still planning to drive me out now?” Liu Xiaoli asked coldly.

However, her question was not met with a single answer from the five powers.

“Everyone, our De-cocoon Sect has decided to establish ourselves here because we discovered that Mount Modang was uninhabited.”

“Furthermore, the world of martial cultivation is a world where the weak are prey to the strong. Our De-cocoon Sect has merely expanded our territory slightly, and did not attempt to devour you all, our neighboring powers. As such, we were already being extremely benevolent and attentive.”

“Thus, it is best that you all not continue to be so aggressive. Else... it will not be you who will be impolite toward our De-cocoon Sect, but rather us who will be impolite towards you,” Liu Xiaoli said to the crowd.

After hearing those words, Chu Feng finally realized why those powers had joined hands to besiege Liu Xiaoli and the others.

As it turned out, it was due to a territorial conflict.

Evidently, Liu Xiaoli had only arrived recently, whereas those powers that were besieging her were most likely old and well-known powers in the vicinity.

They felt that the appearance of Liu Xiaoli and her sect served as a threat to their status. Thus, they had decided to besiege Liu Xiaoli and the others.

However, after Liu Xiaoli revealed her strength, those five powers all revealed fear.

Although they possessed very great numbers, they knew very well that the world of martial cultivation was one where not just numbers could determine the outcome of a battle.

Merely Liu Xiaoli by herself would be able to exterminate all of the elites of their five powers.

However, even with that being the case, they did not leave immediately. Rather, they seemed to be waiting for something.

Chapter 2472 – Acting On Behalf Of Justice

---

“You’re still not leaving? Do you all insist on having me teach you a lesson?”

Seeing that their opponents were still thinking about continuing to tangle with them, Liu Xiaoli revealed an impatient expression.

“What arrogance! Our Jade Mountain Sect shall see exactly how you’re going to teach us a lesson.”

Right at that moment, a stern shout was heard from outside the mountain.

Immediately afterward, a group of people majestically charged toward the mountain.

Upon seeing that group of people, the five powers that’d grown fearful immediately revealed joyous expressions. Evidently, their reinforcements had arrived.

As for that group of people, they were precisely the group that Chu Feng had followed over, the Jade Mountain Sect’s troops.

Chu Feng had already known that those people from the Jade Mountain Sect were there to take care of Liu Xiaoli.

Merely, he did not expect that the Jade Mountain Sect was actually the main force in the expedition against Liu Xiaoli.

However, upon thinking about it, Chu Feng found it reasonable. After all, that Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master was a rank four Martial Ancestor.

Although a rank four Martial Ancestor was simply unworthy of being mentioned before the current Chu Feng, a rank four Martial Ancestor was someone that Liu Xiaoli and the others from the Butterfly Society could not look down upon.

Thus, upon seeing that group of people, even Liu Xiaoli was unable to remain calm and collected.

“Big brother, you’ve finally arrived.”

“This De-cocoon Sect is simply too stubborn. I’m afraid that I will have to inconvenience you, big brother.”

Upon seeing the Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master, the masters of the five powers reacted as if they were seeing their own father.

They immediately discovered backing and grew confident. One by one, they started to voice their grievances to that Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master.

“Don’t mention it anymore, I’ve already seen everything,” The Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master waved his hand. Then, like an emperor moving out to personally investigate, he arrogantly arrived before Liu Xiaoli and looked at her with a gaze filled with contempt.

As for what left Chu Feng the most speechless, it was that when the Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master stopped, the elders behind him actually took out a jade seat and placed it behind him.

That Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master was actually not even planning to stand in this confrontation against Liu Xiaoli. Instead, he was planning to confront her while sitting. He was acting as if he was truly an emperor holding a trial against an ordinary commoner.

Rarely had Chu Feng ever encountered such an arrogant individual in his entire cultivation history.

Liu Xiaoli spoke to ask, “Jade Mountain Sect, I seem to recall that this matter is unrelated to you all, no?” Merely, she no longer possessed the confidence she did earlier. It could be seen that Liu Xiaoli was afraid of that Jade Mountain Sect.

“Unrelated? How could it be unrelated? The five of them are my sworn brothers,” As the Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master spoke, he took out a long tobacco pipe.

He began to casually light his tobacco while speaking indifferently, “Liu Xiaoli, since you’re a woman, I do not wish to make things difficult for you. Immediately take your bunch of shrimp soldiers and crab generals and scam from here. Do that, and I’ll consider nothing to have happened.”

“You!!!” Hearing those words, Liu Xiaoli and the crowd beside her all revealed angry scowls. However, they did not break out in anger. Instead, they forced themselves to contain their anger.

“What is this? Seeing from your unreconciled expressions, could it be that you want to fight against me?”

“Don’t say that I am looking down on you, but even if you possess heaven-defying battle power that allows you to contend against rank four Martial Ancestors, so what? In the end, you are still not a rank four Martial Ancestor. Thus, you are destined to not be a match for me.”

“Even if you are to be enormously fortunate to fight me to a draw and make me retreat today, have you considered tomorrow?”

“This old man has a vast amount of friends here. If you are to truly offend me, the next time I come, I will definitely not be coming alone.”

“At that time, I will not be simply driving you all out of here. Instead, I will be exterminating your entire De-cocoon Sect,” The Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master spoke those words filled with threatening intent.

Hearing those words, Liu Xiaoli and the people beside her all had a change of expression. Their faces started to twist, and fear emerged in their eyes.

They were actually really scared by that old man’s threats.

“Clap, clap, clap~~~”

Right at that moment, clapping sounds were suddenly heard.

“Great. Your ability to boast is truly great.”

Following the clapping, a voice filled with mockery was heard.

At that moment, the Jade Mountain Sect's Sect Master grew furious, whereas Liu Xiaoli and the others were greatly surprised.

The reason for that was because that voice came from their side. All of them subconsciously thought that someone from Liu Xiaoli's side was mocking the Jade Mountain Sect's Sect Master.

“You all are truly ones to refuse the face given to you!”

The Jade Mountain Sect's Sect Master was extremely furious. He stood up abruptly and unleashed his rank four Martial Ancestor's oppressive might to cover the entire sky. At the same time, his overwhelming killing intent caused the sky to darken, and black clouds to surge about.

Witnessing that scene, the crowd from the Red Butterfly Society all started to panic.

They had heard about the Jade Mountain Sect's Sect Master before. That was the reason why they did not wish to fight against him. Yet now, with what had just happened, it would appear that they must fight against him. As for that, it was not what they desired.

“I am the one who spoke earlier. If you have the ability, come and settle it with me.”

Right at that moment, a figure suddenly appeared out of thin air. That figure appeared beside Liu Xiaoli.

Seeing that person, the crowd present all revealed an astonished expression.

That person was naturally Chu Feng. Merely, Chu Feng did not wish to unleash a massacre. Thus... he did not reveal his true appearance.

Not to mention the people from the Jade Mountain Sect and the other five powers, even Liu Xiaoli and the others from the Red Butterfly Society had no idea who Chu Feng was.

“Who are you?” The Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master asked with a cold voice.

“Who I am is not important. You all merely need to know that you are to immediately scam from this place and never cause trouble for the De-cocoon Sect again. If you are to do that, you all can still live. Else... you shall shoulder the consequences yourself,” Chu Feng said.

“What arrogance. Who do you think you are? What makes you think...” The Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master spoke mockingly.

“Rumble~~~”

However, before he could finish his words, Chu Feng unleashed his aura.

Although Chu Feng’s rank seven Martial Ancestor level aura was formless, it was an impressive display of power. Chu Feng’s aura lingered in the mountain and covered all of heaven and earth.

“This aura... you... you... you’re a rank seven Martial Ancestor?”

Upon sensing Chu Feng’s aura, not to mention the others, even the Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master turned pale with fright.

“Putt~~~”

Suddenly, that previously extremely arrogant Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master actually knelt before Chu Feng.

“Milord, I was blind, I have eyes but failed to recognize Mount Tai. Earlier, I spoke rudely, and actually spoke against Milord.”

“Milord, please be magnanimous and take into consideration that this lowly one has managed to recognize his mistake and spare me this once,” The Jade Mountain Sect’s Sect Master actually began to beg for forgiveness.

“Milord, please spare us. We will no longer dare to create trouble for the De-cocoon Sect again.”

The others of the Jade Mountain Sect, as well as everyone from the other five powers, all knelt on the ground and began to kowtow to Chu Feng. With extremely apologetic expressions, they began to beg Chu Feng for forgiveness.

They were already covered with tears and shivering nonstop. They were truly frightened by Chu Feng.

However, that could also not be blamed on them. Although they acted so tyrannically, they were still only a bunch of third rate powers.

To them, a rank seven Martial Ancestor was someone that they absolutely could not afford to provoke.

As Chu Feng did not plan to bicker with them, he did not make things difficult for them and merely said one word, "Scram."

Hearing that word, those people reacted as if they had been saved. They did not dare to stay any longer. They began to express their thanks toward Chu Feng for sparing their lives and then hurriedly soared into the sky to escape far away.

In the blink of an eye, the vast group of people had all disappeared from the mountain. They had all escaped far away.

That said, the people from the Red Butterfly Society all had dumbfounded expressions on their faces.

They truly could not understand why that expert would help them. After all, they did not believe that they knew someone so powerful.

Thus, they felt that it must be that an expert had coincidentally passed by and was unable to tolerate what was happening. That was why he had decided to act righteously to help them.

Thus, Liu Xiaoli arrived before Chu Feng and said to him with an extremely grateful expression on her face, "Junior Liu Xiaoli, the De-cocoon Sect's Sect Master, thanks senior for saving us."

“De-cocoon Sect?” At that moment, Chu Feng chuckled. Then, he said, “Aren’t you all the Red Butterfly Society?”

Chapter 2473 – Current Situation

---

“.....”

Once the name ‘Red Butterfly Society’ was said, the expressions of Liu Xiaoli and the others changed enormously.

They had expressions of horror on their faces. After all, there was a reason why they had changed their name. Furthermore, as the Red Butterfly Society was only a tier three power, there shouldn’t be a lot of people who knew of them.

While they were horrified, Liu Xiaoli did not dare to express any rudeness toward that unknown yet incomparably powerful individual before her.

Instead, in a very respectful manner, she asked, “Senior, who exactly might you be? How did you know about the Red Butterfly Society?”

“You ask how I know about the Red Butterfly Society?” As Chu Feng spoke, he removed his conical bamboo hat and revealed his appearance.

“Chu Feng?!” Upon seeing Chu Feng, both Liu Xiaoli and the people behind her revealed stunned expressions.

First they were shocked. However, their shocked expressions were immediately followed with expressions of ecstasy. They were simply in even greater joy than finding treasures.

“Chu Feng, it’s you? You’re not dead?!!!”

Liu Xiaoli was so excited that her body started to shake. She no longer showed any of her previous cautiousness. Instead, like seeing an old friend, she arrived before Chu Feng and patted his arm.

At that moment, Chu Feng discovered that even though Liu Xiaoli had an enormous smile on her face, the corners of her eyes were already wet.

“Who said I’m dead? Aren’t I still living and active?” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“But, two years ago when you fought against the Kong Heavenly Clan, no one knew what happened to you, and you disappeared. Thus, everyone felt that you were seriously injured in the battle, and died afterwards.”

“There were even people who declared that your corpse had been found,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“Found my corpse? Never would I have expected the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm to be so proficient in spreading false rumors,” The smile on Chu Feng’s face grew even wider.

“Regardless, it is great that little friend Chu Feng is fine, great that little friend Chu Feng is fine.”

The Red Butterfly Society’s elders were all overjoyed. They were smiling so intensely that their aged faces became filled with wrinkles like a bunch of steamed stuffed buns. One could see how happy they were.

“Chu Feng, where have you gone during the past two years? Furthermore, your cultivation... isn’t the speed at which you reach breakthroughs simply too fast? How did you become a rank seven Martial Ancestor already?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

She still remembered the time when she had first met Chu Feng. Back then, Chu Feng was much weaker than her.

Yet now, Chu Feng had become much stronger than her. She felt that she no longer had the chance to overtake Chu Feng.

“Lady Society Master, this is nothing. Back then, little friend Chu Feng fought against the Kong Heavenly Clan by himself. Furthermore, it was said that little friend Chu Feng held a Demon Armament in his hand, easily killed the Kong Heavenly Clan’s True Immortals, and nearly brought about the extermination of the entire Kong Heavenly Clan,” an elder of the Red Butterfly Society said. When mentioning that matter, he had a proud expression on his face. It was as if Chu Feng was his relative, a relative that he could be immensely proud of.

“Right, right, right. That matter spread like wildfire. Furthermore, it was said that many people witnessed it. Thus, it was most definitely not an exaggeration.”

“Chu Feng, exactly how did you accomplish that, how were you able to kill True Immortals?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

At that moment, she reacted as if she had countless questions for Chu Feng that she was impatient to know the answer to.

“It is a long story. To put it simply, the me from back then possessed a cultivation much weaker than now.”

“As I was only a Half Martial Ancestor back then, it was true that I was only able to contend against the Kong Heavenly Clan by relying on a Demon Armament.”

“However, I cannot frequently make use of that Demon Armament. Thus, unless I am forced into a corner, I will rely on my own cultivation.”

“During the past two years, I have been in closed-door training. That is why I managed to obtain my current level of cultivation,” Chu Feng said to Liu Xiaoli and the others.

That said, he did not reveal everything to them, and had still concealed certain things. For example, he did not mention the fact that the Evil God Sword would cause a backlash against him, and the fact that he had been in closed-door training in the War Clan’s Ancient Domain for the past two years.

After all, it was difficult to fathom a person’s mind. While he trusted Liu Xiaoli, he was unable to trust everyone present.

This is precisely what is meant by ‘one should not have a heart to harm others, but one must have a heart to guard against others.’”

“In that case, the rumors are all true. You really managed to rely on a Demon Armament to nearly eliminate the entire Kong Heavenly Clan?”

“Chu Feng, you are simply too amazing. I knew that you were amazing, but never would I have expected you to be this amazing.”

“What sort of place is the Kong Heavenly Clan? It is one of the strongest powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Did you know that the strength of the Kong Heavenly Clan has suffered enormously because of you alone? They no longer possess the arrogance that they did back then.”

“Right now, you’ve become one of the most legendary individuals in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. If people were to find out that you’re still alive, it would definitely create a great disturbance.”

“Do you know how many powers will try to rope you in with them? How many people will try to become your disciple?”

“Those things are simply unimaginable.”

“After all, you have already become the target of admiration for countless seniors, the idol of countless juniors.”

After hearing what Chu Feng said, the crowd grew even more excited. It would be one thing for someone of Liu Xiaoli’s age to act so excited. Yet, the original management elders of the Red Butterfly Society, those elderly individuals who had lived for countless years, were actually unable to contain their emotions like a bunch of kids.

Suddenly, an elder spoke, “Oh, that’s right. It is not only you who has become extremely famous, your two friends have also become extremely famous now.”

“You’re talking about Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong?” Chu Feng asked.

“Right, those two,” That elder answered.

“How are Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong doing now?” Chu Feng hurriedly asked. This was actually what he was concerned about the most.

“The two of them are also extremely amazing right now. While I do not know their exact cultivations, they have been deemed to be demon-level geniuses capable of being equally as famous as Young Master Li Ming.”

“Furthermore, since the events of two years ago, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang have become complete enemies of the Kong Heavenly Clan. They have threatened that they will definitely eliminate the Kong Heavenly Clan to avenge you.”

“During the two years you were gone, they have also made the Kong Heavenly Clan pay dearly. Many of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s branches were attacked and destroyed by them.”

“In fact, many of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s experts that were dispatched to pursue and kill them were instead killed by them.”

“Most importantly, the two of them are absolutely unrestrained. They continue to attack the Kong Heavenly Clan nonstop, but the Kong Heavenly Clan is unable to do anything to them,” That elder said.

“Indeed, if the two of them are to engage in guerilla warfare, the Kong Heavenly Clan will not be able to do anything to them,” Chu Feng smiled. As close friends, he knew Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong quite well.

After all, the two of them were both Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. Thus, their ability to conceal themselves was not something that ordinary individuals could match.

Furthermore, both of them were smart, and possessed many techniques. It would indeed be a major headache for the Kong

Heavenly Clan to encounter the two of them as enemies.

“Actually, it was also because of you having inflicted serious losses to the Kong Heavenly Clan that they have been unable to deal with Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.”

“If the Kong Heavenly Clan from two years ago was on equal footing against the other three tier one powers, and maybe even be faintly stronger than them, then the current Kong Heavenly Clan has become the publicly accepted weakest of the four tier one powers.”

“Furthermore, everyone knows that it is due to you that the Kong Heavenly Clan ended up degenerating to such a state.”

“Not only did you inflict heavy losses upon them, but you also left them with enormous infamy. Now, they are reviled by everyone,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“Haha, never would I have expected the Kong Heavenly Clan to suffer like this in the past two years. Not only did their strength decrease greatly because of you, but they also became infamous. Your two friends are also attacking them nonstop, adding hail to snow.”

“If the Kong Heavenly Clan had known that they would suffer like this, even if they were given a hundred times more courage, they would definitely not have dared to attempt to kill you.”

“Haha. Great, this is truly great. They have truly reaped what they sowed. Serves them right,” Upon hearing that, Her Lady Queen was overjoyed. She revealed an extremely pleased expression on her beautiful face.

“Oh, that’s right. Chu Feng, what we’ve told you so far is all good news. However, there is still another piece of bad news that I feel that you should know,” Suddenly, Liu Xiaoli’s expression turned serious.

“What is the bad news?” Chu Feng asked.

“Do you still remember Luyang’s Pavilion?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

“Chu Luyang, the Pavilion Master of Luyang’s Pavilion. Humph, of course I remember him,” A sneer emerged on Chu Feng’s face.

That Chu Luyang had caused Chu Feng to suffer quite a lot back then. Although he had ended up being killed by Chu Feng, many people were killed because of him. Thus, even though Chu Feng had personally killed Chu Luyang, he was still unable to neutralize the hatred in his heart.

“Chu Luyang has a younger brother by the name of Chu Luxuan.”

“I’ve heard that Chu Luxuan is completely different from Chu Luyang and the others. Even in the Chu Heavenly Clan, that Chu Luxuan is a top rated genius.”

“Right now, that Chu Luxuan has arrived in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Liu Xiaoli said.

Chapter 2474 – Chu Feng’s Influence

---

“What sort of ability does this Chu Luxuan possess?” Chu Feng asked.

“Very few people know what cultivation that Chu Luxuan possesses. However, he is like you, a member of the younger generation.”

“Furthermore, as he possesses the reputation of being a genius in the Chu Heavenly Clan, he was able to move about completely unhindered upon arriving in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“After arriving in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he managed to, in less than a single year, gather countless powers to submit to him.”

“Among them is the Ying Heavenly Clan and the mother of the Four World Spiritist Emperors, the World Spiritist Saintess,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“My enemies have all submitted to him. It would appear that he plans to take care of me,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“You’ve killed his biological older brother. Naturally, he will want to take care of you. Although it has been said that you died two years ago, he has still continued to search for your whereabouts the entire time. His demand is to find you if you’re alive, and find your corpse if you’re dead.”

“If he were to know that you’re still alive, he would definitely attack you. Chu Feng, you must definitely be careful; you must not let him find you,” Liu Xiaoli said to Chu Feng with great concern.

Although Liu Xiaoli did not know exactly how powerful Chu Luxuan was, she was still extremely worried for Chu Feng. After all, Chu Luxuan was a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan, a genius from the Upper Realms. One could imagine how frightening he must be just by thinking about it.

“Since all of my enemies have become his subordinates, even if he does not try to find me, I would have gone to find him.”

“There are certain debts that must be settled properly,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“.....”

Upon hearing what Chu Feng said, Liu Xiaoli and the others revealed dumbfounded expressions. They grew quiet.

They were truly unable to understand what Chu Feng was thinking. After all, that Chu Luxuan possessed a robust background. They felt that it was clearly not a sensible act to confront him head-on.

However, upon thinking about it further, they started to feel at ease. They recalled that they had actually never been able to understand Chu Feng, that Chu Feng had always been like this, always been someone who would continue in his own way without any fear.

Perhaps it might be precisely because Chu Feng was different like this that he had managed to achieve what he had.

Furthermore, the current Chu Feng was incomparable to before. He possessed the cultivation of a rank seven martial Ancestor, and was also a possessor of a Heavenly Bloodline. He was already an extremely frightening character.

Moreover, Chu Feng had nearly extinguished the Kong Heavenly Clan two years ago. Although they had not witnessed that scene, they still felt their blood run cold just by imagining it.

Upon thinking of all that, they instead felt that their worries were unnecessary.

Suddenly, Liu Xiaoli's expression turned very serious. She said to Chu Feng, “Chu Feng, please accept my respect.”

After she finished saying those words, a ‘putt’ was heard, and Liu Xiaoli kneeled before Chu Feng.

It was not only Liu Xiaoli. Everyone from the Red Butterfly Society kneeled before Chu Feng.

“What are you all doing?” Chu Feng revealed a surprised expression.

“If it wasn’t for the sake of avenging my master, you would not have offended the Ying Heavenly Clan, killed Chu Luyang and made all these enemies.”

“I fear that our Red Butterfly Society is likely unable to repay what we owe. Thus, the only thing we can do is be grateful toward you,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“So it’s actually regarding that,” After finding out why Liu Xiaoli and the others reacted in such a manner, Chu Feng laughed.

As he spoke, Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and a gentle power enveloped Liu Xiaoli and the others, bringing them back to their feet.

“Your master showed kindness toward me. His kindness is something that I will never forget. With him being killed by another, there was no reason for me to remain indifferent. Thus, I have done everything not only for you all, but also for myself. You do not need to feel that you owe me for this. After all, you didn’t owe me anything to begin with.”

“That said, why did you all come here and change your Red Butterfly Society’s name?” Chu Feng asked.

“After you killed Chu Luyang, everyone from the Chu Heavenly Clan that existed in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm felt bitter hatred toward you.”

“However, they were unable to do anything to you. As such, they ended up creating troubles for us. Forced into a corner, we had no choice but to leave and conceal our identities.”

“This is especially true after that Chu Luxuan appeared in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. We had no choice but to continue migrating. If we were to be discovered by him, we would undoubtedly be killed,” Liu Xiaoli said.

“I will settle the matter regarding that Chu Luxuan as soon as possible,” Chu Feng realized that if Chu Luxuan was not settled, all those related to him in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would likely be implicated by him.

Suddenly, Chu Feng asked with a worried expression, “Oh, that’s right, how are the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall right now?”

The reason for that was because everyone knew that the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall were related to him.

After all, when the Ying Heavenly Clan had wanted to kill Chu Feng, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall had publicly announced that they would protect him.

As such, Chu Feng was worried about the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

“You don’t have to worry about the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall. Although the Kong Heavenly Clan has become your bitter enemy, their reputation has also suffered catastrophically.”

“While at the heart of the struggle, they will not dare to do anything to the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall. Thus, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall have been unscathed the entire time.”

“Not only were they not implicated by you, they have instead received benefits due to you. Right now, many idle experts of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm have joined the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall to become their guest elders.”

“The Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall have also become powers, apart from the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple and the Immortal Sword School, that the people of the younger generation yearn to join the most.”

“During the past two years, whenever the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall took in new disciples, young talents from all over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm will choose to join them.”

“Although the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall are not the strongest among the tier two powers, their popularity is something that no other tier two power could compare to.”

“Right now, it could be said that the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall are the most mighty powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm apart from the four tier one powers.”

“As for all this, it is all because of you.”

When Liu Xiaoli spoke, she had a very proud expression. After all, the extraordinary individual that she was speaking of was her close friend.

“Aiyoh, Chu Feng, not bad, eh? Never would I have expected that your status would reach so high in the two years you’ve disappeared from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Her Lady Queen teased.

However, the tone that Her Lady Queen spoke with was one of someone feeling joy for Chu Feng.

While Chu Feng had a lot of enemies now, the fact that he possessed such great power and influence meant that the majority of the people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm sided with him. To Chu Feng, this would be a very advantageous thing.

“While the Kong Heavenly Clan did not attack them, what about that Chu Luxuan?” Chu Feng asked.

Actually, Chu Feng had already guessed that the Kong Heavenly Clan would not attack the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

After all, the Kong Heavenly Clan's dark plot of killing Chu Feng had already caused them to lose all respect among the crowd. If they were to attack the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, they would truly become utterly notorious.

However, it was different for Chu Luxuan. He was not someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, nor did he wish to establish himself in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Chu Feng felt that Chu Luxuan had not mainly come to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm to avenge his older brother. Likely, his main purpose in coming must be to carry out some sort of mission.

Thus, if he wanted to deal with Chu Feng, he would simply not take into consideration whether or not he would implicate the innocent.

Furthermore, the Ying Heavenly Clan had submitted to Chu Luxuan now.

Chu Feng felt that unless Chu Luxuan was someone who was able to properly distinguish between grudges and grievances, the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall would, sooner or later, suffer a calamity.

"Chu Luxuan? It doesn't seem like he has had any intention to make things difficult for the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall so far," Liu Xiaoli said.

"If that's the case, it would appear that Chu Luxuan possesses a better moral character than his older brother," Chu Feng said with a slight smile.

He had said those words in a questioning manner. After all, he had never met Chu Luxuan before, and did not know what sort of person he was.

“Lady Society Master, this is bad!” Right at that moment, an elder suddenly flew over from afar and landed on the mountain.

“Chu Feng?” That elder knew of Chu Feng. Thus, he was stunned the moment he landed and saw Chu Feng.

“Lady Society Master, is this... is he really Chu Feng?” The elder was a bit dumbfounded. Thus, he turned to request verification from Liu Xiaoli.

At that moment, Liu Xiaoli burst into loud laughter, “If he’s not real, could he possibly be fake?”

“Heavens! Little friend Chu Feng, you’re actually alive? This is truly great!”

The next moment, that elder was wild with joy. His reaction was just like that of Liu Xiaoli and the others earlier. He was extremely excited.

“Senior, this Chu Feng has been in closed-door training for the past two years without any sign of activity or news. I am sorry to have made you worry,” Chu Feng clasped his fist with a smile on his face.

The fact that this elder reacted in such a manner meant that he was extremely worried about him. Thus, Chu Feng felt very moved.

“Oh, that’s right. Elder, what has happened?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

“Regarding this...” That elder took a glance at Chu Feng, and found it a bit embarrassing to speak.

“Could it be related to me?” Chu Feng asked.

Hearing those words, that elder’s expression stiffened, and he revealed a surprised expression.

His reaction had verified to Chu Feng and his guess was correct.

This bad news seemed to be related to him.

Chapter 2475 – Allies Attacked

---

After that elder hesitated for a moment, he said, “Chu Feng, this matter is indeed related to you. However, there is nothing you can do about it. Thus, after I tell you what it is, you must definitely remain calm.”

“I will remain calm. Senior, please go ahead,” Chu Feng said calmly.

“It’s the Ying Heavenly Clan. The Ying Heavenly Clan is currently attacking the Three Stars Hall. I fear that they would have already reached the headquarters of the Three Stars Hall by now,” That elder said.

“The Ying Heavenly Clan? Sure enough, they ended up attacking the Three Stars Hall,” Chu Feng started to frown upon hearing those words. Then, he said to Liu Xiaoli, “Do you have a map of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?”

Naturally, the reason why Chu Feng wanted a map was so that he could find a way to proceed to the Three Stars Hall to reinforce them.

“Chu Feng, are you really planning to involve yourself in this?” Liu Xiaoli asked.

“This matter was caused by me to begin with. Thus, I cannot find a reason to ignore it,” Chu Feng said determinedly.

“Indeed. That’s the Chu Feng I know. It would appear that it would be useless for me to urge you against this,” Liu Xiaoli shook her head with a smile. She had a helpless expression on her face.

Then, she said, “Three Stars Hall is actually not far from here. I can show you the way.”

Hearing what Liu Xiaoli said, Chu Feng’s extremely worried heart felt some ease.

He felt that since the Ying Heavenly Clan dared to attack the Three Stars Hall, it meant that they had obtained certainty in being able to take care of them.

After all, the Ying Heavenly Clan had already submitted to Chu Luxuan. Likely, their strength was no longer comparable to before.

Chu Feng felt that the situation would be bad for the Three Stars Hall.

However, if it was truly as Liu Xiaoli had said, and the Three Stars Hall was not far from where they were, then he would still be able to reinforce them in time.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, a gentle breeze swirled up. Then, Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli disappeared together.

Not only did their bodies disappear, but even their auras completely disappeared without a trace.

The crowd all knew that Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli had left.

“Little friend Chu Feng and Lady Society President are simply too impulsive. Not only did that Ying Heavenly Clan gather all of their elites, they have also obtained the assistance of many experts. With the cultivation that the two of them possess, even if they are to go there, they will only be throwing away their lives.”

After Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli left, the elder who had returned to report the matter became abnormally panicky.

“Throwing away their lives? That might not be the case,” However, at that moment, the other elders of the Red Butterfly Society started to smile profoundly.

“What’s wrong with you all? Little friend Chu Feng and Lady Society Master are planning to confront the Ying Heavenly Clan. The current Ying Heavenly Clan is incomparable to before. It is a tier two power that not even that Three Stars Hall can contend against. How can you all smile at a time like this?”

Seeing that the crowd was not only calm and composed, but even smiling on top of that, he felt so furious that his complexion turned pale.

“You’ve just returned, and you don’t know about the situation at hand. All you know is that the Ying Heavenly Clan has become more powerful after becoming Chu Luxuan’s subordinates. But, do you know what sort of cultivation little friend Chu Feng possesses right now?” someone asked with a beaming smile.

“What sort of cultivation?” That elder asked.

“Rank seven Martial Ancestor,” The crowd replied.

“Rank seven Martial Ancestor?”

That elder was immediately stunned upon hearing those words. He asked, “With or without using his Heavenly Bloodline?”

“Little friend Chu Feng’s cultivation is before using his Heavenly Bloodline,” The crowd from the Red Butterfly Society replied in unison again.

“Sssss~~~” Hearing those words, that elder immediately sucked in a mouthful of cold air. At the same time, his expression turned exceptionally marvelous. The next moment, he grew silent.

After being silent for a long time, he spoke again, “Little friend Chu Feng is truly godly. It would seem that my worries were unnecessary. The ones that are out of luck is not the Three Stars Hall, nor is it little friend Chu Feng and Lady Society Master. Rather, it is that Ying Heavenly Clan.”

As he said those words, that elder did not have the slightest bit of worry on his face anymore. Instead, it was replaced with an overjoyed expression.

.....

The Three Stars Hall was constructed above a vast plain.

Originally, the Three Stars Hall did not control a very large area. However, in the two years that'd passed many of their neighboring powers had requested to join them and become their subsidiary powers out of their own initiative.

Thus, in a short period of merely two years, the Three Stars Hall became a huge monster in the area.

However, at that moment, the Three Stars Hall's various subsidiary powers and branches were attacked.

Even the Three Stars Hall's headquarters was no exception.

At that moment, above the vast group of palaces in the Three Stars Hall was a semitransparent spirit formation fort. That spirit formation fort covered the entire Three Stars Hall.

Above the fort were countless silhouettes wearing Thunder Armor with Thunder Wings extending from their backs. They were holding weapons and unleashing magnificent martial skills to attack the semitransparent spirit formation fort nonstop.

“Boom, boom, boom~~~”

With those nonstop attacks, rumbles could be heard continuously.

Deep inside the Three Stars Hall, the Three Stars Hall's guardian elders were all putting forth their utmost effort to continue maintaining the grand defensive formation. Still, that grand defensive formation that protected the Three Stars Hall was currently riddled with scars after being bombarded by the attacks from the Ying Heavenly Clan's army nonstop. At that moment, it was on the verge of collapse.

“Lord Headmaster, the things they're using are simply too strange. Our grand defensive formation will likely not be able to hold them back much longer. What should we do?”

Seeing that their grand defensive formation was about to be breached by the Ying Heavenly Clan's ferocious army, many people in the Three Stars Hall started to panic. With no other choice, they looked to their Headmaster.

Originally, their grand defensive formation had been extremely powerful. Logically, it would have been very difficult for anyone below the True Immortal level of cultivation to breach their grand defensive formation.

However, the Ying Heavenly Clan's army had sprinkled a special sort of liquid over their Three Stars Hall's grand defensive formation.

Through the decaying effect of that liquid, their Three Stars Hall's grand defensive formation had been greatly weakened. If it were to continue, their grand defensive formation would, sooner or later, be breached.

When their opponents were capable of even breaching their grand defensive formation, the people in the Three Stars Hall would naturally be extremely worried that they would not be a match for the Ying Heavenly Clan.

“Counter soldiers with arms, water with an earthen weir. If it's a battle they want, then it is a battle we shall give them.”

[Editor's note: a weir is a barrier in a river that changes its behavior—similar to the behavior of a dam]

Compared to the Three Stars Hall's elders, their Headmaster's expression remained unchanged. He was exceptionally calm, and reacted with the airs of a ruler that a headmaster should possess.

“That's right. What's there to fear? Their Ying Heavenly Clan is merely relying on the power of their Heavenly Bloodline. In terms of actual cultivation, they are much inferior to our Lord Headmaster,” Many elders echoed.

The Three Stars Hall's headmaster was a rank eight Martial Ancestor. Furthermore, he possessed a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation.

Although he was not a peak Martial Ancestor, as he possessed the cultivation of a rank eight Martial Ancestor and a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation, he was stronger than even ordinary peak Martial Ancestors.

He was the main reason why the Three Stars Hall had always been one of the relatively stronger tier two powers.

As for the Ying Heavenly Clan, although their status among the tier two powers had always been on par with the Three Stars Hall, their Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had remained a rank four Martial Ancestor all these years.

He only possessed the strength to barely contend against the Three Stars Hall's headmaster due to his Thunder Wings, Thunder Armor and his Heavenly Bloodline's heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation.

However, if their true levels of cultivation were to be compared, there was a total of four levels of difference in cultivation. Thus, many of the people in the Three Stars Hall looked down on the Ying Heavenly Clansmen.

After all, if their Heavenly Bloodline's power were to be removed, and only their talent was considered, the Ying Heavenly Clansmen were inferior to everyone in the Three Stars Hall.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, a loud explosion sounded from outside. The grand defensive formation that surrounded the Three Stars Hall was crumbling. It had been shattered into countless bright lights. With overflowing flames that brightened the sky, the shattered pieces were falling from the sky and basking the entire Three Stars Hall in a red hue.

As if it was the arrival of doomsday, the Three Stars Hall's grand defensive formation had been breached!!!

Chapter 2476 – Fighting Alone

---

“The grand formation has been breached!!!”

Even though the Three Stars Hall were prepared to fight, when they saw with their own eyes that their grand defensive formation had been shattered to pieces, the crowd from the Three Stars Hall still felt nervous in their hearts.

After all, the grand defensive formation was a symbol of safety. If it was gone, it would mean that their Three Stars Hall would definitely suffer casualties.

However, after the Three Stars Hall’s grand defensive formation was shattered, the Ying Heavenly Clan army did not immediately attack them. Instead, in an orderly manner, they stood above them in the sky.

However, it remained that what was in the sky was the Ying Heavenly Clan’s army, all people that possessed Heavenly Bloodlines.

As their Thunder Wings moved about, the crackling of thunder could be heard resonating through heaven and earth.

At a glance, the figures covered in lightning seemed to cover the horizon. They stood there in an orderly manner, and simply did not resemble ordinary martial cultivators in the slightest. Instead, it was like an army of celestial soldiers had descended upon the world of mortals.

Although the Ying Heavenly Clan’s army had not yet attacked the Three Stars Hall, their presence was already an enormous deterrent, attacking the morale of the people in the Three Stars Hall.

At that moment, many people in the Three Stars Hall were thinking that even though their cultivations were all generally stronger than those of the Ying Heavenly Clansmen, it remained that the Ying Heavenly Clansmen were possessors of Heavenly Bloodlines, the beloved children of the heavens.

Their overall power was not inferior to theirs. Furthermore, once the Ying Heavenly Clansmen reached the Martial Ancestor realm, they also possessed, apart from their Thunder Armor, Thunder Wings and heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, that powerful Lightning Mark.

Faced with such a group of enemies, could they really defeat them?

If they were to say that they were not afraid, it would definitely be a lie.

“Ying Heavenly Clan, why are you attacking our Three Stars Hall?”

Right at that moment, a thunderous shout sounded from the Three Stars Hall, spreading outward domineeringly.

It was the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster. The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster’s words came like a balm to the hearts of everyone in the Three Stars Hall. After hearing those words, they managed to calm their minds.

“Why? Today has been destined ever since you and the Sunset Cloud Valley jointly swore to protect that Chu Feng.”

Suddenly, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s army scattered to two sides, forming a road among the sea of people.

A figure was slowly walking through the air. Following that road, a figure slowly approached. As for that individual, he was none other than the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

“Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, do you know why I did not immediately fight back against your attacks, and instead chose to unleash the grand formation for defensive purposes?” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster asked.

“I have come with my army of Ying Heavenly Clan’s elites. However, apart from the elites, your Three Stars Hall have an enormous amount of weak disciples and elders.”

“With their cultivation, they’re no different from ants. A burst of wind powerful enough to scatter grass is sufficient to kill them. You unleashed the grand defensive formation merely so that you could strive to transfer them somewhere safe,” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“You’re only half correct,” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster said.

“Oh?” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief revealed a smile of contempt. He then asked, “Then, tell me, what is the other half?”

“If we are to fight, casualties are inevitable. However, there is not an irreconcilable hatred between us.”

“Thus, I actually wanted to ask you. Are you really planning to have your clansmen perish for a mere friction that we had back then?” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster asked.

“Then I wish to ask you. Back when you decided to protect Chu Feng, did you ever think that your Three Stars Hall’s disciples and elders would end up dying because of you?” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“I did,” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster said.

“Then why did you make that decision? Back then, if it wasn’t for the obstruction from you all and the Sunset Cloud Valley, I would’ve already slaughtered that damned bastard Chu Feng to avenge my son.”

The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief grew increasingly furious. He was unable to control his state of mind the moment he recalled what had happened back then.

“You wish to know the reason? Very well, I can tell you why. The reason is because Chu Feng... is worthy of us doing so,” The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster declared.

“Good, very good, very very good. What a great ‘Chu Feng is worthy of us doing so!!!’” The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief started to gnash his teeth in fury. His veins were bulging.

“Since you felt that protecting that Chu Feng was worth your lives, then you must also think that your Three Stars Hall being exterminated because of that Chu Feng is also worth it.”

As the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief spoke, he unleashed his rank four Martial Ancestor aura.

At the same time, his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings emerged on his body. In an instant... his aura increased from rank four Martial Ancestor to rank six Martial Ancestor.

Although a rank six Martial Ancestor did not appear to be very strong, no one dared to look down on him after he emitted his heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation.

He was an existence stronger than even ordinary peak Martial Ancestors.

“Wait,” Suddenly, the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster spoke.

“Spit out what you want to say, fart out what you want to fart. These might very well become your final words.”

The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief flipped his palm and held a long Ancestral Armament sword in his hand. He had already made preparations to unleash a massacre.

“If we are to wage war, casualties will be inevitable. I believe that is also not something that you wish to see.”

“How about this: you and I will fight one another. If you are to win, you can take my life. If I am to win, I will instead spare you,” As the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster spoke, he flipped his palm and also took out an Ancestral Armament Sword.

“Very well, I’ll agree to your demand,” After the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief finished saying those words, he waved his hand to indicate to the Ying Heavenly Clansmen behind him to retreat.

“You all, step down too,” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster gave the order. As his subordinates moved back, he soared into the sky.

“Listen carefully. I have agreed to your demand not because I am afraid of casualties. After all, casualties are a common thing in wars. If one does not even have this bit of resolution, how could one possibly be a martial cultivator?”

“Furthermore, I have agreed to your demand not because I am afraid of losing to you. The reason for that is because you will definitely be the one to lose today.”

“Thus, there is only one reason why I agreed to your demand. That is, I will have everyone in your Three Stars Hall personally witness how you, their Lord Headmaster, will be defeated by my hands,” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Isn’t it too quick for you to say things like that? Although you possess overwhelming battle power that surpasses my own due to your Heavenly Bloodline, I remain a rank eight Martial Ancestor. I’m afraid that the outcome of the battle between us is still undetermined,” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster said.

“Still undetermined? Are you certain of that?” As the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said those words, an evil smile emerged on his face.

Once that evil smile appeared, his cultivation actually started to surge. From a rank six Martial Ancestor, he reached rank seven Martial Ancestor.

At the same time as his cultivation increased, light emerged underneath his feet. He turned into a shooting star. With extremely rapid speed, he rushed toward the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster.

A rank seven Martial Ancestor with a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation. At that moment, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief possessed a battle power a level above the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster, a rank eight Martial Ancestor with heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting two levels of cultivation.

The one level difference in battle power was an enormous gap.

At such a close distance, the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster was unable to react in time.

“Puchi~” Blood splattered about.

The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's Ancestral Armament Sword had penetrated the body of the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster.

“You... you were concealing your cultivation?” The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster's eyes were glaring wide open. irreconciliation filled his face.

As for the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, he had a pleased and delighted smile, “If I did not have absolute certainty in victory, why would I come here?”

Chapter 2477 – Intention To Exterminate A Sect

---

“Lord Headmaster!!!”

Witnessing that scene, the crowd from the Three Stars Hall all started to panic. One by one, they took out their weapons with the intention to rescue their Lord Headmaster.

“Don’t come over!”

However, the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster spoke to stop them.

He knew very well that even if everyone from the Three Stars Hall were to rush over, they would still be no match for the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

Since he was definitely going to be killed today, he had decided to accept death, and did not want the others of the Three Stars Hall to make unnecessary sacrifices.

“So that’s it. You’ve already made the preparations to die, and do not want your subordinates to die in vain.”

“In that case, I will instead go against your desires. I will have all of your subordinates die before you.”

The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had managed to see the desire of the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster. He turned his cold and vicious gaze to the rest of the Three Stars Hall.

Immediately, overwhelmingly powerful oppressive might enveloped the location of his gaze.

Faced with the suddenly arriving oppressive might, the crowd of the Three Stars Hall were unable to resist in the slightest.

Regardless of their cultivation, they were all forced to the ground in an instant.

“Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, if you are to kill me, I will have no complaints. However, we agreed that we will not bring harm upon the innocent. Why are you not honoring your words?!" The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster said.

"Not honoring my words? Never once did I say that I would not kill the people of your Three Stars Hall."

"I might as well tell you the truth. I never planned to spare anyone from your Three Stars Hall to begin with."

"Originally, I planned to kill you first, and then exterminate them later. However, I've changed my mind now. I will have you witness everyone in your Three Stars Hall being killed before you, witness your Three Stars Hall that has been able to continue existing for so long be ruined before you."

"As for the reason for all of this, it is all because you chose to protect someone that you shouldn't have," After he finished saying those words, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief shouted, "Kill them all! Leave none alive!"

"Yes, Milord!"

At that moment, countless Ying Heavenly Clansmen and guest elders descended from the sky. They planned to massacre the powerless Three Stars Hall's disciples and elders that were restricted by the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

Blood began to splatter everywhere as screams sounded nonstop.

The people of the Ying Heavenly Clan did not kill everyone from the Three Stars Hall right away. Instead, they began to use extremely cruel methods to torture them to death.

"No! Stop! Stop immediately!!!"

Witnessing that, seeing his subordinates suffering, seeing them in such misery that death would be a relief, the Three Stars Hall's Headmaster shouted nonstop. At the same time, he unleashed intense killing intent.

He actually wanted to fight again!!!

“Wuuaah.”

Seeing the reaction from the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief rotated his Ancestral Armament sword. Immediately, the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster vomited out a mouthful of blood.

Following that, the overwhelming aura and killing intent that the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster was emitting vanished instantly.

When confronted with the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, who possessed a battle power one level above his own, the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster was truly completely powerless to do anything.

At that moment, he could only powerlessly watch as his subordinates were miserably tortured before him.

“You said that you chose to protect Chu Feng because Chu Feng was worthy of your protection?”

“Then, let me ask you this. Right now, your Three Stars Hall is going to be exterminated. Where is your Chu Feng now?”

“Is this what you mean by worthy of your protection? For someone that you possessed absolutely no association with, you’ve brought about the ruin of your sect,” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief mocked.

However, faced with such provocation from the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster was not only not angry, he instead smiled.

“Rest assured. Sooner or later, Chu Feng will find out about what has happened here today. Once he becomes aware of it, he will definitely avenge us.”

“Not a single person in our Three Stars Hall will die in vain. Chu Feng will return our sufferings in double to you all,” The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster said.

“Avenge you? Hahaha! That Chu Feng died two years ago. Even if he is still alive, how could a little bastard like him possibly accomplish anything? There is simply no need for Lord Chu Luxuan to act. I myself will be able to easily crush him to death with one finger.”

“Regardless of what sort of reputation that Chu Feng might possess, the strongest genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is neither Chu Feng nor that Li Ming. Rather, it is Lord Chu Luxuan,” The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief stated.

“Lord Chu Luxuan? Haha... I'd nearly forgotten that you've become Chu Luxuan's lackey.”

“Your cultivation has been stagnant at rank four Martial Ancestor for so long, unable to make any headway. For you to reach a breakthrough to rank five Martial Ancestor now, I bet it must be because of your master's contributions, right?” The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster mocked.

“You're trying to enrage me so that I will kill you sooner? So that you will be able to die contentedly? If you think I'll do that, you're simply indulging in fantasy.”

“Rest assured, I will definitely make you feel so aggrieved that you'll wish you were dead. I'll make you suffer so much that death will be a relief,” The corners of the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's mouth was lifted into a strange smile.

Then, he shouted to his clansmen, “Why are you all still dilly-dallying? Kill them! Kill them all! Today, our Ying Heavenly Clan will dye the Three Stars Hall with blood!!!”

Upon hearing the order from the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, the Ying Heavenly Clansmen as well as the guest elders no longer continued to torture the people of the Three Stars Hall. Instead, they raised their weapons with the intention of taking the lives of the Three Stars Hall's crowd.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, a surge of energy arrived from afar. In the blink of an eye, it enveloped the entire region.

After that power enveloped the region, everyone from the Ying Heavenly Clan stopped moving. It was as if they were petrified.

Only the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was still capable of moving.

“Why are you all still standing there? Did you not hear my order?”

The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was unable to feel the energy that surrounded the region. He only noticed that his clansmen had their weapons raised, yet were not attacking the people of the Three Stars Hall. It caused him to become extremely furious.

“They have heard what you've said. Merely, they're unable to do as you have ordered.”

Right at that moment, a voice sounded from the distant sky.

“Who?! Who is it? Who dares meddle in our Ying Heavenly Clan's business?!” The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief shouted furiously.

“Buzz~~~”

Soon, two figures flew over from the direction where the voice had sounded. Those two figures appeared before the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's line of sight.

Those two were none other than Chu Feng and Liu Xiaoli, who had just arrived.

“Chu Feng, it's you?! You... you're actually still alive?!”

Upon seeing Chu Feng, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief first revealed an astonished expression. Then, he was stunned. He simply did not dare to believe his eyes.

“Chu Feng?” Hearing that name, the crowd from the Three Stars Hall all raised their heads and turned their gazes to the sky.

“Chu Feng, that really is Chu Feng. Everyone, look! Chu Feng is still alive! Chu Feng has come to save us!”

Right at that moment, a female voice sounded from the Three Stars Hall’s crowd.

Chu Feng was able to tell right away that it was the voice of an acquaintance.

It was Song Biyu, Chu Feng’s friend and a disciple of the Three Stars Hall who possessed a very good relationship with Xu Yiyi.

Hearing that voice, Chu Feng subconsciously turned his gaze over there. The moment he saw Song Biyu, his previously calm face immediately grew distorted.

Song Biyu had the same appearance as she did two years ago.

However, her body was filled with bruises and scars. Wounds astonishing to the eye were all over her lily white skin. Her previously jade green dress had already been dyed bright red.

Such a beautiful young woman was actually tortured to such a state by the Ying Heavenly Clansmen. It was a tragic sight.

Furthermore, beside Song Biyu was a person from the Ying Heavenly Clan with their weapon raised and aimed at her dantian.

In other words, if Chu Feng had arrived a moment later, Song Biyu would’ve died miserably at the hands of that Ying Heavenly Clansman.

Most importantly, scenes similar to Song Biyu’s were all over the Three Stars Hall.

Not only had the Ying Heavenly Clan left the people of the Three Stars Hall riddled with scars from the torture, but they had also raised their weapons with the intention to kill them.

They were planning to exterminate the entire Three Stars Hall!!!

Chapter 2478 – Sky Dyed With Blood

---

“Heavens, how could this be?!”

Liu Xiaoli also noticed the appalling devastation all around. Her face instantly turned pale from shock. Unable to contain herself, she covered her mouth with her hands.

As the Red Butterfly Society’s Society Master, Liu Xiaoli had experienced a lot, and seen many massacres.

Yet, that scene had still frightened her.

The reason for that was because the Three Stars Hall were truly left in a miserable state.

“The Ying Heavenly Clan is truly ruthless,” Chu Feng said as he gnashed his teeth.

Then, Chu Feng took a deep breath and closed his eyes. He grew silent. No one knew what he was thinking.

“Chu Feng, you are actually still alive. Great, this is great. Truly even the heavens are helping me.”

“It seems that the heavens have deliberately let you live all so that I can personally kill you and avenge my son.”

“Chu Feng, today, I will settle this debt of blood with blood. I will dismember your body into ten thousand pieces.”

The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief revealed a malevolent expression. He waved the Ancestral Armament Sword in his hand many times in succession, sending forth many sharp blade rays toward Chu Feng like a meteor shower.

“Chu Feng, look out!!!” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster hurriedly shouted.

At the same time, everyone from the Three Stars Hall started to narrow their brows. They were all extremely worried.

After all, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's attacks were no small matter. Everyone was able to tell how frightening the blade rays that filled the sky were.

He was not joking around. He was really planning to take Chu Feng's life and dismember him into ten thousand pieces. Even Liu Xiaoli who stood beside Chu Feng would not be able to escape the onslaught.

“Zzzzzz~~~”

Right at the moment when the blade rays were about to reach Chu Feng, lightning suddenly emerged from Chu Feng's body.

That lightning was exceptionally fierce, and managed to completely shatter all of the incoming sword rays. At the same time, Chu Feng's aura was also released.

When Chu Feng's aura reached the crowd, their bodies all trembled. They were all astonished.

At that moment, everyone present was able to sense Chu Feng's aura, and realized Chu Feng's cultivation.

“Rank seven Martial Ancestor. Chu Feng's cultivation is that of a rank seven Martial Ancestor!!!”

Although the people from the Three Stars Hall were riddled with wounds, they still revealed joyous expressions.

“Little friend Chu Feng's cultivation has actually reached such a level?”

The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster felt disbelief. After all, when he had first met Chu Feng, Chu Feng had still only been a Half Martial Ancestor.

Yet, in such a short period of time, he had actually become a rank seven Martial Ancestor. It was simply unimaginable.

“Sure enough, one cannot judge the world of geniuses with the lenses of ordinary people. It would appear that our Three Stars Hall will be saved today,” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster revealed a smile.

Both Chu Feng and the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief possessed Heavenly Bloodlines.

As for the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, he was able to defeat him as a rank five Martial Ancestor.

Then, how powerful would Chu Feng, as a rank seven Martial Ancestor, be? The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster was able to imagine it very well.

Since Chu Feng had come to save them, it meant that all of them would be saved.

“This is impossible! This is absolutely impossible! It’s only been such a short period of time, you... how could you possibly have obtained your current cultivation?”

At the moment when everyone from the Three Stars Hall was overjoyed, that Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had an expression of disbelief.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief. Lightning flashed in Chu Feng’s eyes, and then his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared.

After Chu Feng’s cultivation increased from rank seven Martial Ancestor to rank nine Martial Ancestor, lightning was no longer the only thing present in Chu Feng’s eyes. In addition to them, there was also ice-cold killing intent.

Furthermore, like Chu Feng’s oppressive might, that killing intent of his completely surrounded the region, permeating into everyone’s bodies.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, everyone from the Ying Heavenly Clan floated into the sky. They were present all over the sky.

Like a bunch of sheep, they were hung in midair.

“Lord Clan Chief, save us! Save us!!!”

The Ying Heavenly Clansmen realized that the situation was amiss. However, they were still unable to control their bodies, and could only allow themselves to be controlled by Chu Feng like puppets. Helpless, they could only turn to ask their Clan Chief for help.

“Chu Feng, what are you planning to do?!” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief started to panic.

“It seems that the lesson of losing your son was still insufficient for you. In that case, I will allow you to experience the pain of having your entire clan exterminated,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, don’t you mess with me! Else, Lord Chu Luxuan will definitely not spare you!!!” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief shouted in panic.

“Heh...”

However, Chu Feng only laughed disdainfully at the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief’s threat.

Then, lightning flashed in Chu Feng’s eyes.

The next moment, all of the Ying Heavenly Clansmen that were hanging in midair revealed extremely ugly expressions.

Following that, ‘bang, bang, bang, bang, bang,’ muffled explosions began to sound nonstop.

Blood filled the sky. Like rain, it sprinkled downward, dyeing the earth.

In that one split second, all of the Ying Heavenly Clansmen exploded. They had all died without even an intact corpse.

The rain of blood was formed with their flesh.

“Nooooo!!!!”

The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief started to shout hysterically. He wanted to attack Chu Feng, but discovered that Chu Feng's oppressive might was still enveloping him. Like his clansmen that were killed by Chu Feng, he was powerless to resist.

"Lord Chu Feng, please spare us. Lord Chu Feng, please spare us."

"We are unrelated to the Ying Heavenly Clan. We only came here because we were ordered to do so. Please, please spare us."

At that moment, all of the Ying Heavenly Clan's guest elders began to beg Chu Feng for forgiveness.

Those people were all Martial Ancestors. They were all members of the older generation that had trained for many years.

Yet, at that moment, they simply did not possess the bearings of the older generation. Instead, they were all shivering in fear. They were already in complete panic.

"If I had not arrived today, would you all have spared the people of the Three Stars Hall?" Chu Feng asked coldly.

"We..." Those guest elders grew quiet. They did not know how to respond.

"Bang, bang, bang, bang~~~"

At that moment, muffled explosion sounds were heard once again.

With the muffled explosions came flowers of blood that scattered about in all directions.

Several more people were killed. This time around, they were not the Ying Heavenly Clansmen, but rather those guest elders.

"Lord Chu Feng, please spare me. Please spare me. I will never dare to go against you again. I will never dare to go against you again."

"Lord Chu Feng, please, please spare me, please spare my life. I truly did not know you possessed this sort of relationship with the Three Stars Hall. If I had known, even if I was to be given a hundred times the nerve, I would not have dared to attack the Three Stars Hall.”

The guest elders that were still alive completely crumbled before Chu Feng. They actually disregarded their status and identity to kneel before Chu Feng, kowtowing to him and begging for forgiveness. Furthermore, many among them were already crying in fear.

Their reactions were understandable. After all, Chu Feng’s method were truly ruthless. They were truly frightened by Chu Feng.

In fact, it was not only them. Even the people from the Three Stars Hall were frightened by Chu Feng.

No matter what, those were all living people. Yet, they were all instantly killed by Chu Feng.

Furthermore, Chu Feng showed absolutely zero emotion after killing them. Such coldness was something that terrified even them.

At that moment, Chu Feng was already no longer human in their eyes. Rather, he was more like a cold-blooded demon that viewed human life as grass.

“All those that I’ve killed earlier are people that raised their weapons at the Three Stars Hall.”

“As for you all, I did not see you try to kill the people from the Three Stars Hall. Thus, I will spare you all this once. Scram,” Chu Feng waved his hand at those Ying Heavenly Clan’s guest elders.

“Thank you Lord Chu Feng, thank you Lord Chu Feng.”

Those guest elders that were still alive began to thank Chu Feng for not killing them. At the same time, they started to flee in disarray. They were so flustered by what had happened that they were actually unable to stand firm in midair, and started to roll and crawl as they frantically escaped. Their appearance was truly sorry.

“Next, it’s your turn now.”

Chu Feng turned his gaze to the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

Chapter 2479 – Paying The Price

---

At that moment, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief no longer possessed the threatening attitude he'd had when he arrived.

The current Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief looked like someone who was about to die. He was half-kneeling in midair, shivering, with his head lowered. His mood was exceptionally downcast.

Although those who were killed earlier were not everyone from the Ying Heavenly Clan, they were all the Ying Heavenly Clan's elites.

With those people killed, it was no different from exterminating the entire Ying Heavenly Clan.

Thus, at that moment, his heart had crumbled.

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, the sound of a weapon piercing through the air could be heard in the vast sky.

Chu Feng was holding the Magma Emperor Sword in his hand.

Stepping on air, Chu Feng began to walk toward the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief one step at a time.

After killing all those people, Chu Feng would naturally not spare the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

After all, he was the cause of the battle.

“It seems that you've already made preparations to die.”

“Originally, you didn't have to die, and your clansmen also didn't have to die. However, because of your mistaken decision of insisting on avenging your evil son, you've brought about your deaths.”

Chu Feng had arrived before the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan

Chief. The Magma Emperor Sword he held in his hand was aimed at the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's dantian.

“Chu Feng, I admit that you’ve won today.”

“However, what of it?”

“Even though you’ve defeated me, you’re still going to lose to others. You will lose even more thoroughly than me,” The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief stated.

“What do you mean by that?” Chu Feng frowned as he asked coldly. He had managed to determine something from those words.

“Haha...” The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief let out a sinister laugh.

Then, he slowly raised his head and looked to Chu Feng, “While you’ve saved the Three Stars Hall, are you able to save the Sunset Cloud Valley?”

“The one who is attacking the Sunset Cloud Valley is the Chu Heavenly Clan's Chu Luxuan.”

“You said that Chu Luxuan is attacking the Sunset Cloud Valley?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng's expression changed instantly.

After all, the Sunset Cloud Valley was also a power that he was deeply concerned for. Never did he expect what he had worried about the most to happen.

Chu Luxuan actually really attacked the Sunset Cloud Valley.

“We left at the same time. If my calculations are not mistaken, the Sunset Cloud Valley should’ve already been eliminated several days ago.”

“Not mentioning whether or not you will be a match for Chu Luxuan, even if you are to rush over there now, all that you will see are ruins and corpses.”

“Furthermore, it is not only the Sunset Cloud Valley that is being exterminated, that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong are your friends, no?" The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief asked.

"What had happened to them?" Chu Feng asked worriedly.

"They have already been captured by the lord from the Chu Heavenly Clan. I presume that they should be dead by now," The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

"Impossible! How could someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan be able to capture the two of them?" Chu Feng did not believe the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief. However, he was still extremely worried.

He felt that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were extremely cautious individuals. Even if Chu Luxuan wanted to kill them, it would not be that easy for him to do so.

Yet, they were actually captured?

However, the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief did not seem to be joking around. As such, Chu Feng was very worried.

"Do you think I'm deceiving you? I'm already someone who's going to die soon, why would I do such a foolish thing?"

"As for the person that captured them, it would naturally not be a member of the Chu Heavenly Clan's younger generation. Instead, the person who captured them is an extremely powerful lord, someone no one in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm can contend against," The Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief declared.

"That is even more impossible. The Chu Heavenly Clansmen are not allowed to concern themselves in the matters of their younger generation. How could that individual attack Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong?" Chu Feng said.

"How the hell would I know about something like that? However, I am certain of one thing. That is, your two friends have been captured, and are most likely dead by now."

“However, you don’t have to be so anxious either. After all, that lord will soon come and capture you too. Soon, you will be able to reunite with your friends.”

“Merely, at the time that you all reunite with one another, it will no longer be in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Instead, it will be in the underworld.”

“Of course, I will also wait for you there,” As the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief spoke those words, a strange smile emerged on his ashen face.

“Puu~~~”

Right at that moment, the sword in Chu Feng’s hand was pierced into the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief’s dantian.

“You!!!” Even though he was already prepared to be killed, the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief still revealed a painful expression when his dantian was actually pierced through by Chu Feng’s sword.

“You can go and wait for me down there. However, you will definitely not be able to see me. After all, I do not plan to go down there.”

After he finished saying those words, Chu Feng flipped his wrist, and the Magma Emperor Sword unleashed boundless power.

“Bang!” The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief exploded into pieces. He had been utterly killed.

Witnessing that scene, the crowd from the Three Stars Hall all shivered in their hearts.

Chu Feng was extremely decisive in killing. It was something that many people were unable to learn.

However, at the same time that they felt Chu Feng’s ruthlessness, they were actually feeling very relieved.

They knew very well that Chu Feng was an extremely ruthless individual.

Chu Feng's ruthlessness caused them to feel fear toward Chu Feng. However, no one felt disgusted with Chu Feng.

After all, all the people that Chu Feng had killed were their enemies, people who wanted to kill them.

Thus, even though Chu Feng had killed those people, the people from the Three Stars Hall did not blame Chu Feng. Instead, they felt grateful toward Chu Feng.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and layers of spirit power flowed out from him. They turned into golden rays that filled the sky. Like raindrops, they sprinkled down from the sky, landing on everyone's bodies.

Upon being enveloped by the golden raindrops, the injured people from the Three Stars Hall all recovered instantly.

Not only did all the pain they felt wash away, but they also felt much more spirited. It was like they had never been injured, and had instead taken special medicinal pellets.

“What a powerful world spirit technique.”

At that moment, many people let out voices of wonder.

Actually, to world spiritists, healing injuries was a simple matter.

However, they generally would only heal one or two individuals at a time. For something like what Chu Feng had just done where he healed everyone from the Three Stars Hall with a wave of his sleeve, it was not something that ordinary world spiritists could accomplish.

“This Immortal-cloak Spirit Power, little friend Chu Feng, you're already a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist now?”

The Three Stars Hall's Headmaster revealed a marvelous expression. He had managed to tell that Chu Feng's spirit power was that of a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

“Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?”

Upon hearing what the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster said, everyone revealed astonished expressions. They began to look to Chu Feng with even greater admiration.

In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, there were much fewer Immortal-cloak World Spiritists than peak Martial Ancestors. As for Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, their numbers were even fewer.

If Chu Feng had already astonished the crowd with his cultivation, then his world spirit techniques came as an even greater astonishment than his cultivation.

However, although he was faced with gazes of admiration, Chu Feng had a serious look on his face as he looked to the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster.

“Senior, you’ve also heard it. The Sunset Cloud Valley is in danger. I cannot ignore this.”

“Thus, this Chu Feng will take his leave today. If the opportunity presents itself again in the future, I will definitely come visit senior again,” Chu Feng said to the Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster.

“Go on ahead. There is a teleportation formation to the east. Using it, you will be able to reach the Sunset Cloud Valley sooner. Merely, little friend Chu Feng, you must be careful,” The Three Stars Hall’s Headmaster said.

“Senior, farewell,” Chu Feng clasped his fist. As his voice landed, he had already disappeared.

Chu Feng had left for the Sunset Cloud Valley.

He was uncertain whether or not what the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had said was true.

However, what he could be certain of was that if something were to happen to the Sunset Cloud Valley, if something were to happen to Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, then he, Chu Feng, would definitely make those people pay regardless of who they might be!!!

Chapter 2480 - Appointment To Fight Chu Feng

---

At that moment, there were two silhouettes rapidly proceeding toward the Sunset Cloud Valley.

It was an elderly individual and a young individual. The elderly individual was an old man with white hair. He appeared to be close to ten thousand years old. He could be considered a living old monster.

As for the young individual, she was a young woman. Whilst that woman was a member of the younger generation, she was still over fifty years old.

However, her appearance was still that of a youthful and beautiful young woman.

Most importantly, her eyes were even shining with the innocence of a young woman.

Furthermore, her gaze did not seem to be a disguise. Rather, that innocent gaze really did belong to her.

The two of them were not people from the Sunset Cloud Valley. They also did not possess any extraordinary relationship with the Sunset Cloud Valley. The reason why they were rushing toward the Sunset Cloud Valley was because of another person, Chu Feng.

The two of them were both individuals who felt admiration for Chu Feng.

“Master, do you really think that Chu Feng could still be alive?” The woman turned to ask the old man. When mentioning that matter, an expression of worry filled her eyes. She seemed to be afraid that her master would give her a negative answer.

“I was present when Chu Feng fought against the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“The Chu Feng from that day was simply unparalleled.”

“I have traveled the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm for all these years, yet have never seen someone exhibiting that sort of disposition of a ruler like Chu Feng did.”

“The way I see it, it was Chu Feng who spared the Kong Heavenly Clan. Else, the Kong Heavenly Clan would’ve already been exterminated. Say, how could such a powerful Chu Feng possibly die?” The old man asked.

“Then, Chu Feng is really still alive?” At that moment, the woman was overjoyed. She then asked, “Then, master, do you think that Chu Feng will accept the challenge?”

Hearing that question, the old man grew silent.

The reason why he was travelling there was because he had received news several days ago that Chu Luxuan had attacked the Sunset Cloud Valley and captured everyone from the Sunset Cloud Valley to declare war against Chu Feng.

If Chu Feng cared about the safety of the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley, he would go and accept Chu Luxuan’s challenge at the Sunset Cloud Valley.

If Chu Feng were to win, Chu Luxuan would no longer make things difficult for Chu Feng, and would also release everyone from the Sunset Cloud Valley.

If Chu Feng was to be defeated, Chu Luxuan would also not make things difficult for Chu Feng. He would only present a single choice for Chu Feng to take.

A choice between life and death...

Chu Feng could choose to live or die.

If he chose to die, then he had to kill himself. If he chose to live, then Chu Feng had to personally kill everyone from the Sunset Cloud Valley.

“Chu Feng is a loyal and true individual. I believe that once the news of what has happened reaches him, he will definitely come.”

“Merely, this Chu Luxuan could simply challenge Chu Feng openly. Yet, he instead decided to use the Sunset Cloud Valley to threaten Chu Feng.”

“Furthermore, he even spread the news that if Chu Feng were to lose to him, he could choose whether to live or die. From this, it can be seen that this Chu Luxuan’s character is quite low,” The old man said.

“That’s right. If Chu Feng were to really be defeated and chose to die, then everything would be over. However, if he chose to personally kill everyone from the Sunset Cloud Valley, his reputation will be swept away. Compared to death, that is simply even more painful.”

“That said, master, between Chu Feng and Chu Luxuan, who do you think to be even more powerful? That Chu Luxuan is, after all, a genius from the Chu Heavenly Clan. No one knows exactly how powerful he is,” The woman said.

“Regardless of how powerful Chu Luxuan might be, could he possibly take care on the entire Kong Heavenly Clan by himself?” The old man asked with a smile.

“I don’t think Chu Luxuan can accomplish that,” The woman also smiled sweetly.

“There we go then. If Chu Feng is to really come, you will know how powerful Chu Feng is.”

“He will definitely not disappoint you,” As the old man said those words, anticipation appeared in his eyes.

“I am also very much looking forward to it,” The woman smiled even sweeter. However, her gaze suddenly shifted. She pointed to the distance and said, “Master, look! That’s Senior Song and Senior Lin. Their disciples are also with them. Everyone has come.”

“Chu Luxuan had already spread the news before he even attacked the Sunset Cloud Valley. They’re all located quite close to the Sunset Cloud Valley. Thus, they most probably rushed over the moment they received the news. Merely, we’ve all come for Chu Feng, and not for that Chu Luxuan,” The old man smiled faintly. As he spoke, he turned to wave at the several people in the distance.

“Merely, is Chu Luxuan really capable of taking down the Sunset Cloud Valley?” The woman was a bit skeptical.

“Look at that,” The old man pointed ahead.

“Heavens, that is?!!!” Following the location of the old man’s finger, the woman revealed an astonished expression.

The direction where he pointed to was naturally that of the Sunset Cloud Valley. At that moment, there was an enormous spirit formation cage spinning around directly above the Sunset Cloud Valley.

That spirit formation cage was humongous, and emitting a bright glimmer. It was even more eye-catching than the Sunset Cloud Valley itself.

Upon approaching, one could see that the spirit formation cage was packed full with people. They were actually all the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley.

It was obvious whether or not Chu Luxuan managed to take down the Sunset Cloud Valley.

As the Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had declared, the Sunset Cloud Valley had been attacked and breached by Chu Luxuan several days ago.

However, the Sunset Cloud Valley was not met with the same sort of devastation as the Three Stars Hall. On the contrary, not a single person from the Sunset Cloud Valley had died.

Chu Luxuan had only occupied the Sunset Cloud Valley and held everyone there captive. However, he did not actually kill anyone.

The reason he did so, was for the sake of a single individual, Chu Feng. He was going to use the Sunset Cloud Valley to threaten Chu Feng and force him to come accept his challenge.

At that moment. In a certain mountain peak of the Sunset Cloud Valley stood several figures.

Among them were the Four World Spiritist Emperors' mother, the World Spiritist Saintess.

Apart from the World Spiritist Saintess, the several other figures standing beside her were also renowned individuals in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

In fact, their cultivations were even stronger than that of the World Spiritist Saintess; they were all peak Martial Ancestors.

However, those renowned individuals were all standing behind a young man. From their gazes and appearance, one could tell that they possessed obvious reverence for that young man.

As for that young man, he possessed a handsome appearance. However, below his sharp eyebrows, his eyes contained the look of someone who considered themselves to be unsurpassed in the entire world.

He was Chu Luyang's younger brother, a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan, Chu Luxuan.

"Judging from the time, the Ying Heavenly Clan should've succeeded in their task by now. With the nature of the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, the Three Stars Hall has likely been completely eradicated from our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm," The World Spiritist Saintess said.

"The reason why I decided to take in the Ying Heavenly Clan is precisely because of the hatred the Ying Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief held toward the Three Stars Hall. If he is to slaughter everyone, while I am to not kill a single person, this will better show how benevolent and righteous I am,” Chu Luxuan said.

“Young Master Chu is truly wise. This old man feels utter admiration,” An old man clasped his fist and spoke flattering words.

“In addition to being wise, Young Master Chu also possesses extraordinary rallying power. It has only been such a short period of time. Yet, so many people have managed to rush over here.”

“If the news of Young Master Chu seizing control of the Sunset Cloud Valley to issue a challenge to Chu Feng is to spread throughout the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, I wonder how many more grand characters will rush over,” Another old man started to flatter Chu Luxuan.

“I am, after all, from the Upper Realms. Furthermore, I am a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan. They are all extremely curious to how strong I am. Now that I am willing to display my strength, they will naturally rush over here,” Chu Luxuan said in a very proud manner.

“Merely, didn’t that Chu Feng die two years ago? Young Master Chu, do you really think he’s still alive?” Someone asked.

“So what if he’s dead, so what if he’s alive? If he is dead, I can say that he’s still alive and did not dare to come and accept my challenge, that he deliberately hid himself. With that, I can label him a coward who does not dare to accept a challenge,” Chu Luxuan said.

“Young Master Chu, if that Chu Feng is still alive and receives news of this, will he really come?” The World Spiritist Saintess asked.

“If he is truly still alive and dares to show up, I will make him die by my hands. I will have everyone witness the strength that I, Chu Luxuan, possess.”

“I will have everyone in your Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm realize that a genius from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is simply incomparable to a genius of our Chu Heavenly Clan,” When mentioning this matter, Chu Luxuan’s face was filled with absolute confidence.

Chapter 2481 - Coward Chu Feng

---

“Young Hero Chu is extraordinarily talented. Your understanding of martial cultivation is something that no commoner could compare with. The Ying Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had been unable to make any progress in cultivation for many years. Yet, with instructions from you, he managed to reach a breakthrough in merely a short period of time.”

“The reason why the Ying Heavenly Clan was daring enough to go and attack the Three Stars Hall by themselves was all thanks to Young Master Chu,” Someone flattered.

“Young Master Chu is, without a doubt, extremely talented. You’re so young, yet you’re already a rank seven Martial Ancestor. In my opinion, even that extremely arrogant Young Master Li Ming would not be able to compare to Young Master Chu.”

“Oh, that’s right. Young Master Chu is a possessor of a Heavenly Bloodline. After activating your Heavenly Bloodline, with your cultivation of rank seven Martial Ancestor, it will truly be difficult for anyone below the True Immortal level to contend against you.”

“That Chu Feng will probably not show up. However, if he dares to show himself, he will undoubtedly be defeated and bring about his own disgrace.”

The many old monsters standing behind Chu Luxuan that had lived for thousands of years were flattering him, a member of the younger generation, nonstop.

Furthermore, they spoke in an extremely serious manner, without feeling the slightest bit of shame. From this, it could be seen that they truly had thick skin.

For the sake of obtaining benefits, they were willing to discard their status and dignity.

“Have you all encountered Chu Feng? Have you all seen Chu Feng fight before?” Right at that moment, the World Spiritist Saintess suddenly spoke out, questioning the crowd.

“Eh...” The crowd were left speechless. The great majority of them had never met Chu Feng, much less seen him fight.

“Since you all do not understand Chu Feng in the slightest, it is best that you do not say this sort of thing. Else, you might end up harming Young Master Chu,” The World Spiritist Saintess said.

“World Spiritist Saintess, it seems that you’re not confident in me?” At that moment, Chu Luxuan frowned slightly and revealed a displeased expression.

“Young Master Chu, it is not that I am not confident in you. If I was, why would I submit to you?”

“I merely do not want you to underestimate your enemy. The reason for that is because I have personally fought that Chu Feng before. That child is no ordinary character. At the very least, I was unable to gain any advantage over him. Instead, I suffered enormously,” The World Spiritist Saintess said.

“Just because you were unable to gain an advantage over him doesn’t mean that I cannot. What makes you think that he could be discussed alongside me?”

“At the very most, he was someone who bullied my older brother while I was not around. If I were here, the one to die would’ve been him.”

When mentioning that matter, Chu Luxuan clenched his fists tightly and revealed a strong killing intent from his eyes.

From that, it could be seen that he hated Chu Feng to his bones.

“Young Master Chu, I am the same as you. That Chu Feng is also my enemy. More than anyone else, I wish for the death of that Chu Feng.”

“That is why I submitted to you. It’s because I know that it will be very difficult for me to kill him with my strength. However, it will be different for...”

“Enough, you don’t have to say anymore.”

The World Spiritist Saintess wanted to explain. However, before she could finish, Chu Luxuan cut her off.

At that moment, intense battle intent had appeared in Chu Luxuan’s eyes. He looked at the World Spiritist Saintess and said, “Listen carefully. If that Chu Feng dares to appear before me, I will have him know who the true genius is, that he, Chu Feng, is simply unable to compare to me.”

After he finished saying those words, Chu Luxuan turned and left the mountain peak.

“World Spiritist Saintess, why did you bother saying those words? It is not beneficial for you in the slightest to provoke the anger of Young Master Chu.”

“That’s right, what’s happened to you in the past few days? How can you not be able to discern the situation? Do you not know who Young Master Chu is?”

After Chu Luxuan left, those old monsters began to speak to the World Spiritist Saintess.

“I merely did not wish for Young Master Chu to be careless, for I have also underestimated Chu Feng like you all.”

“However, it ended up being that... I suffered enormously by that Chu Feng’s hands. Thus, I merely want you all to know that you must absolutely not underestimate that Chu Feng.”

“Don’t forget that he nearly extinguished the Kong Heavenly Clan by himself two years ago. If he is really still alive after these two years, have you all ever thought of how powerful he would’ve become?” The World Spiritist Saintess asked.

As she said those words, her eyes that were generally filled with a condescending expression actually showed intense worry and fear.

“World Spiritist Saintess, it is not that we are looking down on you. However, you are simply thinking too highly of that Chu Feng.”

“He nearly extinguished the Kong Heavenly Clan by himself? If that were the case, why did he disappear? Why was the one that disappeared not the Kong Heavenly Clan instead?”

“None of us were present back then. As for those rumors, we must not easily trust them. After all, for a lot of things, one can only believe them should one witness them.”

“In short, I do not believe that Chu Feng, a mere Half Martial Ancestor, would possess the strength to kill True Immortals.”

“Furthermore, I must remind you of this. Regardless of how powerful Chu Feng might be, he remains only a genius of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, who is Young Master Chu? He is a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan!”

“I believe you know very well what the Chu Heavenly Clan is without me having to explain it to you. They are a clan that could drown the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm with merely a spit. A genius from a clan like that is most definitely a dragon among men, an existence that no one in our Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm could contend against.”

“Thus, you shouldn’t have groundless fears and worry about all that.”

“Unless that Chu Feng does not dare come, he will definitely bring about his own destruction by coming,” After the crowd finished saying those words, they dispersed.

At that moment, only the World Spiritist Saintess remained. She looked into the distance and saw the figures that were appearing nonstop and entering the Sunset Cloud Valley.

She knew that those were all individuals that had received news of the challenge, people that had come to watch the battle between Chu Feng and Chu Luxuan.

However, at that moment, the World Spiritist Saintess still had an expression filled with worry in her eyes. Quietly, she muttered, “I suddenly hope that Chu Feng doesn’t come.”

After saying those words, the World Spiritist Saintess looked to the direction that Chu Luxuan and the others had left in. With a voice that only she could hear, she muttered, “Else, you will all regret it.”

The following two days, more and more people arrived upon receiving the news.

They came mainly for two purposes. The first was to see whether or not Chu Feng was still alive.

As for the second, it would naturally be to see exactly who, between the renowned Chu Feng and the genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan, Chu Luxuan, was stronger.

On the third day, more and more people arrived at the Sunset Cloud Valley. From the few people that would arrive from time to time, it became groups of people that would arrive together. Furthermore, the great majority of the people that arrived were people that held some status in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

On the fourth day, a large signboard was erected above the Sunset Cloud Valley.

The signboard was a thousand meters tall and two thousand meters wide. It stood horizontally in the sky, and was extremely eye-catching.

The signboard was completely blank. No one knew why such a signboard was floating in the sky.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, a figure holding a sword suddenly appeared before that signboard.

At that moment, the crowd's gazes grew serious. Even though it was the first time that many people encountered that person, they were able to guess that that man was the genius from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Chu Luxuan held an Ancestral Armament sword in his hand. Before the crowd, he began to move his sword on the signboard.

Golden brilliance radiated all around as metallic sparks swirled in the air. Chu Luxuan personally carved three words onto the signboard.

“That is...”

“That is simply too excessive, no?!!!”

Upon seeing those three words, the crowd all revealed astonished expressions.

Many of the people that had come to support Chu Feng revealed angry expressions.

The reason for that was because those three words were related to Chu Feng.

‘Coward Chu Feng!!!’

Chapter 2482 - Arrival Of The Genius

---

Seemingly sensing the discontent among the crowd, Chu Luxuan turned around and cast his gaze to the crowd.

With a proud and arrogant tone, he said, “Perhaps you all might think that it is somewhat inappropriate for me to place this signboard here right now. After all, the news of me challenging Chu Feng to a battle has yet to spread to the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Perhaps Chu Feng still doesn’t know that I have challenged him.”

“However, I dare to guarantee to you all that Chu Feng... is nothing more than a coward. After he arrives, I will personally prove to you that not only is he a coward, but he is also an utter weakling.”

“Boom~~~”

After he finished saying those words, a boundless surge of martial power swept forth from Chu Luxuan and into the crowd’s bodies.

“Rank seven Martial Ancestor. Chu Luxuan is actually... a rank seven Martial Ancestor.”

The crowd were all astonished. For a member of the younger generation to possess such a cultivation and the Heavenly Bloodline’s formidable power, everyone knew what it meant.

It meant that Chu Luxuan’s reputation as a genius was fully justified.

After all, when Chu Feng became famous two years ago, he was merely a Half Martial Ancestor.

“No wonder Chu Luxuan is so confident. His cultivation is indeed not something that ordinary people could contend against. Likely, Chu Feng will not be a match for him.”

“It’s not that its unlikely, but rather absolutely impossible. Regardless of how powerful Chu Feng might be, it would still be impossible for him to become a rank seven Martial Ancestor in two years’ time.”

“Sure enough, a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan is no small matter. He is not someone that we people from an Ordinary Realm could compare to.”

The crowd began to discuss Chu Luxuan spiritedly. Astonishment filled the tones of their words. They were all awed by Chu Luxuan’s strength.

In fact, even those people who supported Chu Feng started to sway.

They felt that even if Chu Feng were still alive, could he really defeat a genius from the Upper Realms, a genius from the Chu Heavenly Clan?

“You all are overthinking things. Chu Feng might not even have the courage to come. After all, once this news spreads, the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan might rush over to take care of him too.”

“Say, when faced with a situation like this, would that Chu Feng really dare come?”

“Thus, in my opinion, what Young Master Chu said is very true. That Chu Feng is simply a coward.”

There were actually many people among the crowd that thought that Chu Feng would not dare to come. Some even seized the opportunity to flatter Chu Luxuan, and began to talk maliciously about Chu Feng.

At that moment, the people that supported Chu Feng felt extremely furious.

However, when faced with Chu Luxuan, they were unable to say anything, and did not dare to voice their own feelings. As such, they could only sullenly hold their anger in.

“Those who felt that I would not dare to come, I’m afraid that I’ll have to disappoint you all.”

Right at that moment, a voice was suddenly heard. It came like a thunderbolt striking that region.

Space itself trembled violently, and cracks appeared in the ground. At the same time... everyone present felt shaken by the voice.

They all turned their gazes toward the direction of the voice, and revealed very complicated emotions.

There was anticipation, worry and fear.

They were all wondering whether or not that person was the person from two years ago.

If that person was the same person, wouldn’t it mean that he was still alive?

Two years ago, he was said to have nearly extinguished the entire Kong Heavenly Clan. Was that real or not?

How much had he matured in two years’ time?

Before the gazes of the crowd, that empty space started to tremble. Following that, the crowd’s hearts began to accelerate.

Finally, a crack appeared in that space. Then, a figure stepped out from thin air and appeared before the crowd.

That person was none other than Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng! It is Chu Feng!!!”

“Chu Feng is actually alive! He is actually still alive!!”

Upon seeing Chu Feng, the crowd all revealed exceptionally marvelous expressions. Many among them did not dare to believe it to be true.

After all, Chu Feng had disappeared for two years. According to the rumors, he had already died two years ago.

Yet now, Chu Feng had actually appeared before them in the flesh. How could they not be astonished by this?

While there were people who were overjoyed by Chu Feng's appearance, there were also people that were scared by his appearance. Those that were overjoyed would naturally be Chu Feng's supporters. As for those who were scared, they were naturally the ones who had spoken ill of Chu Feng earlier.

Although they had spoken maliciously of Chu Feng, that did not mean that they were not afraid of Chu Feng.

After all, all the rumors regarding Chu Feng were extraordinary. This was especially true when it came to the battle he had fought against the Kong Heavenly Clan two years ago. That one rumor had turned Chu Feng into a legend.

During the two years Chu Feng had been gone, many people felt that he had died.

However, now that he had appeared in the flesh, who would dare to look down on him? Who would dare to hold him in contempt?

Not to mention the crowd composed of Half Martial Ancestors and Martial Ancestors, it was likely that not even True Immortals would dare to casually attack Chu Feng.

After all, regardless of how Chu Feng had managed to accomplish it, it remained that Chu Feng had killed the Kong Heavenly Clan's True Immortals.

Seeing the surprised, scared, overjoyed and saddened expressions of the crowd, Chu Feng revealed a faint smile.

He did not pay attention to the crowd. Instead, he cast his gaze to the spirit formation cage not far away. Imprisoned within that cage were the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley. Among them were naturally people Chu Feng was familiar with.

There was the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, Xu Yiyi, Xu Yiyi's master and many others with decent relationships with Chu Feng imprisoned there.

With a smile on his face, Chu Feng nodded at the people inside the cage.

It was as if he was telling the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, Xu Yiyi and the others that they shouldn't worry, because he would definitely save them.

Strangely, even though it was only a simple action, the Sunset Cloud Valley's Valley Master, Xu Yiyi and the others all managed to calm down. One by one, they returned Chu Feng's smile.

They were, after all, people who had interacted with Chu Feng before. Thus, they knew Chu Feng relatively well, and were completely confident in him.

They felt that Chu Feng was someone capable of bringing about miracles. Thus, they believed that since Chu Feng dared to show up, he would definitely have the ability to save them from this crisis.

Finally, Chu Feng turned his gaze to the rest of the crowd. His gaze also landed on Chu Luxuan, the World Spiritist Saintess and the others.

At that moment, Chu Feng smiled again. It was a very meaningful smile. Then, he added to what he had said earlier.

"I, Chu Feng, am a coward? There's no need for anyone else to determine whether or not I am a coward for I, Chu Feng, will prove whether or not I am a coward myself."

"Boom~~~"

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, a burst of aura emerged from Chu Feng's body. It swept through heaven and earth and filled the air.

It was the aura of Chu Feng's cultivation!!!

Chu Feng's aura transformed the weather and darkened the sky. The previously sunny and cloudless sky was suddenly filled with thunder and lightning.

"Heavens! Quickly, feel Chu Feng's aura. He... he is actually also a rank seven Martial Ancestor!"

"Wasn't Chu Feng said to only be a Half Martial Ancestor two years ago? How did he manage to become a rank seven Martial Ancestor in merely two years?!"

"This is simply too unimaginable!!!"

The crowd was extremely astonished. For many people, two years' time would not even be enough to reach a single breakthrough in cultivation. Yet, Chu Feng had actually managed to grow this much. This caused them to be unable to contain their astonishment.

If Chu Feng was able to fight against the Kong Heavenly Clan two years ago because he had relied on the power of his Demon Armament, then the current Chu Feng was proving himself to the crowd with his actual cultivation. Even if he didn't use any special weapons, he, Chu Feng, was still not someone to be looked down upon.

He was still someone qualified for the title of genius!!!

"Chu Feng, never did I expect that you actually really dared to come. I admire your courage. However... do you know why I admire your courage?" Chu Luxuan said to Chu Feng.

"Why?" Chu Feng asked.

"Because your arrival in this place will only bring about your own disgrace."

"Even though you already knew this would happen, you still dared to come. How could I not admire that courage of yours?"

Chu Luxuan mocked.

“Haha...” Chu Feng chuckled. Then, he said casually, “As fellow rank seven Martial Ancestors, how are you so certain that you will be able to defeat me?”

As Chu Feng spoke, he flipped his palm, and an Ancestral Armament appeared in his hand.

That Ancestral Armament looked as if it had been made of crystal. It was translucent, and measured seven and a half feet long. It was like a blade, yet not a blade; like a sword, yet not a sword. Contained within the body of the blade were faint golden veined patterns. The veined patterns were flickering with light and giving rise to winds. Those winds were visible to the naked eye. Like a tornado, they revolved around the Ancestral Armament.

“That is...”

Upon seeing that Ancestral Armament, the World Spiritist Saintess’ expression changed. The reason for that was because she managed to recognize with a single glance that that Ancestral Armament was the Stormwind Edge.

Originally, this Stormwind Edge was something that she had purchased with an enormous sum. However, during a gamble against Chu Feng, she had lost it to him.

At that moment, the Ancestral Armament that had originally belonged to her was being used by Chu Feng. It caused the World Spiritist Saintess to feel extremely pained in her heart.

Chapter 2483 - Amount Of Secret Skills

---

It was said that the stronger an Ancestral Armament was, the more difficult it would be to subdue it.

As for the Stormwind Edge, one did not have to doubt its quality. As Chu Feng was able to subdue it, it meant that Chu Feng's strength was undoubtedly strong.

Thus, upon seeing that Chu Feng was holding the Stormwind Edge in his hand under absolute control, even Chu Luxuan's gaze changed.

“That's a pretty decent weapon. Unfortunately, it has chosen the wrong master,” As Chu Luxuan spoke, his eyes started to flicker with lightning. Then, both his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared in unison. With a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, he flew toward Chu Feng.

“Zzzzzz~~~”

Chu Feng was not to be outdone. He too unleashed the power of his Heavenly Bloodline. Then, with the Stormwind Edge in hand, he flew toward Chu Luxuan to confront him.

“Clank, clank, clank, clank~~~”

The two Heavenly Bloodline possessors did not use any martial skills when fighting. Instead, each with an Ancestral Armament in hand, the two of them entered a melee battle.

The two Ancestral Armaments collided with one another nonstop. At the same time as they caused dazzling sparks, the special powers of the two Ancestral Armaments began to bombard their opponents.

The energies were extremely powerful. They had already filled the entire battlefield with energy ripples.

However, to Chu Feng and Chu Luxuan, while the energies created by the collision of their Ancestral Armaments might affect them, those energies were unable to truly harm them.

To them, the actual threat would be their opponent's Ancestral Armament. As long as they were not struck by the Ancestral Armament, they would not be in fatal danger.

As such, what the two of them must do right now was not merely dodge and block their opponent's Ancestral Armament. Most importantly, they had to pierce their opponent's body with their own Ancestral Armament.

“Amazing! So these are Heavenly Bloodline possessors. Even though they were clearly only rank seven Martial Ancestors, their cultivation increased to rank nine Martial Ancestor upon activating the power of their Heavenly Bloodlines. Furthermore, they even both possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation.”

“This is simply too frightening. Unless their opponents are also possessors of Heavenly Bloodlines, it is likely that no one else other than True Immortals will be able to contend against them.”

At that moment, the crowd all revealed marvelous expressions.

The great majority of them were Martial Ancestors. Thus, when Chu Feng and Chu Luxuan began fighting, they were able to personally realize how frightening the two of them were.

This was especially true for those experts who had reached the peak Martial Ancestor realm of cultivation. At that moment, they felt even greater reverence for Chu Feng and Chu Luxuan.

Although they were only two people from the younger generation, and had trained in martial cultivation for far fewer years than themselves, they were able to imagine very well what sort of end they would meet should they fight against either Chu Feng or Chu Luxuan.

Upon thinking about it, they had no choice but to revere those two individuals from the younger generation.

The reason for that was because they knew that they would undoubtedly be defeated if they were to fight either of them.

“Rumble~~~”

Suddenly, a loud explosion sounded in the sky.

At the same time, surging golden energy took the form of a tornado that ravaged the skies, spreading wider and outward.

It was Chu Luxuan. Chu Luxuan had suddenly used a martial skill during his confrontation with Chu Feng. Furthermore, it was an Emperor Taboo Martial Skill from the get-go.

Merely, his Emperor Taboo Martial Skill was blocked by Chu Feng’s Black Tortoise Armor Technique.

Following Chu Feng’s increase in strength, his Four Symbols Secret Skills had also grown much stronger. Although it was still somewhat difficult for him to use the Black Tortoise Armor Technique to block Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills, the Black Tortoise Armor Technique was more than sufficient to block Emperor Taboo Martial Skills.

“You actually grasped a secret skill?”

Chu Luxuan frowned slightly. Evidently, he was surprised that Chu Feng had grasped a secret skill.

“Haha...”

Chu Feng replied with a chuckle. He felt this Chu Luxuan to be extremely despicable to suddenly unleash a Taboo Martial Skill at him. Fortunately, he responded quickly. Else, if he were someone else, Chu Luxuan’s sneak attack might have ended up being successful.

“However, Chu Feng, you are not the only one with a secret skill. If we are to compare the amount of secret skills we possess, then I will definitely make you feel endlessly ashamed.”

Suddenly, Chu Luxuan retreated backwards explosively. Following that, a red radiance began to shine from his body.

The next moment, the red radiance turned into six. Then, all six of them shone from his body together.

Soon, the six red radiances turned into six figures that stood before Chu Luxuan.

Those six figures were each over thirty meters tall. They stood like humans, but possessed the bodies of beasts and extremely fierce faces.

They were all emitting a red glow, as well as auras capable of shaking one's core. They resembled four demons that had crawled out from the depths of hell.

“Secret skills! He actually managed to grasp six secret skills?!” Upon seeing those six red figures, someone cried out in alarm.

“His secret skills don't seem to be very powerful. Even if he is to send out six, they don't seem to be Chu Feng's match, no?” A person from the younger generation spoke in a questioning tone. He was unable to understand why Chu Luxuan would release those six secret skills even though they would clearly not be able to defeat Chu Feng.

This was simply a superfluous act.

“You don't understand. While there are strong and weak secret skills, one thing is constant. That is, secret skills are attached to the souls of their user. As their user grows more powerful, the secret skills will also grow more powerful.”

“Thus, for identical levels of cultivation, secret skills are generally stronger than martial skills.”

“And, precisely because of that, secret skills place an enormous burden on a cultivator's body. As such, for ordinary people, containing two secret skills would be extremely difficult, and three secret skills could be said to be the limit. Those capable of using four are all geniuses.”

“This Chu Luxuan is able to use six secret skills. From this, it can be seen how outstandingly talented he is. He is fully deserving of the title of genius,” An experienced and knowledgeable old man explained.

After hearing the explanation from that old man, many people came to realize that Chu Luxuan being able to grasp six secret skills was extremely exceptional.

Seemingly able to hear the exclamations of admiration and praise from the crowd, Chu Luxuan revealed a proud smile. The gaze with which he looked to Chu Feng was also filled with contempt and provocation.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, with a single thought from Chu Feng, the Vermilion Bird, Black Tortoise, White Tiger and Azure Dragon, the Four Symbols Secret Skills, were all unleashed.

The Four Symbols Secret Skills were currently not attached to Chu Feng’s body. Rather, they took the form of four enormous beasts and appeared in the sky.

Merely in terms of size and imposing might, the Four Symbols Secret Skills completely overshadowed Chu Luxuan’s six secret skills.

“Chu Feng actually grasped four secret skills. He is truly a genius. The tolerance of his body is incomparable to ordinary people.”

Upon seeing Chu Feng’s four secret skills, the crowd started to exclaim in admiration again.

At that moment, Chu Luxuan’s proud expression dwindled slightly. However, he still said mockingly, “Four? Pretty good. However, compared to me, you’re still lacking.”

“They all say that the amount of secret skills one can support represents one’s talent and potential. It would seem that your potential is merely of this level.”

“Is that so?” Chu Feng smiled. Then, with a thought, five rays of light flew out from his body and appeared before him.

Naturally, they were the Five Elements Secret Skills, the Gold Immortal Profound Technique, Wood Immortal Profound Technique, Water Immortal Profound Technique, Fire Immortal Profound Technique and Earth Immortal Profound Technique.

“The auras of those five, could it... could it be that they’re also secret skills?”

“Chu Feng, Chu Feng actually grasped nine secret skills?!!!”

“This is simply too inconceivable!!!”

“Is... is he still human?!”

At that moment, the crowd were completely stunned. Many people even started to shiver with goosebumps all over.

If four secret skills could already signal one to be a genius, then one could very well imagine what nine secret skills represented.

At that moment, the crowd were completely captivated by Chu Feng’s nine secret skills, feeling envy and admiration for Chu Feng’s secret skills.

As for Chu Luxuan, he was no longer able to endure it. He no longer showed the complacency he had revealed before. On the contrary, his expression turned extremely ugly. Even the corners of his mouth were twitching.

Nine secret skills. Indeed, it was something that not even he could accomplish.

Six secret skills was his limit. This was something that he knew very well.

If the amount of secret skills one could hold represented the strength of one's talent...

It was obvious that he had lost to Chu Feng in that.

Chapter 2484 - The Battle Between Geniuses

---

“Chu Feng, don’t you think that you’re actually stronger than me just because you possess more secret skills.”

“What martial cultivation demands is strength. That is the same for secret skills.”

“Today, I, Chu Luxuan, will let you realise the strength of powerful secret skills.”

After Chu Luxuan said those words, he suddenly clasped his hands together. Then, a red radiance once again started to emit from his body.

The red radiance began to enter the six red figures nonstop. Following that, the six red figures began to grow indistinct. Then, they began to fuse in one location.

In the blink of an eye, the six red figures fused into a huge monster.

That huge monster was several hundred meters tall, and over a thousand meters long. It possessed a total of six heads and twenty six claws.

There were too many claws. It was as if it were permanently attacking. It was an extremely disgusting appearance.

However, not a single person present dared to look down on that monster.

The reason for that was because the aura that the monster emitted was exceptionally powerful. Its aura was actually much more powerful than even Chu Luxuan’s aura.

Naturally, it would also mean that that powerful monster was much more powerful than Chu Feng.

“What is happening? Did he fuse the secret skills together?”

“Amazing! The aura of that fused secret skill is simply too powerful. Its power has simply surpassed that of Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills!”

The crowd were all awed by Chu Luxuan’s fused secret skill.

It could also be said that they were frightened. After all, the aura that that fused secret skill was emitting was something that no one present could withstand.

They knew very well that if that monster born of Chu Luxuan’s secret skills were to unleash a slaughter, it was likely that not a single person present would be able to escape death. In fact, they would not even have the opportunity to flee.

“This secret skill is called the Six Demons Transformation. It was created by the renowned Lord Six Demons.”

“Likely, a country bumpkin like you must’ve never heard of Lord Six Demons’ distinguished name.”

“Thus, you merely need to keep in mind that Lord Six Demons is an existence that you can only look up to your entire life.”

“As this secret skill, the Six Demons Transformation, was created by Lord Six Demons, not to mention its power, merely its value is already inestimable.”

“This is the greatest reward I’ve obtained from the Chu Heavenly Clan. Of course, while it is a reward, I relied on my own strength to master it.”

“The reason for that is because there are six people who have obtained this secret skill before me. However, they all failed to withstand the Six Demons Transformation, and ended up having no choice but to give up,” Chu Luxuan spoke very proudly.

His actions could be said to be openly blowing his own horn, flattering himself in public.

However, it just so happened that not a single person felt disgusted with his actions. On the contrary, they merely felt admiration upon hearing those words.

After all, what Chu Luxuan said was the truth. If it were them, they would definitely not be able to control such a powerful secret skill.

“Pah! Fucking disgusting. This Chu Luxuan is simply even more shameless than his older brother,” However, when Her Lady Queen heard those words, she spit in disgust.

Then, she said, “Chu Feng, use the Ancient Era’s War Axe. Have this so-called Chu Heavenly Clan’s genius realize what it means by ‘no matter how strong you are, there is someone stronger than you,’ that no matter how powerful a secret skill might be, there is always a secret skill more powerful than it.”

“Since Milady Queen has spoken, I will naturally comply with Milady Queen’s order,” Chu Feng answered with a smile.

The conversation between Chu Feng and Her Lady Queen was something that only Chu Feng and Her Lady Queen could hear. However, the smile that Chu Feng revealed was visible to everyone.

While it would be one thing if others saw it, Chu Feng’s smile just so happened to be seen by the boasting Chu Luxuan. Upon seeing Chu Feng’s smile, Chu Luxuan’s expression turned extremely ugly.

“The hell are you smiling for? Are you looking down on my secret skill, my Six Demons Transformation?!” Chu Luxuan asked furiously.

“No, it’s not that I’m looking down upon it. Rather, it’s just that after hearing you blow your own horn, I found it kind of ridiculous. Are you that afraid of others not knowing how extraordinarily amazing you are?” Chu Feng asked mockingly.

“Blow my own horn, you say? Very well, this Young Master will have you understand whether I am blowing my own horn, or whether I possess actual ability,” After Chu Luxuan said those words, his eyes started to shine red.

The next moment, the Six Demons Transformation also shone with the same sort of redness in its many eyes. It was as if the Six Demons Transformation was being controlled by Chu Luxuan.

Most importantly, the aura of the Six Demons Transformation became many times stronger than before.

“Oh no! That secret skill is simply too powerful. Chu Feng will likely not be a match for it.”

At that moment, Chu Feng’s supporters all revealed worried expressions. They were all afraid that Chu Feng would not be able to withstand an attack from that secret skill.

“Chu Feng, I’ve heard that you possess a Demon Armament. You should take it out right now. Else... don’t say that I didn’t give you a chance to do so,” Chu Luxuan said to Chu Feng. While he spoke as if he was allowing Chu Feng to use his Demon Armament, he was actually mocking Chu Feng.

At that moment, the bystanders started to anticipate Chu Feng’s reveal of the Demon Armament even more.

After all, it was rumored that Chu Feng was only able to battle against the Kong Heavenly Clan two years ago because of that Demon Armament.

However, it remained that a rumor would only be a rumor. For the majority of the crowd, they had no idea as to what had really happened.

Thus, they all wanted to know whether or not Chu Feng actually possessed that powerful Demon Armament, whether or not that rumor was real.

“It seems that you’re quite knowledgeable with your information. Indeed, I possess a Demon Armament,” Chu Feng said with a smile on his face.

“He really possesses a Demon Armament. In that case, would that mean that the rumor is true? Chu Feng really managed to nearly extinguish the entire Kong Heavenly Clan using that Demon Armament?” Hearing what Chu Feng said, the crowd burst into a complete uproar. That bit of news was truly shocking.

“However, for someone like you, there is simply no need for me to use my Demon Armament,” Chu Feng added.

“What do you mean by that?! You actually dare to underestimate me?!” Fury emerged in Chu Luxuan’s eyes as his facial expression turned extremely fierce.

As a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan, he was someone adored by everyone his entire life. Never had he ever been held in such contempt in such a manner before.

For someone as proud and arrogant as him, this was simply unbearable.

“Aren’t you fond of using secret skills? In that case, I will have you experience today what an actually powerful secret skill is.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he pointed the Ancestral Armament he held in his hand toward the sky.

“Rumble~~~”

The next moment, rumbles began to sound in the sky as golden radiance began to spread about. Then, an enormous golden war axe appeared in the sky.

The moment that golden war axe appeared, the aura of the Six Demon Transformation was completely suppressed.

Naturally, the secret skill that possessed such overwhelming battle power was the secret skill that Chu Feng had obtained from the Ancient Era’s War Clan, the Ancient Era’s War Axe!!!

“Heavens! I am not dreaming, right? Chu Feng, he... he... he actually possesses ten secret skills!”

“His body is capable of tolerating ten secret skills!”

“Not only that, but this tenth secret skill’s aura is simply too frightening! It seems to be an entire realm stronger than Chu Feng!”

After the Ancient Era’s War Axe appeared, everyone was stunned. Many people even began to rub their eyes nonstop. They were trying to carefully distinguish whether or not they were seeing things.

“False bravado! I refuse to believe that this secret skill of yours will be able to surpass my Six Demons Transformation!” At that moment, Chu Luxuan urged the Six Demons Transformation to rush to attack Chu Feng.

In the blink of an eye, crimson radiance covered half of the entire region. It seemed to possess the imposing power capable of contending against Chu Feng’s Ancient Era’s War Axe.

At this moment, the Six Demons Transformation’s twenty-six tentacle-like claws were all extending. With rapid speed, they rushed to attack Chu Feng.

Witnessing that scene, the crowd began to worry deeply for Chu Feng again.

After all, the attack of the Six Demons Transformation was frighteningly powerful. Even though Chu Feng had revealed his extraordinary might, the crowd was still not absolutely confident in him.

“Snap~~~”

However, right at that moment, a golden flash swept through the sky.

At the moment that golden flash appeared, the red radiance instantly grew dimmer.

The next moment, the crowd was stupefied.

This was especially true for those people who were worried about Chu Feng. They finally realized that their worries...
...were unnecessary.

Chapter 2485 - The Outcome Has Been Determined

---

The fierce and powerful Six Demons Transformation was still in the sky.

However, the red gaseous flames that it emitted had grown much dimmer.

Not only that, but the frightening tentacles it had used to attack Chu Feng had all been cut off.

Naturally, the one to sever its tentacles was the Ancient Era's War Axe that currently stood horizontally in the sky.

At that moment, the golden gaseous flames emitted by the Ancient Era's War Axe had covered over half of the sky. Its overwhelming power seemed to be telling everyone that regardless of how grand of an origin the Six Demons Transformation might possess, it would still not be able to contend against it.

"Seems like your secret skill is only of this level," Chu Feng mocked.

Hearing those words, Chu Luxuan turned deathly pale. Raging fury emerged in his eyes.

"You damned bastard! You dare underestimate me?! I'll make you pay!!!"

"Heeeahhh!!!"

Suddenly, Chu Luxuan shouted furiously. Then, a steady flow of red gaseous flames started to emit from his body and enter the Six Demons Transformation.

Soon, the Six Demons Transformation's severed tentacles were regrown. Its aura also grew more powerful again. Once again, the red gaseous flames it emitted started to increase in size. It once again seemed to be able to contend against Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe.

"Seems like you're unwilling to give up," Chu Feng chuckled. Then, a trace of ruthlessness flashed through his eyes.

"Boom~~~"

The Ancient Era's War Axe moved. It was rushing toward the Six Demons Transformation.

"Roar~~~"

The Six Demons Transformation let out a snarl. Then, its body started to transform. In the end, an enormous mouth appeared.

That enormous mouth was filled with white fangs covered with traces of blood. It was extremely frightening.

"Snap~~~"

However, at the moment when the two collided, the Six Demons Transformation was instantly sliced in two by the Ancient Era's War Axe.

Like tofu encountering a sharp blade, it was simply powerless to resist.

"This gap is simply too enormous. Exactly how powerful is Chu Feng's secret skill?!!!"

"A secret skill that powerful has simply surpassed the level of Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills. This is truly unbelievable."

Waves of exclamation sounded nonstop. It was only at that moment that the crowd realized that there was such an enormous gap even though both of them were powerful secret skills.

Before Chu Feng's secret skill, Chu Luxuan's secret skill simply did not possess the ability to even contend against it.

"Puu..."

Right at that moment, Chu Luxuan opened his mouth and vomited out a mouthful of blood.

At the same time, his complexion also became extremely pale. His legs started to grow soft, and he actually half knelt in midair.

In fact, there were even people that noticed that his body was shivering.

That one mouthful of blood was most definitely not an ordinary mouthful of blood. Rather, it seemed to be his heart's blood.

Chu Luxuan was already seriously injured. It was likely that he would no longer be able to fight.

At that moment, the crowd revealed more and more admiration in their eyes.

They had already realized....

That it was actually not only Chu Luxuan's secret skill that was unable to contend against Chu Feng's secret skill.

Instead, it turned out that even Chu Luxuan himself was unable to contend against Chu Feng.

“Huuu~~~”

After a moment of astonishment, many people were unable to stop themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

As matters stood, they were certain that Chu Luxuan had been defeated.

But, who was Chu Luxuan? He was a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan. Yet, he was defeated by Chu Feng. What did this signify?

This meant that Chu Feng's reputation as a genius was fully justified. His genius was not limited to only the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Even in the Upper Realms, he would be able to establish himself.

“Snap~~~”

Right at that moment, the Ancient Era's War Axe swept through the sky. A golden slash landed on the enormous signboard nearby, as well as the cage that had imprisoned everyone from the Sunset Cloud Valley.

“Boom~~~”

A loud explosion was heard. Not only was the signboard sliced in two, but the cage was also shattered.

However, the power of the golden slash was just the right amount. Although it shattered the cage, it did not injure anyone. Everyone from the Sunset Cloud Valley managed to regain their freedom.

“Chu Feng, did you really think you could save them today?”

“Let me tell you this. Today, you will not be able to save anyone. Even you will die here today!”

Chu Luxuan shouted loudly while fuming with rage between gritted teeth. The gaze with which he looked at Chu Feng was filled with irreconciliation, grievance and killing intent.

“Humph,” The corners of Chu Feng’s mouth rose as he let out a light snort.

“Buzz~~~”

The next moment, golden radiance began to flicker about as the Ancient Era’s War Axe arrived above Chu Luxuan’s head.

“Wuuahh~~~”

Chu Luxuan let out a scream. Then, he lost the ability to fly, and was forcibly knocked from the sky by the power of the Ancient Era’s War Axe.

Furthermore, he did not even have the strength to raise his head. Like a dying dog, he lay flat on his stomach motionlessly.

“Hahahaha...”

However, right at that moment, the crowd were able to hear that Chu Luxuan was laughing.

That's right, he was laughing.

Although his face was buried in the ground and not visible to the crowd, he was still laughing.

But, how could he still laugh in such a state?

The crowd was bewildered. They were unable to understand what was happening with Chu Luxuan.

"Chu Feng, if you have the ability to do so, then go ahead and kill me," Chu Luxuan mocked.

Even with the situation being as it was he actually still dared to provoke Chu Feng.

"Did you think that I do not dare to kill you?" Chu Feng's sharp brows narrowed slightly. Disdain filled his eyes.

Chu Luxuan wanted him to kill him. Thus, Chu Feng found no reason to spare him. As such, Chu Feng would not even blink an eye at killing Chu Luxuan.

If Chu Luxuan really thought that Chu Feng would not dare to kill him, he would be gravely mistaken.

"Go ahead and kill me if you can," Chu Luxuan let out a mocking provocation.

"As you wish," After Chu Feng said those words, the Ancient Era's War Axe that emitted golden light once again came striking down from the sky. It was aimed toward Chu Luxuan.

"Chu Feng is actually really planning to kill Chu Luxuan!!!"

The crowd was stunned. After all, no matter what, Chu Luxuan was a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan. His identity was no small matter.

It would be understandable for the Chu Heavenly Clan to not look further into it after Chu Feng killed Chu Luyang. However, Chu Luxuan was different. If Chu Feng were to kill him, he would definitely bring a major crisis upon himself.

At that moment, everyone felt that Chu Feng was being excessively daring.

However, no one dared to look down on Chu Feng. After all, Chu Feng's courage and insight were precisely things that they did not possess.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at that moment, the Ancient Era's War Axe grew motionless right at the moment when it was about to reach Chu Luxuan.

Witnessing that scene, the crowd all heaved a sigh of relief.

In fact, some people present revealed smiles on their faces.

“It would appear that Chu Feng does not dare to really kill Chu Luxuan. He was merely trying to scare him.”

“This means that Chu Feng is still very rational. Yet, at the same time, this means that Chu Feng is not an out-of-control maverick.”

At that moment, the crowd all felt that it was Chu Feng who had stayed his hand. However, it was also because of that that the crowd's respect toward Chu Feng lessened slightly.

After all, to truly be intent on killing someone and to merely scare someone, there was an enormous difference between the two.

“Who stopped me?” Right at that moment, Chu Feng spoke.

“What? It is not Chu Feng who stayed his hand?” The crowd were all astonished. At the same time, they started to feel doubt. After all, they had not felt any aura stronger than Chu Feng's.

They were all certain that Chu Feng was the strongest individual there. When even Chu Luxuan was no match for him, who could possibly stop him?

Thus, it was inevitable for there to be people that felt that Chu Feng was deliberately putting on a play so that he could get out of an embarrassing situation.

“Young brother Chu Feng, there is not an enormous hatred between the two of you. Is there really a need for you to insist on killing?”

“How about you give me this face?”

Right at that moment, a voice suddenly sounded. At the same time, a figure appeared out of thin air. That person stood before Chu Luxuan.

“That is?”

Seeing that person, the crowd present, with the exception of Chu Feng, all revealed an enormous change in appearance!!!

Chapter 2486 - Chu Xuanlang

---

At that moment, practically everyone present was certain that Chu Feng's secret skill was not stopped by Chu Feng himself. Rather, it was really stopped by someone else. Chu Feng... did not lie.

The reason why the crowd was so certain was because a middle-aged man had appeared before the crowd's sight.

Although that middle-aged man possessed an ordinary appearance, a deep gaze and a stubbly beard, he did not appear to be sloppy. Instead, he gave off a mature charm.

No one knew how old that man was. In fact, one could only faintly feel his aura.

As such, the crowd were unable to determine what level of cultivation that man had. However, instinctively, they started to feel fear toward him.

It was as if a tiger had suddenly appeared among a group of hares. Before the tiger started attacking the hares, before the tiger roared, the hares managed to smell the danger.

The crowd felt that that person was at the very least a True Immortal-level expert.

True Immortals, they were experts standing at the apex of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Regardless of how powerful a Martial Ancestor might be, regardless of what sort of heaven-defying battle power they might possess, and regardless of what sorts of abilities they might have, True Immortals were being that they could not contend against.

Back when Chu Feng was a peak Half Martial Ancestor, he could increase his cultivation to that of a Martial Ancestor temporarily after using his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings.

However, such a thing was out of the question for the True Immortal Realm. The True Immortal Realm was not a realm of cultivation that one could break through by using the power of one's Heavenly Bloodline.

Thus, not to mention Chu Feng being only a rank seven Martial Ancestor right now, even if he were a rank nine Martial Ancestor and unleashed his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings to increase his battle power, he would still not be a match for a True Immortal-level expert.

In short, Martial Ancestors would always be Martial Ancestors. They were beings that would never exceed True Immortals. This was the greatness of the True Immortal Realm.

The True Immortal realm was the true dividing line in the path of martial cultivation. Before this dividing line, regardless of how high one's cultivation might be, regardless of how powerful one's abilities might be, one would forever remain a mortal.

However, upon passing that dividing line, one would no longer be a mortal. Rather, one would have become an immortal. When faced with the power of an immortal, mortals would naturally be no match.

Thus, after a True Immortal appeared, everyone felt that it would be impossible for Chu Feng to defeat him.

However, the reason why the crowd was so astonished was not only limited to the fact that that man was very likely a True Immortal. In addition to that, it was because that man was very unfamiliar; he was someone that none of them had ever seen before.

Furthermore, on that man's waist was a title plate. There were three large words written on the title plate -- Chu Heavenly Clan!!!

“He's someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

At that moment, many of Chu Feng's supporters started to worry. They all knew very well that the Chu Heavenly Clan was the overlord of an Upper Realm. To put it simply, they were the masters of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Since that man from the Chu Heavenly Clan had appeared, he would naturally not look on without doing anything as Chu Feng tried to kill Chu Luxuan.

After all, Chu Luxuan was not an ordinary member of the younger generation. Instead, he was a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan.

At that moment, the crowd finally realized why Chu Luxuan had laughed like that earlier.

It turned out that it was because he knew that someone would come save him, that the person to die today would be Chu Feng no matter what.

“Hahahaha...”

Right at that moment, Chu Luxuan started laughing again. This time around, not only was his laughter filled with mockery toward Chu Feng, but it was also filled with pride.

As the pressure from the Ancient Era's War Axe that was suppressing him earlier had disappeared Chu Luxuan stood up and looked at Chu Feng.

The smile on his face grew more and more concentrated. At that moment, Chu Luxuan totally had the appearance of someone taking advantage of his position to bully another. However, not a single person dared to say anything regarding Chu Luxuan.

The world of martial cultivators was like that In that world, it was not only one's individual strength that mattered. One's background, one's clan and one's reliance also mattered.

It was Chu Luxuan's fortune to be able to possess that sort of background. Even if others disapproved of it, what could they possibly do about it?

At that moment, the crowd could only feel sorry for Chu Feng, feel sorry for him being so unlucky as to provoke a clan with such a robust background.

However, right at that moment, that man shouted at Chu Luxuan angrily, “You still have the gall to laugh?”

His shout not only came as a shock to Chu Luxuan, it also came as a shock to the bystanding crowd.

“You’ve challenged someone to battle and been defeated. Yet you still have the nerve to laugh? Do you feel that you’re not being humiliated enough that you want to play to the gallery?” The man asked Chu Luxuan.

Chu Luxuan lowered his head silently. An ashamed expression emerged on his face.

“Since when did relying on another become an ability you could flaunt?” The man continued.

Chu Luxuan didn’t answer. However, his face grew even more ashamed.

“Answer me!” Suddenly, the man shouted sternly again.

His shout caused even the bystanders to tremble in fear. As for Chu Luxuan, he was so scared that his body started to shiver all over.

“Uncle Xuanlang, this Luxuan knows his mistake,” Chu Luxuan said timidly.

Although Chu Luxuan admitted to his error, the man did not continue to pay attention to him. Instead, he turned his head toward Chu Feng.

Different from when he looked at Chu Luxuan, when he looked at Chu Feng, there was not the slightest trace of sternness on his face. Instead, there was a good-natured smile.

“Young brother, you’re Chu Feng, right?” The man asked.

“Since you already know, why bother asking?” Chu Feng answered.

“Heh...” The man was not angered. Instead, his smile grew even stronger. He said, “It is merely a spar. Is there really a need to take his life?”

“You’re planning to help him handle me?” Chu Feng asked. This was the question that he cared about the most.

“Of course not. Merely... I hope that you can spare his life,” The man said with a faint smile.

“He’s pleading for leniency? He’s not planning to attack Chu Feng?”

The crowd were all surprised upon hearing those words. The reason for that was because that man not only said that sort of thing, but even his attitude was that of someone pleading. He seemed to truly not have plans to attack Chu Feng.

But, he was clearly someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan. It would be one thing for him to not stand up for Chu Feng. Yet, how could he be this courteous toward Chu Feng?

The crowd were truly confused. After all, if they were this man before them, they would definitely not do what he was doing.

Instead, they would ruthlessly teach Chu Feng a lesson so as to avenge their clan’s younger generation.

“I have a question. Was it you... who captured my two friends?” Chu Feng asked.

“Your two friends are indeed with me. Merely, I have not captured them. Rather, I invited them.”

“Actually, I have not come here today with the intention of helping Luxuan.”

“Rather, I have come for you,” That man said to Chu Feng.

“For me?” Chu Feng was surprised.

“I have come especially to invite you,” The man said.

“Invite me?” Chu Feng’s gaze changed slightly.

Sensing that the situation was amiss, Chu Luxuan spoke out, “Uncle Xuanlang, this Chu Feng killed my older brother.”

“Indeed, your older brother was killed by Chu Feng. However, that was a result of his talent being inferior. As such, there’s nothing to complain about.”

“Do not forget about the reminder the clan has given you all before you all came here. The fact that I am pleading for leniency for you today is already an exception.”

“If you want to avenge your older brother, I will not stop you. However, you can forget about having me help you avenge your older brother,” The man reprimanded Chu Luxuan sternly.

Chu Luxuan’s face turned red after being reprimanded. Even though it was clear that he was feeling extremely unreconciled, he did not dare to refute what that man said at all.

Then, that man looked to Chu Feng again and courteously said, “I nearly forgot to introduce myself. I have the same surname as you. My name is Chu Xuanlang. I am a member of the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“Very well, I can accompany you,” Chu Feng nodded. He felt sincerity from the attitude of this Chu Xuanlang.

However, he would naturally not agree to accompany this Chu Xuanlang only because of that. Most importantly, it was because he believed that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were with him.

The reason why he agreed to accompany that Chu Xuanlang was because he wanted to see Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

Chapter 2487 - Who Is The Coward?

“However, not only did this Chu Luxuan capture my friends as hostages, using them to threaten me, he also ordered for his men to exterminate the Three Stars Hall. Everyone knows that the Three Stars Hall were also my friends. If I didn’t arrive on time, the Three Stars Hall would’ve likely been gone by now,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Luxuan actually ordered his men to extinguish the Three Stars Hall? This is truly too ruthless, no? Even if the Three Stars Hall is related to Chu Feng, there shouldn’t be a need for one to go so far as to use them to vent one’s anger, no?” After hearing what Chu Feng said, everyone's heart tightened.

They all realized that that Chu Luxuan was actually only a gentleman on the surface, but in reality was a despicable and vile individual.

After all, in the Sunset Cloud Valley, he had only imprisoned the people of the Sunset Cloud Valley, and did not injure them in the slightest. This made him appear to be someone who was able to distance himself clearly between his grudges and grievances.

In turn, many people felt that Chu Luxuan was an upright individual.

However, he actually did such a despicable thing in the shadows. He had actually wanted to exterminate the entire Three Stars Hall. He was simply too ruthless.

When comparing the two, an intense contrast could be seen. This inevitably caused the crowd to feel that Chu Luxuan was a hypocrite.

He would do one thing on the surface, and do another in the shadows.

“Thus, no matter what, I absolutely cannot allow this matter to be dropped just like this,” Chu Feng continued.

“You don’t want to drop this matter? What can you possibly do about it?” Seeing that Chu Feng still wanted to continue looking further into this, the already sullen Chu Luxuan spoke in a very unreconciled manner.

“You shut up!” Right after Chu Luxuan said those words, Chu Xuanlang immediately shouted at him angrily.

After being berated by Chu Xuanlang, Chu Luxuan’s fury vanished instantly. Once again, he lowered his head silently.

“Go ahead and tell me what you want,” Chu Xuanlang said to Chu Feng.

“Firstly, I want you to guarantee the safety of the people from the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well, I agree to that. From today on, if anyone in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm dares to attack the Sunset Cloud Valley or the Three Stars Hall, they will be making an enemy out of me, Chu Xuanlang. I will definitely not allow them to get away with it,” Chu Xuanlang agreed frankly.

“Frank,” At that moment, even Chu Feng felt admiration for Chu Xuanlang’s manner of bearing.

Logically, a person of the younger generation like Chu Feng would simply not have the qualifications to make conditions with someone like Chu Xuanlang.

However, not only did Chu Xuanlang allow Chu Feng to raise his demands, but he also agreed to Chu Feng’s demands. This meant that... Chu Xuanlang truly possessed sincerity in his invitation for Chu Feng.

“Then, young brother Chu Feng, are you willing to leave with me now?” Chu Xuanlang asked.

“Of course,” Chu Feng answered.

“Very well. There’s no time to delay, let’s set off right now. Your two friends are still waiting for you,” As Chu Xuanlong spoke, he soared into the sky and arrived before Chu Feng. He was planning to leave with Chu Feng.

However, right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly said, “Wait.”

“What’s wrong?” Chu Xuanlang asked.

“There’s a gift that I must give him,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he looked at Chu Luxuan.

“What gift?” Not only was Chu Xuanlang curious, but the others present were also very curious.

Chu Feng wanted to give a gift to Chu Luxuan? This was simply something inconceivable.

However, it was evident that Chu Feng was not joking around. Thus, they were all curious as to exactly what sort of present Chu Feng would give Chu Luxuan.

“Woosh~~~”

Before the attentive gazes of the crowd, Chu Feng raised his hand and made a grabbing motion. Then, an attractive force covered the sky.

Before such an enormous attractive force, one of the two halves of the enormous signboard that had been cut into two by Chu Feng was sucked toward him.

Before the signboard could reach Chu Feng’s hand, Chu Feng suddenly waved his hand downward. Then, the signboard began to fly down from the sky. “Boom!” Like an enormous sharp blade, it landed beside Chu Luxuan.

“Sssss~~~”

When the crowd saw that piece of the signboard, they were all shocked.

As for Chu Luxuan, his expression turned exceptionally ugly.

The reason for that was because there was only a single word on the signboard -- coward.

“To challenge me to a battle by capturing people to threaten me, only to hide behind your senior’s protection to save your life.”

“The word coward suits you better,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“You!!!” Chu Luxuan’s complexion turned red. He started to gnash his teeth in anger. He had the appearance of someone who was about to lash out at Chu Feng.

However, before Chu Luxuan could speak, Chu Xuanlang said, “Luxuan, enough. Since you’ve lost, you must be willing to accept it.”

After Chu Xuanlang spoke, even though Chu Luxuan was feeling displeased, he did not dare to say anything.

Then, the space where Chu Xuanlang and Chu Feng were at trembled slightly. After that, Chu Xuanlang and Chu Feng disappeared.

At that moment, only Chu Luxuan, the people of the Sunset Cloud Valley and the bystanders remained.

“The hell are you all looking at?!” Suddenly, Chu Luxuan exploded. He shouted furiously, and caused even space itself to violently tremble. That ferocious gaze of his seemed to indicate that he wanted to eat someone alive.

Faced with such a Chu Luxuan, how could the crowd dare say anything? None of them even dared to look him in the face.

“Chu Feng, I’ll show you sooner or later!”

Chu Luxuan was truly feeling extremely sullen. Not only was he feeling extremely sullen, but he also felt extremely humiliated.

Thus, he had no face to continue to stay there. After he finished saying those words, his body shifted, and he disappeared.

Evidently, he had also left.

Although he felt extremely furious, he did not do anything to the crowd present, nor did he do anything to the people of the Sunset Cloud Valley.

However, it remained that he had shouted loudly at the crowd, and aimed the anger in his heart toward the crowd.

“If you have the ability, go and vent out your anger to Chu Feng. The hell are you venting your anger on us for?”

“That’s right. It seems that a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan is only at this level too.”

After verifying that Chu Luxuan had left, some bold individuals began to voice their discontent. After that, they all left in succession.

There were also people that chose to stay. They were still enjoying themselves while reminiscing on the things that had happened.

After all, it could be said that they had witnessed an enormous event.

Chu Feng had appeared and dispelled the rumors of his death. They were all able to verify that that exceptional genius was still alive.

Furthermore, Chu Feng had defeated a genius of the Chu Heavenly Clan with his absolute strength. Such a battle was simply too great.

What happened was destined to be spread far and wide. In fact, it would even be passed down to future generations. And they, were witnesses to that major battle.

Merely by witnessing what had happened on that day, they could boast for thousands of years to their friends, their children and their descendants. Thus, at this moment, they were all feeling extremely excited.

Of course, there were also a portion of people that decided to stay so as to worm their way into being friends with the Sunset Cloud Valley.

Their intentions were very clear. Since Chu Feng possessed such overwhelming strength, and had also obtained the favor of that Chu Heavenly Clan's Chu Xuanlang, he was destined to rise in power.

The crowd felt that there would be a bloodbath soon, a bloodbath formed by the emergence of Chu Feng.

After what happened on that day, they firmly believed that that person from the younger generation, Chu Feng, possessed the ability to stir up a storm in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

As the Sunset Cloud Valley possessed an extraordinary status with Chu Feng, they felt that if they were able to enter a relationship with the Sunset Cloud Valley, they might be able to hug Chu Feng's thighs and benefit from him.

Chu Feng had no idea what was happening in the Sunset Cloud Valley at that moment. However, he was also not worried about the safety of the people in the Sunset Cloud Valley.

He could tell that this Chu Xuanlang was definitely an extraordinary individual. Likely, he would possess an extraordinary status even in the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Else, there would be no reason for a genius as proud and arrogant as Chu Luxuan to be that scared of him.

With him voicing his guarantee, not to mention Chu Luxuan, it was likely that not a single person in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would dare do anything to the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall.

With the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall safe, Chu Feng would have one less worry. As such, he would be able to do things with less concern in the future.

Chapter 2488 - During The Two Years

---

“Chu Feng, never would I have expected this Chu Xuanlang to really agree to your demands.”

“But, your current situation is not optimistic either. Now that the Kong Heavenly Clan knows that you’re still alive, they will definitely not let you get away.”

“If you do not use the Evil God Sword, then, with your current strength, it is obvious that you will not be able to contend against the Kong Heavenly Clan.”

“Furthermore, don’t forget that you also have a great hidden enemy, the Infant Soul Sect. It is the target that you must take care of.”

“Instead of having this Chu Xuanlang protect the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, why didn’t you ask him to protect you directly?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“Milady Queen, we still have no idea what sort of status this Chu Xuanlang possesses in the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“However, it is evident that he is very well-informed about all the things that we’ve done in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Protecting powers like the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall is simply a trivial matter for him. However, if I am to ask him to protect me, the significance will be completely different, and he might not necessarily agree to it.”

“Furthermore, if I am to ask him to protect me, what if my father is to find out about it?”

“Has the Chu Heavenly Clan not disgraced my father and I enough?”

“That is why I have vowed that I will never bring up the name of the Chu Heavenly Clan to protect myself.”

“Naturally, I cannot have someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan protect me,” Chu Feng said.

“Mn, to not use them to protect you, but to be able to use them to protect your friends. You’ve handled this matter beautifully.”

“Boy, you’ve truly grown more and more shrewd. This Queen has not nurtured you in vain,” Her Lady Queen said happily. As she said those words, an immensely proud expression emerged on her exceptionally beautiful face. It was as if Chu Feng’s current intelligence was all thanks to her contributions.

“Milady Queen, in that case, shouldn’t you present me with a bit of reward?” Chu Feng asked with a smile.

“What sort of reward do you want?” Her Lady Queen revealed an innocent expression.

“For example, give me a kiss, or let me give you a kiss?” Chu Feng let out a shameless laugh.

“That suggestion is boring. How about I hack you with a knife once or twice?” Her Lady Queen revealed a mischievous smile.

“Cough, cough... I was joking. Don’t take it seriously. I can’t continue to chat idly with you anymore, I still have to scout out information regarding this Chu Xuanlang. I need to know why he invited me,” Chu Feng hurriedly found an excuse to escape from Her Lady Queen. He then turned to Chu Xuanlang.

“Don’t ask anything. Once we’re there, you will come to a natural realization,” Chu Xuanlang said with a faint smile.

Chu Feng was surprised. This Chu Xuanlang’s perception was truly impressive. Even though his gaze was fixed ahead the entire time, he managed to sense that Chu Feng was planning to speak. Furthermore, he knew what Chu Feng wanted to ask.

In such a situation, Chu Feng also smiled faintly. He no longer tried asking Chu Xuanlang any questions.

The two of them did not utter another word on their journey.

That said, Chu Feng was able to sense that Chu Xuanlang was very powerful. Even if he was only a True Immortal, he was definitely not a True Immortal that the True Immortals of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm could compare to.

In fact, it might even be possible that he was not a True Immortal-level expert at all.

The reason for that was because the surrounding objects on their journey were all indistinct. Chu Feng was unable to see anything clearly.

From this, it could be seen how powerful Chu Xuanlang was. Else, it would not be possible for him to possess such speed.

Most importantly, Chu Feng was unable to detect his aura even while they were rapidly journeying.

As for Chu Feng, he was, after all, an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

When someone of Chu Feng's caliber was unable to detect Chu Xuanlang's cultivation, it could only mean two things.

Either Chu Xuanlang possessed some sort of treasure that could conceal his cultivation, or he was so powerful that Chu Feng was simply incapable of determining how strong he was.

Judging from the situation at hand, the latter was the more probable case.

.....

Finally, Chu Xuanlang stopped, and Chu Feng was once again able to see his surroundings clearly.

At that moment, Chu Feng discovered that they were only flying in the sky.

When he looked down, he could only see spacious and empty lands, ordinary looking forests and ordinary looking brooks. There were no human habitats here.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Xuanlang made a grabbing motion toward the empty space before him. Then, he made a pulling motion, as if he were opening a door.

“Snap~” The space before them was actually opened, with a door emerging in its place. On the other side of the door was actually a completely different world.

An isolated space. This was an isolated space created by Chu Xuanlang.

However, it was not an ordinary isolated space. The reason for that was because that isolated space was actually formed through special methods using only martial power.

In other words, that isolated space was unrelated to world spirit techniques.

Precisely due to the fact that it did not contain the slightest bit of spirit power, even Chu Feng did not detect that there was actually an isolated space there earlier.

“Go on in. Your friends are waiting for you,” Chu Xuanlang said with a smile.

“Senior, you’re not entering?” Chu Feng asked.

“Since you all are going to reminisce with one another, it’d be better that I don’t participate in this. As such, I will wait for you here,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Thank you,” Chu Feng returned a courteous smile. Then, he walked in.

That isolated space was not very large. However, there were mountains and rivers there. It was a picturesque scene.

With Chu Feng's observational ability, he soon discovered a building among the mountains and rivers.

It was a simple building. In fact, it could even be said to be an extremely simple and unadorned little house made with tiles and bricks. The house had a small fenced-in courtyard. It looked just like a commoner's home in the countryside.

However, Chu Feng was actually unable to see through the little tile and brick house. However, Chu Feng knew that if Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were here, they would definitely be inside the house.

Thus, Chu Feng flew down. Right after he entered the courtyard, a figure flew out from the house and blocked the door.

At that moment, not only did Chu Feng see a gaze filled with killing intent, he also felt a very powerful aura. That person... was actually a rank eight Martial Ancestor.

Upon seeing who the person before him was clearly, Chu Feng revealed a joyous expression.

At the same time, that person's cold expression also changed instantly.

The reason for that was because the person before Chu Feng was Zhao Hong.

"Chu Feng, you're actually alive?" Upon seeing Chu Feng, Zhao Hong revealed an expression of disbelief.

"Aren't I standing before you? Zhao Hong, your cultivation truly progresses quickly," Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

Chu Feng had thought that with how talented Zhao Hong was, her cultivation should be able to advance by leaps and bounds in two years' time. However, he did not expect her cultivation to increase so much.

With this, it was no longer that the Kong Heavenly Clan would end up suffering by her hands. With the abilities Zhao Hong possessed, having a cultivation of rank eight Martial Ancestor would indeed serve as a nightmare for the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“You’re not bad yourself. You’re actually a rank seven Martial Ancestor already. Judging from this, it would seem that the current me is no match for you already,” Zhao Hong said jokingly.

“No, no, you’re the ruthless demonic woman. How could I dare fight against you?” Chu Feng also started joking around.

“Tsk, don’t make cutting remarks. I have already renounced my old ways,” Zhao Hong curled her lips and smiled. Her smile was truly quite pleasant to see.

Even Chu Feng had to admit that Zhao Hong was a beauty. At the very least, she was originally a beauty.

Chu Feng felt very happy in his heart. He felt happy for his brother. After all, with how Wang Qiang looked, being able to find a girl like Zhao Hong could be considered to be a toad managing to eat the meat of a swan.

“Oh, that’s right, where’s Wang Qiang?” Chu Feng asked.

“Something happened to him?” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s gaze changed.

He discovered that when he asked about Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong’s expression changed. The expression she revealed was not a good one. Instead, it seemed to indicate bad news.

Chapter 2489 - Why Are You Surnamed Chu?

---

“Come on in,” Zhao Hong turned around and entered the house as Chu Feng followed after her.

The house was very small. With merely a single turn, they entered the guest room.

There was a special bed in the guest room. That bed was a treasure, and emitted a seven-colored radiance. The seven-colored radiance was currently spiraling around the person lying on the bed.

As for that person, he was none other than Wang Qiang.

Merely, the current Wang Qiang had a black complexion, and was unconscious.

Instinctively, Chu Feng arrived before Wang Qiang and grabbed his arm. He began to pour spirit power into Wang Qiang to determine the situation he was in.

He was able to tell that Wang Qiang’s current level of cultivation was not weak either. He was actually the same as Zhao Hong, a rank eight Martial Ancestor, a level above his own.

However, Wang Qiang’s aura was extremely chaotic. Not only was he seriously injured, but he was also suffering from a special sort of poison. Most importantly, even Chu Feng was unable to cure that poison.

“Who did this?” Chu Feng asked.

Afterwards, Zhao Hong began to narrate to Chu Feng what had happened.

During those two years he'd been gone, both Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang thought that Chu Feng had died. Thus, they made a firm resolution to avenge Chu Feng.

During the past two years, they had been striving their hardest to increase their cultivation and attack the Kong Heavenly Clan nonstop.

Originally, they were only mounting small-scale attacks. However, they later discovered an Ancient Era's Remnant in a certain place in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

The two of them obtained enormous harvests from that Ancient Era's Remnant. That was how they managed to obtain their current level of cultivation.

Supported by their powerful cultivations, the two of them became increasingly unrestrained in their attacks, and began to focus more on their retaliations against the Kong Heavenly Clan.

With the planning the two of them made, they began to destroy the Kong Heavenly Clan's branches in succession. Countless Kong Heavenly Clansmen ended up dying by Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's hands.

Thus, in the past year, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had battered the Kong Heavenly Clan quite seriously.

However, not long ago, they were ambushed during one of their attacks against the Kong Heavenly Clan.

While their opponent was not a True Immortal, he was very powerful. Not only did that individual injure Wang Qiang, he also poisoned him.

Fortunately, Chu Xuanlang just so happened to be passing by, and saved the two of them. Otherwise, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong would likely be gone from the world of the living.

"In that case, Chu Xuanlang is your benefactor. Merely, why did he not heal Wang Qiang's injury?" Chu Feng asked.

The condition of Wang Qiang's injury was very strange. Even Chu Feng was unable to do anything about it. However, Chu Xuanlang was different. He was an expert from the Great Chilocosm Upper Realm, a true expert from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

Chu Feng felt that Chu Xuanlang would most likely be able to resolve what they were powerless against.

Zhan Hong sighed. She revealed an even greater expression of worry.

"Could it be that even he was unable to help Wang Qiang?" Chu Feng asked.

"Mn, although he does not care about the grudges that we have with the Kong Heavenly Clan, since he acted to save us, he actually wanted to save us all the way. But he... he was unable to treat my husband's injury. Furthermore, he declared that there is only a single person in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that is capable of curing my husband's injury," Zhao Hong said.

"Who?" Chu Feng asked.

"The Golden Crane True Immortal," Zhao Hong said.

"Golden Crane True Immortal? Have you all gone to request his assistance?" Chu Feng asked.

"We did. However, we were locked outside the gates by him, and he refused to even see us. The Golden Crane True Immortal is truly unwilling to help."

When mentioning that matter, deep grievances emerged in Zhao Hong's eyes. Evidently, Zhao Hong held a grudge against the Golden Crane True Immortal's refusal to save Wang Qiang.

"Let me go and have a try," As Chu Feng spoke, he turned around and began walking out.

Wang Qiang's injury was extremely strange. Although he was still able to persevere at the moment, Chu Feng had no idea how much longer he could continue persevering with no cure.

As this matter concerned Wang Qiang's life and death, Chu Feng naturally did not wish to delay.

"Chu Feng, you must definitely be careful on your way there," Zhao Hong warned.

"Although I do not possess a deep relationship with the Golden Crane True Immortal, it remains that I have been acquainted with him once before. I believe that even if he is to refuse to see me, he would not make things difficult for me," Chu Feng said.

"No, it's not the Golden Crane True Immortal. Right now, it is not only the Golden Crane True Immortal that's at Mount Cloud Crane. Young Master Li Ming is also there," Zhao Hong said.

"Him? I don't think he possesses any hatred or grievance against us, no?" Chu Feng said.

"Although there are no grievances between us, he is an extremely arrogant individual. Originally... he was deemed to be the strongest genius in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm."

"However, in the past two years, the three of us were being compared to that Young Master Li Ming constantly. That Young Master Li Ming kept a very low profile, whereas Wang Qiang and I kept very high profiles during the past two years. Thus, some people felt that our strength surpassed his."

"While Young Master Li Ming has never tried to make trouble for us, he is in fact feeling very unreconciled."

"Thus, when I ran into him at Mount Cloud Crane, he attacked me," Zhao Hong said.

"And the result was?" Chu Feng asked.

"I lost," Zhao Hong said.

"Not even you were a match for him?" Chu Feng felt very astonished.

Chu Feng had met that Young Master Li Ming before. Back then, his cultivation had been much superior to Chu Feng, Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

However, during the past two years, the three of them had made extraordinary progress. Thus, Chu Feng was very surprised to find out that Young Master Li Ming was still able to defeat Zhao Hong.

After all, Zhao Hong was not an ordinary foe.

“I simply did not even possess the ability to fight back. In fact... I was unable to even sense his cultivation,” Zhao Hong said.

“Did he injure you?” After hearing what Zhao Hong said, Chu Feng felt that Young Master Li Ming to be even more extraordinary. He was either hiding his cultivation back then, or he had also obtained some fortuitous encounter in the past two years. Else, it would be impossible for him to reach breakthroughs this quickly.

However, Chu Feng was more worried about Zhao Hong’s well-being.

“No, he stopped the moment the outcome was determined. Furthermore, he declared that he would not spread word of the matter. Although he is proud and arrogant, he seems to have a pretty decent character. He merely wanted to prove himself.”

“However, Chu Feng, if the two of you are to encounter one another, I do not wish for you to lose,” Zhao Hong said to Chu Feng. Her gaze changed slightly as she said those words.

It was a special sort of emotion, the emotion of placing one’s hope onto another. Zhao Hong hoped for Chu Feng to be able to defeat that Young Master Li Ming.

“If I am to encounter him, I will battle against him with my all. Furthermore, I will definitely successfully request the Golden Crane True Immortal’s assistance.” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he began to walk toward the exit.

Seemingly sensing Chu Feng's return, the exit opened before him.

After walking out, Chu Feng saw that Chu Xuanlang was still present.

"Senior, thank you."

When Chu Feng saw Chu Xuanlang again, he had a completely different opinion of him.

After all, Chu Xuanlang had saved Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong.

"It is merely a trivial matter. Furthermore, I actually saved them with a purpose in mind," Chu Xuanlang said with a slight smile.

Chu Feng's gaze changed slightly. Then, he asked, "Senior, could it be that you saved them because of me?"

"Clever. However, I know that you're worried about your brother's safety. Thus, let's talk about this on the way. I will bring you to find the Golden Crane True Immortal first," Chu Xuanlang already knew what Chu Feng planned to do next. Thus, as he spoke, Chu Feng's surroundings grew indistinct.

Chu Feng knew that Chu Xuanlang was bringing him along and rapidly journeying toward Mount Cloud Crane.

On the way, Chu Luxuan said, "Chu Feng, I actually have a question."

"Senior, please ask away," Chu Feng said.

"Why are you surnamed Chu?" Chu Xuanlang asked.

Chapter 2490 - Meeting Li Ming Again

---

“Why can’t I be surnamed Chu?” Chu Feng asked instead of answering.

“This is not your original surname, right?” Chu Xuanlang asked.

“What if it is and what if it’s not?” Chu Feng asked.

“If it isn’t, I wish to know exactly which clan you’re from.”

“If it is, I wish to know who your parents are,” Chu Xuanlang said.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s heart tightened. Sure enough, this Chu Xuanlang had come to find him with something in mind. That is, he wanted to know about Chu Feng’s origin.

Chu Feng was uncertain as to whether or not this Chu Xuanlang was asking this with good intentions or malice. That said, Chu Feng still did not wish to confess to Chu Xuanlang that he was from the Chu Heavenly Clan.

The reason for that was because even though Chu Xuanlang had saved Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, and could be considered to be Chu Feng’s benefactor, Chu Feng still did not trust him.

“Senior, if I do not answer your question truthfully, will you try to extort a confession from me through torture?” Chu Feng asked with a joking tone.

“Of course not. I was merely curious, that’s all. If you do not wish to tell me, I will not make things difficult for you.”

“Actually, I have only wanted to befriend you,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Befriend me? Senior, with your status, why would you want to befriend someone like me?” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“My status is not important. What’s important is the kind of talent you have,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Senior, what do you mean?” Chu Feng asked.

“I’ve heard about your accomplishments. I greatly admire your manner of conduct. Young people should have courage and insight like you. Most importantly, they should be able to distinguish between gratitudes and grudges, and be affectionate and true. In today’s world, there are not a lot of people like yourself. As for young people like you, they’re even rarer,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“But, no matter what, I’ve killed someone from your Chu Heavenly Clan,” Chu Feng said.

“You’re talking about Chu Luyang, right? A person like him will only bring shame upon our Chu Heavenly Clan by living. I had longed for someone to kill him,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“If that was the case, you shouldn’t have saved Chu Luxuan,” Chu Feng said.

“Luxuan?” Chu Xuanlang smiled. He understood what Chu Feng meant by that. He said, “Indeed, Luxuan resembles his older brother greatly. However, there is one difference between them. That is, he is talented.”

“Although Luxuan cannot be considered extremely outstanding among our clan’s younger generation, he, at the very least, belongs to the minimally outstanding category.”

“Thus... even though his character might be lacking, our clan will still nurture him. After all... he will become a part of our clan’s battle power in the future,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“So that’s the case. Very well then. Senior, to be able to befriend you is this junior’s honor. Thus, this junior is willing to address senior as brother,” Chu Feng said.

“You’ve accepted it? Why did you suddenly grow this frank in accepting it?” Chu Xuanlang asked.

“Chu Luxuan addressed you as ‘uncle.’ If I am to become your brother, wouldn’t it mean that he would have to address me as ‘uncle’ too? I am greatly looking forward to the expression he would have at that time,” Chu Feng said with a mischievous smile on his face.

“Haha, young brother, you are truly amusing. However... I, Chu Xuanlang, am fond of your character,” Chu Xuanlang laughed out loud. It seemed that he was truly fond of Chu Feng.

“In that case, should I address you as Elder Brother Xuanlang?” Chu Feng asked.

“Of course,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Then, Elder Brother Xuanlang, are you truly unable to cure Wang Qiang’s injury?” Chu Feng asked.

“I can’t. There is only a single person in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm capable of curing Wang Qiang’s injury. That is the Golden Crane True Immortal,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Exactly who is the Golden Crane True Immortal?” Chu Feng asked.

“I can only tell you that the Golden Crane True Immortal is someone that even I cannot afford to provoke,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Even you cannot afford to provoke?” Chu Feng was greatly surprised. He had known that the Golden Crane True Immortal was no small fry. However, he had never expected him to be so powerful.

Not mentioning his status and background, it was clear that this Chu Xuanlang possessed powerful strength. When even he could not afford to provoke the Golden Crane True Immortal, it meant that the Golden Crane True Immortal’s strength would be superior to Chu Xuanlang’s.

“Why would someone like him not stay in the Upper Realms, and instead come to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?” Chu Feng asked.

“There’s naturally a purpose in him coming. Merely, as for what his purpose is, who would possibly know?” Chu Xuanlang said with a faint smile. It was a very meaningful smile.

Chu Feng no longer continued to ask. However, he now knew that the Golden Crane True Immortal must have some purpose in coming to the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

“For people like us, we will generally not concern ourselves with the matters of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Thus, even for you, it will likely be extremely difficult to successfully request the Golden Crane True Immortal’s aid. As such, you must make mental preparations,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“I’ve already prepared myself,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well. Then, it’s up to you.”

As Chu Xuanlang spoke, he suddenly stopped.

After he stopped, Chu Feng’s surroundings grew clear. He saw that there was a mountain range in the distance. It was the Mount Cloud Crane that the Golden Crane True Immortal resided in.

“This fast?” Chu Feng felt a bit astonished. He had only chatted with Chu Xuanlang for a short moment. Thus, they had only taken a short while to journey there.

“For the sake finding the Golden Crane True Immortal more convenient, I deliberately chose a place closer to him,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Elder Brother Xuanlang is truly considerate,” Chu Feng clasped his fist. Then, without the slightest hesitation, his body moved, and he began to fly toward Mount Cloud Crane.

The words Chu Xuanlang had said to Chu Feng earlier were not only meant to describe the Golden Crane True Immortal. He was also describing himself.

He was telling Chu Feng that he had already made an exception to save Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong. As for protecting the Sunset Cloud Valley and the Three Stars Hall, that too was an exception.

Thus, in what came next, including Chu Feng asking the Golden Crane True Immortal for help, he would not involve himself. Chu Feng had to take care of everything himself now.

Chu Feng arrived at the foot of Mount Cloud Crane. However, he was simply unable to enter. The reason for that was because there was a spirit formation currently enveloping Mount Cloud Crane. There was simply no entrance.

Chu Feng inspected the invisible spirit formation carefully. Then, he exclaimed, "Sure enough, this Golden Crane True Immortal is not as simple as I imagined him to be."

He discovered that that invisible spirit formation was formed with Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak Spirit Power.

However, it remained that Chu Feng was currently a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Thus, his Heaven's Eyes had also grown much more powerful.

Chu Feng was faintly able to tell that that Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak Spirit Power was a disguise. The reason for that was because the power of that defensive formation barrier was something that not even Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak Spirit Power could accomplish.

Thus, Chu Feng was certain that the Golden Crane True Immortal was most definitely not an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Rather, his level of world spirit techniques was even superior to that.

"Never would I have imagined there to be this many hidden dragons and crouching tigers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. With this many hidden experts, it would truly be great if the Golden Crane True Immortal was willing to become your backing,” Her Lady Queen also realized that the Golden Crane True Immortal was very powerful.

“I’m afraid that’ll be very difficult,” Chu Feng smiled faintly. Then, his gaze suddenly changed.

Although it would appear that Mount Cloud Crane had not changed in any way, Chu Feng was able to see with his Heaven’s Eyes that an opening had actually appeared in the invisible spirit formation before him.

Evidently, the Golden Crane True Immortal already knew that Chu Feng had arrived, and had deliberately created an opening for him to enter.

Chu Feng understood the Golden Crane True Immortal’s intention. Thus, without hesitation, Chu Feng entered.

“Sure enough, even their treatment is different. It would appear that Young Brother Chu Feng will have a chance.”

Chu Xuanlang also noticed this from afar. A faint smile emerged on his face.

Chu Feng did not continue to fly after entering Mount Cloud Crane. Instead, he descended onto a small road on Mount Cloud Crane and began to follow it.

“Woosh~~~”

Not long after Chu Feng entered Mount Cloud Crane, a figure suddenly appeared before him.

It was a very handsome looking man wearing a white gown.

He did not possess a robust stature, but his aura was extremely imposing. As for that individual, he was the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s genius, Young Master Li Ming.

Young Master Li Ming did not reveal the slightest bit of surprise upon seeing Chu Feng. Instead, he appeared as if he had been waiting for Chu Feng for a very long time.

He carefully examined Chu Feng from head to toe. Then, the corners of his mouth rose, and a mocking gaze appeared on his face.

“You’ve disappeared for two years. Yet, your cultivation is only this?”

Chapter 2491 - Determine Superiority

---

Upon seeing Young Master Li Ming, Chu Feng also started to closely examine him.

He discovered that he was actually unable to see through Young Master Li Ming's cultivation.

That Young Master Li Ming was truly concealed with talent.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng did not reveal the slightest panic. Instead, with a faint smile on his face, he asked, "You attacked my friend?"

"You mean that woman?" Young Master Li Ming asked.

"Naturally," Chu Feng nodded.

"I have. What do you want to do about it?" Young Master Li Ming nodded.

"There was no hatred nor grievance between you two, why did you attack her?" Chu Feng asked.

"Must there be hatred or grievance in the world of martial cultivators for one to attack another?" Young Master Li Ming questioned instead of answering.

"True," Chu Feng revealed a faint smile. Then, he asked, "Then, have you stopped me today because you want to attack me?"

"You're quite smart. Let me mention this first. I do not possess any malice. I merely heard that you are very strong. Thus, I wish to have a spar to see if you're as strong as you're rumored to be."

"However, you can also be reassured. While I defeat you, I will not injure you," Young Master Li Ming waved the folding fan he held in his hand as he explained himself to Chu Feng. His words and attitude had revealed his absolute confidence.

"Unless you're a True Immortal, I fear that it will be difficult for you to defeat me," Chu Feng said.

“Is that so? Then, I will have to disappoint you.”

“Paa~~~”

As Young Master Li Ming spoke, he abruptly closed his folding fan. Then, with a quick step, he arrived before Chu Feng.

His palm extended forward, and a burst of wind shot forth. He had unleashed an attack toward Chu Feng.

“This guy!!!”

At that moment, Chu Feng was immediately startled.

There was not an overwhelming power to Young Master Li Ming’s palm strike. Even the burst of wind that it brought forth was extremely gentle.

However, when that wind landed on Chu Feng’s body, Chu Feng felt an enormous sense of oppression.

He... was actually being restricted.

He had been restricted by Young Master Li Ming’s oppressive might.

Not only did Young Master Li Ming possess a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, the same as Chu Feng, but he was also a rank nine Martial Ancestor.

“Woosh~~~”

In merely a blink of an eye, Young Master Li Ming’s palm arrived before Chu Feng. However, it stopped at a distance of a centimeter before Chu Feng’s face.

His palm did not land. It was not that he was unable to land his palm, but rather that he stopped himself right before landing it.

“You’ve lost,” Young Master Li Ming retrieved his palm and spoke to Chu Feng with a beaming smile and pride in his eyes.

After he finished saying those words, he suddenly turned around and soared into the sky. He was actually leaving.

“Chu Feng, chase after him. That guy mounted a sneak attack. This match doesn’t count,” Her Lady Queen said in a very unaccepting manner.

“Forget about it. Although I’ve lost due to carelessness, it remains that I have lost. I will not find a pretext for myself,” Compared to Her Lady Queen, Chu Feng was rather calm.

He did not feel humiliated because he had lost to Young Master Li Ming.

Through what happened earlier, Chu Feng was certain that this Young Master Li Ming was truly very powerful.

He had likely been concealing his actual strength when Chu Feng had met him at the Extremely Remote Unmarked Burial Mounds. Although Chu Feng could not be certain that he had concealed his cultivation, he was certain that he had concealed his battle power.

At that time, the battle power Young Master Li Ming had revealed was only capable of surmounting three levels of cultivation. Yet presently, his battle power was capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation.

Furthermore, he possessed the cultivation of a rank nine Martial Ancestor. Even if Chu Feng were to activate his Heavenly Bloodline’s Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, he would only be able to increase his cultivation to the same level as Young Master Li Ming’s.

As that Young Master Li Ming had concealed himself extremely deeply, Chu Feng had no idea what other abilities he might possess. Thus, even if Chu Feng were to go all-out, he still did not have absolute certainty in being able to defeat Young Master Li Ming.

Thus, Chu Feng did not feel humiliated to lose to someone like him.

More importantly, if Chu Feng did not accept defeat, and tried to continue to fight with Young Master Li Ming, it would instead make him appear to be petty.

Chu Feng was not that sort of person.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly felt an even stronger power enveloping him.

The next moment, Chu Feng felt his surroundings growing fuzzy. When everything returned to normal, he discovered that he was now at a different location than before.

Chu Feng had been to that place before. It was the same place where he had met the Golden Crane True Immortal before.

“Little friend Chu Feng, it’s been a long time since we last met, I trust that you have been well.”

Suddenly, a familiar voice sounded. It was the voice of the Golden Crane True Immortal.

However, the Golden Crane True Immortal did not reveal himself.

“Senior, I trust that you have also been well since we last met,” Chu Feng clasped his fist toward the direction of the voice.

“You have come to find me for the sake of that Wang Qiang, right?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Senior, Wang Qiang is my brother. His injury is a danger to his life. Senior, I hope that you will be able to help him. As long as senior is willing to help, this Chu Feng will agree to any condition,” Chu Feng said.

“Are you really certain in agreeing to any condition?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“As long as it is something that this Chu Feng is capable of, as long as it is not an outrageous act or bloody atrocity, this Chu Feng will agree to anything,” Chu Feng said.

“While it might not be an outrageous act or bloody atrocity, it is something that you might not necessarily be capable of doing,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said profoundly.

Chu Feng did not hesitate. He said immediately, “Senior, please speak away.” He knew that this might be the only opportunity for him to ask the Golden Crane True Immortal to help Wang Qiang. Thus... he did not want to miss this opportunity.

“This matter might cause you to lose your life,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng’s heart moved slightly. He faintly felt that the situation might be bad.

However, even with that being the case, Chu Feng still said resolutely, “Senior, please tell me what it is.”

“I need you to help me retrieve an item. As long as you can retrieve it, I will help you save Wang Qiang,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“I am able to help senior retrieve that item. Merely, I have a question. Senior, are you able to guarantee that you will definitely be able to cure Wang Qiang’s injury?” Chu Feng asked.

He had to ask this question. He was not afraid of displeasing the Golden Crane True Immortal. After all... he was planning to use his life to obtain an opportunity.

If he was able to retrieve the item that the Golden Crane True Immortal requested, yet the Golden Crane True Immortal was unable to cure Wang Qiang, he would have suffered enormous losses.

“Haha...” At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal started laughing. It was a very profound laughter.

“If I am to tell you that I cannot guarantee that I will be able to cure Wang Qiang, will you still be willing to help me retrieve what I want?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked instead of answering.

“I am,” Chu Feng said without the slightest hesitation.

Even though he knew that things would be unfair if that were the case, he knew very well that he did not have a choice.

The reason for that was because it seemed that the Golden Crane True Immortal might be the only individual in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm capable of saving Wang Qiang.

“Good, frank and straightforward. You are indeed affectionate and true. That Wang Qiang is fortunate to have a friend like you.”

“That said, Chu Feng, even if you are willing to help, it is not a place that you can go to just because you want to,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Senior, what do you mean?” Chu Feng asked.

“You’ve met that Young Master Li Ming, right? I believe you’ve heard that I wanted to take him as a disciple, but was refused by him, right?”

“Do you know why he would appear here?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Could it be that he had something to request of you, senior?” Chu Feng asked.

“You’ve guessed correctly. Right now, both of you have things to request from me. However, I only need one person to go help me retrieve what I want.”

“Thus, I can only help one of you. As for who I will help, you two will have to strive for it yourselves,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“You want us to compete?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s right. I want the two of you to have a contest. The victor will be qualified to complete my task. Only then will you have a chance to be able to obtain my assistance.”

“I know the two of you already confronted one another just now. However, that cannot be regarded as an actual match. Actually, I am also providing this opportunity so that I can help you two.”

“I want the two of you, the two most famous geniuses of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, to compete with one another to determine who is superior,” the Golden Crane True Immortal said with a faint smile.

This smile was filled with anticipation.

Chapter 2492 - Fair Match

---

“Chu Feng, are you willing?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“This junior is willing,” Chu Feng answered decisively without the slightest hesitation.

Chu Feng freely admitted that Young Master Li Ming was very strong. He could be said to be the strongest person of the younger generation Chu Feng had met so far.

However, Chu Feng would not cower when facing him.

While Chu Feng had indeed been defeated by Young Master Li Ming earlier, Chu Feng also felt that he was defeated because of his carelessness.

Chu Feng felt that if he were to fight him again without holding anything back, the outcome of the battle would not be determined.

Most importantly, Chu Feng had no choice. This seemed to be the only path that he could take to save Wang Qiang.

“Very well, you have courage and insight, and are frank and straightforward enough.”

“Although Li Ming is stronger than you, you can rest assured, for I will provide the two of you with a platform for a fair match,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“What does this old fart mean by that? Why is he saying that Young Master Li Ming is stronger than you?” Hearing those words, Her Lady Queen revealed a displeased expression. She felt that the Golden Crane True Immortal was looking down on Chu Feng.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, a flash of light suddenly streaked past Chu Feng. The next moment, a figure appeared beside him.

It was none other than Young Master Li Ming.

Young Master Li Ming noticed Chu Feng. However, his expression did not change. It was as if he was seeing a stranger. From beginning to the end, he showed a proud and arrogant expression.

“You need me for something?” Young Master Li Ming looked in the Golden Crane True Immortal’s direction.

Even though he was facing the Golden Crane True Immortal, there was no trace of respect in his tone.

“This brat is truly arrogant. If I were that Golden Crane True Immortal, I would definitely not be able to tolerate him,” Her Lady Queen curled her lips.

However, the Golden Crane True Immortal was exceptionally calm. He asked indifferently, “Have you finished considering what I mentioned to you earlier?”

“I have called for you in Mount Cloud Crane for three entire days. Did you not hear me?” Young Master Li Ming spoke in a very displeased manner. His tone was that of someone who did not place the Golden Crane True Immortal in his eyes at all.

“Heh...” Faced with Young Master Li Ming’s attitude, the Golden Crane True Immortal was actually not angry. On the contrary, he chuckled and said, “I have indeed heard you. Merely, those three days have already passed. As such, how would I know if your decision today will remain the same as those three days?”

“You know the result now. Can I be let out now?” Young Master Li Ming asked.

“I’m afraid not. You have a competitor now,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“You’re talking about him?” Young Master Li Ming looked to Chu Feng. He was a bit surprised. However, his surprise soon turned to contempt. He looked to the Golden Crane True Immortal again and said arrogantly, “No wonder you ignored me before. So you were waiting for him.”

“Are you still willing to continue now?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“How do you want us to compete?” Young Master Li Ming asked.

“The two of you are to confront one another. The victor shall obtain the opportunity,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“If that’s the case, there is no need to compete. I have already confronted him earlier. He is absolutely no match for me,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“This brat is truly arrogant. Chu Feng, beat him up! You must teach him a lesson!” Her Lady Queen spoke in a very displeased manner.

However, Chu Feng had a very calm expression. He kept silent, and looked on with a smile on his face.

“I am the one who gets to decide the outcome of this match. The victor and loser is yet to be determined,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Even if we are to compete in world spirit techniques, he will not be able to defeat me,” After Young Master Li Ming finished saying those words, a layer of spirit power began to hover around him.

Not only was that spirit power Immortal-cloak spirit power, it was also Snake Mark.

“Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?” Chu Feng was rather surprised. He had only experienced how amazing Young Master Li Ming was in terms of martial cultivation before. He had truly never expect for his world spirit techniques to also be quite strong.

“As I’ve said, this match is up to me to decide,” After the Golden Crane True Immortal finished saying those words, a body of light suddenly flew over. That body of light began to rapidly grow larger.

In a blink of an eye, it turned into an enormous crystal-like cage that surrounded Chu Feng and Young Master Li Ming.

“This feeling?” Chu Feng’s heart tightened.

After being enveloped by that body of light, he discovered that all of his power was restricted.

Both his martial cultivation and world spirit techniques were restricted.

Standing here, Chu Feng felt as if he were an ordinary commoner without any special ability at all.

“Seems like I’m not the only one restricted,” Chu Feng noticed that Young Master Li Ming’s expression had also changed. He too revealed a surprised gaze.

“What is this?” Young Master Li Ming said to the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Since it’s a match, it must naturally be fair,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“You’ve sealed both of our powers. Could it be that you want us to determine a victor by punching and kicking like ordinary people?” Young Master Li Ming asked.

“Naturally not. If that were the case, it would be too senseless,” The Golden Crane True Immortal smiled profoundly.

“Buzz~~~”

The next moment, Chu Feng suddenly discovered that a pillar of light had appeared behind him.

This pillar was golden in color. It seemed to be made of crystal. It was a meter tall, and emitted an unusual sort of power.

Furthermore, an identical pillar of light had also appeared behind Young Master Li Ming.

“I have restricted both of your powers. Right now, you two are like two pieces of blank paper. The two of you now possess the same starting point.”

“However, those two pillars will change the situation. Your superiority over one another might change because of that,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Exactly what are you planning?” Young Master Li Ming spoke in an annoyed manner.

“I will explain the rules. The pillars behind you two are respectively what you must protect.”

“If the pillar behind you is to be touched by your opponent, it will be your opponent’s victory.”

“The pillars behind the two of you contain a certain amount of energy. By placing your hand on the pillar behind you, you will be able to absorb its energy.”

“The more energy you absorb from your pillar, the smaller your pillar will become. In turn, it will be more difficult for your opponent to touch your pillar.”

“Of course, the amount of power you will obtain and the size your pillar will shrink to will all depend on yourself,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Woosh~~~”

Right after the Golden Crane True Immortal finished explaining, that Young Master Li Ming immediately leapt into the air. With a beautiful flip, he landed beside the pillar that he had to protect.

While his cultivation had been restricted, and he was left in a same state as ordinary people, his movement and agility were not something that ordinary people could compare with. This was the foundation of an expert. Even if they were to have their cultivation seized, they would still possess strength surpassing that of ordinary individuals.

“Buzz~~~”

Young Master Li Ming placed his hand onto the pillar. The next moment, that radiance from the pillar began to assimilate into Young Master Li Ming’s body.

It was as if Young Master Li Ming was depriving the pillar of its radiance. As the pillar grew dimmer, Young Master Li Ming started to shine.

Most importantly, that pillar actually really began to shrink. In the blink of an eye, it shrunk from a meter to a foot. Furthermore, it was still shrinking.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was able to sense that Young Master Li Ming’s aura was growing extraordinary too. He had obtained power from that pillar.

.....

At the same time as all this was happening, there was a golden crane in a place where Chu Feng and Young Master Li Ming could not see. That golden crane was currently observing everything.

Naturally, that golden crane was the Golden Crane True Immortal. At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal revealed an expression of surprise and joy.

“This brat truly does have some skills. It is no wonder you thought that highly of him.”

Suddenly, a voice sounded. That voice was something that only the Golden Crane True Immortal could hear.

At the same time as that voice sounded, a figure also emerged. As for that individual... he was that plain-clothed old monk.

Chapter 2493 - Merely One Move

---

“He is, after all, someone that I’ve chosen. It is only natural for him to not disappoint me.”

Hearing the plain-clothed old monk praising Young Master Li Ming, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s form started to change. In the blink of an eye, he turned from a golden crane into a human. Furthermore, he had a pleasant smile on his face.

“However, I am still optimistic regarding Chu Feng,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“Chu Feng’s speed of progress is truly astonishing. As matters stand, I must admit that no aspect regarding that child can be picked on; he is indeed an exceptional genius.”

“However, if you insist on comparing the two of them, I am still optimistic of my Li Ming.”

“Let’s take my Profound Light Pillar as an example. The amount of energy one can draw from it is not only related to one’s talent. It is also related to the composition of one’s body, the strength of one’s willpower, and even one’s way of thinking.”

“To be able to accomplish what Li Ming has accomplished means that he could be said to be perfect all around.”

“I believe that he will be capable of shrinking the pillar of light to the size of a pinky finger. As for that, it is the limit of martial cultivators.”

“He is truly a genius among geniuses. His potential is extremely frightening.”

“They all say that countless geniuses will gradually lose their strength as geniuses, and come to a premature end as time passes.”

“However, a genius like Li Ming will definitely not come to a premature end. He will only continue to grow until he becomes a grand character that can look down on an entire Starfield,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“No wonder you wanted to take him as your disciple this much. So it’s actually because you are very optimistic about his future prospects, and wanted to hug his thigh in the future,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“Humph,” The Golden Crane True Immortal snorted eccentrically. It was as if he was feeling slightly displeased from his plot being seen through.

However, upon looking back toward the current Young Master Li Ming, a joyous smile soon appeared on his face again.

At that moment, that so-called Profound Light Pillar was still shrinking in Young Master Li Ming’s hand. It had already shrunk to the size of a pinkie finger.

However, that Young Master Li Ming still hadn’t stopped yet. His Profound Light Pillar was still shrinking.

Furthermore, as he continued to persist, the energy within the Profound Light Pillar was still being continuously extracted by him, and the pillar itself was still continuously shrinking.

In the end, that Profound Light Pillar actually ended up shrinking to a size of only two centimeters.

“It’s actually even smaller than I had anticipated. This Li Ming is truly worthy of being the person that I’ve chosen. His talent is truly too astonishing. He actually managed to refine the Profound Light Pillar to such a state. He has already surpassed the extreme of the extreme.”

The Golden Crane True Immortal was wild with joy. It was as if Young Master Li Ming was his own child; he was feeling extremely proud of him.

“Is this the extreme of the extreme? I’ve heard that a person from the Chu Heavenly Clan has also used this Profound Light Pillar to test his potential before. As for his result, he refined the Profound Light Pillar to a state of disappearance,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“You’re talking about Chu Xuanyuan?” At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal revealed a displeased expression. In fact, when he mentioned Chu Xuanyuan, he revealed a very ugly expression.

“Naturally, it would be him. I met that child once before. The him from back then was already an overbearing individual, someone who possessed the airs of a ruler. Even today, his presence is still vivid in my mind.”

“I determined at that time that he was most definitely not an ordinary individual, that he would obtain inestimable achievements in the future.”

“Thus, I wanted to take him as my disciple just like how you wanted to take Li Ming as your disciple. However, I ended up being refused by him, and was even mocked by him, saying that I was not qualified to be his master.”

“Haha. Recalling it, although Li Ming was arrogant, he is still much inferior when compared to Chu Xuanyuan back then.”

“The Chu Xuanyuan from that time was like someone who was certain that he would become a peak expert in the future. He was truly someone who considered everyone else to be beneath him.”

“Even we were not placed in his eyes. Later on, what he managed to accomplish indeed made it so that others had no choice but to accept his arrogance.”

There was not the slightest trace of displeasure on his face when the plain-clothed old monk said those words. Instead, it was filled with smiles.

From this, it could be seen that even though he was refused and even insulted by Chu Xuanyuan, he did not feel the slightest bit of resentment. On the contrary... he instead seemed to feel somewhat proud of it.

“Very few people saw Chu Xuanyuan’s test with the Profound Light Pillar. Thus, who knows whether or not he really managed to refine the Profound Light Pillar till it disappeared?” The Golden Crane True Immortal spoke with a tart tone.

“While others might not know, how could you not know? After all, you have personally seen his strength after he matured,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“So what? Wasn’t that Chu Xuanyuan still killed by his own clan? So what if he was a genius? All the geniuses that are unable to really mature are nothing more than jokes.”

“That Chu Xuanyuan is included among those geniuses that came to a premature end,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said. There was actually strong anger in the tone of his voice.

“Say, Golden Crane, you shouldn’t detest Chu Xuanyuan like that just because he defeated your master. After all, it was your Dao Imperial Palace that incited that match,” The plain-clothed old monk said with a smile.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, the Golden Crane True Immortal turned around and looked at the plain-clothed old monk. His gaze was exceptionally sharp. If an ordinary individual were to see that gaze, they would be scared to death.

It was not a gaze filled with killing intent. However, it contained absolute cowering force. Seeing that gaze, one would feel fear and terror from the bottom of one’s heart.

However, even though he was faced with that sort of gaze, the plain-clothed old monk remained smiling. He was not frightened in the slightest.

“Why are you looking at me like that? Your Dao Imperial Palace was able to take defeat with grace.”

“Yet now, you, the current Palace Master of the grand Dao Imperial Palace, actually reacts in such a manner when mentioning an opponent from long ago. Could it be that there was something more to how you all took your defeat back then?” The plain-clothed old monk asked.

Hearing those words, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s gaze started to dwindle. However, he did not answer the plain-clothed old monk.

“C’mon, tell me about it. This is actually also something that I am very curious about. Back then, only you were present in the battle between Chu Xuanyuan and your master.”

“After that battle, Chu Xuanyuan did not declare the result of the battle. He acted as if nothing had happened.”

“It was your master who declared to the world that he was defeated by Chu Xuanyuan.”

“Furthermore, he grew extremely depressed after that battle, and died soon afterwards.”

“All of this is extremely strange. After all, your Dao Imperial Palace has always been able to accept your losses with exceptional grace.”

“I wish to know exactly what happened. Could it be that Chu Xuanyuan used some sort of despicable method to make your master feel extremely unreconciled with the defeat? Was that why he started to have a knot in his heart, and died of depression?” The plain-clothed old monk asked in succession.

“Enough!” The Golden Crane True Immortal shouted. However, only the plain-clothed old monk was able to hear his voice.

That said, the Golden Crane True Immortal did not continue to become angry. Instead, he forcibly curbed his anger and said, “Indeed, our Dao Imperial Palace has been able to accept our losses. Our Dao Imperial palace will never make retaliations against those that have defeated our people. We have always been respectful toward our opponents, always admired them.”

“But, who was my master? He was the strongest Palace Master to have ever appeared in our Dao Imperial Palace’s many generations of Palace Masters. He had made countless glorious accomplishments throughout his life. Back in the Great Chiliocosm Upper Realm, very few people dared to disrespect him.”

“Yet, he was defeated by a member of the younger generation, one that was not even thirty years old. Let me ask, how could he be willing to accept that defeat?” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“In that case, your master was truly defeated then. It was because he wholly accepted his defeat that he grew that depressed?” The plain-clothed old monk asked.

The Golden Crane True Immortal heaved a long sigh. Then, he looked to the sky and slowly closed his eyes. He said, “Merely one move. Oh, it was merely one move.”

“That Chu Xuanyuan defeated my master with merely one move. Before him, my master did not even have the opportunity to fight back. How could my master not be unwilling to accept his defeat?”

“But, even if he had wholly accepted his defeat, it was still too miserable of a defeat. It was so miserable that no one would believe it.”

“As such, it was inevitable for my master to feel unable to endure being defeated like that.”

“If my master was an arrogant and overbearing individual before that match, then all of his drive and spirit was polished off completely after that match.”

“With that one match, his entire life was destroyed.”

Chapter 2494 - High Hopes

---

“Wait, one move?”

“You’re saying that in the match back then, Chu Xuanyuan, who was not even thirty years old, defeated your master with only one move?”

Hearing those words, the plain-clothed old monk also revealed a surprised expression. In fact, he even started to tremble slightly, and goosebumps appeared on his body.

It was not that he was afraid. Rather, he was incomparably shocked from how unimaginable that was.

“Mn,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said with a sigh.

At that moment, his state was very strange. It was as if he had returned to the scene back then, and was once again witnessing that battle.

“That’s impossible. No matter how powerful Chu Xuanyuan might be, it should still be impossible for him to defeat your master with only one move.”

“After all, your master was the strongest Palace Master to have ever appeared in the Dao Imperial Palace. Even though we have trained for so long, neither one of us are able to reach his level. In fact, we are people that will not be able to reach his level in our entire life.”

“How could Chu Xuanyuan defeat him with only...?”

“Only one move. I personally witnessed it. There is no mistake,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said sternly.

“Back then, Chu Xuanyuan was not even thirty years old. Yet, he defeated my renowned master with only a single move.”

“The way I see it, the strength he had back then was equal to that of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief. Later on... he was most likely unparalleled in the entire Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“But, why would he be killed by his clansmen? I feel that it was most definitely a voluntarily suicide. Otherwise, if he were to resist, who could possibly kill him?”

“I detest him because of his extreme arrogance and his demeanor of a ruler when facing others.”

“But... when facing his own clansmen, he became a coward, and even willingly renounced his life.”

“Originally, I respected him. However, after he died, I now look down on him.”

“It is precisely because I personally saw how powerful he was that I placed high hopes on him.”

“In fact, I even thought that he was capable of leading the Great Chiliocosm Upper Realm to become the ruler of our Starfield, and then leading our Starfield to conquer the vast starry sky.”

“Yet he... was ruined by his own clansmen. Just like that, he died in vain.”

“I detest him not because he defeated my master and caused him to die of depression.”

“Instead, it is because I had placed that much hope on him. Yet he... decided to forfeit his life just like that.”

As the Golden Crane True Immortal said those words, he tightly clenched his aged fists. However, there was not the slightest trace of anger in his eyes. Instead, they were filled with sadness.

It was as if this was something that he felt very unreconciled toward, that was the regret of his life, a knot that he would never be able to undo in his heart.

The plain-clothed old monk walked over to the Golden Crane True Immortal and softly patted his shoulder. He said, “As your old friend of many years, how could I not understand you?”

“All these years, you will get angry every time Chu Xuanyuan is mentioned.”

“Others felt that you bore grudges against Chu Xuanyuan because your master was defeated by him.”

“However, I have always felt that it was because of something else that you wished to keep hidden. Merely, I never expected that it would actually be because you placed so great a hope on Chu Xuanyuan only to have it turn into deep disappointment.”

“That said, Golden Crane, all these years, have any of us managed to see Chu Xuanyuan’s corpse?”

“While rumor has it that he was killed by the Chu Heavenly Clan after being imprisoned by them, is he truly dead? Would the Chu Heavenly Clan really be willing to kill someone like Chu Xuanyuan? Would they really be able to kill him?”

The plain-clothed old monk used that questioning gaze to look at the Golden Crane True Immortal. However, his questions didn’t seem to only serve to question the Golden Crane True Immortal. Instead, it seemed like he was asking himself the same question too.

“Old Demonic Substance, forget about it. You shouldn’t bother to have high hopes. We all know very well what sort of people the Chu Heavenly Clan are. They are a clan of cold-blooded individuals who do not care about sentiments and feelings. Moreover, Chu Xuanyuan killed so many people, and indeed made an enormous mistake.” [1. Old Demonic Substance used to be Old Poisonous Substance. Not sure why Bee changed the name.]

“Rather than placing hopes on Chu Xuanyuan being alive, it is better to place our hopes on this Li Ming and Chu Feng. Perhaps one day, one of them might become the second Chu Xuanyuan,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Speaking of that Chu Feng, he is truly mysterious. He possesses a Heavenly Bloodline, and trains in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique. Yet, no one knows where he's from."

"Come to think of it, I remember that Chu Xuanyuan's son also seemed to be named Chu Feng, no?" The plain-clothed old monk said.

"What do you mean by that?" The Golden Crane True Immortal's expression changed. He turned to the plain-clothed old monk and asked, "Could it be that you feel Chu Feng might be him?"

"Don't tell me you've never suspected that to be the case," The plain-clothed old monk said.

"There are countless individuals in this world with the same name and surname," The Golden Crane True Immortal shook his head.

"Indeed, there are a lot of people surnamed Chu in this world. As for people by the name of Chu Feng, there are quite a few of them too. However, there is only a single Chu family that possesses a Heavenly Bloodline."

"Furthermore, that Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique is not something that everyone possesses, nor is it something that anyone could learn."

"Not only does he possess such outstanding talent, his name is also exactly the same. No matter how many people with the same name and surname there are in this world, how many such coincidences could there be?" The plain-clothed old monk asked.

"You're saying all this just so that you can tell me that Chu Feng is Chu Xuanyuan's son, no?"

"But, do not forget why Chu Xuanyuan decided to unleash a massacre back then. Wasn't it because his son was humiliated by others after it was made clear that he did not possess a Heavenly Bloodline?"

"One was trash that did not possess a Heavenly Bloodline, whereas the other is a genius who trains in the Divine Punishment Mysterious technique, how could they possibly be the same person?" The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

"Perhaps he has changed over the years. After all, geniuses can come to a premature end, and trash can rise to power," The plain-clothed old monk said.

"Old Demonic Substance, I know that you think very highly of Chu Xuanyuan. Like me, you also experienced his strength. That is why you've also placed high hopes on him."

"But... I can tell you with certainty, that even if Chu Feng is Chu Xuanyuan's son, that does not mean that Chu Xuanyuan is still alive."

"You should stop having that sort of fantasy. Furthermore, even if Chu Xuanyuan really is still alive, so what? He is neither a friend nor a relative of ours. To him, we are nothing more than transient guests. Perhaps he might have already forgotten who we are."

"Even if he is still alive, even if he could once again emerge in power, what does that have to do with us? Could he possibly provide us with benefits?" The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

"That wasn't what you said earlier," The plain-clothed old monk said with a beaming smile.

"What I said earlier was what I felt back then. Right now, my opinions have changed. I need to find a promising genius. I need to make that genius related to me. Like that, once he matures in the future, I will be able to obtain benefits."

"As for this Li Ming, he is my hope," As the Golden Crane True Immortal said those words, he looked to Young Master Li Ming again.

The plain-clothed old monk also looked over.

"This brat."

Upon looking, those two grand individuals both revealed stunned expressions. They were shocked.

At that moment, Li Ming was sitting cross-legged on the floor. He was completely condensing the golden radiance on his body inside his body. He was stabilizing the power given to him by the golden radiance.

As for the Profound Light Pillar, it was still floating behind him. Merely, the size of that Profound Light Pillar had shrunk to only one centimeter in length.

“This brat’s potential is truly astonishing. Even in the Great Chilocosm Upper Realm, very few people will be able to contend against him. Golden Crane, you have truly managed to pick up a treasure,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“Of course. My vision is absolutely correct,” The Golden Crane True Immortal was immensely pleased with himself.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Young Master Li Ming opened his eyes. He had managed to completely grasp the power he had obtained from the Profound Light Pillar.

At that moment, he stood up and cast his gaze toward Chu Feng. With a very arrogant tone, he said, “Are you still planning to contend against me now?”

Chapter 2495 - Extremely Marvelous

---

“What do you mean by that?” Chu Feng asked with a smile on his face.

“We both have our cultivations sealed, and can only obtain the power within our respective light pillars.”

“The amount that we can obtain will determine our strength. And I, I have obtained nearly all of the power from the light pillar behind me.”

“If you still insist on contending against me, I will not show leniency toward you,” Young Master Li Ming said to Chu Feng.

“I have yet to start. What makes you so certain that I will obtain less power from my light pillar than you?” Chu Feng asked.

“Because you are inferior to me to begin with,” Young Master Li Ming spoke arrogantly.

Young Master Li Ming was currently emitting an air of absolute arrogance from all over his body, including his gaze, his skin, his every pore and his every hair.

“Truly shameless. Just because he won once through a sneak attack, did he really think that he is unparalleled in this world?” Her Lady Queen was so furious that her face turned deep red. She wanted to rush out and teach Young Master Li Ming a proper lesson.

“Haha...”

Compared to Her Lady Queen, Chu Feng was relatively calm. He did not argue with Young Master Li Ming. Instead, after letting out a chuckle, he extended his hand.

“Paa~~~”

Chu Feng’s hand spread open, and he pressed his palm onto the Profound Light Pillar. Then, the radiance from the Profound Light

Pillar began to enter Chu Feng's body through his palm.

The speed at which Chu Feng refined the Profound Light Pillar was extremely fast. As the vast amount of energy entered Chu Feng's body, the Profound Light Pillar started to rapidly shrink in size.

"How could it be this fast?" At that moment, the plain-clothed old monk's expression changed.

"Chu Feng is too fast. If this is to continue, he might produce the opposite of the desired result," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

However, Chu Feng continued to maintain the rapid speed at which he was refining the Profound Light Pillar. He did not show any sign of slowing down. Soon... that Profound light Pillar went from one meter long to one foot long. Furthermore, it was still rapidly shrinking.

"This guy..."

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming's expression also changed somewhat. A surprised expression appeared in his eyes.

"Golden Crane, it seems like... Chu Feng was not affected by his rapid speed," The plain-clothed old monk said to the Golden Crane True Immortal.

"No, he will definitely slow down. Being this fast will only affect his final performance. Chu Feng... is letting his emotions affect his decisions."

"His temperament is inferior to Li Ming's. He actually allowed himself to be incited by Li Ming's words of provocation," The Golden Crane True Immortal shook his head.

At that moment, the Profound Light Pillar had been refined to the point where it was only five centimeters long.

However, the speed at which the Profound Light Pillar was shrinking also started to rapidly decrease. Even though it was still being refined by Chu Feng, the speed at which it was being refined was simply a heaven and earth difference when compared to before.

Although the speed had decreased enormously, the Profound Light Pillar was still being refined.

Four centimeters. Three centimeters. The speed grew slower and slower. However, Young Master Li Ming's gaze grew less and less stable.

If Chu Feng were to continue to refine the Profound Light Pillar, he would soon shrink the Profound Light Pillar to the same size he had made his, shrink his Profound Light Pillar to the point where it was only a centimeter long.

If that was the case, it would mean that Chu Feng had reached the same heights he had. At that time, the arrogant boasts he had made earlier would have been made in vain.

“Buzz~~~”

Finally, the Profound Light Pillar shrunk to a size of only two centimeters. At that size, Chu Feng's Profound Light Pillar stopped shrinking.

“Huu~~~”

At that moment, one could clearly see that Young Master Li Ming took a deep sigh of relief.

He was truly panicking. Earlier, he was truly afraid that Chu Feng would continue to refine the Profound Light Pillar.

However, he had now managed to relieve himself. Even though there was not much of a difference between them, Chu Feng was still a bit weaker.

“He stopped. It would appear that the final two centimeters of the Profound Light Pillar is Chu Feng's limit.”

“It seems like you were correct. Chu Feng is indeed inferior to Li Ming,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“No, Chu Feng was being too quick earlier. If instead he had gradually refined the Profound Light Pillar like Li Ming had, he would most likely have been able to refine the Profound Light Pillar to only one centimeter long like Li Ming did,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Pa, pa, pa~~~”

At that moment, claps could be heard. It was Young Master Li Ming.

As he clapped, Young Master Li Ming looked to Chu Feng with a beaming smile. At that moment, there was no longer any contempt toward Chu Feng in his eyes. However, he was still as arrogant and proud as before.

“Not bad. To be able to accomplish this much, it would appear that you possess the qualifications to contend against me,” Young Master Li Ming said to Chu Feng.

“Those words you’ve just said, seems like you feel that I’ve already finished?” Chu Feng said to Young Master Li Ming with a smile on his face.

“Are you perhaps planning to tell me you’re not finished?” Young Master Li Ming smiled mockingly. He simply did not believe that Chu Feng would be able to continue to refine the Profound Light Pillar.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that, moment, Chu Feng’s palm trembled. The power contained in the Profound Light Pillar started to rapidly fly toward Chu Feng’s palm. The speed was so astonishingly fast. In merely a blink of an eye, the Profound Light Pillar shrunk to only one centimeter long.

“Chu Feng, he actually managed to accomplish that?”

At that moment, not to mention the plain-clothed old monk, even the Golden Crane True Immortal was astonished.

The Golden Crane True Immortal had judged that Chu Feng had refined the Profound Light Pillar too quickly. Thus, it would affect his result.

That was why when Chu Feng had refined the Profound Light Pillar to two centimeters in length, he felt that Chu Feng's potential should be equally matched with Young Master Li Ming's. Even if it was inferior, it wouldn't be that much inferior. He felt that Chu Feng had merely been overeager and impatient, but his actual potential would be on par with Li Ming's.

Yet, Chu Feng continued to refine the Profound Light Pillar, shrinking it in size. From the size of two centimeters, he shrunk it to one centimeter long.

This meant that Chu Feng's potential was stronger than Li Ming's.

“You!!!”

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming also revealed an astonished expression. This was the first time Chu Feng saw Young Master Li Ming revealing this sort of expression.

Evidently, Li Ming also knew what Chu Feng had accomplished signified.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng's palm trembled again. The Profound Light Pillar started to be refined by him again.

The remaining one centimeter of Profound Light Pillar was completely broken down by an enormous suction power. Soon, the Profound light Pillar completely scattered apart. It turned into a strand of light, and was sucked into Chu Feng's body.

“How could this be?!!!”

Young Master Li Ming was stupefied. He simply did not dare to believe his eyes. The reason for that was because the Profound Light Pillar had disappeared.

“He actually completely refined the Profound Light Pillar. There is actually really someone capable of doing that?” The Golden Crane True Immortal’s face was filled with disbelief and excitement. Even his body was trembling nonstop.

It was the trembling of excitement. His reactions were like those of someone searching for treasures finding an incomparably precious treasure.

At that moment, the plain-clothed old monk did not say anything. However, a complicated gaze was flickering in his aged and deep gaze.

His gaze was fixed onto Chu Feng. No one knew what he was thinking.

“The result is determined. Chu Feng directly refined the Profound Light Pillar till it disappeared. As a result, Li Ming has lost the chance to capture his Profound Light Pillar. It is Chu Feng’s victory,” The Golden Crane True Immortal exclaimed.

“Aren’t you a bit disappointed?” The plain-clothed old monk asked.

“Why do you say that?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“I know that you were deeply looking forward to this confrontation between Chu Feng and Li Ming. However, before the match even began, it ended. Are you not disappointed with that?” The plain-clothed old monk asked.

“Haha...” The Golden Crane True Immortal chuckled, “Today, I have witnessed someone capable of completely refining the Profound Light Pillar. A scene like this is much more marvelous than a match. Thus, how could I be disappointed?”

“That’s true. What we have seen today is indeed extremely marvelous,” The plain-clothed old monk nodded in agreement.

At that moment, those two grand characters started to talk cheerfully and wittily. However, the concentrated astonishment in their eyes did not decrease in the slightest.

Chapter 2496 - Mental Attack

---

“If I didn’t witness it myself, I would not have believed that someone would truly be able to accomplish such a thing either,” The plain-clothed old monk exclaimed.

“It would seem that I can announce the result then,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Wait a moment first,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“What’s the matter?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Look at Chu Feng,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

Hearing that, the Golden Crane True Immortal turned his gaze toward Chu Feng.

“That is?”

At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal also revealed a surprised expression.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s palm trembled once again. Then, a strand of light flowed out of his palm.

After that strand of light emerged, it started to condense together and change shape. In the end, it took the form of the Profound Light Pillar.

Although this Profound Light Pillar was only a centimeter long, it was indeed the Profound Light Pillar.

After Chu Feng completely refined the Profound Light Pillar, he actually reformed it.

Young Master Li Ming frowned. With a malicious tone, he asked, “What is the meaning of this?”

“Don’t think that I am deliberately yielding to you. I merely want to respect my opponent.”

“Your cultivation is stronger than mine. For the sake of being absolutely fair, the Golden Crane True Immortal set up this formation for us to compete in.”

“Since this match must be conducted fairly, I will naturally comply with this decision,” Chu Feng said.

“What grand aspiration,” The plain-clothed old monk exclaimed.

“Indeed. He had clearly already won. Yet, he still insists on competing with Li Ming. This sort of decision is not something that an average person would make.”

“After all, his opponent is Li Ming. Even if Chu Feng’s potential surpasses Li Ming’s, if they are to compete under equal terms, the outcome of the battle will still be undetermined,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Won’t this be even better? We will be able to enjoy another great show,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“Indeed. Chu Feng has truly given us quite a few pleasant surprises today,” The Golden Crane True Immortal smiled profoundly.

After all, not only had Chu Feng astonished them with his potential, but he had also brightened their eyes with his aspirations.

“Merely, with how proud and arrogant that Li Ming is, will he really accept Chu Feng yielding to him like this?” The plain-clothed old monk asked.

“Li Ming is indeed proud and arrogant. However, he came here mainly to request my help. This means that what he needs from me is very important to him.”

“Thus, he will accept it,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“This is your decision. Thus, don’t you be unwilling to accept defeat if you are to lose,” Young Master Li Ming said to Chu Feng.

Sure enough, even though Li Ming knew that Chu Feng was deliberately yielding to him, even though he felt a bit displeased because of it, he still chose to continue the match with Chu Feng.

“Rest assured. I, Chu Feng, am always one to accept my losses. However, the precondition for that is that you are able to defeat me,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“I will definitely let your desire come true.”

“Woosh~~~”

After Young Master Li Ming said those words, his body suddenly moved. Like an arrow leaving the bow, his speed surpassed that of lightning. With enormous power, he rushed toward Chu Feng.

That’s right. He was aiming for Chu Feng, and not the Profound Light Pillar behind Chu Feng.

His strategy was very simple. He planned to defeat Chu Feng and then capture the Profound Light Pillar.

“Woosh~~~”

At practically the same time Young Master Li Ming rushed toward Chu Feng, Chu Feng’s body also shifted. He turned into a perfectly straight ray of golden light and flew toward Young Master Li Ming.

“Watch my attack!!!”

In the blink of an eye, the two of them reached one another. Like a torrential rain, Young Master Li Ming started to shoot rapid fists toward Chu Feng.

He was not planning to attack only a single point on Chu Feng. Rather, he was planning to attack Chu Feng’s entire body. He was planning to knock Chu Feng down openly.

“Humph.”

However, faced with Young Master Li Ming’s attack, Chu Feng merely snorted. Then, his ten fingers spread open, and he pushed his arms forward.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

The next moment, like a copper wall, an iron bastion, an impenetrable defense, countless palms appeared before Chu Feng.

All of Young Master Li Ming’s fists were blocked by Chu Feng’s palms.

Then, Chu Feng unleashed a series of counterattacks toward Young Master Li Ming. However, his attacks were also all blocked by Young Master Li Ming.

At that moment, the two of them possessed the same battle power. As for their attacks and techniques, they were also equally matched.

In a back and forth manner, although their confrontation was exceptionally intense, they entered a stalemate right away.

“Those two brats’ fighting techniques are both really skillful. However, precisely because of that, it is hard to determine the outcome of the match. If they are to continue like this, it is very difficult for either one of them to effectively defeat the other. They must quickly turn their targets to the Profound Light Pillars,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“That might not necessarily be the case,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“Could it be that what I said was wrong?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Oh Golden Crane, this is, after all, a formation that you’ve set up. How could you not know that the power of the Profound Light Pillars will eventually be completely exhausted?”

“Although their battle powers are equal right now, once they start to exhaust the powers they obtained from the Profound Light Pillars, an outcome to this battle will be determined,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“I understand what you mean. Once they exhaust the powers they obtained, Li Ming can only resign himself to fate. After all, he simply does not possess enough potential to refine the final bits of the Profound Light Pillar.”

“However, Chu Feng is capable of doing that. He is capable of doing what Li Ming cannot,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“No, you still do not understand Chu Feng. Since he decided to not completely refine the Profound Light Pillar from the very beginning, and chose to confront Li Ming with identical strength, that means that even if all of the power he obtained from the Profound Light Pillar is exhausted, he will not choose to refine the remainder of the Profound Light Pillar’s power,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“Then, how are they to determine victory and defeat?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Although they possess the same amount of energy in their bodies, it does not mean that they will exhaust them at the same rate,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“I understand what you mean by that. However, Old Demonic Substance, I can tell you with certainty that what you are thinking of is impossible to accomplish.”

“It is very difficult for one to control the power one has obtained from the Profound Light Pillar. Thus, they will be consuming it at a practically identical speed,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said determinedly.

“While it might be true that ordinary individuals will not be able to be able to control the power they obtain from the Profound Light Pillars, do not forget that these two brats are not ordinary individuals.”

“Don’t forget that it was originally impossible for one to completely refine the Profound Light Pillar,” The plain-clothed old monk said with a beaming smile.

“Are you suggesting that Chu Feng will be able to bring about another miracle?” Hearing what the plain-clothed old monk said, the Golden Crane True Immortal cast his gaze toward Chu Feng once again.

“It might not necessarily be Chu Feng. Perhaps it is Li Ming who will accomplish that,” As the plain-clothed old monk spoke, he cast his gaze to Young Master Li Ming.

At that moment, Chu Feng and Young Master Li Ming were still fighting one another. Young Master Li Ming was unleashing a rapid offense at Chu Feng.

“Li Ming, have you not eaten anything? Why are your fists growing weaker and weaker?” With a sneer, Chu Feng mocked Young Master Li Ming.

Li Ming did not answer Chu Feng’s mocking words. Furthermore, he did not reveal any expression. However, his attacks grew faster and faster, and more and more powerful.

“It’s actually a mental attack. This brat Chu Feng truly has some tricks up his sleeve,” The plain-clothed old monk said with a beaming smile.

“Chu Feng is actually this shrewd and ruthless at such a young age. Compared to him, Li Ming is truly somewhat soft and immature,” The Golden Crane True Immortal gasped with admiration.

Although Young Master Li Ming appeared to be unaffected on the surface, his attacks grew more and more explosive.

Perhaps neither Chu Feng nor Young Master Li Ming were capable of controlling the speed at which they consumed their energy.

However, if one were to frantically attack like Young Master Li Ming, they would definitely increase the speed at which they consumed their energy.

Thus, at that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain-clothed old monk, these two old monsters, had already determined that Li Ming was affected by Chu Feng's mental attack.

The reason for that was because the energy he was consuming had already surpassed that of Chu Feng.

If it were to continue, he would be the first one to consume all of the energy in his body. Once he consumed all of his energy, he would no longer be able to contend against Chu Feng.

Chapter 2497 - Well Hidden

---

“Sure enough, you’ve guessed correctly. A disparity has appeared in the speed at which they are consuming their energies.”

“Although Chu Feng is unable to slow his own consumption, he has managed to provoke Li Ming to make him consume his energy faster. That is indeed a very good method,” The Golden Crane True Immortal exclaimed.

“Although he managed to provoke Li Ming, the one that’s being beaten back right now is Chu Feng himself. What he did might not necessarily be advantageous,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“Indeed, it doesn’t seem like he has obtained any advantages other than increasing the speed at which Li Ming consumes the energies within him,” The Golden Crane True Immortal echoed upon seeing the battle.

The reason for that was because Li Ming’s attacks were extremely ferocious. Faced with this sort of situation, Chu Feng could only defend himself, and had no way of fighting back.

When faced with such a powerful offensive, even though Chu Feng was able to block everything, he was still unable to prevent himself from being beaten back by Li Ming.

Although the speed at which he was beaten back was very slow, and the scale was not large either, it remained that he was being beaten back.

With each step back Chu Feng took, Li Ming would move a step forward, and grow one step closer to the Profound Light Pillar behind Chu Feng.

Thus, at that moment, the equilibrium of the match had already started to tilt. Furthermore, it was not slanting toward Chu Feng, but rather, toward Li Ming.

“Old Demonic Substance, look over there, look at that brat Li Ming's mouth."

Suddenly, the Golden Crane True Immortal's eyes shifted. Great astonishment emerged in his eyes.

"This brat," Seeing what was happening the plain-clothed old monk's gaze also changed. Then, he revealed a faint smile.

Perhaps others were unable to tell, but the two of them were able to tell.

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming had a concealed smile on his face. It was a smile of confidence, a smile of one's plot succeeding.

This most likely meant that Young Master Li Ming was not truly enraged by Chu Feng. Rather, he was deliberately pretending to have been enraged by Chu Feng.

He was using the opportunity as a pretext to push Chu Feng back so that he could approach Chu Feng's Profound Light Pillar.

"Judging from this, even though Chu Feng knows how to use mental attacks, the person who has truly gained the advantage in this is Li Ming."

"Golden Crane, who said that Li Ming was soft and immature? The way I see it, not only is this Li Ming not soft and immature, he is instead extremely shrewd," The plain-clothed old monk said to the Golden Crane True Immortal.

"This match has finally become interesting," The Golden Crane True Immortal revealed a smile.

The reason for that was because a match like this was precisely what they wanted to see.

Perhaps others might not be able to tell, but the two of them were capable of seeing the truly marvelous aspect of the match.

The reason for that was because the most marvelous aspect regarding the match was not Chu Feng or Li Ming's sharp attacks or their techniques in both defense and offense, which greatly surpassed those of their fellow members of the younger generation.

Instead, it was the plotting that those two geniuses had toward one another; it was a battle of wits.

“Even if I only defend and not attack, you are still unable to do anything to me. Li Ming, your title of genius is only this much,” With a smile on his face, Chu Feng used a vile gaze to stare at Young Master Li Ming.

“It seems that Chu Feng still hasn’t realized that he has been plotted against.”

Seeing that Chu Feng continued to taunt Li Ming, and was so proud of himself as he did that, growing more and more pleased, the Golden Crane True Immortal sighed and revealed a disappointed expression.

He felt that Chu Feng was already at a disadvantage. If Chu Feng did not react in time, he would likely pay bitterly.

“Paa~~~”

Right at that moment, a sharp sound was heard.

It was Chu Feng’s palm. Chu Feng tightly grabbed Young Master Li Ming’s fist with his own palm.

“That is?” Witnessing that scene, the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain-clothed old monk both revealed a change in expression.

Even Young Master Li Ming, who was fiercely attacking Chu Feng, was slightly startled.

“Heeahh!!!”

The next moment, Chu Feng shouted loudly. Then, his arm and body turned around and threw Young Master Li Ming, who had been caught off guard, into the air.

Like a sandbag, Young Master Li Ming was thrown into the air. He then firmly crashing toward the surface.

If he were to land like that, he would most definitely be seriously injured. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had thrown him with an enormous amount of force.

“As if!”

However, Young Master Li Ming was no ordinary character himself. He had managed to see through Chu Feng’s intention. Even though he was being affected by the power of Chu Feng’s throw, he still managed to reverse his body in midair. He planned to land on his feet.

Like that, he would be able to transfer the power of his landing onto the surface, preventing injuries to himself.

“Heh...”

Right at that moment, the corners of Chu Feng’s mouth lifted. He suddenly let go of Young Master Li Ming’s fist.

After being let go of, Young Master Li Ming did not land on the ground. Instead, like an arrow, he was shot out by Chu Feng.

As for the direction that he was thrown toward, it was a corner of the formation they were in.

“Woosh~~~”

In the same moment he threw Li Ming out, Chu Feng started running immediately.

However, Chu Feng was not running toward Young Master Li Ming. Rather, there was only one goal in Chu Feng’s mind right now. He was going after Young Master Li Ming’s Profound Light Pillar.

In merely that one instant, the advantage that Li Ming had held earlier was destroyed by Chu Feng.

At that moment, the person who held absolute superiority was

Chu Feng!!!

“Chu Feng, he actually hid such a trick!!!”

At that moment, both the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain-clothed old monk revealed startled expressions. Then, pleasantly surprised expressions emerged in their aged eyes.

It was only at that moment that they realized that Chu Feng had done everything deliberately.

Chu Feng's provocation of Li Ming and then being beaten back by Li Ming, all of that merely served to pave the way for that one trick.

Chu Feng had wanted Li Ming to feel that he held the advantage over him so that he would relax his guard. Then, Chu Feng seized the opportunity to use his trick.

Chu Feng had used enormous strength to toss Li Ming away. Unless Li Ming were to descend onto the ground, it would be impossible for him to slow himself down. He could only allow himself to continue flying in the direction Chu Feng had thrown him, all the way till he smashed into the edge of the formation.

Thus, at that moment, Young Master Li Ming could only look on helplessly as his body continued to fly.

He could only look on helplessly as Chu Feng moved toward his Profound Light Pillar.

He was unable to do anything.

“The outcome had been determined.”

At that moment, the plain-clothed old monk finally revealed a gratified smile on his face.

The Golden Crane True Immortal also nodded his head.

A match between experts could be decided in an instant.

Li Ming had made a mistake in judgement and fell into Chu Feng's plot. That mistake had caused Li Ming's defeat.

“Bang~~~”

Finally, Li Ming crashed ruthlessly into the wall of the formation.

“It's done.”

At that moment, Chu Feng was less than ten meters away from Li Ming's Profound Light Pillar. A relaxed smile emerged on his face.

His palm was already open. He was planning to grab the Profound Light Pillar.

As long as he grabbed the Profound Light Pillar, he would win the match.

“Woosh~~~”

However, right when Chu Feng was only a meter away from the Profound Light Pillar, a figure appeared before the Profound Light Pillar like a phantom.

“You!!!”

Seeing that individual, Chu Feng revealed an astonished expression.

It was actually Young Master Li Ming. Young Master Li Ming, who had been thrown into the wall by Chu Feng, who was at a distance of at least a hundred meters from the Profound Light Pillar, had actually appeared before the Profound Light Pillar.

It all happened too quickly. Chu Feng was simply unable to pull back his palm in time. Thus, his palm landed firmly onto Li Ming's chest.

“This feeling?”

The moment Chu Feng's palm came into contact with Young Master Li Ming's chest, he was immediately startled. Then, his heartbeat started to rapidly accelerate.

The reason for that was because the sensation he felt the instant he came into contact with Li Ming's chest was not a sensation of a man's flat-chestedness.

Instead, it was the softness of a woman.

"You..."

Chu Feng raised his head and looked to Li Ming. He discovered that Li Ming was standing there stunned.

Subconsciously, Chu Feng felt that Li Ming's current reaction was caused by what he had just done.

Seemingly trying to verify his guess, Chu Feng grabbed lightly twice more with his hand.

The softness was still present. It meant that Chu Feng's previous sensation was not a misconception. This Li Ming was truly hiding something.

"Shameless bastard!"

Suddenly, a furious voice was heard. Following that, a 'paa' was heard, and a slap landed on Chu Feng's face.

It was Young Master Li Ming.

At that moment, Chu Feng was able to see that Young Master Li Ming's face had turned deep red. There was also fury in his eyes.

That gaze was one of someone itching to kill Chu Feng.

However, apart from the anger, there was also a special look that belonged to women. It was a shy expression.

This Young Master Li Ming was very charming to begin with. Upon revealing that expression, he simply looked like a cute little belle.

Seeing that expression, Chu Feng did not reveal any anger after being slapped by Young Master Li Ming. Instead, he rubbed his cheek that was slapped and smiled mischievously. "Lil' Sis Li Ming, you've hidden yourself quite well. If I didn't touch it by accident, I truly would've never considered you to be this well-hidden."

Chapter 2498 - Chu Feng's Victory

---

“I’ll kill you!”

Young Master Li Ming’s face turned a deep red. With overwhelming killing intent, she charged toward Chu Feng.

Her appearance was not only that of someone who wanted to kill Chu Feng. Instead, she simply wanted to dismember Chu Feng’s body into ten thousand pieces.

While dodging Li Ming’s attack, Chu Feng started to ridicule Li Ming with a smile on his face, “Hey hey hey, what are you doing? It was clearly stated that we were only sparring, since when did we start trying to kill each other?”

“Oh, I get it now. Isn’t it just because I accidentally touched you? You can’t blame me for that. After all, it’s your fault for dressing up as a man.”

“If I had known that you were a woman to begin with, I would’ve never touched you there. Thus, you cannot blame me for this. If you want to blame someone, you can only blame yourself.”

“Say, why would you, a little beauty, dress up as a man? Could it be...”

As Chu Feng spoke, his gaze grew a bit more provocative. He said, “Could it be that you have some sort of special interest? You couldn’t possibly also be fond of women, right?”

“I’ll tear your mouth apart!!!”

Young Master Li Ming started to gnash her teeth in anger. Her charming red lips seemed to be spraying out fire as she spoke.

She began to rush toward Chu Feng to attack him nonstop. Not only were all her attacks fatal in nature, her killing intent was also extremely dreadful.

She was not playing around. She was truly trying to kill Chu

Feng.

“Aiyayaya, this is bad. Not only was Li Ming’s identity as a woman seen through by Chu Feng, she was also taken advantage of by him.”

“With Li Ming’s temperament, she might really end up killing Chu Feng. Golden Crane, should we act to stop her?” The plain-clothed old monk asked.

“This match is still not over yet. Furthermore, Li Ming’s cultivation has been restricted by me. She is only able to use the power she has obtained from the Profound Light Pillar.”

“Even if she has truly decided to kill, she will not be able to kill the current Chu Feng. Even if an accident is to truly occur, I will definitely act immediately. Thus, you don’t have to worry about Chu Feng’s safety,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“This place is, after all, your territory. Thus, you’ll handle the things here. As for me, my job is to enjoy the show,” The plain-clothed old monk said with a beaming smile.

“There’s actually nothing worth seeing. The outcome of this match has been decided already. Earlier, Li Ming was pretending to be enraged by Chu Feng. However, it’s different now.”

“After Chu Feng touched her taboo, she was truly enraged by him. On top of that, Chu Feng has said those provocative words. Thus, Li Ming is already completely enraged by him.”

“Such a Li Ming is already no longer able to continue to contend against Chu Feng. Soon, Chu Feng will obtain victory,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Indeed. That child Chu Feng is truly crafty. He was actually willing to take advantage of even such a thing. He has completely utilized Li Ming’s fury after having taking advantage of her.”

“However, to be honest, I am truly growing more and more fond of this boy Chu Feng,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“I am the same,” The Golden Crane True Immortal revealed a faint smile on his face.

They did not look down on Chu Feng for his shamelessness. On the contrary, they both appreciated Chu Feng’s quick-wittedness, and his ability to change according to the situation.

“In that case, why not just take him as your disciple?”

“If you are to protect him, who in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would dare to bully him?” The plain-clothed old monk asked.

“It does seem that in all aspects, Chu Feng is superior to Li Ming. However, I am someone who will always finish what I have started. Since I have already decided that I want Li Ming to be my disciple, I will not go and take another person as my disciple.”

“Furthermore, no matter how talented one might be, they must still be nurtured. While Chu Feng’s display of performance is currently excellent, that does not mean that he will continue to be this outstanding. It might even be possible for Li Ming to surpass him.”

“In short, between the two of them, I am still more optimistic about Li Ming,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Is that so?” The plain-clothed old monk smiled faintly. However, contained within his eyes was a clear expression of disbelief.

He knew that it was actually due to another reason that the Golden Crane True Immortal did not wish to take Chu Feng as his disciple.

Meanwhile, Li Ming was running around the formation, chasing after Chu Feng and attacking him.

As for Chu Feng, he was merely running without fighting back.

At that moment, the location Chu Feng was running toward was already less than a meter away from Li Ming's Profound Light Pillar. He extended his hand and grabbed the Profound Light Pillar.

“Taa~~~”

After grabbing the Profound Light Pillar, Chu Feng suddenly stopped and turned around. With a smile on his face, he said to Young Master Li Ming, who was chasing after him, “Lil’ Sis Li Ming, in a match, one must accept one’s losses; I have won.”

“I’ll kill you!!!”

Seeing that Chu Feng was holding the Profound Light Pillar in his hand, Young Master Li Ming realized that she had been made a fool of by Chu Feng again. Thus, at that moment, she was even more furious than before. She was truly determined to kill Chu Feng.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at the moment when Li Ming rushed toward Chu Feng to kill him, right when she was about to reach Chu Feng, an enormous power suddenly appeared out of nowhere, restricting her movements.

The current Li Ming was no longer able to move in the slightest.

“Buzz~~~”

The next moment, a figure appeared out of thin air. That person appeared in the center of the formation. He was none other than the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Li Ming, you must be able to accept your loss. Chu Feng has won this match,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Damn it! Let me go, I’ll kill him!” Evidently, Young Master Li Ming had yet to break free from her anger. She was still shouting angrily.

“Li Ming, this place is my territory. I will not allow you to behave atrociously here.”

“You have lost this match. As such, I will not help you.”

“However, I will give you an opportunity. Even though you’ve lost today, if you are willing to become my disciple, I will definitely help you,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said to Li Ming.

“If you are to release me now, return my cultivation and allow me to kill this Chu Feng, I will consider becoming your disciple,” Young Master Li Ming said to the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“I’m afraid that won’t do. You should consider what I said first,” The Golden Crane True Immortal smiled lightly. Then, he gently raised his arm, and a strand of light flew out of his palm. That light enveloped Young Master Li Ming.

“Buzz~~~”

The next moment, that Young Master Li Ming disappeared into thin air. She had left that place.

Likely, she had been sent out of Mount Cloud Crane by the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Junior Chu Feng pays his respects to senior.”

As for Chu Feng, he bowed respectfully to the Golden Crane True Immortal.

After all, this was the first time he had seen the Golden Crane True Immortal’s actual appearance.

After seeing him, Chu Feng became even more certain that Golden Crane True Immortal was an otherworldly expert.

Even though Chu Feng was unable to see through the cultivation of the Golden Crane True Immortal, the ruler-like aura that he emitted made it clear that he was no ordinary martial cultivator.

“Follow me,” As the Golden Crane True Immortal spoke, he turned around and waved his sleeve.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Chu Feng felt that the scenery surrounding him started to change rapidly.

He was unable to clearly see anything. The only thing he was able to see was the Golden Crane True Immortal's back.

The Golden Crane True Immortal was ahead, leading the way for Chu Feng.

Finally, the scenery surrounding Chu Feng started to clear up.

“That is?”

As Chu Feng saw the things before him, his eyes shrunk, and his expression changed.

Chapter 2499 - God Bestowment Bamboo Slips

---

At that moment, Chu Feng felt as if he had already left Mount Cloud Crane. His surroundings consisted of a field of dried up plains.

Those plains extend as far as the eye could see. There were no grass or trees. The earth was not only completely withered and filled with cracks, but one could even see a magma-like radiance shining from within the cracks.

That place simply did not resemble a place where humans could survive. Chu Feng felt that he had entered the Magma World.

However, what attracted Chu Feng's attention the most was a mountain in the distance.

The mountain was very special. Even though it clearly seemed to be formed through natural means, it possessed a supernatural shape.

It was a giant hand. The hand extended out from the surface and reached straight toward the blue sky.

That hand was open. It seemed to be propping something up. Merely, there was clearly nothing visible on the hand.

Indeed. At such a distance, ordinary people would indeed not be able to see anything. However, Chu Feng was able to.

The reason Chu Feng was so astonished was because of the thing that he saw.

It was a bamboo slip. That bamboo slip greatly resembled the bamboo slip in Chu Feng's dantian.

"Chu Feng, could it be that... there's more than one such bamboo slip?"

Eggy shared Chu Feng's vision and hearing. Thus, she was able to see what Chu Feng saw. She too saw the bamboo slip.

"It's too far. I'm unable to sense its aura. However, it truly resembles the bamboo slip," Chu Feng exclaimed in admiration.

At that moment, the most precious treasure Chu Feng had on him, apart from the uncontrollable Evil God Sword, would be the bamboo slip in his dantian that emitted the Ancient Era's aura.

Not only did that Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip gift Chu Feng with martial comprehension far surpassing that of ordinary individuals, it had also greatly increased Chu Feng's battle power.

In fact, when Chu Feng nearly died while receiving the backlash from the Evil God Sword, he faintly remembered that a surge of power from his dantian had saved him.

Chu Feng had actually felt that it was caused by the Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip the entire time.

Thus, Chu Feng had felt the entire time that the Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip must be a treasure from the Ancient Era.

Yet now, another such Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip actually appeared before him. Chu Feng was certain that if that Ancient Era's Bamboo Slip was the same as the one in his dantian, it would most definitely be a priceless treasure, a treasure that could bring about a rain of blood, a treasure that would cause countless martial cultivators to kill one another.

"Chu Feng, I believe that you can see it too. That is what I want you to retrieve," The Golden Crane True Immortal said to Chu Feng.

"One can easily obtain that item. Senior, why must you have me retrieve it for you?" Chu Feng asked.

The Golden Crane True Immortal did not answer. Instead, he extended his palm and pushed forward.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, his palm was stopped. At the same time, ripples began to emerge from the location of his palm.

“A spirit formation?” Chu Feng was greatly surprised.

Even though that spirit formation was right before him, before the Golden Crane True Immortal triggered it, Chu Feng did not notice it at all.

“Only the people of the younger generation are able to enter this place. Thus, I need your help.”

“However Chu Feng, I have a feeling that God Bestowment Bamboo Slip is not that easily obtained,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“God Bestowment Bamboo Slip?” Chu Feng was surprised. This was the first time he had heard of that name.

However, from what the Golden Crane True Immortal said, Chu Feng was able to tell that the Golden Crane True Immortal must know about the origin of that Ancient Era’s Bamboo Slip.

Thus, Chu Feng hurriedly asked, “Senior, could that God Bestowment Bamboo Slip possess some sort of extraordinary origin?”

“The God Bestowment Bamboo Slip is a legend. There are many different versions to the legend of its origin.”

“The version that is most widely accepted is that it came to be in the Ancient Era.”

“Reportedly, it was at the beginning of the Ancient Era. Back then, there was a special bamboo forest. That bamboo forest did not reside on any world. In a towering manner, it continued to exist in the vast Outer World.”

“It was shining with radiance, and appeared to be the smallest star in the vast Outer World. However, it contained an enormously powerful amount of Natural Energy. The Natural Energy it contained was so enormous that not a single world was capable of matching it.”

“Most importantly, that bamboo forest actually contained profoundness of martial cultivation.”

“If one was fortunate enough to encounter that bamboo forest, one’s cultivation would definitely increase enormously. They would become a peak expert capable of traveling about unhindered through the various Starfields and even the entire vast starry sky.”

“However, that bamboo forest was always moving. The possibility of encountering it was practically next to impossible”.

“However, there were always fortunate individuals capable of encountering that bamboo forest.”

“Later on, a pair of brothers managed to encounter the bamboo forest together.”

“The two of them were extremely talented. The two of them were already extremely famous throughout the entire Outer World before even encountering the bamboo forest. They were ferocious individuals that even the various Starfield Masters from many different Starfields held in restraining fear.”

“After the brothers encountered the bamboo forest, they did not leave the bamboo forest after attaining some strength like the rest of the people. Instead, they began to wholly concentrate on training, and actually stayed in the bamboo forest for tens of thousands of years.”

“Reportedly, when the two of them were training in the bamboo forest, there would occasionally be lucky individuals that encountered the bamboo forest.”

“However, those people were all killed by the two brothers. The two of them were planning to seize the bamboo forest for themselves.”

“The brothers were extremely talented to begin with. Thus, with how profound the bamboo forest was, after training in the bamboo forest for tens of thousands of years, their cultivations reached an unimaginable level. They became existences at the apex of the entire Outer World.”

“Reportedly, the brothers both possessed the strength to rule over the entire Outer World.”

“However, there could only be a single overlord in the world. For the sake of ruling over the entire Outer World, the brothers became unparalleled existences akin to gods.”

“However, both brothers possessed ulterior motives. For the sake of becoming the overlord, they fell out with one another, and started to battle one another with the intent to kill each other.”

“The location where the two brothers started battling was precisely that bamboo forest.”

“That battle was extremely overwhelming. Their oppressive might filled the entire sky, and the heavens itself trembled.”

“Reportedly, the entire Outer World was affected by their battle, and countless worlds were destroyed.”

“With how devastating that battle was, the final result was also equally astonishing.”

“Not only did the two brothers completely destroy the bamboo forest, but they also fatally injured one another.”

“It was only in the moment before their deaths that the two brothers came to this realization. However, they were unable to continue living.”

“In the end, the two brothers gathered up some of the shattered yet still usable bamboo pieces from the devastated bamboo forest. They formed them into bamboo slips, and infused all that they had learned in their lives into the bamboo slips.”

“There are a total of three hundred and sixty seven such bamboo slips, forming a book of bamboo slips. They were the riches the two brothers left for future generations.”

“However, when the two of them finished making the book of bamboo slips, when they were about to die, the book of bamboo slips, for some unknown reason, was scattered.”

“From that point on, the scattered bamboo slips were dispersed all over the entire vast Outer World. Reportedly, every single bamboo slip contains extraordinary power.”

“Rumor has it that if one is able to gather all of the bamboo slips, one will obtain the strongest power in this world, and become the ruler of the Outer World, become a god and rule the entire world.”

“Because of that, the bamboo slips are known as the God Bestowment Bamboo Slips,” The Golden Crane True Immortal explained to Chu Feng with a serious expression on his face.

“Haha, never would I have expected that bamboo slip to have such a grand origin. They are simply the most precious treasures in the entire Outer World.”

“Chu Feng... you actually possess one such bamboo slip with your cultivation. Haha, you are simply too fortunate,” After learning the origin of the bamboo slips, Her Lady Queen was endlessly excited.

“Haha, truly. I have accidentally picked up an enormous fortune,” Chu Feng was also endlessly excited at that moment.

Although that was only a legend and could very well be fake, if it was real, the bamboo slip in Chu Feng’s dantian would simply be too valuable.

After all, one could tell how amazing the bamboo slips were just by the serious expression that the Golden Crane True Immortal had on his face.

At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal exclaimed,

“Originally, I had thought that the God Bestowment Bamboo Slips were only legends. However, that bamboo slip on the mountain peak is exactly the same as the other God Bestowment Bamboo Slips.”

“It would appear that the legend is very possibly real.”

Unconcealable excitement and endless anticipation filled his eyes as he looked to the bamboo slip.

Chapter 2500 - Mountain Of Blades, Sea Of Flames

---

“If the legend is true, then the Exalted from this place is no ordinary individual either,” Chu Feng gasped with admiration.

He felt that the bamboo slip would not appear on Mount Cloud Crane for no reason. He felt that it must be related to that Exalted.

After all, that Exalted was a legend of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm to begin with. No one knew exactly what sort of ability he possessed, and no one could be certain as to exactly what sort of cultivation he possessed.

When he arrived at that place, he became the true ruler of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, an existence that no one dared to provoke.

“It is most likely related to him. Merely, this place has only been discovered in recent days. Before this, I have never felt such a place existing in the Mount Cloud Crane,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“In other words, it appeared by itself?” Chu Feng understood the Golden Crane True Immortal’s intention. This was actually a hidden forbidden area. It was so hidden that even someone with the Golden Crane True Immortal’s strength was unable to detect it.

Thus, for this place to appear now, it was most definitely unrelated to the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“That is indeed the case. But, precisely because this is the case, Chu Feng, you should also be able to imagine that it would not appear here without reason. There is most definitely something strange about this.”

“Furthermore, even if it will only allow people of the younger generation to enter it, it is absolutely not as simple as it appears to be. If you manage to enter it, you will most likely encounter danger. It might even be possible for you to end up losing your life inside.”

“Thus, I will ask you again. Are you willing to enter it to help me retrieve the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Senior Golden Crane, if I do not enter to retrieve the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip, would you help me treat my brother?” Chu Feng asked the Golden Crane True Immortal.

The Golden Crane True Immortal did not answer Chu Feng’s question. He only smiled profoundly.

Seeing this reaction from the Golden Crane True Immortal, Chu Feng also smiled, “Senior, even if you are willing to help me treat my brother now, I must still help you accomplish this matter.”

“Why’s that?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked in a surprised manner.

“Because this is our agreement. I, Chu Feng, am someone who will keep my promises,” After he finished saying those words, Chu Feng smiled casually. Then, his footsteps started moving forward.

“Buzz~~~”

Soon, Chu Feng’s foot stepped into that formless formation. A splash-like ripple emerged from the formation.

However, the formation did not stop Chu Feng. Just like that, Chu Feng walked into it.

“Sure enough, only people of the younger generation are able to pass through,” Seeing Chu Feng entering the formation, the Golden Crane True Immortal heaved a sigh of relief.

For a legendary treasure like that, if it were to be said that he was not tempted by it, then it would most definitely be a lie.

Even though he knew very well that Chu Feng would most likely face dangers by entering the formation, he still wanted Chu Feng to attempt it.

After all, Chu Feng's life and death was unrelated to him. However, if Chu Feng were to succeed, he would have picked up a legendary treasure.

Perhaps this might be the greatest fortune he would ever encounter in his life. As such, he would naturally not be willing to miss such an opportunity.

“Boom~~~”

However, right after Chu Feng stepped into the formation, before he could even take more than a few steps, the area Chu Feng was in started to tremble violently.

Rumbles began to sound from underneath the ground nonstop.

At the same time, the vast earth before Chu Feng started to crumble. As large amounts of earth crumbled, the area before Chu Feng turned into a bottomless abyss. Only the mountain peak that was supporting the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip remained.

Soon, a boundless aura began to emerge in waves from the deep abyss. It was as if something was trying to emerge from within the abyss.

However, such a situation only existed in the region where Chu Feng was.

In the area where the Golden Crane True Immortal was standing, everything was normal and without the slightest change.

In other words, that invisible spirit formation was a wall. That wall had separated the region into two.

The location where Chu Feng was at was already in utter devastation, with landslides and cracked earth. However, there was not the slightest bit of rupture where the Golden Crane True Immortal was.

“That is?”

The Golden Crane True Immortal had a serious expression on his face. His gaze was focused on the transformation of the region Chu Feng was in the entire time.

However, when a transformation truly occurred to that region, even the Golden Crane True Immortal started to frown.

A mountain and a sea had appeared before Chu Feng.

However, they were neither an ordinary mountain nor an ordinary sea.

That mountain was not very tall. However, it was covered with sharp blades. The blades were flashing with cold light. Some blades were only an inch long, whereas others were hundreds of meters long.

It was a mountain of blades!!!

As for that sea, it was surging with vast waves. However, those waves were raging with flames. Fire dragons could be seen galloping within the sea.

It was a sea of flames!!!

“A mountain of blades and a sea of flames?!” At that moment, Chu Feng’s gaze changed, his heart moved, and a slightly surprised expression emerged on his face.

[1. To ascend a mountain of blades and cross a sea of flames is a chinese term for undergoing extreme danger.]

He had thought of many different kinds of traps that might be waiting for him. However, he had never expected a literal mountain of blades and a sea of flames, such an old fashioned trial, to be waiting for him.

After all, this place had been established by an Exalted. As such, Chu Feng was disappointed for the trials to only be a mountain of blades and a sea of flames.

“That mountain of blades and sea of flames are simply too ordinary. They are unable to harm you at all,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng slightly smiled. Then, without any worry, he walked forward.

With Chu Feng’s current level of cultivation, things like these were simply unable to harm him in the slightest.

“Bang~~~”

However, right after Chu Feng took a step forward, before he even entered the mountain of blades, he felt a pain in his head. Then, he was shot back explosively and forcibly driven out of the formation.

“How could this be?”

At that moment, Chu Feng sat on the ground with a perplexed expression.

“It’s a spirit formation. There’s a spirit formation before the mountain of blades and sea of flames. It seems that you will not be able to enter it using ordinary methods,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“What should I do then? I am unable to even see that spirit formation, it is clearly a very brilliant spirit formation. With my world spirit techniques, I am simply unable to undo the spirit formation at all,” Chu Feng said.

“The earth won’t do, perhaps the sky will. Chu Feng, try seeing if you can fly past that mountain of blades and sea of flames,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Woosh~~~”

After hearing what the Golden Crane True Immortal said, Chu Feng did not bother with any superfluous words, and directly soared into the sky. He once again passed through that spirit formation that acted like a separating line and arrived above the mountain of blades.

Chu Feng was overjoyed. The reason for that was because after he arrived in the sky, he did not encounter the same formation that had repelled him earlier.

This meant that there wasn’t a formation in the sky, and he could pass through that region from the sky.

“Chu Feng, be careful. Perhaps there are still traps in the sky,” The Golden Crane True Immortal warned.

“Understood,” Chu Feng was not a careless individual. Even without the reminder from the Golden Crane True Immortal, he was already on guard against anything unexpected that might appear ahead.

However, to Chu Feng’s surprise, he managed to fly past the entire mountain of blades and sea of flames without encountering any obstructions.

“There’s actually no trap? In that case, this place is truly filled with mistakes for one to breach,” Her Lady Queen spoke in a doubtful manner.

She didn’t feel that there were no more traps here. Rather, she was reminding Chu Feng that this place might not be as simple as it appeared to be.

“The truth will soon be known.”

Chu Feng did not cower. The reason for that was because he had already arrived at the peak of the mountain. He descended from the sky, and the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip was right before him.

“Sure enough, this is it. However, it’s giving off a slightly different sensation. I truly wonder what sort of power this God Bestowment Bamboo Slip contains.”

Upon arriving at such a close distance from it, Chu Feng was able to ascertain that the aura of that God Bestowment Bamboo Slip, that aura from the Ancient Era, was exactly the same as the aura given off by the bamboo slip in his dantian.

Thus, Chu Feng was certain that they were from the same place.

However, in terms of overall sensation, they were a bit different. It was as if the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip was reminding Chu Feng that it was different from the one in Chu Feng’s dantian.

“It would appear that regardless of whether or not the legend is real, this bamboo slip is most definitely a priceless treasure. Oh how great it would be if you could seize it for yourself,” Her Lady Queen said with a beaming smile.

At that moment, a peculiar gaze was being emitted from her beautiful eyes.

It could be seen that she truly wanted Chu Feng to obtain this bamboo slip.

“I also wish for that. However, I cannot do it, and it is also impossible for me to do it,” Chu Feng laughed wryly. Then, he extended his hand and grabbed the bamboo slip.

He had actually managed to successfully retrieve the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip.

“Success,” Her Lady Queen was overjoyed.

As for Chu Feng, the boulder weighing down upon his heart had also been lifted.

He had originally thought that some sort of mishap would occur at that final moment. He thought that maybe an invisible spirit formation would block him from obtaining the bamboo slip. However, it would appear that there was no such thing.

“Indeed, it’s a success,” Chu Feng revealed a relaxed smile. Then, he retrieved his arm and planned to leave.

“This sensation?” Suddenly, Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was astonished to discover that he was actually unable to retrieve his arm, his hand that had grabbed the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip.

Chapter 2501 - Changed Beyond Recognition

---

“Chu Feng, what’s wrong? Did it glue you to it?” Her Lady Queen asked worriedly.

“No,” Chu Feng released the bamboo slip and retrieved his arm.

“Then what happened?” Her Lady Queen was very surprised. The reason for that was because Chu Feng had managed to successfully retrieve his arm. Yet, the bamboo slip was still there; it was not retrieved by Chu Feng.

“I am unable to move that bamboo slip,” Chu Feng said.

“How could that be? Where did the problem arise?” Her Lady Queen was puzzled.

At that moment, Chu Feng turned around and looked at the mountain of blades and sea of flames.

“Could it be that one must pass through the mountain of blades and sea of flames in order to retrieve the bamboo slip?” Her Lady Queen asked.

“That’s most likely the case,” Chu Feng said.

Chu Feng felt that the mountain of blades and the sea of flames were definitely not decorations. He also felt that it was definitely not a loophole that he was able to fly over here.

He felt that it was as Her Lady Queen had said, if he wanted to retrieve the bamboo slip, he would most likely have to pass through the mountain of blades and the sea of flames.

“But, you are simply unable to enter that region. How are you supposed to pass through it?” Her Lady Queen said.

“There must be a way,” Chu Feng flew back and returned to the Golden Crane True Immortal’s side.

“It would appear that one must pass through that mountain of blades and sea of flames,” The Golden Crane True Immortal sighed.

Evidently, that grand expert had also discovered what Her Lady Queen and Chu Feng discovered.

“Senior, I have a method that might be feasible. However, I will need your help,” Chu Feng said.

“What is your method? Go ahead and tell me,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“We are unable to breach that formation.”

“However, that mountain of blades and sea of flames is very ordinary. Even though we are unable to breach that formation surrounding it, with the strength I currently possess, if I am to enter that mountain of blades and sea of flames, I will not be injured in the slightest.”

“Thus, I dare ask, why would a mountain of blades and a sea of flames like that require such a powerful spirit formation to seal it off?” Chu Feng asked.

“Chu Feng, could you mean to say that spirit formation simply cannot be passed through using brute force, but rather one must use a special method to pass through it?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“If that mountain of blades and sea of flames is a trial, then there is most likely only one way to pass through it. That is, I must turn it into an extremely difficult obstacle.”

“Since I am unable to change it, that means that I must change myself,” Chu Feng said.

“Could it be that, you want...” The Golden Crane True Immortal’s gaze changed.

“Senior, it is as you think. However, something like that is impossible for me to accomplish. As such, I need your help.”

“I need you to help me seal off my cultivation. You must seal off all of my cultivation, returning me to an ordinary individual.”

“Only with that would that mountain of blades and sea of flames become an unsurpassable obstacle to me.”

“That is also the only way for me to step into that mountain of blades and sea of flames,” Chu Feng said.

“But, if I am to seal your cultivation, your physical body’s composition will also be sealed. At that time... you will really end up suffering the pain from the sharp blades piercing through your body and the pain from the burning of the raging flames. All that you can do would be to brace yourself with willpower.”

“Most importantly, if something is to happen to you, no one will be able to save you. You will die in there. This is extremely dangerous, and you will lose your life very easily. Are you really planning to do this?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

“Senior, let’s give it a try. If this is the only option available for me, we have no choice but to take it,” Chu Feng said.

“Have you really considered this properly?” The Golden Crane True Immortal asked again.

The reason why he asked Chu Feng this was because he knew that if things were truly as Chu Feng said, then it was simply too dangerous.

After all, that was a mountain of blades and a sea of flames. If one were to enter a mountain of blades and a sea of flames with the body composition of an ordinary individual, it would simply be an impossible task.

Most would be sliced or pierced to death upon entering the mountain of blades, without even having a chance to enter the sea of flames.

Even though the current Chu Feng was a Martial Ancestor, if the Golden Crane True Immortal were to seal his cultivation, his body’s composition will be not much different from ordinary individuals.

The only difference between them would be that he would possess willpower that surpassed ordinary individuals.

However, once one's body's resistance was greatly weakened, passing through a mountain of blades and a sea of flames using only willpower was simply too difficult.

"I've finished considering it. Allow me to give it a try," Chu Feng said.

"Very well. Since you've decided, I will help you."

The Golden Crane True Immortal nodded. Then, he began to set up a spirit formation. With enormous spirit power, he completely sealed off Chu Feng's cultivation.

At that moment, not only did Chu Feng lose his martial cultivation, but he was also no longer capable of using his spirit power.

In fact, even his secret skills were sealed. He no longer possessed an undying and indestructible body. His flesh had also lost the firmness of a Martial Ancestor.

If Chu Feng's body could be said to be invulnerable before, if his skin were tougher than even special weapons, then the current Chu Feng was incomparably weak. Even the most ordinary blades would be able to cut through his skin and pierce through his body.

"Chu Feng, return if you cannot bear it. Do not force yourself."

"Regardless of success or failure, I will heal your friend's injury," The Golden Crane True Immortal said to Chu Feng.

"Thank you senior. However, please rest assured. I, Chu Feng... will definitely succeed."

The corners of Chu Feng's lips were raised. His eyes were brimming with absolute confidence.

Then, under the watch the Golden Crane True Immortal, Chu

Feng resolutely walked into the spirit formation separating the two areas and toward the mountain of blades.

He... succeeded. He had successfully entered the area with the mountain of blades.

Chu Feng had guessed correctly. If one wanted to enter the mountain of blades, one must endure the sufferings brought forth by the mountain of blades.

As for this painful suffering, it was definitely not fake. Regardless of how careful Chu Feng tried to be, he was still unable to avoid some blades.

Soon, bloody cuts emerged all over Chu Feng's body.

His feet were also pierced through by the many blades.

That sort of pain was something intolerable for ordinary individuals. They would definitely not be able to continue onward.

It was already no longer a question of perseverance. Rather, after one's body has been injured to a certain state, they would lose the ability to continue moving.

However, Chu Feng was able to rely on his firm willpower to control his body. As long as his body remained intact, he would be able to force himself to move.

This willpower of his was something that he had gradually cultivated through the countless tribulations, the countless sufferings, he had endured through the many years.

However, without his cultivation and spirit power, the pain brought forth by the blades was felt completely by him. They had engulfed him through their most ruthless and most overwhelming method.

Chu Feng was truly experiencing the pain of every blade that pierced and cut into his flesh.

Soon, from head to toe, he was covered in blood.

Due to the fact that Chu Feng was unable to stop his bleeding, his blood was flowing from him non-stop, turning him into a person of blood.

In fact, it could even be said that he simply did not resemble a human at all at that moment.

“Chu Feng, are you able to continue? If you really cannot continue, then just turn around. After all, that old man Golden Crane agreed to help you treat Wang Qiang,” Her Lady Queen was observing Chu Feng the entire time. She felt very pained seeing Chu Feng’s sufferings, and was tightly clenching her fists for Chu Feng.

“It’s fine. I can still endure this. To me, this can also be considered a trial for me to temper myself. As such, I do not wish to miss this opportunity to temper myself,” Chu Feng said with a faint smile.

“How could this be considered tempering oneself? This is simply torturing oneself. Why must you do this?” Her Lady Queen was unable to understand Chu Feng.

“I was entrusted with a great task by another. As such, I must put forth my greatest effort. Rest assured Milady Queen, I will be able to endure this,” Chu Feng said with a faint smile.

However, one could no longer see his smile anymore. The reason for that was because his face had been so wounded by the blades that it was already beyond recognition. His appearance was extremely frightening.

Even though Chu Feng said that he was fine, his body had started to shiver. The wounds from the blades had covered his entire body, slicing off his flesh to the point where they had started to reach his bones.

The current Chu Feng resembled a skeleton dragging a badly damaged body with it as it proceeded onward through the mountain of blades in a swaying manner.

“Why must you be this stubborn?”

“Fine, this Queen will not concern herself with you anymore.”

Seeing that urging Chu Feng against this was useless, Her Lady Queen sat down on the ground angrily. Although she declared that she would not concern herself with Chu Feng anymore, sparkling and translucent teardrops were flickering in her beautiful eyes.

Chapter 2502 - Strange Smile

---

In the end, Chu Feng managed to successfully cross the mountain of blades. However, the current him no longer resembled a person.

Instead, he resembled a walking corpse.

“Chu Feng, if you cannot continue, turn around. It’s still not too late now.”

“However, if you are to step into that sea of flames, you will truly be placing yourself in great danger.”

Seeing that Chu Feng was still persisting onward even though he was so badly mutilated that he resembled a walking corpse, the Golden Crane True Immortal also started to urge him to turn around.

However, it was unknown as to whether or not it might be because Chu Feng could not hear him, or whether Chu Feng deliberately didn’t answer him, but Chu Feng dragged his badly mutilated body into that sea of flames.

When compared to the sea of flames, Chu Feng’s body was simply pitifully small.

Upon entering the sea of flames, he was immediately engulfed by the flames. He disappeared as if he had truly fallen into a vast sea.

Merely, that was no ordinary sea. Rather, it was a sea raging with heat and fiery flames.

Most importantly, after entering the sea of flames, even the Golden Crane True Immortal, with all his strength, was unable to see Chu Feng anymore.

“This sea of flames is not that simple. It simply does not resemble how ordinary it appeared to be. Will Chu Feng be able to endure this trial?” A voice sounded from behind. It was the plain-clothed old monk.

The plain-clothed old monk was actually there the entire time. Merely, he had not shown himself. Thus, Chu Feng had no idea at all that this old senior was also beside him, observing all that had happened the entire time.

“Let’s hope that he’ll be fine. Else... if a genius like him is to die because of me, I will also feel very apologetic,” The Golden Crane True Immortal sighed emotionally

The plain-clothed old monk did not say anything. He who remained calm toward everything actually had a worried expression in his eyes.

He naturally did not wish for something to happen to Chu Feng.

Time passed. However, to these two grand characters, time was simply passing too slowly. Enduring the passage of time was simply a painful torment.

They had already grown restless. Very few things were capable of causing the two of them to act in such a manner. However, this was, after all, a matter that concerned Chu Feng’s life and death. As such, how could they not worry?

“Rumble~~~”

Suddenly, strange noises began to sound from the mountain of blades and the sea of flames.

Soon, the mountain of blades started to sink, and the sea of flames started to disappear. Following that, the ground that had collapsed earlier began to recover.

The mountain of blades had disappeared and the sea of flames also dissipated. However, a figure was still present. It was Chu Feng.

Upon seeing Chu Feng, the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain-clothed old monk were both overjoyed and feeling deeply distressed.

They were overjoyed because Chu Feng was standing at the other end of the sea of flames. This meant that he had successfully traversed through that sea of flames.

The reason why the sea of flames and the mountain of blades disappeared was because he had succeeded.

As for why they were feeling distressed, it was naturally because the current Chu Feng had changed beyond recognition.

Not only was all his flesh gone, but even his skeleton was pitch-black in color and emitting steam.

Fortunately, he was, after all, a Martial Ancestor-level expert. Thus, even though his cultivation had been sealed, his foundation as a Martial Ancestor still remained.

Else, to walk through the sea of flames without any protection at all would most likely have already incinerated him to ashes. How would he possibly be able to walk out of it alive?

However, even though Chu Feng had managed to walk out of the sea of flames, one could imagine how enormous the suffering he had endured was from his tottering appearance, where he found difficulty in even standing.

Due to his cultivation being sealed, Chu Feng had already lost the ability to fly in the sky. Thus, he had no way to directly ascend to the summit of the mountain, and thus had to climb the mountain one step at a time.

Fortunately, he had already passed the most difficult mountain of blades and sea of flames. Thus, even though Chu Feng was filled with injuries, with how powerful his willpower was, he was still able to continue on.

After a very long time, Chu Feng finally managed to climb to the summit of the mountain.

“Heh...”

Chu Feng let out a bitter laugh. Even though he no longer possessed a throat, tongue, heart, liver, spleen or lungs, he was still able to speak.

It was a sound let out using enormous spirit power.

After all, Chu Feng was a martial cultivator who had managed to train to the Martial Ancestor realm one step at a time.

Even though his cultivation and power had been sealed, there were certain things that could not be sealed. For example, there was his difficult-to-destroy bones and soul.

At the same time, there was also his mental strength, as well as his extraordinary willpower.

“I hope that I can succeed this time around. Else... I really don’t know what else I can do.”

Chu Feng was a bit worried. If he was unable to move the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip even after passing through the mountain of blades and the sea of flames, there would likely be no way for him to obtain the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip.

However, regardless, he must give it a try. Whether he would succeed or fail would all be determined at that moment.

Chu Feng extended his hand in a trembling manner and moved it toward the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip.

At the moment Chu Feng extended his hand, the Golden Crane True Immortal and the plain-clothed old monk also grew extremely nervous.

The two of them were also afraid that Chu Feng would fail. If that were to happen, they would really have no way to retrieve the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip.

“Woosh~~~”

“Success.”

At that moment, Chu Feng easily held the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip in his hand.

“Look, Chu Feng accomplished it! He succeeded! The God Bestowment Bamboo Slip is ours!”

At that moment, even someone like the Golden Crane True Immortal was unable to keep from shouting.

After all, that was the legendary treasure, the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip.

“Woosh~~~”

Upon obtaining the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip, Chu Feng was wild with joy. He did not walk down from the mountain. Instead, he started to jump from atop the summit. He had jumped down from the mountain.

Having lost his cultivation, Chu Feng naturally started to fall straight toward the ground. In the end, he smashed firmly into the surface.

However, Chu Feng immediately climbed back up. His frail flesh was already all burned away. All that remained of him were his incomparably hard bones.

Thus, an impact like falling down from a mountain was simply unable to affect him in the slightest.

At the very most, it would only bring him the pain of falling to the ground from a very high altitude. However, when Chu Feng had managed to endure the pain of having his flesh cut off at the mountain of blades and having his entire body burned in the sea of flames, how could he possibly care about a slight pain from falling?

“This boy’s willpower has truly surpassed my imagination,” Seeing that Chu Feng immediately climbed back up after falling to the ground and began to drag his body that was on the verge of collapse to happily walk toward the location where he stood, the Golden Crane True Immortal was unable to contain himself from exclaiming in admiration.

“Indeed. Without his cultivation, even though his bones cannot be destroyed and his soul cannot be extinguished, the pain should still be unbearable.”

“Fortunately, it is him. If it were anyone else, they would most likely have had a nervous breakdown and died already,” The plain-clothed old monk also exclaimed in admiration.

As martial cultivators, an ordinary wound would be like a tickle to them. Unless they were struck with special attacks, they would not feel any pain. The reason for that was because of their enormous cultivations.

With cultivation, all aspects regarding their bodies would be increased, their resistance to pain included.

However, Chu Feng’s cultivation had been sealed. As such, he had lost all the power that he had obtained through his many years of cultivation.

He would thus be suffering the same sort of pain as ordinary people. As for that, it was not something that just anyone could accomplish.

The reason why the plain-clothed old monk and the Golden Crane True Immortal exclaimed in admiration like this was because they felt that if they were in Chu Feng’s shoes, they would not be able to accomplish what he had.

Finally, Chu Feng passed through the spirit formation. With the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip in hand, he stood before the Golden Crane True Immortal.

The Golden Crane True Immortal immediately walked toward Chu Feng. He had an excited yet ashamed expression on his face.

Although Chu Feng had succeeded, the current Chu Feng was truly extremely injured.

As a world spiritist himself, the Golden Crane True Immortal could tell that Chu Feng would be able to instantly restore his physical body the moment he regained his cultivation. These would only amount to superficial wounds.

However, due to the fact that he had been tormented by that sort of pain for an extended period of time, Chu Feng's psyche had undergone an enormous attack. This sort of mental wound would be very hard to recover from.

To put it simply, although Chu Feng had succeeded, he had paid an enormous price.

"Senior, I've succeeded," As Chu Feng spoke, he opened his palm and revealed the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip to the Golden Crane True Immortal.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk."

However, right at that moment, a strange laughter sounded beside Chu Feng's ear.

Hearing that voice, Chu Feng's heart tightened immediately. The reason for that was because that voice was not the Golden Crane True Immortal's voice.

Most importantly, when that voice was heard, Chu Feng felt an indescribable oppressive sensation.

Chapter 2503 - It's You?!

---

The Golden Crane True Immortal's gaze instantly grew alert.

“Who is it?!” he shouted angrily.

Evidently, the Golden Crane True Immortal had also heard the strange laughter, and realized that someone else was present.

“This aura?!!!”

At the same moment the Golden Crane True Immortal shouted angrily, Chu Feng's expression changed.

He had sensed the Golden Crane True Immortal's oppressive might. That oppressive might was extremely powerful and simply indescribable.

Chu Feng had no idea as to exactly what sort of cultivation the Golden Crane True Immortal might possess. However, he felt that the Golden Crane True Immortal's strength was most likely not merely that of a True Immortal.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had encountered True Immortal-level experts before. The oppressive might emitted by the Golden Crane True Immortal right now was countless times more powerful than that of True Immortal-level experts.

The Golden Crane True Immortal had unleashed his oppressive might so that he could manifest his strength to cow his opponent.

However, due to the fact that he realized that whoever this person might be, they most definitely came with ill intent, he rushed toward Chu Feng to protect him and the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip in his hand the moment he unleashed his oppressive might.

“Boom~~~”

However, right after the Golden Crane True Immortal managed to approach Chu Feng, an invisible yet enormous power suddenly knocked the Golden Crane True Immortal away.

“Senior!!!”

At that moment, Chu Feng was stunned.

The reason for that was because of seeing the inestimably powerful Golden Crane True Immortal actually being knocked away with his own eyes.

This most definitely meant that the person who let out that strange laughter was much more powerful than the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Huu~~~”

At the moment when Chu Feng was astonished, violent winds began to appear around him.

The violent winds carried crimson gaseous flames with them. Soon, the winds completely covered Chu Feng, sealing him within.

“Bastard!”

The Golden Crane True Immortal was endlessly furious. As he shouted angrily, the weather started to change. The sky immediately darkened.

Soon, his body started to radiate golden light. Like a sun, he started to illuminate his surroundings.

At that moment, the aura emitted by the Golden Crane True Immortal was much stronger than the aura Chu Feng had felt from him earlier.

His clothes fluttered about as he walked toward Chu Feng. With each step, the area underneath his feet trembled. Even space itself was trembling because of him.

At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal simply did not resemble a human at all. Rather, he appeared like a ruler who governed the entire world.

“Scram.”

Right at that moment, that strange voice was suddenly heard.

Immediately after that, the red gaseous flames that were revolving around Chu Feng suddenly shot forth toward the Golden Crane True Immortal.

The Golden Crane True Immortal waved his sleeve, sending forth golden radiance. He was planning to block the incoming red gaseous flames.

“Boom~~~”

However, before the Golden Crane True Immortal could finish his movement, the red gaseous flame landed right on his chest.

“Wuuahh.”

The Golden Crane True Immortal was once again knocked flying. However, this time around, he was not completely uninjured. When he landed on the ground, there was blood flowing from the corner of his mouth.

That enormously powerful Golden Crane True Immortal was actually unable to withstand a single blow when before those red gaseous flames.

“If you dare mess around with me again, I’ll take your little life.”

Shortly after, that strange voice sounded again. Merely, this time around, that voice was no longer strange-sounding. Instead, it was extremely domineering. It was as if it could take away the Golden Crane True Immortal’s life instantly should it wish to.

“Damn it.”

The Golden Crane True Immortal frowned deeply and revealed an incomparably furious expression. As he spoke, he planned to attack again.

“Golden Crane, don’t act rashly. This individual is not someone that we can handle.”

Right at that moment, a voice sounded from beside the Golden Crane True Immortal. At the same time, a figure descended beside him, stopping the Golden Crane True Immortal, who was planning to rush forward and attack again.

Naturally, that individual was the plain-clothed old monk who had been hidden beside the Golden Crane True Immortal the entire time.

“Old Demonic Substance, that is the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip we’re talking about here. Are you really planning to allow someone to take advantage of us like this?” The Golden Crane True Immortal revealed an extremely unreconciled expression.

“Golden Crane, you’ve been in Mount Cloud Crane for so long, yet never managed to find this place.”

“Then, this place appeared out of nowhere. Why do you think that is the case?” The plain-clothed old monk asked.

Hearing those words, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s gaze flashed. He had calmed down slightly. Not only did the scowl on his face decline rapidly, but a fearful expression also emerged in his eyes.

He naturally understood what the plain-clothed old monk was saying.

This place would naturally not appear by itself without any reason or cause. However, the appearance of this place was unrelated to him.

This meant that it was most likely related to that individual.

“Boy, I trust you have been well since we last met.”

Right at that moment, that voice sounded again.

“Who are you? Do we know each another?”

Chu Feng gazed around nervously.

The crimson gaseous flames were spinning rapidly like a tornado whilst He was located in the eye of the storm.

Other than the crimson gaseous flames that were rapidly spinning around him, Chu Feng was unable to see anything.

Most importantly, the crimson gaseous flames made Chu Feng feel the oppressive sensation of death.

Chu Feng felt that if he were to touch those crimson gaseous flames once, even if it was only in the slightest, he would instantly be killed.

Those crimson gaseous flames had power that greatly surpassed his understanding. Before this power, Chu Feng felt that he was weaker than even an ant. He felt that he was pitifully weak, like a speck of dust.

As the saying went, there is always someone stronger. Thus, although Chu Feng was surprised by the appearance of this expert, he was not astonished.

Yet now, judging from what this individual said, it seemed like they knew him.

With this, Chu Feng felt very curious. When had he ever known someone so powerful?

Soon, a silhouette gradually appeared in the area sealed off by the crimson gaseous flames.

“It’s you?”

Seeing that individual, Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously. He revealed incomparable astonishment.

“Why would it be her?”

It was not only Chu Feng, even Her Lady Queen inside Chu Feng’s world spirit space revealed an incomparably astonished expression.

That was an exceptionally beautiful woman. She was so beautiful that all men would feel their heartbeat accelerate and become unable to control themselves upon seeing her.

As for that beauty, she was someone that Chu Feng knew. The reason for that was because she was originally the same as Her Lady Queen. She was a world spirit that had been sealed in his world spirit space for many years.

She was... Xue Ji.

Although Xue Ji had appeared, she did not say anything. She was looking at Chu Feng with a very cold and detached expression.

“What’s going on with you?”

Upon closer inspection of Xue Ji, Chu Feng grew even more astonished and puzzled.

Crimson shackles had been placed around Xue Ji’s body. The shackles were flickering with light. Although the shackles were only around her arm and waist, all of Xue Ji’s aura had been sealed off.

At that moment, Xue Ji looked like a prisoner as she stood there.

Most importantly, the other end of the shackles led into the void. This meant that there was most definitely something else at the other end of the shackles.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the void that the other end of the shackles led to started to tremble. Then, a silhouette emerged from the void.

That individual’s size was very short and small. To be exact, it was simply not a human at all. Rather, it was an old yellow cat.

That old cat had a very wretched appearance. It held a very long tobacco pipe with its left paw. As for its right paw, it was holding onto a red chain. That was the same chain connected to the shackles that were around Xue Ji.

When the old cat saw Chu Feng, it did not reveal the slightest bit of hostility. Instead, it had a vulgar smile on its face, “Hehe, boy, did you forget about this Lord Tiger so quickly?”

“It’s you?!”

Chu Feng was shocked once again upon seeing the old cat. He had thought of many possibilities. However, he truly never expected that it would be the old cat.

“Not bad, seems like you still remember your Lord Tiger,” Upon seeing that Chu Feng recognized it, the old cat smiled even more vulgarly.

Chapter 2504 - The Bamboo Slip Snatched Away

---

“Not bad, seems like you still remember your Lord Tiger,” Seeing that Chu Feng recognized it, the old cat smiled even more vulgarly.

How could Chu Feng not remember it? Back at the Sunset Cloud Valley, it was precisely that old cat who messed with Zhan Haichuan’s tomb.

All of the treasures Zhan Haichuan had left behind had been plundered by the old cat.

Chu Feng had originally thought that the old cat had already left the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Never did he expect that not only had the old cat not left, it had also arrived there.

“The sudden uncalled-for appearance of this forbidden area the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip was sealed in is related to you?” Chu Feng asked.

“Hehe, of course it’s related to your Lord Tiger. If it wasn’t for your Lord Tiger, who else in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm could possibly be able to find this place that the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip was hidden in?”

“That said, the original owner of this place was truly quite remarkable. Even for your Lord Tiger, it still took him two entire years to make this place reveal itself. This place has truly wasted quite a lot of my time.”

“Fortunately, the heavens do not let down those who are determined. In the end, your Lord Tiger succeeded.”

“That said, to tell the truth, it is all thanks to you that I could obtain the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip this smoothly,” As the old cat smiled, it turned its vulgar gaze toward the God

Bestowment Bamboo Slip in Chu Feng's hand.

Seeing this, Chu Feng hurriedly held his hand tightly, containing the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip within his hand.

He did not care whether or not this place was brought forth by the old cat, all he cared about was that he had promised the Golden Crane True Immortal this God Bestowment Bamboo Slip.

Thus, he naturally did not wish for the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip to end up in the old cat's paws.

"You..."

However, Chu Feng's expression soon changed. His hand that he was holding tightly onto the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip actually started to involuntarily open itself. Then, he was only able to look on as the God bestowment Bamboo Slip floated away from his palm and entered the old cat's paw.

At this moment, Chu Feng came to a deep realization of the difference in strength between him and that old cat.

Before the old cat, not to mention trying to contend against it, even his own body was no longer under his control. That old cat was able to control him with merely a thought.

Holding the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip with its paw, the old cat said with a beaming smile, "Boy, don't hold what does not belong to you. This thing here will bring you a fatal calamity."

"Thus, it is safer for it to be placed with Your Lord Tiger."

"This is robbery!" Chu Feng said angrily.

"That's right, I am robbing you, what can you possibly do about it?" The old cat laughed mockingly. Then, it said, "If you are displeased with this, you are very welcome to come search for this Lord Tiger in the future. Merely, I'm afraid that you will not have the ability to do so," After the old cat finished saying those words, it clenched its paw, and the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip disappeared.

Although Chu Feng had no idea where the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip had disappeared to, he knew for sure that it had been put away by the old cat.

“Boy, your Lord Tiger is going to leave this place where even birds don’t shit. We will never meet again.”

[1. A place where even birds don’t shit → extremely desolate place. Seems like it was originally ‘A place where birds don’t lay eggs and dogs don’t shit.’]

After the old cat said those words, it turned around and waved its paw at Chu Feng while pulling at the shackles with its other paw as it returned to the crimson mist.

“Where are you taking her?” Chu Feng asked.

Chu Feng knew very well that the old cat was an insurmountable mountain to the current him. It would be impossible for him to snatch back the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip from the old cat.

Thus, at that moment, Chu Feng turned his gaze to Xue Ji. He had no idea how Xue Ji had become that old cat’s prisoner.

However, it remained that Xue Ji was related to him. Thus, Chu Feng wanted to know what the old cat planned to do to Xue Ji.

“You’re talking about this doll? This doll here is an Asura World Spirit. As a world spiritist, you should know very well that when a world spirit leaves its master, it should turn into an Evil Spirit. However, this doll is still a world spirit and not an Evil Spirit,” The old cat said.

“Still a world spirit?” Chu Feng was greatly astonished.

Chu Feng had no idea about the current Xue Ji. However, he was certain that Xue Ji had been an Evil Spirit at one point.

In other words, Xue Ji had used some sort of method to turn herself into an ordinary world spirit from an Evil Spirit.

Regardless of how she managed to accomplish that, it remained an unimaginable feat.

“This Great Lord has always wanted to find an extraordinary slave. I just so happened to run into her. An Asura World Spirit with extraordinary beauty, it is perfect to have her as my slave.”

“It must be said that even though this is a place where even the birds don’t shit, your Lord Tiger’s journey here has garnered quite a harvest,” The old cat spoke proudly.

“She’s going to be your slave?”

Chu Feng finally understood why Xue Ji had such a depressed expression on her face. With how proud she was, she would naturally not be willing to become someone’s slave.

Otherwise, how could the Xue Ji from back then be so unwilling to serve Chu Feng?

“That said, boy, it seems like you know this doll. She couldn’t possibly have escaped from your world spirit space, right?” Suddenly, the old cat looked to Chu Feng very profoundly.

From the old cat’s gaze, Chu Feng felt an extremely dangerous sensation.

This old cat seemed to be planning to kill Chu Feng.

“Haha, forget about it. Boy, it could be said that you’ve helped this Great Lord enormously today.”

“If it wasn’t for you, this Great Lord would truly not have been able to obtain the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip so smoothly. Thus, this Great Lord will not punish you today.”

As the old cat spoke, it stepped into the crimson mist. Following that, Xue Ji who was tied up in chains, was also pulled into the crimson mist.

Chu Feng had been staring at Xue Ji the entire time. Thus, he noticed that in the moment she was pulled into the crimson mist, an expression of despair emerged in her eyes.

For some unknown reason, Chu Feng's heart tightened at that moment.

He felt tense, as if his close friends or relatives were being captured. He was actually worried.

Merely, Chu Feng didn't understand why he would be worried for Xue Ji.

This Xue Ji was different from Eggy. She was a complete maverick. In fact, Chu Feng was deeply on guard against her before.

Without mentioning anything else, it remained that Xue Ji had tried to take Chu Feng's life before.

Even though Xue Ji used to be his world spirit, she had never served him, and was instead very hateful toward him. Thus, to be more exact, Xue Ji was more like Chu Feng's enemy.

This was precisely the reason why Chu Feng was confused as to why he would worry for an enemy.

Could it be that it was because Xue Ji was, after all, his world spirit, that this was some sort of spiritual connection?

“Huu, huu, huu~~~”

Right at that moment, the crimson gaseous flames started to rise into the sky.

Evidently, that old cat had left with Xue Ji.

“Putt~~~”

As for Chu Feng, he was finally unable to continue supporting himself; he half kneeled onto the ground.

“Chu Feng.”

At the moment Chu Feng kneeled onto the ground, a figure appeared before him to lend him an arm for support. That person was naturally the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Senior Golden Crane, I...” Chu Feng looked to the Golden Crane True Immortal. Guilt filled his heart. He wanted to apologize.

“Don’t speak for now,” However, the Golden Crane True Immortal refused to allow Chu Feng to speak. He did not want to hear what Chu Feng wanted to say.

Instead, he surrounded Chu Feng with his spirit power and began to whole-heartedly focus on healing Chu Feng’s injuries.

Chapter 2505 - Unable To Heal

---

With the help from the Golden Crane True Immortal, Chu Feng's cultivation soon recovered. His body was also reformed by the Golden Crane True Immortal.

In merely the blink of an eye, Chu Feng turned from a skeleton monster back to his original appearance.

Chu Feng was also able to sense that the Golden Crane True Immortal was going all-out with his world spirit techniques to heal him.

In such a situation, the pain Chu Feng felt started to subside. However, for some unknown reason, he was still feeling pain.

This was especially true for his head. He was feeling extreme pain in his head. It was as if his head was about to explode.

Most importantly, this sort of pain seemed to be imprinted deep in his head, ineradicably.

Seeing that the Golden Crane True Immortal had finally stopped treating him, Chu Feng spoke, "Senior, I am sorry. This junior let you down. That God Bestowment Bamboo Slip has been..."

"Don't say anymore. Chu Feng, I already know everything. The reason this place appeared was because of that expert's doings."

"That individual is an existence that not even I can contend against. As such, how could you possibly be able to save the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip before him?"

"Actually, the fact that we were able to survive after facing someone like that is already an enormous fortune from within misfortune. Thus, you do not have to have any sort of mental burden. As for your friend's injury, I will definitely heal him," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

"Thank you senior," Chu Feng revealed a grateful expression.

Although Chu Feng was depressed by the fact that the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip had been snatched away, the fact that the Golden Crane True Immortal was willing to honor their previous agreement and help Wang Qiang heal his injury made him immediately overjoyed.

Seeing Chu Feng's overjoyed expression from him saying that he would cure Wang Qiang's injury, the Golden Crane True Immortal sighed.

"Chu Feng, there is one thing that I must tell you," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

"Senior, please go ahead," Chu Feng said.

"Chu Feng, you were able to pass through the mountain of blades and sea of flames without any cultivation by relying on your enormous spirit power and drive."

"Truth be told, this is the first time I've seen such enormous spirit power and drive. By enormous, I do not mean how strong your spirit power and drive is. Rather, I mean how determined you were."

"That said, even though you've managed to successfully pass through the mountain of blades and the sea of flames, you've seriously overloaded your spirit power."

"Because of that, you've seriously injured your spirit power. It is so serious that even I am unable to heal it."

"Do you feel that your head hurts, that you do not feel completely healed? Furthermore, is the pain in your head growing more and more intense?" The Golden Crane True Immortal asked.

"That is indeed the case," Chu Feng nodded.

"That is what an injury to one's spirit power does. That is incurable regardless of how powerful the person trying to heal you might be. If you want to be cured, you can only rely on yourself."

“Perhaps you will recover by yourself over time. However, it is also possible that you will not recover for your entire life.”

“If that is truly the case, not only will it affect your martial cultivation, it might become very difficult for your world spirit techniques to make progress.”

“If that’s the case, I’m afraid that you may only be able to continue on as an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist for the rest of your life,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

Chu Feng’s heart trembled upon hearing those words. It was as if an invisible mountain had appeared out of nowhere and descended ruthlessly onto his head.

At that moment, Chu Feng was struck dumb. He had guessed that there might be some lingering effect. However, he had never imagined it to be so serious.

“Your cultivation will be affected, and your world spirit techniques will become stagnant? How could it be this serious?!!!”

“Chu Feng, quickly, ask him if there’s a way to cure this.”

Her Lady Queen’s voice sounded. Compared to Chu Feng, Her Lady Queen was even more restless. She was extremely nervous.

However, faced with the incomparably nervous Lady Queen and the Golden Crane True Immortal who had an ashamed expression all over his face, Chu Feng did not try to ask more questions. Instead, he smiled and said, “Senior, I have chosen this path. You do not have to blame yourself. Furthermore, I will definitely be able to recover.”

Seeing Chu Feng reacting like this, the Golden Crane True Immortal’s eyes moved. The self-blame in his eyes did not decrease. Instead, it increased.

He seemed to want to say something. However, in the end, he didn’t say anything. Instead, he flipped his palm and took out a green jade bottle.

He opened the jade bottle and then a green medicinal pellet rolled out from it.

That medicinal pellet was only the size of a grain of rice. It had an appearance similar to that of a grain of white rice. However, it was not white, but rather green in color. It was very translucent and sparking. Furthermore, it flickered with a firefly-like glimmer.

Once that medicinal pellet appeared, the surrounding space started to become gentle and a faint fragrance soon emerged.

That fragrance was very refreshing to smell. Merely by smelling that fragrance, Chu Feng felt that his headache, as well as the pain all over his body, decreased greatly.

“Take this medicinal pellet. It will be able to alleviate your body’s pain, as well as your headache. At the very least, this medicinal pellet will allow you to not be affected by your injury in your future battles against others.”

“Take one at a time. You are only to take another one when the effect of the medicine gradually dissipates,” The Golden Crane True Immortal handed the medicinal pellet as well as the jade bottle that held the rest of the medicinal pellets to Chu Feng.

Upon receiving the medicinal pellet, he immediately placed it in his mouth. It was as the Golden Crane True Immortal said, once that medicinal pellet entered his mouth, it turned into strands of aura that assimilated into his entire body, and even his spirit.

Soon, the pain Chu Feng felt all over his body, as well as that massive headache, both disappeared.

Moreover, Chu Feng was able to tell that there were still a lot of medicinal pellets in that jade bottle. Evidently, the Golden Crane True Immortal had produced so many pain-killing medicines because he was afraid that Chu Feng would not be able to recover from his injury, that he would continue to be affected by it.

“Thank you senior,” Chu Feng put the remaining medicine away and expressed his thanks to the Golden Crane True Immortal.

The Golden Crane True Immortal sighed and said, “You must not thank me. If it wasn’t for me, you wouldn’t be like this. If you are to thank me still, you will only make me feel even more ashamed.”

“Come, let’s go. Let’s go see your friend.”

After that, the Golden Crane True Immortal brought Chu Feng away from Mount Cloud Crane.

“He really managed to request his help?”

Chu Xuanlang, who had been waiting outside Mount Cloud Crane the entire time, revealed a surprised expression upon seeing Chu Feng returning with the Golden Crane True Immortal.

Chu Xuanlang did not continue to stay hidden in the void. Instead, he hurriedly moved forward to welcome their arrival.

He... a grand expert from the Chu Heavenly Clan, actually hurriedly clasped his fist respectfully to greet the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Junior Chu Xuanlang pays his respect to Palace Master Golden Crane.”

“Palace Master?” Upon hearing those words and seeing Chu Xuanlang’s humble appearance, Chu Feng finally realized that the Golden Crane True Immortal seemed to be a remarkable existence in the Upper Realms.

Else, it would be impossible for the grand Chu Xuanlang of the Chu Heavenly Clan to be so respectful.

However, it was precisely because of how extraordinary a status the Golden Crane True Immortal possessed that Chu Feng came to realize even more how frightening that old cat was.

After all, no matter how powerful the Golden Crane True Immortal was, he was completely powerless to fight back, before that old cat.

That old cat was most definitely not only an expert of the Upper Realms. It was most likely an existence that could truly move about unhindered through Starfields.

But, if that old cat was that powerful, exactly how powerful was Zhan Haichuan from back then?

After all, even after Zhan Haichuan died, he was still able to trap the old cat in his tomb for so long.

From this, it could be deduced that Zhan Haichuan was an existence stronger than that old cat.

At that moment, Chu Feng had completely forgotten about the serious injury to his spirit power.

He seemed to be able to see the magnificent Starfields, as well as the countless powerful existences in those Starfields.

Chu Feng felt that he would one day join the ranks of those experts.

Thus, he was filled with endless anticipation for himself.

Chapter 2506 - Voluntary Exploration

---

“It’s enough, there’s no need for you to be this courteous here. It would be fine for you to just address me as Golden Crane,” The Golden Crane True Immortal spoke in a somewhat annoyed manner.

Compared to his attitude toward Chu Feng, the Golden Crane True Immortal was not at all polite toward Chu Xuanlang.

However, Chu Xuanlang did not reveal the slightest bit of displeasure. Instead, he nodded his head respectfully. His appearance could be said to be extremely humble.

“Lead the way,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Yes,” Chu Xuanlang nodded again.

Then, the Golden Crane True Immortal and Chu Feng started to follow Chu Xuanlang toward the location where Wang Qiang was.

Upon arriving, the Golden Crane True Immortal requested that he not be disturbed when healing Wang Qiang’s injuries. Thus, Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Chu Xuanlang could only wait outside.

At that moment, Zhao Hong was walking back and forth high in the sky atop the clouds. An expression of unease filled her face.

“Seems like your relationship has grown much closer,” Chu Feng said jokingly upon seeing how worried Zhao Hong was.

“If Wang Qiang had not tried to save me, he would not have ended up like this. The one to be injured should have been me. It was him who moved before me to block the attack, to suffer for me. If something is to truly happen to him, I...”

As Zhao Hong spoke, her eyes started to grow red as sparkling and translucent teardrops began to roll down her beautiful face.

“Zhao Hong, don’t worry too excessively. Since Senior Golden Crane is willing to help, Wang Qiang will definitely be fine,” Seeing Zhao Hong's reaction, Chu Feng stopped trying to joke around and began to immediately comfort her.

“Really?” Zhao Hong was still doubtful. It was not because she did not believe in Chu Feng. Rather, it was because she was truly too worried for Wang Qiang.

“If even the Golden Crane True Immortal cannot save Wang Qiang, then there will not be anyone in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm capable of saving Wang Qiang,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the space before them started to tremble slightly. Then, the Golden Crane True Immortal walked out.

“Senior, how was it?”

Upon seeing him, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong hurriedly rushed forth.

At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal's expression was slightly ugly. He shook his head, sighed and said, “The situation is bad.”

“Senior, could it be that even you are unable to save Wang Qiang?”

Chu Feng and Zhao Hong immediately became extremely worried. Even that Chu Xuanlang revealed a surprised expression.

No matter what, Wang Qiang was only injured by the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan. They felt that the Golden Crane True Immortal would definitely be able to treat him. After all, the Golden Crane True Immortal was someone with status in the Upper Realms.

Yet now, the Golden Crane True Immortal had actually declared that the situation was bad. How could Chu Feng and the others not be surprised by this?

“The reason why Wang Qiang’s injury has been unable to heal is mainly because of that poison,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“That poison?” Chu Feng and the others had all diagnosed Wang Qiang’s injury before. Thus, they all knew that Wang Qiang had been poisoned.

“That poison is so powerful that even senior is unable to cure it?” Chu Feng asked.

“One will naturally need an antidote to cure poison. As for this poison’s antidote, I do not possess it,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Even senior does not possess the antidote to this poison? There’s actually such a powerful poison in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm?” Chu Xuanlang asked.

“It is naturally not a poison from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Not a poison from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm? Then, it’s a poison from the Upper Realms?” Chu Xuanlang asked.

“I have seen this poison before. It is rare even in the Upper Realms. Thus, its antidote is very hard to obtain.”

“Although it is not a very strong poison, it is very hard to bring it under control.”

“Right now, all I can do is stabilize Wang Qiang’s condition so that he will not be in fatal danger. However, if you all want to cure his poison, you will have to obtain that antidote,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Senior, where must we go to obtain this antidote?” Zhao Hong hurriedly asked.

“Where you go to find the antidote is your business,” As the Golden Crane True Immortal spoke, he looked to Chu Feng and said, “Although I’ve promised you that I will treat Wang Qiang, I will not go and help you find the antidote.”

“The reason for that is because it is very possible that one must fight to obtain the antidote. And I... do not plan to involve myself in the struggles of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

The Golden Crane True Immortal’s intention was clear. He was willing to treat Wang Qiang’s injury, but would not help Chu Feng and the others settle their grudges in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

This was a question of principle.

“Senior’s agreement to come treat Wang Qiang is already a great kindness to us. This Chu Feng will not make excessive requests,” Chu Feng said.

“That said, you can rest assured. Before you all obtain the antidote, I will ensure the safety of this Wang Qiang,” After the Golden Crane True Immortal finished saying those words, he looked to Chu Xuanlang and said, “It would be safer for this Wang Qiang to stay at my place.”

“Of course,” Chu Xuanlang hurriedly agreed. He had realized the Golden Crane True Immortal’s intentions. That is, he planned to bring Wang Qiang into Mount Cloud Crane.

Although the Golden Crane True Immortal would not involve himself in the grievances and grudges Chu Feng and the others had with the people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, for Wang Qiang to be with him, he would definitely be safe.

After all, no matter how powerful the various powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm might be, not a single one of them were willing to provoke the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Thank you, senior,” Chu Feng and Zhao Hong both expressed their thanks.

They felt that it was already very rare for someone neutral like the Golden Crane True Immortal to be willing to go this far for them.

“It’s decided then. After you’ve obtained the antidote, come find me at Mount Cloud Crane. As for Wang Qiang, I’ll bring him away for now,” As the Golden Crane True Immortal spoke, he disappeared.

Right after he disappeared, he immediately reappeared. When he reappeared, there was one extra individual next to him. As for that person, he was none other than Wang Qiang.

Wang Qiang was still unconscious. However, when compared to before, Wang Qiang’s aura was much better.

Apart from his complexion still being a bit pale, he only resembled someone who had fallen asleep. One could not tell that he had been injured and poisoned.

From this, it could be seen that even though the Golden Crane True Immortal was unable to completely cure Wang Qiang, he had indeed managed to stabilize Wang Qiang’s condition and save his life.

“Buzz~~~”

Suddenly, the Golden Crane True Immortal spread open his palm. Then, light started to shine from his palm. It was a medicinal pellet.

This medicinal pellet was a bit special. It was sparkling and translucent, like a bead of crystal. However, in the center of this bead was the image of a blade of grass.

Even though it was clearly formed by the Golden Crane True Immortal with his world spirit techniques, that medicinal pellet not only possessed a life-like appearance, it also emitted an aura and fragrance. It was as if that medicinal pellet was real.

At that moment, even Chu Feng and Zhao Hong revealed expressions of admiration.

They realized that there was no end to learning on the path of world spirit techniques.

“If the antidote is finished, it should resemble this. If it is a medicinal herb, then it should resemble the herb in the medicinal pellet. Remember this, do not be deceived,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Thank you senior,” Chu Feng and Zhao Hong said in unison.

“In that case, I will wait for you all at Mount Cloud Crane.”

After the Golden Crane True Immortal finished saying those words, he started to float off into the distance. Soon, he disappeared into the vast white clouds.

The Golden Crane True Immortal was flying while bringing Wang Qiang with him. They were currently flying toward Mount Cloud Crane.

He looked at the sleeping Wang Qiang and moved his palm to the Cosmos Sack on his waist. A flash of light emerged as a medicinal pellet appeared on his palm.

That medicinal pellet was actually exactly the same as the medicinal pellet he had formed through world spirit techniques earlier. Merely, it was real now.

The Golden Crane True Immortal fed Wang Qiang the medicinal pellet and helped him swallow it.

“Ahh~~~”

Suddenly, Wang Qiang’s mouth opened as a layer of deep green stinky gas emerged from his mouth.

The next moment, Wang Qiang’s pale complexion turned rosy.

Although Wang Qiang was still sleeping, the poison on his body had been completely removed.

“I don’t understand. Since you have the antidote, why must you deceive Chu Feng and the others and demand that they seek the antidote themselves?”

A figure appeared. He was none other than the plain-clothed old monk.

He had been hidden the entire time. Although Chu Feng and the others had not discovered him, he had witnessed all that had happened.

“This poison is something that the Kong Heavenly Clan should not possess. As for where it came from...”

“I feel like there are some answers that I need Chu Feng and the others to find,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“That’s true. Merely, there are already people from the Upper Realms involving themselves in this Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s mess. Furthermore, they are targeting Chu Feng and the others. The path that Chu Feng and the others have to follow will be hard to walk,” The plain-clothed old monk said.

“The path to become an expert has never been an easy path. If you’re afraid that something will happen to them, you can act to help them. In that case, all of the crises here will be solved,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Heh...” The plain-clothed old monk chuckled. Then, he entered the void. No one knew what exactly that chuckle meant.

Chapter 2507 - Rank Eight Martial Ancestor

---

Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Chu Xuanlang were still standing there even after the Golden Crane True Immortal left with Wang Qiang.

They had no idea that the Golden Crane True Immortal had deceived them, nor did they know that Wang Qiang's poison had been neutralized by the Golden Crane True Immortal.

Thus, at that moment, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were both fretting over how to find the antidote.

“Brother Chu Feng, like the Golden Crane True Immortal, I too will not involve myself in what is to happen.”

“I hope that Brother Chu Feng will not blame me for that,” Chu Xuanlang said to Chu Feng in a slightly apologetic manner.

“Elder Brother Xuanlang is overthinking things. You have already helped us enough. How could we blame you?” Chu Feng said.

Chu Xuanlang sighed, then said, “If possible, I truly want to help you. Merely, there are rules from above. I cannot interfere in the things of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. My decision to interfere last time around was already an exception.”

“That said, even though I cannot interfere, I am able to provide you with some information.”

“What sort of information?” Zhao Hong asked.

“Whoever started it should end it. To find the antidote for Wang Qiang's poison, you would naturally have to go find the individual who injured Wang Qiang,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Brother Xuanlang, do you know any information regarding that individual?” Chu Feng revealed a joyous expression.

Indeed, if they wanted to find the antidote, they would indeed have to find the person that poisoned Wang Qiang. However, Chu Feng had no clue as to who it was that had injured Wang Qiang.

However, if they were able to find out who it was that had injured Wang Qiang, their target would be clear-cut, and they would be able to skip many roundabout routes.

“I have guessed that you all would try to find that individual to avenge Wang Qiang. However, if you all are to try to find out about that individual from the Kong Heavenly Clan’s headquarters, it will be very dangerous with the strength that you all currently possess. Thus, I have already helped you two make inquiries about it.”

“The person who injured Wang Qiang is called Kong Doumoyuan. He possesses the cultivation of a rank nine Martial Ancestor, and was deemed to be the strongest individual in the Kong Heavenly Clan apart from the True Immortals.”

“Thus, you all must be careful when facing this individual. His strength is no small matter. You must not underestimate him.”

“At the very least, to the current you two, he is an extremely dangerous existence.”

“Furthermore, this Kong Doumoyuan is very conceited. Very rarely does he reside in the Kong Heavenly Clan’s headquarters. Instead, he possesses his own personal residence and will generally cultivate, undergo closed-door training and meet his friends there.”

“Thus... if you all want to find him, then go here. You will definitely be able to find him there,” As Chu Xuanlang spoke, he handed a map to Chu Feng.

A location was marked on the map. Naturally, that place was where Kong Doumoyuan resided.

“Brother Chu Feng, as this Kong Doumoyuan was deemed to be the strongest in the Kong Heavenly Clan apart from the True Immortals, this means that he most definitely possesses actual abilities.”

“Thus, you must remember this at all costs. Before you feel that you possess absolute certainty in victory, it is best for you not to find him.”

“After all, for a nobleman to take revenge, ten years is not too long,” Chu Xuanlang reminded Chu Feng again.

“Thank you for your reminder, Elder Brother Xuanlang. We will definitely act carefully,” Chu Feng said.

“Since that’s the case, then let’s meet again in the future. I will wait for you in the Upper Realms,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Elder Brother Xuanlang, you’re planning to leave?” Chu Feng asked.

“Mn, I have something important that I must return to take care of. I’m afraid that I will not be able to return any time soon,” Chu Xuanlang said.

“Very well, we shall meet again in the Upper Realms,” Chu Feng said.

“Farewell,” After saying those words, Chu Xuanlang entered the void and disappeared.

Only Chu Feng and Zhao Hong remained.

“That guy is actually a rank nine Martial Ancestor? It’s no wonder that my husband and I were unable to fight back even after joining hands,” After Chu Xuanlang left, Zhao Hong revealed a worried expression.

At that moment, they had the information on how to find Kong Doumoyuan. However, their strength was inferior to their opponent’s.

On the other hand, her husband Wang Qiang was still waiting for the antidote.

Even though she knew that Wang Qiang would be fine with the Golden Crane True Immortal stabilizing his condition, she was unable to not feel worried for Wang Qiang upon recalling that he was still poisoned.

As such, Zhao Hong was extremely impatient to find the antidote.

As for Chu Feng, he too was very impatient to find the antidote.

“Chu Feng, with Wang Qiang being with the Golden Crane True Immortal, he will be fine for the time being. Thus, you shouldn’t worry yourself,” Her Lady Queen said.

Her Lady Queen understood Chu Feng extremely well. She knew that he was capable of disregarding his own life for the sake of his friends.

She was truly worried that Chu Feng would utilize the Evil God Sword’s power for the sake of obtaining the antidote for Wang Qiang sooner.

“Milady Queen, please rest assured. I will not act recklessly,” Chu Feng pondered for a moment. Then, he said to Zhao Hong, “Give me some time. I will have to undergo closed-door training.”

“Training?” Hearing those words, Zhao Hong’s expression changed.

Although Chu Feng was very powerful now, he was still only a rank seven Martial Ancestor. Compared to that Kong Doumoyuan, he was two entire levels of cultivation weaker.

Furthermore, both of them were Heavenly Bloodline possessors. As such, their various abilities should be practically identical. The two levels of difference in cultivation would assure Chu Feng would be no match for Kong Doumoyuan.

Even if Chu Feng were to train, he would have to increase his cultivation to rank nine Martial Ancestor in order to contend against Kong Doumoyuan.

Zhao Hong believed that Chu Feng would one day become a rank nine Martial Ancestor. Merely, she was uncertain as to how long he would be in closed-door training for.

Thus, she was somewhat hesitant. The reason for that was because she truly did not wish to delay this matter too much.

“Do you want me to accompany you in your closed-door training?” Zhao Hong asked.

“It is best that we stay together for now. It will be safer for us to act together,” Chu Feng said.

“But...” Zhao Hong was hesitant.

“Rest assured, it will not take long,” Chu Feng was able to see through Zhao Hong’s hesitation. He spoke to comfort her.

“Okay then. We’ll do as you suggested,” Although Zhao Hong was slightly hesitant, she still forced herself to agree with Chu Feng.

Then, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong reached a hidden location and began to enter closed-door training.

Actually, there was definitely more than a single path before Chu Feng.

Chu Feng could actually search for help.

However, to request the assistance of others would definitely pose some sort of uncertainty. As the saying goes, if one wanted something done well, one must do it oneself.

Thus, compared to requesting help, Chu Feng felt that reaching breakthroughs in cultivation and relying on himself would be more reliable.

Of course, Chu Feng’s target was not to increase his cultivation to rank nine Martial Ancestor. The reason for that was because it would definitely take a long time for him to reach rank nine Martial Ancestor. In fact, he was unable to be certain as to exactly how long it would take.

However, if it was to only increase his cultivation to rank eight Martial Ancestor, Chu Feng possessed a certain amount of certainty of being able to do so in a short period of time.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng had already managed to sense the junction toward rank eight Martial Ancestor back when he was at the War Clan's Ancient Domain. It was merely due to the fact the Ancient Era's War Clan was attacked that he was delayed from reaching a breakthrough.

After that, Chu Feng never had the chance to fully concentrate on training. However, he knew that as long as he fully concentrated on training, it would not be difficult for him to reach rank eight Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, with his abilities, he felt that if he was able to increase his cultivation to rank eight Martial Ancestor, he would be able to fight against that so-called Kong Doumoyuan.

.....

Chu Feng entered closed door training, and Zhao Hong began to stand on guard for him.

The speed at which Chu Feng reached his breakthrough in cultivation was extremely fast. In merely a short ten days, he successfully reached a breakthrough from rank seven Martial Ancestor to rank eight Martial Ancestor.

After the Divine Tribulation's lightning filled the sky and then descended upon him, Chu Feng had managed to successfully increase his cultivation to rank eight Martial Ancestor.

“Zhao Hong, we can set off now.”

After successfully reaching his breakthrough, Chu Feng hurriedly walked out from where he was undergoing closed-door training to announce the good news to Zhao Hong.

“Where's Zhao Hong?” However, after he walked out, his expression sunk. The reason for that was because Zhao Hong was nowhere to be seen.

Not only was Zhao Hong not present, but Chu Feng was unable to sense her aura nearby either.

“Could she have left because of some business?” Her Lady Queen said.

“No, her aura has disappeared for a long time. Likely, she left ten days ago, right after I entered closed-door training,” Chu Feng said.

“In that case, there’s only one possibility. She is truly one to not let others be worry-free,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Woosh~~~”

Once Her Lady Queen said those words, Chu Feng’s body shifted. He turned into a flash of light and started to fly rapidly in the sky.

If it was as Her Lady Queen had said, then there would indeed only be one possibility. That is, that Zhao Hong was most definitely too impatient.

She must have left to find Kong Doumoyuan for revenge by herself.

Chapter 2508 - Inside the Moyuan Palace

---

There was a vast sea in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that was called the Ten Thousand Beasts Sea.

The reason why that sea was called the Ten Thousand Beasts Sea was because there were countless sea beasts inside the Ten Thousand Beasts Sea. Their exact amount was most definitely more than ten thousand. Instead, they numbered greater than a hundred million.

Those so-called sea beasts were actually ferocious beasts that lived deep underwater. Those ferocious beasts did not possess intelligence, and only knew murder. Thus, they were extremely fierce.

That said, those ferocious beasts that lived deep underneath the sea possessed powerful cultivations. The weakest among them were Martial Emperors, whereas the majority of them were Half Martial Ancestors. There were reportedly some ferocious beasts with cultivations reaching Martial Ancestor.

Thus, the Ten Thousand Beasts Sea was very dangerous. Those below Half Martial Ancestor would simply not dare to set foot into the Ten Thousand Beasts Sea. Even if one were to fly in the sky, one could forcibly be sucked into the sea and eaten alive by the ferocious beasts hidden deep underneath the sea.

Furthermore, the vast and boundless Ten Thousand Beasts Sea was a place with no cultivation resources or treasures apart from the countless amount of ferocious beasts.

Thus, the Ten Thousand Beasts Sea became a desolate place with no sign of human activity.

However, in the center of the Ten Thousand Beasts Sea was a man-made island.

On the island were extravagant buildings. At the entrance to the island was a gate reaching a hundred meters tall. On the gate was a signboard. There were three large characters on the signboard: Moyuan's Palace. [1. Moyuan is two characters.]

That place was Kong Doumoyuan's residence.

Generally, only Kong Doumoyuan, as well as his servants, were present in Moyuan's Palace.

However, at that moment it was different from the other days. In recent days, Kong Doumoyuan's friends had all rushed to his Moyuan's Palace.

They naturally arrived there per Kong Doumoyuan's invitation.

At that moment, several hundred figures were gathered in one of the Moyuan's Palace's vast palace halls.

That said, as that palace hall was capable of containing several tens of thousands of people, several hundred people still appeared to be very empty.

That said, these several hundred people were all people with status in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Not to mention some hidden experts, there were also reputed individuals from the four tier one powers present among them.

For example, there was the genius who was said to rarely appear in ten thousand years from the Immortal Sword School, Dugu Jianxu.

From the Zhou Heavenly Clan, the person with the same status as Kong Doumoyuan, the person deemed to be strongest in the Zhou Heavenly Clan apart from the True Immortals, Zhou Fukong.

There was also a strange individual from Buddha's Heavenly Temple. Even though he was clearly a monk, he was someone who enjoyed the four vices of wine, sex, avarice and temper; Wine-Meat Monk. [1. Wine-Meat Monk is a term used to describe a monk that indulges in vices.]

Those three individuals were all people with the greatest reputation and strongest power apart from True Immortals among the three tier one powers.

The three of them were close friends of many years with Kong Doumoyuan.

Apart from them, there were also many other peak Martial Ancestor-level experts present. Although they were all of different ages, they were like-minded individuals, and they all got along with one another extremely well.

From that Wine-Meat Monk, it could be seen that even though those people were all from reputed and upright powers, none of them were good-natured individuals.

While they were not actual evildoers, they were all hypocrites.

As they chatted, a peak Martial Ancestor-level white-haired old man asked, "Brother Moyuan, I've heard that Chu Feng hasn't died, that someone has seen him already."

"Say, will he come to take revenge on your Kong Heavenly Clan?"

"Revenge? Does he even possess the ability to do so?" Although Kong Doumoyuan was already over a thousand years old, he had the appearance of a young man. At that moment, the corners of his mouth were lightly raised as he revealed his contempt toward Chu Feng.

"Two years ago, that Chu Feng nearly eliminated your entire Kong Heavenly Clan. Are you to say that he does not have the ability to take revenge?" The white-haired old man continued to ask.

"Old Monster Fengjin, you couldn't possibly believe that Chu Feng really does possess some sort of Demon Armament, and is capable of eliminating our Kong Heavenly Clan by himself, right?" At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan had a slightly displeased expression as he looked at the white-haired old man.

“Eh...” Seeing that Kong Doumoyuan had revealed an ill-intended gaze, Old Monster Fengjin, a grand peak Martial Ancestor, actually revealed a timid expression. He hurriedly smiled in a good-natured manner, bowed and said, “This is only conjecture. I actually did not believe it much myself. I merely wanted to seek an answer today.”

“That’s true, exactly what is going on? The Kong Heavenly Clan has yet to give an explanation of what happened. We all wish to know the truth,” The crowd echoed.

“Regardless, I do not believe it. Chu Feng is but an insignificant member of the younger generation. How could he possess the ability to do that? Even if he truly possesses such a frightening Demon Armament, I do not believe that brat will be able to handle it.”

There were also many people who expressed their disbelief toward what had happened in the Kong Heavenly Clan two years before.

From their expressions of contempt, it could be seen that they were not just saying it to flatter Kong Doumoyuan. Rather, they were looking down on Chu Feng from the bottoms of their hearts.

Although those individuals were filled with disbelief toward the rumors, they were still looking at Kong Doumoyuan with gazes filled with anticipation.

Evidently, they all wanted to obtain a definite answer from Kong Doumoyuan so as to prove that their guesses were correct.

“Although you all might not know Chu Feng well, you all must’ve heard of Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang, right?” Kong Doumoyuan said to the crowd.

“Of course. Weren’t that Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang Chu Feng’s close friends? I’ve heard that the three of them all obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance.”

“I’ve also heard that Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang possess immeasurable talent, and are capable of fighting on par against Young Master Li Ming, that the two of them are demon-level geniuses.”

“To speak it unpleasantly, your Kong Heavenly Clan has suffered quite a bit at the hands of those two in the past two years.”

The crowd all spoke. Although many among them did not believe in the rumors regarding Chu Feng, they had a different level of respect toward Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang. In fact, one could even hear traces of admiration in their tones when speaking of Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang.

“Geniuses? Humph.”

Right at that moment, a youth among the crowd let out a snort of contempt.

That person was the Immortal Sword School's genius rarely seen in ten thousand years, Dugu Jianxu.

That Dugu Jianxu could be said to be the youngest among the crowd. However, he was most definitely not a youth.

He had lived for over three hundred years. Even though he was only over three hundred years old, he possessed the cultivation of rank eight Martial Ancestor. In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, this made him fully deserving of the title of genius.

“Young Hero Dugu, it seems that you look down deeply on that Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang?”

“However, the two of them managed to become reputed all over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm in merely two years, their reputations even surpassing that of Young Master Li Ming. They are most definitely not to be trifled with,” Someone said upon seeing Dugu Jianxu's reaction.

“You’re saying they possess abilities and strength? If they really do, how could they be beaten fleeing by Brother Moyuan?” Dugu Jianxu mocked.

“Could it be that you’ve fought against Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong?” Hearing those words, the crowd all turned their gazes to Kong Doumoyuan.

Faced with the gazes from the crowd, Kong Doumoyuan deliberately tidied up his clothes.

Then, he revealed a faint smile and said in a proud manner, “I have indeed. That Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang are no commoners, they do indeed possess some skills.”

“However, they are simply nowhere as outstanding as they are rumored to be. Actually, the two of them were able to destroy so many of our Kong Heavenly Clan’s branches by relying on despicable methods.”

“The reason for that is because when I confronted them head-on, they simply did not have the ability to fight back at all,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“In that case, have the two of them been killed by you?” The crowd asked.

“No, they have not. However, it is not because I couldn’t kill them. Rather, it’s because they were saved by someone,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“Someone saved them? To be able to save someone from you, could it be... a True Immortal-level expert?”

“In that case, it would appear that they really do possess the backing of a True Immortal-level expert,” The crowd revealed surprised expressions.

They had all already heard rumors of Chu Feng possessing a True Immortal-level expert behind him. However, as they had not personally witnessed it, they were skeptical of it.

However, Kong Doumoyuan was their close friend. As such, they would trust what Kong Doumoyuan said a lot more.

“Indeed, that person was a True Immortal-level expert. Otherwise, how could he be able to save them from my hands?”

“Thus, I can tell everyone with certainty, that regardless of whether it is that Wang Qiang, Zhao Hong or even that Chu Feng, the only reason they were able to obtain their current reputation in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm was all because they possess the backing of a True Immortal, and not because of their own abilities,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“In that case, two years ago, the one to inflict serious damage upon your Kong Heavenly Clan was simply not Chu Feng, but rather someone else?” Someone said.

“Of course. How could Chu Feng possibly be able to inflict serious damage upon our Kong Heavenly Clan?” Kong Doumoyuan said with certainty.

Chapter 2509 - Merely Trash

---

After hearing what Kong Doumoyuan said, the crowd exclaimed in surprise.

They all became certain of one thing, something that they had been skeptical of the entire time.

That is, they suspected that Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were only able to act like mavericks in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm and accomplish so many unimaginable feats because they possessed an enormous backer behind them, a mysterious expert that had nearly eliminated the entire Kong Heavenly Clan.

As for exactly who that expert was, none of them knew. However, one thing was certain: that expert was extremely powerful, and might even be an existence very few people could match in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

“Brother Moyuan, since you know that those three possess the backing of an expert, it is best that you do not make them your enemies again. Else, you will end up suffering enormously,” Someone advised with kind intentions.

“Humph, when I was taking care of that Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang, their backing wasn’t able to do anything to me. I presume that individual possesses misgivings too,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“What sort of misgivings?” The crowd began to guess.

“That would naturally be our Kong Heavenly Clan,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“Didn’t that individual nearly extinguish your entire Kong Heavenly Clan? Why would he feel misgivings toward your Kong Heavenly Clan?” Someone said.

“Fool!” Hearing those words, Kong Doumoyuan suddenly stood up. With a displeased expression on his face, he said loudly, “Did you all really think that that individual really nearly eliminated our Kong Heavenly Clan?”

“Let me ask you all this, if you all possessed the ability to eliminate your opponent, would you stop midway so that your opponent can come back for revenge in the future?”

“This... we wouldn't,” The crowd said.

“When you all wouldn't do something like that, why would that individual do something that foolish?” Kong Doumoyuan asked.

“Then, exactly what is going on?” The crowd asked.

“The truth is, he did not stop by himself, but was instead beaten back by our Kong Heavenly Clan,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“So that's the case, no wonder...” The crowd nodded their heads as if they had suddenly realized the truth.

However, the people present were all old foxes. Although they were acting as if they had suddenly realized the truth, they were actually skeptical toward what Kong Doumoyuan said.

After all, the Kong Heavenly Clan had never provided an explanation.

For a power like the Kong Heavenly Clan, when they did not provide an explanation, they would generally avoid doing so because they felt shame.

Of course, they also couldn't be certain as to whether or not Kong Doumoyuan was lying. Thus, they were half trusting of his words and half trusting of the rumors.

Suddenly, someone asked curiously, “In that case, Brother Moyuan, may I ask exactly what cultivation that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong had?”

Once that question was asked, the crowd all revealed curious gazes. After all, the rumors regarding Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong in the past two years were simply too enormous.

Yet, very few people knew of their actual strength. All they knew was that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were among the strongest geniuses in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Thus, the crowd were extremely curious as to what their cultivations were.

“The two of them are merely rank eight Martial Ancestors,” Kong Doumoyuan spoke in a very disdainful manner.

“Rank eight Martial Ancestors?” The crowd revealed complicated expressions.

Initially, the crowd truly did not feel much surprise after hearing that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were rank eight Martial Ancestors. After all, the people present were all very powerful, and many among them were peak Martial Ancestors.

This was especially true for the possessors of Heavenly Bloodlines. When their cultivation reached peak Martial Ancestor, they would become extremely frightening to deal with when their Heavenly Bloodline’s power was added onto their peak Martial Ancestor-level cultivation.

Thus, to the crowd present, rank eight Martial Ancestor was not enough to shock them.

However, upon closer thinking, they recalled that Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong were only people of the younger generation with very young ages.

They were people who had only trained for some dozens or twenty-odd years. Yet, they had already managed to become rank eight Martial Ancestors. Thus making it no small matter.

After all, when they themselves were still members of the younger generation, their cultivations were pathetically weak. Not to mention rank eight Martial Ancestors, merely just the Martial Ancestor realm itself was already out of reach for them.

By comparison, they realized how frightening Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's talent toward martial cultivation and their speed of progress were.

“Brother Moyuan, although Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong's cultivations are not to be feared right now, it is very frightening that they, with how young they are, managed to obtain their current level of cultivation.”

“Furthermore, both of them are Grandmaster Kai Hong's successors. Their world spirit techniques are no small matter either. In the future, it is best to be wary of them,” Someone spoke to advise Kong Doumoyuan.

“Be wary of them?”

“Haha...”

“Hahaha...”

“Wahahaha!!!”

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan burst into loud and frantic laughter.

Witnessing that scene, the crowd looked at one another. They were all confused as to why Kong Doumoyuan was acting that way.

After laughing for a long time, Kong Doumoyuan said, “What sort of ability do they possibly possess to make me, Kong Doumoyuan, be wary of them?”

“But...” Someone opened their mouth and tried to explain their worry.

However, before that individual could finish what he wanted to say, Kong Doumoyuan suddenly interrupted him, “Actually, I have another gift that I wish to show brothers here.”

“Gift?” Hearing the word gift, the crowd all revealed confused expressions.

“Bring up that trash,” Kong Doumoyuan waved his sleeve. Then, two servants immediately pushed forth a cage.

On that cage was a cloth. That cloth was composed of special materials. Thus, even the world spiritists present were unable to see through it.

“Brother Moyuan, could it be that you’ve captured some sort of rare gourmet beast?”

At that moment, many people revealed avaricious smiles.

Those people frequently captured rare gourmet beasts. As for the so-called rare gourmet beasts, they were either ferocious beasts or monstrous beasts with special bloodlines that were useful toward their cultivation.

Their purpose in capturing those so-called rare gourmet beasts would naturally be to drink their blood and eat their flesh, using their blood and flesh to enhance their own body’s constitution.

Thus, upon seeing the cage, the first reaction from the crowd was that they would be able to enjoy a delicacy.

However, faced with the crowd’s reaction, Kong Doumoyuan laughed even more. He only stopped laughing when the cage arrived at the center of the palace hall. He slowly walked toward the cage and grabbed the cloth that covered the cage, pulling it off.

“Woosh~~~”

“That is?”

When that cloth was pulled off, the crowd that was filled with anticipation all revealed surprised expressions.

The reason for that was because within the cage was not the rare gourmet beast that they were expecting. Rather... it was a human.

Inside the cage was a woman. Although she had a pale complexion, she revealed an ominous glint in her eyes. Her gaze seemed to be saying that she wanted to eat someone.

However, there was nothing she could do, for she was completely bound by special chains. Her cultivation had been entirely restricted.

As for that woman, she was none other than Zhao Hong.

“Zhao Hong, she... why would she be here? Didn’t you say that she was saved?” The crowd questioned in astonishment.

Although this was the first time they had met Zhao Hong face to face, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang’s portraits, like Chu Feng’s, had already been spread through the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Thus, they all knew what Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang looked like.

“Indeed, she was saved,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“She was captured by you again?” Someone asked.

“No,” Kong Doumoyuan smiled faintly. Then, he added, “This trash showed up by herself.”

“She thought her world spirit techniques were exceptional, and tried to steal my possessions while I was not paying attention. Unfortunately for her, she was caught red-handed by me.”

“This time around, there was no one to protect her. As such, she was unable to escape, and could only be captured.”

After saying those words, Kong Doumoyuan turned to the crowd and said, “Everyone, is there really a need for me to be worried about trash like this?”

Chapter 2510 - Killing Intent From Chu Feng

---

“Haha, Brother Moyuan, you are truly the model among us. You actually managed to capture this demonic woman Zhao Hong.”

“You must know how extraordinary this demonic woman is. She has been the nightmare of countless individuals.”

“Yet you were actually able to capture her alive. This monk truly feels admiration toward Brother Moyuan.”

Right at that moment, an extremely sinister laughter was heard. That laughter was actually from the monk.

That monk was very robust, with a stubble beard. Originally, he should have been very masculine-looking. However, he had an extremely vile gaze that was completely inconsistent with his image.

Although he was wearing a buddhist kasaya robe, he did not resemble a monk in the slightest. Instead, he gave off a corrupted air all over.

Especially his pair of small beady eyes. At that moment, they were looking at Zhao Hong lecherously in an extremely vulgar manner.

That monk was naturally that vice indulging Wine-Meat Monk from the Buddha's Heavenly Temple.

Whilst that monk was extremely wretched, he possessed extraordinary strength.

In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he was one of the most famous Martial Ancestors.

“Wine-Meat Monk, you couldn't possibly be interested in that demonic woman, right? You should know that demonic woman cannot be compared with ordinary young women, right?” Another individual slowly stood up and walked toward Zhao Hong's cage.

That person possessed the cultivation of rank nine Martial Ancestor. He was the strongest in the Zhou Heavenly Clan apart from the True Immortals, Zhou Fukong.

Zhou Fukong, the Wine-Meat Monk, Kong Doumoyuan and Dugu Jianxu; the four of them were the most famous existences in the four tier one powers apart from the True Immortals.

The four of them were also very close friends.

Although they were all seen to be representatives of righteousness, when the four of them gathered in private, they would reveal their true ugly appearances.

The four of them were all genuine hypocrites.

“Brother Zhou, you couldn’t possibly be planning to fight over her with me? I remember that you’ve never been one to lust for women, no?” The Wine-Meat Monk said.

“As a man, how could I not be fond of women? Merely, I possess a relatively high requirement toward women. Thus, ordinary women will simply not enter my discerning eye. As for this demonic woman, I am quite fond of her,” Zhou Fukong said with a beaming smile.

“Have the two of you gone insane? This Zhao Hong is our Brother Moyuan’s enemy. Could the two of you be planning to marry Brother Moyuan’s enemy?” Dugu Jianxu also stood up and stepped forward.

“Marry the demonic woman? I wouldn’t dare do something like that.”

“However, playing with her should be fine, no? After all, she’s already been captured, and I believe Brother Moyuan will not spare her either.”

“Since she’s going to die eventually, why not allow us to enjoy ourselves before she dies?” Zhou Fukong began to size Zhao Hong up lecherously. He simply did not resemble an expert from an upright and righteous power. Instead, he seemed to be someone from a demonic sect who would not shrink from any crimes.

“I say that’s fine. Hahahaha!!!” The Wine-Meat Monk voiced his agreement to Zhou Fukong’s suggestion.

The two of them reached an agreement in this.

“Who said that Zhao Hong must die?” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“You’re not planning to kill her?” The crowd asked in unison.

After all, the Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhao Hong were already irreconcilable enemies.

Over the past two years, countless Kong Heavenly Clansmen had died by Zhao Hong’s hand. Many among them were even the Kong Heavenly Clan’s elites.

Thus, the crowd felt that since Zhao Hong was captured by Kong Doumoyuan, then with Kong Doumoyuan’s personality, he would definitely not spare her.

“As long as she obediently listens to me, I will spare her dog life. However, if she doesn’t...”

As Kong Doumoyuan said those words, a flash of ruthlessness shone through his eyes.

“Woosh~~~”

Suddenly, a cold flash appeared in Kong Doumoyuan’s hand. That cold flash pierced directly through Zhao Hong’s abdomen.

It was a sword, a silver sword.

“My, Brother Moyuan, why would you act immediately after saying that you will? Don’t you have any tender, protective feelings for the fairer sex?”

“That’s right. Look, you’ve wasted such a decent beauty just like this.”

Witnessing that scene, Zhou Fukong and the Wine-Meat Monk both criticized Kong Doumoyuan's action.

Although they were criticizing Kong Doumoyuan, they did not have the slightest bit of sympathy on their faces. Instead... they had ridiculing smiles on their faces.

To them, this was simply a show, a show that they enjoyed watching.

“Heh...”

Although Zhao Hong's abdomen was pierced through by the sword, she did not reveal the slightest expression of pain. Instead, the corners of her lips were raised into a cold smile.

“I'll make you unable to smile very soon.”

The sword in Kong Doumoyuan's hand trembled slightly. Then, an electric current emerged from the sword and entered Zhao Hong's body.

“Zzzzz~”

The next moment, being shocked by electricity, Zhao Hong's body started to shake nonstop. A faint amount of smoke even emerged from her body. Then, she was actually unable to endure the shock, and half kneeled on the ground whilst blood started to involuntarily flow from the corner of her mouth.

“This demonic woman truly possesses quite the endurance. She actually did not even cry out once,” Zhou Fukong said.

“No, it's not that she possesses high endurance. Instead, I just haven't put forth enough power,” After Kong Doumoyuan said those words, the electric current once again emerged from his sword and started to flow steadily into Zhao Hong's body.

“Ahhh~”

This time around, even Zhao Hong was unable to contain herself from letting out a miserable and painful scream.

Her one leg that was supporting her body also grew weak, becoming unable to support her. She fell on both knees, curled over and started to shake violently as she screamed in the cage.

“Zhao Hong, let me tell you this. This sword of mine is called the Punishment Lightning Strike Sword. It specializes in torturing others.”

“Regardless of whether or not you’re a Martial Ancestor or an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, the pain brought forth by my Punishment Lightning Strike Sword is something that you will not be able to endure.”

“If you are sensible, then tell me honestly where that Wang Qiang and where that Chu Feng are right now.”

“If you tell me where they are and bring me to them, I will spare your life,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“Hehe...” Zhao Hong let out a sneer. Then, she said two words. Those were the only two words she had said ever since she had been captured by Kong Doumoyuan.

“Keep dreaming!!!”

“Very well, I’ll have you know whether or not I’m the one dreaming or you’re the one dreaming.”

“Zzzzz~”

As Kong Doumoyuan spoke, his Punishment Lightning Strike Sword once again let out an enormous electric current.

Zhao Hong started screaming miserably again. Not only that, but her fair skin was also charred black from the electric torture. A burning smell wafted from her.

Her beautiful face was also ruined beyond recognition.

“It was such a beautiful face, what a waste,” Zhou Fukong sighed and shook his head.

As he spoke, he took out an item from his Cosmos Sack.

It was a box. After he opened the box, pitch-black substances could be seen moving about inside. If one were to look closely, one would see that they were ant-like substances. However, they were much smaller than ants. Those were insects.

“Since your face is already ruined, there’s no need for me to have tender, protective feelings for the fairer sex. Since she is unwilling to confess, have her experience the ferociousness of these little treasures of mine.”

As Zhou Fukong spoke, he raised his box toward Zhao Hong. Immediately, the bugs from the box pounced toward Zhao Hong.

“Ahhh!!!”

At that moment, Zhao Hong’s screams grew even more miserable.

Not only was she suffering the torture of being shocked, she was also suffering the torture of being bitten by bugs.

The pain brought forth by those two things were all things that ordinary people could not possibly endure.

“Seems like Brother Moyuan was correct. This Zhao Hong is only this much. She is simply unworthy for us to be afraid of.”

“Hahaha...”

Even though they were watching a woman undergoing such torture and pain, there was not a single person among the crowd pleading for leniency for her.

On the contrary, they were all acting as if they were enjoying a show. Not only that, but they also had ridiculing smiles on their faces.

“Wuuaoou~~~”

Right at that moment, a roar that punctured through the horizon suddenly sounded from outside.

Not only was that voice ear-piercing, but it was also filled with intimidation. That was not a roar from an ordinary ferocious beast. Rather, it was a dragon's roar.

That sudden roar caused the expressions of the crowd to all change. Immediately, they all turned their gazes toward the outside of the palace.

“That is?!!!”

Upon seeing what they saw, the crowd's expression all changed enormously.

It was an enormous azure dragon. That azure dragon was currently galloping in the sky and rapidly approaching the island.

A figure was standing atop the azure dragon.

That person's clothes were fluttering in the air. His long hair was dancing with the wind. However, he stood completely stable on the head of that enormous azure dragon.

From a glance, even the enormous dragon appeared to be insignificant when compared to that individual. That individual was giving off the airs of a ruler.

Furthermore, when the crowd met that individual's eyes, they all felt fear in their hearts, and goosebumps emerged on their bodies.

It was killing intent. Boundless killing intent emerged from Chu Feng's eyes!!!

Chapter 2511 - Lightning Splitting The Sky

---

“That’s Chu Feng? He really appeared again!!!”

The members of the crowd were all astonished. After all, Chu Feng was much more famous-and had many more controversies surrounding him-than Zhao Hong or Wang Qiang.

After Chu Feng disappeared two years ago, he was never seen again. Thus, when Chu Feng appeared before the crowd, their astonishment was incomparable to when they saw Zhao Hong.

“This Chu Feng possesses enormous killing intent!!!”

At the same time as they were astonished by Chu Feng’s appearance, the crowd was deterred by Chu Feng’s killing intent.

Even though the majority of the people present were peak Martial Ancestor-level experts, there were still many that started to cower before Chu Feng’s killing intent.

Firstly, they all knew that Chu Feng must have come for Zhao Hong.

Then, and most importantly, the killing intent Chu Feng was emitting from his eyes truly caused their blood to run cold.

Seeing that some among the crowd had started to panic, Zhou Fukong mocked, “You all are simply too timid, how could you be scared by this Chu Feng?”

“This Chu Feng has come at the perfect time. Today, I will have him experience what an actual genius is,” As Dugu Jianxu spoke, a ‘clank’ was heard as he pulled out a sword from behind his back.

That sword was silvery white. Not only was it forged exquisitely, but the aura that it emitted was also capable of affecting the weather.

It was an Ancestral Armament, a superb quality Ancestral Armament.

At the same time he pulled out the Ancestral Armament, Dugu Jianxu soared into the sky and flew out of the island.

“Brother Dugu, I have wanted to take on this Chu Feng for a long time now. There’s no need for you to act today, why don’t you allow me to take care of him?” The Wine-Meat Monk also soared into the sky.

Although many among the crowd were frightened by Chu Feng’s killing intent, Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk were not at all afraid.

On the contrary, the two of them were both extremely eager to fight Chu Feng, and even started to scramble with one another to be the one to take care of Chu Feng.

At that moment, Chu Feng was growing closer and closer to the island. He had already managed to see the situation inside the island with his Heaven’s Eyes.

The reason why Chu Feng was so furious was precisely because he saw the miserable condition Zhao Hong was in.

With his close friend being tortured, how could Chu Feng not be furious?

“Chu Feng, Zhao Hong has only suffered superficial wounds. Her life is not in danger.”

“Thus, don’t be overly emotional. You must maintain your calm. After all, your opponent is Kong Doumoyuan,” Her Lady Queen reminded Chu Feng.

She knew very well that even though Chu Feng was very strong, he was, after all, only a rank eight Martial Ancestor, whereas that Kong Doumoyuan was a rank nine Martial Ancestor.

Even though Chu Feng possessed an extremely powerful secret skill, the Ancient Era’s War Axe, there was no way for anyone to know whether or not Kong Doumoyuan might have a trump card of his own before they actually battled one another.

If one was not calm, it would be very easy for one to lose one's judgment. Something like that would be very detrimental to Chu Feng.

"Eggy, you don't have to worry, I have this under control."

After hearing what Her Lady Queen said, Chu Feng's killing intent lessened greatly.

At that moment, he had arrived before the island. He was only several thousand meters away from Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk.

Upon reaching that place, Chu Feng stopped flying forward. He planned to first take care of them before going to save Zhao Hong.

As Chu Feng anticipated, Kong Doumoyuan, Zhou Fukong and all of the others in the palace hall also flew out of the island.

At that moment, the two parties were standing in confrontation with one another.

"I have traveled far and wide looking for you, never would I have expected to find you this easily. And here I was worrying about how to find you, never would I have expected that you'd be so daring to come over by yourself."

"Very well, I'll have you accompany Zhao Hong and die with her today."

"As for that Wang Qiang, having been poisoned by me, he will not likely live for long either. Soon, the three of you will reunite with one another in the underworld."

Kong Doumoyuan arrived at the forefront of the crowd and looked at Chu Feng with an expression filled with contempt. His gaze seemed to be indicating that he would definitely be able to defeat Chu Feng, that Chu Feng would die by his hands.

"Indeed, there are people who are going to die today," Chu Feng said coldly.

“What arrogance!” As Kong Doumoyuan spoke, he unleashed his peak Martial Ancestor-level aura.

Once his aura emerged, not only did it bring forth great wind that blow away the clouds, but the sky also turned dark. Thick lightning strikes that looked like lightning dragons emerged from the black clouds and struck down in all directions. Their might was extremely shocking.

“Brother Moyuan, is there a need to use an ox-butcher knife to kill a chicken?”

“For a mere Chu Feng, there is simply no need for you to act. I, Dugu Jianxu, will be able to take care of him on your behalf,” Dugu Jianxu said.

“I have always wanted to confront this Chu Feng. You all should have me take care of him today,” The Wine-Meat Monk said with a sigh.

“Two ignorant fools. They’re actually fighting over taking care of you. With their strength, aren’t they simply courting death??”

“They have simply been driven insane by the desire to become famous,” Her Lady Queen mocked.

She knew very well that this Dugu Jianxu and Wine-Meat Monk were only fighting over the chance to take care of Chu Feng because they wanted to seek fame in being able to defeat Chu Feng.

After all, Chu Feng was extremely famous at the moment. If they were able to defeat Chu Feng, they would most definitely become much more famous.

Her Lady Queen knew very well what sort of strength Chu Feng possessed. It would be one thing if a Heavenly Bloodline possessor were to challenge him. However, neither Dugu Jianxu or the Wine-Meat Monk were Heavenly Bloodline possessors. Even if they were both peak Martial Ancestors, it would still be impossible for them to be a match for Chu Feng.

Of course, Chu Feng had been concealing his cultivation the entire time. Thus, they had no idea what sort of cultivation Chu Feng possessed.

Perhaps they believed that Chu Feng's cultivation was very weak, and were so confident because of that. They all thought Chu Feng to be a pushover, and were fighting over the opportunity to completely dominate Chu Feng.

“Monk, your cultivation is higher than mine. Thus, it is better that I go first. If I cannot take care of him, it'll be your turn.”

“Merely, I'm afraid that you will not be able to have the chance to take care of Chu Feng.”

As Dugu Jianxu spoke, he soared forth toward Chu Feng with sword in hand.

At that moment, the Ancestral Armament sword in his hand was emitting a dazzling light formed from enormous martial power.

“Ancestral Taboo: Sword Sea Onslaught!!!”

Dugu Jianxu pointed his sword forward. In an instant, countless sword silhouettes of light emerged. They overlapped one another and began to fly toward Chu Feng to hunt and kill him.

There were simply too many sword silhouettes. It was like a wave composed of swords. In succession, the sword waves filled the sky as they flew toward Chu Feng. It was an exceptionally ferocious attack.

“He actually used the Ancestral Taboo: Sword Sea Onslaught from the get-go?”

Many people were extremely shocked by that scene.

They all knew very well what the Ancestral Taboo: Sword Sea Onslaught represented. The Ancestral Taboo: Sword Sea Onslaught was one of the most powerful martial skills from the Immortal Sword School.

At that moment, the Wine-Meat Monk had an upset expression on his face. He cursed in his heart, ‘This brat Dugu Jianxu used his strongest killing attack from the very start. He’s simply planning to kill Chu Feng directly, and not give me the opportunity to fight at all. Damned scheming bastard.’

As the Ancestral Taboo: Sword Sea Onslaught was one of the strongest attacks from the Immortal Sword School, its might was naturally no small matter.

At the moment when the crowd exclaimed in surprise, the Ancestral Taboo: Sword Sea Onslaught had completely engulfed Chu Feng. Powerful energy ripples began to rise in succession, wreaking havoc throughout that region of the sky. As the waves of energy ripples emerged, the surrounding seawater was blown thousands of meters high.

However, regardless of how powerful the energy ripples or the hurricane-level wind it brought forth might be, they were unable to harm anyone present.

At that moment, the crowd were staring at the water raining from above, as well as the enormous waves and hurricane-level winds. Their gazes were fixed onto the location where Chu Feng was at.

They had all used their various abilities to observe the situation Chu Feng was in right now.

However, no matter how hard they tried, they were unable to detect Chu Feng’s aura at all.

“Could it be that Chu Feng has died?”

Unable to see Chu Feng’s body and unable to feel Chu Feng’s aura, the crowd all thought that Chu Feng had been killed by the Ancestral Taboo: Sword Sea Onslaught’s myriad of sword silhouettes of light.

“Seems like Chu Feng is only this strong. His reputation is truly ill-deserved.”

After feeling that Chu Feng had already died, many people revealed disappointed expressions.

“Humph, sure enough, he’s unable to withstand a single attack,”
As for Dugu Jianxu, he revealed a proud smile.

He felt that since he had defeated Chu Feng, he would definitely become much more famous, so famous that his fame would surpass Kong Doumoyuan’s and the others’ to become the most famous individual beneath True Immortals in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

“Zzzzz~”

Right at that moment, a dazzling ray of lightning suddenly emerged before Dugu Jianxu.

The next moment, all the people present were stunned.

It was Chu Feng. Without any sign, Chu Feng had appeared before Dugu Jianxu.

Furthermore, behind Chu Feng’s back were his Thunder Wings, and on his body was his Thunder Armor. His aura had surpassed even that of rank nine Martial Ancestors.

That said, he was still a Martial Ancestor, and had yet to truly reach the True Immortal realm.

However, his current level of cultivation was something that Dugu Jianxu was far from being able to compare to.

Most importantly, Chu Feng’s hand had pierced through Dugu Jianxu’s dantian.

His hand had pieced into the place where Dugu Jianxu’s cultivation was stored!!!

Chapter 2512 - Ruthlessness

“Chu Feng’s cultivation has actually reached this level?”

The crowd was extremely astonished. Although Chu Feng only managed to possess the strength to suppress Dugu Jianxu after utilizing his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, the crowd was able to tell with a single glance that Chu Feng’s actual cultivation had reached the same level as Dugu Jianxu, that he was a rank eight Martial Ancestor.

However, Chu Feng was clearly only a Half Martial Ancestor when he had disappeared two years ago. Yet, in merely two years, his cultivation actually increased to such a level. This level of progress was simply incredible.

“Chu Feng, you... you... what are you planning to do?”

“If you are to cripple my cultivation, my Immortal Sword School will definitely not let you get away with it.”

At that moment, Dugu Jianxu started to panic. After all, Chu Feng’s hand had already pierced into his dantian, and he could completely destroy his cultivation at any moment.

At that moment, it was as if Chu Feng had captured his lifeline. As such, he had no choice but to be afraid. After all, that was the cultivation that he had trained many years to obtain.

“Did you think that I, Chu Feng, am someone who is scared of your Immortal Sword School?” Chu Feng looked at Dugu Jianxu with an extremely mocking gaze.

Seeing that gaze, Dugu Jianxu’s heart tightened. He suddenly realized how foolish he was.

Chu Feng did not even fear the Kong Heavenly Clan. Naturally, he would also not fear his Immortal Sword School. Thus, it was truly ridiculous for him to try to threaten Chu Feng with his power.

“Chu Feng, there are neither grievances nor hatred between us. As for my earlier attack, I had merely made it so with the intention of swapping pointers with you,” Seeing that threatening Chu Feng was useless, Dugu Jianxu began to utilize soft words.

“Before today, there were indeed no grievances nor hatred between us. Never have I thought of making you my enemy or taking your life.”

“However, when you attacked me earlier, you did not start off with a lenient attack. Instead, you wanted to take my life from the very beginning.”

“If it wasn’t for the fact that I am stronger than you, my life would’ve already been lost,” Chu Feng said those words one at a time with an extremely cold tone.

Seeing that Chu Feng was determined to kill, Dugu Jianxu started to shiver in fear. He who used to be filled with arrogance had no choice but to lower himself. He hurriedly begged, “Chu Feng, I...”

However, right after he opened his mouth, ruthlessness emerged in Chu Feng’s eyes, “Towards people like you, I, Chu Feng, am never one to be lenient.”

After he finished saying those words, Chu Feng’s hand that was pierced into Dugu Jianxu’s dantian suddenly trembled. Then, a ‘bang’ was heard.

Dugu Jianxu’s dantian has been completely destroyed by Chu Feng.

After Chu Feng finished doing that, he pulled his arm back.

“No!!!!”

Dugu Jianxu let out a hysterical scream. Then, he waved his fists toward Chu Feng.

Chu Feng moved slightly to the side, and Dugu Jianxu’s fists landed in air.

Dugu Jianxu was no match for Chu Feng back when he had had cultivation. Now that his martial cultivation was crippled by Chu Feng, how could he possibly be a match for him?

At that moment, Dugu Jianxu felt that the great majority of his cultivation had already escaped him. In utter despair, he half knelt in midair with a ‘putt.’

Dugu Jianxu was still able to fly by relying on the remaining power within him. However, he would never again be the same Dugu Jianxu, no longer would he be a rank eight Martial Ancestor.

“I am already showing you mercy by sparing your life,” Chu Feng looked at Dugu Jianxu without the slightest bit of sympathy.

The reason for that was because he knew very well that if it wasn’t for the fact that he was stronger than Dugu Jianxu, he would’ve already died by Dugu Jianxu’s hands. There was no reason for Chu Feng to sympathize with someone like him.

“It’s your turn now,” Chu Feng cast his gaze to the Wine-Meat Monk.

At that moment, the Wine-Meat Monk smiled wryly. He hurriedly waved his hand and said, “Brother Chu Feng, I was merely joking around earlier. You must not take my joke seriously.”

The Wine-Meat Monk was truly scared. Even Dugu Jianxu was so easily defeated by Chu Feng. Thus, he knew that he would not be a match for Chu Feng.

After all, Chu Feng had revealed his strength. He possessed the cultivation of a rank eight Martial Ancestor and possessed the Heavenly Bloodline’s power of Thunder Armor, Thunder Wings and a heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation.

As such, Chu Feng was naturally not an opponent that he, an ordinary peak Martial Ancestor, could match.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s figure shifted, and he disappeared.

When he reappeared, he arrived beside the Wine-Meat Monk.

“You!!!”

At that moment, the Wine-Meat Monk’s expression changed enormously. He was able to feel clear pain in his dantian.

Upon looking, it was not only the Wine-Meat Monk who was shocked, but the surrounding crowd was also shocked. Chu Feng had pierced the same hand he had pierced into Dugu Jianxu’s dantian earlier into the Wine-Meat Monk’s dantian.

How could that be considered to be a hand? It was simply a sharp blade capable of penetrating everything. Even though the Wine-Meat Monk was a rank nine Martial Ancestor, he was still unable to contend against Chu Feng’s hand.

“Ahhh!!!”

The Wine-Meat Monk suddenly let out a miserable scream.

He ended up suffering the same fate as Dugu Jianxu. His dantian was destroyed by Chu Feng, and he could only continue to fly in the sky by relying on the remaining power within him.

“I did not attack you, why did you cripple my cultivation?!” The Wine-Meat Monk shouted angrily.

“For scum like you, I am already being lenient by only crippling your cultivation,” After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he looked to Zhou Fukong, “It’s your turn now.”

“Brother Chu Feng, you’re being too excessive here, no? At the very least, the two of them were fighting with one another to take care of you. Thus, it could be understandable for you to cripple their cultivations.”

“However, I have never done anything to you,” Zhou Fukong said with an innocent expression.

“Where did the poisonous bugs on Zhao Hong’s body come from?” Chu Feng asked.

Hearing those words, Zhou Fukong’s expression changed. He knew that he would not be able to dodge a battle today.

However, after verifying that Chu Feng was determined to fight him, he was not terrified, and instead sneered.

“Chu Feng, while they are afraid of you, I am not,” After Zhou Fukong finished saying those words, a buzzing sound was heard as his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared on him.

As his cultivation was that of a rank nine Martial Ancestor to begin with, after he activated his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, his aura actually surpassed Chu Feng’s.

Right at that moment, Kong Doumoyuan suddenly said, “Brother Zhou, I should be the one to take care of this Chu Feng.”

“Very well,” The lightning in Zhou Fukong’s eyes gradually vanished. His Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings disappeared, and he also moved back.

Upon seeing this, the others present also moved back. They all knew that a great battle between Chu Feng and Kong Doumoyuan was about to occur.

As both of them possessed extraordinary strength, they did not wish to be implicated by it.

“Chu Feng, you dared to injure my brothers in my territory. You are simply not placing me in your eyes,” Kong Doumoyuan said to Chu Feng.

“Heh...” Chu Feng laughed mockingly.

“What are you laughing about?” Kong Doumoyuan asked.

“It’s one thing for Dugu Jianxu, but do you dare tell me that you were unable to save that monk?”

“You could have saved them, yet you didn’t. And here you still have the nerve to address them as brothers?” Chu Feng said coldly.

“That’s true. With Kong Doumoyuan’s ability, he should’ve been able to save them.”

After hearing what Chu Feng said, the crowd started to spiritedly discuss the matter. In fact, Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk even started to look at Kong Doumoyuan with resentful gazes.

“Kong Doumoyuan, we have considered you our brother, yet you actually exploited us!” The Wine-Meat Monk spoke furiously.

That’s right, he had exploited them.

Regardless of whether or not Chu Feng lived or died today, as long as he crippled Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk’s cultivations, he would’ve made enemies of the Immortal Sword School and the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple.

The people present were all intelligent individuals. Thus, they all knew why Kong Doumoyuan did not save his so-called brothers.

Being blamed by Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk, Kong Doumoyuan did not bother to even look at them.

It was as if Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk were simply unable to enter his discerning eye at all. At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan’s gaze was completely focused on Chu Feng. He said, “You are the ruthless and vicious one. You were the one to harm others, yet you’re actually trying to disgrace me? Chu Feng, today... no matter what, I will not spare you.”

“You’re speaking as if you were definitely going to spare me if I didn’t do these things today,” Chu Feng smiled with contempt.

“That’s true. We cannot coexist. There is no reason for me to spare you. However, I, Kong Doumoyuan, have never been one to bully the weak.”

“Since we are going to battle today, I will not defeat you by relying on my superior cultivation. Today... I will battle you with the same battle power.”

After Kong Doumoyuan finished saying those words, his Thunder Armor appeared on his body. Instantly... his cultivation surpassed that of ordinary peak Martial Ancestors.

Although he was unable to reach the True Immortal realm, his current battle power was on par with Chu Feng.

And that was when he was not using his Thunder Wings.

“Only the Thunder Armor and not the Thunder Wings? Are you certain that you want to fight me like this?” Chu Feng asked.

“I always keep my words,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“Then you will definitely regret it,” Chu Feng said.

“What arrogance!” Kong Doumoyuan shouted. Then, he revealed an Ancestral Armament spear and charged forth toward Chu Feng.

“Humph,” Chu Feng snorted. The Stormwind Edge was already in his hand. He also charged forth to confront Kong Doumoyuan.

In an instant, the two fighters collided!!!

Chapter 2513 - Zhan Haichuan's Successor

---

The people present were all able to bear witness to exactly how powerful Chu Feng and Kong Doumoyuan were.

The energy ripples that were capable of toppling mountains and overturning the seas, the enormous waves that wreaked havoc through heaven and earth both showed and proved the strength the two fighters possessed.

This was a true battle of peak Martial Ancestors. This was a battle between two of the strongest individuals beneath True Immortals.

“Chu Feng’s speed of progress is truly rapid. His battle experience is also astonishing.”

“Before, I had never believed any of the rumors regarding Chu Feng. However, upon seeing him today, this child is truly capable of making one have a whole new level of respect toward him.”

At that moment, not a single person present dared to question Chu Feng’s abilities.

The reason for that was because they were convinced by Chu Feng’s strength. Apart from Heavenly Bloodline possessors, even though they were also peak Martial Ancestors, they were simply unable to contend against the current Chu Feng.

“Brothers, between Chu Feng and Brother Moyuan, who do you all think will win today’s battle?” As the crowd watched the battle, someone raised a question.

“If Brother Moyuan is to go all-out, that Chu Feng will naturally be no match against him. However, he deliberately refused to use his Thunder Wings to keep his strength equal to Chu Feng’s. As such, it will be very difficult to determine who will win and who will lose,” Someone revealed a deferent expression.

“I think Brother Moyuan will win. No matter what, Brother Moyuan is known as the strongest beneath the True Immortals in the Kong Heavenly Clan. That reputation of his is not baseless.”

“Since he is capable of shouldering that reputation, this naturally means that he possesses the strength. As for Chu Feng, even though he has shocked us with his abilities today, it remains that he is very young,” Someone felt that Kong Doumoyuan would win.

“That might not necessarily be the case. After all, Chu Feng possesses many past achievements, and his battle records are simply astonishing.”

“The fact that he is capable of doing all that means that he is no ordinary character, but is instead a genius. We cannot judge him like we do others. As such, I feel that Chu Feng has a chance to win,” There were also people among the crowd who felt that Chu Feng would win.

At that moment, people actually started to argue due to their differences in opinion as to who would win.

While the crowd was arguing, the battle between Chu Feng and Kong Doumoyuan grew increasingly more intense.

At the beginning, the two of them had fought with one another with their weapons. Then, they started to use martial skills, and then Taboo Martial Skills. Their attacks grew more and more ferocious, and more and more destructive.

At that moment, the two fighters were both using Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills.

Kong Doumoyuan had unleashed an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill that sent forth a myriad of ferocious beasts. Densely packed, the ferocious beasts were flying in the sky and attacking Chu Feng from all sides.

Most importantly, being controlled by Kong Doumoyuan, those ferocious beasts were not impulsive, but rather attacking Chu Feng in a strategic manner.

That said, the Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill Chu Feng had unleashed was even more dazzling.

Chu Feng's Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill was four war gods dazzling with golden light. With humanoid appearances, they each stood a hundred meters tall and were clad in armor.

Not only was their armor dazzling with light, but their armor also covered their entire body. As such, one simply could not see their faces. It was only their fierce eyes that emitted a red glint that were visible.

At that moment, the four golden-armored war gods were standing around Chu Feng. Regardless of how many ferocious beasts there were, they were simply unable to approach Chu Feng in the slightest.

All those that tried to approach Chu Feng met tragic deaths by the four golden-armored war god's giant axes.

"Everyone, look at that, look at Chu Feng's martial skill...!"

After observing for some time, someone cried out in alarm while staring at Chu Feng's martial skill.

It was a voice of disbelief...

"What about it?" Someone voiced their confusion.

"According to legend, Zhan Haichuan, the absolute ruler of the Hundred Refinements ordinary Realm back then, possessed a famous martial skill by the name of Ancestral Taboo: Four Heavenly Guards."

"That Ancestral Taboo: Four Heavenly Guards summoned four golden-armored guardians to fight for him," That person said.

"You mean to say that the martial skill Chu Feng is using is that Ancestral Taboo: Four Heavenly Guards?"

"That is impossible. Zhan Haichuan is from the Ancient Era's War Clan. His abilities are all from the Ancient Era's War Clan."

"Furthermore, ever since he became famous throughout the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he never took a disciple. Thus, after he disappeared, his various abilities also disappeared with him. No one has ever used them again. As such... how could this Chu Feng be able to use Zhan Haichuan's signature martial skill?" Someone voiced their disbelief.

"Senior Heng Hui, haven't you been studying Senior Zhan Haichuan the entire time? You should know the characteristics of his martial skills, no?" At that moment, someone turned their gaze toward an old man among the crowd.

That old man had barely any hair left on his head. Not only was he hunchbacked, but he was also holding onto a cane.

However, that cane of his was a bit frightening; it was made out of human bones, and reeked of blood.

As for that old man, his name was Old Freak Heng Hui. He was a very infamous monster in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

The reason why he was infamous was because he possessed a strange craving. That is, he was fond of eating human flesh.

Apart from human flesh, he was not interested in any other culinary delicacies.

That said, apart from his craving for human flesh, Old Freak Heng Hui possessed another interest. That is, he was a Zhan Haichuan nerd.

He considered Zhan Haichuan his idol since he was a child. After his cultivation grew stronger, he began to inquire about Zhan Haichuan's various achievements and to research Zhan Haichuan's origins.

Thus, if one wanted to ask who was the most knowledgeable about Zhan Haichuan in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm at that moment, then the first answer people would give was most definitely Old Freak Heng Hui.

“Senior Heng Hui, say, does Chu Feng’s current martial skill resemble Senior Zhan Haichuan’s Ancestral Taboo: Four Heavenly Guards?” Another curious individual asked.

Faced with these curious gazes, Old Freak Heng Hui did not answer their question. Instead, he opened his mouth.

When his mouth was opened, one could see that all of his teeth were actually razor sharp. Those were not beast teeth, but rather human teeth. Merely, they were forcibly ground and polished to their current sharpness. At a glance, his teeth appeared very strange and frightening.

“Humph!!!” Old Freak Heng Hui first let out a strange snort. Then, he raised his head and revealed a very aloof yet displeased expression. Then, he said, “You bunch of rude little brats actually remembered this old man now?”

“Eh... Senior Heng Hui, your status has always been very high in our hearts. Since when have we forgotten about you?”

“That’s right. Senior Heng Hui, you have always been this junior’s idol. How could this junior dare be rude toward you? This is the present that I’ve prepared for you. Merely, I did not have the time to hand it to you yet.”

At that moment, the crowd suddenly recalled that that Old Freak Heng Hui was a narrow-minded individual.

Thus, many people started to flatter him. Furthermore, one by one, they started to take out gifts to hand to Old Freak Heng Hui.

As for Old Freak Heng Hui, he accepted all of the gifts without hesitation. After receiving everything, he nodded in a satisfied manner, “That’s more like it.”

“Then, Senior Heng Hui, please have a look. Is Chu Feng’s martial skill Senior Zhan Haichuan’s Ancestral Taboo: Four Heavenly Guards?” The crowd asked.

“There’s no need,” Old Freak Heng Hui’s neck twisted to the side, and he did not even bother to look. Instead, he cast his gaze elsewhere.

“.....”

Witnessing that scene, the crowd all felt annoyed. They complained in their hearts, ‘Old Freak Heng Hui is truly avaricious and insatiable. We have already treated him so well, yet he still continues to make things difficult for us. It’s clear that he thinks that our gifts are insufficient.’

At the moment when the crowd were voicing their complaints in their hearts and were thinking about joining hands to take care of Old Freak Heng Hui, he spoke again, “Not only is the martial skill Chu Feng using right now Lord Zhan Haichuan’s martial skill, several other martial skills he used earlier were also martial skills that Lord Zhan Haichuan had frequently used.”

“Ah?” Hearing those words, the crowd were astonished, “Senior Heng Hui, are you certain?”

“This old man has paid close attention to everything. I am absolutely certain,” Old Freak Heng Hui said.

“Senior, then, you mean to say...?” The crowd asked in unison.

“What I’m saying is that this Chu Feng has obtained Lord Zhan Haichuan’s legacy, he is Lord Zhan Haichuan’s successor,” Old Freak Heng Hui said.

Chapter 2514 - Clan Protection Martial Skill

---

“Ssss~~~”

At that moment, the crowd were all unable to contain themselves from sucking in a mouthful of cold air.

If those words were spoken by someone else, they would definitely not believe them. However, it was Old Freak Heng Hui who said those words. As such, they had no choice but to believe it.

However, upon thinking that Chu Feng actually managed to obtain Zhan Haichuan's legacy to become Zhan Haichuan's successor, they were unable to contain their astonishment.

“Two years ago, Chu Feng obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance. It was already something that caused everyone to feel envious.”

“I truly never expected that he would actually also obtain Lord Zhan Haichuan's legacy. Exactly what is the origin of this child? How could he possess such enormous luck?”

The more the crowd thought about it, the more astonished they became. Even though they were experienced and knowledgeable individuals, they were still unable to calm themselves.

Who were Zhan Haichuan and Grandmaster Kai Hong? They were both super experts who ruled over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm in their respective eras.

As for Zhan Haichuan, his fame was even greater than Grandmaster Kai Hong's.

And now, Chu Feng actually became the successor to both Zhan Haichuan and Grandmaster Kai Hong.

Not to mention the others, merely his luck was already something that others would find incredible.

“Your martial skills are Zhan Haichuan's?”

The discussion from the bystanders entered Kong Doumoyuan's ears and caused his expression to change too. He actually directly questioned Chu Feng.

"What if they are and what if they're not?" Chu Feng said in a disapproving manner, and then smiled with contempt.

"In that case, you've simply not obtained Zhan Haichuan's inheritance. Humph, that's right, how could trash like you possibly obtain Lord Zhan Haichuan's acknowledgement?" At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan revealed a smile of ease.

Evidently, he personally did not wish for Chu Feng to obtain Zhan Haichuan's inheritance.

"I'm afraid that I'll have to disappoint you. The many secret skills that I've used earlier are all from the Ancient Era's War Clan."

"Although I am not Zhan Haichuan's successor... I have obtained the Ancient Era's War Clan's teachings," Chu Feng said.

"Ah! It's actually real!!!"

"Even he himself admitted to it, it must absolutely be true."

"This is truly unimaginable. Could this Chu Feng be a destined deity? Else, how could he be this lucky?"

The surrounding crowd burst into an uproar.

This was not only those that were purely observing the battle, as even Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk, who had their cultivations crippled by Chu Feng, revealed dumbfounded expressions.

The reason for that was because this matter was truly huge. This was already no longer an issue of talent. Rather, the issue became the fact that Chu Feng had managed to obtain the acknowledgement of both Zhan Haichuan and Grandmaster Kai Hong.

How many people in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm did not believe in Chu Feng's accomplishments, and looked down on him?

However, from that day forward, they would all be useless. Those people's questioning of the validity of Chu Feng's accomplishments would all be worthless.

When even Zhan Haichuan and Grandmaster Kai Hong had acknowledged someone, what could their questioning possibly amount to?

"Good, good, good. This is even better! Today, I will seize your inheritance and make everything that's yours mine!"

Kong Doumoyuan suddenly grew incomparably furious. His anger originated from his jealousy toward Chu Feng. He was truly upset by Chu Feng's luck.

At the same time as he grew furious, he flipped his palm, and another Ancestral Armament spear appeared in his hand.

The true powers of Ancestral Armaments were something that only Martial Ancestors could unleash. In other words, Ancestral Armaments could be said to be the greatest assistance to Martial Ancestors.

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan was using two Ancestral Armament spears simultaneously. As such, his battle power greatly increased.

After his battle power increased, Kong Doumoyuan's martial skills also grew more ferocious. In fact, it seemed like the size of those ferocious beasts had also increased.

Most importantly, a whirlwind appeared above Kong Doumoyuan.

That whirlwind was black. It was very powerful, and caused space itself to distort. Moreover, it was emitting an extremely frightening aura. It was as if that dark black whirlwind was capable of devouring everything.

“That’s an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill, what a powerful Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill. Not only is Brother Moyuan utilizing two Ancestral Armaments simultaneously, he is actually also using two Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills at once. Furthermore, the other one is actually this powerful too,” Someone cried out in alarm.

He had already realized that the Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill that Kong Doumoyuan was unleashing was even stronger than those ferocious beasts, that it was a higher tier Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill.

At the moment when the crowd were exclaiming in admiration, four more dark black whirlwinds appeared above Kong Doumoyuan in succession.

Adding them together, there were a total of five such black whirlwinds.

Suddenly, an old man among the crowd said, “That’s no ordinary Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill, that is the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Protection Martial Skill, the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash.”

“Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash? Isn’t the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash a slash attack? What Brother Moyuan is using right now are clearly whirlwinds, no?” Someone asked.

“The Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash is composed of black whirlwinds. When one is to attack with the whirlwinds, they will merge into a slash.”

“However, not only does the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash need a long time to set up, but one must also possess very powerful cultivation to support it.”

“Reportedly, this Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash is a martial skill at the pinnacle of Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills. It is said that Martial Ancestors will find it very difficult to use it. Even in the Kong Heavenly Clan, only the True Immortal-level experts know it. I truly never expected that Brother Moyuan had actually grasped the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash.”

“Never did I expect that Brother Moyuan was actually this amazing. His reputation as the strongest below True Immortals is truly well justified.”

“It would appear that even Chu Feng will be destined to suffer a crushing defeat today.”

After verifying that the Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill Kong Doumoyuan was utilizing at that moment was the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Protection Martial Skill, an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill that only the Kong Heavenly Clan’s True Immortals were able to use, the crowd all revealed gazes of admiration as they looked at Kong Doumoyuan.

“Indeed, that is the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash. I have seen a Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elder using it before.”

“However, when that Utmost Exalted Elder was using the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash, eight black whirlwinds appeared in the sky. Brother Moyuan’s Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash has only brought forth five whirlwinds. This means that Brother Moyuan still has yet to completely grasp that martial skill,” Another old man from among the crowd said.

“Quickly, look! Another black whirlwind has appeared! There’s a total of six now!” Suddenly, someone cried out while pointing at the sky.

The crowd looked up. Sure enough, another black whirlwind appeared above Kong Doumoyuan.

At that moment, there were a total of six whirlwinds.

Furthermore, after the sixth whirlwind appeared, a seventh whirlwind also appeared.

“Truly unbelievable! As a Martial Ancestor, he is actually able to form seven whirlwinds?”

“Kong Doumoyuan, is he really just a Martial Ancestor?”

At that moment, the bystanders were all stunned once again. Disbelief filled their eyes.

Merely, their disbelief was not aimed toward Chu Feng, but rather Kong Doumoyuan this time around. Their gazes were all focused onto Kong Doumoyuan.

Sthe exclamations of admiration and gazes of adoration from the crowd, the corners of Kong Doumoyuan’s lips rose into a proud smile.

However, right at that moment, the seventh whirlwind that he was still condensing suddenly dissipated.

“Crap.”

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan’s expression instantly changed. He knew very well that he had been careless and failed to condense the seventh whirlwind. He immediately started to concentrate and focus on condensing the seventh whirlwind again.

However, this time around, no matter how hard he tried, he was unable to condense the seventh whirlwind.

Seeing that Kong Doumoyuan was unable to condense the seventh whirlwind, the crowd that were exclaiming in admiration before all revealed awkward expressions.

It would appear that they had praised him too early, that they had exclaimed in admiration too early.

Chapter 2515 - Stunning Everyone

---

At that moment, the crowd that were crying out in alarm earlier grew absolutely silent.

As for Kong Doumoyuan, he who was originally extremely proud grew incomparably embarrassed.

Humiliating. This was truly too humiliating. It was originally something worth flaunting. Yet now, due to his own carelessness, he had made an embarrassment of himself.

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan, who had always cared deeply about his reputation, felt like killing himself out of shame.

“Cough, cough. Actually, being able to condense six black whirlwinds is already pretty decent.”

“Right, right, right. After all, that’s an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill only True Immortals are capable of unleashing. Brother Moyuan is only a Martial Ancestor. Yet, not only was he able to unleash it, he even managed to condense six whirlwinds, only two whirlwinds short from True Immortal-level experts. This is already extremely amazing.”

Seemingly afraid that Kong Doumoyuan would be placed in a very awkward situation, and because they were truly in admiration, the crowd started to praise Kong Doumoyuan again.

As expected, after hearing those praises, Kong Doumoyuan’s expression was no longer as ugly as before.

“What’s this? You failed? You are truly useless.”

Right at that moment, a voice filled with mockery was suddenly heard.

It was Chu Feng. Chu Feng was the one who had spoken those words.

“What do you mean by that?” Kong Doumoyuan asked furiously.

“What do I mean? Your martial skill is very powerful. However, it requires time to form. I decided not to stop you, and have deliberately given you time to form your martial skill because I wanted to see exactly what sort of martial skill you would bring forth.”

“However, I truly never expected that even though I’ve given you a chance, you would actually be so disappointing, that you actually failed,” Chu Feng shook his head with a disappointed expression.

He was no longer looking at Kong Doumoyuan with a gaze of someone looking at one’s enemy. Rather, he was looking at him as if he were looking at a disappointing fool. The reason for that was because Chu Feng’s eyes were filled with disappointment.

“So Chu Feng actually managed to see through Brother Moyuan’s martial skill, and had deliberately decided not to stop him? This... how confident is he?”

“Could it be that Chu Feng actually possesses a means to handle the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash?”

The crowd came to a sudden realization after hearing what Chu Feng said. They realized that Chu Feng was not foolish, but rather that he had deliberately allowed Kong Doumoyuan to form his martial skill.

“The hell do you know?! I have already successfully unleashed my Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash, how is it a failure?!” Kong Doumoyuan argued.

“You’re actually willing to believe your own lies? Very well, then consider that I never said anything,” Chu Feng shrugged.

“Arrogant brat, I will have you experience the might of my Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash right now!!!” As Kong Doumoyuan spoke, the six black whirlwinds above his head started to fuse with one another.

“Snap~~~”

“Rumble~~~”

At that moment, black clouds were surging in the sky as lightning and thunder galloped about. The fusion of the six whirlwinds brought about a major storm.

Soon, the six whirlwinds fused into a sharp blade that stood horizontally in the sky.

That sharp blade was also black. In the beginning, the blade seemed to be formed of scattered wind. However, it then started to become more substantial.

The more substantial the blade became, the more frightening its aura became.

“Kong Doumoyuan is planning to attack. Why is Chu Feng not doing anything? Is he truly that confident, or is he that arrogant?”

Seeing that Chu Feng’s expression remained unchanged, and he did not do anything to answer Kong Doumoyuan’s Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash that was about to be sent forth toward him, the crowd were confused.

They were unsure as to whether Chu Feng was really confident in being able to take on Kong Doumoyuan’s Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash, or whether Chu Feng was so arrogant that he decided to underestimate Kong Doumoyuan’s Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash.

“Kong Doumoyuan, look, what is this?”

Right when Kong Doumoyuan was about to attack, a large golden sword appeared in Chu Feng’s left hand.

That sword was two feet wide and three meters long. It was larger than even an ordinary person.

Compared to the Stormwind Edge Chu Feng held with his right hand, the sword he took out was many times more domineering. Most importantly, the aura of that sword was actually not at all inferior to the Stormwind Edge in Chu Feng's right hand.

Once the sword appeared, Chu Feng's aura immediately increased by a great amount. After all, Chu Feng was dual-wielding two top quality Ancestral Armaments right now.

"Amazing. Chu Feng is actually able to simultaneously wield two top quality Ancestral Armaments," The crowd gasped in admiration.

Compared to Kong Doumoyuan's Ancestral Armaments, the two Ancestral Armaments Chu Feng was using at that moment were much harder to subdue. They were, after all, two top quality Ancestral Armaments.

"Flame Dragon Greatsword!!!" Compared to the others, Kong Doumoyuan's expression became distorted. Incomparable fury emerged in his eyes. It was as if he was about to spray fire out of his eyes.

"Flame Dragon Greatsword, that's the name of that Ancestral Armament? Strange, why does that name sound so familiar?"

"Wait, Flame Dragon Greatsword, wasn't that the weapon of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Ancestor?"

Suddenly, the crowd recalled a matter.

"Ah? That's actually the Kong Heavenly Clan's ancestor's weapon, the Flame Dragon Greatsword?"

"But... but... wasn't the Flame Dragon Greatsword said to be lost for many years? Why would it be with Chu Feng?"

Once that matter was revealed, the crowd once again became confused.

They knew very well who the Kong Heavenly Clan's ancestor was. He was the person that had brought the Kong Heavenly Clan to its current level of status.

Although the Kong Heavenly Clan's ancestor could not match up to Grandmaster Kai Hong and Zhan Haichuan in the history of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he was an existence that was second only to the two of them.

He was a legendary individual who possessed the ability to rule over an era.

Thus, his Ancestral Armament and his techniques were all things that the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm knew about.

Unfortunately, after the Kong Heavenly Clan's ancestor died, his weapon and his techniques that brought him his fame all disappeared.

Even the Kong Heavenly Clan's descendants had never used them again.

Thus, the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm had all thought that his weapon had already been lost.

Why would a legendary weapon that had been lost for so many years suddenly appear in Chu Feng's hand?

“Rumble~~~”

At the moment when the crowd were astonished and confused, Chu Feng raised the Flame Dragon Greatsword up high.

The next moment, boundless martial power visible to the naked eye shot from the Flame Dragon Greatsword and toward the sky.

“Rumble~~~”

After the martial power was shot forth, it exploded in the sky. In an instant, the entire region was covered in a magnificent golden color.

Soon, black clouds began to gather above Chu Feng. Lightning started to flicker in the clouds.

The fusion of the black clouds and lightning formed a spectacular sight.

Most importantly, those clouds were no ordinary clouds, and that lightning was no ordinary lightning.

Although the clouds and lightning did not appear to be anything but normal, they were emitting extremely frightening auras.

In fact, they were not at all inferior to the aura of Kong Doumoyuan's Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash.

"That martial skill, could it be... that it's the Kong Heavenly Clan's long lost Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill, the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement?"

An old man from among the crowd let out a cry of alarm. There was a tone of disbelief in his cry. Most importantly, that old man had an extremely astonished expression on his face.

"What?! That's the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement? How could that be?!"

That old man's cry of alarm brought forth an uproar amongst the crowd.

The people present knew very well what the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement was.

That was the technique that had allowed the Kong Heavenly Clan's ancestor to become famous, his consummate skill, something that had been lost to the Kong Heavenly Clan for many years.

As such, how could Chu Feng know it? Furthermore, how was he able to unleash it?

After all, it was already incredible that Chu Feng had obtained the Flame Dragon Greatsword.

If the martial skill Chu Feng had used was truly the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement, then it would truly be too astonishing.

At the moment when the crowd were unwilling to believe it to be true, Chu Feng looked to that old man and said slowly, “Nice eyesight. This martial skill of mine is indeed called the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement.”

“Heavens! It’s actually the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement!!!”

At that moment, the people present, regardless of who they might be, and with the exception of Chu Feng, were all stunned.

Chapter 2516 - Heaven-defying Ability

---

Astonishment. The crowd were so astonished that they all felt this to be incredible.

When Chu Feng personally admitted to his martial skill being the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement, the surrounding crowd was all instantly petrified.

At that moment, the crowd had been completely stunned by the situation before them.

What was going on?

Chu Feng's Flame Dragon Greatsword was something that the Kong Heavenly Clan's Ancestor had used.

As for the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement, it was also the Kong Heavenly Clan's Ancestor's most famous martial skill.

Why would these two things that had been lost to the Kong Heavenly Clan for many years suddenly appear in Chu Feng's hands?

Furthermore, who was Chu Feng? He was someone who viewed the Kong Heavenly Clan as his sworn enemy!!!

This dramatic reveal had truly baffled the surrounding crowd.

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan shouted angrily, "Chu Feng, you despicable bastard, so you really were the one to intrude upon our Kong Heavenly Clan's forbidden area!!!"

His furious voice was even more ear-piercing than thunder.

In fact, even his body started to tremble.

Anger, indescribable anger.

As a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan, he knew very well that the Flame Dragon Greatsword and the Ancestral Taboo:

Thundercloud Displacement were not lost.

Rather, they were hidden in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range by their ancestor.

The fact that Chu Feng actually possessed those two things meant that the person to intrude upon the Grief Calamity Mountain Range back then was definitely Chu Feng.

“Despicable bastard? What do you mean by that?” Chu Feng showed a confused expression toward Kong Doumoyuan’s accusation.

“What do you mean? Let me ask you, do you dare tell me where exactly you obtained your Flame Dragon Greatsword and the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement?” Kong Doumoyuan asked furiously.

“That’s right. Exactly where did you obtain them?”

The people in the crowd all turned their gazes to Chu Feng. They all wanted to know the truth.

“Why wouldn’t I dare?” Chu Feng said indifferently.

“Then go ahead and tell me!” Kong Doumoyuan urged angrily.

He wanted everyone to know that Chu Feng had intruded upon their Kong Heavenly Clan’s forbidden area and stolen their Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Protection Treasures.

“This Flame Dragon Greatsword and the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement were imparted to me by Senior Kong Yingyi,” Chu Feng said indifferently.

“This!!!”

Although Chu Feng was completely calm, the surrounding crowd were unable to remain calm.

The reason for that was because they all knew very well that Kong Yingyi was the Kong Heavenly Clan’s ancestor!!!

“You!!!”

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan was so furious that his face turned green. He knew clearly that Chu Feng had stolen their Clan Protection Treasures.

Yet, with the way Chu Feng had explained things, there was a completely different connotation.

Instead of stealing, Chu Feng made it sound as if he had rightfully obtained them.

How could Kong Doumoyuan possibly accept this?

“That senior also stated that his descendants were all incompetent. He had waited many years, but none of his descendants were able to pass through the grand formation he had left behind to obtain his inheritance.”

“He said that since I, on the other hand, managed to pass through his grand formation, I was the fated individual. As such, he decided to pass on his inheritance to me,” Chu Feng said.

“Bullshit! Why would our Kong Heavenly Clan’s ancestor pass on his inheritance to an outsider like you?!” Kong Doumoyuan was so furious that he started to shiver from head to toe.

He felt that Chu Feng was not only making up a story, but he was also insulting their Kong Heavenly Clan at the same time.

“What? So that senior was actually your Kong Heavenly Clan’s ancestor? Then the incompetent descendants that he spoke of also include you, no?” Chu Feng said with a surprised expression.

“Despicable bastard, don’t you show off your so-called ability to spout nonsense. Today... I will use my strength to retrieve all that belongs to our Kong Heavenly Clan.”

After he finished saying those words, the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash over Kong Doumoyuan’s head was slashed toward Chu Feng.

Once the slash was shot forth, it immediately started to rapidly increase in size. In the blink of an eye, it became so enormous that it covered the sky and earth.

As for the aura that it emitted, it was as if it could destroy all of heaven and earth. It was extremely frightening.

Faced with that attack, Chu feng was not to be outdone. “Humph,” He snorted coldly. As his eyes flickered with lightning, the black clouds filled with over ten thousand galloping lightning strikes came flying down while covering the sky.

The might of his attack was actually even stronger than Kong Doumoyuan’s Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash.

“Rumble~~~”

In the blink of an eye, the two colossus-sized attacks collided.

The dark black slash and a pitch-black cloud interweaved together. Apart from the lightning, the only thing one could sense was the gloominess and fearsomeness.

Not to mention the center of the collision, merely the energy ripples caused Chu Feng and Kong Doumoyuan to be beaten back repeatedly.

When even the two of them were unable to withstand the energy ripples, one could very well imagine how disastrous it would be if either martial skill were to land on their bodies.

That said, between a battle of experts, there would inevitably be a victor and a loser. As such, these two Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills said to be peak masterpieces would also have a difference in strength.

Inside the ripples, the black clouds and lightning were decreasing. However, the power from the slash was also decreasing. Moreover, it was decreasing even faster.

After the Blackwind Slash completely disappeared, the Thundercloud Displacement still remained. Furthermore, it began to move toward Kong Doumoyuan.

“Chu Feng has won. As expected of the Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement. Its might has reached such a frightening state. Even the Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash was unable to match up against it.”

The crowd started to exclaim in admiration. After all, the outcome of the showdown between Ancestral Taboos had been determined.

However, they did not think that Kong Doumoyuan would be defeated just like this. The reason for that was because they knew Kong Doumoyuan very well, and knew that he was not someone who would admit defeat just like that.

“Zzzzz~”

Sure enough, at the moment when Chu Feng’s Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement was about reach Kong Doumoyuan, a pair of lightning wings suddenly extended out from behind Kong Doumoyuan’s back.

When the Thunder Wings appeared, Kong Doumoyuan’s battle power instantly increased by a tier.

“Snap~”

Kong Doumoyuan suddenly thrust forth the Ancestral Armament spear that he held in his right hand.

A golden dragon flew out. That golden dragon was extremely mighty and oppressive. It was an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill.

In terms of the martial skill itself, that golden dragon was naturally no match for Chu Feng’s Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement.

However, Kong Doumoyuan’s battle power was extremely strong at the moment; he was an entire tier above Chu Feng.

Furthermore, over half of the power behind Chu Feng's Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement had been neutralized by Kong Doumoyuan's Ancestral Taboo: Blackwind Slash.

Thus, that golden dragon managed to easily pierce through Chu Feng's Ancestral Taboo: Thundercloud Displacement.

The black clouds were scattered as the golden dragon soared into the sky.

“Roar~~~”

The golden dragon roared. With its mouth wide open, intense killing intent and unstoppable might, it began to charge toward Chu Feng to devour him.

Seeing this scene, the crowd felt that the outcome of the match had been decided.

After all, there was a difference of an entire level of battle power between them. Unless Chu Feng possessed a heaven-defying technique, he would definitely not be able to block the incoming attack.

“Rumble~~~”

However, right when the golden dragon was about to approach Chu Feng...

A loud explosion was suddenly heard, and that golden dragon was actually hacked in two.

“That is?!”

At that moment, the crowd was completely shocked. They immediately turned to inspect what had happened.

Upon looking, they discovered that a golden-bright and dazzling giant axe was actually before Chu Feng.

That axe was extremely imposing, and was emitting an indescribable aura.

Most importantly, that giant axe was actually able to easily hack that golden dragon apart. This meant only one thing.

“Chu Feng, he... he... he really possesses a heaven-defying technique! He was actually really able to contend against someone with battle power an entire level above him!!!”

Chapter 2517 - Surprise Attack With Lightning Mark

---

“Kong Doumoyuan, since I, Chu Feng, dared to come here today, that means I possess certainty in being able to fight against you.”

“If you thought that you would be able to defeat me because your cultivation is a level above mine, then you are simply delusional.”

“The battle between you and I... has only just begun.”

As Chu Feng spoke, he controlled the Ancient Era's War Axe and slashed it at Kong Doumoyuan.

With battle power one level above Chu Feng, Kong Doumoyuan would naturally retaliate against Chu Feng's attacks. He began to send Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills toward Chu Feng nonstop.

However, regardless of what sort of Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill he sent forth, they were easily hacked down by Chu Feng.

Seeing that the Ancient Era's War Axe was growing closer and closer to him, Kong Doumoyuan was unable to continue to stand his ground. He began to fall back while continuing to send forth Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills to slow down the incoming Ancient Era's War Axe.

“Bastard!”

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan had a completely unreconciled expression. He was feeling extremely sullen.

Originally, he had thought that he would be able to easily defeat Chu Feng after going all-out. Never did he expect for Chu Feng to take out a thing like that, a thing that was actually able to overcome an entire level of battle power. Not only was Chu Feng able to contend against him, but he was even suppressing him.

“Exactly what is that?! How could it be this ferocious?!”

“This overwhelming aura, this sensation of being under a ruler...”

“That is most definitely not an ordinary martial skill. Even Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills should not be this powerful.”

“Could this be a secret skill?! But, even secret skills shouldn’t be this frighteningly powerful.”

As Chu Feng and Kong Doumoyuan fought, the crowd were unable to calm themselves. They all wanted to know exactly what that technique Chu Feng was using was, and exactly what its origin was for it to be so ferociously powerful, for it to be able to shatter their understanding of martial skills.

“It seems that Chu Feng not only obtained the Ancient Era’s War Clan’s martial skills, he also obtained this sort of thing.”

At the moment when the crowd were all guessing as to exactly what Chu Feng’s Ancient Era’s War Axe was, Old Freak Heng Hui, who had not said anything for a long time, spoke again.

“This is also from the Ancient Era’s War Clan?!”

Old Freak Heng Hui’s words came like a boulder that fell onto the surface of a calm lake. Immediately, a huge wave was raised. All of the members of the crowd turned their gazes toward Old Freak Heng Hui.

“Back then, Lord Zhan Haichuan possessed a true trump card. That was not an ordinary martial skill. Instead, it was a secret skill.”

“That secret skill was called the Ancient Era’s War Spear. Unless he was to not use the Ancient Era’s War Spear, when he did, regardless of how powerful his opponents might be, they would all suffer the same fate of death.”

“Although Chu Feng’s heaven-defying technique is an enormous axe and not an enormous spear, it greatly resembles the recorded descriptions of Lord Zhan Haichuan’s secret technique, the Ancient Era's War Spear.”

“Thus, it is no wonder that axe is this heaven-defyingly powerful. The reason for that is because... that is most definitely a secret skill from the Ancient Era's War Clan,” Old Freak Heng Hui said.

“So that's the case. That's actually a secret skill from the Ancient Era's War Clan. No wonder, no wonder.”

“Chu Feng had obtained the inheritances of Grandmaster Kai Hong, Zhan Haichuan and the Kong Heavenly Clan's Ancestor.”

“When he becomes a True Immortal, who could possibly match him? He will likely really end up being the absolute ruler of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

At the moment when the crowd were astonished, they also felt endlessly excited.

After all, they were witnessing a secret skill comparable to Zhan Haichuan's strongest ability.

Even though they greatly disliked Chu Feng, and could also be considered to be Chu Feng's enemies, as they were Kong Doumoyuan's friends, upon considering how frighteningly powerful Chu Feng was, they had made the decision that if Chu Feng were to win the battle, they would definitely not become Chu Feng's enemy.

Instead, they would try their best to turn their former hostility with Chu Feng into friendship, and try their best to deepen their relationship.

“Rumble~~~~”

At the moment when the crowd were pondering, another loud explosion sounded from the sky.

Accompanying that loud explosion was a golden radiance that filled the sky.

The golden radiance illuminated the entire sky and earth. The oppressive might from that radiance caused the crowd present to tremble.

However, that golden radiance... was another one of Kong Doumoyuan's defeats.

That's right, Kong Doumoyuan had unleashed another Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill toward Chu Feng. Yet, it was also easily hacked into two by Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe.

"Damn it! Exactly what the hell is that?! How could it be this hard to deal with?! Could it be some sort of treasure?!"

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan's complexion had turned pale. Compared to before, he was much weaker.

Regardless of how powerful he was, regardless of how robust his foundation was, he was still unable to support himself through using Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills continuously.

To his great helplessness, Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe seemed to be unstoppable. Regardless of what sort of attack he used, he was unable to breach Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe. Before the Ancient Era's War Axe, he could only flee in disarray in a battered and exhausted state.

At that moment, he felt a massive headache.

Kong Doumoyuan still had one final technique that he had yet to use. However, he knew very well that Chu Feng most definitely possessed that same technique.

As it would be his final trump card, he must catch Chu Feng off guard with a surprise attack. Else... he would likely suffer a crushing defeat by Chu Feng's hand.

"At the very least, you're a rank nine Martial Ancestor. Why would you continue to flee nonstop? Didn't you say that you're going to kill me? Why don't you try killing me?"

As Chu Feng controlled the Ancient Era's War Axe to chase after Kong Doumoyuan to kill him, he was also humiliating Kong Doumoyuan.

“Chu Feng, let’s consider it that you’ve won today. Is it possible for us to stop fighting now? If you are to do that, I can plead for leniency for you to my clan’s Clan Chief. I will ask him to no longer look further into what you did back then,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“He’s actually begging for forgiveness. This...”

Once Kong Doumoyuan’s words were said, the expression of the crowd present all changed. They looked to one another and discovered that they all had bewildered and confused expressions.

This was strange. With their understanding of Kong Doumoyuan, he was not someone who was willing to admit defeat.

Furthermore, he was facing Chu Feng. At that moment, the crowd were all at a complete loss.

“I, Chu Feng, have never done anything that was unrighteous toward your Kong Heavenly Clan. It has only been your Kong Heavenly Clan that has been unrighteous toward me.”

“Thus, it’s not for your Kong Heavenly Clan to decide whether to look further into the grievances between your Kong Heavenly Clan and I.”

“Instead, if your Kong Heavenly Clan does not present to me an answer capable of satisfying me, then I, Chu Feng, will definitely not be willing to let this matter go.”

“Furthermore, as you’ve injured my friends, I will definitely not spare you,” Chu Feng’s words revealed his determination.

That was, that he was not planning to spare Kong Doumoyuan regardless.

“In that case, you are insistent on killing me?” Kong Doumoyuan asked.

“That is not up to me to decide,” Chu Feng said.

“If not you, then who?” Kong Doumoyuan asked.

“My friend, Zhao Hong,” As Chu Feng spoke, he turned his gaze toward Zhao Hong.

Chu Feng had already decided that he would let Zhao Hong determine whether he should kill Kong Doumoyuan, Dugu Jianxu, the Wine-Meat Monk and that Zhou Fukong.

“Boom~~~”

Right at that moment, a loud explosion was heard. Turning toward the direction of the explosion, Chu Feng’s expression changed.

It was Kong Doumoyuan. At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan’s appearance was completely different from his previously sorry state.

A bizarre golden radiance was being emitted from his feet. The reason why it could be said to be bizarre was because the golden radiance was wiggling nonstop.

Upon closer inspection, it seemed to be two dragons. His feet were on top of the two dragons.

It turned out that it was an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill, a kind of movement Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill.

Those two dragons greatly increased Kong Doumoyuan’s speed. He was so fast that even Chu Feng was caught off guard.

At that moment, the two spears Kong Doumoyuan held in his hands had changed completely.

The two spears were both covered with a purple flame. It was also an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill. Two Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills were attached to the two Ancestral Armaments, greatly increasing their power.

Most importantly, Kong Doumoyuan’s Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings both seemed to be much more magnificent than before.

In other words, not only had Kong Doumoyuan recovered his energy, but his battle power seemed to have also increased to a whole new level.

All of this originated from the mark formed from the gathering of lightning on his forehead.

Upon closer inspection, it was the character 'Mortal.'

It was the power that Heavenly Bloodline possessors had after reaching the Martial Ancestor realm, the Lightning Mark!!!

Kong Doumoyuan's battle power was increased by his Lightning Mark.

It turned out that using his Lightning Mark was his final attack. It was also the surprise attack that he had planned for so long.

Chapter 2518 - This Is Divine Mark

---

“Heeahhh!!!”

Everything happened too fast. By the time Chu Feng managed to react, Kong Doumoyuan had already dodged the Ancient Era’s War Axe and arrived before him.

The oppressive might emitted by those two Ancestral Armaments gave Chu Feng a fatal sensation.

It was a very stifling and unbearable sensation.

Even though the Ancestral Armament spears had yet to pierce into Chu Feng’s body, Chu Feng was already feeling the aura of death.

Defeat. Chu Feng was able to fight against Kong Doumoyuan for so long not because of his own strength, but rather because of the Ancient Era’s War Axe.

And now, Kong Doumoyuan’s speed had surpassed that of the Ancient Era’s War Axe, and he had successfully avoided it.

Without the protection of the Ancient Era’s War Axe, even if Chu Feng were to form his Lightning Mark, it would be useless.

“Chu Feng, your carelessness is what has caused your defeat,” Kong Doumoyuan mocked.

He had a very proud expression on his face.

Showing no mercy, he thrust his spears toward Chu Feng’s dantian.

His goal was very clear. He was planning to cripple Chu Feng’s cultivation.

“So it was actually a diversionary tactic. Kong Doumoyuan’s admitting defeat earlier was merely so that he could divert Chu Feng’s attention. Everything was for the sake of this surprise attack. Chu Feng was careless, that’s why he’s going to be defeated.”

Upon seeing all that had happened, the crowd finally realized what had happened.

Kong Doumoyuan had held back on using his Lightning Mark the entire time because he knew that as Chu Feng was a Martial Ancestor, he too possessed the power of a Lightning Mark.

If he were to use his Lightning Mark openly, it would serve no purpose. Only by catching Chu Feng off-guard would he be able to make him pay bitterly.

And now, it was very clear that Kong Doumoyuan’s scheme had succeeded.

“Puchi~~~”

Suddenly, a muffled sound was heard, and a spray of blood appeared.

“Ahh~~~”

Then, a miserable scream sounded.

However, at that moment, the crowd were all tongue-tied. They were completely stunned.

The reason for that was because the person that was struck was not Chu Feng. Rather, it was Kong Doumoyuan.

It was the Ancient Era’s War Axe. The Ancient Era’s War Axe had chased over and hacked down at Kong Doumoyuan from behind.

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan had been split open from head to toe. Only a small portion of his bones were still barely keeping his badly damaged body together.

Blood was flowing from his body uncontrollably, and dyeing his clothes crimson red.

His Thunder Armor, Thunder Wings and even the Lightning Mark on his forehead had all disappeared.

He was seriously injured, and had completely lost the ability to continue fighting against Chu Feng. Merely, he had a completely baffled expression on his face.

“How could this be? I’ve already dodged that strange axe of yours. Even if you were to condense your Lightning Mark, it should still be impossible for that axe to be able to catch up to me. How? How?!”

Kong Doumoyuan was unable to understand how the Ancient Era’s War Axe was able to catch up to him.

“That is?!”

At the moment when Kong Doumoyuan raised his head and saw the current Chu Feng, he was immediately stunned.

At that moment, he did not dare to believe his eyes, did not dare to believe what he was seeing.

It was as he had anticipated, Chu Feng had condensed his Lightning Mark.

Merely, the Lightning Mark on Chu Feng’s forehead was completely different from his own.

The lightning that made up the Lightning Mark on Chu Feng’s forehead was flickering violently. The aura it emitted was countless times more powerful than his own Lightning Mark.

Most importantly, the Lightning Mark on Chu Feng’s forehead was not the character ‘Mortal.’ Rather, it was the character ‘Divine.’

“Divine? How could there be a Lightning Mark with the character ‘Divine?’”

Kong Doumoyuan was dumbfounded. He was truly frightened by the dazzling Lightning Mark before him.

As a member of the Kong Heavenly Clan, as a possessor of a Heavenly Bloodline, he naturally knew there were different ranks between Lightning Marks.

If one wanted to form a Lightning Mark, one must train in a Self-Punishing Mysterious Technique.

As for Self-Punishing Mysterious Techniques, they were separated into three levels according to their strength. Respectively, they were the Mortal Punishment, Earthen Punishment and Heaven Punishment.

Not to mention the difficulty, the higher tier a Self-Punishing Mysterious Technique was, the more precious it was.

Not to mention the others, even the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's two strongest Heavenly Clans, the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan, only possessed a Mortal Punishment Mysterious Technique.

They did not even possess an Earthen Punishment Mysterious Technique.

As for a Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique, it was simply a legend to them.

Thus, in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, there had simply never been anyone that had trained in the Earthen Punishment Mysterious Technique. Naturally, there was no one capable of forming an Earthen level Lightning Mark.

Yet, Chu Feng was actually able to form a Lightning Mark with the character 'Divine'. Wouldn't this mean that Chu Feng had formed a Divine level Lightning Mark, that he had trained in a Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique?

But, Divine Punishment Mysterious Techniques were something that Kong Doumoyuan had never even heard of before.

In his mind, a Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique simply did not exist.

Yet, the character 'Divine' on Chu Feng's forehead was clearly right in front of him.

Furthermore, the enormous aura emitted by that Lightning Mark made him feel so extremely small. He felt so small and weak that he started to fear Chu Feng from the bottom of his heart.

It was as if he felt that he was fundamentally inferior to Chu Feng.

It was a sort of humility and submission that originated from the depths of his soul. It was like how a soldier feels when they see their general, how a subject feels when they see their ruler.

Not to mention that he didn't have the ability to continue fighting Chu Feng, even if he did, he would still not be able to fight against Chu Feng.

He had lost all will to battle.

“Putt~~~”

Suddenly, Kong Doumoyuan's body fell from the sky and crashed ruthlessly onto the ground. When he landed, he was shivering nonstop.

The sensation he felt from Chu Feng was still lingering within him.

Furthermore, his mouth was open, and he was muttering one sentence repeatedly.

“Impossible, impossible, impossible...”

“I must've seen it wrong, I must've seen it wrong...”

Seeing Kong Doumoyuan reacting like this, Chu Feng did not continue to attack him. Instead, he turned around and cast his gaze toward the direction of the palace hall.

“Look, on Chu Feng's forehead, that is...?”

“Is that a Lightning Mark? But... how could there be a Lightning Mark like that?”

“Could it be that the strange yet powerful aura he is emitting right now was brought forth by that Lightning Mark?”

After Chu Feng turned around, the crowd were finally able to see Chu Feng’s Lightning Mark. Upon seeing the dazzling character created by Chu Feng’s Lightning Mark, their hearts all trembled.

At that moment, the bodies of all the people present were involuntarily shaking.

It was as if a group of meek sheep had encountered a savage ferocious beast, and were feeling fear from the bottoms of their souls.

Chu Feng completely ignored the crowd’s fear-filled gazes.

He first put his Stormwind Edge and Flame Dragon Greatsword away. Then, stepping on air, he began to walk toward the crowd.

Although Chu Feng had put his two Ancestral Armaments away, his aura did not decrease in the slightest.

Not only was Chu Feng surrounded by lightning, but the Ancient Era’s War Axe was still floating above him.

With a single thought, he would be able to send the Ancient Era’s War Axe to attack, destroying everything in its path.

The current Chu Feng was like an unparalleled God of War. Not to mention ordinary individuals, even gods and demons would have to shrink back from him.

“Chu Feng, I, I... I was wrong. Please give me a chance. I will never dare to do something like that again.”

Seeing Chu Feng’s arrival, the person that was most scared would be none other than Zhou Fukong.

Earlier, he was eager to fight against Chu Feng. Yet, at that moment he had completely lost his will to battle.

With a ‘putt,’ he knelt in midair, and began to beg Chu Feng for forgiveness.

It was not that he was a coward. Rather, as even Kong Doumoyuan was no match for Chu Feng, he knew very well that even if he were to attack Chu Feng, he was destined to be defeated.

Rather than suffering serious injuries, it was better that he beg for forgiveness to preserve his life before they even started fighting.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, we are merely guests invited here by Kong Doumoyuan. The ones torturing Zhao Hong earlier were all Kong Doumoyuan and the others. We are truly unrelated to this.”

“That’s right. Young Hero Chu Feng, you must not harm the innocent.”

In fact, it was not only Zhou Fukong who started to beg for forgiveness. Even some of the older generation’s experts started to beg for forgiveness.

Even though they were all grand and famous characters in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Even though they were individuals that possessed much greater seniority than Chu Feng.

When faced with Chu Feng, they were still afraid from the bottom of their hearts.

Thus, to avoid being implicated, they truly did not know what to do apart from providing an explanation for themselves and begging Chu Feng for forgiveness.

After all, they knew very well that when faced with the current Chu Feng, they would have no hope of victory even if they were to all join hands against him.

Chapter 2519 - Cold-blooded and Ruthless

---

Honestly, it was quite ironic.

Before Chu Feng came, the great majority of the people there had looked down on him.

However, at that moment, there was not a single person present that was not afraid of Chu Feng.

As Chu Feng walked over, the crowd were not only trembling with fear, they also hurriedly moved to either side in fear that Chu Feng would attack them.

At that moment, a path emerged from the crowd, a path toward the palace.

Chu Feng walked through the path and past Zhou Fukong and the others. He did not stop, nor did he try to make things difficult for them.

It was as if... Chu Feng was ignoring them.

Chu Feng continued forward, straight for the palace, straight for Zhao Hong.

At that moment, the crowd started to rejoice. No matter what, Chu Feng had, at the very least, not killed them yet. This was already an enormously fortune among this great misfortune.

“Woosh~~~”

Seeing that Chu Feng had entered the palace hall, an old man’s body shifted and entered the void.

Evidently, that individual was trying to seize the opportunity to escape.

As for Chu Feng, he did not even bother to turn around. Instead, with his back facing the crowd, he shot forth a palm strike.

“Bang~~~~”

The palm strike exploded in the distant space. It turned into energy ripples that started to wreak havoc through space.

As the energy ripples wreaked havoc, a figure appeared out of thin air. Like a dying dog, that figure fell from the sky and ruthlessly crashed onto the surface.

It was a person. His clothes had been completely shattered by the explosion. His body had turned pitch-black as his flesh was burned. Furthermore, he was twitching nonstop.

As for that individual, he was none other than that old man who had entered the void in an attempt to escape earlier.

Although he was still alive, he had been seriously injured.

“Sssss~~~”

At that moment, the crowd’s hearts tightened. No one dared to think about escaping again.

One should know that the old man that had entered the void and was then seriously injured by Chu Feng was a peak Martial Ancestor.

However, such a peak Martial Ancestor was unable to even withstand a single palm strike from Chu Feng.

In fact, when Chu Feng attacked, he did not even bother to look back. Yet, an attack with his back facing his target was actually able to seriously injure his target.

From this, the crowd once again experienced how frightening Chu Feng was.

After shooting down that escapee, Chu Feng still didn’t say anything. At that moment, he had arrived before Zhao Hong.

“Clank~~~”

Chu Feng waved his sleeve, and the cage shattered into pieces. At the same time, the chains binding Zhao Hong were also shattered by him.

Those were special chains. They were not very strong. Merely, when they were used to tie up seriously injured individuals, they would be able to restrict their cultivation.

After the chains were shattered, Zhao Hong's cultivation rapidly recovered. As for her injuries, they were merely superficial injuries, and not serious.

There was simply no need for Chu Feng to heal Zhao Hong's injuries. She sat cross-legged and began to operate her world spirit power. Soon, the insects within her were all driven out, and her flesh started to heal.

In merely the blink of an eye, Zhao Hong returned to normal. Not to mention not having any scars on her face, there was not even a speck of dust on her face. Even her clothes that were pierced through by the sword had been restored to normal.

"Chu Feng, you damned bastard, so you were actually going to become this powerful after reaching rank eight Martial Ancestor. Why didn't you tell me sooner?"

"You made me think that you were only going to come out of your closed-door training after reaching rank nine Martial Ancestor. That's why I decided to come here myself. Unfortunately, I ended up falling into that Kong Doumoyuan's trap."

Although Zhao Hong was complaining, she was brimming with smiles on her face.

As Chu Feng's close friend, she would naturally be very happy for Chu Feng to find out that he would possess such overwhelming abilities after two years.

"My apologies. I should've explained myself to you beforehand. I've made you suffer," Even though he knew that Zhao Hong was merely joking, Chu Feng was feeling sorry from the bottom of his heart.

He felt that although Zhan Hong was reckless to come by herself, it was because she was worried for Wang Qiang. He was able to understand that.

If he had told Zhao Hong that he would definitely be able to defeat Kong Doumoyuan once he reached rank eight Martial Ancestor, then Zhao Hong would not have ended up in her earlier miserable state.

Fortunately, he came right on time. What would've happened if he was late?

If he were to truly come late, then he would likely end up recovering Zhao Hong's corpse.

If Zhao Hong were to die, how could Chu Feng possibly face Wang Qiang?

"Enough, you. I was merely joking. I was clearly the one in the wrong, why are you apologizing? You're making me feel uncomfortable," Zhao Hong had a smile on her face as she punched Chu Feng's chest. Then, she actually revealed an apologetic expression on her face.

It could be seen that Zhao Hong knew that she had made a grave mistake.

"You've already suffered. This is not something that can be changed. However, we must take revenge."

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he turned his gaze to the crowd behind, "How do you want to handle these people?"

Hearing those words, Zhou Fukong and the others that were standing there in a well-behaved manner all felt their hearts tighten.

Sure enough, it was as they had worried, Chu Feng did not plan to leave the matter at that.

However, there was nothing they could do. Faced with such a powerful Chu Feng, they were truly nothing more than fish and meat on the chopping block.

“Young Hero Chu Feng, Miss Zhao Hong, we were truly only invited here by Kong Doumoyuan. We never had the intention to disrespect you all.”

“Miss Zhao Hong, this old man was not among the crowd to torture you earlier. Please inform Young Hero Chu Feng properly of this so that the innocent are not harmed.”

Many among the people present feared death. Seeing that the situation had turned bad, they no longer cared about their status, and started tearing up. They pretended to be pitiful, and cried to gain sympathy.

“Shut up! I will cut off the tongue of he who dares to utter another word!”

Suddenly, a stern shout was heard. Like a sudden clap of thunder, that shout echoed in the sky for a very long time.

At that moment, those people begging for forgiveness all shut their mouths immediately. Those who were planning to start begging for forgiveness did not dare to open their mouths.

It was not that they were cowards. Merely, the person who shouted at them to shut up was Chu Feng.

Chu Feng was someone who dared to do anything. As such, how could they dare to go against his order?

“Zhao Hong, say, how do you want to handle them?” Chu Feng looked to Zhao Hong and asked again.

“I don’t care about the others. However...” As Zhao Hong spoke, she pointed to Kong Doumoyuan, Dugu Jianxu, the Wine-Meat Monk and Zhou Fukong, “him, him, him and him... they must all die today.”

Hearing those words, the expressions of Dugu Jianxu and the others immediately turned ashen.

This was especially true for Zhou Fukong. He was so scared that his eyes were wide open, and he was tongue-tied speechless. He started sweating profusely. His legs started shaking so hard that he was unable to even stand stably, nearly falling from the sky.

“You all hear that?” Chu Feng turned his gaze over and cast his gaze over Dugu Jianxu, the Wine-Meat Monk, Zhou Fukong and Kong Doumoyuan.

Sensing Chu Feng’s gaze that was filled with killing intent, Dugu Jianxu and the others turned green with fear. They knew that Chu Feng was truly planning to kill. It was clear... they would not be able to escape a calamity.

At that moment, they were filled with regret. They regretted that they insulted and made things difficult for Zhao Hong.

Originally, it was only a grudge between Kong Doumoyuan and Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang. However, they were now wrapped up in it too.

If they could choose again, they would definitely not have made things difficult for Zhao Hong. Unfortunately... they had no chance to choose again.

“Chu Feng, all of this is Kong Doumoyuan’s doing. He was the one to capture Zhao Hong. He was also the one to torture Zhao Hong. This is unrelated to us. Why must you be so forceful and insistent on killing us?”

“Chu Feng, you really shouldn’t do this. Let’s just drop this matter here today. We can talk things over. If you are to kill us, you will not have an easy time in the future either. You must definitely reconsider things.”

“Brother Chu Feng, calm down, calm down. You must not allow your emotions to affect your decisions.”

Dugu Jianxu and the others started to explain themselves and started to urge Chu Feng to reconsider killing them. They truly did not want to die.

However, as if he could not hear them, Chu Feng did not bother to respond to their words at all.

“Dugu Jianxu, you are the most talkative. Let’s start with you.”

Chu Feng’s gaze turned to Dugu Jianxu. He began to walk toward Dugu Jianxu. Zhao Hong was following behind him.

“.....”

Hearing those words, Dugu Jianxu’s body started to tremble violently. Then, he felt that his body had turned ice-cold. It was as if even his soul was trembling.

He felt that the current Chu Feng was like a cold-blooded and ruthless beast. He only saw his prey in his eyes. As for that prey, it was him... Dugu Jianxu.

Chapter 2520 - Distinction

---

“Chu Feng, you’ve already made an enemy of the Kong Heavenly Clan. If you are to kill us today, you will have made enemies of all four of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s tier one powers. At that time, you will not be able to find anywhere safe.”

“There was originally no hatred between us. As such, there really isn’t a need for you to go that far. It’s still not too late to stop now.”

As Dugu Jianxu urged Chu Feng not to kill him, he started to frantically attempt to escape in midair.

As for Chu Feng, he did not bother to stop Dugu Jianxu from trying his best to distance himself.

The reason for that was because Dugu Jianxu’s cultivation had already been crippled by him. The remnants of his cultivation were simply insufficient for him to fear.

While Chu Feng was walking through the air in a very deemphasizing manner, his speed was extremely fast. He was many times faster than the fleeing Dugu Jianxu.

Thus, in merely the blink of an eye, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong had arrived before Dugu Jianxu.

“Woosh~~~”

Chu Feng grabbed Dugu Jianxu’s neck and lifted him up.

At that moment, Dugu Jianxu’s body was trembling nonstop. One could tell with one’s naked eye that he was truly scared.

“Chu-Chu Feng, you must reconsider. If you are to kill me today, our Immortal Sword School will definitely not spare you,” Dugu Jianxu threatened.

However, Chu Feng reacted as if he did not hear his threat at all. He turned to Zhao Hong and said, “It would do to leave him an intact corpse.”

“Intact corpse?”

“Could it be that Chu Feng and Zhao Hong are really planning to kill Dugu Jianxu?”

“Dugu Jianxu is one of the most important people in the Immortal Sword School, the future successor to the Immortal Sword School’s Headmaster. If Chu Feng and Zhao Hong are to kill him, the Immortal Sword School will definitely not let things go.”

Seeing that Chu Feng was truly preparing to kill, the bystanders grew even more frightened.

When even the bystanders were scared, one could very well imagine what sort of expression Dugu Jianxu currently had. He was completely terrified.

“Chu Feng, I beg of you, please, please spare me.”

“If you are to spare me, our Immortal Sword School will form an alliance with you. Even helping you take care of the Kong Heavenly Clan will be possible,” Dugu Jianxu begged in a very pathetic manner.

At that moment, he did not possess the awe-inspiring might of a genius. He was truly petty and low.

“Paa~~~”

Right at that moment, Zhao Hong shot forth her palm. Her palm landed on Dugu Jianxu’s face.

At that moment, Dugu Jianxu’s complexion turned red. Then his mouth opened, and he sprayed out a mouthful of blood.

The next moment, his eyes rolled back, and his aura completely ceased. Dugu Jianxu was no longer living.

Zhao Hong had really killed Dugu Jianxu.

“She actually really killed him!!!”

“This... this Zhao Hong is truly ruthless.”

The crowd were feeling endless fear. A change appeared in the gazes with which they looked to Chu Feng and Zhao Hong.

If one must describe the change, then it would be that they felt even more terrified of Chu Feng and Zhao Hong now.

It was one thing to think about doing something, and another thing to actually do it.

Over the years, there had been a lot of people that wanted to kill Dugu Jianxu. There were also many that announced they'd kill him.

However, Zhao Hong was the only one to actually kill Dugu Jianxu.

Of course, the crowd knew very well that even though it was Zhao Hong who had killed Dugu Jianxu, the main culprit was actually Chu Feng.

If Chu Feng was not backing up Zhao Hong, Zhao Hong would not have been able to kill Dugu Jianxu.

“Who do you want to kill next?” Chu Feng turned to ask Zhao Hong.

“The next one will be him,” Zhao Hong turned her gaze to the Wine-Meat Monk.

The Wine-Meat Monk's expression turned ashen. Seeing that Dugu Jianxu had been killed, he knew very well that he was in imminent peril.

At that moment, he simply did not dare to use his Buddha's Heavenly Temple to threaten Chu Feng and Zhao Hong. The reason for that was because he knew that it would be useless.

In a moment of desperation, he actually decided to disregard his injuries and face to directly kneel and beg, “No, no, no, don't, don't, don't kill me, don't kill me.”

“Woosh~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng had arrived before the Wine-Meat Monk with Zhao Hong.

“Paa~~~”

Showing no quarter, Zhao Hong shot forth her palm and it ruthlessly landed on the Wine-Meat Monk’s face.

“Puu~~~”

The Wine-Meat Monk also let out a mouthful of blood. Then, like Dugu Jianxu, his body grew powerless, and he died.

After killing two people in succession, Zhao Hong did not reveal the slightest intention of stopping. Furthermore, the corner of her mouth was raised into a smile of wanting to continue.

It must be said that even though the current Zhao Hong had the appearance of a harmless beauty, that smile had caused her nature as a demonic woman to come to light.

At that moment, the crowd all realized that it was not only Chu Feng who was ruthless, this woman by the name of Zhao Hong was an equally ruthless character that would not blink upon killing.

“The next one is you,” Zhao Hong looked to Zhou Fukong.

“Damned bastard, what do you all take me, Zhou Fukong, as?” Zhou Fukong shouted furiously.

Then, he unleashed his Thunder Armor, Thunder Wings and Mortal level Lightning Mark.

Not only did he unleash all of his Heavenly Bloodline’s power at once, he also took out two Ancestral Armaments.

They was a sword and a blade. Although they were inferior to Chu Feng’s Stormwind Edge and Flame Dragon Greatsword, the sword and blade both possessed extraordinary quality.

Zhou Fukong could be said to have gone all-out at once. The aura that he currently emitted was capable of suppressing everyone apart from Chu Feng.

“Chu Feng, Zhao Hong, did the two of you think that I, Zhou Fukong, am the same as those two pushovers?!”

“I’m not someone you can kill just because you want to!” Zhou Fukong shouted angrily. He had the appearance of someone putting forth a final life and death struggle.

“Oh? Is that so?” Faced with the current Zhou Fukong, Chu Feng smiled faintly. That smile contained a faint amount of mockery.

Upon seeing Chu Feng’s mocking smile, Zhou Fukong’s heart tightened once more. He felt as if his newly ignited flame had been instantly extinguished by a large basin of cold water.

The confidence that he had gained from unleashing all his strength was completely shattered the moment he saw Chu Feng’s smile.

He suddenly felt himself to be ridiculous.

When even Kong Doumoyuan was no match for Chu Feng, how could he possibly be a match for Chu Feng?

Not to mention a life and death struggle, even injuring Chu Feng and Zhao Hong would be an extravagant hope.

“Woosh~~~”

Thinking of that, Zhou Fukong’s body suddenly shifted. He was trying to escape.

Zhou Fukong was very wise. He knew that victory was impossible. Thus, it would be better to take this opportunity to escape.

“Zzzzzz~~~”

At the moment Zhou Fukong started escaping, a figure of lightning and an enormous axe rapidly chased after him.

In an instant, heaven and earth started shaking. The clouds were rolling with lightning. They were actually chasing after Zhou Fukong alongside that figure of lightning.

Although the clouds were ordinary black clouds, the lightning within them had nine different colors. They were exceptionally dazzling.

The speed of the black clouds was not at all inferior to the speed of that figure of lightning.

The reason for that was because the figure of lightning was Chu Feng, and the black clouds were Chu Feng's might. The two of them were one. As such, their speed would naturally be equally matched.

Although Chu Feng had not unleashed his Ancestral Armaments, he soon caught up to Zhou Fukong and stopped him.

"You won't be able to escape," Chu Feng looked to Zhou Fukong.

"You!!!"

At that moment, Zhou Fukong was driven into a corner. With incomparable fury, he was planning to stake his life on the line for a final battle against Chu Feng.

However, when he saw the Divine level Lightning Mark on Chu Feng's forehead, he was instantly terrified.

He did not want to be terrified. However, he was unable to control himself.

When he saw Chu Feng's Divine level Lightning Mark at such a close distance, he felt terror toward Chu Feng from the bottom his heart, from the core of his bones and the depths of his soul.

It was not only fear that he felt. In addition to fear was a kind of reverence. It was as if Chu Feng was his master, that he would be offending his superior should he fight Chu Feng.

Actually, there was an explanation for this. Regardless of whether it was the current Zhou Fukong or Kong Doumoyuan before him, they were reacting the same as a possessor of a Royal Bloodline encountering a possessor of an Imperial Bloodline, or a possessor of an Imperial Bloodline encountering a possessor of a Heavenly Bloodline when they saw the current Chu Feng.

Even though they were also Heavenly Bloodline possessors like Chu Feng, they trained in completely different Self-Punishing Mysterious Techniques.

The ones that they'd trained in were the weakest among the Self-Punishing Mysterious Techniques, the Mortal Punishment Mysterious Techniques.

As for the one that Chu Feng had trained in, it was the strongest, the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.

After training in the Self-Punishing Mysterious Techniques, their bloodlines would be transformed.

After Chu Feng unleashed his Lightning Mark, his enormously powerful bloodline was completely revealed.

It would be one thing for those with strength surpassing Chu Feng. However, for Zhou Fukong and Kong Doumoyuan, who possessed strength equal to Chu Feng, they would not be able to contend against Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because they had lost to Chu Feng fundamentally.

This was why regardless of how robust or fierce a hound might be, they would remain a dog.

Regardless of how powerful that hound might be, when faced with a fierce tiger or a lion, it will immediately lose the will to battle and would only try to flee in disarray.

That was the sort of suppression that originated from the depths of one's bloodline, a fundamental distinction.

Chapter 2521 - I'm Determined to Take His Life

---

“Chu Feng, it is one thing for you to have killed Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk after they provoked you earlier.”

“However, I, Zhou Fukong, have not done anything to you. Are you really planning to have that demonic woman kill me?”

“Right now, you have already made enemies of the Kong Heavenly Clan, the Immortal Sword School and Buddha's Heavenly Temple.”

“If you are to kill me, you would be making an enemy of our Zhou Heavenly Clan too. At that time, you will really end up...” Zhou Fukong realized that it would not do to use force, and thus could only try to continue to talk things out.

“Puu~~~”

However, before Zhou Fukong could finish his words, the Ancient Era's War Axe in the sky suddenly came down, piercing through his body.

“Wuuahh.”

Zhou Fukong let out a miserable scream and he instantly despaired.

At the moment the Ancient Era's War Axe pierced through his body, he felt an extremely powerful oppressive sensation.

That oppressive sensation was naturally from the Ancient Era's War Axe.

If Zhou Fukong was able to barely put up a fight against Chu Feng before, then, now that his body had been pierced through by the Ancient Era's War Axe, he had completely lost the ability to fight against Chu Feng.

Not to mention Chu Feng, any one of the people present would be able to easily take his life.

“It’s best that you don’t move around. Else, if my Ancient Era’s War Axe is to move slightly lower, it will hack your body in two. At that time... when your Zhou Heavenly Clan comes to retrieve your corpse, they will not be able to retrieve an intact corpse,” Chu Feng said to Zhou Fukong.

“You...”

Zhou Fukong was so furious that he felt as if his heart, liver, spleen and lungs were about to explode. The meaning of Chu Feng’s words were extremely obvious. Chu Feng was telling him that he, Zhou Fukong, would definitely die.

In truth, Zhou Fukong did indeed feel that he would die there. The reason for that was because that demonic woman Zhao Hong was rushing toward him murderously.

“Zhao Hong, go ahead,” Chu Feng said to Zhao Hong.

Zhao Hong did not hesitate. She raised her palm and planned to take Zhou Fukong’s life.

“Stay your hand!!!”

Right at that moment, a furious shout was heard.

After that voice was heard, space itself started to tremble. Even Chu Feng’s oppressive might, those black clouds of lightning that filled the region, were trembling.

“This aura, it’s a True Immortal?” At that moment, the surrounding crowd were all alarmed. They were able to sense the person that had arrived was a True Immortal.

“Haha, come, kill me. That is our Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Elder Zhou Yuluo!!!”

At that moment, Zhou Fukong burst into loud laughter. His laughter was filled with pride and provocation.

The reason for that was because he knew that his life had been saved.

Not only would his life be saved, but the two people before him, those two people that had tormented him miserably, would end up suffering greatly.

“True Immortal?”

At that moment, Chu Feng also felt the aura of that True Immortal. Inevitably, he started to feel apprehension in his heart.

Based on the True Immortals that he had encountered so far, he was able to tell that the True Immortal that came here was merely a rank one True Immortal.

However, even though his opponent was only a rank one True Immortal, his opponent’s aura still firmly surpassed his own.

Even though Chu Feng was a Heavenly Bloodline possessor, even though he possessed the Divine Mark and the Ancient Era’s War Axe, even if he currently surpassed all Martial Ancestors, it remained that when he was faced with an actual rank one True Immortal, he was able to feel how inferior he was by comparison.

True Immortals were True Immortals. They were in a realm of cultivation that no Martial Ancestor could match up against regardless of how powerful they might be.

This enormous gap was something that not even Heavenly Bloodline possessors could breach.

When Chu Feng was a peak Martial Emperor, he was able to rely on his Heavenly Bloodline’s power to temporarily increase his cultivation to the peak Half Martial Ancestor realm.

However, when he became a peak Martial Ancestor, even though his Heavenly Bloodline’s power would still be present, even though he would have grasped many more heaven-defying methods, he would never be able to increase his cultivation to the True Immortal realm.

This was the greatness of True Immortals. Unless one were to truly reach True Immortal realm through cultivation, no ability would allow one to become a True Immortal.

Thus, regardless of how powerful Chu Feng might be at moment, regardless of how heaven-defying his battle power might be, he remained a Martial Ancestor.

As long as he was a Martial Ancestor, he would not be able to withstand a True Immortal.

“Damn it, why would a True Immortal come now?”

Zhao Hong also realized that the situation was amiss. Thus, her raised palm never landed.

She knew very well that since that True Immortal’s oppressive might had already covered the region, this meant that True Immortal had already arrived. As such, she no longer possessed the opportunity to kill Zhou Fukong.

“Chu Feng, Zhao Hong, what enormous nerves you have!”

That furious shout was heard once again. Merely, this time around, that voice was closer and more resounding.

At the moment that voice sounded, without even mentioning how powerful that True Immortal’s oppressive might was, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were able to feel intense sound waves crashing into them, making them unable to stand firm.

However, Zhou Fukong who stood beside them was not affected in the slightest.

The other bystanders present also did not feel anything.

Evidently, that sound wave was aimed at Chu Feng and Zhao Hong only.

After that voice landed, two figures appeared.

The person standing at the front was a nearly two meter tall middle-aged man.

This man was very robust, and possessed a stubby beard. He had a very prominent ‘uncle’ appearance.

Especially his pair of deep eyes. They allowed one to know that he had experienced countless years, seen countless people, and encountered countless things.

This man was an old monster that had lived for a very long time. He was most definitely not a middle-aged man like his appearance suggested.

At that moment, that man was looking at Chu Feng and Zhao Hong with a very ill-intended gaze. It could even be said that his gaze was filled with murderous intent.

It was as if, if Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were to make any movements that dissatisfied him, he would immediately act to kill them.

The overwhelming True Immortal’s aura was coming from this man. Likely... this man was that Elder Zhou Yuluo that Zhou Fukong spoke of.

However, apart from Zhou Yuluo, there was another individual. That person was wearing a special conical bamboo hat. His conical bamboo hat was so special that even Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were unable to see through it.

However, judging from his appearance, he was most likely an old man.

Furthermore, he did not try to especially alter his appearance. Thus, his facial appearance should likely also be that of an old man.

“Woosh~~~”

Soon, that individual took off his conical bamboo hat and revealed his facial appearance.

Sure enough, it was a white-haired old man. He possessed a dark complexion and had a horse-shaped face. However, his eyes were bright and full of expression.

“Immortal-cloak World Spiritist?”

Merely upon meeting that individual’s eyes, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong realized that individual to be an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

Zhao Hong was surprised. Even though that world spiritist was clearly on Zhou Yuluo’s side, that old man was looking at them with a gaze without anger. Instead, it was filled with surprise and unease.

“It’s him?”

As for Chu Feng, his gaze changed.

Chu Feng had met this old man once before. It was when Chu Feng was using his Evil God Sword to battle against the Kong Heavenly Clan two years ago. At that time, that old man was present.

Chu Feng faintly remembered that someone had addressed the old man as Zhuge Mingren. And he... was indeed an Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Moreover, he was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

In the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he was a very reputed individual.

This Zhuge Mingren was one of the most important witnesses to Chu Feng’s battle against the Kong Heavenly Clan two years ago.

“Chu Feng, Zhao Hong, are the two of you not going to explain what is going on here today?” Zhou Yuluo questioned. His tone was very ill-intended.

“Chu Feng, let’s go.”

Zhao Hong did not plan to explain. Instead, she grabbed Chu Feng’s arm and urged him to leave.

She was no fool. When this True Immortal appeared, she knew that their absolute dominance had been turned around.

If they were to continue to draw this on, the ones to suffer would be them.

However, Chu Feng did not move. Instead, he pulled back Zhao Hong, who was planning to leave.

“Chu Feng, you...”

At that moment, Zhao Hong revealed a confused expression. She didn’t understand why Chu Feng wasn’t leaving.

As for Chu Feng, he smiled at Zhao Hong, and then said, “Even if we are to leave, we should finish what we need to do first.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he turned to Zhou Yuluo and said, “I have nothing to explain to you. However, there is one thing that I can tell you.”

“Today, I am determined to take Zhou Fukong’s life.”

Chapter 2522 - That Is A Demon Armament

---

“Today, I am determined to take Zhou Fukong’s life.”

Chu Feng’s words came like a sudden clap of thunder to the crowd’s ears. The people present were all greatly shocked.

Not to mention the others, even Zhou Yuluo himself was startled.

What was this?

A mere Martial Ancestor actually dared to talk back to a True Immortal? This was simply too arrogant, simply too ignorant to the immensity of heaven and earth.

“Chu Feng, I do not care about what’s up with that Lightning Mark on your forehead, nor do I care about where the secret skill floating above you came from.”

“In the end, you remain a Martial Ancestor. You are simply no match for me, much less qualified to be my opponent.”

“Right now, I am asking you questions, and you’d best answer them obediently.”

“Else, don’t blame me for taking your lowly life.”

Zhou Yuluo was very aggressive and filled with confidence.

At that moment, the surrounding crowd started to reveal mocking smiles.

They naturally knew that Chu Feng was very powerful. In fact, after today, they felt that Chu Feng was unparalleled beneath True Immortal realm.

They had recognized Chu Feng’s strength.

However, if Chu Feng were to talk back to Zhou Yuluo, they felt that Chu Feng would only be inviting disaster upon himself.

“Chu Feng, let’s...” At that moment, even the fearless Zhao Hong started to urge Chu Feng against it.

Zhao Hong was naturally not afraid of death. Merely, she did not wish to implicate Chu Feng in her own grudges.

However, Chu Feng seemed to know what Zhao Hong wanted to tell him.

Thus, before she could finish her words, Chu Feng interrupted, “Zhao Hong, don’t say anymore. I am definitely going to take this Zhou Fukong’s life for you today.”

“What arrogance! What makes you think you can?!” Zhou Fukong asked furiously.

Before Zhou Yuluo had arrived, he did not dare to speak like this toward Chu Feng. However, now that Zhou Yuluo had arrived, he felt that Chu Feng had no means to talk to him like this.

He felt that Chu Feng should be scared, should be apologizing, should be kneeling and begging him for forgiveness.

“Puu~~~”

“Wuahh~~~”

Right after Zhou Fukong’s words left his mouth, he sprayed out a mouthful of blood.

The Ancient Era’s War Axe had pierced even deeper into him. That sort of oppression was something that Zhou Fukong was unable to endure.

“Impudent!”

Seeing that Chu Feng dared to continue to attack Zhou Fukong right before him, that Zhou Yuluo revealed a furious expression.

After all, Chu Feng’s actions could be said to be completely disregarding him. This caused Zhou Yuluo to feel extremely humiliated.

Thus, he decided on the spot that regardless of what sort of background Chu Feng might have, he would definitely teach Chu Feng a lesson.

“Clank~~~”

Right at that moment, a sword appeared in Chu Feng’s hand.

That sword was not the Stormwind Edge, nor was it the Flame Dragon Greatsword. Rather, it was the... Evil God Sword.

“That is?”

Upon seeing the Evil God Sword, the crowd’s expressions all changed.

They were not frightened by the Evil God Sword. Rather, they were startled by the Evil God Sword.

After all, before the Evil God Sword unleashed its might, it appeared to be no different from an ordinary Incomplete Imperial Armament.

The crowd were truly confused as to why Chu Feng would take out an Incomplete Imperial Armament at such a crucial moment.

Not to mention before True Immortals, Incomplete Imperial Armaments were akin to scrap metal before Martial Ancestors and Half Martial Ancestors.

Could it be that Chu Feng was deliberately shaming Zhou Yuluo?

“Don’t say that I did not warn you. Whatever happened here today is unrelated to you. If you don’t act recklessly, I can consider it that nothing has happened.”

“However, if you refuse my advice and insist on meddling in this matter here today, then I will not spare your lowly life either,” With the Evil God Sword in hand, Chu Feng spoke as he pointed at Zhou Yuluo.

Humiliation. This was a completely undisguised humiliation.

At that moment, the crowd was convinced that Chu Feng had taken out that weapon just to insult Zhou Yuluo.

He truly did not place this grand True Immortal in his eyes. Else, how could he dare act this impudently?

“Very well, Chu Feng. It would seem that you really think that I do not dare attack you?”

“Good, good, good. Today, I will act in righteousness for the heavens and slaughter you, damned animal. Else... you truly will not know who I, Zhou Yuluo, am!”

Zhou Yuluo’s complexion turned deep red with fury. With a thought, his oppressive might swept forth. He was actually planning on killing.

“Wait!”

Right at that moment, Zhuge Mingren who stood beside Zhou Yuluo suddenly grabbed him, stopping him.

“Brother Zhou, you must not act impulsively. You will not be a match for that Chu Feng,” Zhuge Mingren said.

“What?!” Upon hearing Zhuge Mingren’s words, the expressions of the crowd all changed.

As for that Zhou Yuluo, he was extremely startled. Soon, the shock on his face turned into raging fury.

It was one thing for Chu Feng to humiliate him. He truly never expected that his good friend of many years, Zhuge Mingren, would also look down on him.

“Brother Zhuge, move aside. Today... I must exterminate this arrogant brat.”

Zhou Yuluo refused to listen to Zhuge Mingren’s advice. He grabbed him and pushed him aside.

“Brother Zhou, what Chu Feng is holding is a Demon Armament!!!” Zhuge Mingren shouted.

“Demon Armament?”

Upon hearing those words, not only was the crowd shocked, but even Zhou Yuluo, who had raised his hand and was planning to attack Chu Feng, stopped.

Demon Armament. Merely those two words caused them to recall one matter.

An extremely significant matter!!!

In the battle two years ago, the Kong Heavenly Clan suffered disastrous losses. Their Utmost Exalted Elders were either killed or missing. Even their Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief suffered serious injuries.

One of the most powerful existences in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, the Kong Heavenly Clan, was nearly extinguished.

As for the person who did that shocking thing, it was none other than Chu Feng.

Reportedly, Chu Feng was only a Half Martial Ancestor back then. The reason why he was able to nearly extinguish the Kong Heavenly Clan was because of a Demon Armament.

Many people had witnessed that scene from two years ago. It was precisely because of the many witnesses that news of the event spread, and caused many people to firmly believe it.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that Zhuge Mingren was also present two years ago. Furthermore, over the past two years, he was insistent that that event was true.

“Demon Armament, is that the Demon Armament that you mentioned to me constantly?”

At that moment, the anger in Zhou Yuluo's eyes instantly decreased. When he looked to Zhuge Mingren again, there was no longer anger in his eyes. Instead, it was filled with gratefulness and apology.

As Zhuge Mingren's close friend, he had heard Zhuge Mingren mention what had happened two years ago many times.

Due to the fact that the matter was truly a mystery within a mystery, he was also skeptical of it.

However, even though he was skeptical, he still half-believed it. The reason for that was because it was Zhuge Mingren who told him about it.

He and Zhuge Mingren were close friends of many years. Furthermore, he knew Zhuge Mingren's personality very well. Thus, he knew that Zhuge Mingren was someone who never lied.

It was precisely because he half-believed in Zhuge Mingren's story that he suddenly felt fear. He truly did not want to die.

Chapter 2523 - Scaring Away A True Immortal

---

“It is absolutely true. Two years ago, I witnessed with my very own eyes Chu Feng killing the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders using that sword. Even the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was unable to contend against him.”

“Brother Zhou, take my advice, do not be impulsive. Else... the consequences will be unthinkable,” Zhuge Mingren said earnestly.

“In that case, the matter regarding the Demon Armament is true?”

Seeing how serious Zhuge Mingren reacted, the others present also began to doubt whether or not what had happened two years ago was real.

After all, Zhuge Mingren was a very reputable individual in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. The things he said held a lot of credibility.

To hear about the rumors was one sort of feeling. However, to personally see Zhuge Mingren and to hear him saying this sort of thing so earnestly was a completely different sort of feeling.

Moreover, Chu Feng had an extremely confident appearance.

Thus, at that moment, many of the people present started to half-believe the matter regarding the Demon Armament.

As the saying goes, if something didn’t concern oneself, one would not have to worry. However, if it did, then one must be extra careful.

At that moment, Zhou Yuluo found himself in a very awkward situation.

If he were to attack Chu Feng now, there would only be two possible results.

Either the Demon Armament in Chu Feng's hand was a fake, and he would be able to directly kill Chu Feng, ending everything.

Or the Demon Armament in Chu Feng's hand was real, and he would end up enraging Chu Feng and be killed by Chu Feng should he attack him.

“Chu Feng, we have never met before this. There are neither grievances or grudges between us either. There is no need for us to confront one another with weapons. How about we discuss things?”

After a moment of hesitation, Zhou Yuluo not only retrieved his extended hand, but he also retrieved his oppressive might filled with killing intent.

At that moment, he no longer possessed the overbearing arrogance from before. He was also no longer furious. Instead, he revealed a fake smile on his face.

Even though everyone could tell that it was a fake smile that he had forced out, they also knew that the reason Zhou Yuluo reacted like this was because he was scared.

Scared, he was indeed scared. He was afraid that Chu Feng's Demon Armament was truly capable of beheading True Immortals.

Seeing that Zhou Yuluo had grown timid, Zhou Fukong was struck dumb. He felt as if he had managed to grab onto a log while drowning, only to find out that log was actually rice straws that were unable to save him at all.

“Elder Zhou, save me!!!”

In a moment of desperation, Zhou Fukong cried for help. He was deeply afraid that Zhou Yuluo would disregard him.

“You shut up!” Zhou Yuluo shouted at Zhou Fukong.

Then, he looked to Chu Feng and said, “Chu Feng, I do not know exactly what happened here today.”

“However, the corpses of that Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk are there. I believe their deaths are related to you?”

“I’ve killed them, what about it?” Chu Feng asked.

“Why did you kill them?” Zhou Yuluo asked.

“They wanted to kill me and my friend. Why shouldn’t I kill people who want to kill me?” Chu Feng asked.

“Since you said it like that, you must possess your own reasons. I will not argue with you.”

“However, Chu Feng, I must remind you of this: those two were no ordinary individuals. They were not people that you can kill as you wish.”

“Since you’ve killed them, you must prepare yourself to shoulder the consequences,” Zhou Yuluo said.

“There’s simply no need for you to remind me of that,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well. Since you’ve already made the preparations, I will say no more. Today, I only have one request. Might you be willing to take me into consideration and spare Zhou Fukong?” Zhou Yuluo said.

Hearing those words, the crowd was startled. Then, they looked to one another, and discovered that they all had astonished expressions on their faces.

Request. A grand True Immortal Zhou Yuluo was actually making a request of Chu Feng.

Considering his status, this was no longer being courteous. Instead, he was lowering himself.

Zhou Yuluo had already given in. The crowd felt that Chu Feng should give way to Zhou Yuluo too and spare Zhou Fukong.

To drop this matter like this would be beneficial to both sides.

“I’ve said that I am determined to take this Zhou Fukong’s life today,” However, Chu Feng was not planning to give Zhou Yuluo face.

“You are truly indiscriminating!!!”

Zhou Yuluo’s expression changed enormously. His forced smile instantly disappeared, and was replaced with anger.

He truly never expected for Chu Feng to be this savage. He had already lowered himself, yet this Chu Feng was still insistent on doing things his way. He was simply not placing him in his eyes at all.

With this, how could he, a True Immortal who had always been domineering, not be furious?

Chu Feng did not bother with Zhou Yuluo at all. Instead, he turned to Zhao Hong and said, “Zhao Hong, kill him.”

“You really want me to kill him?” At that moment, Zhao Hong was hesitant.

After all, this was different from when she had killed Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk.

If she were to kill Zhou Fukong, she would be doing so before a Zhou Heavenly Clan’s True Immortal-level expert.

This was truly too crazy.

“It would do to leave him an intact corpse,” Chu Feng said.

“Very well,” Seeing that Chu Feng was insistent on killing Zhou Fukong, Zhao Hong did not hesitate any longer and raised her palm.

“Stop!” At that moment, Zhou Yuluo shouted loudly. Then, he threatened, “Zhao Hong, if you dare kill him, I’ll take your life!”

“Give it a try if you dare!” Chu Feng shouted back furiously.

“Chu Feng, you... did you really think that I was afraid of you?”

The anger in Zhou Yuluo's eyes grew stronger and stronger.

However, Chu Feng completely ignored his anger. Instead, he said to Zhao Hong, "Do it."

"Paaa~~~"

Zhao Hong did not hesitate. Her palm landed on Zhou Fukong's head.

The next moment, Zhou Fukong died like Dugu Jianxu and the Wine-Meat Monk.

"She actually killed him?!"

Seeing that Zhao Hong had actually killed Zhou Fukong right before Zhou Yuluo, the crowd was truly stunned.

This courage and boldness of hers was simply something that they found incomprehensible. It was also something that commoners did not possess.

Although Zhao Hong's courage caused them to feel admiration, they admired Chu Feng even more.

They knew very well that if it wasn't for Chu Feng backing her up, Zhao Hong would not be able to kill Zhou Fukong.

However, thinking that a Martial Ancestor was actually capable of frightening a True Immortal, this caused them to gasp in admiration.

Fortunately, they saw it with their very own eyes. If they hadn't, they wouldn't have believed this to be true even if they were to hear about it.

"I've killed him. The corpse is yours," Chu Feng grabbed Zhou Fukong's corpse and tossed it toward Zhou Yuluo.

Zhou Yuluo caught the corpse. At that moment, his body was shaking. Especially his arms that caught Zhou Fukong's corpse, the veins on his arms were bulging. From this, it could be seen how furious he was.

However, even though he was filled with overflowing fury, he still did not attack Chu Feng.

It was not that he did not want to attack Chu Feng. Rather, he did not dare to attack Chu Feng.

He was afraid, afraid that Chu Feng's Demon Armament was real. He was afraid that he would end up being killed by Chu Feng the moment he attacked Chu Feng.

"Chu Feng, from today on, our Zhou Heavenly Clan and you are unable to coexist in this world!" Zhou Yuluo said while gnashing his teeth furiously.

"Heh..." Chu Feng chuckled at Zhou Yuluo's words.

Chu Feng knew more or less what sort of status Dugu Jianxu, the Wine-Meat Monk, Kong Doumoyuan and Zhou Fukong possessed.

Since he knew their status, he naturally also knew what the consequences of killing them would be.

However, he was still determined to kill them. This meant that he had already taken the consequences into consideration.

While the consequences of killing them were indeed unthinkable, he was determined to avenge Zhao Hong.

Thus, when Chu Feng decided to have Zhao Hong kill them, he had already prepared himself to shoulder the consequences.

The consequences of making an enemy of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's most powerful four tier one powers!!!

Chapter 2524 - Said Kill, Will Kill

---

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng extended his hand and made a grabbing motion. Kong Doumoyuan, who was lying in the distance with blood covering his entire body, was caught in Chu Feng's hand.

“If there's nothing else, I will take my leave now.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he soared into the sky with Zhao Hong and began to fly into the distance.

However, before they flew far, Chu Feng suddenly stopped, turned his gaze to the people present and said, “You all have witnessed what happened here today. Thus, I will offer you a word of advice. It's best that you consider carefully before touching people related to me, Chu Feng.”

“Else, I, Chu Feng, dare to guarantee that your consequences will be even more miserable than theirs today.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he left without paying attention to the current expressions of the crowd.

As for the people present, their expressions all turned ashen.

Although Chu Feng's words were spoken very arrogantly, he possessed the strength to be arrogant.

When even Zhou Yuluo, a True Immortal, could only swallow his anger, what could they, Martial Ancestors, possibly do to Chu Feng?

Although they were feeling lingering fear, they were also rejoicing, rejoicing at the fact that they managed to witness all of this.

What they'd witnessed would become something that they could brag about in the future.

After all, a Martial Ancestor scaring away a True Immortal was something that had never happened before in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Once word of this matter spread, it would definitely shock the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

After feeling their joy, the crowd subconsciously turned their gazes to Zhou Yuluo. After all, Zhou Yuluo was the other leading character in this matter apart from Chu Feng.

“The hell are you all looking at?! Scram!” Zhou Yuluo shouted furiously.

Not only did his shout shake heaven and earth, but his oppressive might was also swept forth.

His oppressive might was extremely powerful. Even though the great majority of the people present were peak Martial Ancestors, they were unable to withstand his oppressive might at all.

At that moment, those reputed experts of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm were all blown away like fallen leaves.

At that moment, Zhou Yuluo was venting his anger on the bystanders.

Seeing that Zhou Yuluo was furious, how could the bystanders possibly dare to continue lingering there?

After stabilizing themselves, they began to frantically escape without even turning their heads. They were fleeing with their lives on the line.

They were deeply afraid that Zhou Yuluo would continue to vent his anger and actually kill them.

In the blink of an eye, only Zhou Yuluo and Zhuge Mingren remained there.

Of course, in addition to the two of them were three corpses.

Those were the corpses of Dugu Jianxu, the Wine-Meat Monk and Zhou Fukong, who Zhou Yuluo was holding.

“It’s all your fault. You’ve made me lose all face today. I am going to become the object of ridicule for everyone in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm,” Zhou Yuluo looked at Zhuge Mingren. His gaze was filled with complaint.

Faced with such a Zhou Yuluo, Zhuge Mingren sighed helplessly. Then, he said, “No matter how you see me, only I know that my advice today has saved your life.”

“Furthermore, I urge you to not incite your Zhou Heavenly Clan to wage war against Chu Feng after your return.”

“I clearly witnessed the scene from that day. If it wasn’t for Chu Feng stopping himself, the Kong Heavenly Clan would already be exterminated by now. I do not wish for your Zhou Heavenly Clan to become the second Kong Heavenly Clan.”

After he finished saying those words, Zhuge Mingren soared into the sky and left.

At that moment, only Zhou Yuluo remained. He was still holding onto Zhou Yukong with a very gloomy expression on his face.

After a very long time passed, he suddenly opened his mouth and let out an ear-piercing roar.

That voice was extremely ear-piercing. It resonated for several miles and continued to echo in the sky.

Even Chu Feng and Zhao Hong who left first were able to hear that furious roar.

“It’s Zhou Yuluo’s voice. It would appear that he is truly enraged by you,” Zhao Hong said to Chu Feng.

At that moment, Zhao Hong’s face was brimming with joy. She did not feel the slightest bit of lingering fear or regret from killing Dugu Jianxu, the Wine-Meat Monk and Zhou Fukong. On the contrary, she had a very carefree and excited expression.

“His reputation will be completely ruined after today. Naturally, he will be furious,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, that Demon Armament of yours is really capable of killing True Immortals?” Zhao Hong asked curiously.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng said.

“Since your Demon Armament is that powerful, why didn’t you go and directly extinguish the Kong Heavenly Clan using it?” Zhao Hong asked.

Regarding that, Chu Feng shook his head with a smile.

Although the Evil God Sword was very powerful, its power was so uncontrollable that even Chu Feng was afraid of it.

To use the Evil God Sword would be akin to walking through the gates of hell. It would be difficult for one to determine whether or not one would live or die. It was simply no different from gambling with one’s life.

Furthermore, after using the Evil God Sword the last time, Chu Feng had experienced how frightening it was. If he had not forcibly taken control of his body back from the Evil God Sword, it would likely not only be the Kong Heavenly Clan that would be destroyed, but rather the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm that would suffer.

Furthermore, Chu Feng had promised the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Ancestor that regardless of what wrong the Kong Heavenly Clan might’ve done, he must still leave them a way to survive. At the very least, he couldn’t exterminate them all.

Afterwards, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong continued to travel for a very long time. It was only after he determined that they were safe that they stopped.

Chu Feng removed Kong Doumoyuan’s Cosmos Sack from his waist and began to search it. When he managed to retrieve a green medicinal pellet, Chu Feng revealed a relaxed smile.

The reason for that was because that medicinal pellet was the antidote to Wang Qiang's poison.

"You've found the antidote, it's time to kill him now," As Zhao Hong spoke, she planned to kill Kong Doumoyuan.

"Wait," However, Chu Feng stopped Zhao Hong. He said, "With how powerful that poison is, it is most definitely not something from the Ordinary Realms. We must find out about its origins."

After he finished saying those words, Chu Feng began to heal Kong Doumoyuan's injuries. Although his internal injuries were not cured, his external injuries were soon healed.

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan appeared to be completely fine. However, his aura was still extremely weak. The reason for that was because his internal injuries were still extremely serious.

Chu Feng had only healed Kong Doumoyuan's injuries so that he could make it easier for him to speak. The reason for that was because he had questions that he wanted to ask Kong Doumoyuan.

"Tell me, where did you obtain this medicinal pellet?" Chu Feng asked.

"I can tell you. However, you must let me go," Kong Doumoyuan said.

"You dare haggle with us still?" Zhao Hong revealed a furious expression. As she spoke, she planned to attack and teach Kong Doumoyuan a lesson.

"Go ahead and kill me. Kill me if you can. If you are to kill me, you all can forget about finding out who gave me this poison," Kong Doumoyuan closed his eyes. He had the appearance of being unafraid of death.

At that moment, Chu Feng didn't say anything. Instead, he looked at Zhao Hong.

He wanted to know the answer. However, he had also promised Zhao Hong that he would kill this Kong Doumoyuan.

Thus, he had decided to have Zhao Hong personally determine what to do.

At that moment, Zhao Hong's face turned deep red out of anger. However, she did not attack Kong Doumoyuan, and instead said to him with a threatening tone, "If you dare lie to us, I will definitely make you wish you were dead."

"In that case, you've agreed to it? You really won't kill me?" Hearing those words, Kong Doumoyuan opened his eyes and revealed a joyous expression.

After personally witnessing Dugu Jianxu, the Wine-Meat Monk and Zhou Fukong being killed, Kong Doumoyuan felt that he would also undoubtedly be killed.

After all, Zhou Fukong had the protection of Zhou Yuluo, but was still killed. As such, how could he possibly escape death?

He truly never expected that he, the person that Chu Feng and Zhao Hong would want to kill the most, was actually able to see a trace of hope to live. With this, how could he not feel overjoyed?

This Kong Doumoyuan was quite a quick-witted individual. He realized that Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were interested in the origin of his poison.

Thus, he decided to take advantage of it and said to Chu Feng, "Zhao Hong has agreed to not kill me. What about you?"

"As long as you tell the truth, we will spare your life today," Chu Feng said.

"Really?" Kong Doumoyuan was a bit skeptical.

"I, Chu Feng, am always one to keep my word. It is best that you tell me what I want to know. Else... don't blame me for being ruthless,” As Chu Feng spoke, a flash of coldness shone across his eyes.

“Don’t, don’t, don’t. I’ll tell, I’ll tell,” Kong Doumoyuan started to shiver in fear because he saw killing intent from Chu Feng’s eyes.

Chapter 2525 - Great Mysterious Enemy

---

“That poison was given to me by someone. I do not know who that person is. All I know is that he was wearing a blue gown that covered his face. As such, I was unable to see his appearance. However, I am certain that he is a True Immortal-level expert,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“Was there any distinctive property to that blue gown?” Chu Feng asked.

“There was nothing distinctive. That blue gown was very clean. Not only did it not have any embroidery, it didn’t even have any patterns,” Kong Doumoyuan said.

“Why would he give you the poison without any reason?” Chu Feng asked.

“This...” Kong Doumoyuan started to hesitate.

“Speak!!!” Chu Feng shouted at him.

“He gave me the poison so that I could take care of you all. He said... that if I am to encounter you all and I’m unable to win, then use the poison, as it will definitely be able to kill you.”

“Back then, when I was fighting against Wang Qiang and Zhao Hong, I saw that they were no match for me and thus thought the poison to be useless.”

“But, it remained that person had given me the poison so that I could use it on all you. Thus, I decided that I should not waste the poison, and ended up using it on Wang Qiang.”

“That was what happened. After that, I never encountered that individual again. I also do not know who he is or why he wanted to help me take care of you all,” Kong Doumoyuan was nervous. He was deeply afraid that Chu Feng would go back on his word and kill him.

“Let’s go,” As Chu Feng spoke, he began to walk toward the distance. Zhao Hong silently followed him.

When Chu Feng was healing Kong Doumoyuan’s injuries, he had actually left behind a spirit formation on him. That spirit formation was capable of determining whether or not Kong Doumoyuan was lying.

Thus, he was certain that Kong Doumoyuan had spoken the truth and did not lie to them.

Seeing that Chu Feng and Zhao Hong really left, Kong Doumoyuan was overjoyed. Then, the corners of his mouth rose into a strange smile.

He thought in his heart, ‘What fools. They actually really spared me. However, I dare to guarantee that your decision to spare me today will be something that you will regret the most!’

The more Kong Doumoyuan thought about it, the more pleased he became. He had done all this and caused so many people to die. Yet he, the person that Chu Feng and Zhao Hong wanted to kill the most, actually survived. He was feeling overjoyed.

Furthermore, with Kong Doumoyuan’s character, he would naturally not feel grateful toward Chu Feng and Zhao Hong merely because they spared his life.

On the contrary, he was planning on how to take revenge on Chu Feng and Zhao Hong.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng waved his hand, and a ray of light flew out from his hand. It was flying toward Kong Doumoyuan.

It was a blade ray formed with martial power. Furthermore, its speed was extremely fast. With a ‘puu,’ it pierced into Kong Doumoyuan’s dantian.

At that moment, Kong Doumoyuan's cultivation was completely destroyed.

“Chu Feng, you broke your promise!!!” Kong Doumoyuan shouted with incomparable rage.

At that moment, he truly felt as if he was in between heaven and hell.

He had originally thought that he had escaped a calamity. Yet, his cultivation that he had trained bitterly for years to obtain was suddenly crippled. To him, this was something even more painful than being killed.

Faced with the furious Kong Doumoyuan, Chu Feng laughed coldly. “I only agreed to not kill you. I never said that I would not harm you. I'm already being merciful in only crippling your cultivation.”

After he finished saying those words, Chu Feng flew away.

At that moment, Zhao Hong, who was previously feeling depressed, revealed an enchanting smile.

Although she was unable to kill Kong Doumoyuan today, it was still a satisfaction to cripple his cultivation.

After obtaining the antidote, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong would naturally be proceeding toward Mount Cloud Crane.

However, on their way there, one thing had been bothering Chu Feng the entire time. He was wondering who exactly it was that wanted them dead. Furthermore, that person was a True Immortal on top of that.

Most importantly, it was very possible for that True Immortal to be an expert from the Upper Realms.

Chu Feng and Zhao Hong pondered the issue for a long time. However, they were unable to think of an answer.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng didn't feel like he had ever offended any True Immortals apart from the ones from the Kong Heavenly Clan.

At the moment when Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were racking their brains thinking about who that individual might be, Her Lady Queen suddenly said, “Chu Feng, if my guess is correct, that person... should be someone from the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“Eggy, why would you say that?” Chu Feng asked.

“Although you haven’t offended any of the Chu Heavenly Clan’s True Immortal-level experts, you have killed a person from the Chu Heavenly Clan.”

“Although the Chu Heavenly Clan has announced that they will not care about the life or death of their younger generations while they’re in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, it remains that those younger generations of theirs are people of their Chu Heavenly Clan. As such, how could they really sit and watch, but remain indifferent?” Her Lady Queen analyzed.

“Now that you mention it, it is reasonable.”

“If others were to possess the strength of True Immortal and wanted to take care of me, they could very well attack me head-on. There would be no need for them to help Kong Doumoyuan from the shadows and hide their identity while doing so.”

“If we must provide an explanation for that, then it is true that the Chu Heavenly Clan will be the most suspicious. After all... they cannot attack me openly. If they are to do so, they’ll have gone against the rules established by their Chu Heavenly Clan,” Chu Feng said.

“Chu Feng, this is no small matter.”

“It would be one thing if it were only the people from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. However, with your current strength, if you are truly targeted by the Chu Heavenly Clan, you cannot be careless anymore.”

“In short, regardless of who it is that is targeting you from the shadows, you must be careful,” Her Lady Queen warned.

“I will be careful,” Chu Feng said.

After that, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong continued to travel, and finally arrived at Mount Cloud Crane.

Their arrival this time was different from usual. They were not stopped, but were instead directly sent to the Golden Crane True Immortal’s side with a teleportation formation right after reaching Mount Cloud Crane.

“Senior, how was it? Could it be that something has happened?”

Right after seeing the Golden Crane True Immortal, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong became nervous. They faintly felt that something was amiss.

The reason for that was because they discovered that the Golden Crane True Immortal had a very serious expression on his face.

Such a serious expression made them afraid that something had happened to Wang Qiang.

“There are two matters that I must tell you two about” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Senior, please go ahead,” Chu Feng and Zhao Hong said in unison.

“Firstly, I have actually already removed Wang Qiang’s poison. I had the two of you search for the antidote merely because I wanted you two to find some answers,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“.....”

Hearing those words, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong both fell silent. They had a sensation of being toyed with.

After all, the two of them had searched for that antidote while placing their lives on the line all so that they could save Wang

Qiang. Yet... in the end, Wang Qiang's poison was already removed.

Fortunately, they managed to get through this daunting journey without mishap. Else... even Chu Feng was unable to be certain as to whether or not he would hate the Golden Crane True Immortal.

“Senior, what about the second matter?” Chu Feng asked.

“The second matter is also related to Wang Qiang,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“What's wrong with Wang Qiang?” Chu Feng and Zhao Hong asked in unison. After all, the two of them were the most worried for Wang Qiang's safety.

“There has been a change to Wang Qiang's body. It will be difficult for me to describe.”

“How about this, the two of you can follow me. Merely, you must be prepared for what you'll see,” After he finished those words, the Golden Crane True Immortal waved his sleeve. Then, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong felt the scenery before them changing rapidly.

The next moment, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong's line of sight returned to normal. They had arrived deep inside a palace.

“That is?!!!!”

At that moment, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong's expressions both changed enormously.

The palace was not very large, nor was it very gorgeous. However, it was very special. Its four walls were all very firm, as very powerful spirit formations had been placed on them.

Furthermore, the structural composition of the walls were very special too. This most definitely meant that this was a place for one to enter closed-door training.

Merely, a place for closed-door training should not suffice for Chu Feng and Zhao Hong to react like they did.

The reason why they were reacting like that was because Wang Qiang was lying here.

Furthermore, the current Wang Qiang could be said to be entirely different from how he was before.

An enormous change had occurred to Wang Qiang's body.

This change was so enormous that even Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were astonished by it.

Chapter 2526 - Power Awakening

---

At that moment, Wang Qiang's body seemed to have doubled in size. His skin was distorting and wriggling nonstop.

It was as if something was about to emerge from within his body.

Furthermore, Wang Qiang's body was also emitting a faint glow.

This faint glow was slightly strange. Even though it was very faint, one could tell upon closer inspection that it was composed of four different colors.

They were green, blue, red and purple.

Most importantly, apart from the radiance, there was also a sort of gaseous flame that surrounded Wang Qiang together with the light. Those gaseous flames were also green, blue, red and purple.

It was as if flames were rising from Wang Qiang's body.

"Senior, what happened to Wang Qiang?"

"Didn't you say that the poison has been removed?"

Chu Feng was panicky. He was unable to determine exactly what was happening with Wang Qiang.

"No, it's not poison. I've already removed that poison. The change to Wang Qiang right now is indeed somewhat strange."

"However, you all actually do not have to worry about it. What's happening to him is not something bad but something good," Suddenly, the Golden Crane True Immortal removed his serious expression and revealed a faint smile.

It was as if he had been deliberately pretending with that serious expression he wore before, that he was toying with Chu Feng and Zhao Hong.

"Good thing?" Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were confused.

"Wang Qiang's current appearance seems more like some sort of hidden power within him is awakening,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Some sort of hidden power within him is awakening?” Hearing those words, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong were both shocked. Then, they were overjoyed.

The reason for that was because if the power hidden within Wang Qiang were to awaken, then it would most likely increase Wang Qiang’s strength. To Wang Qiang, this would indeed be something good.

“However, exactly what sort of power is this? Could it be Divine Power?” Chu Feng asked.

“Something like this is hard to tell. For some, it might be because their Inherited Bloodline has been sealed. For others, it might be that their Divine Power was sealed.”

“However, regardless of which it might be, it remains a good thing for Wang Qiang. Thus, the two of you do not have to worry too much,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Senior, is this sort of seal man-made?” Chu Feng wanted to know whether or not someone had sealed Wang Qiang’s power.

“That’s hard to say. It might be possible that someone did the sealing, and it might also be possible that it was caused by some sort of unforeseen event.”

“Since his power is automatically awakening, it is very possible that his hidden power sealed itself.”

“If it was sealed by someone, how could the seal be undone this easily?” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“What senior says is very true,” Hearing what the Golden Crane True Immortal said, Chu Feng heaved a sigh of relief.

If the sealing of Wang Qiang’s power was not man-made, then it would mean that Wang Qiang did not have some sort of enemy that sealed his power.

However, there was no such thing as an absolute. Even if the sealing wasn't man-made, it could not be said with certainty that Wang Qiang did not have enemies.

After all, as long as his power was sealed, this meant that he must've encountered something in the past.

"My husband is truly exceptional. His talents were already this amazing even before his power completely awakened. If his power is to completely awaken, wouldn't he be even more powerful?"

"Haha, I truly want to see exactly what my husband's awakening power will be like."

Zhao Hong was overjoyed. As Wang Qiang's lover, she would naturally be more happy than others to see her husband receiving such a fortunate opportunity.

"Roar~~~"

Right at that moment, a roar suddenly sounded from within Wang Qiang.

That roar was extremely strange. The moment it was heard, Chu Feng immediately felt a shiver all over.

Precisely because that voice was so frightening, Chu Feng, Zhao Hong and the Golden Crane True Immortal all involuntarily took two steps back.

At that moment, Chu Feng looked at Zhao Hong and the Golden Crane True Immortal, and discovered that they had the same reaction as him.

It was one thing for Zhao Hong to have the same sort of reaction as him. However, the Golden Crane True Immortal was a renowned individual from an Upper Realm. Yet, even his expression changed upon hearing that roar.

"Senior, what's happening to my husband? Why would there be a beast roaring from within his body? Furthermore, that roar was so terrifying.”

“Are you certain that it is his power that is about to awaken, and not some sort of monster sealed within him?” Zhao Hong asked nervously.

The reason for that was because she had discovered that not only was Wang Qiang’s body emitting that strange roar, but the dark purple radiance on his body was also growing stronger and stronger.

“Move back immediately.”

At that moment, the Golden Crane True Immortal waved his sleeve and brought Chu Feng and Zhao Hong behind him.

He had moved to the edge of the palace hall with Chu Feng and Zhao Hong.

Then, he set up a spirit formation to seal Wang Qiang within it.

That spirit formation was very large, and was composed of many layers of spirit formations. It was a very powerful sealing formation.

“Senior, what are you doing?” Seeing this scene, Zhao Hong started to panic even more.

She was panicky because she was worried that some sort of monster was sealed in Wang Qiang’s body, a monster that could end up taking Wang Qiang’s life.

Among them, the Golden Crane True Immortal would be the person with the greatest capability of saving Wang Qiang’s life.

However, not only did the Golden Crane True Immortal not do anything to save Wang Qiang’s life, he instead set up such a powerful sealing formation to seal Wang Qiang within it. She felt that he was simply abandoning Wang Qiang. As such, how could Zhao Hong not be panicky?

“Zhao Hong, you don’t have to worry. It is most definitely some sort of power awakening from within Wang Qiang. Thus, his life will not be in danger. Instead, it is us, the bystanders, that need to be careful.”

“Judging from things now, regardless of what sort of power Wang Qiang’s awakening power might be, it is very powerful.”

“I fear that power will be enormously ferocious once it is completely awakened,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Ah?” Hearing those words, Zhao Hong’s mouth opened slightly. Joy emerged in her eyes. According to what the Golden Crane True Immortal had said, this was most definitely a good thing.

Not only would Wang Qiang obtain a new power, but this power was also extremely strong.

“Senior, there are four different beast roars coming from Wang Qiang’s body. Could it be that there are four ferocious beasts within his body?” Chu Feng said.

“Four different beast roars?” Zhao Hong was surprised. She had felt that the roars were all the same.

“Chu Feng, your hearing is very good. Indeed, there are four different beasts roaring right now. Thus... it might be possible that Wang Qiang is a person from a Monstrous Clan, and his body contains some sort of Monstrous Bloodline,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“A person from a Monstrous Clan, is it?” Chu Feng’s expression changed. Although he was surprised, he was able to accept it.

After all, Wang Qiang’s origins were a mystery. Although he appeared to be a human the entire time, if his Monstrous Bloodline was sealed, it would be natural for him to be unable to take a Monstrous Beast form or emit a Monstrous Beast’s aura.

“Roar~~~”

Right at that moment, the four roars grew even more resounding and distinctive.

Those were indeed roars from four different beasts. Furthermore, their roars were extremely frightening. One would feel fear from one's heart upon hearing those roars.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, heaven and earth started to shake violently. It was as if Wang Qiang's body had exploded.

A dark purple radiance and dark purple gaseous flames filled the entire spirit formation that sealed Wang Qiang within.

At that moment, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong's hearts tightened. They were both afraid that something might happen to Wang Qiang.

However, through seeing with his Heaven's Eyes, Chu Feng's suspended heart was lifted.

Wang Qiang was still present within the spirit formation. Not only was he completely unscathed, but his body was also emitting a purple radiance.

At that moment, Wang Qiang's body had returned to its original size. It was also no longer distorted or twitching. It was as if Wang Qiang had returned to normal.

Although Wang Qiang was fine, Chu Feng once again revealed an extremely astonished expression.

The reason for that was because four enormous ferocious beasts were standing around Wang Qiang.

Those four ferocious beasts were respectively green, red, blue and purple.

They were each over a hundred meters tall and several hundred meters long. Those were four actual colossuses.

Furthermore, although those four ferocious beasts had different appearances, they were all extremely fierce-looking, and possessed sharp fangs.

Chu Feng had seen many frightening things in his life. However, it was the first time Chu Feng had ever seen ferocious beasts as frightening as the four before him.

If the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermilion Bird and Black Tortoise were four Divine Beasts from the heavens...

Then, the four ferocious beasts surrounding Wang Qiang resembled Demonic Beasts from hell.

Not only were they extremely ugly in appearance, but their auras were also ice-cold, dark and fierce.

Furthermore, even though a spirit formation was separating them, Chu Feng was still able to sense the might of the four ferocious beasts. They were so powerful that even Chu Feng's hairs started to stand on end.

However, to Chu Feng's joy, regardless of how fierce and frightening the four ferocious beasts were, they did not seem to have any intention of harming Wang Qiang.

Instead, they seemed to be guarding Wang Qiang.

Chapter 2527 - Zhao Hong's Decision

---

The four sinister and frightening ferocious beasts were red, green, blue and purple.

Although their bodies were only bodies of light and not actual physical bodies, the oppressive sensation they emitted was enough to make one suffocate.

At that moment, the four beasts all possessed a ray of light that was linked to Wang Qiang's body like chains.

The four different colored rays of lights all gathered on Wang Qiang's body. That was how the four different lights and gaseous flames came to be.

"This shouldn't be an Inherited Bloodline, right?" Chu Feng asked.

At that moment, Chu Feng was pleasantly surprised. He was surprised at how powerful those beasts were, and gratified that Wang Qiang was the master of such power.

That said, although the four ferocious beasts were emitting very dark and gloomy auras, they made him recall his own Four Great Secret Skills, the Four Symbols Divine Body.

Thus, Chu Feng felt that Wang Qiang's power was very possibly that of a Divine Body. Furthermore, it should be a very powerful sort of Divine Power.

"Indeed, it doesn't resemble an ordinary Inherited Bloodline. However, it also doesn't resemble Divine Power. I have never seen such a strange Divine Power," The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

"Regardless of what it is, it seems that the power within my husband's body is very strong, no?"

Seeing that Wang Qiang was fine, Zhao Hong revealed an extremely overjoyed expression. Furthermore, her eyes seemed to be shining as she swept her gaze across the four ferocious beasts nonstop.

“Wang Qiang’s power has only just awakened. It is still unstable. We will know whether this is a special sort of Inherited Bloodline or a special sort of Divine Power when his power completely awakens,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Senior, how long do you think it’ll take for Wang Qiang’s power to completely awaken?” Chu Feng asked.

“That’s very hard to say. That said, I have seen many people with hidden powers awakening.”

“According to the experience I have, after a person’s power is completely awakened, that person will also receive an increase in strength.”

“The longer it takes for a power to completely awaken, the more powerful it will be. Thus, it is not detrimental for Wang Qiang to take a long time.”

“Before he awakens completely, you all can have him stay here with me,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said to Chu Feng.

“Thank you senior,” Chu Feng and Zhao Hong hurriedly expressed their thanks.

The two of them knew very well that the Golden Crane True Immortal’s residence could be said to be one of the safest places in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Unless it was an expert from an Upper Realm, practically no one in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm would dare come to Mount Cloud Crane to act atrociously.

If Wang Qiang could continue to stay here, the power within him would definitely be able to awaken safely.

“It would appear that my brother has not suffered in vain. At the very least, it allowed the power within him to awaken. This could also be considered to be fortune from within a disaster,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“That’s right, that’s right,” Zhao Hong nodded repeatedly. She was smiling very brilliantly.

Afterwards, Chu Feng and Zhao Hong chatted with the Golden Crane True Immortal about many things.

From their conversations, the Golden Crane True Immortal came to find out about Chu Feng and Zhao Hong killing Dugu Jianxu and the others.

“Chu Feng, Zhao Hong, I must say that the two of you are simply too impulsive.”

“However, since it has already happened, I will not say too much about it. Merely, this time around, the two of you have offended all four of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s tier one powers. When you two go out again, you must be extra careful.”

“Else, you might end up losing your lives here, and miss the opportunity to journey to the Upper Realms,” The Golden Crane True Immortal said.

“Senior, please rest assured. This was caused by me, Zhao Hong. I am able to shoulder this responsibility.”

“I will definitely not continue to hide in Mount Cloud Crane. I will leave right now.”

After Zhao Hong finished saying those words, she clasped her fist at the Golden Crane True Immortal and added, “Senior, thank you for your hospitality, and thank you for protecting my husband. I, Zhao Hong, will remember senior’s kindness. I will definitely repay you in the future.”

After she finished saying those words, Zhao Hong immediately got up and proceeded to walk toward the exit of Mount Cloud Crane.

Seeing that, Chu Feng hurriedly chased after Zhao Hong. He was only able to stop Zhao Hong outside of Mount Cloud Crane, “Zhao Hong, Senior Golden Crane did not have the intention to drive us out. Why must you be this emotional?”

“Chu Feng, I know that Senior Golden Crane does not have the intention to drive us out. I am also not doing this because of anger toward Senior.”

“Merely, right now, I really do have an important matter that I must take care of,” Zhao Hong said.

“Very well, even if you must leave, we should leave together. I’ll accompany you,” Chu Feng said.

“No,” Zhao Hong shook her head, “Chu Feng, you must stay here.”

“With the current situation, the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm is simply too dangerous. However, with your talent, as long as you enter closed-door training, you will definitely one day break through into True Immortal realm. At that time, with all the abilities you possess, you will not have to be afraid of the four tier one powers.”

“The Golden Crane True Immortal possesses quite a good relationship with you. Although he will not help us take care of our enemies, he should be willing to agree to have you stay here and undergo closed-door training.”

“Thus, at this time, it’s best for you to stay on Mount Cloud Crane,” Zhao Hong said.

“No, if I, Chu Feng, am to hide myself like this, I’ll truly become an object of ridicule for the four tier one powers, an object of ridicule for the people of the world,” Chu Feng said.

“Could it be that you plan to continue fighting against them? But, Chu Feng, our enemy was only the Kong Heavenly Clan before. And now, it is all of the four tier one powers. They are the strongest powers in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. How are you to take them on?”

“Furthermore, I am leaving because I have something important that I must do. I will not be able to bring you with me, and also will not be able to fight against the four tier one powers with you,” Zhao Hong said.

“Exactly what is so important for you to leave this urgently? Explain to me exactly what it is. Else... I will not let you go,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

At that moment, Zhao Hong grew silent. Chu Feng was able to see hesitations and misgivings in her eyes.

However, after a short moment, Zhao Hong opened her mouth, “Actually, I should tell you about this matter.”

“Merely... I fear that you will worry. That’s why I have been hesitant to tell you the entire time. Since you insist on learning about it, I will not keep it from you.”

It turned out there was a reason why Zhao Hong’s cultivation had been able to increase during the past two years. She had managed to encounter another chance opportunity, and discovered another remnant.

She had not been to the depths of that remnant the entire time. The reason for that was because there was a certain amount of danger in the remnant.

However, as she had made enemies of the four tier one powers, if she did not increase her cultivation rapidly, she would only become a burden.

Zhao Hong did not wish to become Chu Feng and Wang Qiang’s burden.

Thus, she had decided to challenge that remnant.

“Do you really not need me to accompany you?” Chu Feng was worried. From Zhao Hong's tone, he was able to tell that even though that remnant was capable of allowing her to become stronger, it was also capable of killing her.

"I know that you can help me. However, I wish to accomplish this task myself."

"Chu Feng, you know it too. For Martial Cultivators, we must mature through predicaments. For some things, I must face them myself."

"Furthermore, didn't you yourself also experience a lot in order to grow so much in such a short period of time?" Zhao Hong said.

"Very well. Since you've decided, I will no longer stop you. However... you must definitely return safely. Your husband is still waiting for you," Chu Feng said.

"I will definitely succeed. Are you really planning to take on the four tier one powers with your current strength and by yourself?"

"I truly hope you can stay here to accompany my husband. With your talent, when my husband's power is completely awakened, you will definitely be able to make progress too. If you are to give me enough time, I too will definitely succeed."

"At that time, the three of us can come out together and declare war against the four tier one powers. Wouldn't that be even better?" Zhao Hong asked.

She was not only very emotional when she said these words, but her eyes were also filled with anticipation.

It seemed that Zhao Hong had already made preparations to take on the four tier one powers in the future.

Chapter 2528 - Four Tier One Powers

---

“Rest assured, I will not go and battle against the four tier one powers by myself. However, I will also not be staying on Mount Cloud Crane,” Chu Feng said determinedly.

“I truly don’t know what to do with you. However, regardless, you must care for your safety. I hope that when I return, you’ll be able to stand before me unscathed.”

“No, not hope, instead, you must definitely stand before me unscathed.”

“Chu Feng, as Wang Qiang is my husband, he cannot be considered to be my friend.”

“Thus, I, Zhao Hong, only have you as my friend. I also only recognize you as my friend.”

“I hope that the three of us can journey together,” After saying those words, the corners of Zhao Hong’s eyes actually started to moisten.

She was looking at Chu Feng with a gaze filled with concern.

Zhao Hong was truly no longer that cold-blooded and ruthless demonic woman. She had become emotional. Her rare emotions were placed onto Wang Qiang and Chu Feng.

Toward Wang Qiang, she felt love.

Toward Chu Feng, she felt friendship.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s heart also started to feel sour.

As Zhao Hong’s only friend, he was able to sense how much he weighed in her heart.

“Very well, let’s make a promise today. When Wang Qiang awakens, the two of us must both stand before him unscathed.”

“Regardless of whether it is the Upper Realms or the Starfields, in the future, the three of us will journey to them together,” Chu Feng said to Zhao Hong.

“Mn,” Zhao Hong nodded sternly.

Then, Zhao Hong left. As for Chu Feng, he returned to bid his farewell to the Golden Crane True Immortal and then also left.

Zhao Hong had left for that remnant.

As for Chu Feng, he naturally had a destination in mind too. Chu Feng’s destination was a place called the Demon Elimination Cave.

Chu Feng was proceeding for the Demon Elimination Cave to search for someone, a person by the name of Zi Xunyi.

Back in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, not only did Chu Feng obtain the Kong Heavenly Clan’s ancestor’s inheritance, he had also encountered an individual. That individual was the City Master of Hero City, whose reputation had shaken the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm a thousand years ago, Ying Mingchao.

Ying Mingchao was plotted against by both the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan. He was forced to use his Taboo Technique to escape. However, that Taboo Technique caused him to be trapped inside the Kong Heavenly Clan’s forbidden area, the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

Chu Feng had promised Ying Mingchao that he would help rescue him. As for the person that could rescue Ying Mingchao, it was a person by the name of Zi Xunyi.

.....

Should Chu Feng be able to successfully rescue Ying Mingchao, Ying Mingchao would definitely take revenge against the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan.

Thus, the top priority for Chu Feng would be to rescue Ying Mingchao.

As Chu Feng bid his farewell to the Golden Crane True Immortal, he had also inquired about how to proceed for the Demon Elimination Cave.

Although the Demon Elimination Cave was a dangerous place, Ying Mingchao had given Chu Feng a route to take. Thus, Chu Feng's journey toward the Demon Elimination Cave could be said to be sure-fire and worry-free.

However, Chu Feng had no idea that while he was proceeding for the Demon Elimination Cave, the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, the Immortal Sword School's Headmaster and the Buddha's Heavenly Temple's Abbot had all arrived at the Zhou Heavenly Clan.

Inside the Zhou Heavenly Clan's most gorgeous main palace hall, the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, as well as their several Utmost Exalted Elders, were all present.

Although not a lot of people were present in the palace hall, they were all True Immortal-level experts.

At that moment, those True Immortal-level experts were gathered around three coffins.

Those three coffins were all made of crystal. Not only were they capable of stopping the decay of corpses, one could also see the corpses through the crystal coffins.

The corpses inside the three crystal coffins were respectively, Dugu Jianxu, the Wine-Meat Monk and Zhou Fukong.

Suddenly, an old man among the crowd spoke, "Two sirs, are the two of you still unable to make a resolution?"

This old man was very tall and sturdy. He possessed two long patches of white hair on his temples, but the rest of his hair was jet-black.

At a glance, he simply did not resemble an old man. Furthermore, his aura was extremely fierce and tough.

This was especially true for his eyes. They simply did not resemble human eyes, as they were even sharper, even fiercer, than the eyes of ferocious beasts.

He was the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, Zhou Yuyuan.

His words were spoken toward two individuals.

They were two old men...

One of them was filled with the aura of immortality. On his back were three swords. He appeared very mysterious, and gave off the airs of a living immortal.

He was the headmaster of the Immortal Sword School, Daoist Sword Governor.

As for the other old man, he was a very amiable-looking monk with a very petite build. He was the Abbot of Buddha's Heavenly Temple, Monk Yuangui. [1. Yuangui means 'desire to return.' A monk-sounding name I guess.]

The two of them had been here for a while now. They had also come to know about what had happened.

The Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan naturally wanted them all to join hands to eradicate Chu Feng together.

Merely, the two of them were hesitant.

"Chu Feng has killed our most prospective disciples. He is clearly not placing us in his eyes."

"If we are to let this matter go like this, wouldn't we become objects of ridicule for the people of the world?"

"I truly do not understand why the two of you are still hesitating," The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had become impatient.

"Jingyi has always been a naughty and mischievous child. He had indeed done many excessive things. I have punished him severely so as to discipline him. However, time and time again, he refused to repent.”

“Originally, I had planned to lock him up in our Buddha’s Heavenly Temple so that he would not go out to stir up troubles. Never would I have expected for this matter to happen before I could do so.”

“However, with the nature of this child Jingyi, it is very hard for me to say that Chu Feng is in the wrong here.”

“Thus, before we thoroughly investigate what happened, I will not rashly attack Chu Feng,” The Buddha’s Heavenly Temple’s Abbot gently caressed the Wine-Meat Monk’s coffin as he spoke.

As for the Jingyi that he spoke of, it was the Wine-Meat Monk’s buddhist name. [2. Jingyi means ‘cleanse one.’]

“What is there to investigate? There were so many people present back then. They were all able to verify that Chu Feng was the one in the wrong,” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Our Buddha’s Heavenly Temple will look into this matter ourselves. Farewell,” As the Buddha’s Heavenly Temple’s Abbot spoke, he soared into the sky. The crystal coffin with the Wine-Meat Monk also left with him.

“My opinion is the same as Grandmaster Yuangui’s. Two sirs, please don’t think too much into it. It is not that I do not believe you all. Merely, for some things, I wish to personally verify them first. After all, this matter is of great concern.”

“Apart from that, I thank you all for bringing back Jianxu’s body. Farewell,” After that, the Immortal Sword School’s Headmaster also left with Dugu Jianxu’s corpse.

At that moment, only the people from the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan remained in the palace hall.

“Those two are still this indecisive. Who knows how long they are going to investigate this matter,” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief complained angrily.

“You couldn’t possibly really be thinking that they’re planning to investigate, right?” At that moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, who had been silent the entire time, suddenly spoke.

“You mean to say that they do not plan to make an enemy of Chu Feng?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“That’s obvious. They will not act,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Then what about you? What do you plan to do?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked. From his gaze, it could be seen that he was very afraid that the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief would also decide to not confront Chu Feng.

“It is all because of that Chu Feng that our Kong Heavenly Clan has fallen to our current state. There is already no way out for me. Even if I do not attack him, he will not let me off.”

“Thus, it should be me asking you, are you willing to join hands with me to eliminate that Chu Feng?” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“Is there even a need for you to ask me that? I am definitely not going to let things go. Not only that Chu Feng, that Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang are also going to be eliminated.”

“Not only them, but everyone related to them shall be eliminated. Else... I will not be able to curb my anger, my hatred.” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief spoke as he gnashed his teeth angrily. Intense and frightening killing intent was present in his eyes.

Chapter 2529 - Chanced Encounter With Li Ming

---

After journeying for some time, Chu Feng arrived at the so-called Demon Elimination Cave.

The Demon Elimination Cave was located in an enormous basin. This basin was so enormous that it could be described as being boundless.

Brilliant green stones were flickering within the basin. Even though it was night, this place was still exceptionally bright.

At a glance, the basin appeared to be an ocean filled with green gems. It was a very spectacular scene.

The Demon Elimination Cave was actually a very beautiful place. It could be considered to be a very scenic land.

However, the Demon Elimination Cave was a forbidden area of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. The reason for that was because this Demon Elimination Cave originated from the Ancient Era.

Reportedly, a very ferocious Monstrous Clan once appeared in the Ancient Era. That Monstrous Clan possessed special Inherited Bloodlines and enormous power. They began to run amuck throughout the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm fearlessly.

Later on, the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's many experts joined hands to resist the Monstrous Clan. They chose a peculiar terrain to set up countless traps and slaughtering formations.

Later on, those experts lured the Monstrous Clan into a battle at that location.

The Monstrous Clan did not know of the traps. After being lured into that place, they were eradicated by the countless traps and slaughtering formations.

From then on, the fierce Monstrous Clan disappeared. From that point on... that location where they were eradicated was known as the Demon Elimination Cave. [1. Discovered that it should be Monstrous Elimination Cave. However, it's over a hundred chapters to change. I guess I should just keep it as-is.]

Those slaughtering formations from the Ancient Era were still present in the Demon Elimination Cave. Those traps were also still present. Due to the fact that the slaughtering formations and traps were extremely dangerous, even True Immortals did not dare to enter the Demon Elimination Cave at will.

Thus, the Demon Elimination Cave could be said to be one of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's most fiercely famous forbidden areas.

However, Chu Feng knew of a safe passage. This passage was capable of allowing him to avoid countless slaughtering formations and traps to enter the depths of the Demon Elimination Cave safely.

“This place is truly a wondrous location.”

At that moment, Chu Feng had already entered the Demon Elimination Cave.

He was currently proceeding according to the route. Upon entering the Demon Elimination Cave, Chu Feng discovered that although the Demon Elimination Cave was boundlessly vast when judged from the outside, he felt that the inside was even more vast upon entering it.

The Demon Elimination Cave was simply too enormous. Even for Chu Feng, it would likely take him several days of travel to reach its depths.

With that in mind, Chu Feng began to ponder. Those seniors from the Ancient Era, exactly how enormous of an effort did they put in to set up all these slaughtering formations and traps inside this place?

“Chu Feng, listen, it seems like something is shouting,” Her Lady Queen’s gentle and beautiful voice was heard. She was warning Chu Feng.

It was not that Her Lady Queen was nervous. As Chu Feng entered further into the Demon Elimination Cave, many strange sounds could be heard. Some were louder than others, and some sounded closer than others.

Those sounds resembled the anguished wailing of fierce ghosts. Yet, they also resembled a mixture of screams, roars and cries of resentment from people.

Some of the sounds appeared to be from very far away, whereas others appeared to be right beside one’s ear. Those were noises that caused one’s blood to run cold. It was very frightening.

Chu Feng swept through his surroundings with his Heaven’s Eyes, but was unable to see anything. However, the further he went into the Demon Elimination Cave, the more distinct the sounds became.

“The terrain of this place is very special. Furthermore, there’s all these slaughtering formations set up here. This makes it so that sounds that have originated here before continue to linger.”

“I think that these sounds we’re hearing are the sounds from the participants of that major battle during the Ancient Era,” Chu Feng said.

“If that really is the case, then with how enormous this place is and how the sounds are present throughout this place, the battle back then was truly vast. There were most definitely a lot of casualties,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Although many of the things from the Ancient Era have become mysteries now, there is one thing that is widely accepted by everyone. That is, the Ancient Era's martial cultivators were stronger than the current martial cultivators," Chu Feng said.

"Chu Feng, in that case, do you think all of the experts from the Ancient Era are all dead? Could some have managed to survive?" Her Lady Queen asked.

"That's hard to say. Even in the Eastern Sea Region, there was a wondrous land like the Misty Peak. I believe there is no lack of wondrous lands in this vast Outer World."

"Since there are Ancient Era's Organisms that cannot be explained still present, then it would not be impossible for the experts that traveled about unhindered through the Ancient Era to still be living today," Chu Feng said.

"If they're alive, they must be really powerful," Her Lady Queen said.

"If there are really those that survived from the Ancient Era, I truly wish to meet them," Chu Feng smiled.

"That said, with how devastating the battle from back then was, sounds from the battle shouldn't be the only things that remain, no? There should be bones and remains. Why are no bones to be seen here?" Her Lady Queen asked curiously.

"They must've been retrieved by others," Chu Feng said.

"They have truly picked everything clean," Her Lady Queen said.

"Mn?" Suddenly, Chu Feng's gaze changed. After his gaze was cast toward a location, he suddenly stopped moving forward.

"It's her?" At that moment, Her Lady Queen's gaze also changed. A surprised expression emerged in her beautiful eyes.

As Chu Feng possessed the Heaven's Eyes, he was not only able to see through obstructions, but was also able to see very far.

At that moment, Chu Feng and Her Lady Queen were seeing a slaughtering formation.

The slaughtering formation was currently active. At that moment, there was actually a person trapped inside the slaughtering formation.

At that moment, all of the powers of that slaughtering formation were attacking that individual with the intention to kill them.

As for the person that was trapped, it was a young man. Not only was he very young, but his skin was also very tender, soft and fair. It was even better than the skin of many women.

As for his face, it was also very delicate and fine. If he were a female, he would definitely be a beauty.

In fact, that person actually was a female. She was a female dressed up as a man.

She was Young Master Li Ming.

“Enemies of a narrow road. To encounter her here, that girl is truly one to travel everywhere. Why would she come to the Demon Elimination Cave?” Chu Feng had a surprised expression on his face.

“What’s the plan? Are you going to help her?” Her Lady Queen asked mischievously.

“That slaughtering formation that has trapped her is no small matter. It is very difficult to breach from the inside. Although she is also a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it is still very difficult for her to breach that slaughtering formation. Logically, I should help her.”

“However, she clearly harbored hard feelings for me due to what happened last time. I’m afraid that if I am to save her, she will not only not be grateful, but will instead attack me.”

“If that’s the case, the gains will not make up for the losses,” Chu Feng said.

“When you fought her last time, you were still a rank seven Martial Ancestor. However, you're a rank eight Martial Ancestor now. As for her, judging by her aura... she should still be a rank nine Martial Ancestor."

"Even if the two of you both possess heaven-defying battle powers capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation, don't forget that you're a Heavenly Bloodline possessor, and have also grasped the two great secret skills of Ancient Era's War Axe and Ancient Era's War Sword. She is no match for you," Her Lady Queen said.

"Milady Queen, it seems like you very much want me to help her? She's a little beauty. Furthermore, that feeling is truly exceptional."

"If I am to go help her, wouldn't Milady Queen feel jealous?" Chu Feng said with a mischievous laugh.

"Humph~~~ Humph~~~"

Her Lady Queen did not answer Chu Feng, and instead replied with two snorts.

Her two snorts were truly mocking in nature. It was like two sledgehammers ruthlessly smashing onto Chu Feng's head. They were telling him that he was overthinking things.

Her Lady Queen would simply not be jealous. The reason why she was not jealous was because Chu Feng's status in her heart had yet to reach that level.

Regardless of how much Her Lady Queen cared about Chu Feng, she only considered him a friend, and not a lover.

"Sigh~~~"

Chu Feng sighed awkwardly. Then, he flew toward the slaughtering formation trapping Young Master Li Ming.

Chu Feng did not dislike Young Master Li Ming. In fact, he felt guilty for touching her breasts by accident.

And now, she was in danger. Chu Feng would naturally help her.

Chapter 2530 - Farewell

---

After approaching, Chu Feng began to see the grand formation that had trapped Young Master Li Ming more clearly.

That grand formation was a very powerful slaughtering formation.

Although that slaughtering formation was visible at the moment, from the traces surrounding it, Chu Feng was able to determine that it should have been hidden before.

Not to mention Young Master Li Ming being trapped by the slaughtering formation, if Chu Feng had not obtained the safe route from Ying Mingchao, he likely would not have been able to discover that slaughtering formation either.

At that moment, the slaughtering formation had trapped Young Master Li Ming within it, and its various mechanisms and traps were also activated. Countless sharp swords formed by the slaughtering formation had surrounded Young Master Li Ming with the intention of skewering her.

Those sharp swords were no ordinary swords. If one were to be struck by them, it would be very difficult to heal the injuries they would cause. Even one's soul would suffer damage. One would truly and inevitably die should one be struck by those swords.

Furthermore, the slaughtering formation was extremely powerful. Unless one's cultivation had reached True Immortal realm, regardless of how strong one's martial power might be, it would be useless.

Fortunately, that Young Master Li Ming was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. By relying on her world spirit techniques and spirit formations, she was still barely able to deal with the slaughtering formation. Else... she would really end up suffering a calamity.

It could be said that, Young Master Li Ming was trapped in a crisis. She was currently going all-out with her world spirit techniques to confront the crisis before her. As such, she did not notice Chu Feng's approach.

"Yoh, girl, what are you doing?" Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

Hearing those words, Young Master Li Ming's expression changed instantly. She cast her extremely sharp gaze to Chu Feng.

At the beginning, it was only a gaze of alertness. However, Chu Feng was able to sense that the moment Young Master Li Ming's gaze landed on him, her gaze turned from one of alertness to one filled with killing intent.

However, she merely took a single glance at Chu Feng before retrieving her gaze. She did not even bother to utter a word. She was reacting as if she hadn't seen him.

"Girl, it will be very difficult for you to escape from this spirit formation by yourself. However, if I am to help you, you'll be able to escape much more easily."

"While I can help you out, you must disregard your former hatred towards me," Chu Feng said.

Young Master Li Ming was still completely silent. It was as if she could not hear Chu Feng.

Although Young Master Li Ming was ignoring Chu Feng, Chu Feng continued with a smile on his face, "This slaughtering formation is no small matter. It'll be very difficult for you to break free relying only on your own strength."

"There's no need for your concern," Young Master Li Ming spoke coldly.

"Apologies, you cannot determine what I want to do," Chu Feng said.

“You!!!” Young Master Li Ming’s expression changed. Then, she swept her gaze filled with overwhelming killing intent toward Chu Feng.

However, upon seeing Young Master Li Ming’s reaction, the smile on Chu Feng’s face grew more and more concentrated. Then, he began to move his arms, and waves of spirit power started to emerge from his body.

Chu Feng’s spirit power was like a magnificent army with thousands of men and horses whereas, Chu Feng himself was like the commander of that magnificent army.

Under Chu Feng’s control, the vast amount of spirit power soon started to change form. It turned into a hundred dazzling golden rhinoceroses.

Those one hundred golden rhinoceroses were all several tens of meters tall. There were chains on their bodies that connected them with one another.

This was a grand formation, a grand formation that specialized in breaking through slaughtering formations.

Witnessing this scene, Young Master Li Ming’s expression changed. As a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, she was naturally able to tell how amazing Chu Feng’s spirit formation was. Chu Feng... was planning to help her.

“If you want to break free from this slaughtering formation, you must cooperate with me to attack it from both sides. Else... it will produce the opposite of the desired result,” Chu Feng reminded.

“Even if you are to help me, I will not be grateful towards you,” Young Master Li Ming said coldly.

“I don’t need you to feel grateful towards me,” As Chu Feng spoke, he set his grand formation in motion.

“Roar~~~”

The hundred golden rhinoceroses formed by Chu Feng's spirit formation seemed to be living creatures as they roared.

Then, the horns of those hundred golden rhinoceroses started to shine brightly. At that moment, their horns seemed greatly increased in size.

“Bang~~~”

“Bang~~~”

“Bang~~~”

.....

Then, loud consecutive explosions began to be heard. The hundred golden rhinoceroses had all smashed into various locations on the slaughtering formation.

In response, that Young Master Li Ming immediately started to cooperate with Chu Feng from the inside. She increased the strength of her own spirit formations.

With the joint effort from the two, the slaughtering formation was finally breached after a loud explosion was heard.

“Prepare to die!!!”

Right at that moment, that Young Master Li Ming suddenly shot forth a palm strike directly toward Chu Feng.

Once that palm strike was shot forth, it brought with it overwhelming martial power. The martial power turned into an enormous hand ten meters tall that moved toward Chu Feng to oppress him.

It was like a golden-bright and dazzling little mountain was about to crush Chu Feng alive.

That Young Master Li Ming was trying to kill Chu Feng.

That said, Chu Feng was not startled, nor was he afraid when faced with the situation before him. Instead... he had a very confident expression. It was as if he had anticipated all of it.

“Zzzzz~”

Lightning flashed as radiance filled their surroundings. Chu Feng’s Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings appeared on his body together.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s cultivation was no longer that of a rank eight Martial Ancestor. In fact, it had even surpassed that of ordinary rank nine Martial Ancestors.

“Woosh~”

Chu Feng waved his sleeve. With merely that simple move, Chu Feng had managed to instantly shatter the incoming enormous golden hand.

“Girl, I’m afraid that it will be very difficult for the current you to kill the current me,” Chu Feng said to Young Master Li Ming with a beaming smile.

Young Master Li Ming was very powerful. Her cultivation was that of an actual peak Martial Ancestor, a rank nine Martial Ancestor.

As for Chu Feng, he was only a rank eight Martial Ancestor. When compared to Young Master Li Ming, his cultivation was an entire level lower.

However, Chu Feng was a Heavenly Bloodline possessor. Thus... while he might only be a rank eight Martial Ancestor, once he utilized his Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings, his battle power became a level above that of Young Master Li Ming.

This was one of the reasons why Chu Feng had decided to save Young Master Li Ming knowing fully that she would try to kill him afterward.

That is, Chu Feng was certain that she would not be able to kill him.

“What makes you think that I cannot kill you?”

After Young Master Li Ming finished saying those words, nine-colored lightning began to flicker in her eyes.

“Zzzzz~”

The next moment, Thunder Armor and Thunder Wings emerged on Young Master Li Ming’s body.

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming’s battle power had surpassed Chu Feng’s by a level.

“You’re actually also a Heavenly Bloodline possessor?” Chu Feng was greatly astonished.

Before that, he had truly never anticipated that Young Master Li Ming would also be a Heavenly Bloodline possessor.

“I never once said that I wasn’t a Heavenly Bloodline possessor,” Young Master Li Ming spoke indifferently.

“This is embarrassing then,” Chu Feng scratched his head with a smile. Then, he said to Young Master Li Ming, “Could you pretend that I’ve never been here?”

“What do you think?” Young Master Li Ming replied coldly. The killing intent in her eyes grew even more intense.

“Haha, it would seem that’s a no then. It can’t be helped then.”

Seeing this, Chu Feng clenched his fists. Then, he began to move, and explosions began to be heard from all over his body.

Seeing Chu Feng like this, Young Master Li Ming’s gaze also changed. Being experienced in battle, she knew that Chu Feng was warming up his body, that he was planning to fight her.

“Roar~”

Right at that moment, an azure dragon suddenly appeared below Chu Feng’s feet.

With a move of that azure dragon’s tail, and with Chu Feng still standing atop it, it began to flee toward the depths of the Demon Elimination Cave.

“Girl, farewell!!!”

It turned out that Chu Feng did not plan to fight Young Master Li Ming. Instead, he planned to escape.

“Bastard!”

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming grew extremely furious. How could she be willing to allow Chu Feng to escape? With overwhelming killing intent, she began to chase after Chu Feng.

Chapter 2531 - Fighting Li Ming Again

---

Chu Feng finally realized why Young Master Li Ming would be known as the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm's number one genius.

She was not only a peak Martial Ancestor, but she was actually also a Heavenly Bloodline possessor.

“Why are you running? Fight her.”

“Chu Feng, let me tell you, a girl like Li Ming will only be susceptible to force, but not persuasion. You must subdue her with strength,” Seeing that Chu Feng had turned to escape, Her Lady Queen spoke disappointedly.

“My Eggy, do you really want me to fight against her? I keep having a feeling that this girl Li Ming is not like Kong Doumoyuan and the others.”

“Although her cultivation is the same as Kong Doumoyuan's, I keep feeling that it will be difficult for me to win against her, that it will be dangerous to fight her,” Chu Feng said.

“Do what you want. This Queen has no time to bother with you. After all, even if you refuse to fight with her, you will absolutely not be able to escape from her.”

Her Lady Queen folded her arms and then sat on the ground.

Not only did she have a very haughty appearance, but she also had a mischievous smile on her exceptionally beautiful face.

Her Lady Queen was simply not worried about Chu Feng at all. Instead, she appeared to be planning on enjoying a show.

“Chu Feng, you won't be able to escape.”

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Young Master Li Ming was extremely fast. She was growing closer and closer to Chu Feng. Furthermore, following her shout, countless arrows were shot toward Chu Feng from behind.

Those were no ordinary arrows. Each and every one of them were several tens of meters long and dazzling with golden light. They were incomparably sharp.

There were actually an innumerable amount of such arrows. They were like a rainstorm as they chased after Chu Feng.

That was not an ordinary martial skill. Rather, it was a Mortal Taboo Martial Skill. It was extremely mighty.

Seeing that he was unable to escape, Chu Feng suddenly stopped. With a thought, an enormous axe appeared in the sky.

“Buzz~~~”

The enormous axe appeared before Chu Feng. Like the ruler of weapons, it let out a dazzling golden light.

Before the arrows could approach Chu Feng, they were all swallowed by the golden light and shattered in the process.

In an instant, countless golden lights dispersed before Chu Feng. Those were the shattered golden arrows.

“Secret skill?”

“You’re from the Ancient Era’s War Clan?”

“No, if you were from the Ancient Era’s War Clan, how could you possess a Heavenly Bloodline?”

“Could it be that you’re Zhan Haichuan’s successor?”

Upon seeing the Ancient Era’s War Axe, Young Master Li Ming’s expression changed. She was shocked.

It was evident that this girl was very knowledgeable about the things of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. She actually managed to recognize that Chu Feng’s Ancient Era’s War Axe was related to Zhan Haichuan instantly.

“That’s right, I am a person who has received the teachings of the Ancient Era's War Clan. This secret skill is called the Ancient Era's War Axe. It's as equally famous as Senior Zhan Haichuan's Ancient Era's War Spear. It is one of the Ancient Era's War Clan's Three Great Secret Skills."

"Girl, you should be able to sense the might of my Ancient Era's War Axe, no?"

"Although my own battle power is a level below yours, with my Ancient Era's War Axe here, you can forget about defeating me," Chu Feng said proudly.

Chu Feng was not saying these words with the intention to show off. The reason for that was because he had spoken with a joking tone. It was more mocking than showing off.

Even though he had unleashed the Ancient Era's War Axe, Chu Feng did not really plan to harm Young Master Li Ming.

Thus, even if they were to truly fight, Chu Feng would not kill Young Master Li Ming.

The reason for that was because he did not possess any hostility toward her.

"What arrogance," Young Master Li Ming snorted coldly. Then, she streaked her hands across her Cosmos Sack. The next moment, light began to soar on her palms.

At the moment when the light dispersed, Chu Feng was able to clearly see two long whips in Young Master Li Ming's hands.

Those two whips were exactly the same. However, wind was lingering around one whip, whereas lightning was lingering around the other whip.

The wind on the whip was so violent that it could affect the weather. The lightning on the whip was exceptionally dazzling. The auras of the two whips were extremely dreadful.

They were two Ancestral Armaments. Furthermore, they were extremely high quality Ancestral Armaments. They were not at all inferior to Chu Feng's Stormwind Edge and Flame Dragon Greatsword.

“Paa, paa, paa~~~”

Right at that moment, the two whips in Young Master Li Ming's hand started to move about simultaneously.

She possessed superlative whip skills. In her hands, those two whips simply did not resemble two weapons. Rather, they resembled two huge dragons.

Ear-piercing sounds began to explode in the sky nonstop. Lightning and wind started to wreak havoc through the sky. An army of wind and lightning began to move toward Chu Feng to oppress him.

Not only had Young Master Li Ming used the strength of the Ancestral Armaments, but she had also used Taboo Martial Skills with matching properties to her Ancestral Armaments.

Furthermore, her Taboo Martial Skills were no small matter either. They were Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills. Otherwise... it would be impossible for her attacks to be this mighty.

Lightning flashed as the violent winds rushed forth. Ear-piercing explosions filled the entire sky. It was as if countless cracks had been ripped apart in the sky.

Before the bombardment of the lightning and wind army, even Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe started to let out buzzing noises nonstop. Gradually, it was being beaten back. Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe was actually unable to withstand the bombardment.

Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe that was able to completely suppress Kong Doumoyuan was actually being suppressed by Young Master Li Ming.

“This girl, I really cannot afford to underestimate her.”

Seeing that the situation was discouraging, Chu Feng did not dare to hold back anymore. He immediately took out his Stormwind Edge and Flame Dragon Greatsword.

Blazing flames soared into the sky as violent winds moved about. After his two Ancestral Armaments appeared, Chu Feng's battle power also increased.

At that moment, the power of the Ancient Era's War Axe also grew stronger.

Soon, the Ancient Era's War Axe that was being bombarded by wind and lightning no longer let out buzzing noises, and was no longer being beaten back.

At that moment, the Ancient Era's War Axe was like a fierce tiger that had eaten its fill. It possessed overwhelming power.

Not only was it no longer being beaten back, but it was also moving forward, and dispersing the lightning and wind bombarding it.

In merely an instant, Chu Feng had turned the situation of the battle around and gained the upper hand.

“Damn it!”

Seeing that she was unable to defeat the Ancient Era's War Axe even after attacking with both Ancestral Armaments and Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills, Young Master Li Ming revealed an unreconciled expression.

Judging from her reactions, her attacks using her Ancestral Armaments and Ancestral Taboo Martial Skills should be one of her most powerful attacks.

Otherwise, she would not have such a reaction to it being beaten back.

“Girl, I merely touched your chest by accident. It's not like there's an enormous hatred between us. Must you insist on killing me like this?”

“How about the two of us sit down and have a proper chat? Perhaps we might even become friends. After all, I have quite a high opinion of you.”

Seeing that he held the upper hand, Chu Feng revealed a relaxed smile, and actually started to mock Li Ming again.

Speaking of it, it was quite strange. Although this Li Ming was a very haughty individual and was even trying to kill Chu Feng now, Chu Feng did not dislike her.

Instead, he felt her to be very amusing.

“Enough of your nonsense. Today, you will definitely die.”

However, what Chu Feng said only served to further ignite Young Master Li Ming’s anger.

Not only were the nine-colored lightnings in Young Master Li Ming’s eyes growing more and more intense, but her eyes were actually also emitting a golden glow.

“Boom~~~”

Suddenly, a golden light flew out from her body. It was flying straight toward the Ancient Era’s War Axe in the sky.

“Clank~~~”

A loud explosion was heard. The Ancient Era’s War Axe was actually knocked back.

“This girl!!!”

After Chu Feng was able to get a good look at the golden radiance, a surprised expression appeared in his eyes.

That golden radiance was actually a giant beast reaching a hundred meters tall.

That giant beast was a lion. However, it didn’t completely resemble a lion. The reason for that was because it possessed a pair of enormous wings.

Although that golden lion was not an actual living being, it was composed of golden light; it appeared to be living, and emitted a very powerful aura.

It was a sort of ruler's aura, a ruler's aura that could cause all beasts to cower before it.

If the Ancient Era's War Axe could be said to be a ruler of weapons.

Then this golden lion would be a ruler of beasts.

As for that lion, it was not a treasure, nor was it a Taboo Martial Skill. It was a... secret skill.

Chapter 2532 - Heaven Level Lightning Mark

---

“Roar~~~”

That secret skill was extremely powerful. Although it had yet to reach the power of the Ancient Era's War Axe, being so powerful that it could surpass an entire level of cultivation, it was still extremely powerful.

As Young Master Li Ming possessed cultivation a level above Chu Feng, it allowed Young Master Li Ming's secret skill to beat back Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe repeatedly.

“Chu Feng, you were correct, this girl possesses numerous abilities. She cannot be looked down upon.”

“Sure enough, she cannot be discussed alongside someone like Kong Doumoyuan.”

Her Lady Queen was growing more and more high-spirited the more she watched. As she saw the numerous abilities Young Master Li Ming had grasped, she was not only not worried, she even grew excited.

The reason why she was not worried for Chu Feng was because she knew that Chu Feng still possessed three abilities that he had not used.

Firstly, there was Chu Feng's Divine Mark. The power of his Divine Mark was far superior to other Lightning Marks. Although Chu Feng was at a disadvantage now, Her Lady Queen felt that Chu Feng would be able to turn the battle around the moment he used his Divine Mark.

Apart from the Lightning Mark, Chu Feng also possessed another secret skill from the Ancient Era's War Clan, the Ancient Era's War Sword.

The Ancient Era's War Sword was the strongest of the Ancient Era's War Clan's Three Great Secret Skills. It was a secret skill that even Zhan Haichuan had failed to subdue.

Not only was the Ancient Era's War Sword stronger than the Ancient Era's War Axe, but it was even stronger than Zhan Haichuan's Ancient Era's War Spear.

Merely, the Ancient Era's War Sword was too powerful. As such, it was very hard to control it.

Chu Feng was currently still unable to use the Ancient Era's War Sword.

However, After Chu Feng's cultivation reached rank eight Martial Ancestor and he used his Lightning Mark, he had mentioned to Her Lady Queen that although he was unable to completely control the Ancient Era's War Sword, he would be able to use it when absolutely necessary.

Merely, using the Ancient Era's War Sword would definitely overload his body. He would inevitably be affected by it.

To put it simply, if Chu Feng were to go all-out, he would be able to unleash a portion of the Ancient Era's War Sword's power.

Merely, like using the Evil God Sword, using the Ancient Era's War Sword would tax his body enormously, and he might even receive a backlash after using it.

Thus, as long as Chu Feng was able to not use the Ancient Era's War Sword, he would not use it. In the end, the Ancient Era's War Sword was a technique to preserve Chu Feng's life. It was a trump card that Chu Feng would only use when he had no other options.

Of course, apart from the Ancient Era's War Sword, Chu Feng still possessed one final ability, the Evil God Sword.

If Chu Feng were to use the Ancient Era's War Axe, he would still not necessarily be able to escape from True Immortals.

However, should he use the Evil God Sword, even ordinary True Immortals would not be able to escape from it alive.

This was the strongest trump card that Chu Feng possessed at the moment. However, it was also the ability that Chu Feng possessed that would cause the greatest amount of trouble, the trump card that he did not dare to use the most.

Her Lady Queen felt that as long as Chu Feng possessed those three trump cards, he would possess boundless possibilities.

During crucial moments, Chu Feng would not fear even True Immortals. As such, how could he possibly fear a Martial Ancestor?

That was the reason why Her Lady Queen was able to remain this calm. She knew that Chu Feng would definitely win.

“Girl, exactly what is your origin? How could you possess this many abilities?”

“However, I must say that even though your little golden lion is bold and powerful, it’s actually still weaker than my Ancient Era’s War Axe.”

“Your little golden lion is only able to contend against my Ancient Era’s War Axe because your cultivation is a level above mine.”

“Thus, girl, if you really detest me to the bones, then you should kill me right away.”

“Else, once my cultivation catches up to yours, once I become a rank nine Martial Ancestor like you, at that time... you will no longer be able to contend against me.”

Chu Feng was confident. Although he was in a disadvantaged situation right now, he was still teasing, mocking and provoking Young Master Li Ming nonstop.

Young Master Li Ming was originally a very calm individual. She was someone that would simply not be affected by ordinary provocations. This could be seen in her match against Chu Feng on Mount Cloud Crane.

However, Chu Feng had infringed upon Young Master Li Ming's baseline when he accidentally touched her breasts.

Everyone possessed a baseline, something that could not be infringed upon. If one were to infringe upon it, one would not be spared.

Thus, as long as Chu Feng continued to provoke Young Master Li Ming using that, she would definitely be enraged.

“Very well, since you wish to die this much, I will grant you your wish and kill you right away.”

Young Master Li Ming's tone grew increasingly ice-cold. Then, lightning began to gather on her forehead.

“Are you going to use your Lightning Mark?”

“Very well, I am quite interested in seeing what sort of Lightning Mark you will have.”

Seeing this scene, Chu Feng revealed a serious and anticipating expression.

Chu Feng subconsciously felt that Young Master Li Ming's Lightning Mark was most likely not the lowest Mortal level Lightning Mark.

That was the reason why he was anticipating so much. He wanted to know exactly what sort of Lightning Mark a genius like her would possess.

He wanted to know whether it would be an Earthen level Lightning Mark or a Mortal level Lightning Mark.

Under Chu Feng's serious gaze, Young Master Li Ming's Lightning Mark finally condensed on her forehead.

At the moment the Lightning Mark was formed, a boundless aura began to emit from Young Master Li Ming's body.

At that moment, not only was Young Master Li Ming's body covered with lightning, but there was also nine-colored lightning present all over the sky. Like lightning dragons, they would appear and disappear from time to time and let out thunderous roars.

“It's actually this level!!!”

At that moment, Chu Feng's expression changed. Even though he had prepared himself beforehand, Chu Feng still never expected Young Master Li Ming's Lightning Mark to be at this level.

On Young Master Li Ming's forehead was the character 'Heaven', condensed with nine-colored lightning.

Heaven level Lightning Mark, this was the Lightning Mark that Young Master Li Ming had grasped.

Young Master Li Ming had actually trained in the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique, a Self-Punishing Mysterious Technique second to only the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.

“It's too late to be scared now.”

As Young Master Li Ming spoke, she unleashed her power that she had received from her Heaven level Lightning Mark.

“Rooarr~~~”

At that moment, that golden lion reacted as if it was shot with hormones and let out a loud, ear-piercing roar.

At that moment, it seemed like that lion's body had grown much bigger. The aura it emitted also grew much more powerful.

If Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe was still able to withstand the lion's attack even though it was being beaten back, then, at that moment, Chu Feng's Ancient Era's War Axe was no longer able to withstand the golden lion's attacks.

That said, even though he was being absolutely suppressed and the golden lion was soon to breach the Ancient Era's War Axe and reach him, Chu Feng still did not reveal any fear. Instead, he shook his head helplessly and said with a sigh, "There's nothing I can do about it. It would seem that if I do not beat you into submission, you will not give up."

"Beat me into submission? What makes you think you can do that?" A ridiculing gaze appeared in Young Master Li Ming's eyes.

She felt that as long as she used the power of her Heaven level Lightning Mark, she would grasp absolute victory.

Even if Chu Feng were to use his Lightning Mark, he would still not be able to contend against her. After all, she had used the most powerful Heaven level Lightning Mark.

She felt that Chu Feng was overestimating his capabilities, that he was indulging in fantasy by saying those words.

"Zzzzz~~~"

Right at that moment, dazzling nine-colored lightning suddenly appeared around Chu Feng.

The nine-colored lightning began to spiral around Chu Feng as it soared into the sky. Both their quantity and size were many times greater than Young Master Li Ming's lightning.

Most importantly, a character had appeared on Chu Feng's forehead.

It was a character condensed by nine-colored lightning, it was the character 'Divine.'

Chapter 2533 - It's Actually An Immortal Armament

---

“That is...”

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming, who was filled with murderous desire, revealed a change in expression. Her facial expression turned sluggish as she was startled by Chu Feng.

The next moment, an extremely astonished expression emerged in her eyes that were flashing with lightning, radiating a golden glow and filled with killing intent.

“Divine Mark, you’ve trained in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique?!”

“How could this be? That sort of thing actually really exists in this world?!”

Young Master Li Ming let out a voice of disbelief.

Compared to the ignorant Kong Doumoyuan and others, it was evident that Young Master Li Ming knew of the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.

It was also precisely because she knew of the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique that she revealed such astonishment and disbelief.

Based on what she knew, the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique was simply a legend. Yet now... this legendary thing was actually placed before her.

How could she not be astonished by this?

However, what she could not accept the most was the fact that Chu Feng had actually trained in this legendary Self-Punishing Mysterious Technique.

Furthermore, judging by his appearance, it was evident that he had practiced it successfully.

As she was very proud, she found this truly unacceptable.

“Seems like it’s true.”

That said, at the same time as Young Master Li Ming was astonished and filled with unreconciliation, she was also able to feel the sensation that was coming from her Bloodline deep in her dantian.

It was actually a feeling of fear.

She, who had trained in the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique and formed her Heaven level Lightning Mark, was actually feeling fear toward Chu Feng from the depths of her soul, from the bottom of her core.

This made her even more certain than what Chu Feng had trained in was the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.

The reason for that was because the only thing that could make her, someone who had trained in the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique, feel fear would be that legendary Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.

Right at that moment, Young Master Li Ming shouted, “Even if this is the case, you can still forget about defeating me!!!”

Then, Young Master Li Ming raised her arms and tossed away her two Ancestral Armaments.

Chu Feng’s gaze changed upon seeing this scene. He was confused by Young Master Li Ming’s actions.

Throwing away her Ancestral Armaments would only serve to decrease her battle power. Yet, judging from her appearance, she was planning to continue her struggle against Chu Feng.

Since she was planning on continuing the battle against Chu Feng, why would she throw away her Ancestral Armaments and lower her battle power at a time like this?

“Buzz~~~”

The next moment, Chu Feng realized why Young Master Li Ming had tossed away her two Ancestral Armaments.

A sword had appeared in Young Master Li Ming’s hand.

It was a long, pink sword composed of pink gems. It possessed a very exquisite appearance.

Beautiful, this sword was very beautiful. Rather than calling it a weapon, it would be more accurate to say that it was a masterpiece, a work of art.

However, after that three-foot-long sword appeared, not only did Chu Feng no longer dare to underestimate Young Master Li Ming, but even Her Lady Queen who was enjoying the show abruptly stood up with a serious expression on her face.

The reason for that was because the aura being emitted by that pink sword was extremely powerful. That was not an ordinary weapon.

The aura it emitted caused even Chu Feng’s Stormwind Edge and Flame Dragon Greatsword to tremble before it.

This allowed Chu Feng to know that the weapon in Young Master Li Ming’s hand was most likely an... Immortal Armament.

“Immortal Armament, this girl actually possesses an Immortal Armament.”

“But, even if she possesses an Immortal Armament, can she really control it with her current cultivation?”

At that moment, Her Lady Queen also had a surprised expression. She was also filled with uncertainty.

After all, no matter how strong a Martial Ancestor might be, they would be inferior to True Immortals.

Immortal Armaments were likely weapons that even ordinary True Immortals would find difficult to control.

Not to mention how precious Immortal Armaments were, merely the fact that they were difficult to control was something that one couldn't change.

Even if that Young Master Li Ming possessed an Immortal Armament, how could she possibly be able to control her Immortal Armament?

“Woosh~~~”

At the moment when both Chu Feng and Her Lady Queen were pondering how Young Master Li Ming could control her Immortal Armament, a red medicinal pellet suddenly appeared in her hand.

She directly tossed that medicinal pellet into her mouth.

“Li Ming, stop,” Seeing this, Chu Feng hurriedly shouted, “There are no deep hatreds or grievances between us. There's simply no need for you to go this far.”

The medicinal pellet Young Master Li Ming had tossed into her mouth was most definitely not an ordinary medicinal pellet. That medicinal pellet should be capable of granting her the power to control an Immortal Armament.

However, a medicinal pellet like that would definitely be much more powerful than ordinary Forbidden Medicines.

Such a powerful medicinal pellet would most naturally also have an enormous backlash.

Chu Feng felt that there was simply no need for Young Master Li Ming to do something that would harm herself like this for the sake of taking care of him.

“I must kill you.”

However, Young Master Li Ming was determined to kill. She directly swallowed the medicinal pellet in her mouth.

After that medicinal pellet entered her mouth, Young Master Li

Ming's body started to emit a red glow, and even her skin turned red.

Young Master Li Ming did not emit overwhelming battle power. However, a strange sort of power was present in her body.

Soon, Chu Feng noticed that the red glow on Young Master Li Ming's body was extending from her arm to the Immortal Armament she held.

“Boom~~~”

The next moment, the Immortal Armament started to emit an extremely strong power.

That power was extremely frightening. To be exact, it was that Immortal Armament that was too frightening.

Wave upon wave of energy was being emitted from the Immortal Armament and sweeping across the sky.

That Immortal Armament had yet to move. However, Chu Feng and the Ancient Era's War Axe before him were already being pushed back repeatedly by the Immortal Armament.

“So that's an Immortal Armament. What overwhelming power,” Chu Feng exclaimed in admiration.

Chu Feng could tell that even though Young Master Li Ming was able to use the Immortal Armament after taking that special medicinal pellet, she was still unable to completely reveal the power of the Immortal Armament.

However, even though it was only a portion of the Immortal Armament's power, it was already so strong. If she were able to completely unleash the power of the Immortal Armament, how overwhelmingly powerful would that be?

“Chu Feng, this is bad. The power of the Immortal Armament is infinitely close to that of True Immortals,” At that moment, Her Lady Queen started to grow nervous.

Originally, she thought that Chu Feng would be able to defeat Young Master Li Ming after using his Divine Mark.

She never expected Young Master Li Ming to be so fierce. She never expected her to possess more and more powerful abilities that were not at all inferior to those Chu Feng possessed.

Not only did she successfully train in the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique, but she actually also possessed an Immortal Armament.

One must know that even those True Immortals that Chu Feng had fought only possessed Ancestral Armaments.

From this, it could be seen how valuable and precious Immortal Armaments were.

Immortal Armaments could be said to be extremely rare in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. At the very least, not even the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief possessed an Immortal Armament.

Thus, merely that Immortal Armament revealed how special Young Master Li Ming's identity was. She was most definitely not someone to be trifled with.

However, and most importantly, that Young Master Li Ming was actually able to use her Immortal Armament.

At that moment, Chu Feng had to use either the Ancient Era's War Sword or the Evil God Sword.

However, regardless of which he decided to use, he would suffer a backlash from it.

The gains of this battle would already no longer be able to make up for the losses.

“Chu Feng, prepare to die!”

Right at that moment, Young Master Li Ming thrust forth with her Immortal Armament.

“Boom~~~”

That sword surged like a gathering storm and seemed to be capable of overturning the heavens and splitting the earth.

It was as if that one sword thrust would be able to determine Chu Feng's life and death.

Right at the moment when Young Master Li Ming thought that victory was at hand, Chu Feng suddenly closed his eyes.

If others were to see this scene, they would most definitely think that Chu Feng had given up on resistance and was prepared to die.

However, they had no idea that at the moment when Chu Feng closed his eyes, from within his body and deep within his soul, an invisible pair of eyes suddenly opened.

Following that, an enormously powerful Ancient Era's aura was awakened.

That aura was completely unrestrained and overbearing. It was as if nothing could match against it!!!

At that moment, the aura had taken the form of an enormous sword and was about to break out of Chu Feng's body!!!

Chapter 2534 - Trump Cards Showdown

---

“Buzz~~~”

Pink radiance dyed half the sky red. It was moving toward Chu Feng oppressively with a speed faster than lightning.

That pink radiance was extremely powerful. Wherever it passed, spatial cracks would appear.

It was not that the pink radiance's power was insufficient to shatter space itself. On the contrary, the pink radiance possessed power that was more than sufficient to shatter space itself.

This was truly a power capable of bringing about the destruction of a region. With the shattering of space, the earth would also start to cave in.

The reason why space had yet to shatter and the earth had yet to sink in was because the pink radiance was simply too fast, unimaginably fast.

Fortunately, its opponent was Chu Feng. If it were a martial cultivator inferior to Chu Feng, they would not be able to even react in time before being killed by that pink radiance.

For ordinary people, they would only be able to see the pink radiance after it had already left behind a path of utter destruction.

That pink radiance was not a natural or man-made disaster. Instead, it was a pure sword aura.

It was a wave of sword aura shot forth by an Immortal Armament.

At that moment, the Immortal Armament's sword aura was rapidly moving toward Chu Feng.

Not to mention being struck by it, as long as it reached within ten meters of Chu Feng, Chu Feng would undoubtedly be killed by it.

However, precisely at a time of crisis like that, Chu Feng's eyes were tightly closed.

Seeing such a reaction from Chu Feng, Young Master Li Ming did not feel joy. Instead, a trace of unease flashed through her eyes.

This time around, it could be said to be the first actual confrontation between her and Chu Feng.

So far, she had been forced by Chu Feng to use her trump cards continuously.

Thus, Chu Feng's strength had already surpassed her imagination.

He had even forced her to use her Immortal Armament.

With how powerful Immortal Armaments were, her victory should be at hand.

However, when she saw that Chu Feng had actually closed his eyes when facing her Immortal Armament, she faintly felt that Chu Feng possessed an ability to take on her Immortal Armament.

“Could it be that this guy really possesses a Demon Armament that can kill True Immortals?”

Young Master Li Ming started to recall the rumors of Chu Feng possessing a Demon Armament.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly opened his tightly closed eyes.

The next moment, a loud explosion sounded from Chu Feng's body.

“Buzz~~~”

The next moment, dazzling golden radiance began to emit from Chu Feng's body.

That golden radiance was too bright. It was actually able to overshadow the pink sword aura. At that moment, Chu Feng was shining magnificently like a sun.

“That is?!!!”

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming was able to clearly see an enormous hundred meter-long golden sword appearing right before Chu Feng.

From its appearance, that enormous golden sword greatly resembled Chu Feng’s Ancient Era’s War Axe.

Merely, its size was much smaller than the Ancient Era’s War Axe Chu Feng had used earlier.

Although its size was much smaller than the Ancient Era’s War Axe, the aura it emitted was several times more powerful than that of the Ancient Era’s War Axe.

“Boom~~~”

A loud explosion was heard. The pink radiance that filled half the sky scattered about in all directions.

In an instant, heaven was overturned, the earth was split apart and space itself was shattered. At that moment, in the depths of the Demon Elimination Cave, only the golden radiance and the dark green colors of the Demon Elimination Cave were reflecting upon one another.

The enormous golden sword had actually managed to scatter Young Master Li Ming’s sword aura sent forth by her Immortal Armament.

“Another secret skill.”

Young Master Li Ming started to frown tightly.

Originally, she had thought that Chu Feng would use his legendary Demon Armament.

She never expected that Chu Feng would use another secret skill.

However, how could a secret skill be this overwhelmingly powerful? It actually allowed Chu Feng's battle power to grow infinitely close to that of a True Immortal, enough to withstand her Immortal Armament.

"Is this another secret skill from the Ancient Era's War Clan?" Young Master Li Ming asked.

"Li Ming, this is indeed also from the Ancient Era's War Clan. This secret skill is called the Ancient Era's War Sword," Chu Feng replied.

"Exactly what sort of relationship do you have with the Ancient Era's War Clan?" Young Master Li Ming asked.

She was feeling very unreconciled at the fact that Chu Feng had actually grasped abilities this much more powerful than her own.

She was a very proud individual. Rarely did she ever find a match among those of her generation. As Even for those with the same cultivation as her, she was practically undefeatable.

Yet today, Chu Feng was actually able to obstruct her like this. The reason for that was because Chu Feng's strength surpassed her own.

It was as Chu Feng had stated, the only reason why she was able to fight with Chu Feng for so long was because her cultivation was a level above Chu Feng's.

If the two of them possessed the same level of cultivation, she would most likely have already been defeated by Chu Feng. It would be impossible for her to fight against Chu Feng for so long.

It was precisely because Chu Feng was so powerful that she wanted to know exactly what his origins were.

"Tell me which Heavenly Clan and which Upper Realm you're from."

"As long as you tell me what I want to know, I will tell you what relationship I have with the Ancient Era's War Clan," Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

Just like how Li Ming was curious about Chu Feng's identity, Chu Feng was also curious about Li Ming's identity.

Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique, a powerful secret skill, her Immortal Armament and a medicinal pellet that allowed her to use her Immortal Armament.

All of these made Chu Feng feel that Young Master Li Ming was not someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, but instead someone from an Upper Realm.

"You don't have to tell me. After all, I am not interested in knowing what someone that is about to die wants to say."

"Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~"

Suddenly, Young Master Li Ming thrust her Immortal Armament at Chu Feng in rapid succession.

Her attacks this time were different from earlier. This time around, countless sword auras were being sent toward Chu Feng simultaneously. As such, the attack was much more powerful.

"Very well, we shall have a showdown then."

Seeing that Young Master Li Ming had sent forth her attack, Chu Feng was not to be outdone either.

With a thought from him, the hundred meter-long Ancient Era's War Sword charged toward the incoming sword auras like an indestructible warship.

On one side was dazzling pink light.

On the other side, dazzling golden radiance.

The two collided and brought forth powerful energy ripples.

The energy ripples swept through everything, sending violent wind everywhere.

Even though Chu Feng and Young Master Li Ming were the people that were controlling the sword aura and secret skill, they were still knocked back repeatedly by the energy ripples.

“Immortal Armaments are truly powerful. Could it be that even my Ancient Era’s War Sword is only able to fight it to a draw?”

At that moment, an answer was present in Chu Feng’s heart.

Although both he and Young Master Li Ming possessed battle power infinitely close to that of True Immortals, it remained that they were only infinitely close.

Thus, it could be said that the two of them had reached the limits of battle power that Martial Ancestors could reach.

Their battle powers were only a match for one another.

Even if they were to continue fighting, it would only result in a draw.

Unless...

One of the two parties wereas no longer able to continue fighting.

Thus, whichever side first failed the test of endurance would be the one to lose.

Thus, the match was now one of physical capability and willpower. The outcome of the battle would thus be determined.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng’s expression suddenly changed. Then, he hurriedly stopped controlling the Ancient Era’s War Sword.

The reason for that was because he discovered that Young Master Li Ming’s sword aura was growing weaker and weaker. If he were to continue controlling the Ancient Era’s War Sword to fight her, he would definitely injure her.

“Puu~~~”

Right after Chu Feng halted his attacks, Young Master Li Ming sprayed out a mouthful of blood.

At the moment Young Master Li Ming sprayed out that mouthful of blood, her legs grew weak, and she half-kneeled in midair. She was only able to stabilize herself with her Immortal Armament.

At that moment, although Young Master Li Ming's Immortal Armament still possessed an Immortal Armament's aura, it had already lost its overbearingness and unparalleled might.

The power of that Immortal Armament had stopped. Young Master Li Ming was no longer able to utilize the Immortal Armament.

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming's complexion had turned paper pale. She was like a dying individual. It was a very frightening sight.

In fact, she appeared to have shrunk to half her former weight. Her plump flesh had become extremely boney.

The mouthful of blood that she sprayed out earlier seemed to be more than only blood. It seemed like her vitality was also sprayed out along with her blood, leaving her with enormous harm.

However, Chu Feng knew that what had caused Young Master Li Ming to become like this was not that mouthful of blood that she had vomited out. Instead, this was the price that she paid to forcibly use her Immortal Armament.

The outcome of the battle had been decided. In the end... it was Chu Feng who won.

Chapter 2535 - Bloodscale Monstrous Clan

---

At that moment, Chu Feng retrieved his Ancient Era's War Sword. He sat cross-legged in midair and closed his eyes.

Then, he swallowed ten medicinal pellets and covered his body with spirit power.

Chu Feng knew that Young Master Li Ming no longer possessed the strength to attack him.

Even though he had only used the Ancient Era's War Sword for such a short period of time, Chu Feng had overloaded his body by using it.

Thus, he had to work to lessen the backlash from the Ancient Era's War Sword using all the abilities that he could.

However, even with this being the case, Chu Feng's complexion soon turned pale, and his aura started to become erratic and weak.

"Never would I have expected the backlash from this Ancient Era's War Sword to be this severe."

At that moment, Chu Feng gasped in his heart.

Fortunately, the battle was short. Else, the backlash Chu Feng would have received would most definitely have been even more severe.

It would even be possible that he would lose the ability to battle, like Young Master Li Ming.

Most importantly, Chu Feng had only managed to unleash a portion of the Ancient Era's War Sword's power.

This could be seen by how the Ancient Era's War Sword was only a hundred meters long.

When the Ancient Era's War Sword had appeared in the Ancient Era's War Clan, it had been over a thousand meters long!!!

“Woosh~~~”

Right at the moment when Chu Feng was wholeheartedly focused on healing his injuries, Young Master Li Ming’s body grew weak and fell from the air. She actually did not even have the strength to stabilize herself in the air.

Chu Feng hurriedly opened his eyes and extended his finger. Spirit power shot out from Chu Feng’s finger.

That spirit power was extremely fast. Young Master Li Ming had only fallen ten meters from the sky when Chu Feng’s spirit power reached her. Chu Feng’s spirit power turned into a cloud that caught Young Master Li Ming.

Then, Chu Feng used his oppressive might to send the two Ancestral Armaments Young Master Li Ming had tossed away earlier onto the cloud beside her.

Chu Feng did not hold any hostility toward Young Master Li Ming. Thus, even though Chu Feng had won this battle, he did not wish to make things difficult for her.

“What is this? Are you trying to humiliate me?”

However, Young Master Li Ming was clearly unappreciative of Chu Feng’s kindness. She questioned Chu Feng with an extremely weak voice.

She felt that what Chu Feng was doing was simply humiliating her.

“That girl is truly unappreciative. Chu Feng, you must teach her a lesson. Otherwise, she will forever not place you in her eyes,” Her Lady Queen said aggrievedly.

“Teach her a lesson, how? My beloved Eggy, you have the greatest amount of ideas, how about you give me a suggestion?” Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

She is powerless right now. Why don’t you do that to her and make her your woman? Perhaps she might become docile and obedient afterwards?” Her Lady Queen said with a mischievous smile on her face.“

That girl is quite decent-looking. It would indeed be pretty good for me to do that,” Chu Feng also revealed a mischievous smile. However, then, he said hesitantly, “Merely, there isn’t an enormous hatred between us. Wouldn’t it be too excessive for me to do something like that?”

“For an unreasonable girl like her, you should punish her like that. Else, she will forever not know the immensity of the heaven and earth,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Mn, it is still my Eggy that is most reasonable. Since that’s the case, I will do as you suggested.”

At that moment, Chu Feng decided to ignore the pain from the backlash and stopped healing his injuries. With a mischievous smile on his face, he slowly stood up.

Not only did Chu Feng have a mischievous smile on his face, but even the gaze with which he looked to Young Master Li Ming had changed.

“What are you planning to do?” Seeing the mischievous smile on Chu Feng’s face, Young Master Li Ming’s expression changed. She started to panic.

It was not that she was a cowardly individual. Rather, from Chu Feng’s gaze, she saw what she was most afraid of.

Chu Feng could beat her or even kill her. She would not blink an eye at that.

However, if Chu Feng were to do such a thing to her, she would absolutely be unable to accept it.

As for Chu Feng, he would naturally not be so shameless as to do that sort of thing to Li Ming.

Moreover, even if he were to ignore morality, Young Master Li Ming was not Chu Feng's type. Chu Feng was merely doing this to scare her.

For some unknown reason, he felt her to be very amusing. Toying with her would be able to bring Chu Feng joy.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly shouted, "Who is it?!"

At the same time, the mischievous gaze on Chu Feng's face turned incomparably sharp.

Being stared by Chu Feng's gaze, even the surrounding space turned incomparably ice-cold. It was even more bone-piercing than winter.

"Don't be afraid, we're on the same side.

"Right at that moment, the space in the direction that Chu Feng was staring at started to squirm. Then, several tens of figures walked out from it.

Seeing those people, Chu Feng's expression changed.

Those people simply did not resemble humans at all.

Although they possessed a humanoid build, they were over twice the height of an ordinary human.

Although they were wearing the same sort of red armor, Chu Feng was able to tell from their exposed skin that their skin was covered with red scales.

Those scales were crimson red. It was a very dazzling sight.

Furthermore, their eyes were dark green in color.

Rather than saying that they were humans, they resembled more or less resembled a group of monstrous beasts.

Merely, Chu Feng had never seen monstrous beasts like them before.

Most importantly, the aura of those several tens of people were all those of peak Martial Ancestors.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was able to sense that they possessed the same sort of heaven-defying battle power capable of surmounting four levels of cultivation like himself.

“Paa, paa, paa~~~”

After appearing, the leading monstrous beast started to clap its hands. It also revealed a good-natured smile toward Chu Feng.

“Brother, it must be said that your abilities are truly decent. To be able to subdue that fellow, I am truly in humble admiration.”

Although that monstrous beast praised Chu Feng, Chu Feng was still completely on guard against them. He asked, “Exactly who are you all?”

“We are the masters of the Demon Elimination Cave, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan,” The leader of the group said.

“Bloodscale Monstrous Clan?” Chu Feng was startled. He had never heard of a Bloodscale Monstrous Clan before.

“Judging from your reaction, I can tell that you do not know about us. However, that’s understandable too. Our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan has lived in seclusion in the Demon Elimination Cave, withdrawn from worldly affairs. It is very natural that you would not know about us.”

“That said, you do not have to worry. We are friends... because, we possess the same enemy,” That Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s group leader said.

Right after saying those words, it suddenly turned its gaze filled with anger toward Young Master Li Ming. It shouted, “Capture that fellow.”

After saying those words, the several tens of monstrous beasts behind it started to fly toward Young Master Li Ming.

“Boom~~~”

However, right at that moment, a fire dragon suddenly soared forth. It swept through the sky and separated those monstrous beasts from Young Master Li Ming.

“Brother, what are you doing?” The Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen turned their surprised gazes toward Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because that fire dragon was sent forth by Chu Feng using the Flame Dragon Greatsword.

“I do not care about what sort of hatred you all might have with her. However, you all can forget about bringing her away today,” Chu Feng said.

“You...” Hearing those words, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen were startled.

Not to mention them, even Young Master Li Ming’s expression changed. Confusion emerged in her eyes.

She was unable to understand. Earlier, she was really planning on killing Chu Feng. Thus, why would he be protecting her now?

Could it be that Chu Feng really planned to do immoral things to her? Could he be planning to personally torture her?

Chapter 2536 - Scram Immediately

---

“Brother, we are friends, whereas she is our mutual enemy. Why are you helping her?” The leader of the group of Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen asked.

“Who said that she and I are enemies?” Chu Feng asked.

“Ehh...” Hearing that, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen were all speechless.

They had all witnessed the battle between Chu Feng and Young Master Li Ming. With the abilities that they were using to fight one another, they were clearly fighting with their lives on the line.

Yet now, Chu Feng actually declared that he and Young Master Li Ming were not enemies. Naturally, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen would find this incomprehensible.

“Brother, you don’t know about this, but that fellow has stolen two of our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s possessions. We must bring him back so that our Lord Clan Chief can punish him.” [1. Chinese him/her/it all sounds the same ‘ta.’ Thus, although Chu Feng was referring to Li Ming as her, that is only true for the written text, and not true for the spoken text. Thus, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen have no idea Li Ming is a she.]

“Brother, if you insist on protecting him, I would urge you to reconsider. If you are to do that, you will only make an enemy of our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan,” The leader of the group of Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen said.

However, upon hearing that, Chu Feng’s expression sunk. Without the slightest bit of politeness, he said, “I’ve said it already. I don’t care what sort of grudges and grievances you all might have. However, today, you can forget about bringing her away.”

“Brother, it seems that you do not understand the situation at hand.”

“Although I do not know what sort of relationship you and that fellow might have, I can tell you with certainty that the entrance of the Demon Elimination Cave is currently sealed. Furthermore, our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief has already come to know about this matter.”

“If you are to hand that fellow over to us right now, our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan will be grateful toward you, and treat you as our honored guest.”

“However, if you insist on being stubborn about it and insist on protecting that fellow, then our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan will consider you as that fellow’s accomplice, and capture you together with him,” The leader of the group of Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen said.

“Zzzzz~”

Right at that moment, lightning emerged in Chu Feng’s eyes, covered his body and gathered on his forehead to form the character ‘Divine.’

The next moment, lightning filled the entire region. Lightning serpents began to flicker nonstop. It was a very oppressive sight.

At that moment, it was as if that region was simply not the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s territory. It was as if Chu Feng was the true ruler of that place.

“It would seem that I have not been clear enough with you. Since that’s the case, I will speak my intentions more clearly. You all, scram immediately. Else, do not blame me for being impolite,” Chu Feng spoke one word at a time.

The gaze that he had was many times sharper than before.

“Good, very good.”

At that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen all felt the overwhelming power of Chu Feng’s oppressive might.

Even though they were all rank nine Martial Ancestors, all peak Martial Ancestors, they knew very well that they would be no match for Chu Feng even if they were to join hands against him.

This fellow before them was simply a monster, an actual monster.

Unless one was a True Immortal, it was likely no one would be able to contend against Chu Feng.

“You will regret this.”

After leaving behind this sentence, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen turned around and left.

After the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen left, Chu Feng arrived before Young Master Li Ming and said to her, “Although I have no idea exactly what you stole from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan, it would seem that I must send you out of here right away.”

After Chu Feng finished saying those words, he turned around and planned to bring Young Master Li Ming out of the Demon Elimination Cave.

Grimacing at the pain of her backlash, Young Master Li Ming asked Chu Feng, “Why did you help me?”

At that moment, she was looking at Chu Feng with a very complicated gaze.

If one had to describe it, it was a perplexed expression. She was unable to understand Chu Feng, unable to understand his actions.

“I’ve said it already, there isn’t any enormous hatred or grievance between us. There is simply no need for us to confront one another with weapons, much less fight to the death.”

“What I did on Mount Cloud Crane was merely an accident. If I had known that you were a woman to begin with, I would never have done such a thing.”

“If you feel that I owe you an apology, I can give one to you right now.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng put his Ancestral Armaments away, turned around, clasped his hand and bowed toward Young Master Li Ming. “I was wrong. Although I didn’t do it intentionally, it remains that I was wrong.”

“As long as you do not take my life, I am willing to accept any punishment.”

“Go ahead and tell me what you want. I will definitely do it.”

Young Master Li Ming was startled upon seeing Chu Feng react like this. She was able to see the sincerity in Chu Feng’s gaze. Chu Feng was actually sincerely apologizing to her.

After being startled for a moment, Young Master Li Ming said, “Very well, chop off the hand that you touched me with. Do that, and I’ll consider that nothing happened.”

“No problem.”

As Chu Feng spoke, he gathered martial power onto his palm and turned his palm into a sharp blade. Then, he prepared to hack off his other hand with that blade hand.

He was actually really planning to cut off his hand.

“Stop,” Seeing Chu Feng actually doing it, Young Master Li Ming immediately called for him to stop.

However, even though Chu Feng clearly heard her calling for him to stop, he did not stop. With a ‘puu,’ Chu Feng personally sliced off his hand.

“How was it? Is your anger satisfied?”

“If it’s not, I can cut it off again,” Chu Feng said to Young Master Li Ming with a smile on his face.

At that moment, Young Master Li Ming grew silent.

Although the pain of having one’s hand chopped off was simply nothing for a person of Chu Feng's cultivation and, as a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, he was not only able to restore his lost hand, but even his entire body were it to be destroyed, it remained that Chu Feng, although stronger than her, was willing to do this sort of thing.

From this, Young Master Li Ming was certain that Chu Feng was sincere in his apology, and not putting on an act.

At that moment, even though Young Master Li Ming was a hard-hearted individual, she was still moved by Chu Feng's apology.

"Seems like you are still angry. That's fine, let me do it again. After all, my hand was vile."

Chu Feng smiled carefreely. As he spoke, he retrieved his severed hand and reconnected it. Then, he raised his blade hand and prepared to hack off his reconnected hand again.

Seeing this, Young Master Li Ming hurriedly said, "It's enough."

This time around, Chu Feng stopped his movement. With a smile on his face, he said, "Seems like your anger has been quelled."

Young Master Li Ming cast a side-eye at Chu Feng. She had a helpless expression in her eyes.

Evidently, she did not wish to continue to be entangled on this subject.

Thus, she said, "We will not be able to leave this place. This Demon Elimination Cave is indeed under the control of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan. They are able to activate a grand defensive formation to seal off the entrance of the Demon Elimination Cave."

"Since they said that they've already sealed off the entrance, it means that they have already sealed off the entrance."

"Are we to be trapped in here like this forever?" Chu Feng asked.

"No, that's not the case. Based on what I know, while the entrance can be sealed, it cannot be sealed forever. There is a limit as to how long it can be sealed.”

“Thus, rather than proceeding for the entrance, it is better that we find an isolated place to hide and wait for the grand formation sealing off the entrance to wear off. We can then leave,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Since they’ve already discovered the problem, they will definitely send people to block up the Demon Elimination Cave’s entrance. Even if the spirit formation sealing off the entrance cannot be maintained forever, their troops will definitely be waiting at the Demon Elimination Cave’s entrance,” Chu Feng said.

“You do not have to worry about that. When my injuries are healed, I will have a way to leave this place. Merely... right now, we must hide,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“If this place is truly their territory, where are we to hide?” Chu Feng asked.

“Precisely because this is their territory, there are places that even they do not dare enter,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“I got it now, you’re saying that the more dangerous a place is, the safer it will be, right?” Chu Feng asked.

“Precisely,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Then it’s decided,” After saying those words, Chu Feng turned around and no longer proceeded toward the entrance. Instead, he brought Young Master Li Ming with him and began to travel into the depths of the Demon Elimination Cave.

Chapter 2537 - Stolen Treasure

---

This time around, Chu Feng did not choose to follow the safe path. Instead, he began to walk amongst the dangerous slaughtering formations.

Actually, Ying Mingchao had not only mentioned the route directly to the depths of the Demon Elimination Cave, but he had also told Chu Feng the locations of some rich powerful slaughtering formations.

Thus, even if Chu Feng did not follow the direct and safe route, as long as he was on guard, he would be able to avoid many slaughtering formations, and travel amongst the dangers of the Demon Elimination Cave.

At the moment, Chu Feng was planning to proceed for one of the most dangerous regions in the Demon Elimination Cave. It was a place with a lot of slaughtering formations aggregate together.

That region of slaughtering formations was composed of the most frightening slaughtering formations in the Demon Elimination Cave.

As Young Master Li Ming said, the more dangerous a place was, the safer it'd be.

Therefore, Chu Feng felt that the people from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan would definitely not dare to approach that group of slaughtering formations.

Also, as they knew very well how powerful the group of slaughtering formations were, they would definitely not expect Chu Feng and Li Ming to proceed for that region.

After all, they most definitely felt that if Chu Feng and Young Master Li Ming, with the strength they possessed, were to encounter any of the slaughtering formations inside by accident, they would undoubtedly be killed.

That, this group of slaughtering formations would be the safest place in the Demon Elimination Cave right now. Of course... it would also be a very dangerous location.

If they were to be careless, Chu Feng and Young Master Li Ming might very well die amongst the group of slaughtering formations.

"We must stop here. The slaughtering formations here are too powerful. If we are to enter deeper, we will likely not be able to escape even if we want to," Chu Feng stopped at a hidden location.

Chu Feng was not lying. Although there appeared to be nothing before them, according to the information Ying Mingchao had given him, before them was the most concentrated location of slaughtering formations in the entire Demon Elimination Cave.

Chu Feng was unable to even advertise those slaughtering formations. From this, it could be determined how important those slaughtering formations were.

Thus, if they were to enter it, they would definitely be undoubtedly killed.

"How do you know this place so well?" Young Master Li Ming asked curiously.

"Can you tell me how you offended the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan?" Chu Feng asked with a beaming smile.

Then, Spirit Master began to flow out of her body. Spirit power began to gallop around her, sealing her off.

Young Master Li Ming was healing her injuries.

"Even though you're helping her this much, it seems like this girl is not appreciative of your kindness."

"She has quite a personality," Her Lady Queen said with a mischievous laugh.

Even though Young Master Li Ming was proud and arrogant, Her Lady Queen did not dislike her either.

“Let her do as she wishes. After all, I am not helping her because I wanted it to be reciprocated.”

Chu Feng revealed an indifferent expression. Then, he sat down cross-legged and continued to heal his injuries as well.

The backlash from the Ancient Era’s War Sword was no small matter. Although the backlash had not affected Chu Feng’s battle power, it still took him half a day to suppress the backlash. At the moment when Chu Feng opened his eyes and looked to Young Master Li Ming, he just so happened to catch the sight of the spirit power surrounding her dispersing. Young Master Li Ming also slowly opened her tightly closed eyes.

Even in the moment, Young Master Li Ming had a rosy complexion. Even her skin had become plump and full of luster again. Her aura had also returned to being robust and vigorous.

It seemed like that girl had also managed to suppress the backlash she already received using her Immortal Armament.

"This girl is quite amazing," Seeing that Young Master Li Ming appeared still be completely fine now, even Her Lady Queen was unable to keep herself from praising her.

One should know that the backlash Young Master Li Ming was earlier was much more serious than Chu Feng’s backlash.

Although Chu Feng’s aura was affected, his battle power was still present. As such, he would, at the very least, be able to take care of anyone below the True Immortal level of cultivation.

As for Young Master Li Ming, she had not even had the strength to fly. The intensity of the backlashes that they suffered was simply a heaven and earth difference.

Yet, faced with such an enormous backlash, Young Master Li Ming actually managed to contain it using the same amount of time Chu Feng did. This was naturally extremely astonishing.

“She must have taken some sort of special medicinal pellet. This girl is truly of extraordinary origin,” Chu Feng said.

In terms of world spirit techniques, even if Chu Feng was not superior to Young Master Li Ming, his world spirit techniques would definitely not be inferior to hers.

Thus, the speed at which they healed their injuries was most definitely unrelated to their world spirit techniques.

If there was no difference in terms of world spirit techniques, then it would most definitely be the medicinal pellet that Young Master Li Ming took.

That single medicinal pellet was able to decrease the time she needed to heal her injuries to such a short amount. Merely with that, one could very well imagine how powerful that medicinal pellet was.

At the very least, Chu Feng did not possess such a powerful medicinal pellet. In fact, not a single person in the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm possessed such a medicinal pellet.

“You’ve saved me once. I do not wish to owe you a favor,” Young Master Li Ming said to Chu Feng.

“How do you wish to repay me then? Could you be planning to devote your life to me?” Chu Feng said with a mischievous smile.

Hearing those words, Young Master Li Ming’s expression immediately sunk. Coldly, she said, “Don’t you think that I will not kill you just because we’ve settled what happened on Mount Cloud Crane. If you make this kind of joke again, I will attack you again.”

“Since you knew it was a joke, why take it so seriously?” Chu Feng said with a smile on his face.

“You can joke with others. However, I am someone who is not fond of jokes,” Young Master Li Ming spoke very earnestly.

“Actually, I am not fond of jokes either. However, I just so happen to be fond of joking with someone like you.”

“I also do not know why that’s the case. However, I’m unable to control myself. I guess this might be natural instinct.”

“However, I will try my best to restrain myself. If I happen to be unable to restrain myself, I hope that you will forgive me,” Chu Feng said with an innocent expression on his face. It was as if he was not voluntarily joking.

“I do not wish to waste time arguing with you,” Young Master Li Ming cast a side eye at Chu Feng. Then, she said, “Didn’t you wish to know exactly what I’ve stolen from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan?”

As Young Master Li Ming spoke, she opened her palm. Two pearl-sized beads were present on her palm.

“Those are?”

Upon seeing the two beads, Chu Feng’s gaze immediately changed. He who was laughing and smiling instantly turned extremely serious.

Those two beads were only the size of ordinary pearls. They were very smooth and round.

The two beads seemed to be made of glass. The insides of the beads were pitch-black.

However, should one pay close attention to them, one would discover that the pitch-black color was not the original color of the beads.

The pitch-black substance contained inside the beads were like black clouds that surged about like a gathering storm within them.

In fact, if one were to pay close attention, one would even feel fear. The reason for that was because the pitch-black clouds were extremely gloomy in nature. It was as if the black clouds contained boundless killing intent.

Upon noticing the unusual properties of the beads, Chu Feng immediately activated his Heaven's Eyes. Upon the activation of his Heaven's Eyes, the beads grew much clearer.

Chu Feng was able to see that the two beads were like two worlds. The worlds were covered by black clouds. However, in the center of each of the worlds was an enormous gate, a very imposing gate that emitted a sort of sacredness.

The gates were tightly closed. It was as if, unless the gates were to open by themselves, or if one possessed the key to open them, one would not be able to open them even if one possessed heaven-defying capabilities.

Chapter 2538 - Sacred Heavenly Temple

---

“What is this?” Chu Feng asked. He had already realized that the beads were no small matter.

“Have you heard of the Sacred Heavenly Temple?” Young Master Li Ming asked.

“Sacred Heavenly Temple?” Chu Feng’s gaze changed. He had never heard of the Sacred Heavenly Temple.

“Seems like you haven’t heard of it before.”

Before Chu Feng could respond, Young Master Li Ming had managed to determine from Chu Feng’s expression that he had never heard of the Sacred Heavenly Temple before.

“Indeed, I’ve never heard of it before,” While smiling, Chu Feng nodded.

“The vast starry sky is boundless and limitless. This is what people view as the Outer World.”

“The Outer World is vast and magnificent. Ever since the Ancient Era, martial cultivators have ruled over this vast Outer World.”

“Those seniors before us have left behind countless treasures. In fact, it could even be said to be an infinite amount of treasures.”

“Thus, those remnants that contained treasures have become places where various powers and hidden experts will fight over.”

“That said, when mentioning remnants, there is one place that is widely accepted to contain the greatest amount of treasures in the entire Outer World.”

“As for that place, it is the Sacred Heavenly Temple,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Sacred Heavenly Temple?” Chu Feng revealed a surprised expression. He had not expected there to be such a place in this world. Then, he asked, “What sort of place is that?”

“Opinions differ in regards to the origin of the Sacred Heavenly Temple. There has never been a definite theory, nor has any legend regarding it been acknowledged by the people of the world. However, the great majority feel that it should be from the Ancient Era.”

“As of yet, there is only one thing that is certain. That is, the Sacred Heavenly Temple is the most mystical remnant that has been discovered so far. The treasures and powers that it contains all surpass one’s imagination,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Mystical? How mystical?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Not only is this Sacred Heavenly Temple hidden throughout the entire Outer World, it also possesses countless entrances to its precious treasures,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Countless entrances?” Chu Feng was surprised.

“That’s right, it possesses countless entrances. As for these, they are two of the entrances,” Young Master Li Ming said as she pointed to the two miraculous beads in her hand.

“We will be able to enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple using only these two beads?”

“But, according to what you said, since the Sacred Heavenly Temple is the greatest treasure deposit in the entire Outer World, it should also be the most dangerous, no? Would we really be able to survive if we are to enter there with our current strength?”

Chu Feng was worried. After all, danger would generally accompany chance opportunities. The greater a chance opportunity might be, the more dangerous it would be.

The vast Outer World was a place with countless experts. Chu Feng knew very well that compared to those experts, he was still no different from an ant.

Thus, if he were to enter a remnant that contained treasures that even those peak experts yearned for with the strength that he possessed, wouldn't he simply be courting death?

“The most mystical aspect regarding the Sacred Heavenly Temple is the fact that it does not possess any dangers. As long as you are able to enter it, you will definitely be able to profit from it.”

“As for the most mystical aspect of the Sacred Heavenly Temple, it is the fact that no one knows where it is located. However, as long as one is able to find an entrance to enter it, one will be able to enter it,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“It's actually this mystical?” Chu Feng felt greater amazement. He gradually came to understand what Young Master Li Ming meant.

No one knew where the Sacred Heavenly Temple is located. However, it could be present everywhere.

If beads like these were capable of opening a gate to the Sacred Heavenly Temple, then there should be a lot of beads like these covering every nook and cranny of the vast Outer World.

Regardless of where one might be, as long as one possessed such a bead, they would be able to enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple. With that being the case, that Sacred Heavenly Temple would be simply too extraordinary.

Exactly what sort of person was capable of creating such a mystical temple?

Exactly how enormously formidable would be the power driving such a mystical temple?

Furthermore, who was it that had gathered all those treasures within in the Sacred Heavenly Temple to make it into the number one treasure deposit in the entire vast Outer World?

“Wow! This Queen is deeply interested in seeing that Sacred Heavenly Temple.”

After hearing what Young Master Li Ming said, even Her Lady Queen's eyes were filled with anticipation.

"However, these two beads by themselves are still unable to allow one to enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple. Thus, even though I've stolen these two beads, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan would have no use keep them to begin with. At the very Most, they will serve as collectables," Young Master Li Ming added.

"What the hell! After all this, we're actually unable to enter?"

"Really! This girl is truly annoying. If we're not able to enter it, why the heck did she even bother to take it out to show off? Isn't she just toying with this Queen?" After hearing those words, Her Lady Queen raised her shoulders and crossed her arms with a pouting and dissatisfied expression on her face.

"My dear Eggy, don't be so anxious. I don't think this girl Li Ming is the sort to joke around. Let me ask her about it, I think she will have a way to enter it."

At the same time Chu Feng consoled Eggy, he asked Li Ming, "In that case, how do we enter it?"

"To put it simply, these beads are separated into two types. One is a locking bead, turning the other is an opening bead."

"As long as the two types of beads of the same level encounter one another, a gate to the Sacred Heavenly Temple will be opened."

"The two beads that I've stolen from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan are both locking beads."

"That said, I myself already possess some opening beads."

After saying those words, Young Master Li Ming extended her other hand. After she opened her hand, a total of thirteen beads appeared in her hand.

The size of those beads were pretty much identical to the two beads in her other hand. However, those thirteen beads were emitting a faint white light.

That's right, they were emitting a white light. Upon closer inspection, those thirteen beads also each seemed to contain a world.

The worlds within them were surging with white clouds. In the center of each of the worlds was a key.

The keys were all golden in color, and enormously huge. As they stood in the center of the worlds within the thirteen beads, the keys were like the rulers of the worlds.

"Shoot! This girl actually possesses this many opening beads," At the moment, Her Lady Queen revealed a surprised expression.

If the Sacred Heavenly Temple was truly as extraordinary as Young Master Li Ming described it to be, then the beads would most definitely all be very valuable.

After Young Master Li Ming revealed the beads to Chu Feng, she stored eleven of her opening beads away, leaving behind two. Then, she tossed one to Chu Feng.

"As long as you let the opening bead touch the locking bead, you will be able to open the entrance to the Sacred Heavenly Temple."

"Remember, after entering the Sacred Heavenly Temple, you will be given a chance to make a choice. Once you've chosen what you want to obtain, you will not be able to change it. 've chosen, you will be sent out of the Sacred Heavenly Temple."

"If you wish to return to the Sacred Heavenly Temple, you will have to open another entrance gate to it. Otherwise, you will not be able to return to it again," Young Master Li Ming said to Chu Feng in a very earnest manner. It was as if she was afraid that Chu Feng would make some sort of mistake.

"Once the gate is opened, one will definitely be able to enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple and obtain a treasure?" Chu Feng was wild with joy. He had never experienced such a miraculous thing before.

Just thinking about it caused him to feel as if his blood was rushing through his body. He was feeling excitement from the bottom of his heart.

"That's not the case. There's another possibility that will lead you to return without anything," Young Master Li Ming said.

"What sort of possibility is it?" Chu Feng asked.

He did not want to return without any treasure after entering the Sacred Heavenly Temple.

"After opening the entrance to the Sacred Heavenly Temple, the person that opened the entrance will be sent directly to the Sacred Heavenly Temple. However, rather than saying their body will enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple, it would be more accurate to say that their Soul will enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple."

"However, it is not only you and I who possess opening and locking beads. It is possible that others will have entered the Sacred Heavenly Temple at the same time you did, and chose the same treasure that you wanted."

"In that sort of situation, the two individuals will have to fight over the single treasure. As there is only a single treasure, it is impossible for it to be divided evenly between both individuals."

"Thus, at that time, the Sacred Heavenly Temple's guardian spirit will appear. It will present the two individuals a question."

"The person to answer the question accurately will obtain the treasure, but the person who answers it incorrectly will return empty-handed," Young Master Li Ming said.

Chapter 2539 - Being Stubborn

---

"There's actually such a thing?"

Chu Feng began to look forward to the Sacred Heavenly Temple more and more. Just thinking about the fact that two individuals that should not be meeting one another as they were separated by the vast as starry sky would actually be able to meet one another in the Sacred Heavenly Temple, he felt utter amazement at how unimaginable it was.

It was truly unbelievable.

He was merely looking forward to the mystical Sacred Heavenly Temple.

"Of course, something like that rarely occurs. At the very least, I've never encountered anything like that before. None of the people that I know have ever encountered that sort of thing either. Thus, you can rest assured, as I Believe you will also not encounter that sort of thing," Young Master Li Ming said.

"In that case, you've been to the Sacred Heavenly Temple before? I am truly becoming more and more curious of your origins."

At that moment, Chu Feng started to have a whole new level of respect for Young Master Li Ming. From both the treasures that she possessed and the experience that she had, it could be seen that she was absolutely not someone to be trifled with.

At that moment, Chu Feng became even more certain that she was not someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Else... it would be impossible for her to know all those things, and impossible for her to have so many treasures.

"You do not have to care about that. Go on and choose what you want."

As Young Master Li Ming spoke, she tossed a locking bead toward Chu Feng's palm.

The locking bead just so happened to make contact with Chu Feng's opening bead.

"Buzz~~~"

The next moment, bright light filled Chu Feng's field of vision. In an instant, the scene surrounding him had changed completely.

At that moment, Chu Feng was no longer present in the Demon Elimination Cave. Instead, he was within the vast starry sky.

He was standing on air. Boundless flickering stars filled his entire field of vision. Even when looking down, he would still see an endless amount of stars.

That feeling was so very real, so very powerful.

Beautiful. Not only was the scene beautiful, but the sense of magnificence was battering against Chu Feng's heart and soul from all sides.

With that, Chu Feng realized what genuine magnificence was, what endlessly vast meant.

"Is this the actual Outer World?"

At that moment, Chu Feng became so excited that he started to have goosebumps.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng was unable to be certain as to whether or not the scene before him was an illusion or real.

If this were real, it would be impossible. After all, he should be in the Demon Elimination Cave, and should not have moved often all.

However, if this were an illusion, then it was so very life-like and real that Chu Feng was unable to find anything that was could show it to be fake.

"Chu Feng, look ahead," Suddenly, Her Lady Queen cried out in excitement.

At that moment, Chu Feng was able to see a dazzling golden light appearing before the vast starry sky, right before his gaze.

That golden light was truly dazzling and magnificent. In fact, Chu Feng felt that it was even more dazzling than the sun itself.

Then, Chu Feng was able to see that it was a gate.

That gate was the same gate within the locking bead. At that moment, the gate was floating toward Chu Feng with huge speed.

The closer the gate was to Chu Feng, the greater and more imposing the gate felt to Chu Feng.

Grand... extremely grand. That gate was much bigger than Chu Feng imagined it to be.

In fact, Chu Feng felt that the gate was very possibly larger than the entire Nine Provinces Continent.

"Rumble~~~"

Following an ear-piercing explosion, the golden-bright and dazzling gate opened. At the moment when it was completely opened, the enormous gate had also arrived before Chu Feng, swallowing him into it.

To be exact, instead of being swallowed by a gate, Chu Feng felt that he was swallowed by an entire world.

The next moment, Chu Feng arrived in a completely different world.

He had arrived in a glorious and imposing palace hall.

Chu Feng had been to countless palaces, and even many remnants. However, he had never been to a place with such magnificent constructions.

Even the ground below his feet was made of gold.

Everything, his appeared rather be made of gold too. However, the gold didn't resemble gold. Rather, it appeared to be a sort of material many times more precious than gold.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng felt that the material was indestructible. If it was gold, it would be the most definitely not be indestructible.

To put it simply, that entire entire place was a rare treasure in and in itself. It was composed of an extremely rarely-seen treasured material.

The, that place was enormous, extremely enormous.

A single dragon in that place was a thousand meters in girth. An dragon has been carved onto the pillar. That dragon spiraled up the pillar in a very domineering manner.

Looking around, that palace hall filled Chu Feng's line of sight. It was as if there was no end to be seen.

When Chu Feng raised his head, he could see boundless white clouds. Yet, he was actually unable to see the peak of the palace hall.

The palace hall was taller than even the sky!!!

"This is the Sacred Heavenly Temple? This is simply too ridiculous, no?"

At that moment, even Her Lady Queen's eyes were wide open. Her little mouth was slightly open in surprise.

"This is truly a work of gods. It is truly an unimaginable place."

Chu Feng also gasped in admiration. He did not know what sort of individual would be able to construct such a magnificent palace.

"Those who open the True Immortal Gate can choose between a total of three items. Only one can be chosen."

Right at that moment, an extremely grand voice was open heard.

Even though it was clearly only a voice, the voice originated from all directions and entered Chu Feng's ears simultaneously.

At the same time that voice was heard, three gates showed before Chu Feng.

Compared to the entrance of the Sacred Heavenly Temple, those three gates were much smaller; they were only a hundred meters tall.

However, they were still very awe-inspiring and majestic. Apart from the entrance gate to the Sacred Heavenly Temple, those three gates were more imposing than all other gates Chu Feng had ever encountered.

If Chu Feng had to describe them, then it would be a sort of oppressive sensation, a very ancient yet powerful oppressive sensation.

Feeling that sensation, one's heart would be filled with reverence, and not dare to show the slightest bit of disrespect.

On the three gates would have well signboards.

The writing on the signboards were all graceful, elegant and filled with power.

Just as if he wanted to submit to the signboards. Enough to make others want to submit to him or her.

It was clear that the words on the three signboards were written by the same individual. However, the words were all different.

They were individually...

Martial Cultivation.

World Spirit.

Weapon.

"Chu Feng, choose Martial Cultivation. Your cultivation might be to advance by leaps and bounds, sending you to the True Immortal realm."

"No, no, no, wait, you can also choose Weapon. Perhaps you might obtain an Immortal Armament. That would be extremely good too.”

“No, it’s better to choose Martial Cultivation still. To the current you, your martial cultivation is more important. Even if you are to obtain an Immortal Armament, you will not be able to use it.”

At that moment, Her lady Queen was endlessly excited. She was truly looking forward to the treasures behind the gates.

She felt that with how powerful the Sacred Heavenly Temple was, the treasures inside would all definitely be extremely greatly too many.

Chu Feng would be able to obtain magnificent profits this time around.

At the moment when Her Lady Queen was speaking excitedly, Chu Feng had begun to walk toward the gates.

He was not proceeding toward the Martial Cultivation gate, nor was he proceeding toward the Weapon gate. Rather, he was proceeding toward the gate with the signboard ‘World Spirit.’

"Chu Feng, where are you going? Don’t go that way,” Seeing that, Her Lady Queen started to panic.

“If my understanding is correct, the treasure contained behind this gate with the words ‘World Spirit’ should be beneficial to Milady Queen, no?”

"Chu Feng, don’t make rash choices. This is the Sacred Heavenly Temple. How could it possess treasures beneficial to world spirits? You must not mess around with this Queen,” Her Lady Queen tried her best to stop Chu Feng.

"But I still want to give it a try. Milady Queen has done so much for me, has helped me so many times. I also wish to help Milady Queen in return," Chu Feng said.

"You, why are you this disobedient? Stop immediately. This is the Sacred Heavenly Temple, the most mystical remnant in the entire Outer World, the most precious treasure deposit in the entire Outer World."

"This is an opportunity that comes once in a blue moon. Are you truly planning to waste it like this?" Her Lady Queen was extremely nervous. She was trying her best to persuade Chu Feng against it. She was deeply afraid that Chu Feng Would not listen to her and choose a treasure related to her.

At that moment, Chu Feng had arrived before the World Spirit gate. However, he turned stopped.

"Indeed, this is indeed a rare opportunity that comes only once in a blue moon."

"However, Milady Queen, I want to be stubborn just once for your sake."

After saying those words, Chu Feng extend his arms and pushed the World Spirit gate open.

Chapter 2540 - Xianhai Shuoyi

---

“Buzz~~~”

At practically the moment when Chu Feng touched that gate, the two other gates disappeared.

Following that, the gate before Chu Feng opened.

In an instant, a boundless attractive force sucked Chu Feng into it.

At the moment when Chu Feng managed to stabilize his body, he was surprised to discover that he was currently in another palace hall.

Compared to the palace hall that he was in before, that palace hall was much smaller.

However, it was still extremely large, so large that it felt overly spacious and empty. The reason for that was because there was nothing in that palace hall at all, not even a single pillar.

That said, there was a platform in the center of the palace hall. That platform seemed to be made of gems. It was sparkling with light and very pretty.

That deep blue platform of gems had a circular shape. It was only a meter tall and ten meters in diameter.

However, being placed in a palace hall that seemed to be completely made of gold, the platform of gems that emitted a blue light appeared exceptionally beautiful.

It was gorgeous and dazzling, like a blue rose within a sea of peonies.

Most importantly, above the blue platform floated a fist-sized gem.

“That gem?”

Upon seeing that gem, Her Lady Queen's expression immediately changed.

Compared to Her Lady Queen, Chu Feng was much more excited and emotional.

The reason for that was because that gem was no ordinary gem. That gem was emitting a very intense amount of power.

As for that power, it was source energy.

That was a gem containing source energy.

"Seems like I've chosen correctly."

Chu Feng was wild with joy.

He had actually chosen the World Spirit gate with only a very simple purpose in mind. That is, he hoped to obtain something that would increase Her Lady Queen's cultivation.

Chu Feng knew very well what sort of personality Her Lady Queen had. She was actually a very prideful individual. She was someone who feverishly pursued strength.

However, due to special causes, her cultivation was progressing extremely slowly right now, distinctly slower than the speed at which Chu Feng's cultivation increased.

Although Her Lady Queen was not concerned with it, Chu Feng felt a great amount of guilt because of it.

If he hadn't had Her Lady Queen with him, if he hadn't had Eggy's assistance, Chu Feng wouldn't have been able to attain his current level of success.

In fact, Chu Feng would not have been able to even survive for so long.

Thus, what he wanted to do the most right now was repay and help Her Lady Queen.

And now, his cherished desire had finally come to fruition. He knew very well that gem would be able to help Her Lady Queen increase her cultivation.

“Buzz~~~”

However, right at the moment when Chu Feng was planning to approach the gem, a dazzling light suddenly appeared on the other side of the gem platform.

That dazzling light lasted only a single instant. At the moment when the light disappeared, a person appeared.

“I wouldn’t be this unlucky, right?”

At that moment, Chu Feng’s heart tightened.

He had heard from that girl Li Ming that one would generally never return empty-handed after entering the Sacred Heavenly Temple. However, there was one exception to this case.

That is, one could enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple at the same time as someone else.

Furthermore, both individuals could decide to choose the same treasure.

That said, something like that was a very rare occurrence.

However, at that moment, something that was practically impossible actually happened to Chu Feng.

“Fuck! You must be kidding, how could I be so unlucky to encounter this!”

At that moment, that other individual spoke with great displeasure. Evidently, that individual had noticed Chu Feng.

At that moment, Chu Feng also began to size up the individual before him. After all, that person would be his opponent.

That individual was a young man. Judging from his appearance, he should be around the same age as Chu Feng.

He had a very handsome appearance. Furthermore, it was not the pretty-boy sort of handsomeness. Rather, he had a very manly handsomeness.

Merely from his appearance, the young man would be capable of attracting countless women, making them want to throw themselves into his arms.

As for the outfit that young man wore, it was also very gorgeous. At a glance, one could tell that not only was his clothes precious, but each and every item on him was exceptionally precious as well.

However, in terms of what was the most precious, it would be a title plate on that young man's waist. Not only was that title plate extremely exquisite, it was also a quality and refined work of art.

That title plate should be made out of some sort of treasure, an extremely rarely-seen and also extremely firm treasure.

Chu Feng felt that something like that should be meant to be used to forge weapons with.

To use a treasure like that to create a title plate was truly extravagant in Chu Feng's eyes.

However, it was precisely because of that that Chu Feng was able to determine that the young man possessed an extraordinary origin.

Thus, Chu Feng remembered the two characters on the title plate, Xianhai. [1. Xianhai → Immortal Sea.]

At the same time that Chu Feng was sizing up that young man, that young man was also sizing up Chu Feng.

At the beginning, he had a very displeased expression. However, after sizing up Chu Feng, he revealed a relaxed expression.

Then, the corners of his mouth actually lifted into a smile.

“Alas, although I am unlucky, I am extremely fortunate to actually encounter trash,” That man said.

“Who are you talking about?” Chu Feng asked coldly.

“There’s only you and I here, who do you think I’m talking about?” That man said.

Hearing those words, Chu Feng wanted to talk back.

However, right at that moment, that man’s expression changed. Then, a boundless oppressive might swept forth from within him.

“This aura!!!”

At that moment, Chu Feng’s expression changed enormously. Even though that man possessed a similar age to Chu Feng, his aura was actually that of a True Immortal.

Furthermore, that aura was extremely powerful. Not only was he a True Immortal-level expert, but he was also not just a rank one True Immortal.

His power had surpassed the limits of Chu Feng’s perception.

Everything happened too quickly. Chu Feng simply did not even have the time to react, he did not even have the time to take out his Evil God Sword. That man’s powerful oppressive might had already completely engulfed Chu Feng.

“This...”

In that one instant, Chu Feng felt that he would undoubtedly be killed.

However, when that oppressive might swept through him, Chu Feng discovered that he was actually completely unscathed.

“Damn it, I forgot that cultivation is useless here,” At that moment, that man shook his head in disappointment. Then, he revealed a proud smile on his face and said to Chu Feng, “Boy, consider yourself lucky. Else... you wouldn’t even know how you died today.”

“What arrogance,” Chu Feng smiled coldly. He now looked to the man with a gaze filled with hostility.

That man had attacked him right after a verbal confrontation.

Furthermore, he was planning to kill him earlier.

Fortunately, cultivation was useless here. Otherwise, Chu Feng would've already been killed by him. As such, how could Chu Feng have a favorable impression of someone like that?

“What, you’re unconvinced?” That man narrowed his brows.

“I am, what can you do about it?” Chu Feng revealed a provocative expression.

Although that man was stronger than him, Chu Feng was not afraid of him since cultivation was useless here.

“You!!!” Seeing such a reaction from Chu Feng, that man immediately revealed a displeased expression. Then, he asked, “Boy, do you dare tell me your name?”

“Uneducated trash, have your parents not taught you that you should give your name first when asking for another’s name?” Chu Feng mocked.

“What? You want to know my name? Could it be that you want to find me to settle things?” The man asked.

“Why can’t I?” Chu Feng said with a faint smile.

“Haha. It is not that I am looking down on you. However, if you are to know my name, I’m afraid that you will piss your pants in fear,” That man said with mocking laughter.

“If you don’t dare to tell me your name, you don’t have to,” Chu Feng said indifferently.

“Don’t dare? This Young Master doesn’t know those words. Boy, listen carefully. This Young Master is called Xianhai Shuoyi,” The man said.

“Xianhai Shuoyi?”

“You’re surnamed Xianhai?” Chu Feng had a surprised expression on his face. This was the first time he had heard such a surname.

“”You’ve actually never even heard of our Xianhai Clan?” That man was surprised. Evidently, he was slightly disappointed by Chu Feng not knowing about his name. Then, he curled his lips and said, “You truly are a country bumpkin.”

“No, no, no, since I’ve never heard of you before, it would only mean that your Xianhai Clan is not famous enough,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“What a sharp tongue. Exactly who are you? Do you dare give your name?”

That man by the name of Xianhai Shuoyi was angered. Evidently, he cared greatly about his reputation. Chu Feng’s contemptuous behavior had enraged him.

“Perk up your ears and listen carefully. Your granddaddy here will not change his name standing, nor will he change his surname sitting. I am surnamed Chu and named Feng. I, your granddaddy, am named Chu Feng,” Chu Feng said.

“Impudent little thief, you dare address yourself as granddaddy before this Young Master?! You’re courting death!!!” Xianhai Shuoyi was completely enraged by Chu Feng. He shot forth a palm strike, and his overwhelming Immortal-level martial power moved toward Chu Feng oppressively like a giant tide.

His martial power was extremely fierce. In a blink of an eye, it completely swallowed Chu Feng. Like a group of wolves surrounding a little rabbit, it began to attack Chu Feng nonstop.

However, even though that attack seemed to be able to easily obliterate Chu Feng was wreaking havoc through Chu Feng’s surroundings, Chu Feng himself was completely unscathed.

Chapter 2541 - Awakened Fierce Beast

---

“What’s this? You want to kill your granddaddy? Seems like you can’t.”

Chu Feng had a smile on his face. That smile was filled with provocation. He had an appearance as if he was saying ‘What could you possibly do to me?’

While Chu Feng’s cultivation was inferior to his opponent’s, he dared to act in such a manner because cultivation was useless there.

Of course, even if his cultivation was effective here, Chu Feng would still not be scared of him.

Chu Feng would never lower his head to such an unreasonable and arrogant individual.

“Damned little thief, do you dare tell this Young Master which Galaxy, which Starfield, which Upper Realm and which clan you’re from?” Xianhai Shuoyi asked furiously.

Evidently, Chu Feng had completely enraged him. From his tone, it could be determined that he was not merely purely asking Chu Feng about those things because he wanted to know.

Rather, he was asking them because he planned to make retaliations against Chu Feng.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, a body of light suddenly appeared and stood on the platform.

That body of light took a humanoid shape. It held a scepter in its hand, and had the appearance of an old man. However, for some unknown reason, its appearance could not be seen clearly.

Chu Feng did not know whether that individual was an actual person, a spirit body or the creation of a spirit formation.

However, Chu Feng was able to be certain that that individual possessed extraordinary strength. His power was much stronger than Xianhai Shuoyi's.

“Only one among the two of you will be able to obtain the treasure here. As for the other, you will be leaving.”

“Furthermore, in this place, your cultivations will possess no use. Who stays and who leaves will be dependent on which among you will be able to answer my question correctly,” That mysterious body of light said.

“Senior, go ahead and ask your question. This junior will definitely spare no effort to answer it.”

Xianhai Shuoyi bowed respectfully to the body of light. There was no trace of the arrogance and overbearingness that he had displayed toward Chu Feng. At that moment, he appeared very lowly.

His lowly appearance was not only born of politeness. Rather, it was a humble posture, the lowliness of flattering someone.

“Don't bother flattering me. Whether or not you'll be able to stay will depend on you yourself,” The mysterious body of light said indifferently.

Evidently, it was not affected by Xianhai Shuoyi's flattery.

Being refused, Xianhai Shuoyi's expression turned ugly. Then, he withdrew his humble attitude and revealed an extremely displeased expression.

To change his attitude immediately upon the failure of his flattery, it could be seen that that man was extremely snobbish.

“Seeing that the both of you are world spiritists, I will give a task that can be completed with spirit power,” The mysterious body of light said.

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, that mysterious body of light pointed its scepter forward. Then, a ray of light shot forth and landed between Chu Feng and Xianhai Shuoyi.

That ray of light soon turned into a gate. The gate was only three meters tall and two meters wide. At that moment, it was open.

That gate was located right between Chu Feng and Xianhai Shuoyi without moving at all.

“You all will be able to push this gate with your spirit power. Whoever manages to push this gate to their opponent’s body will be able to send their opponent out of here.”

“As for the person that manages to stay, he will obtain the treasure.”

“The time limit is an hour. If the outcome of the battle isn’t determined in an hour, then...”

“Piece of cake, this Young Master will immediately have you scam out of here,” Before that mysterious body of light could finish its words, Xianyi Shuoyi immediately sent forth overwhelmingly powerful spirit power and started to push the gate toward Chu Feng.

“Truly lacking manners,” Seeing that, how could Chu Feng dare hesitate? He immediately sent forth his own spirit power to push at the gate as well.

Chu Feng’s spirit power was extremely powerful. Even though that Xianhai Shouyi had struck first and gained the upper hand, Chu Feng immediately pushed the gate back to where it was originally.

“Your cultivation is not up to much, but your spirit power is quite strong. Seems like I have underestimated you.”

Seeing that Chu Feng’s spirit power was this strong, Xianhai Shuoyi’s expression also changed. Then, Chu Feng discovered that the gate that he was easily pushing back was being hindered from moving.

It was clear that this Xianhai Shuoyi did not place Chu Feng in his eyes at the beginning, and had not gone all-out at the very start.

However, upon discovering that Chu Feng's spirit power was very strong, he also no longer held back, and started to go all-out against Chu Feng.

As that Xianhai Shuoyi's spirit power was quite strong to begin with, Chu Feng was unable to hold much superiority over Xianhai Shuoyi.

“Seems like I must go all-out too.”

Chu Feng did not wish to delay the match. The reason for that was because he knew that his actual body was still in the Demon Elimination Cave, and the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan was still trying to find and kill him.

Thus, while he was hiding in a very safe place, Chu Feng still wished to quickly settle the match in order to guard against the unexpected.

Thus, he planned to go all-out and settle the match as soon as possible.

“Eaaahhh~~~”

However, right at the moment when Chu Feng was planning to go all out, his head suddenly started to hurt massively. “Putt,” Chu Feng half kneeled onto the ground.

At the moment Chu Feng half kneeled onto the ground, his spirit power also grew much weaker. That Xianhai Shuoyi immediately captured the opportunity to rapidly push the gate toward Chu Feng.

“Damn it!”

Seeing this, Chu Feng hurriedly resisted the pain in his head and used his spirit power to push the incoming gate back.

However, the enormous headache made it so that Chu Feng was unable to control his spirit power with full concentration. As such, he was simply unable to unleash the full might of his spirit power.

Thus, at that moment, not to mention not being able to push the incoming gate back, he was unable to even stop it from being pushed his way.

Gradually, the gate was growing closer and closer to Chu Feng.

“Humph, I thought for a moment that you might be some genius world spiritist.”

“Turns out it’s nothing more than a bluff.”

“However, don’t be down. To be defeated by this Young Master is only natural. You should be honored to be defeated by me.”

At that moment, Xianhai Shuoyi’s face was filled with complacency.

“That damned bastard is actually this arrogant.”

“If it wasn’t for the fact that you seriously injured your spirit power for the sake of obtaining that God Bestowment Bamboo Slip, how could he possibly be a match for you? You would have already defeated him long ago.”

Seeing that Chu Feng was being insulted, Her Lady Queen revealed an unreconciled expression. She was feeling even worse than having herself be humiliated.

After all, she knew very well that in terms of spirit power, Chu Feng was far superior to this Xianhai Shuoyi.

Unfortunately, for the sake of helping the Golden Crane True Immortal obtain the God Bestowment Bamboo Slip, Chu Feng had seriously injured his spirit power on Mount Cloud Crane.

At that moment, Chu Feng was simply unable to unleash the spirit power that he actually possessed. Otherwise... Her Lady Queen felt that Chu Feng would be able to completely trample Xianhai Shuoyi in terms of spirit power.

“Trash, why don’t you pull yourself together? The time limit is one hour, and the match has only just begun.”

“What’s this? You’re planning to let this Young Master win already? This is truly too boring.”

“Say, trash, do you want this Young Master to go easy on you?”

“How about this, call this Young Master ‘ancestor’ and I’ll consider defeating you slower, and give you an opportunity to turn the situation around.”

“Hahahaha...”

At that moment, Xiaohai Shuoyi was laughing extremely malevolently. His originally handsome face had turned extremely disgusting from his shameless laughter.

Most disgusting of all, even though he was shouting about going easy on Chu Feng, he was actually going all-out to defeat Chu Feng as quickly as possible.

“Damn it!”

Chu Feng felt extremely unreconciled in his heart. He tried his best to unleash his spirit power.

However, the more he tried to unleash his spirit power, the more unbearable his headache became. In the end, his desire to unleash more spirit power only produced the opposite result, with his spirit power growing weaker and weaker.

As for that gate, it was also growing closer and closer to Chu Feng.

“Eggy, I’m sorry, it would seem that I’ll be defeated.”

At that moment, Chu Feng felt enormous guilt in his heart.

He was feeling guilty because even though the opportunity to help Her Lady Queen was right before him, he was actually not strong enough to obtain it, and would soon be returning empty-handed.

He was feeling extremely pained in his heart. In fact, to Chu Feng, the pain in his heart was even more unbearable than the pain in his head.

“Chu Feng, you can’t admit defeat. You must persevere. You can’t lose to a bastard like him.”

“It doesn’t matter whether or not you can obtain that gem. However, you absolutely cannot allow yourself to be defeated by that sort of bastard. You cannot let him look down on you.”

“How did this Queen teach you? Have you forgotten about all the experiences that you’ve had over the years? Have you endured all that suffering in vain?”

“How could you admit defeat at such a time? This is not like the Chu Feng that I know. The Chu Feng that I know would absolutely not admit defeat toward someone like that, he would absolutely not lower his head at a time like this.”

“Bastard Chu Feng, pull yourself together for this Queen!!!”

Her Lady Queen shouted hysterically. Her words were filled with unwillingness.

Xianhai Shuoyi was unable to hear this voice. In fact, apart from Chu Feng, no one else was able to hear that voice.

However, when that voice entered Chu Feng’s ears, that voice of unwillingness was like a series of sharp blades that pierced through Chu Feng’s heart.

That’s right. All these years, from when he was an outer court disciple of the Azure Dragon School, he had reached his current accomplishments today one step at a time, and experienced countless difficulties. Yet, never once did he admit defeat. As such, how could he admit defeat at a time like this?

Most importantly, Eggy had given so much for him. She had nearly even lost her life for him.

How could Chu Feng admit defeat? How could he disappoint Eggy?

He could not. No matter what, he absolutely could not do that. Even if he were to die, he still could not admit defeat.

“Ahhh!!!”

Suddenly, Chu Feng let out a loud shout.

At that moment, Chu Feng suddenly stood up. He stood there like an awakened fierce beast.

Chapter 2542 - The Queen's Smile

---

“This guy.”

Seeing Chu Feng suddenly standing back up, Xianhai Shuoyi's heart grew tense.

He subconsciously felt that the situation was bad. Thus, he gnashed his teeth and went all-out to unleash his spirit power. He wanted to defeat Chu Feng quickly.

However, he was surprised to discover that the gate that could only be moved with spirit power, that gate that was only three meters away from Chu Feng, was actually unmoving.

At that moment, that gate was like an enormous mountain that he was incapable of moving. No matter how much spirit power he poured forth, he was unable to move that gate toward Chu Feng in the slightest.

As for Chu Feng, he was acting as if he had forgotten about his headache. There was only a single person, Xianhai Shuoyi, in his eyes.

There was only a single thing in Chu Feng's mind, something that he had to do, something that was even more important than his life.

That is, he must defeat Xianhai Shuoyi.

“Xianhai Shuoyi.”

Suddenly, Chu Feng opened his mouth and spoke tranquilly. There was no anger in either his tone or his eyes.

“Ah?”

Xianhai Shuoyi was startled. He did not know why Chu Feng would suddenly call out his name at such a time.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was doing so with such a tranquil tone. It was as if his mockeries and insults earlier had not angered Chu Feng at all.

“Listen carefully and remember this properly. My name is Chu Feng,” Chu Feng said to Xianhai Shuoyi.

“What do you mean by that?” Xianhai Shuoyi grew even more bewildered. He did not understand why Chu Feng had said those words.

Right at that moment, the originally calm Chu Feng suddenly let out a shout like an enraged beast, an erupting volcano.

“The reason for that is because your granddaddy, me, is going to be the one to defeat you!!!”

“Boom~~~”

Right after his words left his mouth, enormous spirit power exploded out from Chu Feng’s body. The gate that was only three meters away from Chu Feng was instantly pushed onto Xianhai Shuoyi by Chu Feng’s explosive spirit power.

“No!!!”

At that moment, Xianhai Shuoyi let out an extremely unreconciled shout.

His voice was still lingering in the palace hall. However, his body had already been swallowed by that gate and sent out of the palace hall, sent out of the Sacred Heavenly Temple.

After Chu Feng drove Xianhai Shuoyi away, he sat powerlessly on the ground like a deflated ball. At that moment, Chu Feng’s aura was extremely weak and his complexion was very ugly. It was as if he was seriously ill. Bean-sized beads of sweat covered his entire body and were falling from him nonstop.

However, Chu Feng had a joyous expression on his face. He said to Eggy, “Milady Queen, how was it? I didn’t shame you, no?”

“Oh you, don’t try to flaunt here. You should know that you were originally able to easily win today. The reason why it was so difficult was all because you decided to show off back then,” Her Lady Queen said in a very stern manner.

“I got it, Milady Queen. This lowly one will definitely take note of it in the future,” Chu Feng said with a joyous smile on his face.

“Humph, that’s right,” Her Lady Queen spoke in a pretended strict manner.

However, she clearly had a joyous expression on her exceptionally beautiful face. In her quick-witted eyes was clearly the expression of heartache.

Naturally, she was feeling heartache for Chu Feng.

“The victor can obtain the treasure.”

Right at that moment, that mysterious body of light spoke dully. The next moment, it disappeared. What disappeared together with it was the gate that Chu Feng had used to defeat Xianhai Shuoyi.

“Finally succeeded.”

Chu Feng walked to the gem platform and looked at the source energy gem that was now within his reach. He was still feeling somewhat nervous.

Chu Feng was unable to be certain as to whether or not he could really obtain the source energy gem.

The reason for that was because he kept feeling that he was extremely extremely far away from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

With how far away he was, how did he arrive in this place? Could it really be as Young Master Li Ming said? That only his soul had traveled there?

If it was really only his soul, would he be able to successfully bring this source energy gem back to his actual body?

Although nervous, Chu Feng still extended his hand to grab that source energy gem.

“Buzz~~~”

At the instant Chu Feng’s hand grabbed that source energy gem, Chu Feng felt that his surroundings started to rapidly change.

At that moment, Chu Feng felt as if his body passed through countless worlds.

However, that sort of sensation lasted for only an instant.

At that moment, Chu Feng discovered that he had returned to the Demon Elimination Cave.

He was still standing at the same place where he was previously. His surroundings were also exactly the same.

However, one extra item had appeared in his hand. It was that source energy gem he had obtained in the Sacred Heavenly Temple.

Not only was the source energy gem in his hand, but it was also emitting a dense amount of source energy. It was practically the same as when he had obtained it in the Sacred Heavenly Temple.

At that moment, Chu Feng was endlessly excited. Even though he had been to many remnants and treasure deposits, he had never been to a place as mystical as the Sacred Heavenly Temple.

“You took so long, and you only brought back a treasure like that?”

Right at that moment, a voice sounded. It was Young Master Li Ming. At that moment, Young Master Li Ming was looking at Chu Feng with a gaze showing her inability to understand Chu Feng.

“What’s wrong?” Chu Feng continued to smile. At that moment, he was truly overjoyed.

“Is that thing even helpful to you? That’s for your world spirit, no?” Young Master Li Ming said.

“This is precisely what I wanted,” Chu Feng smiled even stronger. He said to Young Master Li Ming, “Girl, thank you. If it wasn’t for you, I wouldn’t have been able to enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple, and wouldn’t have been able to obtain this.”

“You don’t have to thank me. I merely did not wish to owe you a favor,” Young Master Li Ming said coldly.

Faced with the cold reply from Young Master Li Ming, the smile on Chu Feng’s face remained unchanged.

He already knew that Young Master Li Ming was actually also an outwardly-cold yet inwardly-warm sort of person.

Chu Feng no longer continued to be courteous toward Young Master Li Ming. Instead, with a thought, he opened his world spirit gate.

Soon, an exceptionally beautiful figure walked out from his world spirit gate.

That woman was devastatingly beautiful. Her appearance was capable of charming all men in the world. As for who she was, she was naturally Her Lady Queen.

“Eggy, refine this. You should be able to reach a breakthrough in your cultivation,” Chu Feng handed Her Lady Queen the gem that contained a dense amount of source energy.

“Bang~~~”

However, Her Lady Queen shot forth her fist and smashed it onto Chu Feng’s chest.

“Bastard, you are simply too disobedient. Didn’t I tell you not to choose this?” Her Lady Queen was actually not happy. She had an expression of complaint.

However, although he was seeing Her Lady Queen angry, the smile on Chu Feng's face grew stronger. Merely, that smile of his was guilt-ridden.

“Next time, I will definitely listen to you. Is that okay?” Chu Feng said.

“It's a deal. Next time, if you are to encounter something like this again, you must choose what this Queen wants you to choose. Understand?” Eggy spoke with a commanding tone.

“Got it, I will definitely do as you order,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“Act seriously,” Her Lady Queen berated.

“Yes,” Chu Feng revealed a very serious appearance and stood perfectly straight.

“Puu~~~” Seeing this scene, Her Lady Queen was finally unable to contain herself and burst into laughter.

Her smile was so very charming. That smile was simply capable of overturning the entire world. Seeing this scene, Chu Feng felt that everything was worth it.

Chapter 2543 - Being Even

---

“Milady Queen, please enjoy,” Chu Feng said earnestly.

Before Eggy, he was truly acting like a servant. No, to be exact, he was acting like her guard.

No matter what Eggy did, Chu Feng was able to accept it. He would never feel fed up with her. He only possessed love and affection for Eggy.

By the same account, he would not feel displeased by Eggy’s actions. On the contrary, he was very happy.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng felt happy from Eggy feeling happy.

“Set up the formation for me.”

Her Lady Queen received the source energy gemstone from Chu Feng.

“Yes.”

Chu Feng did not hesitate. He knew that Eggy was planning to refine the source energy gem right now. Thus, he hurriedly took a couple steps back and then set up a spirit formation, covering Eggy.

Chu Feng knew that the source energy gem was somewhat special. Even for Eggy, it would take her some time to refine it.

Within that spirit formation, Eggy would be able to refine the source energies in a more focused manner.

“So you’re actually interested in beauty. You chose that thing that is useless for you so that you can obtain a smile from that beauty.”

“That said, it is also understandable. After all, this is also my first time seeing such a beautiful world spirit. Perhaps all you men will not be able to withstand that sort of enticement,” Young Master Li

Ming said faintly. It was as if she had seen through Chu Feng.

“Heh...” Chu Feng lightly chuckled at Young Master Li Ming’s words. Then, he said, “Perhaps you do not understand the sentiments between Eggy and myself. That said, as far as I’m concerned, she is more like my relative. Our relationship is most definitely not limited to a contract.”

“Perhaps that’s the case,” Young Master Li Ming spoke indifferently.

“Oh, that’s right, did you also enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple earlier?” Chu Feng asked.

“Of course,” As Young Master Li Ming spoke, she suddenly raised her hand. Then, an item fell into Chu Feng’s hand.

Chu Feng received the item, and discovered that it was a bamboo slip. This tiny bamboo slip was completely engraved with complicated characters.

“This is what you obtained at the Sacred Heavenly Temple?”

“The Sacred Heavenly Temple is truly worthy of its reputation as the most amazing remnant. It truly possesses everything.”

Chu Feng revealed an astonished expression. He was already able to tell that the tiny bamboo slip was no ordinary item.

The bamboo slip was completely engraved with the way of martial comprehension. Furthermore, the martial comprehensions engraved onto it were easily comprehended.

Although Chu Feng only took a glance at the bamboo slip, and did not try to comprehend its martial comprehension, Chu Feng was able to tell that the martial comprehensions contained in it were no small matter.

If he were to comprehend them, he might even reach a breakthrough to rank nine Martial Ancestor.

“I’m giving it to you,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Giving it to me?” Chu Feng revealed a surprised expression.

“I do not wish to repeat what I said,” Young Master Li Ming spoke coldly.

“But...” Chu Feng wanted to refuse.

“There’s no but. This thing is useless to me. However, if you are able to comprehend it, you will most likely be able to obtain enough comprehension to breakthrough to peak Martial Ancestor,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Even if it’s useless for you...” Chu Feng still did not want to accept it. The reason for that was because he was only able to enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple thanks to Young Master Li Ming.

As for that bamboo slip, it was something very precious. Even if Young Master Li Ming had no use for it, she would be able to fetch a vast price for it in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, or even the Upper Realms.

After all, to martial cultivators, what they sought the most was obtaining something that would allow one to gain martial comprehension. As for that bamboo slip, the martial comprehension it contained was very easily comprehended.

To martial cultivators, this was most definitely a valuable item.

“Don’t say anymore. Earlier, you brought me away from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan. It could be said that you’ve saved my life.”

“Compared to my life, mere worldly possessions like this bamboo slip are not worth anything.”

“If you really feel that this item is precious, we will be completely even after you accept it,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Girl, I truly can’t argue against you. Since that’s the case, I will accept it,” Chu Feng said.

“Your world spirit will need some time to refine that gem. You can take this time to comprehend it,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Very well,” Chu Feng did not hesitate. He sat down and planned to comprehend the bamboo slip.

Chu Feng was not worried about his safety. As matters stood, he could be said to have turned his former hostility with Young Master Li Ming into friendship.

Furthermore, he felt that, with Young Master Li Ming’s character, she would not seize the opportunity to attack him while he was comprehending things.

The reason for that was because Chu Feng knew very well that making an enemy of someone like Young Master Li Ming would be very dangerous. However... as a friend, she would be very reliable.

“If you are able to comprehend enough to break through to peak Martial Ancestor, you should just break through directly,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Break through directly? That wouldn’t be good, no?” Chu Feng shook his head.

This place was, after all, the territory of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan. If he were to reach a breakthrough here, he would definitely give rise to the Divine Tribulation’s lightning.

The appearance of the Divine Tribulation’s lightning would definitely catch the attention of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan. If that were to happen, their location would be exposed.

“Use this,” Young Master Li Ming tossed an umbrella to Chu Feng.

“This is?” Chu Feng’s expression changed. That umbrella was another treasure.

“Open that umbrella and place it above your head. Not only will it help you avoid a portion of the Self-Punishment Mysterious Technique’s power, but it will also let the Self-Punishment Mysterious Technique land without any sound and movement. Others will not be able to see the descent of the lightning,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“There’s actually this sort of thing?” Chu Feng exclaimed in admiration. The reason for that was because he felt enormous headache at the emergence of the Divine Tribulation’s lightning during his breakthroughs.

After all, the Divine Tribulation’s lightning was so very magnificent. Every single time it appeared, Chu Feng would alarm others. Chu Feng had thought about how good it would be if he had a treasure that could conceal the Divine Tribulation’s lightning.

Merely, Chu Feng had felt that something like that was impossible to accomplish. After all, the power of the Divine Tribulation’s lightning was so very strong. As such, Chu Feng had truly never expected a treasure like that to really exist.

“I am truly becoming more and more curious as to exactly what your origin is, as well as what other treasures you have with you,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“If you continue on with your nonsense, your world spirit will be able to completely refine that gem,” Young Master Li Ming cast a side eye at Chu Feng.

“I understand,” Chu Feng smiled. Then, he opened the umbrella that was given to him.

After the umbrella was opened, it floated into the air and stopped three meters above Chu Feng. Then, a shower of light fell from the umbrella and surrounded Chu Feng within it.

When that light surrounded him, Chu Feng was able to feel the power of the umbrella with even greater certainty. Indeed, this was a treasure made precisely for those that trained in the Self-Punishment Mysterious Techniques.

“What a good treasure,” After Chu Feng said these words, he closed his eyes and tightly held the bamboo slip in his hand.

Chu Feng did not have to read the contents of the bamboo slip with his eyes at all. The reason for that was because the contents must be comprehended using one’s heart and mind.

As Chu Feng began his comprehension, the characters that were densely packed on the bamboo slip actually began to disappear nonstop.

Evidently, the bamboo slip could only be used once.

.....

At the same time. In a place extremely far from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

There was an extremely beautiful lake. That lake was actually seven-colored.

Mist was floating on the surface of the lake. The seven colors of the lake had dyed the mist seven colors too.

That place resembled the world of immortals. It was extremely gorgeous. With a glance, one’s heart would feel untroubled, and one’s spirit pleased.

There were countless little isles on the lake. On one of the isles was a young man sitting languidly with his back against a boulder.

His hands were tightly clenched. They were clenched so hard that creaking sounds could be heard, and the veins in his arms were all bulging.

As for that young man, he was none other than the person Chu Feng had defeated in the Sacred Heavenly Temple, that man who had called himself Xianhai Shuoyi.

“Damn it, I actually lost to trash like that!”

Suddenly, Xianhai Shuoyi smashed his fist onto the ground, violently shaking the entire isle and leaving behind a deep crack that extended outward like a cobweb on the ground.

“Am I mishearing things? Xianhai Shuoyi, you were defeated? How were you defeated? Could it be that you encountered a competitor after entering the Sacred Heavenly Temple, and were then defeated by that competitor?”

“Haha, Big Brother Shuoyi, you are truly pathetic.”

Right at that moment, two figures flew over and landed before Xianhai Shuoyi.

They were a man and a woman. The two of them possessed similar ages to Xianhai Shuoyi.

The man had a handsome appearance, whereas the woman was a beauty. They were truly a model handsome man and beautiful woman.

Not only were they wearing gorgeous clothes, but there were also the same sort of title plate as Xianhai Shuoyi's title plate, the title plate with the characters 'Xianhai' on it, on their waists.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that those two people were actually also True Immortals. Although they were only rank one True Immortals, it still remained that it was extraordinary.

Chapter 2544 - Immortal Sea Fish Clan

---

Seeing those two people, Xianhai Shuoyi stood up and asked, “What sort of treasure did the two of you manage to obtain?”

“Here, Big Brother Shuoyi, this is what I’ve obtained.”

“This is mine.”

The man and woman both revealed an item in their hands.

The woman was holding a bamboo slip. The color of the bamboo slip was different from the one that Young Master Li Ming gave Chu Feng. However, the mysterious characters engraved onto it were exactly the same.

As for the man, he had a stone in his hand. That stone was completely pitch-black in color. However, it was emitting a glistening luster. It was not light. Rather, it was luster.

That stone was only the size of an ordinary brick. At a glance, it appeared very unremarkable. However, it just so happened to give off an extremely extraordinary feeling. It was as if the stone was alive, and possessed a very precious lineage.

“Bamboo Slips with martial comprehension are only useful to Martial Ancestors. However, they can fetch some cash. Thus, there’s no loss in obtaining it.”

“As for this Immortal Armament Blackiron Stone, it could fetch a very good price,” Xianhai Shuoyi evaluated the two items. Then, he arrived beside the man and patted his shoulder, “You’ve made a profit this time around.”

“Big Brother Shuoyi, then what did you manage to obtain after entering the Sacred Heavenly Temple this time around?” The woman asked curiously.

“I...” Xianhai Shuoyi revealed an embarrassed expression.

“Xianhai Shuoyi, I’ve heard you saying that you’ve failed earlier?” Seeing Xianhai Shuoyi’s hesitant expression, the man asked, “You couldn’t possibly really be that unlucky to encounter an expert that had chosen the same treasure as you in the Sacred Heavenly Temple, and then be defeated by that person, right?”

As for the woman, she stopped her previously taunting mannerisms and stared at Xianhai Shuoyi with wide-opened eyes.

The two of them were both waiting for Xianhai Shuoyi to give them an answer.

“Mn.”

After hesitating for a moment, Xianhai Shuoyi nodded.

“You were actually unlucky enough to encounter something like that?” The man and woman both revealed extremely surprised expressions.

However, at that moment, the two of them no longer expressed any ridiculing mannerisms, and were more or less feeling sorry for Xianhai Shuoyi.

It would appear that their relationships were pretty decent. Their taunting and ridiculing mannerisms earlier were merely meant to joke around with Xianhai Shuoyi. They did not really expect that Xianhai Shouyi would encounter such an unlucky thing.

After all, the possibility of something like that happening was extremely slim.

After finding out that Xianhai Shuoyi had encountered that sort of unfortunate thing, and was even defeated by his opponent, the man and woman who knew Xianhai Shuoyi’s personality well started to feel sorry for him.

“It was merely an accident. That fellow was extremely weak. In terms of cultivation, he was simply no match for me.”

“Unfortunately, cultivation is useless in the Sacred Heavenly

Temple. As for the test put forth by that guardian spirit, it just so happened to be in something that I am not very proficient in. That is why I ended up being defeated.”

“Else, even ten thousand of him would not be a match for me,” Xianhai Shuoyi declared.

“Exactly what sort of test did that guardian spirit give?” That woman asked curiously.

“It’s hard to explain. In any case, it was not a conventional match,” Xianhai Shuoyi said.

Xianhai Shuoyi would naturally not say that he had been defeated by Chu Feng in a match of spirit power. After all, a match of spirit power was a very common practice. If he were to declare that he had lost in a match of spirit power, he would most definitely be laughed at by others.

“Exactly what is happening here today? I’ve heard that Her Highness Yu’er also encountered a competitor in the Sacred Heavenly Temple,” The man said. [2. The Yu in Yu’er means ‘fish.’ ‘er is just a suffix to make a name sound cutesy/familiar. Hint hint Eastern Sea Region]

“Yu’er also encountered a competitor?” Hearing those words, Xianhai Shuoyi immediately grew tense.

“That’s right. Her Highness Yu’er declared it herself,” That man nodded.

“How is Yu’er?” Xianhai Shuoyi asked nervously.

From his reaction, it seemed that he was deeply concerned for that Her Highness Yu’er.

“Who is Her Highness Yu’er? She is the number one genius to appear in our Immortal Sea Fish Clan in the last several tens of thousands of years.”

“Naturally, she won,” The man said proudly.

“It’s great that she won. Yu’er is truly amazing,” Hearing those words, Xianhai Shuoyi felt relieved.

“Actually, when we first heard about it, we were also extremely worried for Her Highness.”

“After all, what Her Highness used was the Martial Immortal-level Sacred Temple Bead. We all know that apart from the True Immortal-level Sacred Temple Beads that anyone can use, the other Sacred Temple Beads possess cultivation requirements.”

“Thus, we felt that Her Highness Yu’er must’ve encountered a Martial Immortal-level expert.”

“Her Highness Yu’er has only just become a Martial Immortal, thus we were afraid that she would end up suffering a mishap after encountering such a powerful opponent.”

“But, Her Highness Yu’er managed to defeat her opponent and successfully obtained the treasure,” That woman said with a proud expression.

Xianhai Shuoyi stood up and said, “Where’s Yu’er? I’m going to see her.”

“I heard that Her Highness Yu’er is still on the isle in the center of the lake,” The woman pointed into the distance.

“I’ll go see Yu’er. You two wait for me here,” Xianhai Shuoyi said. Then, he soared into the sky and began flying toward the direction that woman indicated.

After Xianhai Shuoyi left, the man and woman both revealed envious expressions on their faces.

“I am truly envious of Big Brother Shuoyi. He is actually able to be this close to Her Highness Yu’er. People like us do not even have a chance to approach Her Highness Yu’er,” The woman said as she looked to the direction Xianhai Shuoyi had left toward.

“When even a girl like you is feeling envious, you can very well imagine how enormously envious I, a man, am,” The man sighed.

“Haha, big brother, you were just unlucky. After all, Big Brother Shuoyi grew up together with Her Highness Yu’er,” The woman said.

“That’s true. Although Xianhai Shuoyi’s mother is only Her Highness Yu’er’s servant, it was thanks to her that Xianhai Shuoyi was able to get in contact with Her Highness Yu’er. To us people of the Immortal Sea Fish Clan, this should be the greatest fortune, no?” The man sighed with deep emotions.

In the center of the seven-colored immortal lake was an enormous island.

At that moment, Xianhai Shuoyi was rapidly approaching that island.

“Stop!”

Suddenly, a shout was heard. Then, a middle-aged man appeared in the empty space.

That middle-aged man was wearing cyan armor. His armor seemed to be made of fish scales, and was glistening under the sunshine.

That armor was the work of uncanny craftsmanship. It was even like art. That armor itself was a treasure.

As for that middle-aged man’s aura, it was extremely deep and powerful. Even Xianhai Shuoyi, a True Immortal, felt extremely small before that man.

Not to mention attacking him, merely a spit or even a glance from that middle-aged man would be sufficient to instantly obliterate him.

On the waist of the middle-aged man were two title plates. One was the same as the one that Xianhai Shuoyi had on his waist, the title plate with the characters ‘Xianhai’ on it.

As for the other, it possessed two other characters, 'Palace Guard.' [3. Palace Guard → Dianwei.]

“Immortal Sea Fish Clansman Xianhai Shouyi pays his respects to Lord Palace Guard!!!”

Upon seeing this individual, Xianhai Shuoyi immediately clasped his fist and bowed respectfully to that man.

“And here I was wondering who it was. So it's you, Shouyi. There's no need to stand on ceremony, you can stand back up,” The middle-aged man said with a smile.

“You must have come to find Her Highness Yu'er, right?” The middle-aged man asked with a smile on his face. Judging from his appearance, he was quite familiar with Xianhai Shuoyi.

“Yes, Lord Palace Guard. Is Her Highness Yu'er present?” Xianhai Shuoyi asked.

“Her Highness Yu'er is on the island. Go on ahead,” The middle-aged man said.

“Thank you Lord Palace Guard,” As Xianhai Shuoyi expressed his thanks, his body shifted and his clothes fluttered in the wind. He had proceeded to continue flying toward the island.

“Humph.”

Right after Xianhai Shuoyi left, the smile on that middle-aged man's face immediately disappeared. It was replaced with an expression of contempt.

Chapter 2545 - Her Highness Yu'er

---

“Buzz~~~”

Right at that moment, the space next to him started to tremble slightly. Then, a woman walked out.

Compared to the middle-aged man, this woman was much younger. Not only did she have an attractive face, but her figure was also enchanting. She was a sexy woman.

That said, although she had a very sexy appearance, she was wearing the same sort of majestic armor as the middle-aged man.

Furthermore, that woman also had the same identical ‘Palace Guard’ title plate on her waist.

“That boy is truly a toad that wants to eat swan meat,” The woman looked to the direction that Xianhai Shuoyi had left in and smiled coldly. She added, “He should have checked his status. If it wasn’t for Her Highness Yu’er having such a good personality, how could she concern herself with someone like him, the son of a servant?”

“Don’t bother with him. After all... he’s hopeless,” The middle-aged man said.

“Of course. With how excellent Her Highness Yu’er is, how could she fancy someone like him? She is merely feeling pity for him,” The woman said.

The two of them were conversing through voice transmissions. Thus, only the two of them were capable of hearing it.

On the island was an overhanging cliff.

The cliff was very dangerous. However, a young woman was sitting at the edge of the cliff.

She was sitting at the edge of the cliff with her legs dangling at an altitude of over ten thousand meters.

That young woman had a head full of beautiful jet black hair that sprinkled down behind her. As she blinked, her long eyelashes trembled slightly.

Her beautiful eyes were very clear. It was as if there were countless stars within them. They were completely untainted.

Her tall nose bridge and delicate cherry lips were also magnificently beautiful.

This young woman's appearance was simply the pinnacle of beauty. Especially her pure and charming aura, it was simply akin to that of a celestial fairy. She was simply perfect.

Not only was the young woman's facial appearance akin to that of a celestial fairy, but her figure was also very good. She possessed snow-white skin with a faint rosy and translucent glow. Her skin was like that of jade.

As for her long green dress, it made the woman appear like an elf in the world.

It was as if a woman like her could only be seen in one's dreams, and not present in reality.

“Huu~~~”

Suddenly, wind blew past. Her long green skirt started to flutter slightly. The young woman's beautiful legs were exposed intermittently. It was truly alluring.

Likely, apart from Her Lady Queen, there was no one that could match that young woman's beauty.

Although that young woman was very beautiful, she had a child-like personality.

The young woman was swinging her legs back and forth over the cliff. As for her beautiful eyes, they were sizing up a beaded chain that she was fiddling with in her hand.

However, her witty appearance made her seem even more lovely.

“Yu’er, is that beaded chain what you’ve obtained from the Sacred Heavenly Temple?”

Suddenly, a voice was heard. It was Xianhai Shuoyi. He descended from the sky and stood behind that beautiful young woman, then slowly walked toward her.

Seeing Xianhai Shuoyi, the young woman did not show any sign of being on guard. Instead, she turned around, smiled sweetly and held up the beaded chain in her hand.

“How is it? Not bad, no?”

At that moment, Xianhai Shuoyi was able to clearly see the beaded chain. The beaded chain was sparking, translucent and dark green in color. Each and every bead on the beaded chain seemed to be alive.

Not only that, but if one were to look carefully, one would see that the beads were actually all grand formations. There was a total of a hundred and thirty-eight beads. In other words, there were a hundred and thirty-eight grand formations. Each and every single grand formation was extremely powerful. Furthermore... there were both defensive and offensive formations.

“The treasure one obtains after using a Martial Immortal-level Sacred Temple Bead to enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple is truly of excellent quality,” Xianhai Shuoyi said.

“Xianhai Shuoyi, what sort of treasure did you obtain? Let me have a look at it,” The young woman’s beautiful eyes were flickering in a very mischievous manner.

“I...” Xianhai Shuoyi’s expression turned sluggish. After a moment of hesitation, he said, “Compared to your bracelet, what I’ve obtained is simply unworthy of mention. Thus, I’m not going to take it out to shame myself.”

Xianhai Shuoyi did not tell the truth.

He was able to tell anyone that he had been defeated in the Sacred Heavenly Temple by someone and did not obtain any treasure. However, it was only before this young woman before him that he did not dare say that.

He was afraid that the young woman would be disappointed in him. He was also afraid that he would shame himself.

“If you don’t want to tell me, so be it.”

The young woman raised her head and turned around as she continued to fiddle with the beaded chain in her hand.

It seemed like she was not very concerned with what that Xianhai Shuoyi might have obtained.

Xianhai Shuoyi walked over to the young woman and said, “Yu’er, this bracelet of yours is very pretty. It suits you very well. Why don’t you wear it?”

“What bracelet? This is a footlace. Boys like you truly do not know about anything,” The young woman let out a ridiculing laughter.

However, this ridiculing and mocking laughter was so very pleasant-sounding when it reached Xianhai Shuoyi’s ears.

He did not feel that his ego was insulted from the young woman’s ridiculing laughter. The reason for that was because he knew the young woman very well, and knew that she was not really ridiculing him. He knew that she was merely joking with him.

“So it’s actually a footlace. Isn’t that even better? You’ll be able to replace that old, dirty footlace on your feet,” Xianhai Shuoyi said.

“Woosh~~~”

Right after Xianhai Shuoyi said those words, he suddenly felt that the surrounding air had instantly turned incomparably ice-cold.

Even though he was a grand True Immortal-level expert, he still felt bone-chilling coldness.

“Yu’er, are you angry?”

At that moment, Xianhai Shuoyi’s voice was trembling slightly. Although the young woman did not explicitly express it, he knew that she was angry.

The bone-chilling coldness was caused by the young woman’s change in mood.

The young woman slowly got up. However, she completely ignored Xianhai Shuoyi and walked past him. She began to walk toward the depths of the mountain.

Seeing that, Xianhai Shuoyi hesitated slightly. He wanted to say something, but didn’t dare to say it.

Finally, he tightly clenched his fists, gathered up his courage and said, “Yu’er, wait a moment.”

The young woman stopped. However, she did not turn around. Instead, with her back facing Xianhai Shuoyi, she said, “What do you need now?”

“Yu’er, I have something that I’ve wanted to ask you for a long time now. Exactly what did you experience back then? Why did you completely change after returning?”

“Furthermore, you’ve been wearing that footlace the entire time ever since. But, that footlace is merely an Elite Armament. It is simply useless in protecting you.”

“Why do you wear it all the time? Exactly what did you experience?” Xianhai Shuoyi spoke in an emotional manner.

Evidently, he had kept those words in his heart for a very long time. Today, he was finally able to let them out.

“You have given me footlaces many times in the past. Your goal is so that I will change this footlace, right?”

“Did you do that because you felt that my footlace was very unbefitting of me?” The young woman spoke calmly.

“That’s right, I feel that footlace to be very ugly, very irksome. I do not wish to see you wearing it,” Xianhai Shuoyi spoke emotionally.

“Boom~~~”

Right at that moment, that Xianhai Shuoyi suddenly crashed onto the ground. Overwhelming power caused crushed rocks to scatter about in the air. Xianhai Shuoyi was crushed deep into the rocks of the cliff, unable to move in the slightest.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

At the very next instant, a total of twenty-four figures appeared on the cliff simultaneously. They completely surrounded the young woman.

Among those people, the youngest were middle-aged individuals, whereas the oldest were white-haired elderly individuals. The man and woman from earlier were also present among them.

Not only were they all wearing the same sort of armor, but they also all had the ‘Palace Guard’ title plate on their waists.

Most importantly, those twenty-four individuals all possessed extremely frightening auras. Their cultivations were extremely powerful, and most definitely superior to those of Martial Immortals.

At that moment, they were looking at their surroundings in a greatly alerted manner. The killing intent from their eyes could be said to be extremely frightening.

It was as if their gazes and auras alone were sufficient to suffocate and kill their enemies.

Chapter 2546 - Who Gave It To You

---

“Your Highness Yu’er, what happened?”

Those twenty-four palace guards thought that something had happened.

However, when they discovered that it was actually Xianhai Shuoyi who was crushed into the cliff by the young woman’s oppressive might, they were all stunned and confused.

After all, they knew very well that even though Xianhai Shuoyi had a very lowly status, he possessed a very good relationship with the young woman, as they’d grown up together.

They did not understand who could possibly make the young woman so angry that she would treat Xianhai Shuoyi in such a manner.

That said, as they knew that the relationship between Xianhai Shuoyi and the young woman was generally very good, they did not attack Xianhai Shuoyi even after knowing that he had offended the young woman.

They all knew very well that the matter should be left for the young woman to personally handle due to Xianhai Shuoyi’s special status.

“Xianhai Shuoyi, there are words that I’ve wanted to tell you for a very long time now. Although we have grown up together and are friends of many years...”

The young woman suddenly turned around. She had a very serious expression on her face, “...however, I have always only considered you to be my older brother. Thus, do not misunderstand my affection for you.”

“Furthermore, I have warned you before. I do not allow anyone to speak ill of what I am fond of.”

“You want to know where I obtained this footlace? Very well, I can tell you. It was given to me by a friend of mine.”

“That’s right, it is only an Elite Armament. However, I just so happen to be fond of wearing it. I will not allow anyone to speak ill of it.”

Although the young woman spoke those words sternly, she removed her oppressive might from Xianhai Shuoyi.

Without the pressure from the oppressive might, Xianhai Shuoyi was finally able to stand up.

At that moment, he did not concern himself with the dust on his body at all. With an apologetic expression on his face, he said to the young woman, “Yu’er, I was wrong. I should not shoot off my mouth. It is good that you like it. I will never again...”

“There is no next time,” The young woman said.

“Ah?” Xianhai Shuoyi was startled. Then, he said, “Yu’er, w-w-what do you mean by that?”

“Palace guards, listen up!” Suddenly, the young woman shouted.

“We are listening!” The twenty-four enormously powerful palace guards all half-kneeled onto the ground.

“From today on, unless I personally request for him, Xianhai Shuoyi is not allowed to enter where I’m staying at will,” The young woman declared.

“Yes, Your Highness!” The twenty-four guards spoke in unison. Their voices were extremely resounding.

“Woosh~~~”

After she finished giving the order, the young woman soared into the sky. She was walking in the sky barefooted.

Although the young woman’s movement appeared to be very elegant and slow, her speed was extremely fast. In merely the blink of an eye, she had disappeared into the distant horizon.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

Following that, twenty-three of the guards all soared into the sky to follow after her.

Only one of the palace guards was still standing on the ground.

“Yu’er, wait, let me explain, I truly did not have any ill intentions.”

Seeing that, Xianhai Shuoyi immediately started to panic. He wanted to chase after the young woman.

“Wuuahh~~~”

Right at that moment, a powerful energy suddenly restricted him. Then, that power pinned him to the cliff once again.

It was the palace guard that had stayed behind. As for that palace guard, it was the same middle-aged man that had allowed Xianhai Shuoyi inside.

“Release me! Let me go after Yu’er!” Xianhai Shouyi spoke anxiously.

“Insolent! That is Her Highness Yu’er! How could you address her by name?!”

The middle-aged man shouted at Xianhai Shuoyi sternly. He no longer showed any sort of politeness from before.

“Scram! Who the hell do you think you are to dare block my path?! Do you know my relationship with Yu’er?!”

“If I am to mention this matter to Yu’er, she will immediately remove your status as a palace guard!”

Xianhai Shuoyi was extremely furious. He had already lost all sense of propriety, removed his hypocritical mask and actually spoke what he wanted to say in his mind the most.

“Paa, paa~~~”

The middle-aged man raised his hand and gave Xianhai Shuoyi two slaps. Although those slaps were sent forth from afar, they ruthlessly landed onto Xianhai Shuoyi's face.

After the two slaps landed, Xianhai Shuoyi's cheeks were both lacerated. His handsome face had been slapped beyond recognition.

"You...!" Xianhai Shuoyi was stunned. After verifying the pain on his cheeks, he said, "You dare hit me?!"

"Why wouldn't I dare? What sort of status do I possess, and what sort of status do you possess? Yet you dare speak to me in such a manner?"

"Today, I am already being lenient by only giving you two slaps to the face. Else, how could you still be able to lay there?"

That middle-aged man did not show any anger. However, his overwhelming oppressive might surged forth, oppressing Xianhai Shuoyi to a state of being unable to breathe easily.

There was simply no need for him to attack. Merely a single thought from the middle-aged man would be able to completely obliterate Xianhai Shuoyi.

In such a situation, Xianhai Shuoyi gradually regained his calm. He did not dare utter another word.

"Humph," The middle-aged man let out a cold snort. Then, he soared into the sky.

However, upon reaching the sky, he suddenly stopped, turned around and said to Xianhai Shuoyi mockingly, "Brainless trash, do you really think that you can see Her Highness Yu'er again? You have already intruded upon her baseline. From today on, you and Her Highness Yu'er will be people from two separate worlds. You will no longer be associated with her again."

After saying those words, that middle-aged man sneered. Then, he continued to fly toward the direction that the young woman left in.

At that moment, Xianhai Shuoyi was stunned. He remained silent for a very long time.

After a long time passed, Xianhai Shuoyi was finally able to somewhat alleviate himself. However, at that time, overwhelming hatred emerged in his eyes.

With a voice that only he could hear, he muttered, “Xianhai Yu’er, I never expected you to be this heartless.”

“Very well, since you want to break all ties, I will also not wag my tail, beg for pity and lower myself to curry your favor.”

“Even if I am to leave you, the so-called Her Highness Princess, I, Xianhai Shuoyi, with my own abilities, will still be able to make a name for myself in the Immortal Sea Fish Clan.”

Only Xianhai Shuoyi was able to hear those complaint-filled words. However, the scene of him saying those words was caught by two individuals.

Away from and above that seven-colored lake was a floating palace.

That palace was very peculiar. Although the palace was not very large, it was completely composed of bright and shiny green gemstone. It gave off a special sort of beauty.

In the center of the palace was a ten meter-tall mirror. On that mirror was Xianhai Shuoyi’s ugly and grievance-filled face.

Furthermore, the words Xianhai Shuoyi muttered earlier were all revealed by the mirror.

Her Highness Yu’er was standing right before the mirror. Seeing that scene, anger emerged in her previously clear eyes.

She was angered. She was tightly clenching her lily-white fists. She was biting down so hard on her pearly white teeth that creaking noises could be heard.

However, she did not say a single word.

Suddenly, a figure approached her. It was a young man with a very handsome appearance. It was a very manly sort of handsomeness.

Even when compared with Xianhai Shuoyi, he was much more handsome.

Furthermore, that young man was very tall. He was wearing a special sort of armor, and appeared very imposing and domineering. It was as if he was emitting the aura of a ruler from every pore on his body.

Furthermore, if one were to pay close attention, they would notice that the man's appearance slightly resembled that of Her Highness Yu'er.

"My little sister, do you now know the true colors of that Xianhai Shuoyi?"

"I have already told you that he had only approached you for his personal benefit," The man said.

"Actually, I already knew that such was the case. Merely, I am still unable to contain my anger after seeing it personally."

"After all, I had sincerely considered him my friend before."

"However, big brother, you do not have to worry about me. I will not take something like this to heart."

Her Highness Yu'er turned around and looked at the man. At that moment, she revealed a witty and pleasant smile on her refined little face.

It was as if everything that had happened before was already in the past, and her current negative mood would not affect her much.

"Although that Xianhai Shuoyi approached little sister for his own benefits, he is indeed fond of you from the bottom of his heart. Even earlier, his hatred was only borne of love."

“Actually, you have treated him quite well too. Even if you’ve only considered him an older brother, you’ve still treated him very well.”

“However, ever since you’ve returned from the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm, you’ve completely changed. Especially toward him...”

“Although the relationship between the two of you is still very good in the eyes of others, it is no longer as intimate as before.”

“Thus, I, your older brother, am also very curious as to exactly who gave you that footlace of yours to be able to change a mischievous girl like you,” The man asked with a beaming smile.

He was looking at Her Highness Yu’er with a very gentle and soft gaze. It was filled with love and pampering.

That said, he was also truly curious.

He really wanted to know who gave his little sister that footlace.

Chapter 2547 - Rank Nine Martial Ancestor

---

“Big brother, if you want to know, bring me there. I’ll bring you to see him, okay?”

“He is an extremely, extremely, extremely, extremely good person. I feel like he would become good friends with big brother,” Her Highness Yu’er spoke with a beaming smile.

“Lord Father has set a restriction spell on you. As such, you are simply unable to leave this place. Thus, how am I to bring you there?” The man said.

“Big brother, help me remove it. I know you have the ability to do so,” Her Highness Yu’er grabbed the sleeve of the man and spoke in a very pitiful manner, “Good brother, please help me.”

“My dear sister, I’ve said it many times already. Big brother wants to help you too. Merely, I do not dare to go against Lord Father’s decree.”

“If you want to remove the restriction to find that fellow, you must train hard. When you become an Exalted, Lord Father will definitely honor his promise and let you go out.”

“At that time, big brother will accompany you there,” The man said.

“Okay, that’s a promise then. With big brother standing up for me, who would dare bully me?” Her Highness Yu’er said with a protruded mouth.

“That said, it has been many years, are you certain that he’s still in the Ancestral Martial Lower Realm?” As the young man said those words, his tone grew heavier, “Moreover... are you certain that he’s still alive?”

“I am uncertain as to where he is. However, he is most definitely still alive. I have a feeling... that he will become someone even more powerful than you, big brother,” Her Highness Yu’er spoke with great confidence.

“My dear sister, it is not that big brother is looking down on your beloved, but that Ancestral Martial Starfield has been a desolate place for a very long time now. The reason for that is because there have not been any powerful experts from that place for a very long time now,” The man said.

“He is the expert that will allow the Ancestral Martial Starfield to shine again,” Her Highness Yu’er said stubbornly. Suddenly, her expression changed, “What do you mean by beloved, he’s merely a friend, friend!”

“Oh, he’s only a friend? If that’s the case, why are you blushing?” The man said with a smile.

“Who said I’m blushing? I’m not blushing. Big brother, you’re so annoying. I don’t like you anymore, get out of here,” Her Highness Yu’er pushed the man out toward the exit of the palace.

“Okay, okay, okay. Your mood is bad so big brother will not disturb you.”

“Remember to wholeheartedly concentrate on training. Although you’ve already reached the Martial Immortal realm, the Exalted realm is not that easily obtained,” As the man spoke, he walked out by himself.

“I got it, just get out,” Her Highness Yu’er waved her hand.

Then, she sat down cross-legged. Her beautiful eyes were flickering nonstop. It was unknown as to what she was thinking.

After a while, she took off the footlace on her ankle.

If others were to see this scene, they would definitely feel very surprised. The princess of the Immortal Sea Fish Clan was actually touching an Elite Armament footlace so very gently and cautiously.

As she looked at the beautiful footlace she held in her hand, Her Highness Yu’er’s gaze grew incomparably gentle and soft. Her gaze seemed to be capable of melting anyone's heart.

“Big brother, you must be well. Little Fishy will definitely go see you again,” The young woman said softly.

It turned out that the extremely powerful Her Highness Yu'er was actually that mischievous little girl from the Eastern Sea Region.

.....

Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. In the Demon Elimination Cave.

Chu Feng was gnashing his teeth. At that moment, fierce lightning covered his entire body.

That lightning seemed to be about to tear his body apart. They were attacking him nonstop.

By relying on the bamboo slip given to him by Young Master Li Ming, Chu Feng had successfully comprehended enough to reach the junction for a breakthrough to peak Martial Ancestor.

Furthermore, Chu Feng had decided to directly utilize this junction to attempt the breakthrough to rank nine Martial Ancestor.

He was already halfway there. The Divine Tribulation's lightning had already arrived. As long as he could withstand the Divine Tribulation, Chu Feng would be able to successfully break through to rank nine Martial Ancestor from rank eight Martial Ancestor.

Merely, the Divine Tribulation's lightning this time around was extremely fierce. Chu Feng had a very painful expression on his face.

It was still unknown as to whether or not Chu Feng would really be able to withstand the Divine Tribulation this time around.

“What powerful lightning. It seems that he really does train in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.”

“I wonder... if it was me, would I be able to withstand the Divine Tribulation from the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique?”

Young Master Li Ming was standing nearby and watching Chu Feng attentively.

She felt that the lightning surrounding Chu Feng was simply too frightening, and that Chu Feng might not necessarily be able to succeed.

After watching Chu Feng for some time, she raised her head upward.

Using special methods, she was able to see through the walls of the Demon Elimination Cave and see the scene outside, the scene deep in the sky.

Deep in the sky, lightning clouds were surging about. The Divine Tribulation's lightning was galloping. Wave upon wave of power capable of utterly destroying the world was gathered high up in the sky.

That scene was exceptionally terrifying.

“For my umbrella, before reaching the True Immortal realm, even my Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique will not cause the slightest bit of abnormal sign when reaching a breakthrough.”

“However, for this Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique, even though my umbrella has managed to successfully conceal the Divine Tribulation's lightning that struck down, it was unable to conceal the lightning clouds above the skies.”

“Sure enough, the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique is not something that the Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique can compare to,” Young Master Li Ming gasped with admiration.

The reason for that was because her umbrella was able to completely conceal her Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique. Yet, it was unable to completely conceal Chu Feng's Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.

Merely by that, it indirectly showed the disparity between her and Chu Feng.

“Zzzzz~”

Right at that moment, the lightning surrounding Chu Feng started to wane. Gradually, the painful expression on Chu Feng’s face began to lessen.

“He succeeded? He actually managed to successfully endure such powerful lightning?” At that moment, Young Master Li Ming’s expression changed.

Evidently, she was very surprised by Chu Feng being able to successfully endure the Divine Tribulation’s lightning.

She had thought that with how fierce the Divine Tribulation’s lightning was and the painful expression that Chu Feng revealed, Chu Feng would not be able to withstand the Divine Tribulation.

She had thought that he would fail in his breakthrough attempt.

Never did she expect for Chu Feng to actually succeed, for him to actually successfully endure through the Divine Tribulation’s lightning and reach rank nine Martial Ancestor, the peak Martial Ancestor cultivation.

Chu Feng had indeed succeeded. After the Divine Tribulation’s lightning dispersed, Chu Feng’s complexion turned rosy and full of luster. His aura also increased from rank eight Martial Ancestor to rank nine Martial Ancestor.

“Li Ming, thank you. If it wasn’t for you, I would not be able to reach a breakthrough this quickly.”

Chu Feng had an overjoyed expression on his face. He had originally only come to the Demon Elimination Cave to find Zi Xunyi to request her assistance. He did not expect to actually obtain such a great fortune.

Although a rank nine Martial Ancestor was still a Martial

Ancestor, and was no match for True Immortals, Chu Feng had managed to attain a lot of comprehension after comprehending the bamboo slip. He felt that he was only a fine line away from reaching the True Immortal realm.

“There’s no need to thank me. You relied on your own ability to withstand that Divine Tribulation,” Young Master Li Ming said indifferently.

“So you already knew that I trained in the Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique,” Chu Feng said.

“The Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique is the only thing above my Heaven Punishment Mysterious Technique. Merely, I never expected this legendary Self-Punishment Mysterious Technique to actually exist in this world.”

After saying those words, she looked at Chu Feng with a whole new level of respect. She said, “More than that, I never expected that you’d actually manage to successfully learn that Divine Punishment Mysterious Technique.”

“I’ll consider it that you’re praising me,” Chu Feng smiled. Then, he cast his gaze to the spirit formation Her Lady Queen was in.

At that moment, what he was most concerned about was naturally Eggys’ well being.

“Has Eggy still not finished refining the gemstone?”

After saying those words, Chu Feng was planning to observe the spirit formation with his Heaven’s Eyes. He wanted to see how things were going with Her Lady Queen.

“Bang~~~”

Right at that moment, the spirit formation suddenly exploded.

The next moment, the exceptionally beautiful figure of Her Lady Queen emerged.

Furthermore, at that moment, Her Lady Queen’s aura was much more powerful than before.

Her Lady Queen's aura was actually the same as Chu Feng's, that of a rank nine Martial Ancestor.

“Rank nine Martial Ancestor, Milady Queen, it would seem that the source energy gem was truly a treasure,” Chu Feng was overjoyed. He knew very well that, for some reason, Her Lady Queen needed a lot more source energy than ordinary world spirits.

This made it so that it was very difficult for Her Lady Queen to increase her cultivation by absorbing source energies.

For the same sort of source energy that other world spirits could use to reach two breakthroughs in cultivation, Her Lady Queen would only be able to reach a single breakthrough in cultivation.

And now, Her Lady Queen's cultivation had actually increased to rank nine Martial Ancestor, the peak Martial Ancestor realm. With this, how could Chu Feng not be overjoyed?

Extremely excited, Chu Feng rushed toward Her Lady Queen and hugged the exceptionally beautiful Eggy.

The proud Eggy actually did not take offense at Chu Feng's action. Instead, she continued to have an enchanting smile on her face the entire time. It would appear that she was extremely happy to have reached rank nine Martial Ancestor.

However, after a short moment passed, Chu Feng was still tightly hugging her. It seemed that he did not plan to release his hands at all.

Furthermore, he was rubbing his face onto Her Lady Queen's face nonstop. At that moment, Her Lady Queen's expression started to sink.

“Hey, hey, hey! How much longer are you going to hug me? Even if you are to take advantage of me, you should have a limit, no?!” Her Lady Queen spoke in a very displeased manner.

Chapter 2548 - Touching Upon The Taboo

---

“Haha, how could I? I’m just happy for you, how could I be taking advantage of you? Why would you speak as if I’m a pervert?”

After Her Lady Queen voiced her displeasure, Chu Feng found it unsuitable to continue embracing her. Thus, he released his hands and scratched his head with an awkward expression on his face.

In fact, Chu Feng even took a glance at Young Master Li Ming. It was as if he was afraid that Young Master Li Ming would have a misunderstanding.

“Why are you looking at me? You were clearly taking advantage of her. Even I can tell,” Young Master Li Ming spoke unenthusiastically.

“Aiyah, why would you two be acting like this? I was merely giving a hug of friendship. Why would you all think things this crookedly?”

Chu Feng hurriedly explained. However, he had a vile smile on his face. It was clear that he had indeed been deliberately taking advantage of Eggy. Thus, no matter how he tried to explain it, no one would believe him.

“Putt~~~”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly felt two soft substances pushing onto his chest.

Then, a sweet fragrance assailed his nostrils. At the same time, a warm sensation spread through his entire body.

It was Her Lady Queen. At that moment, that exceptionally beautiful woman had actually thrown herself into Chu Feng’s bosom, and was hugging him tightly.

However, at the moment when Chu Feng revealed an incomparably overjoyed smile and was about to even drool, Her Lady Queen suddenly stopped hugging him.

At that moment, Her Lady Queen placed her hands behind her back and raised her head to look to Chu Feng. Her eyes were slightly narrowed into two crescents. It was truly charming.

“Although you haven’t listened to this Queen’s words, it remains that you’ve done so for this Queen’s sake.”

“Consider that hug to be the reward that this Queen will bestow upon you.”

After saying those words, Her Lady Queen started to hop gracefully toward the world spirit gate, entering it.

“That Asura World Spirit of yours is truly charming. It’s no wonder that you’re head over heels in love with her,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“My Eggy is indeed very charming,” Chu Feng was immeasurably pleased. However, his expression suddenly changed. He looked to Young Master Li Ming with a mischievous gaze and said, “Strange, you rarely ever praise others. Why would you be praising my Eggy? You couldn’t possibly have fallen for her, right?”

“I am not interested in women,” Young Master Li Ming spoke coldly.

“Then are you interested in me?” Chu Feng revealed a mischievous smile.

Young Master Li Ming gave Chu Feng a side-eye. She said, “I am less interested in men.”

After saying those words, Young Master Li Ming continued to set up a spirit formation.

It turned out that whilst Chu Feng and Her Lady Queen were in closed-door training, Young Master Li Ming had been setting up a spirit formation.

Furthermore, at that moment, this spirit formation had already taken an elementary form.

“This spirit formation!!!”

When Chu Feng saw the spirit formation Young Master Li Ming was setting up, surprise filled Chu Feng’s eyes.

The spirit formation that Young Master Li Ming was setting up was something that Chu Feng knew of too. It was the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation that he had obtained from Grandmaster Kai Hong’s inheritance.

“Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation, you actually also know that spirit formation?” Chu Feng asked in surprise.

“Could it be that you know it too?” Young Master Li Ming asked.

“Mn,” Chu Feng nodded.

“If you know it, then come help me out. It’s as you said, even though the spirit formation sealing off the entrance has a time limit, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan have most definitely dispatched their experts to guard the entrance.”

“If we wish to leave, we must use this spirit formation,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Indeed,” Chu Feng nodded. As he spoke, he arrived before the spirit formation and unleashed his own Snake Mark Immortal-cloak spirit power to assist Young Master Li Ming in setting up the grand spirit formation.

Back then, Chu Feng had joined hands with Wang Qiang to set up the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation so as to infiltrate into the Kong Heavenly Clan’s forbidden area.

That spirit formation was actually very difficult to set up, and would take a lot of time.

However, at that time, Chu Feng and Wang Qiang who were only Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists managed to successfully set up the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

And now, both Chu Feng and Young Master Li Ming were Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. If the two of them were to join hands, the speed at which the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation would be completed would be several times faster.

“Li Ming, there should be more than a single type of entrance to that Sacred Heavenly Temple, right?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

“Indeed, there’s more than a single type. The ones that we used are merely the lowest level ones, the True Immortal-level Sacred Temple Beads.”

“Above that is the Heavenly Immortal level, Martial Immortal level, Exalted level and even higher level Sacred Temple Beads.”

“Different level Sacred Temple Beads correspond to different entrances. The treasures that one will obtain from those different entrances will also be completely different,” Young Master Li Ming explained.

“Sure enough. That Sacred Heavenly Temple is truly the greatest remnant in the entire Outer World,” Chu Feng gasped with admiration.

Remnants and treasures were things that gave off an irresistible sense of enticement for martial cultivators. This was even more so for the Sacred Heavenly Temple that was deemed to be the number one remnant in the entire Outer World.

After Chu Feng had personally experienced the mystique of the Sacred Heavenly Temple, he was unable to forget about it.

He really wanted to experience it for a second and a third time. In fact, it could be said that he wanted to experience every nook and cranny of the Sacred Heavenly Temple and obtain all the treasures inside.

Greed, it was something that everyone possessed. Chu Feng also possessed it.

However, if one was able to assess one's capabilities and act accordingly, if one was able to put forth effort for the sake of obtaining what one wanted, then it would not be greed, but rather aspiring spirit.

“The Sacred Temple Beads are very precious items. They are things that all the various powers will disregard all prices to fight over.”

“If a single precious treasure will be able to bring forth an enormous bloodbath in the martial cultivation world, then the Sacred Temple Beads that are able to open a gate to the Heavenly Sacred Temple could be said to be the treasures that create the greatest amount and the most bitter bloodbaths in the entire Outer World.”

“Furthermore, I must remind you that the True Immortal-level Sacred Temple Beads that you and I used are the lowest level Sacred Temple Beads. They are also the only ones that do not possess restrictions upon one's cultivation.”

“However, the rest of them, like the Heavenly Immortal-level and the Martial Immortal-level Sacred Temple Beads, all possess restrictions upon one's cultivation. Unless you have reached the cultivation that they require, you will simply not be able to open those gate to the Sacred Heavenly Temple even if you are to put the locking bead and opening bead together on your palm.”

“As for the Sacred Temple Beads, they possess a special characteristic. That is, they will only allow the person that manages to put the locking bead and the opening bead together on their palm to enter upon the Sacred Heavenly Temple. Thus... you will not be able to have others open the gate to the Sacred Heavenly Temple on your behalf so that you can enter the Sacred Heavenly Temple afterwards,” Young Master Li Ming said.

“Hearing what you said, I feel that Sacred Heavenly Temple to be even more miraculous,” Chu Feng said with a smile.

“The Sacred Heavenly Temple is indeed very miraculous,” Young Master Li Ming expressed her agreement.

At the same time Chu Feng was helping Young Master Li Ming set up the spirit formation, he asked curiously, “Oh, that’s right, Li Ming, there is something that I wanted to ask you. Exactly what is your name?”

“Why do you ask that?” Young Master Li Ming asked.

“Intuition. I have a feeling that Li Ming is not your actual name. While it is fine that you do not wish to tell me your origins, are you able to tell me your actual name?” Chu Feng asked.

Young Master Li Ming did not answer Chu Feng’s question. Instead, she focused on setting up the spirit formation.

“It’s fine if you don’t want to tell me,” Chu Feng smiled. Then, he continued to focus on setting up the spirit formation.

Right at that moment, Young Master Li Ming slowly opened her mouth and said three words, “Li Yue’er.”

“Mn?” Chu Feng was startled. He was feeling a bit of disbelief at the fact that Young Master Li Ming actually told him her actual name.

“I said that my name is Li Yue’er,” Young Master Li Ming repeated herself.

“Great name. It is much better sounding than Li Ming,” Chu Feng said with a beaming smile.

“I won’t allow you to say that,” However, Young Master Li Ming revealed an angry look at Chu Feng’s joking comment.

Not only did she stop setting up the spirit formation, but she also looked at Chu Feng with a gaze filled with anger.

It was as if Chu Feng had infringed upon her taboo.

“I do not know what you’ve experienced. However, I really did not say that sentence with ill intentions,” Chu Feng explained.

Chu Feng had originally only thought that Li Yue’er had only chosen to name herself Li Ming to conceal her identity, that the name Li Ming was just a random name.

However, judging from things now, Chu Feng discovered that he was mistaken. To Li Yue’er, the name Li Ming seemed to hold special significance.

Otherwise, Li Yue’er would not have such an intense reaction from Chu Feng saying that the name Li Ming didn’t sound good.

Li Yue’er did not continue to pay attention to Chu Feng. She returned to the spirit formation.

Then, Li Yue’er grew completely silent. No matter how Chu Feng tried to talk to her, she would not answer him.

Even when Chu Feng tried to deliberately make her laugh, she would not reveal the slightest change in expression.

Chapter 2549 - Zi Xunyi

---

“This girl is truly an ice beauty. She is even colder than that Tantai Xue,” Her Lady Queen said with a beaming smile.

She had said those words deliberately to tease Chu Feng. After all, it was Chu Feng’s one joking comment that had caused Li Yue’er to become completely silent.

“Generally, those that are cold will all have gone through extraordinary experiences. Likely, it is also the case with her,” Chu Feng said.

“Perhaps. However, although she’s cold, her name is quite sweet-sounding.”

“Li Yue’er, I am fond of that name,” Her Lady Queen said.

Afterwards, Chu Feng no longer tried to continue to invite a snub and stopped trying to speak to Li Yue’er.

When he felt bored, Chu Feng started to speak to Her Lady Queen.

As for Her Lady Queen, perhaps it was because her cultivation had reached a breakthrough to rank nine Martial Ancestor, but her mood was very good.

As he chatted with Her Lady Queen, who was in a very good mood, Chu Feng’s mood also improved.

He felt as if he had forgotten about Li Yue’er ignoring him, forgotten about all the unpleasanties.

Time passed rapidly. Soon, the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation was completed.

However, Chu Feng felt that they had not spent a long time to finish it.

Of course, Chu Feng was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist now. Furthermore, he was setting up the spirit formation together with Li Yue'er. As such, the speed at which they completed the spirit formation would naturally be much faster than when he did it with Wang Qiang back then.

That said, it remained that setting up a spirit formation was a tasking effort. The fact that Chu Feng was chatting with Her Lady Queen had most definitely contributed to why Chu Feng was able to remain so relaxed after setting up the spirit formation.

“Judging from the time, the grand sealing formation should have stopped its activation by now. We can leave now,” Li Yue'er finally spoke again.

As she spoke, she gave Chu Feng a bead created from the completed spirit formation.

It was the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation. Like last time, only two spirit formation beads were formed from the completed spirit formation. Upon using them, they would be able allow two people to conceal themselves.

Even True Immortals would not be able to discover them.

“You can leave first. I still have something that I must take care of,” Chu Feng said to Li Yue'er.

“I would have nearly forgotten if you didn't mention it. Why did you come to this Demon Elimination Cave?” Li Yue'er asked.

“I have come to find a person,” Chu Feng said.

“Who?” Li Yue'er asked.

“Zi Xunyi. Have you heard of her?” Chu Feng asked.

“It's her?” Li Yue'er revealed a surprised expression.

“Seems like you've heard of her,” Chu Feng smiled faintly.

“Mn, I know of her. Why are you finding her?” Li Yue'er asked.

“I am finding her to request her assistance in one thing. Do you know whether or not she's still in the Demon Elimination Cave?”

Chu Feng asked.

“She is. Merely, there is one thing that I must tell you,” Li Yue’er said.

“What is it?” Chu Feng asked.

“Zi Xunyi and the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan are accomplices,” Li Yue’er said.

“Accomplices?” Chu Feng’s expression changed.

Evidently, he had already offended the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan earlier.

He did not merely drive out the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen.

He had also used one of the two Sacred Temple Beads that Li Yue’er had stolen from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan.

Although it might not have been intentional, it remained that Chu Feng had enjoyed the stolen goods together with Li Yue’er. The two of them were already accomplices.

Thus, it could be said that he had already become the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s enemy.

“Are you still planning to find her now?” Li Yue’er asked.

“I have no other choice. I must go and find her. I hope that Zi Xunyi is able to consider old affections and spare me on behalf of that individual,” Chu Feng said in a slightly helpless manner.

He could only entrust his life and death to the old affections between Zi Xunyi and Ying Mingchao.

“Since that’s the case, I’ll accompany you,” Li Yue’er said.

Chu Feng’s expression changed upon hearing those words. He hurriedly opened his mouth to speak against it.

After all, it was undetermined whether or not he would be able to survive the journey. All of it would depend on how deep the friendship between Zi Xunyi and Ying Mingchao was.

If it was deep, he could survive.

If it was shallow, he would die.

It could be said that it was a gamble, a gamble with one's life.

Chu Feng did not wish for Li Yue'er to undergo such a gamble together with him.

"You don't have to advise me against it. No one will be able to change what I've decided."

"You also do not have to worry for me. My status is a bit special. Even if the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan is to truly capture me, they will absolutely not dare to do anything to me."

As Li Yue'er said those words, she revealed a confident, proud and conceited expression.

"It would appear that what this girl says is true. Since she is determined to protect you, you should accept her kind intentions and allow her to accompany you," Her Lady Queen said.

Her Lady Queen had managed to tell that Li Yue'er wanted to accompany Chu Feng to protect him. After all, her background was extremely powerful, so powerful that the Bloodscale Monstrous Beasts would not dare to do anything to her. Thus, with her accompanying Chu Feng, even if that Zi Xunyi was to ignore her old affections with Ying Mingchao, Chu Feng would still be able to live.

"I suspect that I will not be able to persuade you against it. In that case, let's go together," Chu Feng said.

Then, Chu Feng and Li Yue'er both stepped onto the path to the depths of the Demon Elimination Cave.

On their way there, Chu Feng came to find out from Li Yue'er that the depths of the Demon Elimination Cave was the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's headquarters.

In order to prevent accidents from happening, Chu Feng and Li

Yue'er used their Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation beads upon approaching the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's headquarters.

Chu Feng knew that if they were discovered by the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan, they would definitely be killed.

Thus, the strategy that they had in mind was very simple. They were going to use the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation to infiltrate the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's headquarters.

Chu Feng planned to find Zi Xunyi directly and inform her of the situation at hand. He hoped that Zi Xunyi would take Ying Mingchao into consideration and spare him and Li Yue'er. Most importantly, he hoped that Zi Xunyi would agree to go and help Ying Mingchao.

Upon infiltrating the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's headquarters, Chu Feng uttered in a surprised manner, "This... are they having a wedding? With such a great disposition of forces, it seems that someone important in the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan is going to get married."

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's headquarters was decorated with lanterns and colored banners. It was extremely lively. It was clear that someone important was getting married.

"Isn't it that Zi Xunyi that you wanted to find?" Li Yue'er said.

"Ah? It's actually Zi Xunyi that's getting married?" Chu Feng was incomparably shocked.

"Seems like you know nothing about that Zi Xunyi," Li Yue'er said.

"Could it be that you know a lot about her?" Chu Feng was very surprised. Judging from Li Yue'er's reaction, it was clear that she knew about Zi Xunyi.

Merely, Chu Feng was very curious. This girl was clearly not someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Thus, how could she know so much?

It was one thing to know about Zhan Haichuan. After all, he was a grand character, an era's legend famous throughout the entire Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, someone that everyone in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm knew about.

However, that Li Yue'er actually knew about Zi Xunyi too. Furthermore, it seemed like she also knew some things regarding Zi Xunyi.

"Seems like I will have to explain the situation first before entering."

After Li Yue'er finished saying those words, she began to narrate the things regarding Zi Xunyi to Chu Feng.

Zi Xunyi was not from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan. She was a human.

The reason why she was in the Demon Elimination Cave was because she managed to have a chance encounter with the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

When Zi Xunyi was young, she was saved by an expert from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan. As for that expert, it was the former Clan Chief of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan.

Seeing that Zi Xunyi had a pitiful life, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's former Clan Chief decided to bring her back into the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan. Not only did he take her in, but he also taught her martial cultivation.

Coincidentally, that Zi Xunyi was actually a genius martial cultivator. Because of that, she was highly regarded by the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's former Clan Chief.

One thing worthy of mentioning was that the son of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's former Clan Chief, that is the current Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief, was Zi Xunyi's martial sibling.

Back then, the two of them had learned martial cultivation together. This produced a very deep relationship for the two of them. The current Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had also fallen deeply in love with the human woman.

Unfortunately, after the matter was known by the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's former Clan Chief, he utterly opposed it.

Chapter 2550 - To Fish A Needle From The Sea

---

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's former Clan Chief did not refuse because he disliked Zi Xunyi.

Instead, it was because the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's bloodline could not be allowed to become impure. Because of that, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen were only allowed to integrate with fellow Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen.

This was especially true for his son. He had been nurtured as the successor to the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan from the very beginning.

As such, he would naturally not permit his son to be with a human. As such, he would not allow his son to be with Zi Xunyi.

Even though he was very fond of Zi Xunyi and had nurtured her as his own daughter, he still would not allow such a thing to happen.

Because of that, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's current Clan Chief concealed his love for Zi Xunyi in the depths of his heart.

However, it was actually an open secret that everyone knew about. Even the wife of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief knew that her husband was actually deeply in love with Zi Xunyi.

In fact, Zi Xunyi was the only woman that the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief truly loved.

However, due to his father's prohibition, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had been unable to marry Zi Xunyi the entire time.

"In that case, why would the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief be marrying Zi Xunyi now?" Chu Feng asked curiously.

"That's because his father just passed away not long ago.

Furthermore, rumor has it that the former Clan Chief finally agreed to have him marry Zi Xunyi before his death.”

“Thus, not long after the funeral for the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s former Clan Chief was held, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief, who had been impatient to marry Zi Xunyi the entire time, immediately started to make preparations for this marriage ceremony. As for us, we have arrived at quite a coincidental time... we actually managed to come right at the time of the marriage ceremony,” Li Yue’er said.

“Oh, that’s right, exactly who asked you to come find Zi Xunyi? According to my knowledge, it seems that Zi Xunyi has never left this Demon Elimination Cave,” Li Yue’er asked curiously.

She already knew that Chu Feng had come here not because of himself, but rather because someone asked him to find Zi Xunyi.

“Since you know Zi Xunyi, you must also know Ying Mingchao, right?” Chu Feng said.

“I have naturally heard of Ying Mingchao. He was the Hero City’s City Master, the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm’s strongest genius a thousand years ago. He was the person with the greatest opportunity to rule over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“But, didn’t that Ying Mingchao die already?”

“He was too impatient to rule over the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Because of that, he needed to eliminate the Kong and Zhou Heavenly Clans first.”

“However, he was overly conceited, and tried to eliminate the two Heavenly Clans by himself.”

“In the end, due to his conceit, he suffered a miserable defeat and was eliminated by the joint efforts of the Kong and Zhou Heavenly Clans.”

“Not long after Ying Mingchao died, the Kong and Zhou Heavenly Clan jointly attacked and eliminated his Hero City too,” Li Yue’er said.

“Do you think that is the truth?” Chu Feng asked.

“I do not know whether or not that is true. After all, it is merely a rumor. That said, why are you asking about Ying Mingchao?” Li Yue’er asked curiously.

Li Yue’er was not a talkative person. However, it seemed like she was very interested about others’ business.

Otherwise, she would not know so much about the story of Ying Mingchao.

“The person who asked me to find Zi Xunyi was Ying Mingchao,” Chu Feng said.

“Ying Mingchao? He’s still alive?” Li Yue’er was very surprised. She said, “He is someone capable of moving the winds and clouds in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.”

“Since he’s alive, what sort of situation is he in? Was he imprisoned, or was his cultivation crippled? Why did he not reveal himself to take revenge even though he was alive?” Li Yue’er asked curiously.

She was very smart. She knew that there must be a reason for Ying Mingchao to not reveal himself and take revenge when he was still alive.

“He is currently trapped in the Kong Heavenly Clan. Only Zi Xunyi is capable of saving him,” Chu Feng said.

“Are you certain? I’ve never heard that Ying Mingchao had any sort of relationship with Zi Xunyi,” Li Yue’er said.

“You’re saying that they do not know one another?” Chu Feng was very surprised.

“I’ve never heard of the two of them knowing one another,” Li

Yue'er said in a determined manner.

Hearing what Li Yue'er said, Eggy's expression changed. She said, "Chu Feng, that Ying Mingchao couldn't possibly be deliberately lying to you so as to put you into danger, right?"

"There's no reason for him to lie to me," Chu Feng said.

"If what Ying Mingchao said is true, then there is only one sort of explanation for that. That is, only Zi Xunyi and him knew about their relationship," Eggy said.

"No matter what, since we're already here, we cannot shrink back," Chu Feng said.

"If we are to leave now, we will still be able to make it," Li Yue'er said to Chu Feng. She felt that Chu Feng might have been deceived.

At the very least, according to the information that she knew, there was no relationship between Ying Mingchao and Zi Xunyi.

She felt that it was simply nonsense, something absolutely impossible, for Yin Mingchao to ask for Zi Xunyi to save him.

Thus, instead of continuing to find to find Zi Xunyi, it was better to leave.

"I must give it a try," Chu Feng said.

"There's a grand formation in this place. My observation methods are ineffective here. What about yours?" Li Yue'er asked.

Chu Feng shook his head. A very powerful spirit formation was placed around the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's headquarters. Even Chu Feng's Heaven's Eyes were unable to see through the buildings here.

Li Yue'er handed Chu Feng a communication talisman, and said, "The Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formations have a time limit. If you insist on finding Zi Xunyi, the two of us must move quickly."

"Take this. If I am to find Zi Xunyi, I will notify you."

“If you are to find Zi Xunyi, you can pinch this communication talisman and I will immediately withdraw from here.”

Then, she entered the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s headquarters.

Chu Feng followed into the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s headquarters after her.

Since observation methods using world spirit techniques were useless, they could only use the fastest speed to search for Zi Xunyi throughout the entire Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s territory.

Furthermore, Chu Feng must try to chat with Zi Xunyi regarding this matter before the wedding ceremony started.

Thus... this was a very difficult task.

Fortunately, both Chu Feng and Li Yue’er were Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists. Thus, the time limit for the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation that they set up was much longer than the one that Chu Feng had set up with Wang Qiang in the Kong Heavenly Clan.

However, even with that being the case, the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation still had a time limit. Furthermore, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s headquarters was very big.

Thus, Chu Feng and Li Yu’er searched carefully and rapidly.

“This is too hard. This is simply trying to fish a needle from the sea.” [1. Fish a needle from the sea is the chinese equivalent of finding a needle in a haystack.]

After searching for a while with no results, Her Lady Queen felt desperate.

What Her Lady Queen said was not false. The reason for that was because the entire Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s headquarters was covered with spirit formations.

Thus, it was not only Chu Feng’s Heaven’s Eyes, but his world spirit techniques and other observation methods were also all ineffective. He and Li Yue'er must search through the buildings one by one in order to find Zi Xunyi.

However, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan possessed countless buildings. Furthermore, it was unknown whether or not they had forbidden areas.

Thus, it would truly be very difficult for them to find Zi Xunyi. It could even be said that the chances of them finding her were extremely slim.

"Chu Feng, should we capture someone and interrogate them?" Her Lady Queen suggested.

"No, I've already used the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation. If I am to capture someone to interrogate them, I would easily expose myself," Chu Feng said.

"Then what are we to do? If we continue to search like this, it will be truly difficult to find Zi Xunyi," Her Lady Queen said.

"If there's no other option, we will have to use the final resort," Chu Feng said.

"What final resort?" Her Lady Queen asked.

"If we cannot find Zi Xunyi, then we can only wait for her to show herself," Chu Feng said.

"Are you really planning to do that? That would be truly dangerous," Her Lady Queen's heart tightened upon hearing what Chu Feng said. She revealed a worried expression.

She understood what Chu Feng planned to do. Chu Feng did not plan to leave.

If they were truly unable to find Zi Xunyi, he planned to wait till the marriage ceremony officially started, wait till Zi Xunyi showed herself.

However, at that time, everyone from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan would be present. Even the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan

Chief would be present.

If Chu Feng were to reveal himself at that time, he would truly be stranding in confrontation with the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan. At that time, he would have no way of escape.

It would truly be a gamble with his life!!!

“Regardless, I cannot journey here in vain. Even if it is a gamble, I must gamble this once,” Chu Feng said.

“You stubborn fellow. I know for sure that my advice will be useless.”

“Right now, I only hope that girl Li Yue’er’s background is truly capable of scaring away the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan.”

At that moment, Her Lady Queen did not have any hope for Chu Feng being able to find Zi Xunyi. The reason for that was because the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s headquarters was simply too large.

To find Zi Xunyi like this, and to find her before the marriage ceremony, was simply too difficult.

Unless they were extremely lucky, it would simply be impossible to find Zi Xunyi.

Thus, Her Lady Queen placed her hopes onto Li Yue’er.

If Li Yue’er’s background was truly capable of scaring away the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan, then regardless of what sort of attitude Zi Xunyi might have, Chu Feng would be able to escape unscathed.

Otherwise, Her Lady Queen felt that everything would lead to disaster today.

After all, according to Li Yue’er, there wasn’t any relationship between Zi Xunyi and Ying Mingchao.

Thus, with the information they had at hand, it would appear that they had a higher chance of losing this gamble.

“That’s right, it’s him, it’s this bastard that stole the wedding gift Lord Clan Chief had prepared for Lady Zi.”

“Beat this bastard to death. Dismember his body into ten thousand pieces! Skin him alive and pull out his tendons!”

“Make him suffer a fate worse than death! Make him pay!”

.....

Suddenly, furious shouts could be heard nonstop.

The direction where the shouts were heard was the location where the wedding ceremony would be held.

Most importantly, upon hearing those shouts, Chu Feng’s heart tightened.

Stole from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan?

Apart from Li Yue’er, Chu Feng could not think of a second person who had done that.

Li Yue’er had been captured?

Chapter 2551 - The Appearance Of Chu Feng

---

“Li Yue’er was captured?”

Chu Feng realized that the situation was bad, and immediately started to observe his body.

Chu Feng had originally thought that Li Yue’er was captured because the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation had lost its effectiveness.

However, his Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation was clearly still active.

He felt that the effective time for Li Yue’er’s Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation should be the same as his. Since his was still present, Li Yue’er’s Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation should still be effective too.

“It shouldn’t be Li Yue’er, right?” Her Lady Queen said.

“I feel like it’s her. Regardless, I must go have a look.”

Chu Feng’s body shifted. He started to rush toward the plaza where the wedding was to be held.

Upon arriving at the plaza, Chu Feng discovered that a vast crowd was already gathered at the vast plaza. There were tens of thousands of Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen present.

They all had angry expressions on their faces. Their eyes emitted unforgiving gazes as they stared at the center of the plaza.

As for Li Yue’er, she was at the center of the plaza. The person they were staring at was Li Yue’er.

“She really was captured. How did this happen?”

“Could it be that someone managed to see through her Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation?”

Chu Feng revealed a surprised expression. At that moment, Li

Yue'er was present before the crowd. Her Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation was no longer in effect.

However, it was clearly still within the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation's time limit. This meant that it was very possible that someone had managed to see through her Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

However, the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation was such a powerful spirit formation. Who could possibly be able to see through it?

This was precisely the reason why Chu Feng was so astonished.

That said, what was most important right now was the fact that there were two old men standing on either side of Li Yue'er.

Although those two individuals were both white-haired and filled with wrinkles, they were very tall and possessed robust builds.

Those two individuals were both Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen. At that moment, one left and one right, the two of them had grabbed onto Li Yue'er's arms and shoulders and forced her to kneel on the ground.

The auras emitted by those two old men had filled the entire region. They were extremely powerful.

Their auras had completely surpassed those of Martial Ancestors.

True Immortals. The two of them were True Immortals. They were two True Immortal-level experts.

Furthermore, they were not the only True Immortals present. At the highest location of the plaza was a gorgeous viewing platform. There was another True Immortal-level expert there.

Furthermore, the aura of that individual was much more robust than the two True Immortals holding down Li Yue'er.

Rank two True Immortal. That individual was a rank two True Immortal.

Furthermore, judging from his high position and majestic airs, he should be the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's current Clan Chief.

“This is a thorny problem now. The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief is actually a rank two True Immortal.”

Her Lady Queen was worried. After all, rank two True Immortal could be said to be the apex level of cultivation in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Event the four tier one powers only had rank two True Immortals as their leaders.

In other words, facing the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan would be equivalent to facing one of the four tier one powers.

“Is that Zi Xunyi?”

Compared to the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief, Chu Feng cast his gaze to another individual on the viewing platform.

That individual was a human, a human woman. However... she was not a beautifully flowery young woman.

Instead, her head was covered in white hair, her face was filled with wrinkles and age spots covered her entire body. She was an elderly lady who had been changed beyond recognition by her age.

However, that old lady was wearing a phoenix crown with red clouded wedding clothes.

She was the woman that the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief wanted to marry.

As such, she was most definitely Zi Xunyi.

“Insolent thief, not only did you steal our Clan Chief's treasures, but you even dared to intrude upon Lady Zi Xunyi's sleeping chambers. Exactly what is your purpose?”

A True Immortal that was holding down Li Yue'er asked her with incomparable fury.

“Humph.”

However, Li Yue'er did not answer him. Instead, she snorted at him disdainfully. Then, she revealed a cold smile.

“You dare smile?!” That True Immortal was extremely furious. Then, a resounding slap landed on Li Yue'er's face.

The powerful slap caused one of Li Yue'er's cheeks to swell. Blood flowed nonstop from her cheek and the corner of her mouth.

However, Li Yue'er did not seem to have the slightest intention of giving in. Furthermore, she did not utter a single word. She continued to have a disdainful expression on her face.

“What is going on with that girl? Didn't she say that her background is sufficient to scare the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan?” Her Lady Queen had a confused expression.

Logically, Li Yue'er should be announcing her backing right now. Only by doing so would she be able to prevent the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan from torturing her.

However, not only did she not announce her power, but she even revealed such a disdainful expression. She was simply courting death here.

“It seems that she does not plan to announce her background. She never planned to rely on the power behind her from the very beginning.”

“She only said those words because she wanted me to agree to have her accompany me,” Chu Feng said.

“Why would this girl do that? After all, you are neither friends nor acquaintances with her,” Her Lady Queen revealed a confused expression.

“I also do not know why. Perhaps she thinks that a source energy gem and a martial comprehension bamboo slip are still insufficient to be even with me,” Chu Feng guessed.

By ‘even,’ Chu Feng naturally meant when he saved Li Yue’er from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen.

It was because of that one rescue that Li Yue’er had a complete change in attitude toward Chu Feng.

Li Yue’er felt that she owed Chu Feng for her life. Even the extremely precious source energy gemstone and martial comprehension bamboo slip would not be sufficient to repay him for saving her.

That was why she was insistent on accompany Chu Feng on this dangerous journey.

At that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief asked, “Is this the thief that stole my Golden Gate Black Cloud Beads?”

“Lord Clan Chief, it is him,” Some Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen voiced in unison.

“Where are my Golden Gate Black Cloud Beads?” The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief asked Li Yue’er.

“Humph,” Li Yue’er smiled with contempt at that question. After that, she spoke disdainfully, “Ignorant fool, what Golden Gate Black Cloud Beads? Those are clearly the Sacred Temple Bead’s locking beads.”

“Insolent thief!”

“You dare speak rudely toward our Lord Clan Chief?! You are simply courting death!”

Hearing what Li Yue’er said, the two True Immortals standing on either side of Li Yue’er were immediately enraged. As they spoke, they planned to attack her again.

“Wait,” However, right at that moment, that Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief spoke to stop them.

Then, he asked, “You have already stolen my treasures.

Originally, you should have made your getaway. Why did you deliberately return and infiltrate Xunyi's sleeping chambers? I believe your intention was not merely to steal treasures, right?"

"Speak, exactly what is your intention? Who sent you here?"

As he spoke, his oppressive might swept forth aggressively. That powerful oppressive might was sufficient to make common folk piss themselves in terror.

Not only would they immediately speak the truth, they would also start kowtowing and begging for forgiveness, begging to have their lives spared.

"Humph," However, faced with that oppressive might, Li Yue'er merely snorted and did not answer.

"Did you really think that I do not dare kill you?" The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief narrowed his eyebrows. His expression sunk.

However, at that time, Li Yue'er felt disinclined to even snort back.

Instead, she merely revealed an indifferent expression. This caused the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen to all gnash their teeth in enormous rage.

The reason for that was because Li Yue'er's actions could be said to be completely disregarding their Bloodscale Monstrous Clan.

"Kill her! Dismember her into ten thousand pieces!!!"

Furious shouts began to be heard from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen. Their voices were so resounding that it was like thunder exploding in the sky.

However, Li Yue'er's expression remained unchanged the entire time. She continued to have a disdainful expression on her face.

It was unknown whether she was truly unafraid of death, or whether she still possessed the ability to save herself.

“Very well. If you want to die, I will help you succeed.”

“Merely, I will not let you die a delightful death.”

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief revealed his murderous desire. He was truly planning to kill Li Yue’er.

Right at that moment, Chu Feng shouted, “Stop!!!”

Chapter 2552 - Who Dares Touch Him?!

---

“Who is it?”

The words that were suddenly spoken caused the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen to all cast their alerted gazes toward the direction of the sound.

They all subconsciously felt that it was very possible that Li Yue'er's accomplice had arrived.

“Where is the person who spoke?”

However, when the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen all turned their gazes toward the direction of the sound, they all revealed stunned and bewildered expressions.

The reason for that was because they were looking in Chu Feng's direction, but were unable to see Chu Feng at all.

At that moment, they all came to suspect whether or not they might have misheard things.

They began to look everywhere. It was only then that they discovered that everyone else was doing the same sort of thing.

At that moment, they grew even more bewildered.

After all, while it was possible for a single person to mishear things, it would be impossible for all of them to mishear things.

“Buzz~~~”

At that moment, Chu Feng removed the effect of the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation of his own accord and revealed himself to the crowd.

At that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen all revealed stunned expressions. Evidently, they had not expected Chu Feng to reveal himself.

Furthermore, they did not expect that the person who had the courage to reveal themselves at such a time would be a member of the younger generation.

Right at the moment when the crowd was stunned, Chu Feng leapt past the crowd before him and landed at the center of the plaza before Li Yue'er.

“Clank~~~”

At the same time, a crimson sword also appeared in Chu Feng's hand.

Chu Feng was unable to be certain as to whether or not Zi Xunyi would help him. If Zi Xunyi were to not help him at a time like this, he could only rely on the Evil God Sword's power for protection.

After all, what he was facing at that moment, were two rank one True Immortals and a rank two True Immortal.

As for the Evil God Sword, it seemed to have sensed the fact that Chu Feng needed its strength and was trembling nonstop.

It was not trembling from fear. Rather, it was trembling from excitement. It was excited that it was finally able to unleash its power again, that it was finally able to rule over the world again, finally able to have the people of the world realize how frightening it was again.

That said, although the Evil God Sword was very powerful, only Chu Feng was able to sense its surging powers before its power was actually released.

Thus, at that moment, not a single person from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan realized that the Incomplete Imperial Armament Chu Feng held in his hand would be the greatest threat to them.

They were all looking at Chu Feng with confused expressions on their faces. It was as if they were looking at a clown.

The reason for that was because they did not understand why the fellow before their eyes would take out an Incomplete Imperial Armament in such an aggressive and overbearing manner.

Logically, to have the cultivation of a rank nine Martial Ancestor at such a young age was already something very frightening. He could be said to be an absolute genius. As such, there shouldn't be a reason for him to be so poor that he could not even afford an Ancestral Armament, no?

Even if he didn't have an Ancestral Armament, he should most definitely possess an Incomplete Ancestral Armament or an Imperial Armament.

The crowd were truly confused by Chu Feng's sudden reveal of an Incomplete Imperial Armament and arrogant display.

At that moment, many people felt that the brat before them might be suffering from some mental deficiency.

"Chu Feng, seems like you're being underestimated again. Look at the expressions of those people, they must all be thinking that you're mentally retarded, no?"

"If possible, I truly hope for you to use that Evil God Sword and show them exactly what sort of weapon that Incomplete Imperial Armament is," Her Lady Queen said with a beaming smile.

She felt the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen to be too ignorant.

Of course, she was merely joking with her words. As Her Lady Queen knew very well how powerful the Evil God Sword was, she naturally did not wish for Chu Feng to use it.

As for Chu Feng, he did not start attacking right away either. He also did not bother to pay attention to the crowd. Instead, he turned his gaze to the viewing platform and looked to Zi Xunyi.

He asked, "Do you know Ying Mingchao?"

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen were all confused by Chu Feng's words.

However, the expressions of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief and Zi Xunyi changed enormously. They both revealed very complicated expressions.

This was especially true for the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief. He turned his complicated gaze to Zi Xunyi.

“There's hope, seems like they know one another.”

Her Lady Queen was delighted to see this reaction. The reason for that was because their reaction most likely meant that Zi Xunyi knew Ying Mingchao.

“It is Ying Mingchao who asked me to come here. He is currently trapped somewhere, and wanted to request that you go and save him,” Chu Feng added.

Right after Chu Feng said those words, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief shouted, “Kill them!”

At the moment he shouted that order, the two True Immortals standing to either side of Li Yue'er immediately unleashed overwhelming killing intent.

It was not only those two that let out overwhelming killing intent; even the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief himself let out overwhelming killing intent.

During that moment of crisis, how could Chu Feng dare hesitate anymore? He tightly held the Evil God Sword and unleashed his martial power. He was planning to unleash the power of the Evil God Sword.

“I shall see who dares touch him!!!”

Right at that moment, a shout was heard.

At the moment that voice was heard, a powerful oppressive might also swept forth.

Not only did that oppressive might block the oppressive might unleashed by the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief, but it also knocked the two True Immortals holding Li Yue'er down several meters away and into the crowd.

It was Zi Xunyi. That shout was also let out by Zi Xunyi.

Zi Xunyi was actually also a rank two True Immortal.

“Rank two True Immortal, this Zi Xunyi is actually a rank two True Immortal. We're saved. She most definitely knows Ying Mingchao.”

At that moment, Her Lady Queen was wild with joy.

Even Chu Feng finally heaved a sigh of relief.

He had nearly unleashed his Evil God Sword.

Even he himself had no idea what would happen if he were to unleash the Evil God Sword this time around.

However, it would appear now that he did not have to use the Evil God Sword. Evidently, Zi Xunyi knew Ying Mingchao.

“Xunyi, don't trust him. I've already ordered my men to investigate, Ying Mingchao has really died,” Seeing that, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief hurriedly explained to Zi Xunyi.

However, Zi Xunyi completely ignored the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief. Instead, her body shifted, and she flew down from the viewing platform, slowly descending beside Chu Feng.

At that moment, Zi Xunyi revealed an extremely sharp gaze from her aged eyes.

It was like two sharp blades that pierced into Chu Feng's life.

“You said Ying Mingchao told you to come here?” Zi Xunyi asked coldly.

“It is precisely Senior Ying Mingchao who requested for me to come here,” Faced with this sort of situation, Chu Feng was neither servile nor overbearing.

“He’s still alive?” Zi Xunyi asked again.

“He needs your help right now,” Chu Feng said.

“If you dare deceive me, I will definitely make you suffer a life more miserable than death,” When Zi Xunyi said those words, Chu Feng was able to clearly feel her killing intent.

She was not joking around. If Chu Feng really deceived her, she would definitely not spare Chu Feng.

“There is no reason for me to come into the Demon Elimination Cave and brave its dangers to find you only to deceive you,” Chu Feng said.

“Then tell me, where is he right now?” Zi Xunyi asked.

“He was plotted against by the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan. At that time, he had no choice but to escape into the Kong Heavenly Clan’s forbidden area, the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.”

“The Grief Calamity Mountain Range is filled with slaughtering formations. Senior Ying Mingchao ended up falling into one of the slaughtering formations. For the sake of self-preservation, he ended up using his taboo technique. Although he managed to escape death with his taboo technique, he ended up being trapped in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range. Even now, he is unable to escape.”

“That said, the Kong Heavenly Clan has no idea that he is still alive.”

“Merely, as he was trapped by his taboo technique, he has been trapped in the Grief Calamity Mountain Range for the past thousand plus years, unable to move in the slightest.”

“He said that only you can save him,” Chu Feng informed Zi Xunyi of what'd happened.

After hearing what Chu Feng said, Zi Xunyi’s expression changed. Earlier, she was filled with suspicion toward Chu Feng and did not trust him.

However, the suspicion in Zi Xunyi's eyes had now decreased by over half. At least... she now trusted Chu Feng a lot more.

Evidently, something Chu Feng said had changed her attitude.

Chapter 2553 - Fury Of The Entire Clan

---

“How did you manage to find him?” Zi Xunyi asked.

“I did not know of Senior Ying Mingchao before I ran into him, but I accidentally encountered him after entering the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.”

“If you plan to go save him, you must bring me with you. Only I know how to get to him,” Chu Feng said.

“Let’s go,” As Zi Xunyi spoke, she waved her sleeve, and a layer of overwhelming spirit power was emitted from her body.

Her spirit power directly engulfed Chu Feng and Li Yue’er.

“This spirit power,” At that moment, Chu Feng’s expression changed.

At that moment, he realized who had managed to breach Li Yue’er’s Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

It must have been Zi Xunyi. The reason for that was because Zi Xunyi was a Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was able to sense that even though they were all Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists, Zi Xunyi’s spirit power was much stronger than their own.

Likely, this Zi Xunyi was only a fine line away from becoming a Dragon Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist. Her spirit power had reached a very powerful level already.

Zi Xunyi lifted Chu Feng and Li Yue’er with her spirit power. She was protecting them.

She was planning to bring Chu Feng and Li Yue’er away from there.

“Boom~~~”

Right at that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan

Chief waved his sleeve. Immediately, overwhelming martial power scattered about in all directions like sunshine basking everything. Soon, his martial power completely sealed off the region.

“Do you wish to do as master did and trap me here until I die?” Zi Xunyi cast her cold gaze to the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief.

“I do not plan to trap you here. If you wish to leave, I will allow you to leave.”

“Merely, that brat’s words have no proof at all. Why are you trusting him? What if it’s a trap?”

“Furthermore, even if what that brat says is true and Ying Mingchao is still alive, are you really planning to save him?” The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“I must go save him,” Zi Xunyi said.

“Did he not hurt you enough? Why must you act like this?” The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“He never hurt me. I am the one who owes him,” Zi Xunyi said.

“Then what about me? What am I to do? Today is our wedding day,” The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief grew emotional.

At that moment, the rest of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen also grew emotional.

They finally knew who that Ying Mingchao was. Merely, the existence of that individual made them feel extremely displeased.

“Zhenping, you’ve treated me very well. Merely, I am sorry, I truly do not love you,” After Zi Xunyi said those words, she brought Chu Feng and Li Yue’er and charged toward the martial power sealing off the region.

“Roar~~~”

However, the next moment, a strange roar sounded from the martial power sealing off the region.

At the same time, the golden-bright and dazzling martial power started to change.

Crimson radiance was emitted from the golden martial power. Then, scales began to appear from the crimson radiance.

At this moment, Chu Feng was able to feel that the martial power sealing off this region had become incomparably solid and simply impregnable.

Most importantly, that was a martial power formation, and not a spirit formation.

Thus, when facing something like that, even world spirit techniques would be useless. The only way to breach it would be to use one's martial power.

However, merely by looking at it, one could tell how powerful that martial power formation was.

It was an extremely powerful martial power formation. It would be extremely difficult to break through it.

“Is this the power of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's bloodline?”

Chu Feng guessed in his heart. He felt that this was not an ordinary martial skill, nor was it a secret skill.

Chu Feng felt that this was most likely a technique using the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's bloodline's power. In other words, this was most likely something exclusive to only the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen.

It was similar to how Heavenly Bloodline possessors possessed the Thunder Armor, Thunder Wings and the Lightning Mark.

“What if I refuse to allow you to leave?” said the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief. His tone had grown ill-intended.

“That's right, she can't be allowed to leave!”

Right at that moment, two women flew out from the crowd and landed on the viewing platform.

They wore very gorgeous attire. Their cultivations were not weak either; they were both peak Martial Ancestors.

Furthermore, their appearances were very young too. However, Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that they were definitely not younger than Zi Xunyi.

Their youthful appearances were merely disguises using special methods. Additionally, they were not human, but two female Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen.

“Zi Xunyi, you are truly cruel and unscrupulous. How has my husband treated you? Even though your appearance has turned ugly, he still did not turn his back toward you in the slightest. His love for you is several times greater than his love for my son and me. Yet you... you actually still have that Ying Mingchao on your mind after all this time. Do you even have a conscience?” One of the two women pointed at Zi Xunyi and cursed loudly. She was filled with complaint toward Zi Xunyi.

“Husband, it has been over a thousand years now. You’ve shown this Zi Xunyi overwhelming love. Yet, she has been thinking of that Ying Mingchao the entire time. Do you think someone like her is really worth it?” The other woman turned to ask the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief.

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief did not answer. However, his complexion had sunk.

Seeing that the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief did not answer, that woman turned to the rest of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen and declared, “Clansmen of our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan, you all have observed how your Lord Clan Chief has treated Zi Xunyi over the years.”

“Yet she has been deeply in love with another man the entire time. Tell me, is all the time and energy your Lord Clan Chief invested in her worth it?”

“No, it is not!!!”

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen shouted in unison. Intense anger was present in their tone when they spoke those words.

“Zi Xunyi, you are nothing more than a wench!”

“You damned bitch!”

“Our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan has treated you so well in vain!”

.....

.....

The next moment, all of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen turned their gazes toward Zi Xunyi and began to curse at her.

All kinds of malicious words were being thrown at Zi Xunyi without the slightest hesitation.

Evidently, they were only respectful toward Zi Xunyi because of their Lord Clan Chief.

Deep in their hearts, they actually felt enormous dislike toward Zi Xunyi. In fact, they deeply hated her.

Their hatred toward Zi Xunyi might be because she was a human.

However, Chu Feng felt that it was more likely because of the fact that their Lord Clan Chief had treated Zi Xunyi with such sincerity and love, yet was unable to obtain sincerity and love from her in return.

Perhaps because she was feeling guilty, Zi Xunyi did not utter a word from the curses of the tens of thousands of Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen.

“Shut up!!!”

Right at that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief suddenly shouted.

After his shout, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen all grew quiet. No one dared utter another word.

The plaza that was filled with curses grew absolutely silent.

“Xunyi, even if you do not love me, it is fine. It is enough that I love you.”

“Today is the day of our marriage. Is it possible for you to not leave?”

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief forcibly restrained the anger in his heart and spoke to Zi Xunyi with a gentle tone.

“Unless you are to kill me, I must definitely leave here today,” Zi Xunyi replied.

“Kill her! Husband, you must definitely kill her today. This woman is simply unworthy of you to act like this.”

“That’s right. Husband, look carefully... she simply does not have you in her heart at all. No matter how much you’ve put forth on her behalf, it will all be useless.”

“Husband, even if you are able to make her stay, you will not be able to keep her heart. How could you marry a woman like her?”

Those two women started to persuade the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief strenuously with tearful voices. It could be seen that they deeply detested Zi Xunyi.

“Kill her!”

“Kill her!”

“Kill her!”

.....

.....

.....

The next moment, enormously angry shouts began to resonate through the vast plaza, resonate in the vast Demon Elimination Cave. It was as if the words ‘kill her’ were echoing throughout the entire Demon Elimination Cave.

Zi Xunyi's coldness and strong attachment completely ignited the hatred for her in the hearts of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen.

At that moment, practically all Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen were shouting those two words - 'kill her.'

Chapter 2554 - Break All Ties

---

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen were no longer capable of tolerating Zi Xunyi.

Their Lord Clan Chief had clearly treated Zi Xunyi very well. Yet, Zi Xunyi deeply loved a human instead.

They all wanted Zi Xunyi to die.

It was as if only Zi Xunyi's death could alleviate the hatred in their hearts.

However, there was a single Bloodscale Monstrous Clansman that did not say anything. He was the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

Although he did not say anything, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief was clenching his fists tightly. The veins throughout his entire body were bulging. His appearance was truly frightening.

Most importantly, wave upon wave of oppressive might was surging forth from his body like tornadoes. They were truly frightening.

His eyes were filled with hatred and irreconciliation. If all of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen were feeling pain in their hearts because of Zi Xunyi, then the person feeling the greatest pain would be none other than the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

“Clank~~~”

Suddenly, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief flipped his wrist.

In an instant, a weapon over ten meters long appeared in his hand.

It was a blade, a crimson blade. That blade was covered in crimson scales.

That was an Ancestral Armament, a very high quality Ancestral Armament.

“Ahh!!!”

Suddenly, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief let out a roar.

That roar was even more ear-piercing, even more frightening, than roars from ferocious beasts.

At the same time, he roared, he also raised the crimson blade in his hand.

He was planning to attack!!!

At that moment, Chu Feng noticed that two purple daggers had appeared in Zi Xunyi’s hands.

Those two purple daggers were two top quality Ancestral Armaments.

Zi Xunyi was not planning to resign herself to death.

“Boom~~~”

Right at that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief’s blade landed.

However, the direction in which his blade landed was not toward Zi Xunyi. Rather, it was toward the depths of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s headquarters.

“Boom~~~”

The next moment, a loud explosion was heard. A palace was destroyed. However, that was the only palace that was destroyed.

“You can go. Don’t return again.”

“From today on, our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan will break all ties with you, Zi Xunyi,” The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief said to Zi Xunyi.

It turned out that the palace that the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had destroyed was Zi Xunyi's palace.

"My thanks," Zi Xunyi said those words and then brought Chu Feng and Li Yue'er and flew toward the outside.

Zi Xunyi knew the Demon Elimination Cave like the back of her hand. Furthermore, her cultivation was that of a rank two True Immortal. Going all-out in fleeing, she soon arrived at the exit of the Demon Elimination Cave with Chu Feng and Li Yue'er.

It was at that moment that Chu Feng noticed that there was indeed a large group of Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's elites gathered at the entrance of the Demon Elimination Cave.

Leading them were two True Immortal-level experts.

In other words, apart from Zi Xunyi and the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan possessed four other rank one True Immortals.

Their strength was truly powerful.

However, upon seeing Zi Xunyi, they immediately moved aside.

No one dared to obstruct Zi Xunyi. Of course... with their strength, none of them would be able to stop Zi Xunyi.

After leaving the Demon Elimination Cave, Li Yue'er said, "Let me go."

However, Zi Xunyi did not immediately release Li Yue'er. Instead, she looked to Chu Feng.

"You can let her go. She is unrelated to this matter," Chu Feng said.

"Buzz~~~"

After Chu Feng said those words, with a thought, Zi Xunyi created an entrance to her spirit formation.

"With this, we are truly even now," Li Yue'er said those words to Chu Feng. Then, she started flying toward the distance. In the blink of an eye, she disappeared.

“How deeply does this girl not want to owe me a favor?” Chu Feng shook his head with a smile.

He noticed that Li Yue’er’s tone was very ice-cold when she said the words ‘we are truly even now.’ It was the same as when she first knew Chu Feng.

However, at the same time, Chu Feng also noticed that Li Yue’er revealed a slightly relaxed expression on her icily arrogant face when she said those words. It was as if she was finally able to lay down a heavy burden.

It could be seen that this girl was truly not fond of owing another a favor.

After Li Yue’er left, Zi Xunyi did not linger. She continued to journey toward the Kong Heavenly Clan with Chu Feng.

On the journey, Zi Xunyi suddenly asked, “You two must have jointly set up the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation, right?”

“That is right, senior,” Chu Feng answered.

“To have this sort of level at such young ages, it would appear that the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm has once again entered a period where talents come forth in large numbers,” Zi Xunyi said with admiration.

“Senior, I am very curious. How did you manage to see through her Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation?” Chu Feng asked curiously.

Although Zi Xunyi was a very powerful Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, it would remain very difficult for one to see through the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation. After all, not even True Immortals could detect the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

Logically, Snake Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritists should also not be able to detect the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

If one was unable to detect the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation, it would be practically impossible for one to breach it.

“There is a defensive spirit formation surrounding the palace that I reside in. That is a spirit formation that I spent a thousand years to set up.”

“That defensive spirit formation will be activated as long as I am in that palace. As for what it did, it was capable of detecting practically all concealment formations, including even the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation,” Zi Xunyi said.

“So that’s the case,” Chu Feng did not doubt Zi Xunyi’s explanation. Instead, he absolutely believed her.

The strength of martial cultivators originated from within them. They were able to unleash overwhelming battle power in a split second.

As long as a martial cultivator was there, they would be able to bring their strength there.

As for world spiritists, they too grasped a power capable of utter destruction. Merely, the power of world spiritists needed spirit formations to unleash.

The stronger a spirit formation was, the more time was needed to set up the spirit formation. Furthermore, that sort of spirit formation could not be moved, and could only be active at designated locations.

In fact... with Chu Feng’s current world spirit techniques, if he was given sufficient time, he would also be able to set up a spirit formation capable of withstanding True Immortals at a designated place.

As for Zi Xunyi, she had used a total of a thousand years to set up her spirit formation. As such, the might of her spirit formation would naturally be no small matter.

Thus, it would not be surprising for Zi Xunyi to have set up a spirit formation capable of detecting the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

Suddenly, Zi Xunyi asked, “How is he right now?”

Chu Feng knew that by ‘he,’ she meant Ying Mingchao.

“Senior Ying Mingchao is doing very well. Apart from being unable to move, there is nothing serious,” Chu Feng said.

“That’s good,” Zi Xunyi said faintly.

Suddenly, Zi Xunyi stopped. She said to Chu Feng, “Wait here for a bit.”

After saying those words, with a thought, a wave of spirit power emerged from Zi Xunyi’s body. Then, like a whirlwind, it began to spin while revolving around her. Soon, it covered her completely.

That spirit power only stayed on her for a short moment before disappearing.

When the spirit power dissipated, Chu Feng’s gaze changed when he saw Zi Xunyi again.

The current Zi Xunyi was no longer that old woman with wrinkles all over her face. She had turned into a pretty young woman.

She possessed fair skin, a signature oval face, large spirited eyes, sexy red lips and an enchanting figure.

The current Zi Xunyi was simply a beauty.

Furthermore, even her clothes had changed. She was now wearing a long purple skirt.

Beautiful. At the very least, her outward appearance was that of a beauty, a rarely seen beauty.

Chu Feng was also able to tell that Zi Xunyi's beauty was most definitely not a disguise. Rather, she was naturally this beautiful. At least, she was this beautiful when she was young.

Chapter 2555 - Dearly Loved Individual

---

“Let’s go,” As Zi Xunyi spoke, she began to continue journeying with Chu Feng. At that moment, even the voice that she spoke with had changed. It was no longer lifeless, but rather filled with spirit.

“It seems that this Zi Xunyi deeply loved that Ying Mingchao.”

“I am truly curious as to what sort of story there was between the two of them,” Her Lady Queen said with a curious expression.

Even a fool could tell that Zi Xunyi had deliberately changed her appearance to meet Ying Mingchao.

Yet, when she was in the Demon Elimination Cave, Zi Xunyi clearly had the appearance of an old granny. Even though it was the day of her marriage, she still did not change her appearance.

However, she immediately changed her appearance when she was about to meet Ying Mingchao. She even put great care into dressing herself up.

From this, it could be seen how deeply she cared about her appearance in Ying Mingchao’s heart.

If Zi Xunyi did not possess any love toward the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief, then she most definitely deeply love Ying Mingchao.

“That’s an easy task. I’ll ask her for you.”

After saying those words, Chu Feng said to Zi Xunyi, “Senior, I’ve heard that you’ve never been out of the Demon Elimination Cave. If that’s the case, how did you come to know Senior Ying Mingchao?”

“You want to know our story?” Zi Xunyi took a glance at Chu Feng. She had managed to see through Chu Feng’s intentions.

At that moment, Chu Feng smiled awkwardly. Then, he said,

“Senior, is it suitable for you to tell me?”

“Actually, it’s nothing to conceal. After all, if you are to ask him, with how big-mouthed he is, he will definitely tell you,” Zi Xunyi gave a faint smile. It was very beautiful. It was as if she suddenly recalled what she had experienced back then.

Then, Zi Xunyi began to tell Chu Feng the story of her and Ying Mingchao.

It turned out that it was not true that Zi Xunyi had never left the Demon Elimination Cave. She had left the Demon Elimination Cave and entered the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm before.

It was also precisely at that time that she encountered Ying Mingchao by chance.

At that time, Ying Mingchao was still a bandit. However, his outspoken and straightforward character immediately gained Zi Xunyi’s favorable impression.

After that, Zi Xunyi experienced many things together with Ying Mingchao. The two of them entered many remnants together and explored many treasure deposits. Naturally... they also experienced life and death together.

In fact, for the sake of protecting Zi Xunyi, Ying Mingchao nearly forfeited his life.

At that time, Ying Mingchao was seriously injured. Even using all of her world spirit techniques, Zi Xunyi was unable to cure him.

At that time, Zi Xunyi’s tears were falling like rain. She was truly frightened. Even though he was so seriously injured, Ying Mingchao still had a smile on his face. With great difficulty, he raised his arm filled with wounds and wiped away the tears on Zi Xunyi’s face.

Zi Xunyi fell deeply in love with Ying Mingchao. She decided to devote herself to this man.

It was actually also Zi Xunyi who informed Ying Mingchao about the topography of the Demon Elimination Cave.

As for the taboo technique that Ying Mingchao used, it was something that he and Zi Xunyi obtained together in a remnant.

Thus, Zi Xunyi was the only person capable of helping him undo the taboo technique.

As for why the two of them separated from one another, it was because their opinions differed.

Zi Xunyi was not fond of the mutual deceptions of the world and wanted to retreat into the mountains with Ying Mingchao to live by themselves.

However, at that time, Ying Mingchao had held magnificent aspirations. As such, he would naturally not be willing to retire.

Afterwards, Ying Mingchao created Hero City, and Zi Xunyi left him and returned to the Demon Elimination Cave.

Actually, Ying Mingchao had sought after Zi Xunyi before. Merely, he was driven away by Zi Xunyi's master.

In short, after that time, the two of them had never once seen each other again.

“Since you were always in love with Senior Ying Mingchao, why did you decide to get married to the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief?” Chu Feng asked.

According to what Zi Xunyi said, she had only ever loved one man in her life, Ying Mingchao. As such, she should not be marrying herself to another man.

Moreover, judging from Zi Xunyi's attitude in the Demon Elimination Cave, she was truly not fond of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

Thus, Chu Feng was unable to understand why the marriage was being conducted.

“Back then, after the news of Ying Mingchao being killed by the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan spread forth, my master imprisoned me in the Demon Elimination Cave.”

“He knew my temperament, and knew that I would definitely find the Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhou Heavenly Clan for revenge. Even if I were to die, I would not have cared.”

“At that time, although I was already an Insect Mark Immortal-cloak World Spiritist, my cultivation was only that of a rank eight Martial Ancestor.”

“As such, I was simply unable to contend against the Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhou Heavenly Clan.”

“Because of that, my master imprisoned me and refused to allow me to take another step out of the Demon Elimination Cave. Upon being imprisoned, I was imprisoned for over a thousand years.”

“Over a thousand years is enough time to change a lot of things. Not only did it change my appearance, but it also made me gradually forget about the pain in my heart.”

“Over the past thousand years, Xuelin Zhenping has treated me extremely well. As for me, I am, after all, a woman. As such, I was moved many times by his actions.” [1. Xuelin means Bloodscale. Seems like all the monstrous beasts have the same surname as their race/clan?]

“However, when you appeared, when you mentioned the name Ying Mingchao, when you said that he was still alive, I suddenly realized that the man that I deeply loved in my heart was still Ying Mingchao.”

“In fact, the reason why I’ve trained so hard over the past thousand plus years was subconsciously also because I’ve wanted to avenge him.”

“And now, he is actually still alive. Furthermore, he needs my help. As such, I have no reason to not help him.”

“It was also at that time that I discovered that my feelings for Xuelin Zhenping were merely gratefulness and not love. In fact, it cannot even be regarded as liking him.”

“Actually, I also know how cruel my decision today was for Xuelin Zhenping.”

“However, I cannot ignore this matter, I cannot disregard Ying Mingchao.”

“Thus, this time around, not to mention finding myself utterly isolated, even if I am to die, I will still not turn around,” Zi Xunyi said.

“Senior is daring to love and hate, this junior is in admiration,” Chu Feng said as he clasped his fist.

“You have merely met Ying Mingchao once. Yet, you are willing to charge into the Demon Elimination Cave by yourself for him. I can also tell that you are also an individual daring to love and hate,” Zi Xunyi said to Chu Feng with a smile on her face.

She had a very good impression of Chu Feng. The reason for that was precisely because Chu Feng and Ying Mingchao were unfamiliar with one another, yet Chu Feng was willing to pass on this message for him.

Of course, it could also be said that she held a favorable impression toward Chu Feng because Chu Feng had transmitted the message to her, making it possible for her to go and save Ying Mingchao.

After all, no matter what, Chu Feng’s message had not only helped Ying Mingchao, it had also helped her.

“When mentioning it, I am quite ashamed.”

Chu Feng laughed bitterly. The reason for that was because he recalled his lovers Zi Ling, Su Rou and Su Mei.

The situation for Zi Ling was still alright. She was training in the Eastern Sea Region's Heavenly Road. With his father instructing her, Chu Feng felt that Zi Ling's cultivation would definitely advance by leaps and bounds.

However, Su Rou and Su Mei's bodies were seized by the Moon Immortal. Even now, Chu Feng had no idea where they were. In fact, he didn't even know if they were dead or alive.

Chu Feng felt extremely guilty toward the sisters Su Rou and Su Mei.

"In this world, there are a lot of things that one has no way to control."

"In short, it would be fine as long as you hold a clear conscience."

Zi Xunyi had most likely seen through Chu Feng's heartache. However, she did not ask about it. She merely spoke comforting words to him.

On their journey to the Kong Heavenly Clan, Chu Feng continued to chat with Zi Xunyi. The two of them were getting along very well.

Chapter 2556 - Mysterious Individual, Blue Gown

---

At the moment when Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi were rushing toward the Kong Heavenly Clan, the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief brought with him a total of five True Immortal-level Utmost Exalted Elders and arrived in the Kong Heavenly Clan.

At that moment, they were all in a hidden palace. It was a Kong Heavenly Clan's forbidden area.

"Didn't you agree to bring all of your True Immortals over?" The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

"I have brought five of our six Utmost Exalted Elders. Is that not enough? You need to allow me to leave one behind to protect my clan, no?" The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

"Forget about it, forget about it," The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief waved his hand in a somewhat dissatisfied manner.

"Didn't you tell me to bring all of our clan's battle power over for the sake of eliminating Chu Feng?"

"Since that's the case, do you know where Chu Feng is right now?" The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief asked.

"It is best for Grandmaster Prophet to explain this to you," As the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief spoke, he opened the a door in his palace hall.

Then, a figure walked out from it.

It was a white-gowned old man. He was Grandmaster Prophet.

"Grandmaster, could it be that you managed to prophesy something?"

At that moment, the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief as well as the five Zhou Heavenly Clan's Utmost Exalted Elders all looked to the crystal ball in Grandmaster Prophet's hand.

It was the Prophecy Crystal Ball. The reason why Grandmaster Prophet's prophecies were so accurate was all because of that Prophecy Crystal Ball.

"I've prophesied that Chu Feng will arrive at the Kong Heavenly Clan in the near future," Grandmaster Prophet said.

"Arrive at the Kong Heavenly Clan? Could it be... that he's planning to take the initiative to attack you all?" The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief looked to the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

"That's most likely the case. The reason for that is because Grandmaster Prophet has prophesied that Chu Feng will not be coming alone. There will be two other individuals accompanying him," The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

"Those two other individuals must be Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang. Merely three brats, what sort of storm could they possibly raise?" The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

Right at that moment, Grandmaster Prophet added, "While it is certain that Chu Feng is coming, I am still unable to ascertain who the other two individuals are. As of now, the only thing that is certain is that one of them is a woman. As for that woman, she is a True Immortal."

"True Immortal-level woman?"

"Impossible. Regardless of how heaven-defying that Zhao Hong might be, it would still be impossible for her to raise her cultivation to the True Immortal realm in such a short period of time."

The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief revealed a tensed expression as he asked, "Chu Feng has found another helper? Could it be that he has brought forth the person behind him?"

"Didn't you say that there was a True Immortal helping Chu Feng when you were trying to eliminate him two years ago?”

“No, that’s not the case. According to our investigation, the True Immortal that helped Chu Feng two years ago was a man,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“In that case, does that mean that his backing has changed? There are others backing Chu Feng now?”

“Grandmaster Prophet, that individual... what is her cultivation?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked nervously.

If it was the same True Immortal that had helped Chu Feng two years ago, he would not be that nervous. After all, they knew that True Immortal was only a rank one True Immortal.

However, they were thinking the entire time that since Chu Feng dared to act so absolutely unrestrained in the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm, he very likely possessed a powerful character backing him.

He was afraid of that powerful character acting for Chu Feng. Most importantly, they were all uncertain as to what the cultivation of Chu Feng’s backer might be if he really did possess someone backing him.

“My apologies, as of now, this old man is only able to determine that one of the two individuals is a True Immortal. As for their exact cultivation, I am unable to predict it,” Grandmaster Prophet declared.

“Exactly who is she?” At that moment, the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief started to frown.

He was a bit panicky. After all, no matter how confident he might be, he would still fear the unknown.

Moreover, this battle concerned their life and death. In fact, it concerned the continued existence of their two clans. As such, he would naturally be worried.

“That is precisely the reason why I had you bring all of your Zhou Heavenly Clan’s battle power over,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“However, if that person is a rank three True Immortal, what are we to do then?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief suddenly asked.

“You’re scared?” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“Actually, our conflict with Chu Feng is not that deep. It would be one thing if it were only him. We naturally cannot forgive him.”

“However, if he truly possesses backing that we cannot defeat, then...” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was evidently showing signs of cowardice.

The reason for that was because he deeply believed in Grandmaster Prophet’s prophecy.

“If he possesses a rank three True Immortal behind him, then it would most definitely be someone from the Upper Realms. If the people from the Upper Realms are to interfere in this matter, I will also not resign myself to fate,” Right at that moment, a voice suddenly sounded.

Following that, a figure appeared.

This person was wearing a blue gown. The blue gown covered that individual’s facial appearance. As such, one simply could not see his facial appearance.

However, the aura he emitted was exceptionally valiant. Even the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, that rank two True Immortal, felt himself to be insignificant before that blue-gowned individual.

“This person is?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief’s expression changed. He looked at the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

The reason for that was because he did not know that individual.

However, he was able to faintly sense that this blue gowned individual was extremely extraordinary.

Else, it would be impossible for them to have not noticed him in the slightest even though he was right beside them.

“Weren’t you very curious as to why I still dared to make an enemy out of that Chu Feng after experiencing the power of his Demon Armament?”

“The reason for that is because this senior is standing behind our Kong Heavenly Clan. He is willing to support us,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief introduced.

“You can call me Blue Gown,” That mysterious blue-gowned individual said.

“Senior Blue Gown, you are willing to help us take care of that Chu Feng?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief reacted as if he had seen a savior.

Even though it was the first time he had met that Blue Gown individual, and he knew nothing about him, he was able to tell judging from the situation at hand that that mysterious individual should be from the Upper Realms.

Furthermore... he was willing to stand on their side.

If such a powerful existence were to help them, then regardless of how formidable the existence behind Chu Feng might be, they would no longer be afraid.

“I cannot attack people from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. Thus... unless there’s someone from the Upper Realms involving themselves in this matter... I cannot interfere.”

“However, I am still able to assist you all. For example, there’s this,” As the man spoke, he extended his palm.

There was a jade pendant on his palm. The pendant was gold in color and round in shape. When it appeared, it immediately unleashed an intense ancient aura.

Most importantly, on that round jade pendant were ancient characters, two large characters inscribed onto it -- Demon Suppression!!!

“Senior, is this the treasure that you mentioned?”

Upon seeing the jade pendant, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief was immediately overjoyed and filled with endless excitement.

“What is that?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked curiously.

“This is a Demon Armament Suppression Talisman. It is especially used to suppress Demon Armaments,” That Blue Gown said.

“Demon Armament Suppression Talisman? What use does it have?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

“Two years ago, Chu Feng nearly eliminated our entire Kong Heavenly Clan. At that time, no one was backing him. He relied completely on his Demon Armament that he held in his hand.”

“Senior Blue Gown mentioned before that he was capable of finding a treasure capable of suppressing Chu Feng’s Demon Armament. It is precisely due to that talisman that I dared to declare war on Chu Feng again,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

His words were absolutely not empty words.

Two years ago, after he personally witnessed the power of Chu Feng’s Evil God Sword and after Chu Feng decided to spare them for some unknown reason, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief made the decision to no longer make an enemy of Chu Feng.

The reason for that was because he knew that Chu Feng, with the power of the Demon Armament in his hand, was truly capable of completely exterminating their Kong Heavenly Clan.

Thus, even though Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang were attacking their Kong Heavenly Clan nonstop over the past two years, their Kong Heavenly Clan never really tried to suppress Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang.

They were not afraid of Zhao Hong and Wang Qiang. Rather, they were afraid of Chu Feng.

Although Chu Feng had disappeared for two years, the Kong Heavenly Clan still firmly remembered the nightmare from two years ago.

In fact, the Kong Heavenly Clan had been unable to ascertain whether or not Chu Feng would seek them for revenge, should he still be alive.

This sort of struggle and unease caused the Kong Heavenly Clan to live the past two years in great misery. This was especially true for the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief. He was practically unable to sleep properly every night.

He always had nightmares upon sleeping. It was always the same nightmare, the nightmare of Chu Feng arriving at their Kong Heavenly Clan with that Demon Armament in hand.

Then, before his face, Chu Feng beheaded everyone from their Kong Heavenly Clan. Regardless of whether they were men or women, young or old, not a single person was spared. In the end, even he himself was not spared.

Thus, he always felt that Chu Feng would one day reappear and seek revenge against their Kong Heavenly Clan.

When the news of Chu Feng's reappearance arrived not long ago, the worry that he had magnified by an unbounded amount.

Although Chu Feng did not rush to their Kong Heavenly Clan with killing desire and Demon Armament in hand, the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief felt that day would arrive sooner or later.

However, right at that moment, the mysterious blue-gowned individual appeared.

Chapter 2557 - Infiltrating The Kong Heavenly Clan

---

Blue Gown. He had arrived at the Kong Heavenly Clan on his own initiative. Furthermore, he gave the Kong Heavenly Clan two promises.

The first promise was that if there were people from the Upper Realms helping Chu Feng, he would help the Kong Heavenly Clan eliminate those people.

If there was no one from the Upper Realms helping Chu Feng, then there would not be anyone in the current Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm capable of extinguishing the Kong Heavenly Clan by themselves.

As for the second promise, he declared that he would find a treasure capable of suppressing Chu Feng's Demon Armament. Furthermore, he was willing to lend that treasure to the Kong Heavenly Clan for the time being.

He was willing to lend that treasure to the Kong Heavenly Clan until they eliminated their great enemy, Chu Feng.

It was precisely because of that that the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief dared to declare war against Chu Feng.

"But, if Chu Feng's Demon Armament is truly that powerful, will this treasure really be useful?" The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was skeptical.

Actually, he still did not firmly believe in what had happened two years ago. After all, he did not personally witness it.

He was someone who had lived for a very long time. Yet, never had he ever heard of a mere Half Martial Ancestor relying on a single Demon Armament being able to nearly eliminate a clan with several True Immortals.

Thus, he felt the entire time that it was the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief that was incompetent, that it was merely an excuse he provided for his own failure.

However, after this mysterious blue-gowned individual appeared, he started to believe it.

To put it simply, he did not believe the words spoken by the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, but he did believe this blue-gowned individual.

No matter how powerful the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief might be, he was still only someone from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm. He was someone who felt reverence toward the experts from the Upper Realm from the bottom of his heart.

This sort of reverence made it so that he would generally believe the words of experts from the Upper Realms.

Merely, after he believed that Chu Feng really possessed one such Demon Armament, he became somewhat scared.

He was afraid that the treasure given by this Blue Gown would not be able to restrain Chu Feng's Demon Armament.

If it was truly unable to restrain Chu Feng's Demon Armament, then all of them would be no match for Chu Feng.

“Regarding that, you all can rest assured. So-called Demon Armaments have appeared many times in the Upper Realms.”

“Merely, not a single Demon Armament was able to withstand the restraint brought about by this Demon Armament Suppression Talisman.”

“Even the Demon Armaments from the Ancient Era are completely useless before my Demon Armament Suppression Talisman,” Blue Gown spoke in a very certain manner.

“If that's the case, then unless that Chu Feng does not show up, the Kong Heavenly Clan will become the place where he will die.”

After that Blue Gown spoke so determinedly, the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief no longer panicked like before. An expression of anticipation actually appeared in his eyes.

“Back then, that Chu Feng was able to infiltrate our Kong Heavenly Clan’s forbidden area. He most definitely possesses a special sort of concealment method.”

“Thus, we absolutely cannot be careless,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Regarding that, you all can rest assured. Although I cannot act directly, I am still able to help you all observe things.”

“As long as Chu Feng arrives in the Kong Heavenly Clan, regardless of what sort of concealment method he might possess, I will definitely be able to detect him,” Blue Gown spoke confidently.

“In that case, we shall trouble senior,” Everyone from the Kong and Zhou Heavenly Clans present bowed to express their thanks to Blue Gown simultaneously.

The reason for that was because they all knew that whether or not they would be able to win against Chu Feng in the following battle would not depend on them. Rather, it would all be dependent on the mysterious Blue Gown from the Upper Realms.

“Prepare yourselves in the following days. That Chu Feng might show up at any moment.”

“When he arrives, I will inform you all of it,” After Blue Gown finished saying those words, he entered the void.

“Senior, please wait,” Right when Blue Gown was about to leave, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief suddenly called out.

“What is it?” Blue Gown did not reveal himself. However, his voice was still present in the palace hall.

“There is one thing that this junior’s been curious about the entire time. What sort of conflict do you have with that Chu Feng? Why are you helping us take care of him?” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief asked.

At that moment, the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, as well as the others present, including even Grandmaster Prophet, all revealed a change in expression. They also revealed curious expressions in their eyes.

Before this, none of them knew of that Blue Gown. As such, there was simply no friendship between them.

There could only be one reason for Blue Gown to come find the Kong Heavenly Clan of his own accord and decide to help the Kong Heavenly Clan take care of Chu Feng. That is, Blue Gown possessed his own conflict with Chu Feng. However, due to some sort of restriction or inconvenience, he could only have the Kong Heavenly Clan take care of Chu Feng.

“There is no conflict between me and that Chu Feng,” Blue Gown’s voice sounded.

“No conflict?” The crowd all revealed surprised expressions.

There was no conflict, yet he decided to help them take care of Chu Feng? They were truly unable to understand that Blue Gown.

The reason for that was because they never believed that something would fall into one’s lap from the sky.

At the moment when the crowd were all confused and bewildered by Blue Gown’s response, Blue Gown’s voice sounded again, “I am doing this purely out of my dislike towards that Chu Feng’s name.”

After those words were said, that Blue Gown’s voice never sounded again. He had truly left.

As for the people left behind, they were still completely bewildered.

Merely due to disliking someone's name, that mysterious Blue Gown went through that much effort to help them?

They were still unable to understand him.

Although they were unable to understand him, the corners of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's lips were raised into a pleased smile as he looked to the so-called Demon Armament Suppression Talisman in his hand.

"Chu Feng, so what if you possess a Demon Armament? So what if you possess backing?"

"As long as you dare to come, you will be digging your own grave."

"I am destined to win this battle."

.....

Chu Feng had no idea about the mysterious blue-gowned individual's involvement with the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Thus, Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi could only proceed according to their plan.

Their plan was very simple. They planned to infiltrate the Kong Heavenly Clan and rescue Ying Mingchao.

Merely, in order to prevent unnecessary conflict, they could not force their way in.

Although the Kong Heavenly Clan's battle power had been weakened beyond recognition by Chu Feng two years ago, they could not force their way in as long as the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was still there. The reason for that was because Chu Feng could not be certain as to whether or not Zi Xunyi was able to defeat the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

After all, this was the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's territory.

Furthermore, Chu Feng had now offended all four of the tier one powers. As such, he could not be certain as to whether the three other tier one powers would dispatch their experts to assist the Kong Heavenly Clan.

Thus, the most effective method for them would be to use the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

Like that, they would be able to quietly infiltrate the Kong Heavenly Clan and make a beeline for the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

After entering the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, even if the Kong Heavenly Clan were to discover them, there would be nothing they could do. The reason for that was because they did not dare to charge into the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

To Chu Feng's delight, it turned out that he was not the only one who had obtained Grandmaster Kai Hong's Inheritance. This Zi Xunyi had also obtained a portion of Grandmaster Kai Hong's inheritance over a thousand years ago.

Although the inheritance she obtained was nowhere as complete as the ones they'd obtained, Zi Xunyi was still proficient in many wondrous spirit formations. Among them was naturally the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi jointly set up the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation. After they finished setting up their Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formations, the two of them placed the spirit formations onto their bodies. Then, they directly entered the Kong Heavenly Clan.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at the moment when Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi entered the Kong Heavenly Clan, a pair of deep eyes suddenly opened.

It was Blue Gown's eyes.

“They're finally here.”

Underneath the cloak that covered his face, a gloomy yet excited voice was heard.

Chapter 2558 - Exposed

---

Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi entered the Kong Heavenly Clan with their Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation activated.

Their target was very clear: they were planning to make a beeline for the Kong Heavenly Clan's forbidden area, the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

However, right after they reached the entrance of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range, Zi Xunyi's expression took a huge change.

“Careful.”

Suddenly, Zi Xunyi pulled Chu Feng behind her.

“Boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

The next moment, many dazzling rays of light appeared in the space right before them.

It was martial power, Immortal-level martial power.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~” In response, Zi Xunyi waved her sleeve three continuous times, and surging martial power began to fly out of her sleeve.

Her martial power gathered together and began to radiate. They formed a martial power barrier before her and Chu Feng, protecting them.

“Bang, bang, bang, bang~~~”

The next moment, the martial power that had appeared before them all collided with that martial power barrier.

The powerful martial power not only caused the surrounding rocks to shatter and scatter about, leaving behind a huge crater on the ground, but it also caused many cracks to appear in the surrounding space.

However, the martial power that collided with Zi Xunyi's martial power barrier were unable to harm Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi in the slightest. They were all blocked by her martial power barrier.

At that moment, Zi Xunyi stood straight and moved her sleeve two more times, dispersing her martial power barrier.

At the same time, her figure also appeared. She had canceled her Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

Right at that at moment, Zi Xunyi's voice entered Chu Feng's ears.

"Chu Feng, we've been discovered. However, do not reveal yourself."

Zi Xunyi's intention was very clear. They had been ambushed.

However, as an experienced world spiritist, she felt that it was impossible for them to be detected, as they were using the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

It would be impossible for them to be detected... unless their opponents possessed a spirit formation capable of detecting the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

And now, as Zi Xunyi was actually detected with her opponents having already locked onto her, she had no choice but to reveal herself.

Merely, she was only thinking wishfully, and hoping that Chu Feng had not been discovered yet.

With that, even if her opponents were to be too powerful, and she was no match for them, Chu Feng, who was still concealed with the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation, would still have a chance of being able to escape.

"Chu Feng, don't bother hiding anymore. We know that you're right behind that woman."

Right at that moment, the voice of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief sounded.

Following that, the space where the several martial power attacks collided started to tremble.

Then, a total of seven figures appeared.

They were led by the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief and the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief. Standing on either side of them were the five Utmost Exalted Elders from the Zhou Heavenly Clan.

Those people were all True Immortals. Especially the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief and the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, they were both rank two True Immortals.

Thus, they were extremely imposing as they stood there. Their auras were so strong that they were like seven divine beings overlooking the mortals beneath them.

They were truly existences high and above everything else.

“How did they discover us?”

Seeing their situation Chu Feng's heart tightened. Evidently, the Kong Heavenly Clan was already prepared for them. Else, they would not have gathered this many experts.

“What's this, you do not even dare show yourself? What happened to your awe-inspiring authority from two years ago?” The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief mocked.

“Buzz~~~”

At that moment, the space behind Zi Xunyi started to wiggle. Then, Chu Feng's figure appeared.

Since he had already been discovered, there was no reason for Chu Feng to continue concealing himself. As such, he also removed the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation on him.

“Who is helping you all from the shadows? Is it that blue-gowned individual?” Chu Feng asked.

Hearing those words, the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief and the True Immortals from the Zhou Heavenly Clan all revealed a change in expression.

They never expected that Chu Feng actually knew of Blue Gown. Moreover, they never expected that Chu Feng knew Blue Gown was helping them.

"Seems like it really is him," Chu Feng said.

At the beginning, Chu Feng was only suspecting that might be the case. The reason for that was because he knew that no one in the Kong Heavenly Clan would be able to detect the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation.

Furthermore, their ancestor had also never left behind any spirit formation capable of detecting the Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation. Else... he would not have been able to successfully infiltrate the Grief Calamity Mountain Range the last time.

Thus, the first person that Chu Feng thought of was that mysterious blue-gowned individual.

That said, Chu Feng was merely questioning in an attempt to probe things previously.

However, from the reactions of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief and the others, Chu Feng was now certain that the person helping them was definitely that mysterious blue-gowned individual.

"There is simply no one helping us. For a mere brat like you, why would we need the help of others?"

"With our two clans joining hands, we are able to easily eliminate you," The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said.

With a gloomy expression on his face, the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief added, "Chu Feng, you must pay for Zhou Fukong's death."

“Humph,” Chu Feng coldly snorted upon hearing those words. A sneer emerged on his face. No matter how they tried to deny it, Chu Feng was determined that the mysterious blue-gowned individual was helping them from the shadows.

Else, with merely these people from the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan, it would simply be impossible for them to see through their Immortal-avoiding Concealment Formation, track them and accurately ambush them.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, a purple dagger appeared in both of Zi Xunyi’s hands.

Once the two purple daggers appeared, Zi Xunyi’s gown immediately started to flutter, and her long hair began to drift.

At that moment, Zi Xunyi was emitting surging purple gaseous flames from her entire body.

An ice-cold expression also appeared in her eyes. It was killing intent.

With a gaze filled with killing intent, she looked to the Kong Heavenly Clan’s crowd. With an ice-cold tone, she said, “Scram.”

“Scram? By merely you?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief sneered.

“You must be that person backing Chu Feng, right? It is no wonder this Chu Feng is so undisciplined and out of control. Turns out, you are as arrogant and conceited as him,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief mocked.

Although this was the first time they had met Zi Xunyi, they were extremely hostile toward her.

The reason for that was none other than the fact that Zi Xunyi was standing on Chu Feng’s side. Thus, they were certain that Zi Xunyi was Chu Feng’s backer.

“You spout too much rubbish,” At that moment, Zi Xunyi’s gaze grew increasingly ice-cold. After saying those words, the entire region of space around them immediately grew extremely chilly. It was as if a severe winter had suddenly descended upon the area.

“What’s this, you’re really planning to fight us?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief laughed mockingly. Although Zi Xunyi was a rank two True Immortal, he did not place Zi Xunyi in his eyes in the slightest.

“Woosh, woosh, woosh~~~”

The next moment, Zi Xunyi’s arms began to move about, and surging martial power began to gush out of her body like a flood breaking through a dam.

The martial power fused together and began to transform. Soon, it turned into countless crimson blade rays that started to fly toward the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief and the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s True Immortals.

It was a martial skill. Furthermore, it was no ordinary martial skill. Rather, it was a taboo martial skill.

Zi Xunyi knew that her opponents weren’t weak. Thus, she immediately unleashed her trump card from the very start.

The Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chiefs had already revealed their Ancestral Armaments.

Seeing Zi Xunyi’s attack, the two of them also unleashed taboo martial skills with their Ancestral Armaments to counter Zi Xunyi’s attack.

Chapter 2559 - The Reappearance Of The Demon Armament

---

“Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom~~~”

The three martial skills collided. Immediately, they brought forth massive energy ripples.

In an instant, countless surrounding buildings were destroyed.

From this, it was completely revealed how powerful True Immortals were.

Furthermore, as the two parties fighting were extremely close to one another, the power of the energy ripples were even more ferocious. As such, even Zi Xunyi herself was forced back repeatedly by the energy ripples.

Fortunately, Chu Feng was hiding behind Zi Xunyi. Otherwise, the energy ripples themselves would be sufficient to obliterate him.

As Chu Feng could not even defeat rank one True Immortals, rank two True Immortals were so powerful that they were akin to a nightmare for him.

“And here I thought that the person standing behind Chu Feng would be an expert from the Upper Realms. Turns out, it’s only someone from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan,” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said coldly.

He had already determined from the martial skill that Zi Xunyi used that she was someone from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan.

The reason for that was because the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan would never teach their martial skills to others. Thus, as of now, no one apart from the Bloodscale Monstrous Clansmen knew the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s martial skills.

“Bloodscale Monstrous Clan, you all have been withdrawn from the world's affairs for thousands of years. I had thought that you all would really continue to be hidden forever.”

“Turns out, you all have been secretly nurturing this freak Chu Feng. You all have quite the ambition,” The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief spoke with a mocking tone.

“Bloodscale Monstrous Clan, you will pay miserably for protecting that Chu Feng. Not only are you going to die today, but your Bloodscale Monstrous Clan will also be completely exterminated.”

“I will have your Bloodscale Monstrous Clan completely erased from the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm from this point on. I will make it so that there will be no information regarding you at all,” the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said while pointing at Zi Xunyi. His attitude was extremely high and above, extremely aggressive.

It was as if he would really be able to determine the fate of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan if he wanted to.

“Humph, it is not that I am looking down on you all. However, if you dare to intrude into our Demon Eliminate Cave, before you can even reach our Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's headquarters, your entire army will be utterly destroyed.”

“Eliminate us? You're speaking as if you all never planned to eliminate us to begin with. The only reason why you didn't was because you did not have the ability to do so,” Zi Xunyi mocked.

Being raised in the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan, Zi Xunyi actually knew the way the Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhou Heavenly Clan did things very well.

These two self-proclaimed righteous families were actually filled with ambitions. They had always been eyeing the treasures of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan covetously.

Merely, due to the fact that there were too many Ancient Era's slaughtering formations in the Demon Elimination Cave, they were unable to have their way the entire time.

Thus, she felt it very ridiculous for the Kong Heavenly Clan and the Zhou Heavenly Clan to proclaim that they eliminate the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan in front of her.

“You will not be able to witness whether or not we actually possess the power. After all, you will not be able to live past today.”

As the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief spoke, he unleashed his attack.

Immediately after him, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief also unleashed his attack.

Merely, this time around, their attacks were different from before. The reason for that was because even the five Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders who had been standing behind their clan chief the entire time joined in to attack Zi Xunyi.

At that moment, surging lightning was flickering on their bodies. These were not lightning from the power of their Heavenly Bloodlines. However, it greatly resembled the lightning of Heavenly Bloodlines.

The lightning emitted from their bodies started to fuse with one another. At that moment, the auras of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief and the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief grew increasingly more powerful.

A formation. It was a grand slaughtering formation, a formation that only Heavenly Bloodline possessors could set up.

“If you are to concede to us now, we can consider leaving you an intact corpse,” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said to Zi Xunyi.

“Humph,” Faced with the situation at hand, Zi Xunyi was not only unafraid; she even let out a cold snort of disdain.

Then, purple light flickered in her eyes. The next moment, the surging purple gaseous flames on her body grew even more ferocious.

“Woosh, woosh~~~”

Immediately afterward, she actually tossed away her two daggers.

At the same moment when the two purple daggers were tossed out, surging martial power was emitted without reservation.

The next moment, the two daggers started to spin simultaneously. Then, they actually started to emit purple gaseous flames. Following the daggers, the purple gaseous flames also started to rotate, forming majestic purple whirlwinds.

“That is!”

Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that the ability Zi Xunyi used was no small matter.

Not only was it an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill, but it was also an Ancestral Taboo Martial Skill that perfectly harmonized with the power of her Ancestral Armaments. The might of that attack was extremely powerful.

“Zzzzzz~~~”

Right at that moment, lightning started to flicker and surge. A large area of lightning struck down from the sky like a sea of lightning.

It was the slaughtering formation cast by the joint effort of the Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhou Heavenly Clan’s True Immortals.

In an instant, the enormous sea of lightning collided with the whirlwinds brought forth by Zi Xunyi’s daggers.

“Rumble~~~”

The next moment, rumbles began to be heard all over as sparks swirled in the air. The collision between the lightning and the purple gaseous flames created wave upon wave of powerful energy ripples that wreaked havoc throughout their surroundings.

Zi Xunyi was extremely powerful. She actually managed to block the grand slaughtering formation jointly unleashed by the Kong Heavenly Clan and Zhou Heavenly Clan's True Immortals.

Unfortunately, her powers were finite. If this were to continue, she would naturally lose.

"I shall see exactly how much longer you can persevere."

The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had evidently also noticed this. Thus, they did not utilize any other techniques, and continued to suppress Zi Xunyi with their grand slaughtering formation. They planned to have her completely exhaust her stamina and then utterly defeat her.

Not long after this battle of attrition began, Zi Xunyi's complexion grew ugly. Chu Feng knew that Zi Xunyi would not be able to persevere for long.

"Puu~~~"

Sure enough, not long after that, Zi Xunyi sprayed out a mouthful of blood. Immediately afterward, her aura grew much weaker. Her daggers that were contending against the grand Heavenly Bloodline slaughtering formation were also pushed back several meters.

Zi Xunyi hurriedly adjusted herself and continued to send forth her power to her daggers. With great difficulty, she managed to continue to persevere.

However, Chu Feng noticed that Zi Xunyi's body was trembling violently.

She was no longer able to continue to resist the grand slaughtering formation. In fact, she was on the verge of collapse.

Chu Feng knew that he could not continue to watch with folded arms.

“Eggy, I must act,” Chu Feng said to Eggy.

“Go ahead. As matters stand, you can only fight with your all,” Her Lady Queen spoke with a supporting tone.

After receiving Her Lady Queen’s approval, Chu Feng streaked his hand across his Cosmos Sack.

“Clank~~~”

The next moment, a long crimson sword appeared in Chu Feng’s hand.

Chu Feng raised the sword up high and looked to the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief. He shouted, “Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief, do you still remember this sword?”

“You!!!”

Upon seeing the Evil God Sword, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had an immediate change in expression.

The expression that appeared on his face was clearly that of fear.

He was scared. He was unable to not be scared. After all, two years ago, Chu Feng had relied on that exact same sword to nearly extinguish his entire Kong Heavenly Clan.

Due to being overwhelmingly scared, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief actually took two steps back and directly withdrew his martial power.

As one of the most important members in the slaughtering formation, his sudden withdrawal caused the grand slaughtering formation to instantly fall apart.

“Putt~~~”

At that moment, Zi Xunyi knelt in the ground and started to gasp. She was sweating profusely.

Even her two Ancestral Armament daggers directly fell to the ground.

Chu Feng was able to tell that it was fortunate that the grand slaughtering formation had fallen apart upon the withdrawal of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief. Otherwise, Zi Xunyi would most definitely have suffered serious injuries. It might even be possible for her to have been bombarded to death by them.

The reason for that was because she was no longer able to withstand the grand slaughtering formation. As long as she failed to keep it at bay, the grand slaughtering formation would strike down upon her.

If she were to be struck by such a powerful grand slaughtering formation, the aftermath... would naturally be unthinkable.

“We were about to settle them. What the hell are you doing?”

The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief looked at the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief with a puzzled expression.

He was also able to tell that they'd been about to obliterate Zi Xunyi and Chu Feng with the grand slaughtering formation.

To suddenly stop at a time like this meant that all of their efforts would be in vain. As such, he was naturally feeling very displeased.

“Demon Armament, that is the Demon Armament,” The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief pointed to Chu Feng's Evil God Sword.

When he spoke, not only was his body trembling, but even his voice was trembling.

From this, it could be seen how deeply afraid of Chu Feng's Evil God Sword he was.

Chapter 2560 - Demon Armament

Suppression Talisman

---

“So what if it’s the Demon Armament? Don’t you have the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman?” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said.

“Right, Demon Armament Suppression Talisman, I have the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman,” The Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief came to a sudden realization.

Then, he put away one of his Ancestral Armaments. He took out the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman and held it in his hand. [1. I guess he was using both of his Ancestral Armaments earlier.]

After holding the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman, the expression of the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief changed instantly.

His body was no longer shivering. Even the expression of fear on his face disappeared. In fact, he actually revealed a proud smile.

Due to being overly scared earlier, he had completely forgotten about the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman.

However, once he held the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman in his hand, he was immediately filled with confidence.

The reason for that was because he discovered that the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman in his hand was completely different from before.

Enormous power was surging within it. It was as if it had discovered its mortal enemy, and was eagerly excited to battle.

This sort of sensation was not present in the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman before Chu Feng had revealed his Evil God Sword.

This most likely meant that the reaction of the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman was brought forth by Chu Feng's Evil God Sword.

Thus, the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief started to believe with even greater certainty that the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman possessed enormous effectiveness toward Chu Feng's Demon Armament. He felt that regardless of how powerful Chu Feng's Demon Armament might be, he would not be able to unleash its might should he use the talisman.

"Chu Feng, did you really think that you could take care of our Kong and Zhou Heavenly Clans merely by relying on a Demon Armament?"

"If you think you can, then give it a try. I will let you know how incompetent you really are," The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said to Chu Feng.

The current Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief no longer possessed any of the fear he had displayed earlier. On the contrary, he now had an utterly confident expression on his face. His gaze seemed to be saying that Chu Feng was destined to be defeated by his hand today.

"Why are you suddenly so confident?"

Chu Feng's expression changed. Then, he looked to the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman that the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief held in his hand. He thought to himself, "Could it be because of that?"

Not only was the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman emitting a mysterious Ancient Era's aura, but the words 'Demon Suppression' were also inscribed onto it.

Chu Feng was able to tell with a single glance that was most definitely an extraordinary treasure.

"Chu Feng, it seems that Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief has managed to obtain a treasure capable of restraining your Evil God Sword,” Her Lady Queen said.

“Even if that is the case, I have no way to retreat from this.”

As Chu Feng spoke, he infused his power into the Evil God Sword.

The next moment, layer upon layer of crimson gaseous flames began to emit from the Evil God Sword nonstop. Then, they completely enveloped Chu Feng.

“Rumble~~~”

Right at that moment, rumbles began to sound from the sky.

Looking upward, crimson clouds were appearing above Chu Feng. Furthermore, they were rapidly spreading. In an instant, the clouds covered the entire Kong Heavenly Clan.

As the crimson clouds surged about, they only emitted a single sort of aura, a demonic aura.

“Chu Feng’s sword...”

At this moment, Zi Xunyi’s expression changed.

“Is that the power of a Demon Armament?”

Even the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief and the five Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Utmost Exalted Elders revealed a change in expression.

They were all able to sense how powerful the aura coming from Chu Feng was. It was something that they were incapable of contending against.

“This bastard.”

Sensing the power of Chu Feng’s Evil God Sword again, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief stood there stunned.

His body started to shiver. Even though he was holding the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman, he was still extremely panicky. He was simply unable to control the fear deep in his heart.

Evidently, the Evil God Sword had already left behind an unerasable shadow in his heart two years ago.

In fact, frightened screams were sounding from all over the Kong Heavenly Clan at that moment, furthermore, the Kong Heavenly Clansmen were frantically flying away from their clan so as to escape into the distance.

Those were all Kong Heavenly Clansmen who had experienced the might of the Evil God Sword two years ago.

Not only did the massacre from two years ago leave a shadow in the heart of the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, it had also left a shadow in the hearts of those fleeing Kong Heavenly Clansmen.

The moment when they felt the aura of the Evil God Sword again, their hearts' defenses instantly crumbled.

At that moment, the entire Kong Heavenly Clan entered a state of chaos.

"Why are you still standing there blankly, use the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman!" The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief started to urge the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

"No, it-it's useless. That Demon Armament is too powerful, even the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman will not be able to restrict it. We are doomed today."

The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had lost his head in fear, and actually started to back away from Chu Feng repeatedly. The desire to escape filled his heart.

He had also crumbled before the might of the Evil God Sword. He discovered that his previous confidence was merely self-deception.

When he felt the destructive power of the Evil God Sword again, he once again felt fear from the bottom of his heart.

At that moment, he felt that regardless of what sort of aura the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman might be emitting in his hand, it would still not be able to suppress Chu Feng's Demon Armament.

Thus, he felt that that day would likely become their doomsday. Chu Feng had once again brought upon them the disaster of their clan's elimination.

“Give it to me.”

The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief directly grabbed the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman from the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief's hand.

“Chu Feng, don't you act arrogant. This Demon Armament Suppression Talisman specializes in subduing Demon Armaments.”

“Even if your Demon Armament possesses overwhelming power, you will still not be able to unleash it today. The power of your Demon Armament will be purified by this. You will become completely powerless.”

After the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said those words, he instilled his martial power into the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman. Then, the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman started to glow with golden light, The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief also started to glow dazzling gold.

It was as if the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief had fused with the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman.

Once that golden radiance appeared, the crimson gaseous flames emitted by Chu Feng were immediately suppressed.

At that moment, the crimson gaseous flames that covered the sky earlier had completely disappeared. Only the Evil God Sword in Chu Feng's hand was still emitting crimson gaseous flames.

Chu Feng shouted “Oh no!” in his heart. Holding the Evil God

Sword, he was able to sense that the power of the Evil God Sword was being suppressed. He was simply unable to unleash the power of the Evil God Sword.

That so-called Demon Armament Suppression Talisman was actually really capable of suppressing the power of the Evil God Sword.

“Trash, hand your body over to this god, this god will extinguish them for you.”

Right at that moment, Chu Feng suddenly heard a voice. It was the Evil God Sword’s voice.

“You want me to hand my body to you? Never!!!” Chu Feng refused.

He understood what the Evil God Sword meant. Right now, Chu Feng was only using the Evil God Sword. Thus, he was still in control.

As for the Evil God Sword, what it proposed was for it to gain control.

Chu Feng knew very well how frightening the killing intent the Evil God Sword possessed was. It was an existence filled with murderous desire. It was a true demon.

No matter how fierce and malicious the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm might be, they would simply pale into insignificance when compared with the Evil God Sword.

If he were to truly hand his body to the Evil God Sword, Chu Feng would likely become the embodiment of the Evil God. At that time, an enormous disaster would truly befall the people of the Hundred Refinements Ordinary Realm.

Furthermore, Chu Feng was unable to be certain whether or not the Evil God Sword would really be able to resist the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman if he were to truly hand his body to the Evil God Sword.

What if the Evil God Sword was simply no match for it?

Or what if it was capable of withstanding the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman but refused to do so? What if those enticing words spoken by the Evil God Sword were merely its evil scheme?

Perhaps it never planned to help Chu Feng to begin with, and only wanted to use this opportunity to devour Chu Feng's body.

After all, legends had it that the previous masters of the Evil God Sword had all mysteriously disappeared.

Furthermore, according to the rumors, they were all devoured by the Evil God Sword.

Thus, Chu Feng was very cautious when it came to the Evil God Sword.

Chapter 2561 - The Third Prophesied Person

---

“Did you see that? The Demon Armament that you’re so scared of is merely this,” The Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief said to the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

Actually, there was no need for the Zhou Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief to call this to attention, as the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had witnessed everything that had happened.

“Worked, it really worked. The Demon Armament Suppression Talisman really worked!”

“Hahaha...”

At that moment, the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief had completely changed. Not only was he no longer afraid, but he even let out frantic laughter.

It was as if his feelings that had been repressed for so long were finally able to be unleashed.

Then, he looked to Chu Feng with eyes filled with complacency. Loudly, he said, “Chu Feng, so what if you possess a Demon Armament? Are you able to unleash its powers?”

“Today, that Demon Armament of yours will be purified, and you will be killed here.”

“Damn it.”

At that moment, Chu Feng began to pour all of his power into the Evil God Sword.

He did not give his body to the Evil God Sword. However, he unleashed his greatest power to urge the Evil God Sword to give out greater strength.

“Roar~~~”

At that moment, the Evil God Sword immediately had a reaction.

Surging crimson gaseous flames once again started overflowing from it. The crimson clouds once again appeared in the sky.

Although the crimson gaseous flames were inferior to before, as they were being suppressed by the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman, they managed to cover a fifth of that entire region.

Furthermore, they were gradually expanding in size.

The Evil God Sword's power was currently recovering.

“Don't even think of it!”

Seeing that, the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief tossed his Demon Armament Suppression Talisman toward the sky.

“Buzz~~~”

After being unleashed by the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief and entering the sky, the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman reacted as if it had been liberated.

Not only was the golden radiance it emitted even more dazzling, but many characters began to appear on the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman.

Those characters started to float out from the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman, and began to spread everywhere with the golden radiance.

It was as if the golden radiance was the sea, and the characters were fishes in the sea.

Just like that, those characters started to surge forth in the sea, covering all the locations that the golden radiance had spread to.

Those were very ancient characters. They were most likely characters from the Ancient Era. As such, they could not be interpreted.

However, after those characters appeared, the power of the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman grew even more powerful.

In fact, Chu Feng and the others were even able to hear an ancient voice being emitted by the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman nonstop.

They were simply unable to make sense of that voice. However, they felt a very sacred sensation upon hearing it.

At that moment, even though Chu Feng was going all-out to urge the Evil God Sword, the crimson gaseous flames emitted by the Evil God Sword were still being suppressed. Chu Feng was unable to unleash the power of the Evil God Sword.

Under such circumstances, Chu Feng's Evil God Sword started to tremble violently. It was as if it was feeling extremely unreconciled.

“Bastard brat, hand your body over to this Evil God. Let this Evil God destroy that thing.”

At that moment, the Evil God Sword's voice was sounding in Chu Feng's ears nonstop. Its tone was filled with anger.

It was reacting as if someone had desecrated it. It was determined to inflict punishment upon that person. It was determined to reveal its power.

However, Chu Feng felt even greater murderous desire from the Evil God Sword's voice.

Under such circumstances, Chu Feng was even more reluctant to hand his body to the Evil God Sword.

“Why are you still standing there? Eliminate him immediately!” The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief shouted at the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

Although the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was able to suppress Chu Feng's Evil God Sword using the power of the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman, he was evidently unwilling to continue their stalemate. He was determined to quickly kill Chu Feng because he felt that there would be hidden dangers if Chu Feng were to be kept alive any longer.

After all, he had already personally experienced the aura of Chu Feng's Demon Armament. Fortunately, they possessed the Demon Armament Suppression Talisman. Otherwise, he also felt that they'd have all been killed.

By relying only on their own strength, none of the people present would be able to contend against Chu Feng's Evil God Sword.

"There's no need for you to remind me."

The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief held his Ancestral Armament in hand and began to fly toward Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi.

Merely, his target was not Zi Xunyi, but rather Chu Feng.

The person he wanted to kill the most was Chu Feng. The reason for that was because he felt the greatest threat right at that moment to be Chu Feng.

"Clank~~~"

Right at that moment, Zi Xunyi who was half kneeling on the floor and in extremely weak health suddenly stood up.

At the moment she stood back up, the two Ancestral Armament daggers that had landed not far away also flew into her hands.

"Scram!"

Zi Xunyi's arms moved as two blade rays shot out from her Ancestral Armament daggers. The two blade rays criss-crossed one another as they were shot out to cut the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief down.

"Humph, the current you will not be able to stop me," The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief sneered.

Then, he lightly waved his Ancestral Armament and easily dispersed Zi Xunyi's blade rays.

Following that, he slashed down with his Ancestral Armament in Chu Feng's direction.

Before the Ancestral Armament reached Chu Feng, the blade ray that it sent forth was on its way to cut down Chu Feng.

With the might and distance of this attack, Chu Feng would not be able to avoid it. If he was struck by it, his body and soul would be completely shattered and he would undoubtedly die.

“Woosh~~~”

Right at that moment, Zi Xunyi appeared before Chu Feng. She placed the daggers in her hand before him and forcibly blocked the incoming blade ray.

“Puu~~~”

However, after blocking the blade ray, Zi Xunyi was not only knocked back several steps, but she also vomited a mouthful of blood.

Then, she sat powerlessly beside Chu Feng. Zi Xunyi's injuries were extremely serious; she simply did not have the strength to continue battling. She was totally putting her life on the line to block the attacks from the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

“Look at yourself, you're still trying to protect him?” The Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief said to Zi Xunyi mockingly.

“As long as I am still alive, you can forget about touching him in the slightest.”

Zi Xunyi stood back up with great difficulty and once again walked before Chu Feng, shielding him behind her.

Firm determination filled her eyes.

At that moment, Chu Feng's heart was moved.

Zi Xunyi and him were only people that had just met. Even though they got along very well, there was still no reason for her to go so far.

Yet, Zi Xunyi had decided to do so. She was willing to sacrifice herself to protect him.

Oh how loyal and righteous she was. “Very well, since you insist on it, I will kill you first.”

As the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief spoke, he slashed his Ancestral Armament at Zi Xunyi.

Zi Xunyi tried her best to unleash her martial power. However, as if her martial power was completely extracted from her, she was unable to unleash anymore of her martial power.

The current her was simply powerless to block the attack from the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

“Clank~~~”

However, right at that moment, a large crimson blade suddenly stood horizontally before Zi Xunyi, blocking the attack from the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief.

At that moment, Chu Feng’s expression changed greatly. It was not only Chu Feng; the expressions of everyone present had changed greatly.

The reason for that was because not only did a large crimson blade appear, but a figure was also standing before Zi Xunyi.

That person was wearing armor. Although he had a humanoid appearance, he was not human. The reason for that was because his skin was completely covered in crimson scales.

That said, his aura was extremely powerful. He was a rank two True Immortal.

That person was the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan Chief. With an Ancestral Armament blade in hand, he blocked the Kong Heavenly Clan’s Clan Chief’s attack.

“Clank~~~”

Right at that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan’s Clan

Chief suddenly waved his blade. He actually managed to force the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief back.

The power behind his slash was so strong that the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was pushed several thousand meters away. Even the Ancestral Armament the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief held in his hand was trembling violently.

“You dared injure her, all of you shall die!!!”

Right at that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief let out an incomparably furious roar.

It was as if Zi Xunyi was his dragon's forbidden inverse scale. Whoever dared to touch her would be met with death.

Chapter 2562 - Finally Meeting Ying Mingchao

---

The sudden arrival of the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief shocked the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief and the Zhou Heavenly Clan's True Immortals.

They suddenly recalled Grandmaster Prophet's prophecy. He had prophesied that three people would arrive.

However, they had overlooked that third individual. Furthermore, none of them expected that third individual to be a rank two True Immortal.

"Take this. It will heal your injuries. After that... go and save him. I will help you keep these people at bay," The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief handed Zi Xunyi a medicinal pellet.

"Zhenping," At that moment, Zi Xunyi looked at the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief with a very complicated expression.

Evidently, she had never expected the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief to be willing to come assist her even after how cruelly she refused him.

He was willing to come assist her in saving his rival in love.

"Don't say anything."

"Just go and save him."

The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief smiled faintly at Zi Xunyi. That smile of his was so very gentle.

Even though Chu Feng was a man, his heart was also moved upon seeing that smile.

At that moment, Chu Feng knew how much the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief loved Zi Xunyi.

If Zi Xunyi's love for Ying Mingchao was so rare and deep that she was willing to give up her life and abandon everything for him, then the love the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief had toward Zi Xunyi was the same.

His love for her also penetrated deep into his bones. He was willing to abandon everything for her.

Even Chu Feng, an outsider, was moved by him. As such, Chu Feng could very well imagine what Zi Xunyi was feeling in her heart.

At that moment, Zi Xunyi's eyes became moist. She seemed to want to say something.

However, right at that moment, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief suddenly turned around. He looked to the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief and the Zhou Heavenly Clan's True Immortals.

At that moment, he no longer had a gentle smile on his face. All there was on his face was a very fierce expression and frightening killing intent.

“You dare touch my woman?! You shall all die!!!”

Then, the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief soared into the sky. With the crimson blade in hand, he charged toward the Kong Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief.

“Chu Feng, let's go.”

Seeing that, Zi Xunyi immediately swallowed the medicinal pellet. Then, she grabbed Chu Feng and began to rush toward the direction of the Grief Calamity Mountain Range.

“Where do you think you can escape to?!” Seeing that scene, the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief immediately chased after them.

Their main target was Chu Feng. As such, he would naturally not allow Chu Feng to escape easily.

“Rumble~~~”

However, right at that moment, a slash was sent toward him, forcibly making him stop his chase them.

It was the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.

"Your opponent is me!" The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief shouted coldly.

His voice was akin to thunder. It was truly awe-inspiring.

As for the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief, he completely ignored the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief and continued to chase after Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi.

"Rumble~~~"

Another slash was sent forth, blocking the path of the Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief again.

"I said, your opponent is me!" The Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief shouted again.

"Very well, since you wish to die this much, I will help you."

The Zhou Heavenly Clan's Clan Chief was infuriated. He decided to ignore Chu Feng and Zi Xunyi, and instead charged toward the Bloodscale Monstrous Clan's Clan Chief.
